FUNDS SOUGHT BY GROUP FOR CANCER DRIVE

Mrs. R. T. Jones, Sr., Heads
Women's Field Army
Activities in Newark

DISEASE IS CURABLE

Publication of State Board of Health Lists Causes and Possible Cures

In a drive toward the prevention of one of the deadliest diseases known, Mrs. R. T. Jones, Sr., working for the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, is conducting the campaign for membership in the organization this week.

Town's Support Asked

Citizens of the town, fraternal organizations and civic groups are asked to contribute the $1 membership fee required to join. Only $1000 has been set as the state goal, $400 from the city of Wilmington and $200 from each of the three counties. Seventy per cent of the receipts will be given to the state executive committee to be spent locally; 20 per cent to the central office in New York City for expenses involved in the field and 10 per cent added to a contingent fund.

Mrs. William H. Beacom is commander of the state organization. "Cancer may be halted if caught early enough," is the encouraging message carried by articles in the quarterly issue of the "Delaware Health News," a publication of the State Board of Health.

"One of the peculiar characteristics of cancer is that it may usually be cured if properly treated in an early stage of the disease, but that it is almost incurable in later stages," writes Dr. A. A. Rydgren, chairman of the Delaware State Branch of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, in an article entitled, "A Message to the People of Delaware." Successful treatment depends upon early diagnosis, which in turn depends both on the family physician and on "an enlightened and informed public," he writes.

Latest mortality statistics indicate that one of every eight women now aged 40, will die of cancer, with a slightly lower rate among men. "It is estimated that the cancer death rate may be cut in half" by recognition of early symptoms and prompt treatment.

Dr. Rydgren's article concludes with an appeal to various clubs and organizations to get behind the movement, and closes with the slogan of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, "Fight Cancer With Knowledge."

STEARNS AT TOP OF HONOR ROLL

Seven Newark students in attendance at the University of Delaware were placed on the first term honor roll this year, according to an announcement made by Dean G. E. Dutton this week.

Stearns at Top

Reid Stearns, a chemical engineer freshman, attained a ranking with the first three students with a perfect average of 3.00.

Others were: John C. Geist, electrical engineering senior, 2.52; Thomas Laskaris, a senior in the school of agriculture, 2.45; Arthur C. Huston, chemical engineering sophomore, 2.37; L. J. Laskaris, a sophomore in the school of agriculture, 2.32; H. K. Preston, chemical engineering senior, 2.12 and J. R. Hutcheson, mechanical engineering sophomore, 2.07.

Robert Hoffman, a sophomore in the school of arts and science, earned a standing of 2.14, but was not placed on the honor roll because he was taking a short schedule and had not accumulated extra credits.

The average scholastic standing of the entire student body of Delaware college for the first term was 1.03.

18 Per Cent Average

On the honor roll were graduates of seventeen high schools and preparatory schools of the state. Newark, represented by 45 students had an 18 per cent representation among the scholastic leaders.

Ramsey Files to Seek Election On Town Council

COUNCILMAN RAMSEY

With Newark voters scheduled to name a mayor and members of the Town Council from each of the three districts on April 13, only one candidate has filed for office so far.

Councilman George E. Ramsey, seeking reelection from the Middle District, tossed his hat into the ring Monday. Elected to the office two years ago, Ramsey has filled an active and progressive tenure in the post.

Others Are Silent

Outside of expressing the fact that "I am getting a bit tired of public office," Mayor Frank Collins has refused to divulge any plans concerning his activities in the forthcoming election. He is completing his eighth year in office.

While neither Councilman C. Emerson Johnson from the Western District, nor Councilman George F. Ferguson from the Eastern District have issued any official statements, it is thought that they will both file for places on the governing body again. The filing limit is April 3.

Born in Pennsylvania

Born in Hickory Hill, Chester County, Pa., in 1876, Councilman Ramsey has resided on East Cleveland Avenue since 1922. A locomotive engineer on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, he has been in that concern's service for 38 years.

In addition to routine duties in handling the town's affairs, Councilman Ramsey is chairman of both the light and water committees.

Ambulance Due Next Week

According to word received from the Boyertown Body Works this week by George M. Haney, manager of the Wilmington Auto Sales Company of Newark, the long awaited ambulance purchased by public subscription will likely be delivered about April 1.

