GROUP HOSPITAL SERVICE AVAILABLE

Wilmington Plan Extended To Newark Employees

Residents of Newark may now avail themselves of the plan of Group Hospital Service, it was announced today by that organization, which has extended its plan, sponsored by the Wilmington Hospital, designed to help the individual and families of employees of the hospital.

At the present time, Group Hospital Service offers hospital care to employees of the hospital and their dependents for rates beginning with $1.50 per month. This is the base rate for one individual, while rates for a family of four are $4.50 per month and for a family of six $6.00 per month. The subscribers for these payments, receive 21 days of hospital care in a year.

10,000 Enrolled

Almost 10,000 Wilmingtonians, representing employees in Wilmington and their families, are now enrolled in the plan of Group Hospital Service, one of the country's such plans in the country.

At 1,000,000 people, stated H. V. Wharton, managing director of the plan, at the request of numerous Newark residents to justify the extension of the plan at the lowest possible opportunity. We have planned to enroll employees and their families as well as to protect with their immediate families. This will be done in order to give those who wish to participate in the plan the opportunity to share in the plan of Group Hospital Service.

Wilmington or to make inquiry concerning the plan through their employers.

Non-Profit Enterprise

Members of this organization emphasize the fact that Group Hospital Service is a non-profit enterprise and that all funds, aside from administrative costs and that related to hospitalization, are held in reserve for the purpose of insuring benefits or protection against possible epidemics.

The Wilmington plan, from every point of view, has more than fulfilled our expectations," Dr. W. E. H. Ryden, secretary, stated today. "The members of the Wilmington project pleased to state that it is among the lowest priced plans in the country and has been able to increase its membership regularly as its membership has grown during the past two years. It is one of three such plans having the unqualified approval of the Philadelphia Medical Society."

Mr. Murphy said, "To provide for the orderly introduction of the hand sets into the telephone system and make unnecessary the junking of large numbers of thoroughly efficient telephone sets of other kind, a rate was originally set at fifty cents per month. As the number of hand sets in service increased and as the manufacturing facilities were expanded the rate was reduced at various times until the most recent reduction which called for a fifteen cent rate for a period of twelve months. This will be eliminated with all bills issued after December 8."

HEALTH CONTEST

$500 Prize To Winning Essay

"The Achievements of William Crawford Gorgas and their Relation to our Health" is to be the subject of the ninth Gorgas Memorial Essay Contest, in which third and fourth year high school students throughout the country will compete for a $500 prize. It has been announced by Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the board of directors of the Gorgas Memorial Institute. Schools throughout the country have been invited to enroll in the contest, which will close on January 21, 1938. These essay contests have become an annual feature of the program of education for better personal health carried on by the institute.

For the best essay written in each school, a bronze Gorgas medal will be awarded and the student so honored will represent his school in the state competition. A prize of $10 in cash will be given for the best essay in each state. The first national prize will be $500 in cash, with a traveling expense allowance of $200 for a trip to Washington to receive the prize.

The second national prize will be $150 and third, $50. Complete details of the contest may be obtained from the institute's office at 1835 Eye Street, Washington, and supplementary information may be gained from the publications of the State Board of Health and the State Mosquito Control Commission, or by visits at any of the CCC camps directed by the latter.

Previously, he had made history by freeing Havana of yellow fever at the close of the Spanish American War. Later a surgeon general of the Army during the World War, he established a system of strict physical examination as the means of getting a fit Army.

Plaque To Be Unveiled For Christmas Seal Originator

Health officials from throughout the country, international dignitaries and state government officials will be among the principal speakers at the ceremonies at Marshallton on November 24, marking the 30th anniversary of the first Christmas Seal Sale. The center of activities will be the unveiling of a plaque to Miss Emily P. Bissell, who, back in 1907, originated the idea of selling Christmas Seals in this country as a means of financing work in the prevention and cure of tuberculosis. The plaque will be unveiled on the main building at the Brandywine Sanatorium, on which site a little wooden shack cared for tuberculosis children a generation ago. It was this shack that Miss Bissell wanted to keep open and, when lack of funds threatened its existence, she went out and sold $3,000 worth of seals.

HOLIDAY LIGHTING AND CHEST DISCUSSED

Commerce Body Considers Plan At November Session Monday

Christmas lighting of Main Street and a general discussion relative to a community chest as a means of raising charity funds locally were the principal topics to come before the November meeting of the Newark Chamber of Commerce at Powell's Restaurant Monday night.

In addition to the regular session of the board of directors, a special committee assembled by John J. Johnston considered the advisability of launching a community chest campaign in place of annual independent drives as conducted by individual organizations at present.

Jackson Presides

George F. Jackson, president, officiated at the general session, which was attended by the following directors and committeemen: George Danby, Ira C. Shellenberg, James H. Hollingsworth, George M. Haney, Meyer Plinick, Robert C. Boyd, Carleton E. Douglass, Dr. Clyde M. Cox, Louis Handloff, Edward L. Richards, D. A. McClintock, Herbert W. Mason, William S. Hamilton, Weldon C. Waples, Herman Handloff and Charles H. Rutledge.

Of Mr. Johnston's special committee, Messrs. Douglass, Cox, Louis Handloff, McClintock and Mason spoke in behalf of the community chest campaign, while Mr. Johnston and Mr. Richards voiced appeals for existing charity organizations and their methods of conducting community benefits.

Lose "Personal" Touch
Mr. Richards stated, in citing the work done by backers of the Visiting Nurse's Association of Newark, "I fear a community chest idea will lose the personal touch that so many people, especially women, put into individual charity groups."

Following extensive experience in charity work in Boston, Mr. Mason stated his approval for the community chest idea in that the total income is being greater. Mr. Handloff agreed with Mr. Mason, while Mr. McClintock, an experienced collector for charitable groups, urged that a community chest be started as an "improvement over the present system."

