

PTA Launches Plan To Improve Movies For Children Here

State Theatre To Cooperate In Showing Five Selected Films
Starting January 7

A move to improve the type of movies shown children here has been launched by the Newark Parent-Teacher Association.

In cooperation with Herman Hand-man, manager of the State Theatre, a committee has selected a series of five films to be shown on alternate Sundays at the State beginning Jan. 7.

In selecting the series, the P-T. A. has a list of suitable movies and the children of members an opportunity to vote for their favorites.
The list the children chose the following: "National Velvet," "My Number Talks to Horses," "Huckleberry Finn," "Two Thoroughbreds," "Sahelena," and "Sea Hawk."

Mr. Handman will attempt to secure a list of these pictures to show on the scheduled dates. The project was carried out by the P-T. A. movie subcommittee under Mrs. A. P. Colburn.

Feature of the P-T. A. November meeting last Wednesday was a discussion of "eye health" by Miss Elaine Clarke and Mrs. Charlotte Ramsay.

Who specialize in the study of effective illumination. They recommended the use of fluorescent light, pointing out that the intensity of illumination from such lamps is much more uniform than that from incandescent lamps. For close work, they said the best type is an incandescent lamp which contains a silica coating on the inside surface of the glass.

Various slide pictures were shown, depicting the lighting improvement in various school rooms by the installation of fluorescent lighting, which eliminates the uneven illumination always present when incandescent lights are used.

Hold-Up In Delivery Of Equipment Slows Fluorine Experiment

Plan For Curbing Tooth Decay
In Children Still Marks
Time

A portion of the necessary equipment for launching the fluorine experiment here has been received but not enough to begin operations, Town Engineer Arthur Hauber disclosed in his monthly report.

Lack of the filtering machinery, which was ordered a month ago from a Philadelphia firm, is the only thing holding up the plan to treat the town water supply with sodium fluoride as a curb on tooth decay in young children.

Mr. Hauber also disclosed that the plan for installing 14 new street lights in poorly illuminated portions of Academy Street is still awaiting the delivery of a shipment of up-sweep brackets. All the other equipment required is on hand.

The plan to install individual water meters in Read Village as a town economy measure is awaiting quotations

Bids Are Sought For Valley School Building

Sealed bids for purchase of the one-room Pleasant Valley School will be opened at a meeting of the Newark
Board of Education at the school office,
Dec. 16, at 7:45 p. m.

The building, no longer used as a school after its merger with this district the past summer, is a solid structure with stone walls, located on the East Foot Road.

Details on the manner in which bids must be submitted are contained in a notice elsewhere in this issue.

Santa Claus To Arrive On Saturday At B. & O. Station

After several delays and schedule changes, Santa Claus, the merry old man himself, will arrive in Newark this Saturday on the B. & O. at 3:08
p. m.

Mayor Ford H. McBerty will head a group of civic officials planning to greet him at the station.
A truck with a sleigh mounted on it will be waiting, and Santa will be paraded through the central portions of town. He promises gifts of candy to children along the route.

The parade will move up Main Street to North Chapel, turn south to Delaware Avenue, east to Academy Street, north to Main and west to the Newark Department Store where Santa will make his headquarters for the rest of the day.

The bewhiskered elf will remain in Newark until late Christmas Eve. He

Mr. A. Earl Wyatt, of 719 Wollaston Ave., earned the most votes on sales of subscriptions to the Newark Post during the contest and won himself a new Buick Super Four-Door Sedan. Lloyd E. Flora, contest manager, is shown here presenting Mr. Wyatt with a bill of sale for the Buick.

Hopkins Resigns Council Post; No Successor Appointed As Yet

Now Totals $23,085

The town's financial reserves improved slightly in November with $23,- the end of business as compared with $21,390.88 carried over from the previous month.

Town Secretary-Treasurer F. A.
Wheless reported a total income of $18,664.41 the past month, with expenses draining of $25,579.23.

$11,442.57 in electric light returns.

Community Sing To Follow Annual Xmas Program At U. of D.

