WOODLAND SESSION AT BEAR

George C. Danby
Farm Is Scene
Of Meeting

A group of farmers, 4-H Club boys, representatives of the University of Delaware and other spectators attended a field farm woodland meeting and demonstration at the George Danby farm, near Bear, Tuesday afternoon. Sponsored by the County Extension Service, the program was given in cooperation with Delaware project of the Soil Conservation Service.

Timber Wasted
George M. Worriow, county agent, was in charge of the meeting. It was pointed out by Mr.
Danby that in England, only brush and waste wood is used for fuel.
"I was surprised when I found good timber trees here being cut for fuel and the general way in which wood is wasted and farm woodland managed," he stated.

A brief talk on the objectives and scope of the soil conservation program was given by Richard S.
Snyder.

"Farm Woodland Management," was the topic discussed by the principal speaker, L. Russell Albright, forester connected with the Newark soil conservation project. "There are 203,000 acres, or approximately one-fourth of the farm land in Delaware included in farm woodland, according to the 1930 census," he explained.

"Much of this area is at present in an extremely low state of productivity," he said, "and many owners have taken the attitude that the farm woodland must produce the greatest amount of income immediately."

"Woodland should have attention just the same as the cultivated fields, pastures or buildings," he pointed out.

Inspection Tour
Mr. Albright led the group on an inspection tour of the woodland and explained various features of proper management such as what trees to cut and what not to cut.

Clarence S. Foster, chief game and fish warden for the state, gave a brief talk on wildlife in which he emphasized the importance of protection.

John Kaviatowski recorded the best time in the wood chopping contest by cutting through an 3 and one-half-inch diameter log in one minute and nine seconds. He was awarded a prize donated by Jackson's Hardware Store while Harry Stratton, forest warden of Fair Hill, Md., was presented with an axe donated by Potts Hardware Store for the second best time of one minute and sixteen seconds.

Following the contest, Allan Mc-Clellan, conservationist with the Newark project, explained the program as worked out for the Danby farm. This gives a balanced farming program and provides plenty of feed and pasture for the livestock on the farm besides preventing soil erosion, he said.

for the examination of nearly 150

The State Highway Commission, at its last meeting, authorized an addition of 20 men to the force.

Examinations will be held at 1:30
Saturday afternoon at the Pierre
S. DuPont High School, for Wilmington and New Castle County applicants, and at the same time in the Legislative Hall, Dover, for qualified candidates from Kent and Sussex Counties.

500 Sought Positions

Approximately 500 men have applied for the positions, but the qualifications set up by the commission, a tabulation made early this week under Superintendent Fader's direction shows, eliminated all but 120.
Nearly 30 more applications have been received since that time.

No applications were received not qualify in these respects. Fing-

BOND SALE INCREASED

Newark Ranks
Third In State
Postoffices

Secretary of the Treasury Mergenthau announced recently that the total maturity value of United States savings bonds sold through the close of business on March 7, amounted to $1,584,462,875. This total was purchased by more than 1,260,000 investors, and represents an average sale for each business day since March 1, 1936, when the bonds were first sold, of $1,720,375.

Newark ranks second in Delaware for second class post offices in the sale of these bonds, led only by Milford. Sales locally amounted to $29,456.25, while Milford reached a
ing, Newark ranks third, topped only by Wilmington and Milford.

The sale for the calendar year 1937 was 34.2 per cent greater than for 1936, and exceeded the ten months' figure in 1935 by 82.8 per cent.

Approximately 16,000 post offices throughout the country are authorized to sell United States savings bonds.

Few Redemptions

The government, to-date, actually retains more than 92 per cent of all the money that has been invested, less than 8 per cent of the bonds sold having been redeemed.

Buying the bonds out of income,
the majority of registered owners are small investors. Purchases by individuals represent approximately 85 per cent of the amount sold.

Nine per cent was purchased by banks and trust companies, three per cent by corporations, and approximately three per cent by associations.

The $100 bond unit is the most popular denomination and has accounted for 30.38 per cent of the number sold. The $25 unit ranks next with 23.71 per cent of sales, followed by the $50, $1000 and $500 units, respectively.

Bang's Disease Report Issued In Pennsylvania

Five percent of the 781,253 dairy cattle tested in Pennsylvania since 1934 for Bang's disease were diseased and slaughtered, J. Hansell French, State Secretary of Agriculture reported today.

Indemnification of owners for cattle condemned for Bang's disease was begun by the Federal government on July 1, 1934, as a part of the original rural rehabilitation program. Pennsylvania has been paying similar indemnities since last Fall, the first State appropriation for this purpose having been obtained from the 1937 Legislature. Federal and State indemnities totaling more than $1,300,000 have been paid to date.

Tests discovered the disease in 10,382 herds comprising 257,621 cattle. No diseased animals were found in 44,706 herds comprising 523,032 head of cattle.

On January 31, of this year, the State Veterinarian, Pure Seveal and State Veterinarian, have 761 herds and 331,261 head of cattle under supervision. A considerable disease control program is being carried on. Of the 22,344,441 dairy cattle in the United States more than a percent are diseased.

