SURPRISE AIR RAID STAGED FRIDAY

Sealed Orders Carried Out During Test Blackout

Civilian Defense personnel were called into service Friday evening and on Sunday afternoon when two surprise test raids were staged.

The test air raid on Friday evening was a total surprise and a large number of people were caught shopping and forced to remain in the stores where they had been making purchases until the danger was past.

The yellow signal was flashed to the control center at 8:44 Friday evening and the first Blue signal causing all lights to go out was flashed at 9:10 and was followed by the Red or danger signal coming through at 9:35 when all traffic had to stop and everyone was requested to seek shelter.

The second Blue signal was given at 9:44 and the All-Clear was given by the street lights being turned on at 10:03.

Harry L. Bonham, chairman of the Newark Council for Civilian Defense had received a sealed communication earlier in the week with instructions not to open the letter until after the Red signal had been given at the next air raid.

Upon opening the sealed orders on Friday night the instructions stated that the American Store on East Main Street had been bombed and set on fire. The instructions called for the fire apparatus to be dispatched to the scene and the next paragraph stated that two of the firemen were injured by falling ladders and an ambulance was needed to take them to the casualty station.

Another incident listed was a demonstration bomb had exploded at the intersection of South College Avenue and Kenway with instructions as to how to take care of the situation. Other incidents had been planned by the local organization and were taken care of successfully.

Lenoy Morgan, manager of the A. & P. Store stated that when the lights went out the customers in his store distributed themselves about the building and quietly awaited the signal for them to depart. Mr. Morgan stated that it was quite some experience and it was fine to know how the public could act under the circumstances.

At the American Store where the test incident was to take place it was found that the ambulance arrived to take the injured patients away before the firemen had arrived and it was stated by Millard Ritchie, manager of the store that one woman fainted but was quickly revived.

SHERIFF TO SELL LOTS ON JULY 6

Twenty-Four Choice Sites Up For Sale

Another sale of valuable real estate situated in New Castle and Brandywine Hundred will be conducted by Sheriff Elmer C. Taylor, at the Courthouse, at 9:30 A. M., Tuesday, July 6, when twenty-four parcels will be disposed of to the highest bidder.

These properties are exceptional values in that they are being sold, in many instances, for a fraction of their actual worth merely to clear up the title. Previous sales of this nature have attracted large crowds of eager purchasers intent on buying potentially valuable land at little more than the accrued taxes.

These lots offer attractive prospects to would be purchasers in that they can be held for future building purposes or speculation. Many of the twenty-four sales to be held include several pieces in one section.

The lots included are in various suburban sections such as Minquale, Holloway Terrace, Clagmont Addition, Montrose Terrace Addition, Wilmington Heights, Penn Rose, Carrcroft and others. Complete descriptions, terms, etc., may be obtained at the sheriff's office any day before July 6.

HALT TIRES ON A BOOKS

Recaps Are Not Affected

The Office of Price Administration has ruled as ineligible for tire replacements all holders of "A" gasoline ration books in the Eastern shortage area and restricted replacements elsewhere to automobiles in occupational service.

OPA, announcing passenger car and truck tire rationing quotas for July, set the allotment of used or recapped casings at 414,931 as compared with 690,000 for June.

Starting July 1, eligibility for tires for drivers with mileage ration of 240 miles or less a month will be determined as follows:

In the Eastern area, where the maximum non-occupational driving for "A" book holders is 90 miles a month, drivers with no other coupons cannot get replacements. But they may still have present tires recapped if necessary without obtaining rationing certificates.

The new order does not affect drivers with monthly ration in excess of 240 miles, as they get new tires when they need replacements. Inner tube eligibility rules remain as in the past for all drivers.

NEWARK CUBS HOLD ANNUAL CIRCUS

Court Of Awards Held Following Movies

Newark Cub Scouts, Pack No. 55, held their annual circus in the lot back of the Old Academy building on Friday evening. The affair drew quite a crowd of both young and older folks and the only thing lacking was the brass band and the merry-go-round.

Later in the evening the boys conducted a moving picture show which was in charge of Benson Rugg.

Following the closing of the circus a court of awards was held when Bobcat pins and cards were given to Donald Moore, Richard Dayton, and Glenn Skinner, Jr.; Wolf Badges were presented to Milton Draper and Henry Harris. Jimmy Smith was awarded his Bear badge.