Public Invited To Annual Yule
Observance In Mitchell
Hall, Dec. 15

A community sing will follow the annual Christmas program at the University of Delaware on Thursday, Dec. 15.

The program, under the direction of the university music department, will start at 8:15 p. m. in Mitchell Hall. The sing will be held later on the steps of the hall, where a public address system will be set up.

The public is cordially invited to both events.
The Christmas program will include music by the Acaepella Choir, the university chorus, the brass sextet, the clarinet quartet. There will also be organ music.

In announcing the program, Anthony J. Loudis, professor of music, said he hopes the community sing, an innovation this year, will become as traditional an event here as the annual Christmas program itself.

stores under a schedule listed below.

dren confined to their homes, if he is by calling Newark 3311.

Quits After Change In Residence Takes Him Away From His Voting District; Resignation Is Required

John S. Hopkins, veteran councilman from the eastern district, handed in his resignation at Monday night's meeting of the Town Council. His resignation was the fact that he had recently moved from the eastern district to another section of town and, under the provisions of the town charter, could no longer hold his Council post.

A successor will probably be named at the next meeting of Council on Dec.
20. There was no discussion Monday night on possible candidates for the post.

Mr. Hopkins, the senior member of Council, who was winding up his third term, stated that he definitely would not run again. He said he appreciated deeply the support of the voters in his district and had always done his best to see that the town enjoyed an economic and practical government.

His resignation statement read as follows: "In compliance with section 9 of the Town Charter, I will resign as Councilman of the Eastern District, effective Dec. 5, 1949.

"I assure you that I will be available to support you in your continued efforts for good economic and practical government of the town."

In further business Monday night, Council approved a $7,800 contract for installing 146 individual water meters in Read Village. The work was awarded to Dan Stoll, local plumber. Once in operation, the meters are expected to save the town a considerable sum in water rents each month.

A $7400 contract for reconditioning and enlarging a water storage tank on East Main Street was also authorized by Council. The award went to All Steel Fabricator Company, Philadelphia.

New cross-street signs will soon be set up at all unmarked intersections in Newark. Council approved purchase of 22 signs.

The Len Walbridge property on the southside of Linden Street was rezoned from RS to RM.

The question of delinquent electric light and water bills was thoroughly discussed by Council, and Town Solicitor John P. Sinclair was ordered to draw up an amendment to the existing light ordinance calling for a $3 charge for disconnecting and reconnecting light service. Council plans to step up its enforcement of the law, which empowers it to cut off light service on delinquent bills. The lawmakers also agreed to refund long standing deposits to light users. These will go to property owners and to business houses in operation ten years or more.

The plan to extend East Cleveland Avenue to Capitol Trail was discussed again, but Town Engineer Arthur Hauber reported he had not yet estimated the cost of the project. He has yet to make a reconnaissance survey and hopes to arrange for this in December. Mayor Ford McBerty said he had not yet been able to confer with the State Roads Commissions on the

Schools To Stage Annual Christmas Program Dec. 22

The Newark schools' traditional Christmas program will be held the night of Dec. 22. The theme will be
"Why the Chimes Ring."

The novel feature of the Christmas observance at the schools this year will be a plan for donating gifts to an outside welfare agency. Instead of exchanging gifts among pupils and teachers, all will be asked to donate cash or other articles toward a gift package.
The recipient organization has not been selected as yet.

The faculty committee in charge of the Christmas program includes: Ann Stauter, Margaret Bugmiller, Esther Fenton, Eugene Kelechava, Hilda Marshall, Neil Osburn, Elsie Rose, Jennie Smith and Ernest Wilder.

Firemen Still Seek Banquet Donations

Donations of turkeys or cash are still being sought for the Aetna Company's annual banquet on Dec. 15.

Most of the company's reserve funds are earmarked for the purchase of a new engine, and the festive board will be rather bare unless well-wishes come to the rescue.
All those women who assisted with the Aetna Fire Carnival last summer are invited to the banquet as the guests of the firemen.

An election of officers will mark the business session. Fire Chief Elmer Ellison has been renominated without opposition.

