CONSTRUCT NEW HOMES

Old Bank Building Used For

Addition; Wages Soar

By Miss Emma S. Maclary
Newport, Jan. 20.—A review of business conditions in the Newport
section for the past year, reveals the fact that there has been a marked increase in the transport of materials
shipped in and out of the manufacturing plants.

C. E. McVey, general agent, at the Newport freight station, which has been reinstated as a Class 1 freight
station of the Pennsylvania Railroad,
based on the volume of business handled by this point during the past year, has announced that 12,151 loaded freight cars were handled in and out of this point in 1936, which is an increase of 1,975 cars over 1935.

Much Trucking Reported
It is also estimated that during the year 1936 there were 15,000 truck loads of material moving through this center to and from the plants here.

It is estimated that there is over a million dollars worth of freight business done by this point during the period of a year.

Big Building Boom

During 1936 there have been 42
new homes erected in this vicinity.
Civic improvements are constantly being made. Fifteen thousand feet of 15-inch storm sewer has just been laid on James Street to carry off
surplus water after storms. An additional 1,500 feet of water and sewer pipes have recently been laid on Marshall and Walnut streets.

The old bank property located on Market Street has been remodeled into a modern apartment house known as the "Kenlyn." Remodeling work
has also been done on many homes,
and improvements and enlargements
made to business places. There is a new manufacturing plant just getting underway.

Church Plans Addition

The Newport M. E. Church has just completed plans for an addition to the present facilities, which will include new quarters for the Sunday School, as well as suitable rooms for holding meetings of various church organizations.

There is a much better trend in business generally in this area, practically all residents of the section
having secured steady work, and most of the manufacturing plants in the community having increased the wage
of their employees.

Work will be started soon on the

BIBLE CLASS OF M. E. ORGANIZES

Officers of the Women's Bible Class of the Newark M. E. Church were elected at the regular monthly business session held Tuesday night.
Those who will take office are: president, Mrs. Florence Sheldon; vice-president, Miss Emma Willis; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Marguerite Ramsey; chairman of publicity, Mrs.
Margaret K. Rumer; flower committee, Mrs. Enos Walls, chairman; Mrs.
Florence Leverage and Mrs. Ida
Eastburn; sick committee, Mrs. Alma Chalmers, chairman, Mrs. Ann Cor-nog, Mrs. John Steele and Mrs. Norma Thomas.

Mrs. Ann Cornog told about her recent trip through the West.

Next Meeting Feb. 15

The next meeting will be held in the church on Monday evening, February 15, with Mrs. T. A. Manns in charge of the program and Mrs. Alma Chalmers, Mrs. Phoebe Beers and Mrs. Carrie Alfred as hostesses.

Three trustees as well as a delegate
and alternate to the annual conference will be elected at the annual meeting of the congregation of the church on Thursday, February 4. The delegate will be elected for a period of four years. The fourth quarterly conference will follow this meeting
and the Rev. Dr. Walter E. Gunby,
district superintendent, will preside.

"Fine" System Irks

Their nerves near the breaking point in prospect of the annual bugaboo—mid-term examinations now being held—University of Delaware students
were taken aback this week
upon reading of the new "fine"
system installed at the University of Oklahoma.

The system, according to President W. B. Bizzell, is an experiment to lift student grades—not to enrich the school
treasury. The $3 fine each semester-hour failed goes into effect the second semester. There is no interest in the money at all as far as the university is concerned," Dr. Bizzell explained.
"The hope is that it will stimulate students to pass their courses."

Delaware students, however,
complain of lean allowances and
live in hope that Dean Dutton
doesn't adopt the Oklahoma idea.

LIMITED CREDIT GETS ATTENTION

Business Men Consider Plan
For Forming Bureau; Cite
Too Many Liberties

Marking the first united step attempted by local business leaders in almost nine years, prospects for the formulation of a credit bureau to operate in Newark and vicinity were discussed Monday night.

Twenty business men responded to the joint call issued by Weldon C.
Waples and George F. Jackson in a move to either interest the Wilmington Credit Bureau in establishing a branch here, or to form a strictly local combine.

While Mr. Waples, who presided
at the informal session, was able to present important details relating to operating costs and the like, definite action was deferred until more missionary work can be accomplished.

Meet Next Week

Another meeting will be held Monday night at the Council of Newark offices when William Tally, president of the Wilmington organization, will offer suggestions and complete information.

Feeling that customers here take too many liberties with the generous and informal credit extended in Newark, merchants are anxious to halt
the practice of shoppers who shift
their business from one competitor to the next without settling for accounts.

Quiet investigations during the last month disclosed the fact that delinquent accounts belonging to the same people exist on as many as five different sets of books. The investigations indicate that some people are willing to buy from one concern as long as credit is extended, and then shift to a competitor, asking for further credit, when steps are taken for collection of the initial account.

Representatives There

In addition to Waples who represented the Newark Lumber Co., and Jackson, representing his own hardware business, other leaders present were: W. A. Seydell, C. E. Rittenhouse, R. S. Jarmon, I. Newton
Sheaffer, W. E. Renshaw, Clarence
Reynolds, Herman Wollaston, H. H.
Gray, C. E. Ewing, Dr. G. W. Rhodes,
E. F. Richards, R. J. Boyd, J. E.
Dougherty, George M. Haney, Jack
Dennison and M. Pilnick.

New Century Club Visits At New Castle Tomorrow

Members of the Newark New Century Club will attend at reciprocity meeting at New Castle Friday afternoon, it was announced by Mrs. R.
T. Jones, president of the local body
at the regular bi-monthly session on Monday.

Following a short business session,
Miss Josephine St. Mary of the E. I.
duPont de Nemours Company's research staff, delivered a discourse on the manufacture of perfumes.

Miss St. Mary gave a few highlights in the history of the use of perfumes, including their use in religious ceremonies and other functions. She discussed the manufacture of perfumes from natural animal and floral oils, and traced the development of the synthetic oils now in large use in the industry.

Mrs. Joseph M. McVey was chair-
woman of the meeting.

Local P.-T. A. Meeting

The next meeting of the Newark Parent-Teacher Association will be held on Thursday evening, January 28, in the Newark High School at eight o'clock.

Miss Etta Wilson, executive secretary of the Delaware Citizens Association, will be the speaker. Her topic will be "Establishment of a Bureau of Child Welfare in the State Board of Charities," it was announced this week by Dr. J. Fenton Daugherty, president.

Farm Tenancy in United States Grows But Delaware's Figures Show Decrease

In spite of the fact that farm tenancy for the United States as a whole is increasing yearly, figures released
by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, show that the percentage of farmland under lease to operators in Delaware had decreased from 60 per cent in 1900 to 46 per cent in 1935 and that the proportion of land operated by tenants and crop-
pers had decreased from 50 per cent
in 1900 to 35 per cent in 1935.

Losing Ownership

The bureau reports that the entire country "owner-operated farms outnumber tenant farms, and owner-operated farm acreage exceeds tenant-operated farm acreage. But the general trend has been toward tenancy with a lessening ratio of equity in farm real estate held by farm operators. In brief, farmers throughout the nation are gradually losing ownership
of the land."

The summary report shows the proportion of the nation's farms operated by tenants or croppers increased from 35 per cent at the turn of the

ANNOUNCE SLASH ICE CREAM WILL IN PHONE RATES BE CHIEF TOPIC

Monthly Reductions for All Residence Subscribers
Effective Feb. 6

Reductions in monthly telephone rates for all residence subscribers in Newark and immediate vicinity have been announced by the Diamond State Telephone Company.

Under the new schedule of rates for residence telephone service, effective with the February 6 bills, individual lines will be reduced from $3.00 to $2.65 and party lines from $2.00 to $1.85. Also, extension telephones will be reduced from 75 cents to 50 cents.

