Miss Null Recounts Narrow Escape In Nanking Disorders

Letter From Missionary Tells of Attack by Chinese and of Escape to Shanghai

MABEL JONES ALSO SAFE

Friends here who have been anxiously awaiting news of Miss Miriam Null, who has been in China during all the recent trouble there will be interested in a letter received here last evening by Miss Jane Smith. The letter dated April 15, 1927, from Baikal Road, Shanghai follows:

"I know the newspapers at home have been publishing all sorts of stories about our troubles at Nanking, so I want to write you a note tonight to let you know I am safe and well in Shanghai. When I got time, I shall try to write a detailed account of our experience on that awful 24th day of March. I have been busy trying to catch up the loose ends of our work which has been so sadly broken up. I am also spending considerable time trying to refurnish my wardrobe, as we arrived in Shanghai with no other worldly possessions but the clothing on our backs and a few pieces of laundry which the old laundryman brought to us just before we were escorted to the gunboat.

Suffice it to say that I now believe in miracles more than ever before. After Miss Moffet was shot about 8:00 a. m. on March 24th, she and I spent most of the rest of the day under a pile of straw in a mat shed in the school compound. We heard the school being demolished. Soldiers were firing all around our hut and even took some of the students' and teachers' things hidden under a pile of straw very near our hut. Yet, no soldier put his head inside our hiding place all day. Nothing was done for Miss Moffet's wounds until about ten o'clock that night. One bullet entered her body near the middle of the abdomen and went out at the back of the hip, cracking the hip bone. Yet it did not pierce the abdominal cavity. The other bullet made only a slight flesh wound above her knee. Today, she walked with me in the hospital garden and will probably leave the hospital on Monday. God is surely

Dr. Candee Will Fill Presbyterian Pulpit

Dr. Hallman To Be In California
Three Weeks

Dr. Charles L. Candee, of Wilmington, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and for the two succeeding Sunday mornings. Dr. Hallman, pastor of the church, will leave Saturday for San Francisco, where he will attend the session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. to which conference he is a delegate. He will return June 10.

THE HALL OF FAME

Six more places in the Hall of Fame on the campus of New York University have been filled, with the unveiling of the busts of five men and one woman, whose names have been chosen for that honor.

The busts unveiled were those of John James Audubon, the famous naturalist, William Ellery Channing, the noted preacher and theologian, Admiral David Farragut, Benjamin Franklin, Washington Irving (You remember Rip van Winkle?), and Mary Lyon, a pioneer in the education of women, and founder of Mount Holyoke College.

PRICKED BY BAYONET

Broddius Jones, a student and an R. O. T. C. cadet earned a wound stripe last week when he received a cut in the stomach from a bayonet in the hands of a fellow student. The occurrence was accidental and Jones not badly injured. After having his wound dressed at the Flower Hospital, he was discharged.

Firemen Out

The Aetna Fire Company has practically completed its arrangements to take part in the Firemen's Parade, in Bridgeton, N. J., this Saturday. The crack bugle corps of the Delaware Post, American Legion, numbering 50 pieces, has been engaged to accompany the Company, and the Stutz engine and the ambulance will be driven in the line of march. The local contingent will leave the Fire House at 12:30, daylight time.

All members of the Aetna Company are urged to be in line, and make their intention known to R. E. Ramsey, chairman of the parade committee. Any members not having uniforms should get in touch with Mr. Ramsey. For those who want to see the parade, the round-trip fare to Bridgeton is $2.00.

Large Local Entry In County Field Meet

350 Competitors From Newark

BAYARD TO BE DRAWYERS SPEAKER

United States Senator Bayard will be the speaker at the annual service of Old Drawer's Presbyterian Church, Odessa, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 5. The preacher for the morning service in the old church on the same day has not been announced.

C. C. CARD PARTY

The annual card party of the Newark Country Club will be given at the New Century Club on Tuesday, May 17, at 8 p. m., daylight saving time. Mrs. Eastman is chairman of tables; Mrs. J. P. Cann, of refreshments; Mrs. E. B. Wright and Mrs. Bonham, of prizes.

Memorial Day Plans Are Partially Made

A. G. Wilkinson Will Again Arrange Ceremony For Town; Exercises
To Be Held At Boulevard At 10 O'clock

Arthur G. Wilkinson, business administrator of the University of Delaware, has again been appointed by Mayor Frazer to arrange for the Town of Newark's Memorial Day exercises. Mr. Wilkinson has already partially completed his program.

The ceremonies will begin at 10 a. m., standard time, and will be held on the University campus at the boulevard which marks the spot where the selected service men took the oath before being sent to the camps during the World War. Dr. Walter Hüllihen, president of the University, will preside. The Reverend Disston W. Jacobs, the new pastor of the Newark Methodist Church, will make the Memorial Day address. The Reverend R. B. Mathews, pastor of St. Thomas P. E. Church will give the invocation. R. G. Buckingham will recite Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address". Professor R. W. Helm has been asked to lead community singing. All organizations have been asked to cooperate in completing the program.

It has been suggested that this year instead of the various organizations placing elaborate wreaths on the stone, as has been the custom, that the school children decorate the stone with wild flowers, and that the money usually spent for wreaths be contributed to the Red Cross for the Mississippi Valley flood sufferers. Whether or not this suggestion is followed will be decided by the contributing organizations.

Second Liberty Loan Bonds To Be Paid

Mellon Calls Second Liberty Loan
Bonds for Payment November 15, 1927

Secretary Mellon has called for payment on November 15, 1927, all outstanding Second Liberty Loan bonds. Interest on these bonds will cease on November 15, 1927. Approximately $1,700,000,000 of these bonds are now outstanding.

While the bonds will be paid on November 15, 1927, it is quite probable that during the next six months the Treasury will extend to the holders of the Second Liberty Loan bonds an opportunity to exchange them for other Government securities. No announcement has as yet been made as to the type of security to be offered in exchange, or the date on which the exchange offer may be expected. The Treasury explains that the terms of the bonds require that a notice be given to the public six months in advance of the redemption date. The Secretary's announcement, therefore, does not mean that the bonds will be paid at the present time, but merely places the holders on notice that their bonds will be redeemed on November 15, and will cease to bear interest on that date.

If holders of Second Liberties desire to have their bonds redeemed, they should present them for payment on November 15, 1927, but if they desire other Government obligations in place of their Second, they should watch for further announcement and notify their bank to keep them informed of any exchange offering that may later be made by the Treasury.

In 1917 and 1918, it will be recalled, when the Government was selling

NEW BOOKS AT LIBRARY

The following new books will be on the shelves of the Newark Town Library by Saturday of this week:

Tish Plays the Game—Mary Roberts Rinehart.

The Big Mogul—Joseph C. Lincoln. Under the Ponto Run—Zane Grey. Cherry Square—Grace Richmond. The Enchanted April—By the Author of "Elizabeth and Her German Garden."

Tomorrow Morning—Anne Parrish. The Kenworthy—Margaret Wilson. The Joyous Conspirator—George Gibbs. Sylvia of the Minute—Helen Martin.

Visiting Nurse Ass'n Needs Extra Money

Faces Shortage Of Funds To Complete Year; Drive To Start
May 16

At a meeting of the Visiting Nurses Association of Newark, held at the office of Dr. Wallace M. Johnson last Thursday evening, it was decided to make a special effort to increase the number of those contributing to the success of the movement. The Treasurer's report, at the end of the seventh month since the organization of the Association, revealed a shortage in funds with which to complete the work of the year. A committee was appointed to make a canvass of the town to secure enough additional funds to complete the year. The committee includes: Miss Elsie Wright, Mrs. H. L. Bonham, Mrs. C. O. Houghton, Dr. George W. Rhodes and D. A. McClintock.

Following a meeting to which interested citizens and representatives of the various organizations in the town were invited, Newark determined, last October, to provide a community nurse. After the possibilities in the plan had been presented by Dr. E. M. Davis, of the State Board of Health, the committee organized, with Dr. W. M. Johnson as president of the association and S. J. Turner secretary and treasurer. An appeal was immediately made to citizens, to finance the movement.

The result to date, has been various contributions from manufacturing plants of the town and a small number of private citizens. In addition, a small income has been provided each month by fees paid by insurance companies for services rendered their clients, and by individuals resident in the community, able to pay for the services of the nurse. A small allowance has also been received from the State Board of Health for work done by the local nurse, heretofore carried by a State nurse.

With over a thousand visits to her credit, in the homes of the neighborhood since last October, there seems to be little doubt in the minds of anyone concerning the value of a community nurse to Newark. Health is peculiarly a community problem. It is impossible to have illness in one quarter without proving a menace for all. The community wants many supporters. It needs an expression of interest from many of the town's citizens which can best be conveyed by contributions, however small circumstances.