Mr. Douglass expressed favor for the chest providing "the number of charities warrant it." Dr. Cox appealed for its adoption as a simplified plan for contributors to donate money in a lump sum.

"Much depends on the group to do the job," Mr. Johnston said in backing Mr. Richards' idea of personal contact that exists when organizations are permitted to work independently.

School Safety Is Topic At Lions Meeting

Dr. Zenos R. Clark Is Speaker At Newark Country Club Session

Dr. Zenos R. Clark, director of research in the Wilmington schools, talked on "Safety Problems in the Public Schools" before the weekly meeting of the Lions Club at the Newark Country Club Tuesday evening. Dr. Clark was the guest of Carleton E. Douglass, superintendent of schools here and a member of the service organization, Wayne C. Brewer, president of the club, officiated.

There are two principal aims connected with school safety, Dr. Clark stated. It is our plan to protect children while they are under the school's direction in order to prevent loss of time from classes and we hope to make them more conscious by way of education as a preparation for later life.

Three E's Taught
Safety in modern schools is driven home by following the "Three E's," engineering, education and enforcement, he said. By way of engineering, we endeavor to make the plant as safe as is humanly possible.

Under the heading of safety education we present regular courses of study and insist that children write special themes for general consideration at certain times of the year. Enforcement is carried out by a plan whereby every accident is reported for study on special forms. "Children are our greatest supporters in teaching safety," Dr. Clark added.

The service group will celebrate its ninth birthday next Tuesday with a special dinner and entertainment at the Newark Country Club. John R. Fader is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. HAROLD E. LUNDQVIST, Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
By Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for November 14
THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER

LESSON TEXT—1 Timothy 4:6-16; II Timothy 2:1-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—Nestor met the gift that is in thee.—1 Timothy 4:14.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Two Brave Preachers.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Two Brave Preachers.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why and How Ministers Are Trained.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Christian Minister in the Modern World.

"The Christian Minister"—there is no greater calling among men, but none is more often the target for misrepresentation and abuse by those outside, and all too often the victim of the carelessness, weakness, and sin of those within its own circle. On the other hand it has had, and continues to have to this day, within its ranks such a noble array of faithful and sacrificial men as would probably be impossible to duplicate in any other calling.

The study of today's lesson should arouse in the hearts of Christian people a high regard for the ministry as a calling, and a kindly purpose to aid their minister to live up to its glorious possibilities. Every true minister who studies it will find his spirit humbled before God in thanksgiving for the privilege of service, and in prayer that he may be forgiven for his failures and empowered for the work of the future.

The need for such a study is indicated in the verses just preceding our lesson, namely, I Timothy 4:15, where we read of the express warning of the Spirit of God that in the latter times there should be teaching and preaching which departed from the faith, substituting men's wisdom for God's Word. One who looks around him cannot but feel that we have fallen upon that evil day. We do well to give heed to the clear teaching of our lesson regarding the ministry.

I. What to Preach (I Tim. 4:6-9). The "good minister of Jesus Christ" preaches the words of God. To do this he must himself be "nourished" by them. Spare your preacher the necessity of running errands, serving on boards and committees, and encourage him to study his Bible.

Preacher, are you studying God's Word, learning and teaching "good doctrine"? If so you will have no interest in or time for "profane and old wives fables."

II. How to Preach (I Tim. 4:10-12).

1. Sacrificially (v. 10). The man who regards the ministry as a nice, easy, respectable occupation is not in the same calling as was the apostle Paul. In fact, there is nothing to indicate that he is in the Christian ministry at all, for in that calling there is labor and suffering of reproach. This is not something to be borne in a spirit of resigned submission. The minister knows and "trusts in the living God," and gladly bears every responsibility with which God may entrust him.

2. Authoritatively (v. 11). The minister of Christ speaks for God. In doing so he teaches with assurance and is to "command" men in the Lord's name. All too often the servants of the Lord feel and act like "grasshoppers" (see Numbers 13:33), and everybody else regards them as feeble and impotent, when they should be "strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus" (II Tim. 2:1).

3. Actively (v. 12). Whether young or old, the minister is to be an example, a pattern in his active daily life. Note how discriminating is the scripture. He is to be a pattern for others in speech, manner of living, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity of life.

III. Who Is to Preach (I Tim. 4:13-16).

1. The man who is divinely called (v. 14). God called Timothy; men recognized that call and ordained him to give his life to the exercise of his God-given gift. This is the right order for our day.

2. The man who is properly prepared (vv. 13, 15-16). The ministry calls for the best preparation that a man can possibly obtain. He must know how to read God's Word, both publicly and privately. He is to be skilled in exhortation, and in teaching Christian doctrine.

In conclusion, let us consider the portion from II Timothy 2 which properly presents the work of the minister as that of a soldier at war against the world, the flesh, and the devil. He must be prepared to bear hardness, and he must not yield to the temptation to get into "side-lines," no matter how dignified and profitable they may be. His sole business is to serve and to please God.

Paul's overflowing heart pours out upon Timothy, and upon true Christian soldiers of awaiting centuries, a flood of heartening counsel, promises of grace sufficient to meet all certain afflictions and persecutions. The age of subtle persecution of vital and faithful Christians is not past, therefore the promises that pertained to Timothy are for true believers of the present day.

Too salty food may be reclaimed by addition of a few spoonfuls of milk or a little butter.

Largely because of favorable weather conditions, agricultural production was larger in 1937 than in any year since 1932. The Nation produced a two and one-half billion crop of corn, nearly 900 million bushels of wheat, a cotton crop of 17½ million bales. All these crops are up to or above normal production. Potato and tobacco crops are unusually large and milk production was greater than in 1936. In the face of declining exports of farm commodities taken as a whole production of farm products has increased.