Four fires occurred in town in November, causing property damages amounting to $1500, according to Aetna Fire Recorder Charles E. Moore's monthly report.

There were no alarms the past week.

Scouts To Distribute Food Baskets To Needy Here On Christmas Eve

Newark's boy scouts are again planning to spread some genuine Christmas cheer by distributing baskets of food to needy local families on Christmas Eve.

Both troops 55 and 56 will take part in the annual program. The scouts aim to see that every unfortunate family here "is prepared" for a joyous Christmas.

Food for the baskets will be collected on Dec. 17. Each scout will canvass his own neighborhood. Only non-perishable foods will be sought.

The food donations will be assembled at the American Legion room in the Academy Building. Baskets will be made up there and delivered by the scouts to selected families the night before Christmas.

Anyone seeking further information on the project is advised to notify R. M. Thompson, 39 East Park Place, or J. H. Cronin, 103 Bent Lane.

39-Voice Methodist Choir Will Present 'Christmas Oratorio'

Saint-Saens Composition To Be Sung Sunday At 7 P. M.; Public Is Invited

The "Christmas Oratorio," by Saint Saens, will be presented by the senior choir of thirty-nine voices of the Newark Methodist Church this Sunday, Dec. 11, at 7 p. m. The choir will be directed by James Crone, director of music, and will be assisted by guest soloists from the Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J.

The oratorio, composed by the famous French composer, Camille Saint-Saens, for soprano, mezzo-soprano, contralto, tenor, baritone, and chorus. In dimensions the work hardly exceeds the limits of a cantata but musically it is constructed in oratorio style. Its subject is the nativity, combined with ascriptions of praise and a final exultant hal-lujah. It is very beautiful and full of genuine worshipful Christmas music.
Soloists will be Otsuko Okaji, soprano; Claire Cheney Taylor, mezzo-soprano; Marvin Fenema, tenor, and Stanley Golden, baritone.

The piano accompaniments will be played by Wil Russell of Philadelphia and Princeton. Evelyn Byrd Martin will be at the console of the organ.
The worship will begin at 7 p. m.
with the processional hymn, "Angels,
From the Realms of Glory," followed by the invocation and Lesson from The Holy Scriptures by the minister, Dr.
Arthur J. Jackson.

The members of the choir who are giving this service of sacred music are:
Sopranos—Miss Betty Boyce, Miss
Roberta Carothers, Mrs. Francis B.
Cramer, Miss Elizabeth Dawson, Miss
B. Mae Gibson, Mrs. Hugh Gullege,
Mrs. William R. Harold, Miss Virginia
Kirkpatrick, Miss Jean Lee, Mrs.
George L. Moore, Miss Dorothy Reynolds, Mrs. Fred W. Sullivan, Miss

Mrs. Williams Wins $750 Second Place Prize On Saturday

Hundreds of New Subscribers Added To Post's Circulation In 6-Week Campaign

Crowning six and a half weeks of strenuous effort on the part of the contestants in the Newark Post's justly famous "Everybody Wins" subscription contest, the race came to a fitting climax last Saturday afternoon.

By amassing the tremendous total of 10,906,600 votes—representing hundreds of new and renewal subscriptions—Mr. A. Earl Wyatt, of Newark, finished first and was awarded "then and there on the spot" that beautiful new Buick Four-Door Sedan, worth $2309.80, grand capital award of the contest.

Mrs. Katherine Williams, also of Newark, one of the top notchers from the start, made a brilliant showing in the race and came in second to win second grand award of $750.00 in cash.

The official Judges Statement, elsewhere on this page, gives the order in which the other winners finished the race and their grand total of votes at the end.

To each and every contestant that took part in this race we wish to say "thanks." Without your untiring efforts the contest could not have been the huge success that it proved to be.

Contest Success

From every point of view, the contest just closed was an unqualified success. The race started off with a rush and forged ahead steadily each week at a high rate of speed, with the total vote tally prevailing among contestants at all times.

It was an understood fact at the beginning, of course, that all could not win first place but everybody did win something fully commensurate with their time and effort expended in this aptly named "Everybody Wins" contest.