INCOME PUBLICITY

Congress has been wrestling again with the question of making public salaries and other income of taxpayers above a certain amount, a former provision for such publicity having been repealed last year. Under the former law incomes of $15,000 a year and over were made public.

President Roosevelt wants the publicity clause restored to the new tax bill, but the ways and means committee of the House ignored his request. Then an amendment providing for publishing incomes of $75,000 or more was adopted when offered from the floor. What the Senate may do about it remains to be seen.

Whatever may be said for or against the publicity idea, the fact is that the published income does not fairly show what it is supposed to show. In the case of some of the largest incomes, as much as 60 per cent must be paid in taxes, so the individual often has left much less than half of the published amount.

It is difficult to see what purpose is served by this publicity, except to gratify the curiosity of those who like to pry into other people's affairs.

DEATH BEGINS AT 40

Two million booklets with the striking title "Death Begins at 40" are to be distributed in the interest of highway safety by the Travelers Insurance Company, being an analysis of traffic accidents during 1937.

The title doesn't mean that death begins at 40 years of age, but at 40 miles an hour. It is pointed out, however, that 40 miles an hour is much too fast in many cases. To quote a paragraph.

"There are times, as in heavy traffic or in heavy fog, when 30 miles an hour is suicidal; other times when 50 miles an hour seems reasonable. Every driver should know that if he does have an accident it is more likely to mean death if he is going fast."

In 1937 there were approximately 40,300 deaths and 1,221,090 injuries in traffic accidents in the United States, the highest on record. Most of these accidents might have been prevented by the exercises of reasonable care on the part of the drivers concerned.

SPOILED SQUIRRELS

Discussing the habits of various animals in preparing for winter's cold, Dr. W. Reid Blair, of the Bronx Zoological Park, commented on the well-known thrift of squirrels, which are unsurpassed for their foresight in storing nuts and other food.

In recent years, however, he has observed that the squirrels in the park have become improvident, and take little interest in putting by supplies for winter. He attributes this to the fact that the animals have learned that they will be fed, whether they store provisions or not. In other words, they have been spoiled.

A good many people have shown a similar tendency since they have come to look to the government for support, instead of depending on their own efforts.

This does not apply to those who are willing to work and make an honest effort to take care of themselves; neither does it apply to those who are unable to work.

But the fact remains that too many who could help themselves have become lazy and shiftless, like the spoiled squirrels.

WEARY HOOSIERS

Harry Lang of Harry Lang, Inc.—an Evansville, Ind., company which manufactures lubricants, owns Evansville Home Oil, Inc., Dixie Dance Wax, Inc., and a string of four gas stations—pays State and Federal income taxes, social security, encumbrance, personal property, gasoline, corporation, capital stock, truck wheel, and chain-store taxes. Since these taxes will this year take $30,000, or 20 per cent of Harry Lang's gross, last week he announced: "I just wrote the President that I'd be willing to do it the other way around. Let him own the business and let me run it for him for five years at a salary equal to what I'd be paying in taxes. Just five years. That would be $150,000—and I'd sell the business for a whole lot less right now!"

Max M. Nowak, of Hammond, Ind., after 35 years building up the retail feed business founded by his father, last year sold $1,500,000 worth of livestock feed. To do so, Max Nowak spent $7,008 in 1937 for clerical help, auditors and attorneys to make out 1,100 tax reports, paid 20,000 in taxes to 28 States and the Federal Government. Said he last week as he sold out to Vitality Mills, Inc.: "It is not merely the amount of tax I have to pay. It's also the annoyance of having to report this and that and the other thing to every official who comes along. . . . I used to feel happy when I'd come down to work in the morning. I'd whistle a tune and meet the day with some zest. Today there's nothing but grief."—March of Time Weekly News feature.

"Snow White" At North East

Every ardent movie fan who likes to keep pace with the times will look forward expectantly to the opening performance of the RKO technical picture, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," which opens at the North East, Md., Theatre tonight. It is repeated there on Friday and Saturday.

The story subject is chosen from the world-famous Grimm's folk tales, and concerns the feud between the wicked Queen and Princess Snow White. The sovereign's jealousy of Snow White's superior beauty causes the former to attempt her rival's death by poison.

On Snow White's side are the birds and animals of the forest, as well as the dwarfs of the diamond mine. The net result is a picture as captivating in its environment as in its drama thrills and laughter-arousing episodes.

The audience appeal of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" is universal designed to captivate the imagination of grown-ups and children alike.

STATE THEATRE NEWS

Friday and Saturday

The most amazing array of stellar talent ever assembled in a single production is presented in Samuel Goldwyn's magnificent Technicolor musical extravaganza, "The Goldwyn Follies." Drawing from every field of entertainment to augment a screen cast headed by Adolphe Menjou, Ella Logan, Jerome Cowan, The Ritz Brothers, Andrea Leeds and The Goldwyn Girls. The producer secured radio's famous Edgar Bergen and his buddy, "Charlie McCarthy," also from the air-ways Phil Baker and Kenny Baker, (no relation). He recruited grand opera's Helen Jepson and Charles Kullmann, and from the musical stage Bobby Clark, favorite comedian.