STUDENTS SURVEY HOME HAZARDS

J. C. BAKER

It is somewhat unusual for children to be cautioning their parents regarding safety hazards, yet such warnings did occur, parents confessed with shame-faced pride, after Miss Roberts' pupils made a survey of home hazards. The individual projects, carried out by the school children after they had studied home hazards in general, were peculiarly and sometimes embarrassingly penetrating, since the pupils viewed the home set-up with less bias than did the grownups of the household.

Though each home was surveyed separately, the children found it possible to organize most of the hazards brought to light under a few general headings, the specific dangers under each varying with the individual homes. Their lists ran something like this:

- Home Hazards
- From fire, through:
 - Direct flames (here the children listed concretely family malpractices in lighting and operating heating and cooking units, also, the danger of spontaneous combustion from oily cloths)
 - Gases (including risk of asphyxiation from leaking joints, furnaces improperly regulated, automobile engines running in closed garages)
 - From electricity, through:
 - Improper wiring and improperly installed appliances (bathroom heaters too near tub, fans where clothing or hand might contact them, etc.)
 - Worn equipment (frayed cords, heating pads whose thermostats are faulty, etc.)
 - House hazards due to:
 - Construction faults (insufficient lighting at strategic points, stairways too steep, without banisters or with irregular risers, cracking flues, slippery floors)

Good Way to Whip Old Man Monotony
By Betty Crocker

If you plan meals three times a day, week in and week out, you're probably well acquainted with that bugbear of all good cooks, "Old Man Monotony." Well, there's an easy way to whip "Old Man Monotony"—an old-fashioned way stolen from Grandma's table, heaped with its wonderful array of tempting dainties—hot biscuits!

It used to be that fluffy, golden-brown biscuits were a sort of prerogative of experienced cooks. But today, with specially prepared biscuit flour, even the newest bride can surprise her husband with a plate of biscuits. And how men love them—especially if the jam or the honey pot is already on the table.

Variety in meats is costly, vegetables are mostly limited to what's in season, fruits and simple jellies and puddings are standby desserts, but you can always count on hot biscuits to pull your weekly menus right out of the red.

Junior Music Society

Under the direction of Mrs. Mylrea, Miss Rittenhouse and Mrs. Louisa, the Junior Music Society got under way this week. The plan is to interest the young people of Newark in music.

The committees are: Constitution—Olela Harrington, Anna Nickols and Ella Mae Maclary; membership—Lois Mae Tomhave, Mike Holton and Vera Gould; nomination—Irene Smith, Jane Hartman and Kathryn Egnor; program—Audrey Battersby, Marcelle Skinner and Virginia Mylrea.

Recent Assemblies
In the latest assembly Jane Hastings, Virginia Evans, Billy Price and Mr. Suttles spoke in the interest of the BUZZ.

Before the game on Friday, which was played with Dover (score 0-0), there was a very good pep fest held, with the band assisting. Rev. A. W. Mayer spoke two weeks ago in assembly and interested the student body greatly in his heart-to-heart, informal talk.

On Wednesday, an assembly was held and the chorus sang, which pleased many. I think everyone has been looking forward to it. At the pep fest on Friday, the cheer leaders deserved a lot of credit. They are: Ruth Wilson, captain; Virginia Evans, Anne Morrison, Helen Dean and Virginia Stickle. Assembly Program
The assembly program for Grade Five, Miss Harrington's room, follows: Announcer, Ruth Waters; play, "Who Owns North America?" characters—Robert Correll, Robert Gallagher, Robert Godwin, Walter Miller, Frank Sanborn, John Sullivan, John Doyle and Richard Smith; piano solo, Mary Elizabeth Davis; play, "The Importance of Writing," characters—Raymond Brannon, Kenneth Beers, Katherine Frase, Dorothy Wright, Marian Baylis, James Everett, Mary Bonnie George and William Miller.

Problems of school finance was the opening gun fired Monday as American Education Week got under way. Buying educational services, disseminating facts concerning the cost of the schools, how school funds are raised and the adequacy of school funds were among the subjects discussed at meetings throughout the county. Delaware's system and cost of operating the State Board of Education were shown in favorable light when compared to systems and costs in other states.

State Under Nation
The estimated national income of the United States for 1934 was $50,174,000,000. Of this amount, $1,940,133,433 was expended for all public education. This represents an annual cost of about $26 or 7 cents a day for each person over 21 years of age in our population. The figures for Delaware for 1934 show an annual cost of about $25.50 or 69 cents a day. Thus the schools of the United States as well as of Delaware are supported at a cost per day of a package of chewing gum and a two-cent stamp for each child.

New York spent $124.32 each year for each child enrolled in its elementary and secondary schools in 1933-34. Mississippi at the other extreme spent only $18.93 per pupil enrolled. Comparable figures for Delaware are $95.00 in 1933-34 and $93.50 in 1936-37.

In the United States in 1934 local governments assumed about 75 per cent of the total cost for public elementary and secondary schools. The state governments provided about 23 per cent of the total; the Federal Government provided slightly more than 1 per cent. Compared with the 75 per cent, which was borne by the local governments generally throughout the United States in 1934, the local governments in Delaware assumed about 7.5 per cent of the cost.

Education's Tax Share
In the United States as a whole, expenditures for public education were 22.7 per cent of the total tax collections of Federal, state and local governments combined. The estimated the student body greatly in his heart-to-heart, informal talk.

Wilmington, raised $134,359 and Wilmington $2,105,734. Thus for the past eight years the State has paid 92 per cent of the entire school bill and outside of Wilmington, practically the entire amount.

State appropriations for school buildings have been made to the extent of over $10,000,000. Local districts have provided $3,000,000, the Federal Government $235,000 and contributions from private sources, principally the Delaware School Foundation, $3,800,000.