Labor difficulties, which held up the delivery of parts, and a minor flu epidemic, which hit workers in the body plant, have been given as reasons for the delay.

Evans Addresses Lions

On Tuberculosis Fight

G. Taggart Evans, secretary of the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society, gave an illustrated lecture before the Lions Club of Newark Tuesday night at the Deer Park Hotel. He was the guest of Dr. Paul K. Musselman, chairman. President Joseph M. McVey officiated.

Thirty years ago, stated Mr. Evans, the death rate from tuberculosis in the United States was 200 in every 100,000 annually. This has been reduced to 51.52 per 100,000 annually by greater knowledge, improved methods of treatment and concerted steps to stamp out the plague.

Carleton E. Douglass, superintendent of Newark Schools, was received as a new member by the club.

Easter Pageant

An Easter pageant, entitled "The Heart of the Cross," will be presented at 2 p. m. on Easter Sunday at Wesley Sunday School.

Bathrooms date back 5,000 years.

FILING LIMIT EXTENDED FOR CROP PROGRAM

County Farmers Given Until
April 1 to Enter Work
Sheets Under Plan

COMMITTEEMEN AIDING

An extension of time for New Castle County farmers wishing to participate in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program has been granted by the county committee, County Agricultural Agent George M. Worri- low, secretary, announced this week. The new date for filing work sheets has been set for April 1.

In making this announcement, Mr. Worri- low pointed out that the filing out of a work sheet does not obligate a farmer in any way, but does make him eligible to apply for cash benefits, some of which may be received without making any change in their present planned farm practices. Farms signed in 1936, where the acreage is identical with that given last year, do not need to sign again. They are eligible to participate in 1937.

Committeemen Can Help

Farmers who have moved during the last year are asked to contact their community committeemen for information concerning changes. New signers should also contact community committeemen and ascertain the benefits to be derived by participating in the 1937 program.

The following members of the county and community committeemen are assisting farmers in filling out work sheets:

E. H. Shallcross, B. Irvin Armstrong, Herman Cochran, Harris B. McDowell, Jr., all of Middletown; Joseph C. Hitchison, Townsend; Walter L. Marker, Clayton, Benjamin W. Vinton, St. Georges; R. T. Cann, Jr., Kirkwood; Barton T. Hopkins, New Castle; George K. Ball, Marshallton; William P. Naudain, Hockessin; J. Leslie Ford, Newark, and G. M. Worri- low, Newark.

Crop Loans Available To Farmers In County

Applications are being received for 1937 crop loans through the Emergency Crop Loan office at the county agent's headquarters, Newark. These loans are available only to farmers who do not have sufficient funds to carry on their farming operations and who are unable to secure loans for such purposes from any other source.

Loans are made in amounts ranging from $10 to $400 at 4 per cent interest. Details are being given out by J. K. Andrews, local supervisor, at the county agent's office every Wednesday between 10 and 2. Applications can be filed there any week day, however.

Lecturer Claims Grange Is Oldest Existing Organization For Farmers

By Robert Yearsley

Lecturer, Delaware State Grange

For more than 70 years the grange has been the path blazer and path finder of farm progress. Every step of the journey has used the power of education, organization and cooperation to protect the interests of the open country. Today, with speed and progress multiplied, with manifold comforts and wealth undreamed of a century ago, agriculture faces uncertainty. Only by combining the mental, moral and physical resources of rural life, and utilizing the power of organization, can we hope for continued progress and success.

Boasts Big Membership

The grange is organized in 35 states with a membership of 800,000, comprising more than 8,000 local units. It holds 200,000 meetings every twelve months, and owns 3,600 halls valued, with contents, at $26,000,000.

It requires that the American flag be displayed at every grange meeting. It admits to membership the young people from 14 years of age and maintains a juvenile branch for training boys and girls.

It embraces in its membership the whole family—father, mother, sons and daughters on an equal footing.

It is thoroughly democratic in its organization, with the self-governing local grange the basis of its activities.