Moreover, our present and prospective advertisers won by now having a vastly increased audience to read their regular offerings of dependable merchandise in each issue of the Post.
The paper now goes into many hundreds of new homes each week.

The general public won also by virtue of the fact that they now have a stronger, more virile newspaper to represent their best interests here at home and elsewhere; and, if need be,
to fight their battles for any worthy cause.

And, too, this newspaper won to the same degree by having more complete fully paid circulation it its field—the only kind of circulation that really counts—thus enabling us to render even greater service to both readers and advertisers in all matters pertaining to civic betterment and upbuilding of this vast and fertile area.

To those new readers, and to the old ones as well, whose interest and patronage made this contest the success that it proved to be, we are indeed grateful and indebted.

For the trust implied by advancing your subscription one or more years in advance, we shall strive to merit that trust to the very best of our ability. On behalf of the management and every member of our staff, we extend our most sincere thanks.

New Grade School Given First Gift

$300 Is Donated For Music Equipment

The first gift to Newark's new elementary school, a $300 donation for new music equipment, was made this week by the Newark Music Society, an organization inactive here since the war.

The announcement was made by Dr.
Cuthbert Webber, an officer of the society, who added that the money was the residue of the group's treasury.

Supt. Wilmer E. Shue said the funds will be used to purchase a high fidelity record player and records for the new school's music appreciation classes.

The gift is the first from private sources to be donated to the new grade school, which is scheduled to be completed and ready for occupancy early next year.

R. S. GALLAHER III
R. S. Gallaher, member of the Newark School Board, is critically ill with a heart condition in the Wilmington General Hospital.

from local and Wilmington plumbers. Only one has submitted an estimate so far, but more quotations are expected next week.

Work on the sewer contract, awarded to a Dover firm last month, has been underway the past three weeks and about 725 feet of sewer lines have been laid on Manuel and Courtney Streets. Much incidental work has also been completed.

The plan for cleaning and covering the water storage tanks on East Main Street is still awaiting quotations from contractors.

No steps have been taken to correct the curb and gutter flooding at Main and Elkton Road. Officials of the Atlantic Refining Company have still not sent a representative to discuss the matter with Mr. Hauber.

Mr. Hauber's report also listed extensive maintenance and repair work carried out by town crews in the water, light and street departments.

Council Meet

possibility of securing financial aid for the project.

The fact that a number of residents on East Cleveland Avenue object to the project on the principal that it will lead to a heavy influx of traffic in a thickly populated area was also brought out at the meeting, and the lawmakers discussed a number of alternative routes to provide an easterly entrance to town.

The status of the proposed southside sewer project remained unchanged. The Council is ready to advertise for bids, except for a legal obstacle. This is the need for securing rights of way on Ritter and Cannery Lane. Town Solicitor Sinclair is working on this. The large-scale project is aimed at tying-in large areas of the southern end of town into the sanitary system for the first time.

Council also authorized the securing of quotations for the annual audit of town books.

The danger of obscuring street illumination and obstructing overhead wires by planting trees too near the curb was discussed, and Mr. Sinclair was ordered to draw up an ordinance draft forbidding the planting of trees on town property and requiring the removal of all such trees two inches under in diameter.

Hon. Sam Rayburn, Congressman from Texas and Speaker of the House has been a member of that body continuously since March 4, 1913.

As a reward for their record, the county attendance officer, Mrs. Martha Barnes permitted them to be excused an hour earlier and their teacher treated them to ice cream. Neighbors were awakened on Sunday morning by the ringing of telephones, to see the sky illuminated by fire flashes. A high voltage wire was broken, and burning on the highway, just east of Polly Drummond Road. The fire attracted motorists, despite the early hour of 3:30 a. m.; also the Newark firemen, State Police and employees of Delaware Power and Light Co. Due to their joint efforts, the fire was soon extinguished, with phone and electric service restored.