School Bonds Paid
In 1932 the state began the payment of school bonds falling due each year. Since that time $772,564 have been taken from the school revenues for this purpose. In 1933, $1,000,000 of school revenue were diverted for relief, and from 1934 to 1937, $1,562,730 have been diverted for the support of the University of Delaware and the State College for Colored Youth.

The balance in the School Current Fund, which in 1932 amounted to $6,538,555 has decreased to $3,016,337 on June 30, 1937. This is a decrease of approximately $3,522,218 from the balance on June 30, 1936. The chief reasons for the decrease in the balance have been the increase in the appropriations from the fund, both for current expense and building purposes, the decrease in the Corporation Franchise Tax and the diversions for purposes other than for public schools.

Delaware Endangered

At the last session of Congress a bill was introduced to give the Federal Government the authority to license corporations. This bill is to be presented again. If it should pass, Delaware would lose its chief source of school revenue. The income tax, which amounted to approximately one million and a quarter this past year, then would be the chief source for the support of schools. This amounts to approximately one-third of what is being appropriated annually for the current expense of the schools. Thus if the income tax were left as the sole support of the schools, the districts would need to decrease school facilities or raise in one way or another two-thirds of their school expenses. If this were based upon property, the tax bill in the City of Wilmington would need to be increased 55 cents on each hundred dollars of assessed valuation. On the other hand, Laurel would be required to raise a tax of $1.75 for each hundred dollars of assessed valuation. Other districts would be as follows: Middletown, 80 cents; New Castle and Dover, 85 cents; Milford, $1.20, and Lewes, $1.35. In addition, districts having school bond issues would need to assume the payment of the bonds falling due each year.

School Code of 1921
Delaware has been able to provide adequately for her schools due to the fact that the writers of the School Code of 1921, and the Legislature of that year very wisely provided for the public schools by setting aside the revenues from several sources for school purposes. These revenues included the Corporation Franchise Tax, Income Tax Filing Fee and a County Property Tax. The yield from the Franchise Tax and the Income Tax was more than anticipated so that it was possible to repeal the Filing Fee in 1927 and the County Property Tax in 1929. This County Property Tax and Filing Fee had yielded $933,856 in 1928. Thus the people of the state were relieved of a direct school tax of approximately $1,000,000.

Since 1929, when the County Property Tax was removed, the state has appropriated $28,159,512 toward the current cost of operating the schools. In this same period the local districts, exclusive of

Wilmington, raised $134,359 and Wilmington $2,105,734. Thus for the past eight years the State has paid 92 per cent of the entire school bill and outside of Wilmington, practically the entire amount.

State appropriations for school buildings have been made to the extent of over $10,000,000. Local districts have provided $3,000,000, the Federal Government $235,000 and contributions from private sources, principally the Delaware School Foundation, $3,800,000.

This amounts to approximately one-third of what is being appropriated annually for the current expense of the schools. Thus if the income tax were left as the sole support of the schools, the districts would need to decrease school facilities or raise in one way or another two-thirds of their school expenses. If this were based upon property, the tax bill in the City of Wilmington would need to be increased 55 cents on each hundred dollars of assessed valuation. On the other hand, Laurel would be required to raise a tax of $1.75 for each hundred dollars of assessed valuation. Other districts would be as follows: Middletown, 80 cents; New Castle and Dover, 85 cents; Milford, $1.20, and Lewes, $1.35. In addition, districts having school bond issues would need to assume the payment of the bonds falling due each year.

School Code of 1921
Delaware has been able to provide adequately for her schools due to the fact that the writers of the School Code of 1921, and the Legislature of that year very wisely provided for the public schools by setting aside the revenues from several sources for school purposes. These revenues included the Corporation Franchise Tax, Income Tax Filing Fee and a County Property Tax. The yield from the Franchise Tax and the Income Tax was more than anticipated so that it was possible to repeal the Filing Fee in 1927 and the County Property Tax in 1929. This County Property Tax and Filing Fee had yielded $933,856 in 1928. Thus the people of the state were relieved of a direct school tax of approximately $1,000,000.

Since 1929, when the County Property Tax was removed, the state has appropriated $28,159,512 toward the current cost of operating the schools. In this same period the local districts, exclusive of

Wilmington, raised $134,359 and Wilmington $2,105,734. Thus for the past eight years the State has paid 92 per cent of the entire school bill and outside of Wilmington, practically the entire amount.

State appropriations for school buildings have been made to the extent of over $10,000,000. Local districts have provided $3,000,000, the Federal Government $235,000 and contributions from private sources, principally the Delaware School Foundation, $3,800,000.

School Bonds Paid
In 1932 the state began the payment of school bonds falling due each year. Since that time $772,564 have been taken from the school revenues for this purpose. In 1933, $1,000,000 of school revenue were diverted for relief, and from 1934 to 1937, $1,562,730 have been diverted for the support of the University of Delaware and the State College for Colored Youth.

The balance in the School Current Fund, which in 1932 amounted to $6,538,555 has decreased to $3,016,337 on June 30, 1937. This is a decrease of approximately $3,522,218 from the balance on June 30, 1936. The chief reasons for the decrease in the balance have been the increase in the appropriations from the fund, both for current expense and building purposes, the decrease in the Corporation Franchise Tax and the diversions for purposes other than for public schools.

People Fortunate

How fortunate the people of Delaware have been for sometime in the matter of direct taxation for schools is illustrated by the fact that the Income Tax collected on 1935 incomes in Wilmington for the tax year ending October 31, 1936, was equal to approximately 30 per cent of the current cost of operating the schools in the city. In rural New Castle County it was equal to 50 per cent of the current cost of all the schools in the county outside of Wilmington. The amount collected in Kent County was equal to 3 per cent of the school bill and would have paid for the cost of operating the schools in Frederica or Clayton. It would have been sufficient to pay one-sixth of the cost of operating the schools in Dover or one-fourth of the cost of operating the schools in Smyrna or Harrington. In Sussex County the income tax collected was slightly more than 2 per cent of the operating cost of the schools in the county. It was equal to one-half of the operating expense of the Greenwood School. Laurel and Milford spent annually approximately five times the amount in operating their schools, and Seaford four times the amount. (These percentages and figures will need to be increased somewhat due to the increase in the income tax for the year 1937.)