The story, a comedy of Hollywood from the pen of Ben Hecht, casts Menjou as a film producer out of touch with his public who hires a typical American girl (in the person of Andrea Leeds) to tell him what the public wants. The late George Gershwin's last and perhaps greatest score, was written for "The Goldwyn Follies" and was directed by George Marshall.

Monday and Tuesday

"Successful stories make successful motion pictures," is a Hollywood adage that is proved in the picture "Mannequin," co-starring for the first time Joan Crawford and Spencer Tracy. Perfectly cast, Miss Crawford and Tracy give splendid performances that will make you want to see more of them together. This film also revealed a leading man discovery in Alan Curtis.

The story, replete with unusual and surprising situations, gives Miss Crawford opportunity to display her ability as an actress in a part made for her as Jessie Cassidy, a shop girl, who starts out in a tenement and winds up in a multimillionaire's penthouse.

Wednesday

An outstanding cast of Hollywood personalities, headed by Claire Trevor, Donald Woods, Alan Dinehart and Alan Baxter, is featured in "Big Town Girl," 20th Century-Fox picture playing this day only. Three new song hits by Sidney Clare and Harry Akst, including "Argentine Swing," "Don't Throw Kisses" and "I'll Settle for Love" are included in the film. Lou Breslow, John Patrick, Robert Ellis and Helen Logan authored the screen play based on stories by Darrell Ware and Frances Whiting Reid.

Thursday

International intrigue and the guarding of a secret formula of a new explosive form the background for the latest adventure of that ace cinema sleuth, Bulldog Drummond, in the screen treatment of the H. C. "Snapper" McNeille story, "Bulldog Drummond's Revenge."

The cast includes: John Barrymore, John Howard, E. E. Clive, Louise Campbell, Reginald Denny, Frank Puglia and Lucien Littlefield. Cash prizes will again be awarded to the holders of the lucky tickets.

Careless Drivers Menace

To Strong Man In London
Careless drivers are a menace, thinks Saxson Brown, London strong man, whose special stunt is to allow an automobile to be driven over his chest. Recently a driver let the wheels wobble and they went over Brown's neck. Results were not fatal, but the strong man suffered for several days with a painful "sore throat."

WASHINGTON NEWS

CCC—300 CCC camps will be closed before June 1, in order to reduce the strength of the corps from 300,000 to 250,000. The reduction will take place even though applications for enrollments have shown a continued increase instead of decrease. Approximately 4,000 supervisory and administrative officials will be dismissed also.

BUSINESS MEN'S BUREAU—The Farmers of the United States have a bureau to perform services for them—the Bureau of Agriculture Economics. Now the Business Men are to have a similar bureau for their services. The Department of Commerce is setting up a new Bureau of Industrial Economics to study problems of industry.

BOYCOTT—An unofficial boycott in this country it is said, has caught Japan off guard and has reduced sharply the imports of goods from Japan. As a result war financing plans have been upset.

WAR SITUATION—The State Department officials are keeping a close eye on developments in Europe. The U. S. will maintain a "hands off" policy no matter what happens.

Students of both the men's and women's colleges were present at Mitchell Hall on Tuesday morning when Dr. Christopher Ward gave a talk on the Swedish Tercentenary Celebration. Dr. Hultihen, now recovered from his recent illness, said a few words to the group. After making some general remarks on the observation of the Tercentenary, Dean Robinson introduced the speaker, Dr. Ward told of the Swedish settlement of Wilmington in March, 1638, and outlined briefly the ceremonies to commemorate the event which will be held in Wilmington next June. Public exercises are to be held in Mitchell Hall on Tuesday evening, March 29, which is the approximate landing date of the Swedes.

Anyone who has happened to pass the Practice House on Monday or Wednesday mornings, must have noticed a number of small children playing with toys on the campus. No, these aren't precocious students already prepared for college; they merely make up the play school which is conducted by a Senior class in Child Development. The tots give the girls valuable practical experience in the care and management of small children. The boys and girls are all of Newark, and include Stephanie Worrlow, Di-

Prisoners in the Western State Penitentiary at Pittsburgh, have started the manufacture of the 1939 motor vehicle license plates. Secretary of Welfare Charles I. Engard said today.

To make the more than 2,000,000 plates required by the Department of Revenue, 1000 tons of sheet steel; 7000 gallons of background paint; 6500 pounds of numeral ink; 3000 gallons of varnish; 2,700,000 sheets of waxed paper; 2,267,000 mailing envelopes and 51,500 shipping cartons, have been procured by the Department of Welfare.

Next year's plates, following the usual practice, will be the reverse of this year's colors.

Man Takes Too Much For Granted; Cost Is High

Another case of taking too much for granted is reported from New York state. Oscar Widmer had been annoyed by petting couples parking near his home, so on a dark night he slipped up to a parked car and crowned the driver with a stick. The victim was not a petter, but an old friend who had stopped to chat with a neighbor. Widmer was held under $1,000 bond on a charge of assault.

state officers being present. Address of welcome was given by J. Leslie Ford. George K. Ball, was deputy for New Castle County at the time Pencader Grange, was present and spoke on the early days of Pencader Grange. He complimented the grange on its rapid growth.