Anchor Lodge To Entertain

Anchor Lodge, No. 4, Ancient Order of United Workmen, will entertain friends after the regular meeting on Tuesday evening, May 24, in their lodge room at Odd Fellows Hall. At the meeting last evening a committee was appointed to prepare a program for the event. Another feature of the meeting last evening was the initiation of two candidates.

It was announced that the A. O. U. W. Boosters Club will hold a meeting at the home of Mr. Kennedy Fell and Miss Alice Fell, on Thursday evening of next week.

On last Thursday evening a party of twenty-three Workmen and friends of Newark attended "Howard McCall Night" given by Wilmington Lodge No. 1, in honor of the new Grand Master Workman, at A. O. U. W. Hall, Wilmington. Mr. Kennedy Fell sang several solos, accompanied by his sister, Miss Alice Fell, Mr. Price Jackson gave several harmonica solos, and Miss Charlotte Jackson gave a Charleston exhibit.

INTER-SCHOLASTIC DANCE

The annual Inter-Scholastic Dance, when the Student Council of the University of Delaware entertained the visiting athletes, was held last Saturday evening in the Armory and was largely attended. Shorter's Orchestra played. The patronesses were: Mrs. J. P. Cann, Mrs. G. E. Dutton, Mrs. G. L. Townsend, and Miss Ehlers.

TEACHERS' STUDY CLUB

That unit of the Teachers' Study Classes which includes the rural schools nearest Newark met yesterday at Ogletown School. After the study hour, the nine teachers present enjoyed a course dinner, prepared in the school room.

Clean-Up Days

Wednesday and Thursday, May 18 and 19 have been appointed by the Town Council as "clean-up days," and everyone is urged to clean out all rubbish from garrets, cellars and yards and have it on the curb on those two dates. The Council has arranged to have the rubbish carted away at that time, having engaged extra help to haul the anticipated extra amount.

College Elections

Last week, in the University elections, David Loveland was chosen president of next year's senior class, Raymond Grubb, vice-president, and William Derriksen, secretary-treasurer. Loveland's election to the class presidency automatically places him on the Student Council. Francis A. Reardon was selected as senior representative on the Athletic Council.

Both colleges voted on the "Review" staff with the following result:

Ralph Robinson was elected editor-in-chief; "Doc" Corley, business manager; Francis Reardon, Delaware College editor; Lillian Benson, Women College editor.

In the Student Council elections, held in Wolf Hall this morning, James E. Wilson was elected president of the Student Council on a very close vote with Loveland and Creamer placing second and third, respectively. The senior representatives elected were as follows: Creamer, Loveland and Roemer. The juniors, Reese and French, and the sophomores, Kimble and Taylor.

Good Attendance At Teacher Conference

Governor and Mrs. Robinson Guests at Opening Dinner

Over 150 teachers from Delaware high schools, and members of the faculty of the University of Delaware attended the ninth annual meeting of the Delaware State High School Conference, opening with a dinner Friday evening, and continuing through Saturday.

Governor and Mrs. Robinson were guests at the dinner, held in the new dining hall at the Women's College. Dr. Hüllihen introduced Dr. Burton P. Fowler, of Tower Hill School, who was toastmaster. The following program was carried out:

Greetings, Governor Robert P. Robinson, Dean George E. Dutton, Delaware College; Dean Winifred J. Robinson, Women's College; violin solo, Miss Ann Barelay (Miss Eleanor Edge at the piano); responses, Superintendent W. H. Jump, president, Delaware State Education Association; Miss Sallie R. Shaw, president, Wilmington Teachers' Association; vocal solo, Miss Lois Simmons (Miss Edge at the piano); "What Next in Secondary Education in Delaware?" John Shilling, assistant state superintendent in charge of high schools; M. Channing Wagner, principal, Wilmington High School; general discussion; reception, Women's College faculty clubrooms.

On Saturday morning, Dr. Hüllihen was the main speaker at the meeting held in Old College. His subject was "The Relation of the University to the High School." Professor W. A. Wilkinson discussed "Studies of the Abilities of the University Freshman." Dr. D. O. Evans led a conference on the teaching of French in high schools. Saturday afternoon most of the visiting teachers attended the inter-scholastic track and field meet on Frazer Field.

HOME DEMONSTRATION LEADER

Mrs. Helen McKinley has succeeded the late Miss Kathryn Woods as State Leader in Home Demonstration Work. Mrs. McKinley, who assumed her new duties May first, spent last year at the University of Maryland as clothing expert. For six years preceding last year she was District Agent for Home Demonstration at Purdue University, Indiana.

Mrs. McKinley will have her headquarters here, and will make her home with Mrs. Clara Nickerson, on Amstel avenue.

Service Citizens Plan To Disband

P. S. du Pont, Founder-Patron, At Loss For Plan; Solution May Be Offered At September Meeting

At the annual meeting of the Service Citizens, held in Wilmington last week, Dr. Joseph H. Odell, director, announced that steps were being taken to disband the organization, except for such departments as were necessary to honor their building commitments.

In July, the income from the Pierre S. du Pont endowment, established in 1918, will cease, and in September the charter will expire. Since 1918 the Service Citizens have spent approximately $5,000,000 for education in Delaware.

Dr. Odell in reviewing the work of the Service Citizens, stated: "We are compelled to assert that since 1918 there has been one man who has served this republic with conspicuous unselfishness and here has been a large and honorable body of citizens who have gratefully recognized his ideals and efforts."

"The Service Citizens was founded in 1918. During that year we made our supreme effort across the sea and at home. When victory finally came we had all become accustomed to sacrifice, we had formed the habit of living at our best, we believed there were no insuperable obstacles. The purpose of the Service Citizens was to capitalize and perpetuate this splendid dedication for the permanent good of the State of Delaware. We hoped to see all diseases quenched by science, all ignorance and illiteracy die out under the pure white light of truth, all social injustice displaced by a generous equity, all bigotry driven from its dark dens by the genial glow of charity, all passion regulated by the sway of reason."

"We believe that we have fulfilled our mission in spirit and indeed to the very letter. Never before has any state had given to its people such a scientific description of existing conditions or received demonstrations so extensive and complete. In many instances we have gone beyond what our charter contemplated, until, in Americanization, community organization, studies of school attendance and the erection of public school buildings our state has become a source of inspiration to the entire nation. We rest content with the verdict of 48 states."

"To our president, Pierre S. du Pont, belongs the praise. He has not only made the phenomenal work possible by financial support, but he has inspired us all in the rare experiment by his superb example of unselfish public service."

Mr. du Pont, in commenting on the future of the organization, stated that he was at a loss for any plan, but said that there might be plans offered at the final meeting in September that would provide for continuing the organization. On a motion by John Saylor, it was voted to authorize Mr. du Pont to appoint a committee of seven to work out a plan for the continuation of the Service Citizens. This committee will report at the September meeting.

Gray Beats Malcom For School Board

Polls 424 Votes Against 124 for Opponent; Largest Vote In History of Election

Harrison Gray was re-elected to the Board of Education, Newark Special School District, by an overwhelming majority in the election held last Saturday afternoon. There were 548 votes cast, the largest poll in the history of Newark school elections; 424 votes were cast for Mr. Gray, and his opponent, Mr. Mark P. Malcom, received 124.

Mr. Gray, having served on the Board for twelve years, will be starting his fifth term in office. The election officials were: Harvey Hofferker, judge; Charles Colmery and Orlando K. Strahorn, clerks.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Education tonight.

"THE MERCHANT OF VENICE"

The Merchant of Venice will be presented by the Dramatic Club of Women's College in Wolf Hall on May 14th, at seven o'clock, standard time.

Derelicts and Druids Choose New Members

The new members for the Derelicts, senior honorary society, and the Druids, sophomore honorary society, of Delaware College, were advised of their election Saturday.

The members of the Derelicts assembled in the early afternoon on the steps of Old College and one by one went down the steps to "tap" the chosen candidates.

Those selected follow: R. J. McClellan, Wilmington; Fred Creamer, Jenkintown, Pa.; J. E. Wilson, New Castle; D. S. Loveland, Woodstown, N. J.; L. W. Moore, Smyrna; George L. Townsend, III, Newark; W. B. Derickson, Jr., Selbyville; J. H. Roser, Hockessin; W. J. Coppack, Philadelphia; J. D. Sparklin, Newport; J. W. Jones, Middletown; Victor Lichtenstein, Wilmington; T. S. Buck, Wilmington.