Straight From The Shoulder

Shades of Knute Rockne! Reminding of the days when the "Sage of South Bend" was revelling lounge lizard, Monday morning quarter-backs and other forms of vociferous, but inconsequential humans, G. Van R. (Dutch, to you) Slagle, coach of the Wilmington Clippers, spoke in no uncertain fashion before a "pop fest" at the University of Delaware last Friday night.

Leaving nothing to the imagination, Slagle praised Delaware's football players—win, lose or draw—because of the effort they were called upon to make every day. Tediuous hours of scrimmaging and pregame drills are all a part of a player's chore, he stated.

That effort should be appreciated by the student body as a whole, whether games result in victories or defeats. Regardless of the outcome of contests, the work for players and coaches is the same.

Better spirit is needed at Delaware, Slagle added. Students and team "supporters" seldom see anything but games, preliminaries and the almost endless hours of preparation are not regarded as matters of importance by the public and fans.

Sees All, Knows All

Prior to the time things started to go blank for us at Atlantic City last Saturday night (the salt air did it) we spent in company with George Ekaltis the Hand-ome, football coach at Washington College, and Harry S. Russell, president of the Eastern Shore Baseball League and publisher of THE ENTERPRISE, Chestertown, who were scouting Delaware.

Why they bothered at all is hard to imagine. That guy Ekaltis called plays with unerring accuracy before they were ever run. He seemed to know exactly when Loyal Clark would stretch his neck and give his head that twist which has become such a familiar sight to Delaware followers.

The Hens would huddle and Ekaltis, just as though he were in the circle, too, would name the play. The man's psychic!

We endeavored to shove George into the same draft of salt air that enveloped us, but he was too smart for that business. Drafts, he said, are bad for his constitution.

It is entirely possible that Clarke knows as much about Ekaltis' team as George knows about the Hens.

We hope so, because the Washington mentor even knows the middle name of every Delaware player's girl. He's a bear for details, that gentleman.

Noted In Passing

Frankie Mayer was master of ceremonies when Hymie Schwartz and Lew Samuels staged an impromptu show of tumbling and other acrobatics for the entertainment of a thousand or more fans in front of the Shelburne after the game.

A kindly "judge" in a central New Jersey town gave this department a "break" by dismissing a case of speeding for the payment of costs only.

The old boy is a beagle fancier and breeder. Shows his hounds in field trials in this section.

Which means that being from Newark is worth something, after all. According to accounts given by motorists who used the White Horse Pike enroute to Atlantic City, a local constable in a small New Jersey town did a neat piece of business at $3.50 a head for alleged traffic violations.

Collections were accepted without a hearing.

We Wuz Robbed!

Shouts of employing a referee who is an out-and-out "homer" are being aimed at Dover High School officials by the local institution following the scoreless tie at the Capitol last Friday night.

Newark, we have been told, had three touchdowns in the bag, but questionable decisions by a "blind" referee, cost the Jackets much yardage, proved too much of an obstacle for the Gillespie-coached combine to overcome.

Dover is undefeated and will probably remain that way forever, if all games are played at home, according to followers of the local high school.

Flashes By Bill Fletcher

WEEK BY WEEK, the art of kicking is assuming a position of greater importance in the world of football as grid favorites are toppled from the heights by virtue of an extra point or a field goal—slim margins, yet they mean victories.

Lebanon Valley, the team that made a tragic visit to Frazier Field three weeks ago, scored its second straight win via a field boot from the toe of Tony Rozman—the lad who kicked three against the Hens, Pennsylvania Military Academy fell before that educated foot last week—this week it was Upsala.

The University of Delaware was forced to swallow a taste of the same bitter medicine in the annual night classic on Saturday when the Cadets reversed the situation and Frank Hartzel lofted one between the crossbars to provide the 3-0 margin of victory.

In scoring positions several times during the last half, the Blue and Gold, its running attack halted by a determined Cadet defense, could have knotted the count, even taken a lead, had there been a toe, well-schooled in the work of planting the pigskin where it counts, attached to one of the Delaware gridgers.

Howard Viden, handling his regular punting duties, also cost the Hens plenty of yardage as he carried out his task in a haphazard and erratic manner. Punting eleven times, according to statistics compiled, the Blue and Gold booted propelled the ball for a total yardage of 310, or an average of 28 yards per boot.

All of which isn't so good, when one considers that good kicking is the best defense and even a good offense against any ball club.

DETERMINED TO FIND his strongest attack formation, Coach Loyal Clark has done plenty of shifting and shuffling with a single change in the starting lineup—Varg on one of the flanks.

The shift, which would involve technical terms not even understood by us—(we only know da woids) we'll pass over at this time.

What we did gather from Coach Clark's baffling barrage of grid terminology was the fact that Ernie George will be handling the ball in Lew Carey's post, while Lew calls signals from Ernie's old place—in other words, Ernie will be in the middle of all those reverses and spins, etc.

We bowed our head and covered up when we were made the target for "inside tackle, outside tackle, inside guard, outside guard"—all of which sounds very simple—but you listen to a coach talk some time.

ASSISTANT COACH Floyd Doughty put in an appearance just as we were about to give up and Coach Clark began questioning him on the Drexel team which the Jay vee mentor had scouted on Saturday.