Others who spoke were Robert P. Robinson, state master at time of organization; J. Irvin Dayett, first master of the grange; Wilson Price, also a former master.

Review of the minutes for the past five years was read by Elva Gooden who has served as secretary since the organization. Worthing State Master Clarence E. Jester and Mrs. Jester complimented the grange on its anniversary and greetings were also extended by the other state officers present.

During the lecturer's hour, which was conducted jointly by Pencader Lecturer Miss Leola Brown and State Lecturer Robert Yearsley, Mrs. Helen Thomas, State Pomona, and Mrs. Wm. H. Naudain staged a "boxing" contest which was won by Mrs. Naudain. A nail driving contest between Frank F. Yearsley and William P. Naudain resulted in a draw.

This meeting was one of the most outstanding grange meetings thus far this year and the Pencader Grange deserves much credit for the leadership it is setting forth in the community. Seven new applications for membership were read during the meeting.

The 13 children in the family of W. O. Prince, of Peoria, Ill., all have names beginning with D. They are: David, Delmar, Donald, Dallas, David, Dale, Delbert, Doris, Darline, Dorothy, Duwayne, Dora and Dena.

The number of hogs on farms on January 1 is estimated by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at 44,418,000 head. This is 1,470,000 head or 3.3 per cent larger than a year earlier and the largest number since January 1, 1934. The number was still much below that of any year in the 30-year period before 1935. Nearly all the increase occurred in the corn belt states with numbers little changed in other areas. The value per head of $11.21 on January 1 was 68 cents lower than a year earlier and the total value of $498,025,000 was about $12,500,000 less.

Consumer's Dollar Deflated by Taxes

Nationwide Survey Shows That Duplicating Levies Cut Purchasing Power

Darkened portion, showing 28.5 cents taxes paid by consumers, reveals how gasoline dollar is deflated in Delaware, with purchasing power reduced to 71.5 cents by 40 per cent sales tax.

Deflation, resulting in curtailment of consumer buying-power, already is being felt in Delaware through taxes which prevent purchasers from getting full value for their gasoline dollar, according to the Associated Petroleum Industries of Delaware.

The Association has reported to its members that a nationwide survey of retail gasoline prices and taxes, made by the American Association of State Highway Officials, shows that a substantial proportion of every dollar spent for gasoline at service stations goes for duplicating federal and state taxes. The effect, the Delaware Association said, is to deflate the gasoline dollar by reducing its purchasing power.

"You will be as surprised as your customers to learn that dollar deflation through taxation largely has offset the benefits your customers would have derived from gasoline price economies achieved by you and your industry," the report said. "Your customers now pay one of the heaviest retail sales taxes imposed upon any generally-used commodity, and the purchasing power of their gasoline dollar thereby is greatly reduced."

Egg Market Irregular Pennsylvania Shows

February egg markets were mostly irregular and tending downward, according to the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

While current supplies were not equal to the heavy supplies which were available a year ago at this season, they were at times greater than immediate requirements, with the result that some price adjustments occurred during the month. These included changes in both directions, although mostly downward.

Weather was a factor of influence during the month, first, because of its uncertainty, but further because the relatively mild temperatures, which were prevalent in some sections during part of the month were quite favorable to production. The storage situation also continued to be of some importance, principally because of the unusually heavy stocks of frozen eggs.

Receipts of shell eggs at wholesale markets during January were about 15 per cent lighter than last year, although the January, 1937, receipts were the heaviest of record for that month. In February, however, receipts at Eastern wholesale markets were about 5 per cent heavier than during February of last year.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my beloved daughter Ruth E. Foster, who passed away one year ago March 23. Your pains are all over, dear daughter. In Jesus you now are at rest. No more to feel sickness or sorrow. But forever to live with the blessed. We mourn for you deeply and truly. And yet for your sake we rejoice. For we know you are safe with the Saviour. And at last you can see His dear face.

In a very short time we will join you. By the shores of that bright crystal sea. Where there be no more weeping on the dear knoth. And no more funeral cortege to see. It will not be long till the Master shall bid your cold clay to arise. And with beauty and spirit united. Form a part of his bride in the sky. Sadly missed by Mother and Husband.

OUR DARLING MOTHER
God has called her home to rest. There was mercy in His summons. Still we know His way is best. From this earth He took our mother. Whom we cherished, loved and blessed. Death was quick when mother left us. So we do not cast a frown. Our lone wish is just to see her. With her diamond-studded crown. Carroll, Billy, Barbara, and Margaret.

Roamin' with Rutledge

Shoulder Arms! Batter Up!

As another winter passed by the boards, the picture of youth in most sections of Europe and Asia is that of young men—half-grown men—shouldering deadly weapons, either as participants in wars that are actual, or in preparation for wars that loom threateningly near.