The Druids made their selections from the freshman class. They assembled in a triangle on the embankment of Frazer Field while the inter-scholastic meet was in progress and each member went out on the field to notify the new member of his selection. A paddle was used to notify the new Druids who are as follows:

A. S. Barton, Wilmington; C. W. Wright, Georgetown; L. G. Powell, Kennett Square, Pa.; I. S. Taylor, Wilmington; A. J. Taylor, Wilmington; C. B. Kimble, Oxford, Pa.; H. W. Ryon, Harrington; Robert P. Robinson, Jr., Newport, son of Governor Robinson; J. L. Lattomus, Wilmington; G. C. Milne, Springfield, Mass.; P. T. Burton, Lewes; E. E. Weidlich, Pameck, N. J.; W. E. Biggin, Pitman, N. J.; I. D. Hill, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Lodge Gives Entertainment

Mineola Council, No. 17, Degree of Pocahontas, was the scene of much merriment on Wednesday evening, May 4. About thirty members from Little Elk Council, Fair Hill, Maryland, attended and were received by the officers of Mineola Council. Viola Ewing, Pocahontas, presided, and, after a short session of business and a word of welcome to the visitors, turned the lodgeroom over to the entertainment committee.

Georgianna Palmer was then introduced as toastmistress. The following brought greetings from their council: Mrs. Edward Todd, Florence E. Abernathy, Margaret Jackson, and Jennie Pennington. Lillian Messick and Viola Ewing sang a duet. Mr. Edward Todd gave a short talk. He spoke of the zealous faith the primitive Red Men and Pocahontas had in the Great Spirit. Gertrude Jacobs gave a recitation entitled "Especially Jim." Little Helen Vansant played a piano solo. She was highly applauded and responded with an encore. Helen Creswell sang a solo and Mary Jane Devonshire recited "The Smack in School." A very impressive speech was delivered by A. T. Abernathy of Cherry Hill. He suggested that the Degree of Pocahontas and the Improved Order of Red Men celebrate the birth of the Stars and Stripes on June 14. Charlotte Jackson sang "The Burglar Bold," Anna Maclary recited "The Midnight Train," and Helen Tweed sang "Get Away, Old Man, Get Away." Mark P. Malcom was called upon and delivered a splendid speech. A humorous dialogue, "Samuel's Proposal," given by Gertrude Jacobs and ara Tryens followed.

The lodge room was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms, lilacs and violets. A delicious supper was arranged by Mrs. Robert Tweed and served by Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Spraggell, Mrs. Creswell, Mrs. Coover, Mrs. Conner, and Mrs. Astel.

DEL-MAR-VA IN FICTION

Special limited edition of "The Entailed Hat," first published in 1884, is being printed by Harpers Brothers of New York, due to the public demand for the fascinating historical novel depicting life on the Del-Mar-Va peninsula and its relationship to Baltimore, Wilmington and Philadelphia during days before the Civil War. The outstanding character of the book is Patsy Cannon, a Gypsy woman who bartered in slaves from her home which stood on the Maryland-Delaware state line, the Mason Dixon line. Her courage, daring, crime eluding the authorities and finally her socratic death in the Georgetown, Delaware, jail are equalled in only a few historical characters. Being a book with local color the publishers have refused to print additional copies. The special Teackle Mansion edition is therefore being privately financed to satisfy the known public demand occasioned by growing interest in the Del-Mar-Va peninsula. The small quantity being published will, no doubt, be exhausted within a short time.

Carl Monsees, director of the Research department of the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association at Salisbury, is the exclusive sales agent for the Teackle Mansion edition.

Bible Society Meets

Monday night at the du Pont-Biltmore, a group of Delaware church leaders met in dinner conference to discuss "How to supply Scriptures to the Bible-less two-thirds of the World's Population." The meeting was held under the auspices of the National Capital Agency of the American Bible Society.

A message from Calvin Coolidge, declaring the value of the Bible to the World, was read at the dinner.

The present total yearly production of new volumes of the Bible, in whole or in part, throughout the world is 30 million; approximately one third of these are issued by the American Bible Society.

"While the American Bible Society established a new record in 1926 by issuing 9,800,000 volumes, an increase of 600,000 over the preceding year, the number could have been doubled," according to Rev. James H. Hyatt, D. D., secretary in charge of the National Capital Agency, "if the Society had undertaken to supply all the needs for the Scriptures presented to it. When the total number of people on the earth is considered, a continued great dearth of Bibles at the present rate of production is apparent."

The Rev. William Ingraham Haven, D. D., LL. D., of New York City, during whose twenty-eight years as general secretary the American Bible Society has distributed a total of nearly 100 million volumes of the Scriptures, addressed the conference. The Rev. Arthur C. Ryan of New York City, also a general secretary of the Society, spoke briefly.

Mr. Ryan before becoming a general secretary of the Society in 1924 was for five years in charge of the Levant Agency at Constantinople, Turkey. Formerly he had been a missionary in the Near East.

The treasurer of the American Bible Society is Rev. Gilbert Darlington. He enlisted during the war in the Navy as a seaman and student aviator. Later he was appointed a chaplain. Mr. Darlington is son of Bishop James Henry Darlington of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Harrisburg, Pa.

The National Capital Agency was established in January 1925 and is the youngest of the ten home and twelve foreign agencies maintained by the American Bible Society to facilitate its world-wide distribution of the Scriptures. In its first year the National Capital Agency issued 22,534 volumes and last year increased the number to 77,598. This Agency consists of Maryland, Delaware, and the District of Columbia.

The American Bible Society was organized in 1816. An early president of the Society was John Jay, president of the Continental Congress and first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

The work of the Society is purely missionary. Besides distributing the Scriptures directly through its own agencies and affiliated societies and by colporteurs, the Society provides Bibles for the Protestant denominations in America both for use in this country and on foreign mission fields.

4 H Poultry Club

L. S. Hartley, agricultural representative of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad visited County Club Agent Ed Willim, Jr., early this week. He is interested in the poultry clubs established by his company in this county. Mr. Hartley, accompanied by the Club Agent, visited the 1927 B. and O. Poultry Club during his stay. This club is made up of boys attending the du Pont High School near Wilmington.

Each member of the club incubated from 45 to 75 eggs to begin his club project. Barred Rocks were selected by the club members. Some of the eggs were secured from C. N. Myers, a Barred Rock breeder of Hanover, Pa. Mr. Myers made a considerable reduction in the price of his eggs to the club members. Other eggs were secured from a white diarrhea tested flock in the upper part of Kent county.

Mr. Hartley, in talking of the club work, stressed the prizes offered by his company to the members of this club. He said, "We give prizes on a county basis and since this is the only B. and O. Club in New Castle county this year the members of this club will receive all of the prizes for this county mentioned in the outline of the project. But don't forget" continued Mr. Hartley, "that there are other things to get out of the 4 H Club work besides the financial ones. The educational and recreational value of the junior extension work far exceeds the mere amount of money you get from your chickens. The association with your fellow club members and your other county club members will be a big thing to you. Then also you are members of the National 4 H Clubs, an organization of well over one-half million boys and girls like the boys of this club and the boys and girls of Mr. Willim's other 4 H clubs in New Castle county."

This is the fourth poultry club started by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company in New Castle county in that number of years. The first club in 1924 was located around Newark and Stanton; in 1925 one was started near Middletown; the 1926 B. and O. club was organized among boys and girls of the Rose Hill and New Castle areas, and the last one, 1927, near the du Pont School area.

Elkton

The unveiling exercises of the Hugh W. Caldwell memorial tablet were held Tuesday afternoon in the elementary school in Elkton. The presentation address was made by Prof.
Guy Johnson, of the Elkton High School; the acceptance by County Superintendent of Schools Howard T.
Ruhl. The address was made by Albert S. Cook, state superintendent of education. Mr. Caldwell, who died in December last, was for many years the superintendent of schools of Cecil county.

While Roy Sykes, of near Bacon Hill, was on a trip to Elk Mills, his new bungalow on the Elkton-North East road was burned to the ground with its contents. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $3,500.

The monthly dinner meeting of the Elkton Chamber of Commerce was held Monday evening at the Parish House of Trinity Church, the dinner being served by the ladies of the church. Daniel S. Terrell, president of the Chamber, was the presiding officer.

At the weekly meeting of the American Legion Post No. 15, of Elkton, it was decided to arrange for a special program to be carried out in Elkton on the morning of Memorial Day with exercises at the monument. In the afternoon the Legion members with the Elkton Band, will hold exercises at Chesapeake City.

At the thirty-third anniversary of Founder's Day Tome Institute, held at Port Deposit on Saturday afternoon last Peter E. Tome, a nephew of the late Jacob Tome, founder of the school, delivered the address, his subject being "His Life and His Accomplishments."

The Elkton Fire Department has accepted an invitation to participate in the firemen's exercises at Bridgeton, N. J., on Saturday next. The Elkton Band will accompany the firemen.