Details—details—details—minute, obscure, microscopic facts were in-

Blue Hens To Invade Dragons' Lair High School Gridgers Seek Victory Over P. S. du Pont School

DREXEL FAVORED TO COP VERDICT

Philadelphia Team Sporting Five Wins And Lone Defeat

By Bill Fletcher

The Drexel Dragons, conquerors of Susquehanna, Franklin and Marshall, Juniata, Ursinus and Muhlenberg, will play hosts to the University of Delaware on the Philadelphia gridiron, Saturday, in what will probably turn out to be the toughest tilt for the Blue and Gold since the Rutgers defeat.

Turned back only once this season, a 13-6 setback at the hands of a powerful Gettysburg eleven, Coach Walter H. Halas has developed a hard-playing aggregation that reached its peak last week when Muhlenberg succumbed in the last three minutes to a clever aerial play.

The victory gave the Dragons undisputed possession of first place in the Eastern Pennsylvania Collegiate Conference.

Hard Practice Sessions Outmaneuvered last Saturday in the annual night classic at Atlantic City, Coach Loyal Clark's charges have been working hard all week in an effort to resume the form displayed in the St. John's victory.

A scrimmage held this week saw the regulars in an impressive workout that may net results if the form can be maintained for their seventh tilt of the 1937 season.

Following the defeat by the Cadets, Coach Clark announced that several shifts would be made in the lineup in an effort to bring out more strength in the running attack which bogged down several times in the face of a determined P. M. C. defense.

Charlie Allen will be moved over to the offensive guard berth, while Charlie Ferrell will assume the inside tackle duties. George Varga, freshman flank, who has probably earned for himself a starting berth by virtue of a good showing last week, is expected to take over Jack Dwyer's duties at one of the outside posts.

Sadowski Injured Dave Sadowski, Hen pivot man, who started at the post against the Cadets, is suffering with an injured leg and face cuts which may keep him sidelined for the Drexel tilt. Several members of the team came out of the exceptionally rough clash with bad bruises and sprains.

The Halas-coached combine is sporting a decided edge in the series played during the last nine years, having been dead-ended once, and need only once, while copping verdicts in six tilts.

Winning 19-0 in 1928, the Dragons repeated the victory in 1929 by a 21-6 count, but were held to a 13-13 tie in 1930. Following a year's break in relationships, the Philadelphia team came back in 1932 and 1933 to chalk up 13-10 and 6-0 conquests. In 1934, the Hens were awarded a 7-6 victory, but the Drexel aggregation returned in 1935 and 1936 to gain 34-7 and 7-6 nods.

Dragons Favored Shortline a much more favorable record than the Hens, who have been limited to a lone victory in six starts; a decided weight advantage which gives them power on offense and end runs; and an effective aerial attack which has either directly or indirectly accounted for most of the scores this year, the Dragons will enter the game as decided favorites to top the Clarkson on Saturday.

With a team averaging 180 pounds, the Philadelphia club boasts of a 177-pound backfield and a 184-pound line. Glen Williams, standing six feet, two inches, is the heaviest performer on the squad. Tipping the scales at 210 pounds, Williams plays at the fullback post.

Cameron Snyder, a regular starter at a guard post, is the heaviest lineman. Standing five feet, nine inches, he balances the Fairbanks at 302 pounds.

With Co-captains Bill Graf and George Baker forming the nucleus of the running attack, and Walter Ehmling, ace passer, on the projecting end of the aerial offense, the Dragons are equally as dangerous in both departments of football.

Elwood Conard, after a year's absence because of an appendectomy, has come back this season and now ranks as one of the finest ends de-

Head Football Coach

This is the third in a series of nine outstanding diagrams plays by nine leading college coaches from Grantland Rice's Cities Service Football Guide.

The above diagram is a modified tandem formation with an unbalanced line. No. 1 back receives the ball and steps back as if to throw a pass. No. 4 back comes around and makes a fake attempt to execute the old Statue of Liberty play and continues on around to the left. The purpose of this delay is to pull the defensive right tackle across the line of scrimmage where he is blocked out by the No. 3 back. If he charges across the line, which is his usual assignment, this play will result in a substantial gain. The blocking assignments are about the same as in many "slant off tackle" play.

Judges of the 13-inch class were Rine and Herbert Edwards, the latter of Malvern, Pa. Stewart Swartz, Baltimore, and C. M. Townsend, Glenn Mills, Pa., served as judges for the 15-inch class.

Other Dogs Place In addition to Fisher's Fly, dogs finishing ahead of the pack in the 13-inch division were: Second, Lucky Strike, owned by H. C. Meixell, Fort Du Pont; third, Marita Sally, owned by Charles Marlowe, Elkton; fourth, Concord Spat, owned by Charles Hartman, Wilmington.

Winners in the 15-inch class, in addition to Warring's Rebel, were: Second, Becker's High Star, owned by William Pollitt, Salisbury, Md.; third, Limestone Sally, owned by Clarence Humphries, Marshalltown, Pa.

More than 100 spectators followed the course of the dogs, while 75 guests attended the dinner following the trials. The second informal tests will be held on December 5, when another large list of entries is anticipated.

JACKETS TO PLAY HOSTS TO DYNAMITERS

Locals Held To 0-0 Stalemate By Dover; du Pont In 6-0 Setback

Held to its third dead-end of the season last Friday at an undefeated Dover eleven, Newark High School to a 0-0 stalemate, the Yellowjackets are in form for the annual battle with P. S. duPont on the local grid Saturday.

Shining tremendous running power, the local boys pigskin in the Capital city, they threw most of the run fumbles and penalties against scoring chances.

The game was spotted lengthily run by Bill Bellman, Brooks, Drex Harrison and Smith as the line functioned, and opened up nice holes for the constant threats, however, Gillespie's aggregation was to cross over into paydirt in first nocturnal clash in the Newark football team has been repeated wound up in the scores.

