Fluorine Plan Still Waits Delivery Of
Special Equipment*Reports On Fluorine Tests
Elsewhere Show Effectiveness of Project

Fluorine experiment, approved by the Town Council two months ago, is still awaiting delivery of special equipment, according to Engineer Arthur Hauber.

The equipment required for feeding fluorine into the town water supply in an attempt to curb tooth decay in young children has been ordered in design by Alan A. Wood, Inc., of Philadelphia.

Order was placed on specifications furnished by Dr. Louis D. S. of the Biochemical Foundation and a member of the town's health committee.

Meanwhile, Dr. P. K. Musselman, who heads the committee, released new reports he has gathered on community fluorine experiments now underway in various sections of the country.

Report from the Wisconsin State Department of Health, which is directing experiments in the town of Sheboygan, is as follows: "Our 1948 survey showed that the caries attack rate at Sheboygan had been reduced 28 percent in the deciduous teeth and 19 percent in permanent teeth. Our 1949 survey for deciduous teeth shows a reduction of 39.6 percent. You will also find that where we had approximately 20 percent of the kindergarten children caries attack free in 1945, we now have 37 percent of these children caries attack free."

An up-to-date report from Newburgh, N. Y., where a fluorine experiment has been underway since 1945, shows that the number of permanent teeth found to be decayed, missing or among Newburgh children has declined from 21 per 100 to 14.8. In the town of Kingston, where fluorine is not used but where statistics are kept for comparison purposes, the children still show 21.3 decayed missing or filled teeth per 100 permanent teeth, the usual rate for that community.

Dr. Cyrus Day will address New Century Club Here Monday

Dr. Cyrus L. Day will speak to the New Century Club at its meeting on November 14 on "Central Educational Theory and Practices" and last year to study the problems involved in offering professional students the opportunity to study non-professional subjects. Training for good citizenship and the development of the individual through the study of political science, history, and so-called "cultural" subjects were considered to be primary objectives in training of professional students in culture, engineering, and other specialized courses. During the year, the committee has visited many universities and colleges, upon whose practices this regard it has based its recommendations to the University of Delaware. Dr. Day will discuss these recommendations and the extent to which they are being adopted.

The ways and means committee will meet at a combined bake and rummage sale at the former Silco store, 46 East Street, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Friday, November 18. Members have been asked to contribute may be brought in to the store on November 16 while baked goods or cooked food may be brought in on the morning of the sale. Arrangements can be made by calling Mrs. Herman Handloff, 2270, or the following members of the committee: Mrs. Fred Kutz, Mrs. Batchelor, Mrs. Frank Jami, Mrs. Chester Ewing, Mrs. J. Harvey, Mrs. E. B. Milburn, or Mrs. Frazer. Proceeds of the sale will be used for the purchase of a new for the Century Club kitchen.

Memorial Dedication Sunday

Newark's permanent memorial to its 29 dead of World War II will be unveiled and dedicated at ceremonies in front of the Old Academy Building on East Main Street at 1:45 p. m. on Sunday.

Dr. Carl J. Rees, former state commander of the American Legion, will make the dedicatory address. The roll call of the names engraved on the 10-foot marker will be read by Renard George, representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The complete program calls for opening music by the Aetna Band, with the invocation to be asked by the Rev. Leo W. O'Neill at 2 o'clock to open the program. The national anthem, and remarks by Col. L. A. Zimmer, chairman for the dedication, will precede Dr. Rees' address. Mayor Ford H. McBerty then will unveil the monument.

Mr. George will read the names, and Rabbi Jacob Kraft will offer a prayer. The playing of "America" then will precede the firing of a volley and the sounding of "taps" with members of the Legion and VFW posts participating. The Rev. Arthur J. Jackson will offer the benediction.

The monument, of light Barre granite, has a 12-foot-long base which is two feet deep. The upright portion of the marker, 10 feet long, stands five feet above the ground. The stone is replacing a temporary wooden structure listing not only Newark's gold star heroes, but all men of the community who entered the armed forces during the war. The wooden marker is being removed to make room for the permanent monument.

Mayor Refuses To Sign Light-
Contract Approved By Council*5-Year Pact Calls For Big
New Sub-Station Here; Mayor
Wants Opinion On Its Legal Aspects At Meeting Nov. 15

Mayor Ford H. McBerty disclosed yesterday that he has refused to sign the new 5-year contract between the town and the Delaware Power and Light Company at least until the next Council meeting on Tuesday, when he will ask the Town Solicitor if the pact is legal under the charter.

The contract, calling for construction of a new 4000-kilowatt substation here to cost around $65,000, was unanimously approved by the Council at its November meeting on Monday night.

As the town's chief executive officer, the Mayor's signature is called for on all official contracts and other documents.

What counter moves, if any, Council will take are unknown at this time.