Murphy Cites Savings

Together with reductions being made in other communities throughout the state, Delaware telephone users will save $61,000 annually, according to J. Edward Murphy, manager for the telephone company, who said that approximately 94 per cent
of the residence subscribers and 57
per cent of the business subscribers
will share in the savings.

This makes the second reduction in telephone rates in the past seven months. Last summer rates for all classes of residence service were reduced twenty-five cents a month.

Improved Conditions

Mr. Murphy pointed out that when
this is added to the present reductions
it means a saving of 60 cents a month
to individual lines subscribers and 40
cents a month to party line subscribers. Throughout the state, as a result of the two reductions, telephone users will save $110,000 annually.
"These reductions in rates," Mr.

School for Counter Freezer
Operators Announced
for Jan. 28-29

Ice cream, in spite of the cold weather expected in January, will be the chief topic of discussion at a school for counter freezer operators,
which is to be held at the University
of Delaware, Jan. 28 and 29.

Professor T. A. Baker, of the Department of Animal Industry at the university, who is in charge of the school, announced that several manufacturers of counter freezer equipment would cooperate with the university by loaning equipment to be used in demonstrations.

Divided Duties

Professor W. F. Lindell, of the School of Mechanical Engineering, is to be in charge of the mechanical aspects of the school, while Professor Baker will be in charge of the dairy
side of the program.

Baker emphasized the fact that the purpose of the school is strictly educational and that there would be no
commercial displays or advertising permitted.

Included on the tentative program
are talks by C. S. Clark, Chicago, secretary of the National Association of Counter Freezer Manufacturers, and W. W. Scofield, Trenton, of the New Jersey State Board of Health.

Machine Demonstration

G. L. Gibson, Chicago, of the research division of the Mills Novelty Company, is scheduled to give a demonstration of machine operation.

Detailed information concerning the School for Counter Freezer Operators may be obtained by writing
Professor T. A. Baker, Department of Animal Industry, University.

McClellandville Girl Named Aide to McMullen

Miss Grace I. Ferguson, McClellandville, has recently been chosen by Richard C. McMullen, Jr., as his secretary at the Standard Division of the Allied Kid Company in Wilmington.

Miss Ferguson replaces Miss Elizabeth J. Newkirk of Bellefonte, who left the company to go to Dover as secretary to Governor Richard C. Mc-Mullen, Sr.

Ambulance Chassis Is Delivered At Boyertown

Announcement was made this week
by George M. Haney, manager of the Wilmington Auto Sales Company of Newark, that the chassis for the new community ambulance was delivered to the Boyertown Auto Body Works at Boyertown, Pa., last Friday.

Delivery of the completed ambulance is expected around Washington's Birthday, Mr. Haney stated.

It was also made public that the vehicle will be equipped with a special set of heavy duty tires at no extra cost. The added installation was contributed by William Lower,
vice president of the Tire Center, Wilmington.

STATE REINS NOW HANDLED BY NEW HEAD

McMullen Assumes Office As Governor; Cooch-Fader in Prominent Roles

NEW SECRETARY SWORN

Buck Accompanies Successor
to Ceremony; Marchers
Drenched by Rain

With a simple but sensible keynote speech of "wise economy," Richard Cann McMullen of Wilmington, who took the oath of office as the state's fifty-eighth Governor, was inducted
as Delaware's chief executive at Dover on Tuesday. His succession to the highly important post marked the end of a Republican reign that has carried through a span of 36 years.

Sworn into office by Chancellor Josiah O. Wolcott before a throng that packed the Capital Theatre and overflowed into the rain-swept streets,
the new Governor emphasized the importance of responsibility to the state
and its people over that due any political party.

Leaders Are Present

Occupying seats on the stage when Governor McMullen took the oath of office were: the retiring Governor C.
Douglass Buck; Edward W. Cooch,
who previously had been sworn in as lieutenant-governor by Chancellor Wolcott at an earlier session of the State Senate; Speaker of the House
John R. Fader; U. S. Senators John
G. Townsend, Jr., and James H.
Hughes; and U. S. Representative
William F. Allen.

The ceremony began at 11:15 o'clock
when Governor Buck left the executive's parlors in the Legislative Building and was escorted by a picked detail from the National Guard and a band to the home of Charles L. Terry, Jr., where he met the incoming Governor.

Riding side by side, they were escorted to the theatre, and Governor Buck escorted the Governor-elect to the stage.

Parade in Rain

The parade after the ceremonies
ended at the Legislative Building
where Governor and Mrs. McMullen, Adj.-Gen. W. E. Stover, who was marshall of the procession, and the three military aides, stood in the rain
to review the marchers.

Following the parade, the party moved into the building which was crowded by hundreds waiting to greet the new executive.

Governor McMullen and his party
formed a receiving line and for more than an hour greeted a stream of people. Meanwhile, the National Guard Band gave a concert in the Senate chamber.

Terry Gets Commission

The first official act of the new Governor was to sign the commission of Charles L. Terry, Jr., whom he had

DEMENTED NEGRO IS APPREHENDED

Harry Tunnell, 34-year-old Negro,
who escaped from the Delaware State Hospital, Farnhurst, last Saturday,
was captured here Monday by Officer LeRoy C. Hill of the local force.

An inmate at the institution for the last six years, Tunnell disappeared during an assignment in the kitchen. He later turned up at the home of a brother, Fred, in Georgetown,
who brought him to Newark.

Wanted to See Children

According to the police, Tunnell
wanted to see his children, who live
here, before returning to Farnhurst.
He was picked up outside the New London Avenue School, following a complaint by relatives.

Hill learned that he had spent Saturday and Sunday nights in a railroad station at Harrington before going to Georgetown. The man was turned over to a social service worker.

Second Man Escapes

Police are looking for Harry Bishop, white, 21 years old, height 5-feet 8-inches and weighing about 145
pounds, who escaped from the same hospital on Tuesday night.

Bishop left Farnhurst about two years ago without permission and was absent for six months before he was apprehended in Texas.

BIBLE CLASS MAY PRESENT EASTER PLAY

Talk Over Plans at Meeting
Wednesday; 8 to Receive
Grange Service Pins

ACTIVE FOR 25 YEARS

By Miss Sarah A. Pennington
Merrill, Del., Jan. 20.—The Young Women's Bible Class of Red Clay Creek Church School was entertained last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lewis Springer in Marshallton. The class discussed sponsoring an Easter pageant, and another covered dish supper. No definite arrangements were made for either activity. Those present were: Mrs. Joseph Pearson, teacher, Mrs. Marvin Klair, Miss Elizabeth Talley, Miss Catherine Mullins, Miss Elva Minner, Miss Carolyn Mullins, Miss Mabel Porter, Miss Laura Porter, Miss Ruth Ball, Miss Mildred Palmer, Miss Sara Pennington, Mr. Harold Narvel, Mr. and Mrs. Springer. Miss Talley will be the hostess in February.

Little Miss Mary Louise Jarrell was hostess to all the students of Harmony rural school last Wednesday at a birthday party held following the afternoon session. Mary Louise was celebrating her eleventh birthday anniversary. She is in the sixth grade. Mrs. Annie Atwell spent Thursday with Mrs. Harry Brackin.

Family Has Influenza
The entire family of Dudley Vansant is down with the flu. Mr. Vansant, his wife, and their four children were stricken on Sunday. The Visiting Nurses Association, the Hockessin branch of the Needlework Guild, and neighbors have been caring for them. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skinner, Charles Skinner, Jr., and Mr. Carpenter, Mrs. Skinner's father, motored to Charlottesville, Va., on Saturday. Mr. Carpenter was returning to his home after visiting in Delaware and New Jersey.

Cards have been received from Mr. Abner Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Derickson telling of their enjoyable trip through Florida. The Dericksons have located in St. Petersburg, Florida, for the remainder of the winter. Mr. Woodward will return to Delaware next week.

Wilmington Guest
Miss Louise Lee was the guest of Mrs. William Huxtable of Wilmington last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Biddle, of Ridley Park, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garton, of Chester, Pa., were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brackin.