THIRDS TIED

It was the third game the Jackets have been tied with Millville holding them to a 6-6 draw and West Nottingham tying up a great scrap that ended in a 7-7 deadlock.

While the locals were being a hard-fighting team of Dover was dropping a 6-0 verdict, powerful Ridley Township eleven.

Coach Joe Bradshaw gave their best performance season, despite the setback. Pennsylvanians garnered a touchdown in the second period.

P. S. duPont gave a fine display, holding the Townsiders several times when they scored territory. Dickens Kennedy were standouts in Dynamiters' forward wall.

Western Maryland's Aim--What's Delaware's?

Proposed Field House at Western Maryland College for which Funds are being raised.

By "The Roamer"

"Three Things We Need - For A Greater Western Maryland" is the slogan adopted by the small but growing institution that nestles in the hills of Carroll County at Westminster, Maryland. Not a bigger, but a better college is the idea behind the plan to raise a quarter of a million dollars. And the Green Terrors are raising the money by appeals to graduates and friends.

An intensive drive is already under way for a new men's dormitory, a new field house (pictured above) and an addition to the library. The dormitory will cost $150,000. An outlay of $70,000 will be required to erect and equip the field house, while $30,000 will defray the cost of providing a sorely needed addition to the college library.

State Committees
Committees are working in Baltimore and in each of Maryland's 23 counties. Another committee is functioning in Sussex County, Delaware, under the direction of Dr.

J. Roscoe Elliott, who resides at Oak Grove, near Seaford. Special committees are also on foot in Washington, New York, Philadelphia, northern New Jersey and from graduates throughout the world.

Western Maryland deserves credit and success for an effort that is worthy, well made and timely.
WHY CAN'T DELAWARE, IF ITS DIGNITY (?) IS TOO GREAT TO SEEK WPA FUNDS, TRY A PLAN

SIMILAR TO WESTERN MARY-LAND'S? Delaware needs a field house and an athletic plant worthy of the name fully as much as Westminster institution Delaware is playing dead to its needs.

Comes Another Winter
Blue Hen swimmers have already started training, the basketball team will swing into action in less than three weeks, while tennis, gymnastics and indoor physical education courses will soon settle down to work. And where will this work have to be done? Taylor Gymnasium, which no more meets the requirements of a school like Delaware than a model T Ford compares to a streamlined locomotive.

will continue to bulge and strain through another winter of sports and activities. Will the condition exist forever?

Next spring there's another in-terscholastic meet on the docket.
The affair is designed primarily to interest schoolboy athletes in Delaware as a place to display their physical talents while absorbing an education. (The idea is denied, but ghosts exist in the closets of every household).

Instead of attracting boys to Delaware, however, the meet serves in too many cases, to drive them away. One look at Taylor Gymnasium and the kids, the majority of whom come from first-class high schools where athletic requirements have not been stinted, either roll on the ground in mirth, or flee for the gates at Joe Frazer Field holding their noses.

The lack of buildings and equipment for athletics at Delaware is pitiful, but the situation can be overcome. First, however, it must be realized and appreciated. Then a plan for creating funds must be developed and carried through. Western Maryland sets a good example.

Pennsylvania Streams

Stocked With Bass

Stream stocking in Pennsylvania
during September by the Fish Commission's hatcheries featured small-mouthed and largemouthed bass as well as other popular warm water species of fish life. Distribution of fish and frogs during that month totaled 755,486.

Of this number 191,787 were small-mouthed and largemouthed bass ranging in size from 2 to 15 inches.
Other species included 319 adult yellow perch averaging 9 inches in length, 445 adult pickerel from 15 to 18 inches in length, 6,965 rainbow trout from 9 to 10 inches in length, 10,800 brook trout finger-lings, 1,000 carp averaging 9 inches in length, 55 muskellunge from 6

from 2 to 4 inches in length, 221,955
bluegill sunfish from 1 to 7 inches in length, 153,490 bluehead catfish
from 2 1/2 to 10 inches in length, 25, 144 brook trout from 8 to 14 inches in length, 12,880 brown trout 6 to 9 inches in length, and 114,760 bullfrog tadpoles from 2 to 3 inches in length.

Two former University of Dela-

Hodgson, and a pair of Newark figures in the Fishburne Military Academy-Shenandoah Valley Acad-

Shenandoah, coached by Hodgson, defeated Thompson's array from Fishburne, 8-13, after trailing most of the distance. Ewing played an end position for the losers, while Skillman, fullback for Fishburne, kicked the field goal that gave Thompson's charges their only score.

Losing his first two games of the season, Hodgson has since scored three straight wins, defeating Aug-that order.

Simply because it's never been done here before is no reason why it can't be done this year.

The big job is at the outset and money

Main Street. Next year and the years to come it will be comparatively easy.

Election Returns Indefinite
At 4 P. M. the returns are so indefinite that the results can not be given with any degree of satisfaction. Contradictory reports have been coming into this office all day and as we go to press, we are giving the very latest returns.

Aside from the election of Wilson as President, and Miller for Governor, no accurate figures can be given.

OBITUARY

Mrs. George Alexander
Mrs. George Alexander, aged 85 years, died on Sunday evening last, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edith Schreiner, near this town.

Funeral services were held at that place this afternoon at 1:30, interment in London Tract Cemetery.

Mrs. Alexander was a daughter of Elder Thomas Barton, who at one time, served as pastor of the Welsh Tract and London Tract churches, both near Newark.

Adeline Steel
Miss Adeline Steel, aged 78 years, died at her home near Newark last Wednesday after a long illness.

Miss Steel has lived in this community all her life and was widely known throughout the neighborhood. She had been an ardent worker in the Head of Christiana Church, of which she had been a member for 57 years.

Miss Steel has been confined to her bed for the past fourteen months, suffering from general debility.

Funeral services were held from the old homestead last Saturday. Interment in Head of Christiana Cemetery.