Another step in the electric power war was taken Saturday when the Northern Maryland Power Company, a subsidiary of the Philadelphia Electric Company, who are building the Conowingo project, notified the Public Service Commission, Baltimore, of a reduction of electric rates to become effective May 30, in Cecil and Harford counties. The reduction is from 12½ cents to 10 cents per kilowatt hour. The cut is made to meet a like reduction announced some days ago by the Consolidated Gas and Electric Company.

The damage suits for $60,000
against John A. Courtney, of Baltimore, which was listed for trial last week in a Baltimore court, were settled out of court by counsel on both sides. The suit grew out of an automobile accident near Charlestown,
May 9, 1926. The plaintiffs were Mr.
and Mrs. Philip T. Jones, their son Andrew and daughter Sue Atkinson.
They were all injured and removed to Union Hospital, Elkton, where they remained for several weeks. The plaintiffs in the case are now residing at Galena, Md.

Philamina Santro, 7-year-old daughter of Giuseppe Santro of Charlestown, died Monday at Union Hospital from injuries received Sunday evening when struck by an automobile driven by a Virginia party. The young girl was crossing the road near Charlestown

W. G. Harris pastor, will be as follows:

Sunday School at 9.45 a. m. A class for every one and a cordial welcome for all. We are hovering around the four hundred mark. Let us make that a goal for our average attendance. Morning worship at 11.00 o'clock, the pastor preaching on the theme "Bearing Unexpected Burdens."
Epworth League at 6.45 p. m. All young people are invited to attend this service. Evening worship at 7.30 o'clock, the pastor preaching on the theme, "The Opportune Message."

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7.45 o'clock. The subject discussed will be "A Real Christian."

Glasgow

Mother's Day was observed on Sunday in the Pencader Presbyterian Church. The Sunday School also had a very pleasing program. Miss Mary Dayett read a story entitled, "Mother's Day." Misses Virginia Leasure and Florence Dayett sang a duet, "The Safest Way." A quartet by four girls, "When Mother Prayed," with the superintendent, Miss May Brown
at the Piano.

A meeting of the taxpayers of the Glasgow School District, was held in School No. 2 last Friday evening in connection with the idea of school improvement, new and improved school building. Superintendent Holloway was the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Ford and family were with her parents of this place on Sunday.

Miss Annie Alrich has returned to her home after a stay near Summit
Bridge during last winter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wright and family visited Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. H.
L. Dayett, Jr., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brown have purchased the property of Mrs. T.
Brown, deceased, near Glasgow, on the Elkton road.

Mrs. Mary Frazer had as her callers on Sunday, her brother and family, of Elkton.

Mrs. Marie Diebert and daughter, of Elkton, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dayett, Sr.

Mrs. Charles Ruoss and children, of Longwood, Pa., was with her sister, Mrs. Flora Brooks a few days of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cleaver and family visited her parents on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laws are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby boy, Charles Richards, born Friday night, May 6th. Mother and child are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Victor of Stanton, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. A.
Leasure and family on Friday evening of last week.

APPLETON WOMEN'S CLUB

The Appleton Women's Home Demonstration Club held its April meeting in the Club room. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. Baus, followed by singing and the Lord's prayer. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Roll call response was a Maryland bird and how to know it. About forty members responded.

Several books were turned in for the library. One new member was admitted. The secretary was instructed to send a letter to the proper persons protesting against the use of the Armory for boxing. The meeting was then turned over to the Demonstrator, Miss Pancoast. Subject, "Planning the costume as to color and neck finishes."
Next meeting in the club room, Thursday, May 19, will be an all-day meeting. Try and all come out.

Hostesses: Mrs. Lofland, Mrs. Law,
Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Mathias, Mrs. W.
McCloskey.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

Ground was broken yesterday for a new home for Miss Elsie Wright. The house, which will be built on Orchard Road, on the large lot adjoining the property of Mrs. Hannah Pilling, will be of stucco, an English type. A. L.
Ward, of Philadelphia, is the architect. James Hutchison, of his town, is the contractor. It is expected that the house will be finished by fall.

Armand Durant has sold a building
lot opposite the Country Club grounds to Wayne Brewer, of this town.

PLAY AT HEAD OF CHRISTIANA

On Wednesday evening, May 18th, the play, "Too Many Husbands" will be presented in the lecture room of Head of Christiana Church at 8 o'clock by talent from St. Georges. A small admission will be charged. Proceeds for Sunday School needs. Come out, friends, and help the Sunday School.—Secretary.

Newspaper Ideals

"To younger men, I may be permitted to proffer a veteran's advice. If you want to be 100 per cent efficient when you are nearing 65, live; don't merely vegetate while you are young; remember your experiences, and above all things keep your enthusiasms. And never, never imagine that the punch-and-conscience journalism of Horace Greeley and Henry J. Raymond and Charles A. Dana and Henry Watterson is dead in America. Shut your ears when anyone tells you that newspaper making is just buying of brains and selling editions and advertising space. It is not. It never will be. Put truth first, then all the drama that truth will permit; then justice and fair play into what you write."—John Alden, Editorial Writer, Brooklyn Eagle.

The Visiting Nurse

The report of the first seven months' activity of the visiting nurse appears in this issue of The Post. The cold figures of the report, per se, speak eloquently of the work accomplished. Many families who have benefited by this service can supply color and warmth to the figures.

The Visiting Nurses' Association finds itself without sufficient funds to continue the year's work. A committee will make a canvass of the town for contributions that will make it possible to continue this vital institution. Such an appeal can hardly be met with other than an immediate and generous response.

Criminally Careless

Newark has recently witnessed two fires that provided elements to be considered with both pride and shame.

After the expert and masterful handling of these two fires, Newark should have a strong feeling of pride and security in a volunteer organization that has trained itself to a point of efficiency comparing with that of the most intensively trained, paid department.

At the fatal fire on New London Avenue, the splendid efforts of the Fire Company were dangerously hampered by the abysmal stupidity of persons who deliberately drove their machines over high pressure fire hose; causing breaks at the couplings and shutting off the water. The law, we understand, administers a severe penalty for such criminal carelessness. While it is a matter of shame that such criminal thoughtlessness should exist in Newark, the proper officials should make immediate provision to prevent its functioning again, by arranging for the proper policing of fire zones.

On Good Writing

The best player of any game is seldom the player who provides himself with the most elaborate array of instruments. A good player can play with anything. A good writer can get his effect in words known to every policeman.

The word of older usage does its work better, other things being equal. It is known to a wider circle, has an unchallenged and ancient title, and does not distract the attention of the hearer or reader with a sense of shock or novelty. It has larger and more immediate associations. There is a "classic" English, and though it changes from age to age, it is more stable than the fashions of the spoken language. . . . It is good, if you can, to speak and write English that Shakespeare and Milton would have understood.

The English which we are agreed to consider, and which we are to attempt to write, is not written for its own sake, but because a great part of the work of the world must be done with words. We are to write not to display our talents, or to tickle the sense with sounds, but to persuade, or convince, to inform, to commend our views or proposals to particular persons—in short, to influence the behaviour of our fellows.—Sir Walter Raleigh, in "On Writing and Writers."

Who Knows?

I have a profound respect for boys. Grimy, ragged, tousled boys in the street often attract me strangely.

A boy is a man in the cocoon—you do not know what it is going to become—his life is big with many possibilities.

He may make or unmake kings, change boundary lines between states, write books that will mold characters, or invent machines that will revolutionize the commerce of the world.

Every man was once a boy. I trust I shall not be contradicted; it is really so.

Very distinctly and vividly I remember a slim, freckled boy, who was born in the "Patch," and used to pick up coal along the railroad tracks in Buffalo. A few months ago I had a motion to make before the Supreme Court, and the boy from the "Patch" was the judge who wrote the opinion granting my petition.

Yesterday I rode horseback past a field where a boy was plowing. The lad's hair stuck out through the top of his hat; his form was bony and awkward; one suspender held his trousers in place; his bare legs and arms were brown and sunburned and briar-scarred.

He swung his horses around just as I passed by, and from under the flapping brim of his hat he cast a quick glance out of the dark, half bashful eyes and modestly returned my salute. His back turned, I took off my hat and sent a God-bless-you down the furrow after him. Who knows?—I may go to that boy to borrow money, or to hear him preach, or to beg him to defend me in a lawsuit; or he may stand with pulse unfastened, bare of arm, in white apron, ready to do his duty, while the cone is placed over my face, and Night and Death come creeping into my veins.

Be patient with the boys—you are dealing with soulstuff. Destiny awaits just around the corner. Be patient with the boys!—ELBERT HUBBARD, Reprinted from The Rotarian.