Harmony Grange, No. 12, met Monday evening for its weekly session. Ralph L. Klair presided. Reports were given by the visiting committee of Mrs. Anna J. Dennison who is still confined to her room. The home economics committee was instructed to purchase one dozen fourth degree pins to have on display next week. As there are eight members eligible for silver star certificates denoting 25 years continuous membership, the grange voted to obtain them from the National Grange.

Enjoy Guest Program
A program devoted to the study of Edgar A. Guest, his life and his poems, was enjoyed. Miss Margaret Derickson told of his garden. His life was reviewed by Mrs. Ruby Woodward. A stunt showing Guest's style of hair dress was given by six men and six women. Poems of the various type written by Guest were read as follows: "At Christmas," by Joseph Mitchell; "Teamwork" by B. W. Hicks; "Pride" by Mrs. Paul Mitchell; "Quatrains" by Mrs. L. H. Pennington; "Friends" by Walter Skinner; "Pa Did It" by Mrs. Mary Walker; "Man's Name" by Steele Atwell. Next week, the members will compose a journal.

Miss Eleanor Nelson of Elsmere was a week-end guest of Miss Dorothy Skinner.

C. E. Society Meets
Members of the Red Clay Creek C. E. Society gathered at the home of Miss Elizabeth Keidel on Lancaster Pike Sunday evening following the service at the church, for an old fashioned hymn sing. The society started this plan Sunday evening, January 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peach of Wilmington were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pennington.

Miss Marion Harvey and her mother, of Thorndale Pa., were callers on Saturday of Mrs. J. W. Pennington.

W. P. Naudain, a prominent Democrat, being president of the Hundred Democratic Club, was in Dover on Tuesday to witness the inauguration of Governor Richard C. McMullen.

Mrs. Mary Dennison who has been confined to her home for over a week with sciatic rheumatism, is now able to be up and around her home.

Big Sales Greet Book by Francis Cooch in Month

Francis A. Cooch's first literary effort—"Little Known History of Newark, Delaware, and Its Environs"—which was placed on the market shortly before Christmas, has been greeted with ready response by the reading public.

Information to that effect has been forthcoming from Rhodes Drug Store, here; the Greenwood Book Shop and Butler's, Wilmington, where retail distribution of the book has taken place. The Press of Kells, publishers of the volume, likewise report that orders have been steadily increasing.

Author Gratified
Mr. Cooch, who is a vice president and trust officer of the Equitable Trust Company, Wilmington, is greatly pleased over the public's response to his efforts.

Noted for his authentic articles on Newark and environs published frequently in THE NEWARK POST and Wilmington newspapers, Mr. Cooch has read many of his papers before historical societies.

Included in the book is a chapter, "A Study of New Castle County, Delaware, in Colonial Days from a Cultural Viewpoint," which Mr. Cooch has read before the Friends of Old Drawyers Presbyterian Church.

LANDENBERG

By Mrs. John Jagger
Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMillan, Mrs. Laura Lund, Mrs. Jennie Crossan, Mrs. Frank Dripps autotoed to West Chester on Thursday evening and called on Mrs. Fannie Reeves.

Mrs. George F. Holton who has been quite ill at her home here is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Raymond West returned to her home from the hospital on Tuesday after undergoing an operation.

The Baldwin farm near Landenberg consisting of a twelve-room stone dwelling, together with 144 acres of ground has been sold to Mrs. Mary Hall Shmideiser of Moylan, Rose Valley. Her husband is president of a brokerage concern in Philadelphia. The owner will take possession at an early date, when repairs will be made.

T. Joseph Sheehan has been confined to the house, a victim of grip. The Aid Society held a rummage sale last week, and have about $15 to add to their treasury.

The Ladies Aid were entertained at the home of Mrs. William Lafferty on Thursday afternoon, with the following ladies present: Mrs. Ernest Boyd, Mrs. May Bryan, Mrs. Ernest Crossan, Mrs. Frank Dripps, Mrs. Martha Thomas, Mrs. A. N. Valentine, Mrs. Harry McComsey. One visitor, Rev. Donald A. Ottinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Holton visited with relatives at Conestoga on Sunday.

The North Bank Home and School League held a dance in the hall on Friday evening.

Miss Mary Desmond has accepted a position in the office of the American Road Machine Company at Kennett Square.

Francis Sheehan, James Crossan, Carl Crossan, George Hendrickson, Everett Hendrickson attended a Larrows company banquet at Lancaster on Monday evening.

Elaine Newlin, Grace Bryan, Robert Crossan, Junior Sheehan were among the ones from their school who spent the day in Philadelphia on Saturday.

Trade Agreements and Milk Are Main Topics

Legislation for regulating milk markets and the effects of reciprocal trade agreements on the nation's dairy industry are to be the chief topics for discussion by several hundred milk producers who are expected to attend the annual meeting of the Northeastern Dairy Conference which will be held in the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Jan. 27 and 28.

IT'S MORE THAN A PARTY AFFAIR

The State—its people, interests and affairs—should come before the obligations any man or woman in public office owes to a political subdivision.

Encouragement that he would follow such an idea was given by Governor McMullen in his inaugural speech at Dover this week. The new executive stated, "the Governor of Delaware is not the Governor of a political party. He is the Governor of this State, which embraces within its citizenry men and women of all political persuasions, of varying stations in life, and of diverse views. I very sincerely covet from my fellow citizens, regardless of their stations in life, whether they be among the rich or poor, a deserved reputation among them of being a Governor who strives as best he may to administer the affairs of state with an eye single to its welfare and with a solicitude that the confidence which has been so conspicuously reposed in him shall at the end of his term of service be generally conceded not to have been misplaced."

Governing with that thought ever foremost in his mind should aid the new leader to a successful reign in office. His party will benefit therefrom.

Credit for such service must needs be given to Walter Dent Smith who retired as Secretary of State on Tuesday. Realizing the importance of his position and the trust placed in him by the people of Delaware, Mr. Smith lost no time following the election in November to invite his successor, when appointed, to join him for the purpose of arranging the change of officials and personnel without undue inconvenience to patrons and taxpayers.

When Charles L. Terry, Jr., was named, he accepted Mr. Smith's offer and the two have worked in unison and accord—always with the idea of doing the right kind of a job for their employers, THE PEOPLE, regardless of partisanship.

Honest, efficient and rightfully popular, we look for Walter Dent Smith to be the leader who will rally the Republican party in Delaware when another election year rolls around. He has more than proven his qualifications as a leader and a true servant of the people.

To Mr. Terry we extend greetings and a successful term in filling his important place in Delaware's state organization. He, too, has indicated that the people's interests are his interests and deserve consideration beyond that of party claims.

Dear Editor:

In your editorial in THE NEWARK POST of December 31, 1936, there was so much good material that I have wanted ever since to write you and say "thanks."

If you had been here in my place of business those days before and at Xmas time, you would have heard such remarks as these—"What's wrong in Newark, anyone dead? Say, have noticed the calendar—it's Xmas time, everybody asleep here? Don't see any official mourning, or I would be sure the business people and town officials were all dead."

These and many other remarks sure would have convinced you that you had hit the nail on the head—with a great big hammer. Then they would start telling about the decorations, festivities, etc., of the other small towns throughout the state.

Well, true enough, I had noticed and wondered, but as I am a newcomer here I did not know what to think, whether this just happened this year, or was it the general attitude of the Newark people at this time of the year. Then your article in THE POST and the loss of the new industry which could have been located here was just too much so I thought I had to write you.

It certainly is time to wake up and get busy—organize a get-together, or do something that will start things moving and not only put Newark on the map, but put Newark FIRST, last and all the time.

To my idea Mr. Editor you are the person to keep the ball rolling after such a good start as your December 31 editorial so please keep up the good work for you know you and your paper are the Power behind the Throne, the pen that is mightier than the sword.