Regarding the dispute over the legality of the contract under the charter, Mr. Sinclair said he has strongly urged Council that any opinion he is called upon to give concerning the legality of the contract be supplemented by an opinion from some other attorney. Mr. Sinclair took this step because he is employed by the law firm of Southernland, Berl and Potter of Wilmington, which serves as the legal representative of the Delaware Power and Light Company. Mr. Sinclair thinks it is important that his opinion on this question be corroborated by the opinion of some other attorney who has no connection with Delaware Power and Light so that no claim of bias can be legitimately made.

The provision in the contract which the Mayor regards as questionable under the charter is the clause which makes available town property tax free for erection of the substation. The charter, he claims, forbids Council to exempt any individual from taxes. He also said the charter gives Council the power under Section 14 to provide for street lighting by ordinance. If this applies, the Mayor claims the contract should be given public readings and otherwise handled as an ordinance.

Largest Vote Period Of Contest Ends Sat.;
Contest Closes Dec. 3

Look at the calendar! Two big dates stand out prominently in the Post's now famous "Everybody Wins" prize subscription contest.

These dates—SATURDAY NIGHT, NOVEMBER 12 and SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3—are indelibly stamped in the minds and hearts of contenders for highest honors and attendant awards, headed by that new Buick Super Four-Door Sedan worth $2309.80 and followed by other costly prizes.

NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT marks the close of the most important "first period" of the contest—which terminates the MAXIMUM schedule of votes on subscriptions—and the individual results obtained before this time by the various contestants will go a long way in deciding who will finish victorious.

All Are Fighting
After next Saturday and for the following two weeks the "second period" schedule of votes will be in effect, which means a material reduction in the voting value of all subscriptions, large and small, while the third and last period will see the scale of votes cut practically in half.

Contestants, therefore, are seething with the bustle of preparation for one grand "round-up" of all their friends and acquaintances in quest of the winning votes before next Saturday night; and with one accord are fighting feverishly toward the finish line—where the truly magnificent prizes await—and each is entering the final stretch with firm resolve to win or know the reason why.

Then comes another important date—SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3RD—at which time the greatest of all local contests terminates and the proud victories won. This date will probably go down in history as the most memorable one of their lives.

Crucial Test Here
As the clock ticks away the golden hours between now and next Saturday night, however, the contestants who avail themselves fully to the best advantage will undoubtedly be among those who qualify in the finals for the six big prizes and bonus awards.

The crucial test is now at hand for contestants and next Saturday night will go a long way in telling the story. The matter of success lies entirely in your hands. We can only help by telling you how and when to act.

Now is the time, unquestionably, to secure an unsurmountable reserve vote for the final count; now is the time to make reasonably certain of the prize you most desire.

Friends of contestants, you have, of course, wished your favorite well. You have no doubt encouraged them in a small way—but have you extended yourself to the "full-limit" in helping him or her win the prize of their choice?

If not, then get in touch with him or her before this Saturday night and show them in a concrete way that you are with them and for them to the utmost limit.

Your help now might win a friend's gratitude that will pay you handsome dividends at some later date when least expected but perhaps very much needed.

Don't turn your back on a friend!

Grass Fire Only
Alarm Past Week*Aetnamen List Committee For Annual Banquet, Dec. 15

Burning grass got out of control at the home of Thomas Schultz on West Park Place, around noon last Sunday and the firemen had to be called. The fire was quickly extinguished, with only slight loss.

Mr. Schultz started the fire in order to burn off a vacant area.

Fire Recorder Charles E. Moore listed four calls in town the past month. The loss on the Rhodes fire has not yet been officially estimated, he said. The volunteers also answered five alarms in the district for fires causing $12,500 in property loss. The ambulance made 16 runs, covering 392 miles.

Mr. Moore also announced that the annual firemen's banquet will be held Dec. 15 in the firehouse. Harold Grant heads the committee, assisted by Clement Valiant, Mr. Moore, Bertram Jones, John Tweed, George Neighbors, William Doyle, and Ernest Reed.

Any others who wish to help are urged to notify a member of the committee.

HELP YOUR FAVORITE WIN!
DON'T TURN YOUR BACK ON A FRIEND!*Newark Sisters Form Own
Movie Studio In California

Former Newarkers, Dorothea, Virginia Chalmers, have formed a woman studio in California and producing half-hour films for presentation over television.

Young and talented, they are off to start in a new entertainment turning out shorts in color and especially adapted to the needs of the medium.

The sisters, who are graduates of Newark High School and the University of Delaware, are the daughters of late John W. and Mrs. Edna Chalmers, formerly of Blue Gardens, near here.

The girls, who with their mother, now make their home in Carmel, Calif., are well fitted for their new venture. Both have a background of writing, radio and movie work. Their studio is the magnificent Monterey Peninsula, and their actors are Peninsula residents.

According to an article in the Carmel "Spectator," the sisters already have two films nearly finished. One is "Ladislav," a story dealing with commercial fishing in Monterey, featuring Ladislav Narvaez and Lou Allaire, and the other is "Papa Says No," with (Continued on Page 2)

Democracy That Works

As a feature of American Education Week, the Dramatics Class of Newark presented an assembly program on November 9.

This program, entitled "Democracy That Works," was written by the Dramatics Class.