Contrast is provided by the picture of youth in the United States, where no end of drills are taking place on athletic fields instead of in army cantonments. Instead of shouldering arms, American boys are shouldering baseball bats, javelins, tennis racquets, and gold clubs. Instead of the Hitler and Mussolini for drill masters boys in the United States are being sent through their paces under the chiding but friendly direction of athletic coaches.

Yet there are many people in the United States, numerous educators included, who regard athletics as a foolish waste of time, refuse to credit the growing belief that sports are character building.

RWR Staying In Line

Because we are thoroughly "sold" on sports of all types, we are deeply happy to note that Newark High School, after some bickering, delay, and misunderstanding, finds it possible to retain baseball on its athletic slate.

America needs baseball and its other sports at critical moments such as these being faced by the world at large. We fully appreciate the financial hardship an institution such as Newark High faces in carrying baseball on its program, but the game is vital and should be retained at all costs.

Thank goodness the men who hold the purse strings at the local school, and at hundreds of like institutions throughout the nation, are "wise" to the value of the diamond sport and its allied athletic endeavors. Legislators responsible for furnishing and dividing funds for schools should learn a few things about athletics and their need in America. If additional funds were allotted and a sufficient amount earmarked for athletic use only, administrators wouldn't find it necessary to become economic jugglers in order to retain baseball on school programs.

RWR Songs of Spring

While poets write of spring as the season of budding trees and flowers, birds warbling as they face a rising sun, lovers strolling in the moonlight, and other rapturous scenes of bliss, the season is anything but as it's pictured. Actually, spring is that time of the year when manure spreaders, kicking along in apparent merriment, spread their odoriferous contents over otherwise innocuous fields to make an entire rural world smell like Marcus Hook.

Ararwell E. (Mackie) Watson, of the shoe-shining Watsons, recently tossed a birthday party—for himself. Although a Joe Louis supporter due to racial reasons, Mackie has acquired a lot of characteristics from the Scotch. So, in purchasing five quarts of ice cream, a cake, and a quantity of "Kool-Ade" for the party, he was accused of a dangle for the treat as bait for presents. Poor Mackie was disappointed, however, when only four of the 19 guests crashed in with the customary gifts. Not to be caught napping next year, he has prepared two lists—"them what fetched" and "them what failed to fetch."

RWR Ravages of Drink

Vic Armstrong, the Main Street newsdealer who gives voice to more gossip in a day than a ladies' sewing circle will exchange in a week, has been given the opportunity of doing some uplifting work.

Where the temperance preacher, supposedly of Springfield, Mass., learned about Vic is hard to imagine, but true fame has the habit of getting noised about. Last week, Vic received this missive: "No doubt you have heard . . . of my great work in the cause of temperance. For several years I have been traveling about the country, appearing on the lecture platform. Perhaps you are familiar with some of my better known talks such as 'Down with the Drink Evil,' 'Rum and Rebellion,' and 'There is No Booze in Christianity.'"

"For the past three years I have had as my constant companion a true and faithful friend, one Herman Fortescue, who used to sit with me on the platform, and I would point him out to the audience as an example of the ravages of drink. Unfortunately, during the last summer, dear Herman passed away. A mutual friend has given me your name, and I wonder if you would consent to accompany me on my tour, to take poor Herman's place?"

Vic has declined the offer.

SPRING BRINGS LONG-AWAITED WARM WEATHER

Diamond and Cinder Candidates Practicing Hard Under Watchful Eyes of Coaches Doherty And Bardo; Prospects Good

By Homer Run

Monday, the warmest day of the year, brought bustling activity to Frazer Field as the University of Delaware baseball and track teams began working out in earnest for the 1938 campaigns.

Practices thus far this year have been limited, but with the advent of spring and the steadily scaling thermometer, the Hens have prepared themselves to settle down to the hard sessions necessary to whip them in shape for the season.

Diamondmen Work Hard

Coches Gerald P. (Doc) Doherty sent his diamondmen through a two-hour fielding and batting drill which saw Big Bill Deaver, Phil Reed and Charlie Ferrell taking their turns on the mound. Hen batsmen found it hard to get a line on Deaver who seemed to "breeze 'em by" with only a small degree of difficulty, but the Blue and Gold stick welders tagged both Reed and Ferrell for well-hit singles.

Still showing the batting eye that resulted in the team batting crown last year, Earl Sheats, lucky outfielder, found a connection with one of Reed's tosses and slammed it to the wall between right and center field for a round tripper.

An abbreviated Newark High School graduate, one Jackie Doordan, filed a bid for serious consideration as he hopped around the short-stop position for a long period, handling several chances like a veteran and displaying a throwing arm that left little to be desired. A freshman, Doordan's bid for the infield is placed against a fellow-classmate, Fred Mitchell who is showing plenty of promise.

Local Athletes Active

Four other Newarkers, all lettermen last year, are slated to see action in the Blue and Gold campaign this year. Dick Roberts will hold down the backstop post and Ernie George, centerfield while Jack Daly and Ferrie Wharton are expected to perform at second and third bases, respectively.