Christian Faith and Human Weakness

An unbeliever told me once that he was skeptical about the Christian faith mostly on account of the behavior of Christian men and women. "If it were all true," he said, "if you actually believed it to be true, it would be the only thing on earth that mattered at all, and you Christians could not possibly be what you are. You would all radiate it, and you would not care for worldly things, or money, or bear ill will to one another." He could not admit that sincere faith can go with infinite weakness.—Princess Cantacuzene.

SACRED CONCERT

A sacred concert will be given in White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening, May 12, at 8 o'clock, standard time, by the Harmony Octette. The program will be as follows:

Chorus—"River of Life," Lowden. Solo—"Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," Brown; Mrs. Hellen M. Garver.

Male Quartet—"Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," Farris.

Reading—Miss Lillie B. Williams. Chorus—"Bells of St. Mary," Adams.

Solo—"Teach Me Thy Way"; Mrs. B. D. Gilbert.

Chorus—"Hark, Hark, My Soul," Shelley; soloists: Miss Shakespeare, Mrs. Garver.

Bass solo—"Holy Hour," Nevins; Mr. P. C. VanSant.

Male quartet—"Nearer My God to Thee," Sweeney.

Solo—"O Father Hear Us," Millard; Mrs. M. S. Warren.

Chorus—"Gloria," Mozart. Baritone solo—Frank E. Jones.

Reading—Miss Lillie B. Williams. Chorus—"Come Where the Lillies Bloom," Thompson.

Members of the "Harmony Octette" are as follows: Soprano, Mrs. M. S. Warren; Mrs. Hellen M. Garver; Alto, Mrs. B. D. Gilbert, Miss Esther G. Shakespeare; Tenor, Prof. J. T. Clymer, L. B. Guest; Bass, P. V. VanSant, Frank E. Jones. Reader, Miss Lillie B. Williams. Organist, Marguerite Heller.

UNION MEETING

Deputy Pocahontas Pearl Tweed, Mary Jane Devonshire, Gertrude Jacobs and Sara Tryens attended the meeting in Wilmington on Thursday evening at the Great Council of Delaware. This meeting was held for the purpose of making arrangements for a union meeting of all councils, Degree of Pocahontas, in the state of Delaware.

The committee decided to hold the meeting in the Pythian Castle in the near future. No definite date has been set. There will be a class adoption followed by a banquet. An invitation has been extended to Past Great Deputy Pocahontas Tongue, of Pennsylvania, a noted orator. She has also been asked to select a degree team from Pennsylvania to initiate the candidates.

SONS OF DELAWARE IN NEWARK ON MAY 28

The annual outing and dinner of the Pennsylvania Society, Sons of Delaware, will be held at the University of Delaware in Newark on Saturday, May 28. Upon arriving at the University, the members will witness a baseball game on Frazer Field at 2:30 between Haverford College and the University of Delaware, which will be followed by a banquet in Old College Hall at 6 o'clock, standard time.

Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, of Overbrook, Pa., will be the first speaker, followed by W. Russell Green, general counsel and advertising manager of the Charles E. Hires Company. Mr. Green will speak on "The Romance in Your Job."

"Bill" White, the harmonica king and song leader, will lead the music.

"TAG DAY" PRIZE WINNERS

The prize winners in the "Tag Day" held for the Bryan Memorial University Association, last Saturday, were:

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

TO ENTERTAIN

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church will entertain the missionary societies of the Methodist and Presbyterian Church of this town at the Parish House on May 18, at 2 p. m., standard time.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

We quote from a record written of Hatfield, Massachusetts, May, 1783: "It is said that at one time salmon were so plenty that the shad were of no account, and were thrown back into the water. It was even considered disreputable to eat them, as indicating poverty. Mr. Judd has an anecdote of a family who, when they were surprised at dinner by some visitors, hid the shad under the table. . . . When the shad rose in value they brought a penny apiece."

NEW CENTURY CLUB NOTES

At the regular Monday meeting of the Newark New Century Club, Clean Up Week was announced and members were urged to take advantage of a truck furnished by the town to collect rubbish on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Cobb, the president, gave a report of the club luncheon of May 4th, and thanked each chairman and her committee and all those who helped make the affair a success.

The Executive Board and the Board of Directors were entertained by Mrs. Neale at the annual joint meeting on Friday evening, May the sixth.

Mrs. Hoffecker, Mrs. Crooks and Mrs. Townsend were appointed to answer the roll call for the club at the Boulder on the University campus at the Memorial Day exercises to be held at ten o'clock, standard time.

Mrs. Manchester, of the Consumers' League of Delaware, talked on the work accomplished by the organization and that yet to be done in the state. Prof. Mathews, of the University of Delaware, sang "Little Mother of Mine." Mrs. Code accompanied him.

Dr. W. Owen Sypherd of the University of Delaware, talked informally on Kipling's "Without Benefit of Clergy." Dr. Sypherd's talk proved to be very interesting. By reading the outstanding parts of the story he showed in a concrete way what a perfect short story it is.

At the conclusion of the program the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. James C. Hastings, Secretary.

A GOOD REPUTATION

A good reputation is not something that can be put on ice and preserved. Reputation, like its synonym goodwill, must be freshly earned each day.

Reputation is a guide to the buyer, and a stimulus to the seller. To the buyer it is a sign-post to merit. To the seller, the owner of the reputation, it is a challenge to keep faith.

Business houses that have earned and enjoyed enviable good-will are the beacon lights of industry. They set the standard high, and hold it to against all temptation. It has been said that no great harm is done when a mediocre product is lowered in quality. The shock is in the lowering of high quality, high ideals.

Every house that won worthwhile recognition among its trade senses the compulsion to go forward, ever aspiring to higher achievement. It is inescapable.

How valuable is this tyranny of idealism to the buyer! His insurance of fair treatment and complete satisfaction rests on something more binding than a gold bond, for the responsibility of keeping a reputation fresh and wholesome will conscript the heart and soul, and mind of man.

One way to make the world better—Say only what you would be willing to put in type.

Horse Show

The Brandywine Club has announced that it will hold its annual Spring Horse Show and Races at Elsmere on Saturday, May 21. Entries should be filed with George Danby, secretary, Newark.

The club was organized in 1923 by a few sportsmen of Brandywine hundred, primarily as a fox hunting group. The membership has grown rapidly since that time. The Spring shows have become noted as stirring exhibitions of horsemanship and horsemanship.

This year, besides the classes for exhibition, there will be 9 running races, 2 flat races, 3 harness races and 1 pony race.

The officers of the club are: L. B. Wiggins, president; C. L. Talley, vice-president; Arthur E. Webster, treasurer; George Danby, secretary.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

To the Patrons of the Newark Schools:

I deeply appreciate the splendid support you gave me at the recent school election. My efforts were made for the good of the Newark Public Schools. Your efforts will result in great good to the schools and the community.

Mark P. Malcom.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Mr. Harrison Gray wishes to express his appreciation to the citizens of Newark for the generous support in the recent school election.

Enigma

Here is an enigma of local interest. In order to increase that local interest, we make this offer: To each of the first five persons sending us correct solutions, we will give a year's subscription to The Newark Post. These subscriptions will not be sent as renewals or to families where the paper is now sent, but to brand-new names. Haven't you a friend who would be glad to have such a present from you?

I am composed of 83 letters, forming an excellent Plank in the Platform of the Post.

1—My 53-81-36-26-9-41-69-39 — The United States Ambassador to England.

2—My 17-43-55-26-61-44 — An Artist.

3—My 35-2-66-63-83 — A coin.

4—My 1-45-55-34-24 — Active.

5—My 52-77-30-75 — Withered.

6—My 21-62-18 — A desert.

7—My 57-3-46-38-15 — To harden.

8—My 80-58-4-12-51-23 — A man servant.

9—My 8-31-16-71 — A victual dresser.

10—My 19-73-48-64 — A flower.

11—My 8-50-11-39 — A large bird.

12—My 49-28-56-82 — A popular automobile.

13—My 29-47-65-66 — A university official.

14—My 21-78-10-58-33 — Ostentatious.

15—My 5-76-54-63-7 — A novelist.

16—My 72-22-67-42-74 — Popular cigar brand.

17—My 20-32-13-60-40-14-6-54-25 — A kind of laurel.

18—My 68-27-70-37-79 — A state of mind you might be in if you fail to guess this.

Six Records Fall In Interscholastics

460 Compete On Frazer Field Saturday; Sigma Phi Epsilon Wins Fraternity Relay

Perfect weather and a fast track made the fourteenth annual Interscholastic Track and Field Meet of the University of Delaware, held Saturday afternoon on Frazer Field, one of the most successful in the history of the event from the standpoint of achievement. The entry list numbered 460 contestants from 34 schools. Probably 500 persons, many of them teachers who had attended the State High School Conference, were in the gallery.

Six new records were established in the course of the afternoon. They were:

Shot put (Class A)—Stott, West Chester Normal. Distance 45 feet, 5 1/4 inches.