Judy Kase, president of the Thespian Society of Newark, was the narrator. The program was a type of interview of pupils who have recently come to Newark from other schools or foreign countries.

The interviewees included Patsy Miller, ninth grade student from Christiana; Mary Nelson, who has attended fourteen schools; Jairo dos Santos, of Rio de Janeiro, and George Kravchuk, a Ukrainian displaced person. The interview consisted of questions about former schools, and, how and what these students like about Newark. Heading the list as a favorite characteristic of Newark School was the friendliness to new students, friendliness and cooperation between students and faculty and the extensive activity program, especially the Driver's Course.

WDEL engineers made a record of the program, which will be broadcast Saturday, November 12, at 5:15 o'clock over WDEL.

Music under direction of Miss Esther Fenton. Script prepared by Miss Anne Stauter.

Allied Youth Club

The Allied Youth Club, which was formed last year, is an organization that has been little heard of by the students of Newark High School. The officers of the club are: president, Dallas Rash; vice-president, Wallace David; secretary, Thomas Gray; treasurer, Gerald Leahy. The main purpose of this club is to prevent the indulgence of alcoholic beverages by holding social functions such as dances, parties, and gatherings, whereby young people may not be influenced by the presence of liquor. This Friday night a hay ride will be held by the members of the club. They will meet at the high school, and from there, they will go out to Chestnut Hill. The sponsor of the club is Mr. William Morrison.

Frank G. Armitage Performs at NHS
Frank Guy Armitage, famous actor and impersonator of Charles Dickens' characters, gave a performance Friday morning, November 4, at Newark High School, where he was interviewed by journalism students.

He was born at Yorkshire, England, to Canadian parents. His parents died when he was eight years of age. His uncle, who already had fifteen boys of his own, reared young Frank. Mr. Armitage began his career of impersonations as a youngster. A certain man came to his house every Christmas and impersonated Dickens' characters, which gave Mr. Armitage his idea.

Dr. Armitage came to the United States in 1913 and worked his way through Springfield College in Massachusetts where he began his acting career. He later attended Clark, Harvard, and Yale Universities. He received his doctor's degree from Harvard.

In between the years of education, he joined the Canadian Army and became a captain. He served five years in the army and during the First World War, was awarded a medal by King George of England, similar to our Congressional Medal of Honor.

He is not only an actor but also has written musical biographies. When going to college he was a swimmer, winning letters in this field and also was hie captain of the public speaking team.

Dr. Armitage's performance was featured by his portrayals of Uriah Heap from the Book David Copperfield, Sidney Carton from The Tale of Two Cities, Grandfather, Grandmother, and Barney from Bleak House, and Scrooge from Charles Dickens' famous Christmas Carol.

Senior Play

A meeting of the senior class to discuss senior play tickets was held Wednesday morning, November 2, after the assembly.

Miss Stauter, the business manager of the senior play, presided at the meeting and explained the sales of the tickets. She said that each senior would be responsible for ten tickets which he should sell or get someone else to sell for him. If anyone of the seniors should lose any of his tickets he is expected to pay for them.

The latest date at which money and all unsold tickets are to be turned in is Thursday morning, November 17, which is the date of the first night performance.

Intermediate Football

There were so many requests for an intermediate football program that a schedule was made out for each room. This schedule was made so that the younger boys of the school would get an opportunity to show how well they could work together on a team. The games last forty minutes each with the fourth grades playing one another. The same time is allotted for the fifth and sixth grades as well.

Champions of these respective grades will play off for the Intermediate Championship for the school. All games are played with touch football rules. Girls as well as boys may play.

10C Presents Talent Show

Mr. William Morrison's homeroom presented a talent show of the regular assembly Wednesday, November 2, 1949, in the school auditorium.

The first performance was a piano solo featuring Mary Anne Miller. Janice Olson, Edith Priestly, Nancy Lewis, and Shirley Ross sang the popular song "Lucky Old Sun." Charlotte Martin then sang the familiar song "Shortin' Bread." The program was concluded by the playing of three songs by the Farnhurst Trio, consisting of Glenn Skinner playing the saxophone, Mario LePera playing the trumpet, and Ernest Lloyd at the drums.

Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society

Students, faculty, and cafeteria workers of the Newark High School have been X-rayed recently. The total number was 347. This X-raying program has been carried on since 1943. The Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society inaugurated this program, made possible by Christmas Seal Funds. The 43rd annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Sale of the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society will open on November 21st. Other activities which are made possible in Delaware by the little Christmas Seal include nursing services for indigent patients; rehabilitation, chest diagnostic clinic service, health education, maintenance of three fluoroscopes in three county health centers, maintenance of Sunnybrook Cottage, and medical research.

This year's Christmas Seal is symbolized by the holly sprig.

Noel Sullivan, Lee Crowe, Arnold Ford and Leon Panetta, a 10-year-old piano prodigy. All are Carmel Valley residents. Mr. Sullivan's home is being used for interior shots.

The Chalmers sisters went to California several years ago. They liked the country and decided to stay.