Newark is such a lovely town with its fine streets, lovely homes and grand old university, what more ideal spot could we have? So put a little life in the "burg" and we will all be happier.

I am enclosing a clipping from a recent magazine article which is somewhat along these lines—and also what is better and more to the point, I am enclosing a small clipping of $1.50 to pay my past due subscription to our home paper.

So good luck and more power to you, Mr. Editor,
From a Subscriber,
Mrs. W. A. Burke.

SCREEN SNAPS

"We Want Benchley"

Robert Benchley

That was what a million moviegoers chorused after that famous humorist's hit in the short subject, "How to Sleep." As the cry was echoed in Hollywood by thousands of theatre exhibitors, Robert Benchley became the man of the hour and M-G-M rushed through plans to present the author-humorist-critic-star in a series of miniatures. Following the general pattern of "How to Sleep," which won the Academy Award as the best short of 1936, Metro turned out "How to Behave" and then "How to Train a Dog" and later "How to Vote," but still the cry goes up for "more Benchley." Theatre men attribute Benchley's phenomenal success to the fact that he has brought to the screen an entirely new and original type of humor which always before has been considered too suave and subtle for movie audiences.

State Theatre House Notes Friday and Saturday

All the roisterous color and excitement of life in the great lumber camps of the north woods is brought to the screen in "Come and Get It," Samuel Goldwyn's production of Edna Ferber's greatest novel. This powerful story from the pen of the author of "Cimarron," "So Big" and "Show Boat" offers Edward Arnold his greatest role as Barney Glasgow, the ambitious chore boy who became a great lumber baron. Joel McCrea plays the part of his son, Richard, and Frances Farmer plays both Lotta and her daughter, Mady Christians. Walter Brennan, who scored as "Old Atrocious" in "Barbary Coast" has another fine role as Swan, the Swede lumberman.

Tim McCoy in "The Man from Guntown," a thrilling western, will be added to the bill on Saturday.

Monday and Tuesday

Lily Pons displays a successful flair for sparkling wit and brilliant comedy, ranking with such master of humor as Gene Raymond, Jack Oakie and Herman Bing in "That Girl from Paris," RKO Radio's new musical hit. This rollicking comedy concerns the tribulations of a noted French opera diva, who balks at a marriage of convenience and follows a handsome band leader over-seas to the United States to encounter many unlooked for adventures. Miss Pons renders the aria from "The Barber of Seville," "Tartaglia," a swing version of "Blue Danube Waltz" and three original numbers by Arthur Schwartz.

Wednesday and Thursday

Those unsung and unheralded heroes of Hollywood, the character actors and actresses who bear the brunt of so many productions come to the spotlight of the Hal Roach-M-G-M feature comedy, "Mr. Cinderella." In featured roles in the film are Jack Haley, Betty Furness, Arthur Treacher and Raymond Walburn. All are experienced celebrities of the stage who have excellent opportunities in "Mr. Cinderella," with character portrayals to add to the enviable records they have established in motion pictures. A recent survey by a New York newspaper credits Treacher and Walburn as ranking one-two of the finest character actors in Hollywood.

appointed as Secretary of State. This appointment was sent to the Senate which had reconvened to receive it. An executive session was held immediately and the appointment confirmed.

A few minutes later, Secretary Terry, accompanied by Walter Dent Smith, his popular predecessor, Governor McMullen, and the three military aides were escorted into the Senate and Mr. Terry was sworn in by Chancellor Wolcott.

The first to congratulate him after the chancellor, was Mr. Smith and then came Governor McMullen. The appearance of the Governor at the ceremony was an unexpected honor for Mr. Terry.

Frolic at Ball

State Democrats jubilantly welcomed the new Governor to office and Mrs. McMullen as the new First Lady of the State in a brilliant inaugural ball at the Dover Armory Tuesday night.

While thousands of guests from all sections of the state clamored for admittance, hundreds filled the armory.

So great was the crowd of dancers that the grand march which was to have been led by the new Governor and Mrs. McMullen had to be cancelled. Prolonged cheering greeted the Governor when he made his appearance at the function.

James O. Saunders, colored, aged 37, died at his home on Thursday, January 14. Funeral services were held at St. John's Church, New London avenue, on Monday afternoon, January 18, with interment at Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Ladies of the Golden Eagle Install Leaders

Officers of the Ladies of the Golden Eagle, branch of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, were installed on Friday night of last week by Supreme Deputy Templar Gertrude Williams.

Ida H. Colmery retired as noble templar in favor of Mrs. Virginia Warrington. Other new officers are: noble vice templar, Rachel Greenplate; marshal of the ceremony, Katharine Hall; prophetess, Lillian Messick; guardian of the records, Viola Ewing; guardian of finance, Jennie Williams; priestess, Gertrude Williams; inner portal, Eva Springle; outer portal, Mrs. William Conner.

The retiring templar presented each officer with a gift and received, in turn, a jewel as a gift of the lodge. Flowers were presented to the deputy and to the vice templar.

Several members delivered speeches as did Supreme Chief Lewis W. Colmery.

New Infirmary Building At Brandywine Hospital

Patients will be admitted to the new infirmary building at Brandywine Sanatorium after Jan. 25, according to the State Board of Health in announcing the opening of the new structure this week.

The hospital management will greet visitors for inspection on Friday and Saturday afternoons this week.

Garden Club Meeting

Charles Ogden, floral expert of West Grove, Pa., has been announced as the speaker at the next meeting of the Newark Garden Club scheduled for Monday evening, Jan. 25. The affair will be held at the home of Dr. T. F. Manns, W. Park Place and will start at 8 o'clock.

The annual election of officers will be a feature of the session.

Observes Nintieth Birthday

Miss Ella Reeve, a resident of Newark for the past forty years, observed her ninetieth birthday on Saturday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Katharine Pié Steel, 19 Amstel avenue, recuperating from a heart attack suffered last week.

Despite her illness, Miss Reeve was in good spirits and was highly appreciative of the many gifts and cards showered upon her. A speedy recovery is wished her by her many friends.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends of James Crow who were so kind and thoughtful during our late bereavement.

Governor Visits Lions; Announces District Object

District Governor Joseph A. Moltz of Baltimore made his annual visit to the Lions Club of Newark at the Deer Park Hotel on Tuesday evening when he outlined the principal activities of the 16 clubs in his charge this year.

William Elder of the Baltimore Downtown Club and Harry Hassinger, prominent restaurant owner, of the Baltimore Uptown Club also attended the meeting which was in charge of Joseph M. McVey, president of the Newark body. Robert J. Boyd, treasurer of the Newark Trust Company, was a guest.

Discusses Disease

Joining a nation-wide movement to arrest the rapid and alarming spread of syphilis, Lions throughout the district are cooperating with state, county and municipal agencies in fighting the disease.

Stating that while only 500 new cases were reported in Sweden last year, more than 7,000 victims were being treated by doctors in Baltimore city alone, Governor Moltz emphasized.

Pres. McVey stated that a recent survey in a Maryland school showed that thirty-four per cent of the children enrolled were afflicted by the disease. Dr. J. R. Downes, state health officer and a member of the local club, reported that Delaware has already provided funds and has the machinery set up to combat the growth of syphilis.

The latter information, according to the Baltimoreans, places Delaware about two years ahead of Maryland in this important work.

ROAMIN' WITH RUTLEDGE

Looka Heah!

Tome School is on the right track to regain a prominent spot in the swimming firmament, a place it graced in former years before a headless headmaster of recent vintage dropped the sport in favor of ice hockey. Basis for such a claim was established on Saturday when the Port Deposit mermen took Penn Frosh into camp by a 49-26 count.

One swallow doesn't make a summer, you chortle with reason, but take a look at some of the marks turned in by the Blue and White natators before deciding this is so much hokey.

Compared with speeds recorded at similar distances in the Delaware-Maryland, Penn-Penn State and Pitt-Temple meets the same day, Tome has plenty of reason to be excited over its swimming prospects.