NEWARK POST OFFICE NOW MADE FIRST CLASS

Business This Year Will Reach $55,000 Mark

Newark's Postoffice became the fourth first class post office in Delaware today it was announced by Post Master Cyrus E. Rittenhouse. The other first class post offices in Delaware are: Wilmington, Dover and Milford.

While the fact that the post office has been elevated from a second class to a first class does not necessarily mean anything to the public of Newark, it goes to show that the volume of business passing through the local office has materially increased.

The gross receipts for the year ending December 31, 1934, the first full year that postmaster Rittenhouse was in charge amounted to $26,895.83. The gross receipts for the year ending December 31, 1942 were $48,289.00 and on the basis of the first six months of this year it is estimated that receipts for 1943 will be well over $55,000.

Since Mr. Rittenhouse has been postmaster the town of Newark has taken in considerable territory and added many new residents to the town. The war has also brought many new people to Newark and it is estimated that the population has increased to close to 7,000 exclusive of the students at the college.

Three rural carriers serve an average distance of six miles in all directions from Newark, covering 125 miles of road each day. They carry mail to 958 families and 3,343 persons. Four city carriers serve the city proper and two suburbs close to the city line.

The number of persons and families served by the city carriers and box patrons change so fast that there is no direct figure on the number served and Please Turn to Page 8

Raincheck Picnic

This is the saga of raw hotdog eating—dancing without music—building a fire without dry wood—applying mustard without a knife—sliding over waterfalls without nonskids. It's the story of the picnic that wasn't held on Sunday.

Triumph's new recreation-rouser, Yetta Chaiken, put one and one together (WOWS and soldiers) and got up a corking picnic, scheduled for Sunday eve. Husband Frank Chaiken and cooperative Pvt. Ralph Simpson wielded a powerful girl scout hatchet to fell some dead wood and build up a fire. Estelle Easton made a clean sweep of glass and paper with the Chaiken broom. And then the rains came on Sunday evening—more than somewhat.

Dauntless WOWS and soldiers showed up Monday night, bathing-suits, grins and all, and had more fun than an onion.

The raw-hot-dog-eater was Leigh Harris. She downed them without a grimace.

The waterfall-sliders were numerous, much to the dismay of bathingsuit seats.

Among the other funfol faces were Marie DeNier, Hazel Williams, June Rhoades, Dottie Ludwig, Helen Wideman, Mary de Bord, Shirley Thomas and lots more—not to forget the 25 or more soldiers from the group stationed at the University.

Adding to the gaiety was the wooden dance-floor, minus record player but full of dancing couples agreeable to singing their own accompaniment—and the knotted rope from which the swimmers swung Tarzan-style.

In two weeks—if the weather gives the high sign the performance will be repeated.

Sow 'n Reap

Paul Dolan figures that a guy who starts something should finish it. The something is the square of victory garden he let me share-crop-on. He says it needs weeding—and the radishes are ready to be eaten. But I figure anyone would give up after walking two miles to help and getting enough poison ivy in one day to last two weeks.

Hi, Neighbor!

A new couple moves in town this week—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blitz (Al audits at Elkton). I figure they'll find Newark has well-tufted welcome mats.

Staff Sgt. Martin Says... The Stars and Stripes correspondent friend of mine in North Africa writes a story of 691 British and American soldiers "crowded together on an Italian prison ship several miles outside of Tunis, and how they were strafed day and night by their own planes."

Ralph says "The planes came over 15 times in those two days. First attack at Cape Bon was a strafing and small bombing job by two Spits. The ship then went back to Tunis after being bombed twice again. At Tunis a dozen Kitty Hawks came over on a sea sweep and planted one squarely on the ship. The boat's seams opened and let the water in. Acting quickly, the Italian captain ran the ship aground near La-Goulette, about three miles from Carthage."

"That done, the entire crew went ashore in barges, leaving behind one Italian soldier to guard the whole boatload of prisoners. But this particular Eyette, who wasn't so dumb, immediately threw his ammunition overboard as soon as he saw the last barge leave. The British and American soldiers took over from there."