Both took jobs. Dorothea worked for a time writing continuity at Universal Studios and Vernona was an assistant producer. Both have had literary works published. Dorothea a historical novel on Samoa and Vernona a collection of poems. Later following an auto accident as a result of which Dorothea was hospitalized a year, the sisters moved to Carmel.

In their new venture, Dorothea is writer-producer-cameraman, and Vernona is technician, electrician and script girl. Both direct scenes. Their methods are painstaking, accurate, artistic, and their equipment is the finest.

Isn't America A Wonderful Country!

All over the world today there are people teaching bitterness and hate.

Here in America we have learned to live together in friendship.

For us here at A&P, it has been a wonderful and thrilling experience to get from those with whom we compete day after day such astounding evidence of friendship and respect.

The things that have happened since the anti-trust lawyers from Washington brought suit to destroy A&P have amazed us.

While we sincerely believed that we had earned the friendship of millions of consumers for whom we have provided better food at lower prices, and the friendship of millions of farm families for whom we have provided a better market for their produce, we were not prepared for the avalanche of offers of support.

But most of all, we have to confess that we had underestimated the fine sportsmanship of many of our competitors all over the country.

Can anyone believe that these competitors would rush to our defense if, as the anti-trust lawyers allege, we had been trying to put them out of business?

We and they have fought hard for business.

There are nearly 350,000 individual grocers competing with us. They have a larger share of the nation's grocery business today than they had ten years ago or twenty years ago.

Many of them do as good a job as we do, and they make it plenty tough for us.

Now, day after day, these same competitors are letting us know that they are in our corner.

All we can say is, thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Isn't America A Wonderful Country!

Who hollered for Uncle?

Who wants him to break up A&P?

COULD IT BE INDEPENDENT GROCERS?

Doesn't seem likely. In ten years America's independent storekeepers almost tripled their business. In 1938 they did just under $1½ billion dollars worth of food business. Last year the independent storekeepers handled over 15 billion dollars worth of food.

WHOLESALE GROCERS? Hardly. For many of them are directly or indirectly engaged in or supporting some form of voluntary or cooperative chain to match chain economies.

THE EMPLOYEES? That would be funny—except that some folks probably believe it. Actually, less than 25 years ago many food chain stores could have paid all expenses—rent, heat, light, wages, etc.—out of the money a store manager alone gets paid now. And the store manager of 25 years ago would have been happy to get what a clerk gets today.

PRODUCERS? Well, take farmers. Certainly part of their prosperity must be attributed to the markets that big chains create for them. The big chains buy the entire pack of many a canner. Those canneries pack the farmers' crops. What would the farmer do with his highly perishable crop if the food chains were eliminated as big volume buyers?

COMPETING CHAINS, MAYBE? No. Practically every chain in the grocery business had more sales last year than the year before. One chain that we know a lot about increased its food business 21% last year and is up 19% in the first eight months of this year.

THEN IT CERTAINLY MUST BE THE PEOPLE! Like fun. If the people hated food chain stores, would they have spent $1½ billion dollars in them last year? Folks like the low prices and high standards of chains—and the better the chains are run, the better folks like them.

Does This Sound as Though We Need Help? Thorofare Super Markets came into existence 10 years ago. The food chains Thorofare replaced were doing about three million dollars worth of business a year. Housewives liked our policies well enough to boost their purchases in our 90 stores to about 30 million dollars a year.

We call that a vote of confidence. And we're going to keep right on proving that as long as we stick to good brands and better-than-average selections at rock-bottom prices, we can compete with anybody in the business. And keep right on growing, too!

We don't believe any chain will be punished for being efficient, or for pleasing housewives so well that it is forced to grow.

We, too, believe that it is a storekeeper's duty to bring the public the best food at the lowest possible prices, and hope to see the chain store way of doing business vindicated.

And as long as the producers, the employees, the customers, the wholesale grocers, the independents and the competing chains thrive so well, we will continue to think it's a good way to do business.

We Don't Want the A&P Put Out of Business

The owner of the undersigned store is an independent merchant in this community. We run our own store, set our own prices, maintain our own policy.

We consider the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. as a chain store. Because they are a chain they give us stiff competition.

The competition offered by the A&P keeps us on our toes.

The Department of Justice has brought a suit against the A&P claiming that the A&P is a monopoly.

Whether it is or not we are in no position to judge.

What we do know is that the A&P doesn't do all of the grocery business in this area. We are here and ready to serve local customers.

WE DON'T WANT TO SEE THE A&P PUT OUT OF BUSINESS.

The A&P is keeping food prices down. We in turn keep our prices down; and that helps us to sell more goods.

KUGLER'S

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

I Welcome A&P Competition BECAUSE

..... like myself, many hundreds of independent grocers got their start with the TEA COMPANY.

..... The great A&P is not detrimental to the progress of the grocery business. On the contrary, A&P has always been beneficial to any open-minded businessman who believes in FREE ENTERPRISE. Founded on the principle of FAIR PLAY and FAIR PRICES, A&P developed from a humble start to its present commanding position in the field of retail merchandising.