"THE ROAMER"

Faster Than Hens

While Delaware rooters were delighted to end over the fact that Ed Bardo's charges outplashed Maryland, 40-39, in the local pool last week, the winning times in the 50, 100 and 220 free style events weren't even close to the marks of the Port Deposit schoolboys.

Goldberg, Maryland, won the 50-yard affair here in :26.8, as compared to McDermott's time for Tome of :24.5. In the 100-yard event, four men in as many meets were clocked as follows: Gishburne, Penn varsity, :55.1; Novalty, Pitt varsity, :57.8; Riden, Tome, :58; and Pitzer, Maryland, 1:00.4.

And in the 220-yard free style test, four men, four meets, a lad named Knapp covered the distance for Tome in 2:28.5; Locke, Pitt varsity, did it in 2:28.6; Smith, Penn varsity, did it in 2:28.6, while Gregg, Delaware, required 2:39.5 to win.

That Pitt team, incidentally, which comes here on Feb. 20, dubbed Temple's recently organized squad, 60-6. All of which is something that Ed Bardo is regarding with slightly more than passing interest.

Might Have Been

While a sorely crippled Delaware court combine was dropping a 30-28 verdict to Washington College at Chestertown on Saturday, we were taking a look at the Wilmington Alcos in action against the Crescent Club of Brooklyn.

The playing of Stan Manista, who changed his mind about continuing his studies at Delaware after the Christmas recess, almost jolted us off our seat. As a member of the Blue Hen team, Manista registered little interest. His playing was both shoddy and slovenly.

Not so as a member of the Alco quintet, however. Manista went about his duties in convincing fashion, registered five goals from the field and sunk a pair of foul tosses to outscore both Joey Pennock and Buck Lacey, a feat seldom accomplished by dribblers in these parts.

It's a far-fetched idea, but just supposing Manista had returned to school after Christmas, taken his place on the court squad, and had come anything close to his showing on Saturday—at Chestertown instead of Wilmington. It's an idea anyway.

POTTS AGAIN NAMED TO MANAGE JACKETS; WILL HAVE ASSISTANT

Local Club Re-organizes; Morris Plays Players; Murray Continues in Office; "Salary" Rates Set; Twilight League Given Ideas for Consideration; Big Players' Pool Offered

By "The Roamer"

The re-naming of Cleaver Potts as manager of the local entry in the Bi-State League, partial re-organization of the club and the announcement of a unique plan to be placed before the Newark Twilight League aroused the interest of diamond devotees in this sector during the week.

Will Name Assistant

In accepting the pilot's berth for another season, Potts, who guided the Jackets to the second-half championship last year and a place in the post season classic against the titlists from Perryville, stipulated that he be given a free rein to name an assistant.

The idea met with the approval of the session, which was held Sunday at Jackson's Store, thereby settling the important matter of a leader for the 1937 campaign. Potts will announce his choice before the start of the flag chase.

Morris Still in Charge

Reiterating that he will resign his position as president of the club, Huey Morris officiated at the meeting and withheld any formal action concerning his threat to relinquish the leadership.

John Murray, secretary-treasurer, who also voiced objections to continuing as an official, re-considered the matter and agreed to remain with the team for another season. It is likely that Jack Edmanson, a notoriously hard worker, will be appointed to assist Murray in filling the exacting post.

A stipulated sum of $5 per game for each working member of the battery, with all other players, active and substitutes, sharing in a monthly split of net receipts, will be attempted this year under a new payment plan.

Players Are Scored

In a brief but pointed address, Morris reviled members of the team for their selfishness, general lack of interest in the club and their unwillingness to share responsibilities with the heads.

While not mentioning individual cases, the president made it plain that he and other backers of the team feel nothing but disgust over several shameful situations that arose last year.

George and Henry Jackson, directors, were present at the meeting, while Roland P. Jackson, Jack Edmanson, Paul Whiteman, Jack Daly, Billy Barrow, Dick Roberts, and Melvin Cagle represented the players.

Committee Named

Edmanson and Whiteman, assisted by Morris, will again conduct a series of clay pigeon shoots to raise funds before the season opens. The initial affair will take place at Dameron's Field Saturday afternoon.

With materials donated by the Newark Lumber Company, many improvements are being made at the trap site.

While the Newark Twilight League is not scheduled to meet until the middle of March, Ellis Cullen, hard-working secretary-treasurer and the moving figure behind the loop, already has formulated plans to improve the popular circuit.

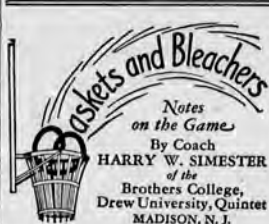

Wants Official Umpire

Among the things contained in Cullen's lengthy announcement are: (1) better matched teams; (2) an official umpire; (3) prizes for spectators; and (4) a series of cash awards totalling $100 for players.

With six teams in action, each carrying 17 players, Cullen would tax every man twenty-five cents a month, or a total of $1 for the season, in order to create the pool.

game for the benefit of the Flower Hospital at the end of the season . . . if the Newark passers ever get assembled the attraction should not be a good return . . . otherwise it might be a good idea to bring another outstanding team here for the same purpose . . . hope the idea doesn't get tabled by the Hens' athletic council.

Does your team consistently get possession of tapped balls? Yes, you may say, when we have the advantage of height, but not otherwise. Why not? Why haven't you worked out a system of defense to overcome that handicap? For although the bleachers may think it a matter of luck when smaller men get possession of tapped balls, skill and experience can often gain even this decided advantage for your team.

Balls Tossed at Center

On balls tossed at center, several formations are used, similar in principle, although the men may be placed differently. The guards should leave the securing of tapped balls to forwards. Diagram I shows a possible formation.

The D's represent the defensive men, the O's the offensive and taller ones. O5 controls the tap. D1 and D2 remain on defense. D3 cuts behind D5 and gets any taps intended for O1 or O2. D4 cuts behind O5 for any taps intended for O3 or O4. D3 and D4 must leap into the air after the ball and must not be afraid of being bumped by opposing men.

On Other Jumps

Diagram II illustrates a strategy to be used when the jump is not at center. The players merely change positions. D4 replaces D1, D1 D2, D2 D3, and D3 D4. If D5 can control the tap, the ball should go either to D2 or D3. This allows the offense to begin without changing direction.

Men going after a tapped ball must jump and catch it. Don't get into the habit of slapping the ball. Catch and pass it. Guards should be cautious about going after tapped balls unless they are sure that their men will control the tap. Remember that gaining possession of the tapped ball is what counts. Don't be discouraged because your opponents always tap the ball—you can get possession of it if you have the skill and the courage to go after it.

Next week—Good Sportsmanship.

Clay Pigeon Shoot

The first of a series of clay pigeon shoots sponsored by the Newark Baseball Club will be held at Dameron's Field, Ogle-town Road near the end of Main Street, on Saturday afternoon.

An assortment of awards such as turkeys, chickens and guineas will be made to winning marksmen. The shoot, which will be under the direction of John Edmanson and Paul Whiteman, will start at 1:30 o'clock.

BROWN HOLDS LEAGUE LEAD OVER MARTIN

Huss Defeats Local Star In Upset at Oxford; Fossett Stopped by Champ

RINGIER MOVES AHEAD

Registering three expensive scratches in succession, Jimmy Martin, Newark's leading aspirant to the championship of the Tri-State Pocket Billiards League, dropped a 125-118 upset decision to Huss at Oxford last night.

With Champion Freddie Brown handing Jack Fossett, Newark's second entry in the circuit, a neat 125-68 trimming on Tuesday at Port Deposit, the defending titlist was able to retain a one-game margin over Martin.

Play Is Close

In two other matches during the week, close play of the rival cue-wielders was marked. Tommy Riale, 1935 winner, came here from his Rising Sun last Thursday night to drop a 125-106 decision to Martin, and Tip Hanna, also from Rising Sun, failed to gain his first triumph of the race when young Don Cunningham edged his way to a 125-117 win on Friday.