"Next morning a barge came within a half mile of the ship and a MK-IV tank on the barge trained its guns at the ship, looked it over, and went away. An hour later one of the officers went ashore in a rowboat to size up the situation and try to get a message through to somebody to stop bombing the ship."

"At last, by noon, the bombings stopped. The message had gone thru." Said Maj. William Ford who told the story: "Those men in the hold, crowded as they were, not knowing when the bombs would start coming again—those men really acted like soldiers."

So ended a two-day vigil in this war of ours. Kinda hair-whitening experience, wasn't it?

Plan To Secure Farm Labor

Experienced Men To Be Listed

evening to consider means of providing labor for the farmers of the community in harvesting their crops. A committee composed of E. E. Fraser, Daniel Thompson, Lewis K. Bowen, and John F. Richards was appointed to make a list of the men in the community who were reared on farms or have had experience in farm work.

An effort will later be made if the conditions demand some action to have these men released for a short period during harvest.

Our nation needs more food in 1943 than ever before. Yet we have far less help than ever before to harvest it and pack it. But, of course, that is why this appeal is being made to YOU... to every able bodied man, woman, and child to be prepared to make this picking and packing of precious foods a patriotic community job. To a Corporal in the 14th Ferrying Group, in Africa, Sureshot wants to say "Happy Birthday" and Good Luck. The two Junior Legion baseball teams battled a 3 to 3 tie game last week. Both of these teams are good and from the score one is no better than the other. Dick Robinson accounted for two of the three runs made by his team.

The two test air raids that we had were a grand success it has been stated. Well, the one that we had on Sunday afternoon might be a success but a hot time was had by all who had to stand in the sun.

Then there was the test air raid on Friday evening. The American Store on East Main Street was the target for the raid. A bomb was supposed to have struck the store and set it on fire.

At the start of the raid the pedestrians were herded into the building to seek shelter and by the time they had gotten inside it was a case of getting them outside. Also it was stated that customers were lined up from the cash register to the meat counter waiting to pay their bills so that they could go home and they would not let them go without paying their bill. Now, if that had been a real raid I bet that the folks at the cash registers would have ducked with all the rest.

This ration stamp business is some mess. It takes you twice as long to pay your bill. Most people have enough money to pay their bills with but not enough stamps in the books.

Well to get back to the air raid at the American Store. (We should charge for this free advertising). Sealed instructions received by the head of the local Civilian Defense Council was opened after the Red signal came on and it said that the above named store was on fire and to send the fire engine also the next paragraph stated that two firemen were injured and to send an ambulance.

Everything worked out fine. The ambulance arrived at the store to take away the injured firemen before the fire engine and the firemen had arrived. Well, we have a lot of fun.

Some more of Newark's young men left yesterday for service with the armed forces. We will all miss that motorcycle cowboy, Norval Robinson. Now Robbie was quite an addition to the local police force and everyone liked our Robbie, that is all the law abiding citizens who were not on the list of ones that are taken before the magistrate to pay their respects and then some.

With Robbie it is just a case of changing uniforms, he said and that family has really contributed to the cause. All three boys are in the service now. Good luck to you Robbie, just read the Newark Post and you will have all the news that is fit to print.

No, Robbie was not the only boy to go yesterday and if the rest of you boys will just drop SHURESHOT a line? I will see that the paper is sent along. Good Luck to all of you.

Of all the strikes that I have ever heard about this one is the limit. I read in one of the countries leading papers the other day that CASKET Makers had gone on a strike. Now, ain't that something. After a while a fellow will not even be able to die in peace. On top of that the other day I learned that the Grave Diggers in Baltimore want that profession to be designated as an essential industry. What next?

Could it be that John L. Lewis has made some arrangement with the Devil whereby he wants to unionize corpses. Wonder who he would collect the dues from.

It is funny that they shot such men as Lincoln and McKinley and they let that fellow Lewis and his tribe live. Wait until those soldier boys come home.

It has been stated by several members of the fire company that a woman called up the other night checking on her husband who told her that he had to come to the fire house on two straight nights.

Second Test Air Raid Held Sunday

Sunday's test air raid came as another complete surprise and civilian defense personnel were called out in what was believed to have been the hottest day of the summer. The Yellow signal was flashed to the control center at 2:10 and the Blue signal followed at 2:32. At 2:51 the Red signal was given and remained on until the second Blue signal came through at 3:07. The All-Clear was given at 3:13 o'clock.