LABOR GROUP'S MEETING HELD IN WOLF HALL

Local Organization Is Not
"Getting Square Deal,"
Is Claim Made

FEW PEOPLE PRESENT

Attempt To Hold Closed Session Is Thwarted By College Officials

Crying that certain employers were standing in the way of the development of a union of fibre workers in Newark, James T. Houghton, secretary of the Wilmington Central Labor Union and Joseph Gilles, of Baltimore, Md., made vigorous criticisms against "certain business men in the town," at an open meeting of the Delaware State Federation of Labor, held in Wolf Hall, Tuesday night.

Lamenting the fact that the local group has been denied even the right to a meeting place, Gilles vaguely stated, if the organization could not gain its ends in one manner, "we may have to find some other way."

Few People Present

About 75 persons, less than half of whom were from Newark, attended the session.

Prior to the meeting, an invitation was extended to all fibre workers in Newark to attend the meeting, but only a few were present.

President William D. Hart, who conducted the affair, stated in his opening address that the meeting was held for "the purpose of demonstrating how much the forces of labor are interested in better citizenship, as well as improved relations between labor and industry."

In announcements of the meeting, it was stated that Governor Richard C. McMullen had been invited to address the group. He was not there. Mayor Frank Collins, scheduled to give a talk on "Social Security," was also absent.

Gilles stated, "since the abolition of the N. R. A., people have come knocking on our doors and the fibre workers who have formed a branch of the American Federation of Labor in Newark, are not getting 'a square deal.'" He criticized local merchants for denying them a meeting hall, "because they are opposed to unionism." "Newark is 'Green Pastures,'" Houghton said in his opening remarks, before giving a report of the legislative committee, of which he is chairman.

"Citizens Hostile?"

Called again to the floor near the close of the meeting, he declared, "possibly the citizens are hostile to workers organized labor, but it would be well to give the organization some thought." Enlistment into the labor ranks is voluntary, he said.

Michael J. Shortley, field representative of the Regional Social Security Board, a graduate of Catholic University discussed old age pensions, and unemployment and sick insurance before the group.

The federation adopted a resolution commending Edward Crumbrook

Lesson for March 28

JOHN'S RECOLLECTION OF THE RISEN LORD.

LESSON TEXT—John 20:19-29; 21:20-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last: I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore. Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. Rev. 1:17, 18.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Our Living Lord.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Eating Breakfast With Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Who Saw Jesus After His Resurrection?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christ's Resurrection a Glorious Fact.

"The best authenticated fact in all history"—that is what competent historians have called the resurrection of Christ. One of America's greatest legal authorities used it as an illustration of how properly to prove a fact in court. If anyone comes to this lesson with doubts about the bodily resurrection of our Lord, let him give himself to a study of the evidence. He will find it overwhelmingly satisfying and complete.

That is as it should be, for the resurrection is vital to the completeness of man's redemption. Had Jesus died and remained in the grave, his claims would have been nullified; we should indeed have been "of all men most miserable" (I Cor. 15:19). But Paul goes on in triumphant faith, "Now is Christ risen from the dead." We have a resurrection faith, a living Saviour.

Our lesson brings before us our Lord in his post-resurrection appearance to his disciples, and a subsequent conversation with Peter. These verses fittingly tie up the resurrection of Christ with the life and service of his followers. Those who serve the risen Christ have an inward peace and an outward authority and power. Their convictions are based on the best of evidence and carry them forward to a life of personal responsibility and service.

I. Peace (20:19-21).

Peace of Soul is absolutely essential to useful and satisfied living. Only as we are "steadfast, immovable," can we be "abounding in the work of the Lord" (I Cor. 15:58). Steady at the center, active at the circumference.

II. Authority (vv. 21-23)

Commissioned and sent by the Son of God, clothed with Holy Spirit power, the Church of God has his authority. While some have read too much into verse 23, others have read out of it the real authority that God has given.

III. Conviction (vv. 24-29)

Thomas made the serious error of being absent from the gathering of the disciples when the Lord Jesus stood in their midst. Let those who commonly absent themselves from the place and hour of worship take heed lest they miss a blessing, and coming later add nothing to the spiritual life of the church, but rather become troublers and doubters. But God graciously turns the doubt of Thomas into a means of blessing to all of us who since then have read of his experience. Thomas was an honest doubter. God is always ready to meet such with satisfactory proof. The trouble is that there are so many in the world who use professed doubts to cover a life of sin.