News of London-Britain Vicinity

The Junior M. Y. F. is enjoying a series of recreational meetings at Landenberg Hall. These meetings consist of folk dancing and games. Instruction is being given by Mrs. Helen Paxon, Instructress of Music in Coatesville schools for a number of years. The time to remember, if you have in mind any young person from 12 to 14 years of age who might be interested, is every fourth Friday.

Every Monday night the Methodist Youth Fellowship meets at 7 o'clock. At 7:30 the Youth Choir practices. At 8 o'clock the Senior Fellowship, consisting of all those people 15 years of age and over, has its meeting.

This coming Tuesday, Dec. 13, the M. Y. F. has a Cabinet meeting at 7:30. Mrs. William Conner will be hostess for the meeting.

Vernon Griffin, of Landenberg, who recently sustained a fractured thigh, will have to spend the next few weeks in the Delaware Hospital in Wilmington.

The Kemblesville Sewing Circle meets with Mrs. Earl Richards this Thursday at 2 p. m. for their annual Christmas party.

Little Jeffrey Losee has been confined to his home for some five days with a badly infected inner ear.

Norris E. Pratt bagged a six point, 150 pound deer Monday morning in Mifflin County, near Milroy.

Another person to be congratulated for "getting his deer," is Bill Nichol, when a four point deer weighing 100 pounds, fell under his marksmanship last Wednesday.

The ABC Gun Club were not to be outdone. They couldn't decide which of the five bullets fired had been the fatal one, but didn't worry about it, since the deer they got will make a tasty feast for the 11 families involved.

Little Nancy Henrietta Taylor, born October 14 to the Richard Taylor family, near Kemblesville, is a mighty special little Miss, since she is only the second girl in the Taylor family for over a hundred years.

Lou Losee had no luck on the hunting trip just completed, but plans to have another try on "Doe Day," December 10.

Franklin Township P-T. A. has planned an interesting evening for December 10, at 8:30 p. m., in Kemblesville Hall. A well known artist from the Philadelphia and Chester area, Mrs. Julietta Pescatore, will entertain with various monologues and characterizations. Also on the program will be Christmas music by the New London school children, under the direction of Mrs. O'Leary. A silver offering will be taken, for the benefit of the P-T. A.

Those who were presented from attending the New London Presbyterian Christmas Cantata because of the bad storm last year, will be delighted to know that the cantata is to be repeated next Sunday at 8 p. m. at the church.

Are we proud of Morris Sanborn? Yes, indeed. The New London Grange Bowling League consisting of six teams, bowls every Friday night in Newark last Friday "Sandy" impressed everyone with three games, score 233, 191 and 188, anyone of which is a good game, but the scores are particularly impressive in an amateur league, and bowled in succession by one person.

The Misses Suzanne and Betsy Adams visited Barbara and Cynthia Ness over the week-end.

Miss Gordon Fernow, of Cynwyd, near Philadelphia, was a house guest at the Russell Eaton home last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. Lang, and four children, Undercliff Farm, visited Mrs. Lang's parents, the C. Carlisle Goodrich family, of Newburgh, New York, the Saturday following Thanksgiving, and returned last Wednesday. Mr. Lang had business in New York.

The Gerhard Filipi family were pleased last Saturday when Mrs. Filipi's sister, Mrs. Herbert Ledermann and family arrived unexpectedly from Reading, Pa., to spend the week-end.

Karl Duprey Klauck arrived Saturday at the Delaware Hospital in Wilmington. Wendy, his two-year-old sister, voted for "Beethoven," but parental protective instincts took over, and Martha and Fred decided that "Karl Duprey Klauck" would be a better name.

James Sanford, whose family lives in Strickersville, and who hopes eventually to be permanently based in the east, is at present commuting from Washington, D. C. His interesting job as a representative of Lustron, Inc., has kept him busy in the mid-west since May, until this time.

Marianna Alcock drove home to Ohio the Friday after Thanksgiving, and took the three children along to see their grandmother.

The Langs are entertaining Mr. Lang's brother, Edward W. Lang, his wife and children, Bryan and Barbara.

FILLIN' IN

Elsewhere in this issue an editorial mentions something about hundreds of new readers being added to the Post's circulation list. One of these, we regret to report, has already left us.