Listed among the candidates are: Earl McCord, Everett Mal and Jim Carpenter, first base; Daly, Lew Carey and Fred Mercer, second base; Mitchell and Doordan, short-stop; Wilmer Apley, Wharton and Bill Duffy, third base; Sheats and Bill Connors, right field; George and Ken Mink, center field; Howard Viden and Johnny Johnston, left field and Roberts and Frank Cannon, catchers.

With only four seasoned trackmen but a wealth of inexperienced material, Coach Edward C. Bardo sent Jimmy Dykes, White Sox manager, and asked him to name his terms for a contract with the Chicago club.

Mize, older brother of the St. Louis Cardinals Johnny Mize, called in a neighbor and hurriedly remarked, "Watch this gas house while I run over to Cornelia and send a message." Domorst has no telegraph facilities.

The 26-year-old Pope wired Dykes he was ready to play ball, but would talk terms later. There was okay with Dykes, who instructed him to report immediately to the Dallas Steers, a White Sox farm club.

Mize decided last year to give up baseball. He had knocked around seven or eight years without getting anywhere. He had played semi-pro ball around Atlanta. He is an outfielder and first baseman, stands 6 feet and weighs 206 pounds. He bats left handed and throws with his right.

Candidates for field event positions are: Allen Glaspey, Ed Maul, Larry Hodgson, Olaf Drozdow, Emil Kilbasa, Tom Lewis, Bill Hurley, Bill Swift, Emil Such, Don Sadowski, Mike Isola and Harold Gordy.

Fenton Carey, leader of the Blue and Gold pacers, is expected to run quarter-mile and low hurdles and participate in the javelin event.

125 DOGS COMPETE IN TESTS

Classic Event To Visiting Hound Sunday

By Ben Beagle

The classic Coveview's Lady memorial trophy test, carrying a purse of $100 added, was captured Sunday by Champney's Doctor, owned by Dr. Lynn H. Champney, Quarryville, Pa., to climax a two-day series of field trials sponsored by the Eastern Beagle Club at the S. Hallock duPont estate, Milford Cross Roads. The trophy was donated by R. Wirt Willis, Glasgow sportsman.

Second place in the event went to Litzberg's Betty, owned by Robert G. Litzberg, Elkton. Third place went to George Trudy, belonging to J. W. Jones, Alden, Pa. Starting with 64 dogs, the classic event dwindled to 11 hounds as the final heat got under way.

Big Fields Drawn

The trials opened Saturday with an entry list of 125 hounds nominated. Winners in the derby classes became eligible to compete in the championship stake of the Eastern Federation of Beagle Clubs at Gladstone, N. J., later in the spring.

Saturday's events opened with the 13-inch derby class. Repeating a triumph registered at West Chester some weeks ago, Joker, owned by H. B. Leightner, Baltimore, and expertly handled by Raymond Vantote Buckingham, of Newark, took the measure of Connell's Tonyette, belonging to Rob Roy Connell, Newark.

Tonyette, a popular favorite, was off to a great start when it was returned high dog in the first heat. Joker and Oakwood Patsy Ann, the latter owned and handled by Buckingham, both trailed Tonyette over the opening route.

Patsy Ann Fourth

Trailing the leaders were Harris Vickie, owned by Dr. William J. Harris, Shamokin, Pa., third; Oakwood Patsy Ann, fourth; and reserve was won by Swatara Daisy May, owned by Dr. B. Scott Fritz, Marietta, Pa. Twenty-six dogs started.

Sunday's card opened with the running of the 15-inch derby. First place went to Shore Drive Little Visitor, owned by Dr. Elliott Floyd of Norfolk, Va.; second, Annawalk Farmer, owned by Frank Wise, Cornell, N. Y.; third, Shore Drive Redhead, owned by Dr. Elliott Floyd, Norfolk, Va.; fourth, Jepper, owned by William Hughes, of Wilmington. (Please Turn To Page 7)

As a result of the opening test, it is claimed that Joker was auto- matically eliminated from further con- sideration. Connell threatens to carry his contention to the stewards of the Eastern Federation of Beagle Clubs for a ruling.

Meanwhile, Buckingham, who handled Joker, refuses to listen to all arguments. "What does Connell mean by talking protest? I won, didn't I? He's got a pretty fair hound in that Tonyette, but I out- smarted him when the chips were down, that's all," were the only comments Buckingham would make concerning the threatened action.

Diamond State Telephone Company Improves Lines

Improvements and extensions in local and long distance telephone lines in the Newark area are being started, it was announced today by J. Edward Murphy, manager for the Diamond State Telephone Company.

One hundred and fifty miles of open wire will be replaced by storm-proof cable and more than 900 poles will be erected. The new lines will be of "longspan" type construction, which will permit the removal of more than 2,000 poles upon completion of the job. The replacement of poles is the result of a regular inspection of the company's plant facilities.

The entire project, when completed next winter, will represent an expenditure of more than $45,000, Mr. Murphy said.

Work on the improvement program will be under the direction of Groomer E. Marcus, district construction foreman.