Javelin (Open)—Reibantz, Baltimore Poly. Distance, 153 feet, 1 inch.

Broad jump (Class B)—Fulmer, Frankford. Distance, 21 feet, 4 3/4 inches.

High jump (Class C)—Doughty, Middle Township. Distance, 5 feet, 5 1/4 inches.

Mile (Class B)—R. Edgar, Frankford. Time, 4:51.9.

200 yard dash (Class B)—Morris, Vineland. Time, 22.9.

The most notable of these new records is the time of 22.9 seconds, made by Morris of the Vineland High School in the 200 yard dash.

The inter-fraternity half mile relay went to Sigma Phi Epsilon by a wide margin. Sigma Nu took second and Kappa Alpha, third.

Team winners in the scoring were as follows: Class A—Baltimore Polytechnic, 38 points. Class B—Vineland High School, 32 points. Class C—Middle Township High School, 34 points.

Fordham Humbles Delaware, 19 To 1

With one of their prominent alumni in the stands, none other than Frankie Frisch, the Fordham College baseball team dropped a barrage of twenty hits on 9 men from Delaware and took a baseball game, played yesterday in New York, 19 to 1.

Coach Doherty used four pitchers to try and halt the bombardment, but they were all soundly slugged. Cosgrove started, but went to take his bath at the close of the second. He (Continued on Page 9.)

U. Of D. Beats Textile Mudlarks 73 To 51

Good Time Made On Soft Track; Delaware's Advantage On Field Takes Meet

The muddy track of Frazer Field must have felt good to the asphalt-pounded feet of the Textile runners for they won 7 of the 8 running events in the dual track and field meet with Delaware last Wednesday afternoon. However, Delaware, with a marked superiority in the field events and a liberal placing in the runs, won the meet comfortably, 73 to 51.

A driving rain had made the field a quagmire and a baseball game and tennis match were called off. Despite the slow track, excellent time was made in the runs. Smith, Textile, won the hundred in 10.5 with Justin Steel breathing in his ear. Steel then copped the 220, the only first Delaware had on the track.

The summary:

100 Yard Dash—Won by Smith, Textile; second, Steel, Delaware; third, Brown, Textile. Time, 10.5.

220 Yard Dash—Won by Steel, Delaware; second, Brown, Textile; third, Riggins, Delaware. Time, 23.2-5.

440 Yard Dash—Won by Houghton, Textile; second, Loveland, Delaware; third, Ruggerio, Delaware. Time, 56.3.

880 Yard Dash—Won by Wright, Textile; second, Tremaine, Delaware; third, Gutekunst, Textile. Time, 2:20.2-5.

One Mile Run—Won by Fenton, Textile; second, Hodgson, Delaware; third, Tremaine, Delaware. Time, 5:13.

Two Mile Run—Won by Fenton, Textile; second, Speizman, Textile; third, Hanby, Delaware. Time, 12:6.7-10.

120 Yard High Hurdles—Won by Woolley, Textile; second, Kerbin, Delaware; third, Miller, Delaware. Time, 17.1.

220 Yard Low Hurdles—Won by Woolley, Textile; second, Hill, Delaware; third, Wright, Delaware. Time, 27.3.

Javelin—Won by Collins, Delaware; second, Russell, Delaware; third, Garrett, Delaware. Distance, 141 feet 3 inches.

Shot Put—Won by Wright, Textile; second, Baker, Delaware; third, Green, Delaware. Distance, 32.8 1-2.

Broad Jump—Won by Ruggerio, Delaware; second, Roser, Delaware; third, Houghton, Textile. Distance, 19.4 1-2.

Pole Vault—Rose, Delaware, and Woolley, Textile, tied for first place; third, Lehman, Delaware. Height, 10 feet.

Discus—Won by Manns, Delaware; second, Bringhurst, Delaware; third, Russell, Delaware. Distance, 97.3.

High Jump—Won by Riggins, Delaware; second place tie between Woolley and Houghton, Textile and Kirbin, Delaware. Height, 5.2.

Newark H. S. Loses Sloppy Game, 14-6

The Newark High School baseball team outhit Middletown H. S. yesterday afternoon at Middletown, but they also out-errored them and dropped the game 14 to 6. Newark hit safely 11 times, Middletown only 9. The number of errors were not posted on the score sheet, but according to eyewitnesses, they were many and varied. Dayett and Eubanks, in turn, occupied the mound for Newark.

Despite this defeat Newark is leading the Northern unit of the D. I. A. A. and if they hold the lead will play the southern pennant winners for a handsome silver cup.

N. V. F. Co. Loses Tough Game to So. Wil.

In a Cecil County League game, played in Newark last Saturday, the National Vulcanized Fibre Company nine lost a hard fought contest to South Wilmington, 4 to 3. The statistics give most of the details to Newark who led 3 to 1 up to the last frame when Wilmington dusted the home plate 3 times. Rose, on the mound for National pitched a sweet game, fanning 10 and only allowing one hit up to the last inning. In the ninth, a walk, a single and a home-run by Smith, put Wilmington one tally to the good. The score:

The farm population of this country decreased 649,000 persons last year, the largest decrease in any year since 1920, according to estimates by the United States Department of Agriculture. The number of people living on farms January 1, 1927, is estimated at 27,892,000 against 28,541,000 January 1, 1926. The 1925 agricultural census figure, 28,982,000, was used as a base for these calculations.

"What number did you call, please?"

Personal service when a call goes wrong

PERHAPS no question is so often asked of us as: "Why is it, after I've placed my call, that an operator sometimes comes in on the line and asks me what number I'm calling?"

May seem like inefficiency, or even carelessness or indifference.

Yet the Special Operator, who does this, is there only to be of personal service to you.

She's there to help you get the person you want when there has been a change of number or when through misunderstanding or technical fault the call has jammed.

She has at hand the sort of records which make this possible—records which to be effective must be concentrated before her.

Again, she's there to be of personal service, to help in situations where you can't help yourself—to restore service order promptly and efficiently.

SPRAYING THE ROSES

Before the buds start to open on the roses, spray them with a solution of lime and sulphur, to forestall the later appearance of mildew and black spot. Make a trench around the tea roses and put into it a handful of bone meal. Lime and sulphur may be purchased from seedmen with full directions for applying.

Never verify your statements by quoting the barber.

Unbroken Highway

It was announced last week by the Eastern Shore of Virginia Chamber of Commerce that the uncompleted Virginia link in the Del-Mar-Va trail will be completed this year. When construction is completed, it will result in an unbroken stretch of concrete highway from Wilmington to Cape Charles.

Assurance of this is based upon the allocation of $347,250 to Route 34, which is the classification of the Del-Mar-Va Trail by the State Highway Commission of Virginia. This money is primarily to be spent in completion of a link from Oak Hall to the new concrete road north of Nelsonia, a distance something less than eight miles. It is not expected that it will take more than $250,000 to complete this last mentioned stretch leaving available a material sum to fill in the gap in upper Northampton and Lower Accomack.

This $347,250 is in addition to the $300,000 allocated last Fall for southern Accomack and northern Northampton, but which has not been applied owing to local disputes as to the proper route. It is believed this last difficulty has been overcome and that by the end of 1927 there will be no hindrance to tourist traffic north and south. The allocation of $347,250 was made by I. Walker Truxton, of Suffolk District, and has the approval of Henry G. Shirley, Chairman of the State Highway Commission. It gives to the Eastern Shore all but $20,000 of the money to be distributed to the entire Suffolk District. A hearing upon the allocation will probably be held at Richmond within the next thirty days in order to have the approval of the entire State Highway Commission.

A. A. A. SENDS THEFT PLATES TO MEMBERS

The Delaware Motor Club, the only member of the American Automobile Association in Delaware, are mailing theft plates to its members with instructions that the plate be attached to a prominent place on the dash of the member's car. These theft plates show that the Delaware Motor Club offers a reward of $50.00 for the arrest and conviction of anyone stealing a member's car. Members of the "D. M. C.-A. A. A." also have the additional protection if their car is stolen of notice being sent to the 869 other affiliated Clubs in the United States and Canada.

The "D. M. C.-A. A. A." Touring Bureau which was recently opened in the main lobby foyer of the du Pont-Biltmore Hotel, near the soda shop, under the direction of Mr. J. Timmons, an experienced director of touring and road information, is open for information and furnishing maps to members from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m., including Sundays and holidays. One of the unique features of the Touring Bureau is the fact that so many rural motorists make it their headquarters immediately upon visiting the city in order to secure correct parking and one-way street regulations and other touring information. "The Bureau has certainly filled a need which has existed for many years," says Mr. Reardon, "for a type of service which would fill a gap in a chain of motor-ing service extending from coast to coast and from Canada to the Panama Canal Zone."