George Cornog
George Cornog, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cornog, died at the home of his parents on Monday, Nov. 4th, after a lingering illness.

The deceased had suffered with typhoid fever about a year ago, and never fully recovered strength after the illness. Tuberculosis developed, from which the child died.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon. Interment will be made in Head of Christiana Cemetery.

Found Dead Above Newark
Oliver Vansant, aged about 35 years, was found dead early this morning on a side road near McClellandville. The body was found by Isaac Tyson, who is employed on the county roads. It was lying in a small stream near a bridge. While it is generally believed that the unfortunate man fell off the bridge in the dark, striking his head on some stones, because of the peculiar wounds on the back of his head relatives here are not satisfied that there was not foul play. There were three deep wounds on the right side of his head above the ear and relatives cannot reconcile all three wounds being made in a fall. There were no indications of a fight where the body was found. It is thought the crime was committed somewhere else and the body carried to the stream where found. The matter has been reported to the coroner, and an investigation may explain all the present mysterious elements of the case.

The deceased has several brothers living in Newark. He was a widower and leaves two small children. Mr. Vansant worked mostly as a paper hanger and painter. He had been doing some paperhanging at the farm of George Campbell near Head of Christiana Church. He came to Newark yesterday to vote, and afterwards is reported to have returned to the Campbell farm. How he came to be in the neighborhood where the body was found is another mystery in the case.

The body was brought to Newark by Undertaker E. Clifford Wilson. The funeral will be held on Friday at Head of Christiana Church where interment will be made.

Variety Shower
A variety shower for Miss Lola Jones was given at the home of Miss Agnes Medill, on Monday evening. Miss Jones had been invited to spend the evening with Miss Medill and upon her arrival found a score or more of her intimate friends assembled. Many useful and beautiful articles were among the gifts.

Convention At Dover
On Thursday, November 14th, the annual meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Wilmington M. E. Conference will be held in Dover. Mrs. H. W. McNeal and Mrs. L. B. Jacobs have been elected delegates from the Newark auxiliary.

Joe Frazer Field
The Joe Frazer Field is nearing completion. The concrete tie fence and the Memorial gateways are finished. As soon as the tie for drainage is laid, and the ground leveled for the sowing of grass seed, the quarter-mile track with the 200-yard straight-away will be built.

In an effort to uncover the future leaders of America, university and college presidents are being invited to assist in the selection of their outstanding seniors by Harry E. Fry, editor of the AMERICAN COLLEGE YEAR BOOK.

Explaining how they would be picked, Mr. Fry said, "These young men and women will be selected by their best friends and severest critics, their own classmates and faculty members. Those seniors who appear to be headed for future distinction will qualify."

The How and Why of the National Unemployment Census

A nation-wide census of all unemployed and partially unemployed persons in the United States will be taken between the dates of November 16 to 20, by act of Congress, and at the direction of President Roosevelt.

Here, in question-and-answer form, is the information you need to know about this plan.

- 1. WHAT IS PURPOSE OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT CENSUS?
To get an accurate count of the unemployed and partly unemployed.
- 2. TO WHOM WILL CARDS BE SENT?
To every family in the United States.
- 3. UNDER WHOSE AUSPICES IS THE CENSUS BEING TAKEN?
Congress has decreed, and the President has directed, that it be taken.
- 4. IS THE CENSUS COMPULSORY?
No. But every unemployed or partly unemployed person is urgently requested to cooperate.
- 5. HOW WILL THE CENSUS BE CONDUCTED?
Through the facilities of the Post Office Department. Report Cards will be delivered to every family. Cards are to be returned by mail to Washington for tabulation and analysis.
- 6. WHEN WILL THE CENSUS BE TAKEN?
Cards will be delivered on November 16 and must be returned by MIDNIGHT NOVEMBER 20. They are already addressed and no postage is required.
- 7. WHO SHOULD FILL AND RETURN CARDS?
Every person who is unemployed or partly unemployed who is able to work and wants work.
- 8. WHAT AGE LIMITS APPLY?
There are no age limits except existing State regulations concerning workers' ages.
- 9. SHOULD MORE THAN ONE UNEMPLOYED PERSON IN A FAMILY RETURN A CARD?
Yes. Every unemployed member of a family should fill out and return a card, if able to work and seeking work.
- 10. WHERE MAY ADDITIONAL CARDS BE OBTAINED?
At any post office or from your postman.
- 11. WHERE CAN INFORMATION BE SECURED IN FILLING OUT CARDS?
At your post office or from your postman.
- 12. IS THIS CENSUS CONFINED TO AMERICAN CITIZENS?

- 13. IS THE INFORMATION GIVEN ON THE CARDS TO BE CONSIDERED CONFIDENTIAL?
Yes. This information will be used for unemployment statistics only.
- 14. SHOULD EVERY QUESTION OF THE CENSUS CARD BE ANSWERED?
Yes. To obtain the most accurate information possible, the President asks that each question be answered. Numbers 9 and 10 are particularly important. However, failure to answer some of the questions will not invalidate the card.
- 15. WHO IS AN "UNEMPLOYED" PERSON?
A person of either sex or any color who is not working and is able to work and seeking work.
- 16. WHO IS A "PARTLY UNEMPLOYED" PERSON?
A person of either sex or any color with part-time employment who is able to do more work and is looking for more work.
- 17. ARE PERSONS ON EMERGENCY WORK PROJECTS INCLUDED?
Yes. They should register as unemployed. A specific question, Number 2c, is provided on the Report Card for all persons working on a W.P.A., N.Y.A., C.C.C., or other emergency work project which is supported by public funds.

Washington

TO EVERY WORKER:

If you are unemployed or partly unemployed and are able to work and are seeking work, please fill out this report card right away and mail it before midnight, Saturday, November 20, 1937. No postage stamp is needed.