President Roosevelt and the Supreme Court Justices sent polite regrets, but 700 other guests, paid $1.50 each to attend a birthday dinner in Seneca Falls, N. Y., for Tommy Clark, a 23-year-old alley cat.

WEDDING

Neve-Cooch

Miss Helen A. Cooch, formerly connected with the Springfield mission in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, was married in the chapel of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, Tuesday, at 11 o'clock to the Rev. Frederick W. Neve, of Ivy Depot, Va., by the Rev. H. B. Phelps, of this town, in the presence only of the near relatives of the bride and bridegroom. The bride, who was attired in a simple traveling dress, was given away by her uncle, the Hon. Charles M. Curtis, Chancellor of Delaware, and after an informal wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Neve left for New York and sailed today on the White Star Line steamer Megantic, for England, where Mr. Neve is called on business in connection with his father's estate. After a few weeks among relatives there, Archdeacon and Mrs. Neve will return to Ivy Depot to live and work among the "poor whites" of the Virginia mountains where Mr. Neve has charge of about thirty mission stations under the care of the Diocese of Virginia.

A Family of Chickens

One of the chief attractions on Main Street this week is the lively brood of baby chicks displayed in the window of W. H. Cook. The chickens were hatched on Monday and have found a cozy home in the large store window, which is heated with a small electric heater. The brooder occupies part of the space and the healthy-looking chicks scratch and pick contentedly in full view of the delighted youngsters and interested passers-by.

Mr. Cook's first experience with an incubator has been a promising one, ninety-eight chickens having hatched from one hundred sixty eggs.

Social Doings

The invitations issued by Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. W. H. Evans for a tea on Saturday, March 29th at the College Farm, have been recalled owing to the illness of the former's daughter, Mary Frances Hayward.

COMMON DISEASE INFECTIOUS

Chickenpox In Need Of Care States Doctor

"Chickenpox is a highly infectious disease to which most children are susceptible after the first few months of life," Dr. Paul A. Keeney, of the Pennsylvania Department of Health, said last week.

"It is a disease which the child usually contracts on the first exposure. When one child in a home has contracted the disease and has not been isolated until the diagnosis has been made, the other susceptible children in the home may be expected to develop the disease in nearly 100 percent of the cases.

"While chickenpox or varicella is a comparatively harmless disease it is of importance and should be prevented wherever possible because it interferes with attendance at school and frequently causes scarring of the face. Children under one year of age should be especially guarded against the disease.

Enters Through Mouth

"The contagion causing this disease presumably enters the body through the mouth and nose. While it is probably transmitted directly in the greater number of cases from the infected person to the non-immune or that is the person that is susceptible to the disease, it is also carried by infected articles and by a third person.

"It almost always takes fourteen days for a case of chickenpox to develop after exposure. It is uncommon for the incubation to vary from this but it may be as short as 10 or as long as 20 days.

"During the period of incubation there are usually no evidences of ill health, nor is the patient able to transmit the disease until about 24 hours before the rash appears. In very young children the disease usually makes itself known by the rash. However, in older children and adults there is usually headache, a tired feeling and a slight fever for a period of 24 to 36 hours before the rash appears.

Eruption On Chest

"In typical cases of chickenpox most of the eruption will be found on the chest, neck and back. It is characterized by the appearance in crops of lesions during the first two to four days. It begins as small red spots. Within a day small watery blisters appear on the spots. These blisters may start at the edge of the hair on the head, either at the forehead or behind the ears or they may appear first on the neck or chest. These lesions keep developing in new crops while the earlier ones are drying down to little scabs. Lesions are found rather frequently in the mouth and also the throat.

"Because of the confusion that may arise from the similarity of chickenpox and mild smallpox, it is always advisable to have your physician see the case."

Diamond State Telephone Company Advances Riggs

Joseph M. Cherpak has been named manager of the Wilmington and Newark area for the Diamond State Telephone Company succeeding W. Harold Riggs who has been appointed to the staff of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in New York.

Announcement of the new manager was made last week by J. Edward Murphy, district manager for the Diamond State company, who said the appointment is effective immediately.

Mr. Cherpak was graduated from the University of Delaware in 1926. Following his graduation he entered the telephone business as a clerk in Philadelphia.

He became assistant manager in 1929 and three years later was appointed manager of one of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania's metropolitan offices in Philadelphia.

HYGIENE TOPIC AT STANTON

State Director Addresses P-T. A. At Session

By Miss Emma S. Maclary

Stanton, March 23—Miss Margaret Jeffreys, state director of oral hygiene, of Dover, addressed the Stanton P-T. A. on Thursday evening. Miss Jeffreys commented on the importance of hygiene, dwelling particularly on the importance of care of the teeth.

J. O. Hedlicka, president of the P-T. A. was in charge, and announced that the Red Cross of Wilmington has extended to the children of the Stanton School the privilege of joining the swimming classes to be conducted in June. The parents responded very favorably to this action, and expressed a willingness for their children to attend classes on the dates mentioned, June 13 to 17.

The ways and means committee announced that it had purchased a table for the primary children of the school. The committee also reported proceeds of $30.34 from a recent benefit card party.