..... My experience as a former employee of the TEA COMPANY has served me well. I attribute my success to the ideas and methods tried, tested and proven by the A&P stores—at a great cost.

..... A&P upholds the rights and privileges of a good worker. I know this from personal experience. A&P is ever on the lookout to promote sincere and ambitious employees to trustworthy and important positions and has never crossed the efforts of any employee to enter into business for himself. A&P helped me to start in business... IS THAT AN ACT OF A COMPANY MONOPOLIZING THE GROCERY BUSINESS? NO!

A&P taught me to serve the public BETTER—MORE ECONOMICAL and MORE EFFICIENT, thanks to the start given me by B. F. VINSON.

..... During the depression of the thirties, A&P paid higher wages than any other chain. A&P has striven to keep up the standard of living in this country. I shudder to think what would happen to its 110,000 employees if it was forced out of business.

..... I am not afraid of A&P competition—I welcome it. It's democratic—it's the American Way.

We Agree With A&P

Yes, we want our A&P competitors to stay in business on their present scale because we know what it would mean to the American people without them.

We are only one store and are striving to serve our community with good food at low prices, but the A&P is a nationwide organization serving the American people everywhere with good food at low prices.

Destroying the A&P would mean eliminating competition nationally in the food field which every poor man knows consumes the major portion of his salary.

We congratulate the A&P for a job well done. Keep up the fight.

We welcome any fair competition which helps us bring lower food prices to the consumer.

A COMPETITOR'S OPINION of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

The self-styled "trust busters" of the government recently made headlines as a result of a move to destroy the A&P.

Frankly, we don't like it.

A&P is charged with having control of SOME of the production and processing ends of the food business. As a result, they can offer foods at low prices.

So What...

And if monopoly of the food business is charged, that sure hands us a laff. We... at P.P.M. are growing like wildfire. Seems like we're able to sell better foods at better prices.

Your increasing patronage of our stores is positive proof that A&P has no monopoly on the food business.

Let's get down to good old American horse sense. A&P is doing a good job of serving the people of this country. They're no bogey men.

We are for them 100% in this controversy.

The Anti-Trust Suit Against The Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

This suit is another threat against our great American system of free enterprise. The A&P Co. has always been clean, above board competition and any successful independent merchant, if he is honest, will admit that they have taught him a great many things regarding merchandising, reducing overhead, better buying, etc., thus lowering food costs for the great American Public.

Bus Company Strike Is Set For Monday

Coach Operators and Maintenance Workers To Stop Work If Last-Minute Talks Fail

When a last minute settlement is reached, the Delaware Coach Company's bus operators and maintenance employees will go on strike Monday.

The announcement was made by P. J. Kelly, vice-president, and general manager of the company. He issued a statement this week, detailing the company's position and outlining the reasons that led to the threatened walk-out.

The only statement from the union came from Joseph A. Walsh, president, who said the workers are willing to arbitrate the dispute under clauses in the current contract covering arbitration, but the company refuses to this.

The union involved is Division 842, Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, A. F. L.

The company claims the clauses in question do not apply in the present dispute, since they cover only questions of arbitrating differences in the contract and not in negotiating for a new one.

The company's statement follows: "Delaware Coach Company and those of its operating and maintenance employees who belong to the Amalgamated Association, Division 842, have been negotiating on wages and certain changes in working conditions for more than a month. To date, no agreement has been reached on several points.

On November 2nd, the company was notified by the Union Committee that a strike would become effective on the morning of November 14th unless a satisfactory settlement was reached before that time. Thereupon the Company and the Union, for a second time, requested the services of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Due to the uncertainty of the situation and so that the public may be prepared in the event of a strike, the Company is making public the facts which have led up to the threatened strike.

On September 23, 1949, the Union served the Delaware Coach Company notice of twenty-two demands relating to increased wages and changes in working conditions. Since that time, company officials have had frequent meetings with the Union Committee in an endeavor to adjust these demands.

Some way to meet the views of the employees, as far as reasonably possible. All of the demands were agreed to except seven. These demands are:

1. 35¢ per hour increase in wage for coach and bus operators, and a work schedule to remain the same.

2. 20% wage increase for Shop, Garage and Roadway employees with a change in work schedule.

3. Employees in service over fifteen years to be given three weeks' vacation with pay.

4. Time and one-half for six holidays worked.

5. 10% differential increase in pay for Garage men who work at night or equalize their scheduled work hours with day men.

6. Company to pay all premiums on Group Life Insurance.

7. Company to pay all Group Hospitalization premiums.

All of these demands amount to an approximate cost to the company of $1,000,000 per year. If the Company agreed to these demands, it would be able to meet out of revenue its pay-rolls and other obligations. The Union has been informed of this fact.

Company officials met on October 15th with officials of the Union and Samuel M. Spencer of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in an endeavor to reach an agreement. Unfortunately, no agreement was reached. Other meetings with the Union have been held since that time. The Company offered the Union a wage and liberal increase under the existing economic conditions of today.

The offer amounts to about $30,000 per year in wages and $7,200 in Hospitalization benefits and is about one-half the estimated increased revenue for the year ending September 30, 1950, over the previous year's allowances for income taxes. This offer was refused by the Union.