He is the man who called here Saturday and bawled out the staff for misinforming him on Santa Claus' visit. He was one of several score misguided Post readers who appeared on the B. & O. platform last Saturday to meet the 3:08 p. m. They had apparently read an article in the Post which said Santa would arrive Saturday but didn't say which Saturday.

We were touched when we thought of this little group, huddled on the windswept platform, looking expectantly southward and beaming with uncritical faith in the Newark Post. We take it they are new readers. They have a lot to learn about the Newark Post.

The man who called said, among other things, that we were guilty of careless reporting and of disappointing children. He concluded we were a lot of nasty, cruel people and said he would never read our paper again.

We have no defense, and apologies are futile things. We were guilty of careless reporting, and we did disappoint children. We are humiliated by the former but cannot get sentimental about the latter. If it was their first disappointment, it came none too soon.

As for our caller, we are relieved, in a way, that he has dropped the Post. He would never have been comfortable with us. And to those new subscribers who may still be hanging on, may we give a mild word of warning. Read the Post charily, if at all. Keep a grain of salt always handy. We have no experts on the staff, no specialists, no authorities on anything. Errors have a tendency to creep in, sometimes through in. The only thing that can be said for us is that our intentions are of the best; it's just that our clay feet are always getting in our way.

Incidentally, we hope that everyone understands now that Santa is scheduled (a word to be chary of) to arrive on the 3:05 p. m. this Saturday at the B. & O. station.

The Santa Claus situation in Newark ran into another complication the past week. We first heard about it from a breathless youngster, who said he had just seen Santa Claus at the Five and Ten. He was running about Main Street telling everyone.

Naturally, the news shocked us. If true, it could lead to a serious conflict and cause consternation among the small fry. It could mean that, come Saturday, Newark would be in the delicate position of having two Santas.

We dashed immediately to the Five and Ten to check on the situation. We are happy to report that, although Santa Claus was there all right, there was no need to worry. He was an obvious imposture, and he wasn't there long.

We found him hiding in the stockroom, smoking a cigarette nervously. He had thrown aside a false face, and his pack was lying on the floor.

We asked him why he was trying to louse up the Santa Claus situation in Newark. He muttered something about would we please go away. We took a gentler tack, and he was soon pouring out his troubles to us.

It seems he had developed, in his first few hours on the job, a deep-seated inferiority complex and fear of children. The trouble was none of them would take him seriously. They all laughed at him and wanted to know what he was doing going around dressed up like Santa. "It was awful!" the fellow said on his second cigarette.

He told us that when he took the job the management advised him it would be a cinch. Kids are easy to fool, he was told. All one had to do was pat their heads, and they'd pour out their little hearts.

"I tried that with the first kid," Santa said, "and he gave me a shove and told me to keep my dirty paws off him. All of them said they didn't want a bum like me coming down their chimneys. I hid for a while behind the kitchen utensil counter, but a gang of them found me and began to bait me. It was horrible. I finally slipped in here."

At that moment, Mr. Handloff, the Five and Ten manager, popped in and demanded to know what was going on. "Get out there and start Santa Clausing," he said. "The kids are yelling for you."

Santa Claus winced, and then his eyes fell on the door behind Mr. Handloff and grew round with fear. A leering urchin's face was looking in. "Here he is, gang!" the face yelled, and before you could say "Pranzer and Blitzen, Away!" the room was filled with kids, all dancing around Santa and shouting, "Yah, yah you can't fool us. You're just dressed up like Santa!"

Santa grimly picked up his pack and began beating them off. He fought his way to the door and the last we saw of him he was crowning one kid over the head and muttering, "I'll Santa Claus you!"

Much later, when things had calmed down, we got to thinking that when the real Santa arrives this Saturday, he had better be on his toes. And no false face, either.

Newark AA Opens Court Card Tonight Against Wilm. Chicks

Susquehanna League Contest Scheduled For Elkton Armory; Local Club Still Lacks Home Floor

The Newark AA basketball team opens its 1949-50 season tonight meeting the Wilmington Chicks in a Susquehanna League contest at the Elkton Armory at 7:30 p. m.