The Adult Educational Class will participate in the spring festival to be held at Newark, on April 11, at which time an exhibit of its art work will be made.

Mr. Hedlicka, named the following nominating committee for the election of officers at the next meeting: Mrs. H. V. Lynnam, chairman, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. C. E. McVey.

Meeting Postponed

The April meeting will be held one week later than scheduled, due to the fact that the ways and means committee is sponsoring a supper in the cafeteria of the school on April 28, and the business meeting, and election of officers will follow. This will be the wind-up of activities of the P-T. A. for this season.

Delegates were appointed to attend the State P-T. A. meeting to be held on April 30 at Smyrna, as follows: H. V. Lynnam, Bernard Michini, J. O. Hedlicka, Levi Murray, Irvin Steele, Charles Wilson, J. H. Mitchell and C. E. McVey.

At the close of the business session, the entertainment committee furnished a program appropriate to St. Patrick's Day, and refreshments were served.

The Stanton 4-H Club held a meeting this week at the school. A special health program was arranged, with "Nutrition" as the principal topic of discussion.

It was decided to hold a benefit party to procure funds to send members to the 4-H Short Course at the University of Delaware, and a committee was appointed comprising Margaret Brown, Richard Ward, May Hastings and Betty Toomey. The recreation committee was in charge of entertainment, and games were enjoyed.

The Parish Aid of St. James P. E. Church, Stanton, will serve an oyster supper Thursday evening in the Parish house from 5 to 7:30, for the benefit of the church Lenten fund.

General Advice

PLANTING that makes a house a more desirable home for a family, is also increased in value many times the actual cost of the improvement.

DO NOT BE too formal in your planting arrangement. A carefully worked out informality is often the most attractive because it more closely approaches the natural.

ROCK GARDENS are desirable but keep in mind that much of the charm depends upon its naturalness and it takes genius to create a natural looking artificial rock garden.

IT IS NOT generally known that Holland's renown for bulbs started when Dutch adventurers brought the first bulbs from the East Indies three centuries ago.

IF YOU ARE bothered by cats and dogs in your garden, spray with nicotine solution as the odor is distasteful to them. Use 1 1/2 teaspoons of 40% nicotine sulphate in a gallon of water.

JOIN A Garden club. The interchange of ideas is of value, and people who have a common hobby are always agreeable companions.

WHERE one has been exposed to Poison Ivy, thorough and repeated washings of exposed parts with a strong alkaline kitchen or laundry soap is often effective.

IF YOU WORK in a garden without gloves, rub a little soap under the nails to keep them from staining.

IN SETTING out bedding plants, be sure and put them lower in the ground than originally. This is a good general rule for all transplanting.

State Birthday

Students Celebrate

A special celebration of this event for the students of the University of Delaware was held on Tuesday morning due to the fact that the Delaware tercentenary day falls in the middle of spring vacation week. Dr. Quaesita C. Drake was in charge of the arrangements for the program which was presided over by Dean Winifred J. Robinson.

Christopher L. Ward, chairman of the executive committee of the Delaware Tercentenary Commission, was the guest speaker.

At a meeting of the Faculty Club of Delaware College on Monday evening, the program was also devoted to the Delaware tercentenary. Dr. George H. Ryden, chairman of the department of history and political science at the university, was in charge of the affair.

A committee of university officials is planning the celebration for March 29 which will be a forerunner of the tercentenary observance on June 27.

Heading the committee is Dr. Walter Hullahen who is being assisted by Dean George E. Dutton, Dean Robinson, Dr. W. O. Sypherd, and Dr. Ryden.

Tentative plans are for a public meeting in the evening, with a prominent speaker on the program. "We feel this is the real date of Delaware's birth," Dr. Ryden explained. "It was on that date that Peter Minuit, leader of the Swedish expedition, made the purchase of what became the first permanent settlement in the Delaware River valley."

Shore Purchase Ignored

The purchase of the western shore of the Delaware River has heretofore been ignored in Delaware. Never glorified in art nor dramatized in literature, it was the beginning of a three-nation struggle for the possession of the Delaware River country—Sweden, Holland, and England.

Dr. Sixten Strombom, of Stockholm, Sweden, director of the Swedish art exhibit which is touring the United States, visited the Delaware Art Center, Park Drive and Woodlawn Avenue, Wilmington, last week with Elwyn Evans, president of the Wilmington Society of Fine Arts.

The exhibit will come to Delaware early in June when the center opens. Dr. Strombom's visit was to see the progress of the building which is to open June 5.

Pennsylvanians Visit

Mr. Ward also met a group of Pennsylvanians last week, who visited Wilmington to see "The Rocks" and acquaint themselves with Wilmington's plans for the tercentenary celebration on June 27.

In the party were: Dr. Lester K. Ade, superintendent of public instruction in Pennsylvania; Dr. Donald A. Cadzow, state anthropologist, and Dr. Oddie, of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission.

The Burlington Line which introduced the stream-lined Zephyrs were pioneers in speed. Back in 1899 one of their trains made a record run of 130 miles per hour for a short distance.