Doubt may come to any man. In itself it is no sin. But to cherish it and hold to it in unbelief—that is a different matter. One wise spiritual leader rightly counselled his people, "Believe your beliefs and doubt your doubts. Never make the mistake of doubting your beliefs or believing your doubts."

When Thomas saw the Lord, doubt rapidly changed to strong personal conviction and abandonment of himself to his Lord and Saviour.

IV. Responsibility (21:20-24)

This incident took place at a later appearance of Jesus to a smaller group of the disciples. The irrepressible Peter has, as usual, a question to ask, "What shall this man do?" It is a right thing to be concerned about the welfare of others, to see to it that they live right and do right. But there is in our relationship to God a primary personal responsibility, our own lives. The writer of the Song of Solomon (1:6) spoke a profound and deep-cutting word when he said, "They made me keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard have I not kept." Perhaps Jesus is saying to me, or to you, the solemn words that he spoke to Peter, "What is that to thee? follow thou me."

Personal responsibility should be one of the most resolute factors in the making of manhood, as in the finding of salvation.

Duty and Honor

Despite danger and self-interest where duty and honor are concerned.—Selected.

The Music of Life

All one's life is a music, if one touches the notes rightly and in time.—Ruskin.

Comforters

God does not comfort us to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters.

"CHINESE DOCTOR"

"They say a Chinese doctor is paid to keep patients well rather than to cure them after they're taken ill. My job's a lot like that. I'm a wire chief in a telephone office. Here we control a great network of wires that make up the brain and nervous system of your telephone service. It's a big responsibility because if we fall down on the job—your service might fall down, too. That must not happen. So, day and night, we're constantly checking circuits, wires, frames and switches to prevent trouble. Checking to find trouble before you find it—to stop it before it affects your service."

No matter how much equipment we have in our central offices, your telephone service will not be all it should be unless you have adequate telephone equipment in your home, office, store or factory. Are you taking advantage of the latest developments? Is your telephone equipment adequate to meet your needs—now? Why not be sure? We'll be glad to check up for you. No obligation, of course. Just call the Business Office.

DRIVING A PRIVILEGE—NOT A RIGHT

It is high time we realized that the operation of a motor car on the public highways is a privilege not a right.

Every automobile is a potentially lethal weapon. Properly used, it is one of man's most desirable mechanical servants. Improperly used, it is a terrible menace to the lives, health and property of everyone in the area in travels.

Rigid training is necessary to obtain a license to pilot an airplane—yet the plane travels empty airways where, generally speaking, it cannot endanger others. Locomotive engineers must likewise undergo years of arduous experience, and must prove their physical and mental competence and responsibility before being entrusted with a train—yet a train operates on tracks, and has no traffic congestion problems. Still, in most states, we allow anyone—whether he be competent or incompetent, careless or reckless, of good habits or bad—to drive a car on crowded arteries of travel, where the slightest error of judgment may cause a death!

It is an undeniable fact that a considerable percentage of the people now driving should either be denied that privilege or forced to undergo a period of training to make them abler, safer car operators. Some of these people are physically incapable of driving properly. Many more are mentally incapable, congenitally incompetent, or reckless. And the toll is 35,000 lives a year.

We will never solve the accident problem until we adopt drivers' licensing regulations that will keep the incompetent and reckless driver off the public roads. No man has a "right" to drive until he can show definitely that he is worthy of the "privilege" bestowed upon him.

Funds Sought by Group For Cancer Drive

ticle by Mrs. Beacom, announces its aims to spread cancer education, through a lay organization, to interest the entire population in understanding the facts concerning it, and in taking the necessary precautions to prevent its development.

Mortality Rate High
Statistics in Delaware, as presented in an article and graphs by Dr. A. C. Yost, executive secretary of the State Board of Health, show a general rise in the cancer death rate during the last 25 years, with a higher average, during recent years, than for the United States Registration area as a whole for the same period. "The figure, for Delaware, has risen from below 80 at the beginning, to over 100 per 100,000 at the end of that period."

This excess in Delaware has been attributed, probably rightly, to the presence in the state of a greater proportion of persons of ages subject to cancer incident, than in the registration area as a whole.