PLANT CATCHES FLIES

The "Sundew" makes a hobby of devouring insects alive. Its leaves distill drops of a gummy liquid. A passing fly seldom continues to pass after having once caught sight of the Sundew. With a pleasant buzz he alights for the banquet. There is no danger-board to warn the fly that the first touch of his tiny feet will cause that sensitive leaf to curl round his body.

TO ALL HOLDERS OF SECOND LIBERTY LOAN BONDS NOTICE OF REDEMPTION

All outstanding Second Liberty Loan 4 per cent bonds of 1921-42 (Second 4's) and all outstanding Second Liberty Loan 4½ per cent bonds of 1921-42 (Second 4½'s) are called for redemption on November 15, 1927, pursuant to the terms of their issue. Interest on all Second 4's and Second 4½'s will cease on said redemption date, November 15, 1927. Holders of Second 4's and Second 4½'s will be entitled to have the bonds redeemed and paid at par on November 15, 1927. Such holders may, however, at their option, elect to have the bonds redeemed and paid at par on November 15, 1927, by presenting all or part of the bonds for exchange all or part of the bonds for other United States obligations of the United States. Holders who desire to avail themselves of the exchange privilege, if and when announced, should request their bank or trust company to notify them when information regarding the exchange offering is received.

Further information may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or branch or from the Commissioner of the Public Debt, Treasury Department, Washington.

A. W. MELLON,

Secretary of the Treasury.

Washington, May 9, 1927.

Strawberry Pamphlet Mailed to 155 Cities

Fruit buyers and commission houses in 155 cities of more than 30,000 population, lying north of the Potomac and east of the Mississippi, are being told of the strawberries grown on the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula. The Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association has started to mail its 4-page, 2-color illustrated pamphlet, description of the Del-Mar-Va strawberry, and the advantages in handling them. This booklet is expected to bring results that will justify the same procedure with other Del-Mar-Va crops. Accompanying the illustrated folder is a letter carrying a strong selling talk that is intended to produce definite reactions.

Special arrangements for fast refrigerator car express service to these cities has been made and the group of prominent shippers who are interested and directly mentioned in the descriptive folder are anticipating the development of entirely new market points. The folder issued by the Del-Mar-Va Association gives a brief and authentic history of strawberry culture on the Peninsula. The illustrations present every phase of the strawberry industry from the scientific care given in the strawberry fields, through the course of picking, packing, transportation to shipping points, car loading, and the leading individual varieties.

"THE SILENT LOVER"

Milton Sills in the role of a regal derelict, sloshing his beautiful uniform and hard-won decorations about in the filth of a Paris gutter, is one of the promised novelties in "The Silent Lover," his newest starring vehicle, which comes to the Hanark Theatre Wednesday, May 18.

As Count Pierre Tornai, charge d'affaires of the mythological Balkan kingdom of Molatvia, Sills is discovered, at the opening of the story, in a most undiplomatic position—drunk, in fact, and sprawling in a gutter awaiting the arrival of some good Samaritan who will assist him to his feet and direct him to his home.

Worse yet, he has just misappropriated a large sum of his embassy's funds, and been grimly invited by his nation's ambassador to rid the world of his presence with a revolver shot.

Here Are Fourteen Points for Tree Planters to Follow

If you are going to join the tree-planting army this spring the American Tree Association of Washington suggests the following "fourteen points" for you to follow:

1. A piece of burlap or canvas should be spread over the grass, so that the dirt from the holes may be thrown upon it.
2. Holes must be made large enough that the roots may be spread out naturally without cramping.
3. Dig holes larger in circumference at the bottom than at the top to prevent water lying about the roots.
4. Good, fertile top-soil must be used about the roots. If the tree is to be planted in impoverished ground, good soil should be provided for it.
5. Plant the tree the same depth it stood at the nursery (easily determined by the dirt ring on the trunk). This is very important.
6. Lay the roots out naturally and cut off all the broken or bruised parts.
7. Press the earth down firmly, embedding every particle of roots and working it in under the crown.
8. With small trees the dirt will settle firmly if the plant is moved gently

- up and down as the hole is filled. With large trees use tamping stick.
9. Pour in water to top of hole after filling three-quarters full with earth. When this is settled complete filling in process, leaving top soil loose.
10. Trim broken or bruised branches, also two-thirds of the previous year's growth to offset the loss of roots in transplanting.
11. It is often best not to trim the leader or central stem, as a forked tree may result. Hardwood trees, like the oak and beech especially, should not have their central leader trimmed.
12. Large trees or trees in exposed places should usually be staked. To prevent chafing, protect the tree with old hose or with burlap and sticks where the wire is attached.
13. After planting, it is better to leave a cultivated area about the tree than to sod close to it. This cultivated area should be from three to five feet in diameter.
14. Fertilizer, as manure or compost, may be used either in the bottom of the hole or as a mulch or both. Be careful not to allow manure to come in direct contact with the roots.

Ten Living-Rooms Will Profit by the Reductions on These Suites!

They'll profit in their dressup, attractive appearance and in the added comfort they'll give to your living-room.

And YOU'LL profit—not only by knowing that your living-room is well and comfortably furnished, but by the savings you can take advantage of now at these reduced prices.

All of these suites are of the best construction—web bottoms, deep, well tempered, eight tied springs, sturdy frames and clean fillings, and all outside backs and arms are covered the same as the rest of the suite. But they are in covers that we cannot match again, hence the reductions.

Here is a suite with the frame of solid mahogany in a rich high-lighted finish. The davenport and chairs have carved underframing and the suite is trimmed with antique nails. It is covered in a high-grade taupe mohair with the cushions reversed in Brocatelle. There is a davenport, arm chair and occasional chair, and the suite was marked $520.00. It is now $325.00.

A two-piece suite in a carved mahogany frame is covered in a striped taupe mohair. The cushions reversed in a fine tapestry. Originally $365.00 it is now $225.00 the suite of two pieces.

A very attractive suite has the backs upholstered in figured mohair, the arms and outsides in a striped mohair to match and the cushions reversed in Brocatelle. The frame has a high-lighted rope carving all around. The suite—davenport, arm chair and formal chair—was formerly $450. It is now $300.

Here is an opportunity for ten wise home-makers to obtain an exceptionally fine living-room suite and at an unusually low price.

A suite with the popular exposed frame, is covered in a colorful figured silk velour with the cushions in silk velour to match. Davenport, side chair and formal chair were originally $565. The suite is marked now $400.

A suite with a rope-carved mahogany frame is in figured taupe mohair with rose background and the cushions reversed in frieze. Davenport, arm chair and formal chair were originally $450.00. It is now marked $295.00.

A large suite with carved frame is covered in a striped walnut and rose mohair and the cushions reversed in fine tapestry. There is the davenport, arm chair and a high back wing chair, formerly marked $435. It is now $350.

A suite of the English lounge type is covered in a taupe worsted, with the seats in a fine tapestry and the suite trimmed with antique nails. Arm chair, wing chair and davenport were marked $385.00. They are now $275.00.

This same suite in a small-figured frieze cover, with cushions in damask, can be had at the same price.

A third suite made on the same frames is covered in an unusual jacquard, the cushions and outside arms and backs in taupe velour. Originally $315.00, it is now $225.00 the suite of three pieces.

A very fine suite with exposed frames of high-lighted mahogany is covered in a pin-striped taupe mohair, black trimmed, with the cushions in rich damask. The davenport, arm chair and formal chair were originally $600. The suite is marked now $400.

Read About This Gate-Leg Table!

The top is of solid mahogany in a rich dull finish. There are six legs of seasoned gum-wood, heavily and gracefully turned, mahogany finished.

The table, with the leaves down, measures 12 inches by 34 inches, and with the leaves up, 34 inches by 48 inches, and can be had with a roomy drawer for cards and tallies and, sh-h, chips!

It is of a generous size for afternoon luncheons or an impromptu card table.

And a gate-leg table, aside from its many varied uses, is a most desirable piece of furniture for hall or living-room.

They're marked—but only while our present stock lasts: With the Drawer, $22.50 Without the Drawer, $21.50 The quantity we have for sale is quite limited, so we suggest you phoning your order to-morrow, early.

The badge tests for bronze, silver and gold badges will open the program. Newark has a large entry for competition for all three classes, both boys and girls. Silver badges can only be competed for by those who have won bronze trophies in previous years, and the gold badge tests are limited to holders of bronze and silver badges. There will be 88 girls and 91 boys from the Newark schools competing for bronze badge; and 42 girls and 28 boys in competition for silver badges. The following Newark boys and girls hold both bronze and silver badges and will compete for the gold trophies:

Leonard Eubanks, William Moeller, Harry Williamson, Alec Zabenko, Wilmer Riley, Miles Coverdale, May Malcom, Ann Chalmers, Sara Emerson, Helen Wilson, Ella Moore, Mary Wollaston, Dorothea Thompson and Josephine Hossinger.