In view of the Union's rejection of Company offer, the Company offers to arbitrate all of the matters in dispute and submitted to the Union a Comprehensive Arbitration Agreement for this purpose. The Union rejected Company's offer to arbitrate and did not notice that the employees would be in breach of the existing contract by striking Monday, November 14th.

It is understood that the Union has the position that the Company breached the existing contract by refusing to arbitrate under Section 2 and 3 of existing contract.

It is true that Sections 2 and 3 of existing contract provide for arbitration of certain matters. Those matters by definition in the contract itself, however, are limited to "differences arising out of the application of this contract." The contract runs until September 1, 1950. A request by the Union for entirely new terms and conditions to govern the relationship between the company is not a difference arising out of the application of this agreement.

The Company is advised by its attorneys that the existing contract is clearly that arbitration provisions of the existing contract are required only when a difference in the application of existing provision of the contract has occurred.

"The Company fully realizes the tremendous hardships and inconvenience a strike will cause the public. It regrets the action of the Union in not accepting arbitration as a means of reaching an amicable settlement. The Company stands ready to meet with the Union at any time."

Delaware 4-H Clubs Review Year's Work

Youths Take Stock Of Their Progress During 4-H Achievement Week

Ever since last spring, Delaware boys and girls enrolled in 4-H activities have been busy with projects they have chosen in farming and home economics. During the fall they check their results by records they have kept throughout the year.

National 4-H Achievement Week is designated for the specific purpose of measuring the accomplishments of the 4-Hers during the past project year. It is observed annually by all 4-H members in the nation. In Delaware more than 1,500 club members in 74 local clubs will be reviewing their year's progress and making plans for the coming year.

Two activities of a statewide nature which have been particularly noteworthy during 1949 are the safety program of the 4-H Clubs and the State 4-H Camp. Nearly every club in the state took an active part in the safety program conducted by Miss Louise Whitcomb, extension home management specialist, and the Delaware Safety Council. Each month, club members were asked to check at least two specific danger spots on their farm or in the home, and make certain they were not possible safety hazards. Many porch steps and ladders were repaired, household utensils were put in safer places out of the reach of small children. By this concentration on safety "jobs of the month," entire families were made safety conscious.

This past summer, for the first time, Delaware 4-H boys and girls had an opportunity to attend a State 4-H Camp, the last week in August. At Camp Barnes, 85 members enjoyed a round of classes, recreation, fun and fellowship.

During November county and state programs will be made for the coming year, and club members will select the individual projects they wish to carry on, projects ranging from canning, sewing and home improvement to safety, leadership, field crops and tractor maintenance.

Family Living Costs Outlined In Circular

Miss Louise Whitcomb, extension home management specialist for the University of Delaware, announces that a new circular, "Family Spending in 1949" is available.

This circular, a summary of household accounts from 26 rural Delaware families, shows the increase in living comfort made possible by better incomes over a ten-year period. It also analyzes the way that 1948 income was used and the planning that was behind the wise use of family money.

While these account figures are too few to consider typical of all Delaware family spending, Miss Whitcomb feels the "spending habits of these families can be useful to others who keep records, as a comparison of their own living costs, and as a basis for budgeting expenses.

Copies of the circular, Extension Mimeo Circular No. 64 are available, free of cost, from the Office of Information, Agricultural Extension Service, Newark, Del.

Expansion Of Phone Company Is Outlined

The Diamond State Telephone Company has completed five new buildings and enlarged nine others since the end of the war to expand and improve telephone service, J. Frank Cox, vice-president and general manager of the company, reports.

One new central office has been installed and placed in service, four have been replaced with larger offices and all of the older offices have been enlarged, he added. More than 60,000 miles of wire have been constructed, and 3,000 new poles have been added.

"The number of local calls each day has increased from more than 325,000 to 470,000 and the number of toll calls has increased from 19,600 to 25,900 per day," he told the employees.

To meet these demands for service, the company has had to spend more than $10,600,000 for new telephone plant and equipment, he added. As a result of the tremendous expansion of the system, today the company is able to furnish service to nearly nine out of ten applicants within the month in which they apply.

"Telephone customers are continuing to receive an improved quality of local service," he said. "Substantial improvements have been made in the quality of toll service and a considerable reduction has been made in the time required to complete a toll call."

The midjet mashers, who tied the Bulldogs once previously, are set for the game of the season, according to Coach Don Butterworth. Their growing following of fans, who enjoy good football even in miniature, are expected to turn out in force.

last week, the Clippers dropped their first contest of the year, losing to the Rockford Skunks, of Wilmington, 12-0. The skunks turned out to be a big, experienced outfit. The first score came on a pass play that covered fifty yards.

Outstanding on the defense for the Clippers were Roy Long, Jerry Leahy and Norris Smith. Also impressive was the offensive work of Merritt Buchanan and Ralph Foster.