Carrying the title, "Doctor, Tell Me . . . ?" a series of questions present, in catechism form, the pertinent facts of cancer every lay person should know. Herein is answered, "What is Cancer?", its cause, its seriousness in Delaware, its curability, and what cure may be accomplished, as well as many other important questions.

Must Overcome "Blind Fear"
"Psychological Blocks to Cancer Control," an article by Dr. C. C. Little, managing director of the society, lists those reasons that people delay securing treatment. Among them are, "The blind fear and disgust that many still feel towards cancer and any discussion of it; the widespread belief that cancer is incurable; the feeling that cancer education causes cancer phobias, that the hurt done to nervous and neurotic people outweighs the good done through lives saved; the despairing conviction that even many intelligent people have that if a parent dies of cancer, so will they; the faith in quacks and bottled 'cures' and other fake nostrums."

Oscar for Time

At its annual banquet in Hollywood last week, the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences bestowed its most publicized prize, for the best U. S. performance of the year by an actress, upon Luise Rainer for her role as Anna Held in "The Great Ziegfeld." To Paul Muni, for his work in the title role of "The Story of Louis Pasteur," the academy gave its award for the 1936 best performance by an actor. Token of an academy is a goldplated statuette, which the cinema industry calls an Oscar. The Oscar for the year's best direction went to Frank Capra for "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." The academy gave out 15 other Oscars for everything from film editing to sound recording, including one to Walt Disney (his fifth) for the best cartoon of the year, Mickey Mouse's "Country Cousin." Rarest prize awarded by the academy is its special award for the outstanding contribution to the industry, given only when the committee feels that there has been a contribution outstanding enough to deserve it. Last week for the fifth time, a Special Award Oscar was handed by Toastmaster George Jessel to Vice President Roy E. Larson of Time Inc., for "The March of Time," because it had "revolutionized" one of the most important branches of the industry—Newsreel. Its creativeness is looked upon by the academy as a "shot in the arm" for the whole newsreel field. "Time Marches On!"

State Theatre News

Friday and Saturday

More than ever before, action and adventure are in demand by the film-going public. To satisfy this demand Hollywood is turning out a larger percentage of such offerings. The latest contender for thrill honors is being offered by RKO Radio Pictures in "Sea Devils," a gripping drama of the Coast Guard afloat and ashore. Cramped with action that includes two daring rescues at sea and the demolition of a huge iceberg in the North Atlantic steamer lanes, the picture was made with the full cooperation of the U. S. Coast Guard authorities, and many scenes were filmed aboard one of the finest cutters in the service, the 250-foot tubro-electric Tahoe. Against this colorful background, the story deals with the hostilities between two coast guardsmen, Victor McLaglen and Preston Foster, over Foster's attentions to McLaglen's daughter, Ida Lupino. Donald Woods, Helen Flint and Gordon Jones head the supporting cast.

Monday and Tuesday

A best-seller for two years, Lloyd C. Douglas' novel, "Green Light" has been translated to the screen, retaining all of its original strength and beauty, and brought to life by a more than competent cast including Errol Flynn, Anita Louise, Margaret Lindsay and Walter Abel, in the Cosmopolitan production by the same name. Under the fluid and artistic direction of Frank Borzage who has had many film hits to his credit, "Green Light" is said to hit a new high mark in adult film entertainment.

Added to the bill for the two days will be the latest issue of "The March of Time."

Wednesday

The most talked of troupe of entertainers of this section of the country are the Sleepy Hollow Cowgirls and Cowboys heard every day over radio the visitors under the direction of Mrs. L. J. Ford.

Guessing games between members of Pencader and Hockessin ended in ties, much to the embarrassment of Bro. D. M. Buckingham. Horace Woodward, master of Center, was present and extended greetings.

Harmony celebrated young people's night on Monday evening. After a short business meeting the time was spent in dancing to the music of Ray Wivel and his band. An Easter program will be given on March 29 and Rev. John D. Blake will be the speaker. On April 5, the young people of Ebenezer Church will present the three-act comedy, "Lookout, Lizzie!", for the benefit of the home economics committee.

station WCAU, Philadelphia. This troupe of stars will make their debut in this town on this day. They will make their appearances three times on the stage of this playhouse 7, 9 and 11 p. m. These actors have made such a hit with the people in this section that in many towns they have returned to accommodate the hundreds that were unable to see them their first appearance. Herman Handloff, manager of the State Theatre, was very fortunate in booking these stars to appear in his theatre, as they are very much in demand. A picture has been added to the bill, "Clarence," Booth Tarkington's comedy hit starring Roscoe Karns and Eleanor Whitney. The admission for this day only will be adults 50c and children 25c.