Riale had a big edge on Martin, leading by a count of 48-8 at one stage of the match. The local star rallied beautifully, however, to outlast the Marylander going down the stretch.

Scene Is Shifting

While Brown and Martin remain in front of the pack, Tubby Ringier, Oxford, climbed a peg on the ladder during the week. Idle, Ringier ousted Fossett from third place when the latter bowed to Brown. Huss passed Riale last night to deadlock Fossett in fourth place.

Ringier is listed to meet Hanna tomorrow night at Rising Sun and will engage Martin at Oxford on Monday. Cunningham entertains Riale at Port Deposit tonight and meets Huss at the same place on Wednesday.

Both Brown and Fossett are inactive during the week.

Ladies Bowling Loop Organized; Card Drawn

Opening on Friday night of last week with a trio of matches, the recently formed Ladies Bowling League completed preliminary organization. Six teams comprise the circuit which will see action every second Friday.

Election of officers will take place on Jan. 29. Member teams and captains are: Country Club, Mrs. William C. Northrop; Continettes, Mrs. Mildred McCann; Newark High School, Miss Jane Hastings; Diamondettes, Mrs. Edna Smith; Condifcoes, Miss Alma Chambers; and College (a new name will be selected later), Miss Catherine Shellender.

CASTILIANS' COACH

Johnny Roman

Former basketball and baseball star at the University of Delaware, Roman will bring his William Penn High School court charges here for their annual visit Friday night. Winners of three games in four starts to date, the New Castle passers will endeavor to hand Coach Bill Gillespie's Newark high School outfit their fifth straight defeat.

Prominent Pocket Billiards Expert Follows Caras and Mosconi

Following the appearance of Champion Jimmy Caras and his youthful but arch foe, Willie Mosconi, at Jimmy Martin's State Billiards Parlor tonight, Patsy Natalie, outstanding player of 15 years as a leader, will perform here.

A participant in every championship tournament for the world's title since 1922, Natalie has repeatedly won elimination and qualifying tournaments to gain his right to play in these title tests. In 1928 he finished third to Taberski and Greenleaf for the world's honors. In 1932 he won the northern sectional tournament against a representative field.

To Play Match

Natalie will meet a local pocket billiards star to be named later on his visit here.

There is also the possibility that Wanda Natalie, his 13-year-old daughter, will treat the fans to a short display of her ability on the purple baize.

Her appearance depends upon whether or not she will be traveling with her father and mother in this section of the tour. She is the world's youngest pocket billiards star of either sex, and runs two frames as easily as the ordinary player runs two balls.

Noted as Instructor

Natalie has an enviable reputation as an instructor and organizer. He will show anything requested, calculated to improve the game. He is a painstaking and tireless instructor. He will conclude his exhibition with an array of trick shots made with neatness and dispatch, and unerring accuracy.

Admission will be free.

NEW STARTERS ARE EXPECTED FOR HIGHLETS

Members of Varsity Ignore Training Rules; Meet New Castle Friday

SHO'MEN NOSE HENS

Clarkmen Downed By Rivals In Thrilling Fracas; Three Locals Out of Game

By Bill Fletcher

Coach W. K. Gillespie is expected to take drastic steps this Friday when a reorganization of the Newark High School basketball team is expected. According to reports, several members of the varsity team were demoted for breaking training rules and a few unfamiliar faces are expected to appear in the Yellow Jacket line-up when they oppose a New Castle combine sporting three wins against a lone defeat.

Unsuccessful in their attempt to break into the victory column in four starts, the Jackets are given little chance to smear their ancient rivals although a heated contest is expected to take place on the local floor.

Under the coaching of Johnny Roman, former University of Delaware basketball and baseball star, the Castilians are expected to add another conquest to laurels thus far obtained.

Delaware Stars Out

Performing sans three varsity regulars, Coach Lyal Clark's charges, dropped a heart-breaking tilt to Washington College, 30-28, on the Chestertown boards Saturday night. The loss knotted the Blue Hens average for the season with four victories against four defeats.

With "Teedie" Wilson out with gripe, Lou Hayman retired via a blistered foot and Lew Carey on the inactive list due to a sprained ankle, the Hens performed creditably under the handicaps. A desperate rally at the close of the contest barely fell short of deadlocking the count and the Sho' rivals emerged from the fracas with a two point lead.

The Hens accounted for 12 field tosses to Washington College's 8 but fell short of the charity tosses, ringing up only 4 for 9 while the Shoremen converted 14 of their 16 free throws.

Nip and Tuck

After trailing 6-1 at the outset, the Hens gradually reduced the deficit until, at the close of the half, the two teams were evened up.

Washington again took the lead when play was resumed but sported only a 21-20 advantage at the close of the three-quarter mark. Another scoring spurge placed the count at 30-24.

In the dying moments, the Hens started throwin' 'em up. Jack Daly capitalized on one of the longest shots ever made on the Washington College court and Gene Harkins followed with another two pointer to close the scoring at 30-28.

Coach Clark was high in his praise for Daly and Ferris Wharton for good all-around play; Tom Pennock for an outstanding performance and Ed McCord and Gene Harkins, Jay Vee men called upon to fill the vacant varsity roles.

The Blue Hen mentor was especially pleased with the improvement made by Harkins and the fine defensive work of McCord.

Edward VIII inherited, along with his title, a dinner service which is estimated at $10,000,000.

FLASHES

By BILL FLETCHER

DELAWARE ATHLETES are scheduled to meet several opponents within the next week—opponents semi-annually slated to test the mettle of the Blue Hen gridmen, court stars, booters, mermen, racquet wielders, high jumpers, hurdlers, dashmen and pill chasers.

Grim specters in the form of pro-"BILL" FLETCHER fevers rise up, cloaked in a smug and "got you in the palm of my hand" attitude that forbodes more than a little ill for aspiring sport performers.

Thus far, the Blue and Gold athletic representatives have accounted for a 50-50 basketball record and the swimming average is also at the half-way mark, but the boys are forced to attain loftier heights than that in order to keep the privilege of donning a Hen uniform.

MID-YEAR EXAMS have consistently taken considerable toll from the ranks of Delaware performers and this year, the contrary is hoped for, will probably prove no exception. Two of the boys have already been declared ineligible because of weaknesses in academic work and if consistency prevails, the current tests brood of more trouble.

There is a smattering of "Barry Woods," a very few, in our midst, guys that can take studies and sports together, mix them in with an enjoyable amount of social activity to make a pleasant diet that leaves no indigestive aftermath... there is, however, an alarming shortage of this type.

A greater number start with mild disorders at the beginning of the term and climax the semester with an attempted rush cure—a treatment which aims to remedy an ailment which just can't be cured in a couple of days—consequently the wayside reaps a harvest.

ON THE HONOR ROLL last term were four athletes, Dick DuVal, a graduate of 1936 was a member of two squads (basketball and baseball) and attained the average of 2.33.

Fenton Carey, another two-sport performer, was active on the football and track teams and chalked up 2.05 academically, while Ernie Lomax, a pitcher, attained an average of 2.00. Bill Bant, a member of the swimming squad, hit 2.75 to top the athletes.

Only one of the four, Carey, rooms at the Training House; Bant and Lomax commute to their home, Wilmington and Newark, respectively, and DuVal lived in a private apartment.

The Training House, with its large room lined with beds and desks and a few smaller private rooms, doesn't seem to stimulate mental performances, evidently it doesn't quite suit the studious mind, but on the contrary tends to drug the scholastically inclined. That is, if we take it for granted the boys are in college for a reasonable amount of education.

Just why athletes can't seem to hang up better than fair scholastic ratings is a debatable question but we're inclined to believe that more adequate quarters could be provided.