Several incidents were staged on Sunday and were carried off without any trouble.

Persons sitting on their porches and on the lawns were asked to seek shelter indoors and in most cases everyone took it good naturedly despite the extreme heat.

Hockessin Guernsey Sets New State Record

John B. Vaughn, Hockessin, has just made a state champion record on his registered Guernsey cow Eden O. Redwing. Her production of 9810.7 pounds of milk and 519.3 pounds of butter fat is the highest record in the state made in class DDD which means at three and one-half years old this cow was milked twice daily for ten months.

The sire of this cow, Royal of Eden has four daughters in the Performance Register of The American Guernsey Cattle Club.

GARDEN STATE PARK RACING SEASON OPENS JULY 7; 50-DAY MEETING PLANNED

Camden Track Expects Big Stake Races; First Saturday Racing Program, July 10 Brings Up First Stakes Test; Six-Furlong Benjamin Franklin Handicap

Horse racing fans will welcome the opening of the Garden State Park's racing season which opens its 50-day meeting at Camden on Wednesday, July 7.

Entries for the 12 stake features closed on June 15 and the early response indicates that the list shows a notable increase in both quality and quantity.

"Although our stakes filled well and provided splendid competition in our first meeting last year, we hold hopes that every ranking thoroughbred in every division will be named for its features this summer," said Walter H. Donovan, general manager, who is preparing for the opening of the 50-day meeting.

Garden State Park's first Saturday racing program—July 10—brings up the first stakes test of the 50-day meeting for three-year-olds. It is the six-furlong Benjamin Franklin Handicap, with 39 sparkling eligibles and $5000 in added money to make it one of the more attractive numbers at the South Jersey session which is to start one week from Wednesday.

Fleet Cassis, running as smoothly as the liquor the name of which he bears, took the dash last season in 1:10 1-5. With the racing strip newly conditioned, and re-cushioned to the fancy of the most-exacting horseman, it will take a hard-hitting sprinter to better that time, the record for the three-quarters of a mile at Garden State.

Nevertheless, some of the swifter sprint specialists have been nominated. Among them are Gold Shower, Bossuet, Woodford Lad, Jack S. L., Eye for Eye, True North, Hasteville and Bill Sickle. Eleven fillies have been named, with Sparkling Maid (not unknown to Garden State horse players) and Terse, both trained by shrewd Hirsch Jacobs, appearing standouts.

Gold Shower, a son of Jean Valjean who races for Mrs. Vera S. Bragg, is considered one of the most likely starters in the Ben Franklin. A bullet from the barrier, Gold Shower sought vainly to run with Count Fleet in the early stages of the Kentucky Derby. Recent form at Aqueduct indicates the Shower is nearing his better form.

Belair Stud, a liberal nominator in all Garden State fixtures, will be represented by Bossuet, it appears. Fast, and a good winner this season, his showiest race was a second to Slide Rule at Belmont last month.

Woodford Lad, who took the '42 Hawthorne Juvenile and the Commonwealth Handicap this season, is expected to come out of the Chicago area. From the Deep South, the colors of Mrs. J. S. Letellier, of New Orleans, will be carried by Jack S. L., and the main threat for Texas on the list is Eye for Eye, bred on the vast King Ranch of the Klebergs.

Preston Burch, well-known conditioner who saddled Cassis last summer, is due to send forth True North, a double stakes winner in 1942 for the Howe Stable, Hasteville, whose four-and-a-half furlong record stands at Old Pimlico, and Bill Sickle, a five-time winner this year are other well-regarded possibilities.

Instead of sending bicycle riders who violate traffic laws to jail, Police Judge Glenn Stanton of Rock Springs, Wyo., confiscates the bicycles for 30 days.

RED MEN BUY BOND

Minnehaha Tribe No. 23, Improved Order of Red Men held their regular weekly meeting in their lodge rooms at Fraternal Hall with Past Sochem Daniel Krapf presiding.

The lodge voted to purchase another $100 War Bond.

Mark Malcom discussed the need for a suitable place for both children and adults to swim in the immediate vicinity of Newark as the present ban on pleasure driving was making it impossible for parents to take their children to beaches.