Thursday

For this day only this theatre will show "A Family Affair," starring Lionel Barrymore. If you remember "Ah Wilderness" of a few months ago, this film is of the same type. Cash prizes will be given away as usual.

Church Services

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NEWARK

Thursday evening, 7:45, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Friday evening, 7:45, special worship service. Easter Sunday, sunrise service at 6:30 a. m.; 11:00 a. m., Easter sermon and special music; 7:30 p. m., the choir under the direction of Mrs. T. D. Mylrea will present an Easter cantata, "The Eternal Question, 'If a man die, shall he live again?'"

Presbyterian Choir To Present Easter Cantata

On Easter Sunday, at 7:30 p. m., under the direction of Mrs. T. D. Mylrea, the choir of the First Presbyterian Church of Newark, will present a cantata, "The Eternal Question," an entirely new composition by Herbert F. Moore and Russell Habcock Miller.

This work is a definite departure from the usual type of Easter cantata. The music is of much higher quality and the libretto has a distinct literary merit. Quotations from several of the ancient philosophers are introduced which heightens the effect of the Christian answers. The usual division into separate numbers has been dispensed with, thus bringing to the work a continuity not otherwise obtainable.

ROAMIN' WITH RUTLEDGE

At Last!!!

Everything comes to him who waits, runs an adage, and, after a stretch of 35 years, (now you know), we have finally been initiated into the Ancient and Bore-some Order of Scar Bellies. Yep, we've had an operation and we're ready to sling adjectives with any male or female who gives us the slightest opening.

"THE ROAMER"

We are, in fact, quite anxious to train our verbal guns on a long list of people who have, in countless instances, caused us to yawn with stories of "my operation."

Either we were unusually fortunate or the majority of people were kidding when they told us of inconveniences and sufferings in hospitals. We never had a better time anywhere—ever. Sure, we had gas pains and there were moments when our "fanny" and the rubber sheet felt like they were becoming as one, but with it all there were countless laughs.

Our "vacation" was spent in Wilmington's Homeopathic, where nurses, internes and orderlies couldn't do too much for our comfort, and where, if we ever needed another cuttin', Dr. John C. ("Jinx" to former University of Delaware classmates) Pierson can remove our gizzard, or anything else he deems necessary.

Glad To Be Back

Discharged from the hospital ten days after entering, we spent a portion of the last week in Atlantic City. Advertised as the "Playground of the World," the famous shore resort is like a morgue in winter.

We went there for a rest and, to our disappointment, we got it. Not a blond in sight! If there were any comely femmes of appropriate age (anything under 50) in the entire town, the police must have had 'em. That's not kidding, either. We made an extended search.

Returning to our desk on Monday, we found it good to be back. People—everyone has been swell. We were in excellent hands at all times and there was little that anyone could do further for us. Voluntary offers of financial aid and numerous other kind proposals, however, are to be appreciated, whether needed or not. We do appreciate them and hope to get that idea across to our friends—close and not so close. They all responded, it seems.

They Like Roberts

Chinning with the boys in the publicity office of the Atlantic City Auditorium, where Delaware and P. M. C. have had occasion to play a few football games, we learned that Dick (Pinkie) Roberts, captain-elect of the 1937 Blue Hen gridders, is the man-of-the-hour, so to speak.

They regard Roberts as another Monk Meyer, if placed on a strong team. It was pleasing to them to hear that he will return to Atlantic City next fall as captain of the local array. Pleading to all of us, eh?

This information wasn't handed out in the publicity office, but we were told that the $16,000,000 municipally owned auditorium has been very much of a "white elephant."

Atlantic City carries a debt of $40,000,000, which means that each of the 62,000 men, women and children listed as permanent residents owes close to $646, not counting interest. All of which leads one to believe that "playgrounds" are expensive propositions. Hotel rates prove that, of course.