ACCORDING TO "TIME" last week, when the House Ways and Means Committee made public the names of U. S. employees who received salaries, commissions and bonuses totaling more than $15,000 in 1934, the list was not without its oddities—Three hot dog vendors at Manhattan's Yankee Stadium and Polo Grounds received more ($30,000 to $34,999) than Pitchers Lefty Gomez ($20,000) and Carl Hubbell ($17,500). From Hal Roach Studios, fat Funnyman Oliver Hardy had received only about half as much ($8,516) as his slender colleague, Stan Laurel ($156,266).

Upon complete compilation of the student vote, it was found that the following have been elected to offices in the Student Association: President, William Richardson; Vice-President, Jack Doordan, and Secretary-Treasurer, Edith Counahan.

The president will preside over the meetings of the Student Council, composed of homeroom and class officers. Last week, the first act of the Council was to grant permission to the Journalism Club to sponsor a dance following the P. S. du Pont game.

It is probable that in the future, several such dances will be sponsored by the Journalism Club after the Friday evening games.

Soy Bean Expert Speaks

On the afternoon of Friday, January 15, the Honor Society was addressed by Dr. Horvath, of the University of Delaware, an expert on soy beans. The talk consisted chiefly of a pleasant discussion of the Chinese people and their customs. The Newark chapter is a member of the National Senior Honor Society and consists of the following: David Anderson, Anne Conner, Edward Cooch, Virginia Cooch, Edith Counahan, Margaret Dawson, Jack Doordan, Ann Hamilton, Thomas Ingham, Bertha Pappas, Doris Sheaffer, Ruth Sinclair, Ethel Stephens, and Elva Wells. Jack Doordan has been elected president; Doris Sheaffer, vice-president; and Margaret Dawson, secretary. Mr. Munroe is the faculty adviser.

Safety Calendar Placed in State Schools by D.S.C.

Last week representatives of the Delaware Safety Council visited every school in Delaware and presented each institution with sufficient copies of the new 1937 E. I. du Pont de Nemours safety calendar for display in each of the school rooms. The calendar contains the following message from Lamont du Pont, president of the company:

"Safety rules and safeguards to prevent personal injuries are vital—they represent the experience of the past. The present and future are in our hands. If you will think SAFETY, and act your thoughts, you will prevent injuries to yourself and others."

"May this calendar, dedicated to safety, daily stimulate your efforts for safety throughout the coming year."

School Heads Approve

The safety calendars are approved for use by Dr. H. V. Holloway, state superintendent of Public Instruction, and Dr. Zenas R. Clark, superintendent of the Wilmington Public School System in charge of safety activities.

Professor Albert Earley, supervisor of rural schools in Sussex County, and a director of the safety council, wrote a message which was attached to each of the calendars.

A portion of the message follows: "The council believes that your school safety program will benefit materially by a close study of the many safety suggestions in the calendar. Each month presents a human interest picture and side sketches which extend or project the dominant safety thought, the application of which will increase the safety consciousness of your students and help eliminate many needless mishaps."

Yorklyn School Children Take Red Cross Training

Lamont du Pont, Jr., chairman of the Delaware Chapter American Red Cross, announced this week that the following students of the Yorklyn school will receive their certificates in Junior First Aid:

Raymond Cumens, Richard Baldwin, Margaret Foley, Margaret G. Grady, Pauline Andrews, Ruth Ravillous, Edward Guyer, Charles Good, Evelyn Crawford, Kathryn Walker, Jack Dolan, Jack Harrison and Dorothy Trimble.

Jim Brown, Nancy Dempsey, Claude Good, Myrtle Fulton, George Cox, Edgar Guest, Edna Mac Chambers, Janet Press, Frances Loebe, Dorothy Buffington, Agnes Prinski, Harlan Dennison, Vernon Neidlein and Eleanor Tonkey.

Juniors Plan Celebration

Councilor Earl Gregson was in charge of the meeting of American Flag Council, Junior Order American Mechanics this week. According to A. Neal Smythe, publicity chairman for the organization, plans were discussed for the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the order at a turkey banquet and entertainment Monday evening at the Newark New Century Club.

THE QUESTION BOX

Send your questions to this department for replies from the Agricultural Extension Department of the University of Delaware. Be sure to give your name and address so, if a detailed answer is required, it can be mailed to you from the university. Address your queries to "Question Box," THE NEWARK POST, Box 430, Newark, Delaware.

Q. Should lime be applied in the spring or in the fall? Why?

A. There is no set time of the year when lime should or should not be applied. The condition of the soil and the crop for which the lime is to be used determine when it should be applied. Lime may be used as a top dressing for crops like pastures but usually it gives the best results when it is disked in or thoroughly mixed with the soil. For this reason, the best time to apply lime is usually at seeding time or in advance of seeding. By applying lime at this time it will neutralize the acidity of the soil early and the young plants will be able to get a better start.

Q. How can mealy bugs on ferns be exterminated?

A. Where water pressure is available, a sharp stream can be directed on the undersides of the fronds and into crevices to wash out the insects.

Where water pressure is not available, the insects can be removed with splinters or toothpicks about which a little cotton has been wrapped to form a swab. In either case, where the infestation is bad, the tops of the ferns should be cut off to within an inch or less of the soil and the treatment continued until the insects are exterminated, then a new top can be grown. Care must be taken, when the tops are not removed, to avoid injuring the new fronds.

Q. Is it harmful to pasture dairy cattle on Sudan grass pasture after it has been frosted?

A. Yes, it is dangerous to permit dairy cattle to graze on Sudan grass pasture after it has been frosted because Prussic acid forms in the leaves of the Sudan grass after it has been touched by frost. Prussic acid is a poison, often fatal to cattle. It has also been found that Prussic acid often forms in the leaves of Sudan grass after a long drought.

Q. How can I get rid of bugs in flour?

A. There are several different species of insects which feed on starchy materials and other foods. To eliminate the pests, first throw away all infested food products, then clean the cupboards, bins, etc., thoroughly, taking care to sterilize all corners and cracks with hot water.

Q. When is the best time to scrape apple trees as a measure to control codling moth?

A. Scraping the trees gives the best results when it is done during the winter or early spring. The job should be completed before April 1, in any case. This practice kills many hibernating worms and should be finished before the worms can transform to adult moths.

APPLE PIE STANDS AS MOST POPULAR SWEET

Apple pie is the leading contributor to the American sweet tooth, according to Monroe B. Strause, pie expert and bakers' consultant in Chicago. He declared recently that the lemon meringue pie is the only competitor to apple pie.

Several years ago a nationwide survey was made which confirms the statement made by Strause. This report, however, showed apple pie to be the favorite of men and lemon meringue the favorite of women.

OBITUARY

Mary Natalie Reed

Mary Natalie Reed, nee Mercer, died at her home on Main street early Sunday morning, January 21st. Mrs. Reed had been seriously ill for a week, but for the past few days previous to her death had been improving. The deceased was in her 25th year. Funeral services were held in Newark M. E. Church this afternoon. Interment in M. E. Cemetery.

Birthday Party

A very pleasant surprise was rendered Miss Addie N. Lee at her home near Strickerville, Pa., Tuesday evening, January 9, 1912. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey F. Lee, Mrs. C. D. Mendenhall, Misses Addie N. Lee, Anna Crow, Martha Crow, Florence Alken, Annie K. Lee, Dorothy Dayett, Ada Richie, Margaret Dayett, Ruby Macarins, Alice Draper, Helen Dayett, Sarah J. Miller, Marion Draper, Ralph Hill, Hamilton Crow, Robert Richie, A. Peterson, Louis Singles, Joseph Crow, Clark Vansant, Nelson Pierson, Orville Ottey, Herbert Lee, Preston Lee.

High Water on White Clay

The rapid thaw of last Thursday seemed to rival the preceding cold spell as a record breaker. Within 24 hours Main street was transformed from a glistening snow-covered speedway to a scene of overflowing gutters and water everywhere.

As a result of the gorge caused by the ice near Roseville, the water rose 5 feet in fifteen minutes last Friday afternoon, forcing several of the mills along the stream to close for a short time.