A committee consisting of Mark Malcom, James Scarborough and J. H. Rumer were appointed to make plans for providing a swimming hole along White Clay Creek.

Following the business session refreshments were served and a social hour followed.

COMMUNITY MEETING AT G. R. VILLAGE

Play For Children Planned

The second meeting of the tenants of George Read Village was held in the Community Building, Thursday, June 24, with David Thuresson acting as chairman, and Mrs. Lee Johnson as secretary-treasurer.

Among important issues discussed was the problem of civilian defense. Robert MacBlain heads the group of air raid wardens, with the following volunteering as Village wardens: William Bixler, Lee Johnson, Mrs. Gordon Hurley, Mrs. Woodworth Allen, and Mrs. Robert MacBlain.

Organized play for children is regarded by the tenants as one of its most worthy interests. Mrs. Woodworth Allen volunteered to supervise the play of smaller children, and Mr. Thuresson met Tuesday evening with the older children to arrange recreational activities for them. Various ladies throughout the Village will alternate in the supervision of afternoon play, during which there will be a joint contribution of toys by participants.

Future plans include a covered dish supper, and a third meeting at which refreshments will be served. A community "Sing" is planned for the future, and the tenants are endeavoring to secure a piano for permanent use at the Community House. Anyone who wishes to dispose of one may contact George Read Village.

SUMMER CANNING STRESSED

Crops Should Be Put Up

Victory gardeners are beginning to collect on their investment—many of them have quantities of snap beans and such greens as beet tops, chard, and kale ripe already. None of these products should be allowed to go to waste—even one or two cans put away every few days will be a big help next winter.

Always have all materials ready before starting to can. Then for the beans, pick while they are young and tender, wash well, snap ends, either leave beans whole or break or cut into short lengths, precook in boiling water for five minutes, and pack hot into jars.

Greens should be canned as soon as possible after gathering. Wash them thoroughly and precook in boiling water until wilted, which takes three to five minutes. Pack them hot into jars, but be careful not to have too firm a pack. After they are in the jars, cut through the greens with a sharp knife at right angles from top to bottom across the center of the packed jars so that the heat in processing will reach the center of the jars more easily.

For both beans and greens process two hours in the boiling water bath, counting time from the point when the water around the jars actually boils, or thirty-five minutes in the pressure cooker, counting time from the point when the pressure gauge is at 10 pounds. All other directions for both are exactly the same as for asparagus and peas.

$1,000 Damage Caused By Electrical Storms

Two recent severe electrical storms caused damage to town property and equipment amounting to more than $1,000 it was stated this week by Town Supervisor George E. Ramsey.

More than one hundred street lights were put out of commission and three transformers were burned out. Two of the transformers were located on Elkton Road and the other one was located on Winslow Road.

Emergency repair crews were rushed to the various locations to repair the damage under the direction of town electrician Joshua Wood and town supervisor George E. Ramsey.

Post Office

It can only be estimated. It is believed that close to 1,200 families are served or an estimated population of 7,000 not including the University of Delaware which has a normal population of 1,100 in both schools.

No record is made of volume of mail handled each day but the total weight is about three tons including parcels. The personnel of the local post office besides Mr. Rittenhouse includes: Corbit S. Crompton, assistant postmaster; clerks, William Morgan, Ralph Kee, Edwin Shakespeare, Charles S. Hopkins, and Woodrow Singles; substitute clerks—Ralph Gregg, Marian Kee, and Harold Walls.

City carriers are: Franklin S. Springer, Orville Little, Ott Widdoes, Edwin Victor Armstrong, and Marion Hopkins, substitute carriers. Rural carriers are: Raymond Vansant Buckingham, Lee L. Lewis, Raymond Lewis and Reese S. Jarmon, substitute carriers. The custodial force consists of Gifford Gregson and Donald R. Grady.

Four members of the post office staff are now serving in the armed forces of the United States. Ralph Kee and Charles S. Hopkins are serving in the Navy and Ott Widdoes and Donald Grady are serving their country in the Army.

It has been stated that the greatly increased population is putting a severe strain on the carrier force and with the addition of George Read Village and Colonial Village the local office may find it necessary to limit the delivery service to once daily in order to be able to serve the great number of new people. Additional carriers are just not available it was stated by Post Master Rittenhouse.