The gold badge test for boys is in four parts, as follows:

(1) Pull-up (chinning) 9 times. (2) Running high jump, 4 feet 4 inches. Running broad jump, 14 feet. (3) 220-yard dash, 28 seconds. (4) Baseball throw (distance) 220 feet; (accuracy) 3 strikes, 5 throws at 50 feet. Target 15 in. x 24 in. A choice is given in 2 and 4.

The gold badge test for girls is in three parts, as follows:

(1) Potato race, 18 seconds. 50-yard dash, 7 1/2 seconds. (2) Basketball throw (round arm) 55 feet. (3) Volley ball serve, 8 in 10. A choice is given in number 1.

The faculty committee from the Newark schools who have held the trials and arranged the entries is composed of: Miss Katherine Johnson, chairman, Thomas Mallin, David McMenamin and Earl Keller.

Fordham Humbles Delaware, 19 To 1

was followed by Carlon, Ryan and Draper.

Fordham also worked four twirlers, but Delaware got only 5 hits from the group. Their lone tally came in the ninth.

Both teams completed the game without an error. McKelvey shone most brilliantly for the Blue and Gold, covering centre sensationally and bashing out a single and a triple.

Today Delaware meets the Army at West Point, Friday they play Haverford at Haverford, and Saturday St. Johns is scheduled here.

Country Club Opens Schedule of Events

Forty Qualify Saturday For Classes of Eight

On Saturday, 40 out of a field of 41 qualified for the classes of eight match play competition at the Newark Country Club. This is the first event on the season's schedule.

The scores were all relatively high. J. R. Syfrit, Jr., had low gross with an 84, and took the silver spoon for low net with a 68.

On Sunday, H. A. Turner, Jr., won the silver spoon donated by his father for low gross. His card was 84.

On Saturday the members found two new showers and individual wash bowls in operation. The 40 new lockers are here and will be installed in the locker room, probably this week. The clubhouse is also sporting a fresh coat of paint.

bonds of the several Liberty Loans, a nation-wide campaign was conducted, every available facility being used to reach the public and sell the bonds. The situation is now practically reversed, and the Government is preparing to redeem or exchange some of these bonds. While no such elaborate canvass is contemplated for the redemption notice as was undertaken in 1917, the Treasury nevertheless is making a special effort to inform the holders of Second Liberty Loan bonds that their bonds will cease to bear interest on November 15th. Banks and trust companies throughout the country will be asked to co-operate with the Government in spreading the news of this call for redemption, and in advising the holders of bonds that the Treasury will probably offer new securities in exchange. For the first time the radio will be used by the Government as a means of reaching millions of bondholders. An announcement will shortly be broadcast from the larger radio stations of the country.

The importance of acquainting bondholders with the fact that their bonds have been called for payment is emphasized by the Treasury's records of previous calls for redemption or exchange. These records show that there are still outstanding at the present time, in the hands of the public, about $30,000,000 in Government securities upon which interest has ceased. Included in this amount are $3,600,000 in Victory notes which ceased to bear interest in 1922 and 1923. There are also outstanding $14,500,000 in temporary bonds of the several Liberty Loans, to which were attached only a limited number of interest coupons. The last coupons matured some seven years ago. The holders of these temporary bonds have neglected to exchange them for permanent bonds having the full number of interest coupons attached, and until such exchange is made they have no means of collecting the interest. In the face of these facts, the Treasury is especially anxious that the present announcement reach as many Second Liberty Loan bondholders as it is possible to reach through the press, the radio, and the banks of the country.

The Second Liberty Loan, which was issued in November, 1917, was the second large loan floated by the Government during the World War, and while this loan does not mature until 1942, the condition of the money market and of the Government's finances makes it possible and advisable to call the bonds for redemption in November.

Always grease an iron with lard or vaseline before putting it away for a long time, or it will rust. To remove rust on an iron, scour it with scouring powder, and rub well with a flannel cloth.

Generosity—

when is it selfish and dangerous?

ONE of the foremost life insurance underwriters of the country said recently, "It is a selfish and dangerous generosity which concedes business ability when it does not exist. . . . Yet how many splendid minds in the business world shoulder upon their heirs questions of finance which are perplexing even to their own judgment."

"This tendency will disappear as the life insurance trust becomes more generally understood. . . . An insurance trust is a direct instrument, automatically effective, without expense or publicity, immediately at the death of the maker, and often long before other assets of his estate are available."

By creating an Insurance Trust with this Company you can assure the future financial safety of your loved ones and feel confident that your estate will not shrink in value or be totally destroyed through the possible immature judgment, inexperience or lack of business capacity of your heirs.

Dorothea Pierson, of the Junior Class, has been elected as the representative of the class to the Eaglesmere Conference, June 10-20.

The Junior Class has voted $10 for the relief of the Mississippi Valley flood sufferers.

LIEUTENANT NELSON IS ASSIGNED TO UNIVERSITY

Announcement has been made by the War Department that Lieutenant G. McA. Nelson, U. S. A., has been assigned to the University of Delaware as assistant instructor in military science to succeed Captain William P. Morse. Captain Morse, who has been at Delaware for more than four years, has been ordered to the command and general staff school at Fort Leavenworth and will leave for there some time during the summer or early fall.

Lieutenant Nelson is a son of Major and Mrs. Frank L. Nelson, of Overbrook, Pa., and is a graduate of West Point, class of 1921. He spent more than two years in the Philippines since graduation. He is a crack polo player and an expert shot. Lieutenant Nelson is now with the Sixth U. S. Infantry at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. He will take up his work at Delaware next fall.

MISS HAWKINS TO LEAVE LIBRARY

Miss Dorothy Hawkins, librarian at the University of Delaware Memorial Library, has tendered her resignation to President Hulihan and the Library Committee, to take effect September first. Miss Hawkins came to the University Library in September, 1920. She plans to study library work at Columbia University next winter.

good! Tomorrow will be a very happy Easter.

The devotion and loyalty shown by our Chinese servant's teachers and friends more than compensate for any suffering and losses we have had. I shall try to write more of this later.

I shall probably be sent to Korea within a week or two, but hope to return to China again when it is possible to work here once more.

Please remember me to other church and college friends.

Lovingly,

Miriam E. Null.

P. S.: Please send mail to me at The Mission's Building, 23 Yuen Ming Yuen Road, Shanghai. It will then be forwarded to me.

Mrs. Emma Jones and R. T. Jones, of his town, have received letters from Mrs. Jones's daughter, Miss Mabel Jones, who has been doing missionary work in China for twenty years. The letters were written from Show-Chow, Province of Anhwei, in the war zone. Miss Jones states, that while the counsel had advised her to leave three different times, she feels perfectly safe and expects to remain there until she sails for this country for a year's stay on May 15. She will sail on the "Empress of Asia," and expects to reach Vancouver June 1. She will come home by way of Toronto, as she will have in her case a blind child whom she will leave with his relatives in Canada. After a conference in New York City, Miss Jones expects to arrive here the last of June for a visit with her relatives, before taking up a course of study.

DR. EVANS HONORED

The latest number of the "Revue d'Histoire Littéraire de la France," the leading Paris review of literary criticism, publishes an article entitled "L'Odeon et le Drame Romantique," by Dr. David O. Evans, Professor of French and Head of the Modern Language Department, University of Delaware.

Dr. Evans, who came to Newark last Fall, is the author of several works on questions of French literary history, including the following: "Le Drame Moderne à l'époque romantique," Paris, 1924; "Le théâtre pendant la période romantique," Paris, 1925; "Les Problèmes d'Actualité au théâtre," Paris, 1923; "L'Évolution du théâtre social en France de 1750 à 1850," Revue de Synthèse Historique," July number, 1925; etc. He is a member of the Société Philotechnique of Paris.

He holds the M. A. and Ph. D. of the University of Oxford and the Doctorate of Letters of the University of Paris. Dr. Evans read a paper at the meeting of the Modern Language Association of America held at Harvard University in December.

A newspaper without an enemy? Why, there isn't any such thing.

NEWARK WOMAN WRITES FOR "MONITOR"

On the front page of last Wednesday's "Christian Science Monitor," in the "box" wherein is advertised the feature of the next day's paper, we find this: "Traveling via books proves surprisingly fascinating and has almost limitless possibilities. It offers literary charm, too, and a wealth of stories of adventure. For just a few suggested 'journeys,' see The Christian Science Monitor, tomorrow, Editorial page."

The article found in the upper right hand corner of Thursday's paper was written by Mrs. George Porter Paine