BI-STATE LOOP HAS FIVE TEAMS
REGARDED AS CERTAIN STARTERS

Two Additional Prospects in View; Heads Meet at Elkton Again Friday; Four Clubs File in Twilight Circuit; New Ideas Include Umpire and Admission Fees

By "The Roamer"

Two baseball circuits—the Bi-State and Newark Twilight—which hold the center of the local stage during the summer, met during the week with an eye to arranging things for the approaching campaign.

Some Slight Encouragement

That another campaign is in prospect for the two-year-old Bi-State loop was given slight encouragement Sunday at the Elkton session when representatives from Glenroy, Pa., bid for a franchise and Taylor Biles, who piloted Perryville to the 1936 gonfalon, made signs of placing a team in Oxford this year.

With Newark and Providence, the latter the lone remaining charter member still functioning, retaining franchises and Fort Du Pont having filed an entry some weeks ago, the loop lacks only one additional starter.

Two Possibilities

While no definite word has been received from either center, it is reliably reported that a combined Middletown-Townsend team may seek a berth, and another rumor is going the rounds that a team from Hockessin may elect to enter the circuit.

A final effort to organize the league will be made Friday night when another meeting will take place at Elkton. If a sixth starter does not report then it is likely that the Bi-State organization will disband.

Frank Lawson, Wilmington sporting goods dealer, has been making brave attempts to interest teams there in joining the wheel, but they are reluctant to add to heavy mid-week schedules already being played in city circuits.

Four In Twilight

Four teams—Continental Diamond Fibre Company, National Vulcanized Fibre Company, Newark Cardinals and Jackson's Hardware Store—will comprise the Newark Twilight League, it developed at a meeting Tuesday night.

With plans afoot to combine all of the better players in the area on the limited entries, Secretary-Treasurer Ellis Cullen, regarded as the greatest single power behind the group, looks for an improved brand of action.

The league, stated Cullen, has been functioning for some nine years, but the class of baseball offered has been worse than poor. He looks for greater interest from fans and players alike under what he hopes will be improved conditions.

Seek Bill's Services

Efforts are being made to obtain the services of LeRoy Hill, manager of the J. Allison O'Daniel Junior Legion team for several seasons, to guide the Cardinals.

W. Harry Dawson will pilot the Jackson array, Charles Moore will lead the 1936 champions from National Fibre, and Cullen will handle the affairs for Continental.

Among anticipated changes to be tried by the league will be an official umpire in the person of Norman Foster, Cherry Hill, Md., a member of the Bi-State staff, and a small but stipulated admission fee for all games.

Season tickets at greatly reduced rates will soon be placed on sale for the benefit of fans who are regular patrons of the loop.

Martin and Huss Open
Title Series Monday

Jimmy Martin, Newark, and Chester Huss, Oxford, who finished in a first-place deadlock at the end of the Tri-State Pocket Billiards League race last week, will open a 500-point title series on Monday.

The first block of 125 points will be played at the State Parlor here. Tuesday night the rivals play at Brown and Cunningham's, Port Deposit; continue the series at Hanna's, Rising Sun, on Wednesday; and complete the test at Oxford on Thursday.

soon start training a Chesapeake Bay pup from the Carpenter kennels . . . they're all champions, too.

Jordan Tops Big
Field at Weekly
Gunning Contest

Harvey Jordan enjoyed a big day at the weekly trap shoot staged under the auspices of the Newark Baseball Club last Saturday when he captured a pair of chickens and three second prizes at Dameron's Field. He smashed 45 "pigeons" out of 55 attempts to pace a large field.

Paul Whiteman was another accurate marksman. His score of 38x47 enabled him to cart four chickens home as prizes. Kinsey Whiteman, 24x34, won a pair of chickens and two second prizes.

Bill Barrow, 24x44, took a pair of second prizes, while Ralph Whiteman and Clifford Lomax also won second awards.