Jackets To Seek First Home Win In Game With A.I. On Saturday

Upset By Mt. Pleasant Is Third Loss This Year On Local Field

Newark High's Yellowjacket grid ders, who received an unexpected jolt from Mount Pleasant here last Saturday, will be trying once more for their first victory before the home fans this season, when they play host to A. I. duPont here this Saturday. The kick-off will be at 2:15 p. m.

The Jackets have yet to win on the home field this year, and their record for the season now stands somewhat lopsidedly at two wins against four losses.

Two fumbles were costly factors in Newark's defeat last Saturday. The first paved the way for Mount Pleasant's initial score. Until then the teams had fought on even terms. The Green Night's left guard, Lindberg, pounced on the loose ball, and the visitors moved into high. They sliced off two first downs in rapid succession, then posed a Statue of Liberty, winding up on the three, where Morris toiled over the line. The extra point kick went wide.

Newark opened up strong in the second half, moving steadily to the Knights' 48-yard line, where Bernard Blaney suddenly broke away on a fast double reverse coming to a halt on the Knights' 15-yard line. A pass from Bill Records to Blaney carried to the eight, and Bill Correll was elected to take it over. He also converted to put Newark in the lead.

The Knights came back quickly in the same quarter with what proved to be the winning drive. A 15-yard pass set things going, putting the invaders on Newark's 15. Another quick heave produced four more yards. The Knights then switched on their running attack but were bogged down. The scoring play came via the airplanes on a heave from Reeder to Davidson. The extra point was again wide.

Newark's second and most fatal fumble abruptly halted what might have proved a game-winning Jacket push. The fumble, which came in the final quarter, climaxed a 37-yard Newark drive and ended the Jackets' scoring opportunities.

Jimmy Thomas, who has been leading the Eastern College football teams in pass receiving, was considered too light for the game in high school. Jim's first gridiron experience was at Perkiomen Prep School.

In his first two games this season, Ross Dempsey, fullback on the University of Delaware freshman eleven, kicked fourteen times for an average of 48.8 yards per try. The former West Nottingham Academy star has also fashioned himself a 5.7 yard average through the middle of enemy lines.

Bill Shockley, sophomore passing artist on the University of Delaware football team, has thrown two passes this season. Both of them went for touchdowns, the second providing Bill Murray's Hens with a 7-0 victory over Lafayette.

Ed Horney, captain and goalie of the University of Delaware soccer team, led his teammates to a 1-0 victory over the Western Maryland booters on Oct. 19 and returned home in time to greet a new-born seven pound son.

The Blue Hens of the University of Delaware are still showing a deficit in the won-lost column in their all-time football record. They've won 185, lost 208, and tied 35, including five games this season. If they maintain their present pace, they'll be in the black in 1952.

Washington And Lee Game Saturday Last Big Hurdle For Hens

Delaware To Wind Up 5-Week Stretch of Traveling In Clash At Lexington, Va.

The high-flying University of Delaware Blue Hens will wind up a 5-week stretch of traveling this weekend when they travel to Lexington, Va., and the headquarters of the Generals of Washington and Lee. It won't be until next week-end that the Hens return home to wind up their season against the West Chester State Tigers eleven.

In George Barclay's General's Hens will be facing what appears to be their toughest foe of the season. Having already disposed of one Southern Conference eleven, Richmond, Va. Hens cracked a four game losing streak against opposition from that league and hope that they can continue their luck in the South this week-end.

Most of them realize that luck will have to be on their side if they're to top the vaunted Generals. They have been able to do it in two previous seasons at Wilmington Park, but a change of battlegrounds might do the trick. The Blue and White have been through a rugged schedule, and lessons they've learned from the likes of Virginia, Georgia Tech, and Wake Forest should be certainly enough to keep the Hens in check. To date they've won three, lost three, and tied one as compared to the 6-1 record compiled by Bill Murray's Blue Hens.

Saturday's romp at the expense of the Bradley University eleven left serious injuries among the Birds, and the 47 points scored by Hens backs represented the highest total to date this fall. Co-Captain Mariano Stalloni pounced on one of the finest plunging displays in his career, and carved out three touchdowns on the ground and one in the air for the Hens cause. Sophomore Bill Shockley threw his eighth, ninth and tenth passes of the season, completing his fifth, sixth, and seventh, and his third and fourth scoring heaves. Jack Gallagher backed up his Maxwell Club honors of last week with another fine game at end, and topped off his job by blocking a Bradley kick on the Braves' goal line to set up the final Delaware score. Six more pass interceptions ran the Delaware total in this column to a torrid twenty for the season.

HOW TO BE A "GOOD EGG"

On Party-Line Telephones

WHEN YOU PLAY FAIR with your party-line neighbors...it pays dividends! They'll return your courtesies, and everybody on the line will get better service.

Here are two suggestions

On finding the line in use, hang up gently and give the other person a few minutes to finish his call. And when, while talking, you realize that your neighbor is waiting to make a call, hang up in a few minutes and free the line.

Easy, isn't it? Yet these little courtesies mark you as a "good egg" on the party line...one who deserves fair treatment in return.