Newark finished second in the circuit last year and won the play-off title. The club also finished fourth in the Delaware State Invitation Tournament. The starting lineup is not definite for tonight, since Manager Leroy Hill has been able to schedule only three practice sessions due to the lack of a home gym. Through the courtesy of the officials of the Elkton Armory, the Newark team was given an opportunity to practice there.

Thomas and Schenck To Co-Captain U. D. Gridders Next Year

Eight-Game Schedule To Include Games With Temple And Lehigh

Jim Thomas, end from Wilmington, Delaware, and Fred Schenck, center from Minersville, Pa., were today named to co-captain the University of Delaware football team next fall. Marking the fourth straight year in which two players have shared the captaincy, the selection of Schenck and Thomas was the first for Delaware under a two-plainton philosophy. Thomas is an offensive player, and Schenck this fall saw action only on the defense.

An excellent blocker and the third best pass-receiver in the East this fall, Thomas was one of the surprises of the 1949 season. Used last year as a defensive halfback, he got his chance at end this fall and gathered in thirty passes good for 365 yards and five touchdowns. Schenck was used exclusively as a linebacker this fall, and it was his great defensive play that helped the Hens finish second in the East to Army in over-all defensive ability. Fred intercepted six enemy passes and was a veritable roll of barb wire on the ground.

The Athletic Council of the University of Delaware today announced an eight-game card for the University of Delaware gridders next fall. Bradley, Richmond, and Rollins were dropped from the Hen schedule, while Temple and Lehigh, plus one open date, were added. The schedule: Sept. 23—Lehigh, away; Sept. 30—West Chester, home; Oct. 7—P. M. C., home; Oct. 21—Lafayette, home; Oct. 28—Muhlenberg, away; Nov. 4—Temple, away; Nov. 11—Washington & Lee, home; Nov. 18—Bucknell, home.

Bucknell placed three, and W&L, Muhlenberg, and Lafayette each placed two men on the All-Opponent team selected today by University of Delaware gridders. Near unanimous choices were Liston Bochette of Rollins and Carl Potter of Lafayette. L. E.—Talbot Trammell—W. & L. L. T.—Wes Curtier—Richmond. L. G.—Arnold Pechulis—Bucknell. C.—Carl Potter—Lafayette. R. G.—Sisto Averno—Muhlenberg. R. T.—Bill Szabo—Bucknell. R. E.—Gordon Schleer—Lafayette. Q. B.—Tom Dean—Bucknell. R. H.—Elmo Jackson—Muhlenberg. H. B.—Liston Bochette—Rollins. F. B.—Charles Holt—W. & L.

Guard Dance Will Be Held On Dec. 22

Newly Organized Unit Now Stationed At Local Armory

Newark now has two guard companies. A newly formed unit Battery "C," 156 AW Battalion, has been headquartered here, along with the older unit, Battery "C," 736 Gun Battalion. Capt. Joseph Balbach who commanded the latter unit, has been switched over to head the new Battery "C," which will remain here permanently. The older unit, now under command of Lieut. James S. Kline, will move out in the near future.

The new Battery "C," an automatic weapons unit, was formed from a nucleus of 14 men and has a wealth of ratings and choice spots for new recruits. The local guard unit will sponsor an open house and dance on December 22. The public is invited. A slight fee will be charged.

It is estimated that there is at least a billion tons of iron ore in China, in spite of the fact that China's iron industry is the oldest in the world. Senator Mead of New York: "American Red Cross volunteer workers have done a magnificent job throughout the war in treating all of these special problems of the men overseas. We must continue to give the American Red Cross our encouragement and support."

YELLOWJACKET HIGHLIGHTS

Column of News Contributed by the Journalism Class At Newark High School

Introducing a Student—Don Sharp
Don Sharp is not a new student in 1949. He has been here for three years and very few people knew about him before football season. Don is a 14-year-old freshman and a varsity football player.

He was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico in 1934. He lived in Wilmington before coming to Newark and attended school at Oak Grove School for six years.