List Complete Scores

Complete results for the day are as follows: Jordan, 45x55; Barrow, 24x44; Crompton, 5x20; K. Whiteman, 24x34; P. Whiteman, 38x47; Smith, 20x43; Collins, 8x25; Wilson, 3x15; R. Whiteman, 25x35; Edmanston, 17x36; Lomax, 18x22; Pierpont, 1x5; E. Cornog, 7x20; Silotte, 2x10; Clark, 1x5; Lawson, 8x18; Lloyd, 2x5; Little, 11x17; Singles, 11x14; P. Cornog, 7x11; Roger, 3x5; and Johnston, 2x5.

Jordan, Barrow and Little were handicapped to 20 yards. The series of shoots will be continued this week, Jack Edmanston, promoter, announced.

Cullen Leads Tossers
Against Delaware foe

With weather permitting, the initial baseball game of the 1937 season will be played at Fraser Field Saturday, when Ellis Cullen will lead a picked team against the University of Delaware in a practice tilt.

Playing under the popular Continental Diamond pilot's banner will be Perry and Peterson, catchers; Conway, Argo and Boyd, pitchers; Lloyd, Lucas, Cooney, Herstine, Chalmers, Hubbs, and Bridgewater, infielders; Cain, Johnson, George, and Price, outfielders.

Perry and George are ineligible players from the university nine, while the rest of the starters have been gathered principally from the ranks of the Bi-State League.

Bardo and Shields Enter
State Badminton Tourney

Edward C. Bardo, head of the Physical Education Department at the University of Delaware and Joseph A. Shields, instructor and director of the intra-mural program, have entered the state badminton tournament which will be staged at the Wilmington Y. M. C. A. on April 2 and 3. Fin Layson and Oscar Lott, students, are also expected to enter. Bardo was runner-up in the tourney last year.

FLASHES

By BILL FLETCHER

AFTER ACTING LIKE a balky slugger in a batting slump or a pouty gal during the regular season, Old Man Winter decided last week to snap out of his season indifference and go into action.

His efforts resulted in the heaviest snowfall this year and a succession of "s n a p p y" days which have proved a stymie to the spring sports program at the University of Delaware.

Slated to take his charges on the annual Southern trip, Coach Gerald (Doc) Doherty's hurlers have been forced to limit their drills to gymnasium workouts and March 30 will probably find them ill-prepared for the first tilt with Virginia Medical College.

A few of the more enthusiastic trackmen have been seen on Fraser Field through the latter part of the winter and since the season doesn't get underway until April 17, Coach Ed Bardo's men seem to have been harmed little by the sudden twist in the temperature.

Tennis is taking the biggest kick along with baseball since the courts cannot be rounded into shape with alternate periods of frost and dampness occurring. Coach Ralph W. Jones' racketeers have ten matches scheduled with the opening date of the campaign set at April 24.

IT LOOKS LIKE a busy spring, what with baseball, track, tennis and golf absorbing the varsity performers and Joseph Shields, director of the intramural activities offering boxing, badminton, softball, ping-pong, and wrestling.

The Blue Hen oval-pacers and hefties will have an opportunity to redeem in a small measure for the throbbing defeat at the hands of the Washington College gridders and two cage setbacks at the hand of the same team last year.

The Hens will swap discs heaven and strides with the Sho'men on two occasions this spring—a dual meet scheduled for May 12 and the Mason and Dixon Conference meet which is slated for Homewood Field in Baltimore, May 8.

George Ekaitis is pointing his nose toward a victory in this get-together and he is determined to repeat the surprise conquest of last year. With this in view, he is pointing his track squad to reach its peak if possible at that date.

WITH A VETERAN squad as a nucleus and strengthened by additions from the freshmen recruits, Ekaitis indicates that Washington College will have the strongest track and field team in its history this season.

Gibby Young, who has sufficiently recovered from an illness to start serious training, a one-man track team in himself, will be limited this spring to fewer events. Ekaitis plans to have Young concentrate on the dashes and hurdles and the lead.

BY ACTUAL COUNT, 335 competitors took part in the four events that far scheduled by intramural powers. Some were repeaters, it's true, but nevertheless, 335 non-varsity athletes in action is some figure—that was only FOUR events.

Ninety more are slated to export calories in badminton alone, with boxing, wrestling, volleyball, softball, paddle tennis and track are even slated to take up additional slack in non-varsity fields.

According to reports, the fraternities are attempting to get together for the inter-frat relay again this year. (Continued on Page 7)