THE DIAMOND STATE TELEPHONE COMPANY

But inside there's more head room and leg room and elbow room than ever. More visibility. An instrument panel that's new and different and better. Seat springs adjustable to your weight.

And wait till you take that wheel. With Tip-Toe Hydraulic Shift and gýrol Fluid Drive you can drive all day without shifting. Yet with all its advantages, it offers you unbeatable value. And we make it mighty easy to own, no matter what make or condition of car you're driving now. Come in and let's talk it over.

Thanks Extended To Mardi-Gras Officials

Statement By Chairman Stiegler
Lauds Individuals and Groups That Helped

F. A. Stiegler, general chairman of the Hallowe'en Mardi-Gras, issued a statement this week thanking the various organizations and individuals that helped make the annual event a success here once again.

The parade drew from 300 to 400 masqueraders competing for 80 cash awards. The winners were announced last week.

Mr. Stiegler's statement thanking the judges and donors follows:

"The very difficult job of judging the costumes and awarding the prizes was carried out by members of AAUW, New Century Club, J. C. S. Lions Club, and the Rotary Club. The judging was directed by H. H. Schaumann of the Rotary Club which supplied the majority of the judges and furnished additional ones of the last minute when some of those scheduled failed to appear. The persons who served as judges were: Dr. S. W. Smith, Jack Handloff, Robert Davis, Mrs. A. K. Steers, Mrs. A. D. Cobb, Sam Handloff, Hugh Gibb, Alfred Ploeger, Mrs. W. H. Ruth, J. H. Bryan, Arno Liessner, J. A. Carrell, Homer Seely, Alex Richards, Renard George, Omar Boulden, Mrs. A. L. Dollins, A. K. Steers, T. R. Silk, Don Savitch, Mrs. T. A. Foster.

"We should like to point out to the public that this Hallowe'en program is made possible only through the generosity of the local organizations and business establishments. The committee gratefully acknowledges the receipt of generous contributions from each of the following contributors: Newark Business and Professional Women's Club, Soroptimists, Newark Trust Company, Farmers Trust Co., National Vulcanized Fibre Co., Continental-Diamond Fibre Co., Newark Rotary Club, Newark P. T. A., Council of Newark, Aetna H. H. & L. Co., O'Daniel Post, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Newark Lions Club, Citizens of West Cleveland and New London Avenues, Chamber of Commerce, A. here and that the county is willing to turn over its new figures to the town when the survey is completed. This is expected to be around the first of the year. The town thus will get an up-to-date survey of property valuation here free of charge and in time for use in the next town assessment in June, 1950.

Another item of importance at the session was the awarding of a $7,152 contract for laying sewers on Courtney and Manuel Streets, North College Avenue and the Barnard property. Council also agreed to arrange to advertise for bids on the preliminary work on the southside sewer project, including the construction of a pumping station on the former Kadow property and the laying of primary lines. Revisions have been received from a Baltimore engineering firm.

Council also authorized Engineer Arthur Hauber to advertise for bids on a project to raise the height of the smaller standpipe water reservoir on West Main Street by six feet. A thorough cleaning and renovation of both standpipes there will be included in the work.

lutions passed by Council to ease Main Street traffic congestion, Hauber reported that no parking signs have been installed on the north side of Main Street from the town boundary to the postoffice. The signs, which forbid parking from 7:30 a. m. to 8:30 a. m. are intended to clear the way for two lanes of incoming traffic during the early morning rush.

A double lane has also been provided on the north side of Main Street from Purnell Hall to North College Avenue by prohibiting parking from the hall to the intersection. This is aimed at relieving tie-ups at the intersection of Main Street and South College Avenue.

Regarding the proposal to extend East Cleveland Avenue to Capitol Trail to provide another easterly entrance to town, Solicitor John P. Sinclair was authorized to consult with the State Highway Commission to determine its plans regarding the project currently underway for rerouting Capitol Trail.

Delivery is promised in three weeks on the new street lights approved for Academy Street, according to Mr. Hauber. Fourteen reflectors have been ordered to improve the lighting there. Council agreed to install the additional lights following a number of complaints.

Another pending project is the purchase of street signs for all unmarked streets in the town limits. Hauber reports he has received tentative quotations from six manufacturers. He is still awaiting quotations for signs to be placed at the town entrances and inscribed "You Are Now Entering Newark—25 Mile Speed Limit Strictly Enforced."

The plan for installing individual water meters in Read Village, approved by Council a month ago, is also still in the planning stage. Quotations are expected soon from a number of plumbing contractors. The town is losing a sizeable amount monthly due to lack of residential meters there.

The troublesome gutter condition at the Griffin property on West Main Street may be eased soon. The Atlantic Refining Company, which owns the corner property, has agreed to correct the condition as soon as possible.

Council also ordered the removal of a large tree before Rhodes Drug Store and another before a university fraternity at 139 West Main Street. Both are regarded as hazards.

Total revenue for October was $23,298.90, but the month's expense soared to $26,180.12, accounting for the slump in the balance.

Better Breakfast Week will be observed by the State Nutrition Committee from Nov. 14 to 19.