Following the quick thaw and warm rain the ice up the creek started to break and come down about noon. The new concrete bridge at Roseville proved equal to the expectations of the builders and withstood the strain of the waters successfully.

W. R. Powell has improved his delivery service by a new automobile.

Local News

From zero weather to that which brings a robin's call seems a pretty rapid change to be accomplished within seven days. A fat fellow was seen chirping on the lawn of James Little, near Fairview, last Monday.

Patent ventilators have been placed in the windows of the Presbyterian Church, which is an improvement much appreciated by the members of the congregation.

The structural work on the new du Pont Hotel building, Wilmington, will probably be completed within a few days. All of the structural pieces have been delivered and it is only a question of a short time until it is all in place.

Delaware College basketball team met defeat at the hands of Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster on Saturday, to the tune of 42 to 15. The Lancaster correspondent pronounces the game well contested throughout, but marred at times by the rough work of the locals, who greatly outweighed the Delaware boys and used their advantage accordingly. Captain Sawin's men put up a plucky game, but were handicapped by the extremely slippery condition of the court.

Personals

Mrs. Edna H. Vooper spent the week-end visiting Newark friends.

Dr. Davis, of Baltimore, was the recent guest of Dr. C. H. Blake.

Harry Hale, of Camden, N. J., is visiting his uncle, W. E. Shepherd, at Ogletown.

Miss Anna Crothers, of Wilmington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. J. Steward, near town.

J. E. Greenwalt, who recently moved to Palmyra, N. J., called on a number of Newark friends Wednesday.

Professor C. A. Short took possession of his new home this week.

Appleton

Mr. Noval Grant, West Chester, Pa., was a recent visitor of his father, Mr. Wm. Grant.

Mrs. Maurice Minner and sister Bessie, spent Friday with friends near Milford X Roads.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson spent a few days the first of this week with her brother, Mr. Ball Bradford, Modena, Pa., who is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Miles were Sunday guests of her brother, Mr. James Holland, Fair Hill, Md.

During the first eight months of 1936 the railways of the United States carried 28,000,000 more passengers than for the same period of the preceding year. This gain was equal to almost one-fourth of our entire population.

A panel discussion on child study by the adult education class under the direction of Mrs. Field, and a motion picture, "The New School in Action," will be presented by Miss Etta Wilson, executive secretary of the Delaware Parent-Teacher Association, will complete the program.

Hoosier Exhibits Best Corn Grown in U. S.

The ten best ears of corn grown in the United States in 1935 were displayed at the annual exhibit of the Delaware Crop Improvement Association held at Greenwood on January 7, 8 and 9. William C. Lentz (pictured at the top), the grower, is a Clark County, Indiana, farmer.

World's Youngest Mayor Guest of LaGuardia and New York

Municipal budgets and such were discussed by the mayor of the world's largest city and world's youngest mayor when Mayor LaGuardia of New York played host to 17-year-old Mayor Daniel Kampman of Boys Town recently. Left to right above are LaGuardia, Kampman and Father Flanagan, founder and director of Boys Town.

THE world's youngest mayor visited New York recently as official guest of the mayor of the world's largest city—and they talked about budgets!

Danny Kampman, Mayor of Boys Town, Nebr., is only 17 and the youngest mayor of a real city in the world. As mayor of New York, Fiorello LaGuardia controls the largest municipal budget in the world.

After being locked in private conference in LaGuardia's office for some fifteen minutes, the mayor of New York admitted newspapermen and photographers.

"Mayor Kampman and I have exchanged credentials," LaGuardia said. "We've decided this job of being mayor isn't all it's cracked up to be!"

"You said it!" chimed in the youthful Kampman.

Going to New York to take part in a national radio broadcast, the Mayor of Boys Town and Father Flanagan, founder and director of the nationally famous home for homeless boys there were accorded all the courtesies and honors extended by the metropolis only to world celebrities. They were met at the train by Mayor LaGuardia's official motor cavalcade with smartly uniformed motorcycle officers flanking all sides. With screaming sirens clearing their way through the heavy New York traffic, they were whisked to the city hall for the big public reception.

While the two mayors posed for a battery of photographers, Father Flanagan stood in the background smiling gently, his eyes serious and kindly. He founded Boys Town, ten miles west of Omaha in 1917. Since then 4,466 homeless boys of all races, colors and creeds—from the 48 states of the union have been made good citizens there.

Beseiged by reporters for a history of his famous home he said: "No boy is a really bad boy. If you take him off the streets you can stem the tide of Crime. No one wants to be a criminal. It's only the lack of opportunity that makes boys criminals."

Breathless before the honors and recognition extended his homeless boys by the great American metropolis Father Flanagan told newspapermen how Boys Town began 19 years ago with five boys, how today present Boys Town with its 369 acres of fine farm land and modern buildings was his dream come true. With pride he showed reporters a recent letter written him by J. Edgar Hoover, head of the nation's G-Men. Hoover wrote: "If Boys Town were just financially able to care for all the boys that need its help, crime would be dealt one of the most effective and crushing blows I can imagine."

While in New York, young Kampman was offered an opportunity to attend an eastern preparatory school, a scholarship in an eastern college and a career. He turned them down with thanks, and a smile: "Thank you very much," he said "but I think I'll go back with Father Flanagan!"

No Jobs For Unemployed Young Men? Clever CCC Worker Solves Problem

YOU cannot keep a good CCC boy down. Charles Walker of Portage River Camp in the Le Croix Ranger district of the Superior forest did not see any immediate promotion in sight so he started his own business in the camp with a household washing machine as the heart of it.

In addition to not seeing any immediate promotion in sight young Walker did not have the $73 he needed for his start in business. This did not hamper him at all long. His ambition impressed a dealer, who sold him on credit a regular household washing machine, such as are used in more than 10,000,000 American homes.

By charging his camp-mates one cent a garment, Walker paid for the machine and made a profit of $80 in his first month in business. Now when he leaves camp to accept permanent employment he is going to make his mother a present of the washer.

"I couldn't get much work before I enrolled," he said. "I bummed around considerably and got odd jobs occasionally, but I couldn't make both ends meet. Now my bumming days are over."

Walker grinned and went on. "I have gotten along so well with this business of mine that I have attracted the attention of several employers. I won't have any more trouble getting a good job."

A Lesson in Salesmanship

Assistant: "No madam, we haven't had any for a long time."

Manager (overhearing): "Oh, yes we have it madam: I will send to the warehouse and have some brought in to you." (Aside to the assistant): "Never refuse anything, send out for it."

As the lady went out laughing, the manager demanded: "What did she say?"

Assistant: "She said, 'We haven't had any rain lately.'"

Youngsters are apparently more careful than adults. The accidental death rate for boys and girls is lower than for men and women.

She: "A woman's physical charms are her chief weapons in the battle of love."

He: "Well, one thing is sure. You will never be arrested, dearie, for carrying concealed weapons."

NEW YORK—High small-crowned hats are leading the style race, and the smartest of smartly dressed women seen in Gotham's bright spots are wearing modern versions of a hat, which I am certain, was stolen out of the Arabian nights!

SLAKESKIN FINGERNAIJS are the newest creation of Schiaparelli. They are bright red—and are built right into sooty black antelope gloves!

TWO-TONE NEW TONES—Smartest new upholstery fabric is a two-tone mohair velvet in rich colors offset by a new contrasting yarn known as heathertone. The heathertone gives a three-dimensional effect. And it's said to wear like iron! You can get it on production furniture, too—as well as on custom-built pieces.

THE LAST WORD—Tomorrow's style leader will be—the Dalmatian motif! Jerkins, jackets and blouses, all gay with embroidery in the manner of the Tyrol! The influence will be felt all winter.

THE PROBLEM DIFFICULT

The Federal Housing Administration is facing a difficult problem in deciding what to do with large quantities of repossessed refrigerators and other equipment purchased by people who were unable to pay for it.