Don's hobbies are collecting war souvenirs and weight lifting. He hopes to be able to press two hundred pounds this year and three hundred before he leaves high school. He likes to play football and played on the Yellowjackets' team this fall.

His future plans are either to go to college or be a butcher. He is quoted as saying, "I don't like girls; just can't get 'em." He doesn't like to get dressed up either, he says.

Joe Gregg.

Teacher Appreciation Theme
Mr. Fred Slegler, chairman of publicity of the P-T. A. is making a survey of all the teachers in the Newark Public School requesting them to supply autobiographical material.

This is in connection with P-T. A.'s plan to carry out this year's theme "Teacher Appreciation." Each teacher is requested to supply a photograph of himself if possible, which will be taken at Follenberger's Studio at no cost to the teacher.

Ralph Pierce.

Christmas Ideas
Junior high art students are busy making many attractive articles for Christmas Pines, necklaces, and belts are being woven from gimp. This plastic face comes in bright colors and the combinations of colors gives an artistic effect.

Some art students are making Christmas cards from construction paper. Mr. Kelechava and Mr. Osborne are supervising this work.

Junior Journalists.

Faculty Dining Room
The faculty dining room, established in the rear of old cafeteria is now open for the teachers' use.

This room was built last week by Mr. Clifton Knotts and his assistants. It is furnished with six new tables and chairs along with two new fluorescent lights. Each of the tables has been supplied with salt, pepper, mustard, and ketchup. The one holdover from the old style is for the teachers to go through the line with the students. With great demand the cafeteria staff has added a coffee pot which is kept full for the teachers.

Parent-Teacher Relationship
An Education Seminar Meeting for seniors at the University of Delaware was held Tuesday, November 29, at the university. Miss Greta McKinsey, a teacher from Newark and Mrs. Charles Cooper, a parent from Newark attended the meeting. Mr. Marston Fox, president of State P-T. A. was also a guest.

The topic discussed was Parent-Teacher Relationships Questions which arose at the education meeting were: What does P-T. A. do for the school? How does P-T. A. bring home and school closer together? How do you feel about the value of personal conference between teacher and parent or parents of students?

The seminar group requested this type of meeting so that they might become better acquainted with such problems through people who have had actual experience with them.

Jim Wollaston.

HOW TO BE A "SQUARE SHOOTER"
On Party-Line Telephones

WHEN YOU PLAY FAIR AND SQUARE with your party-line neighbors...when you share the service courteously...you'll almost always find the courtesy returned!

Suppose you want to make a call and find the line in use. If you hang up gently and give the other person a few minutes to finish his call before trying again, your courtesy is appreciated. And suppose, while talking, you realize that your neighbor wants to make a call. He'll appreciate it if you hang up in a few minutes and free the line.

That's "square shooting." It pays dividends!

Players To Stage One-Act Melodrama Here Sunday Night

"Parted On Her Wedding Morn" To Be Offered By Drama Group

Old fashioned melodrama will return to Mitchell Hall, Newark, next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the next meeting of the University Drama Group. A one-act play by Leland Price, entitled "Parted On Her Wedding Morn," or "More to Be Pitted Than Scorned," will be presented.

Back in the peaceful little town of Farmyard, Pennsylvania, lived beautiful Faith Truehart, our pure and misunderstood heroine (played by Ethel Crowe) and her father, old Goodyear Truehart (acted by no one at all). Her love affair with her rural swain, Excelsior Colfax (portrayed by Avery Goddin) is wrecked when city-slicker Leander Mulberry, who never appears in the play, comes on the scene as a summer boarder.

The plot gets all mixed up with appearance of Desmond Dalton, a black-hearted villain (Henry Weitz does this one). The plot thickens, but the management has requested us not to ruin the play by giving it away. Suffice it to say the Opal Buckingham, a villainess, the old maid (Ellen Weitz fills this role), Bowerly Liz, with heart of gold and teeth to match (Sophie McVey wows 'em in this part) and Mother Mahoney (Carrie Thomas does this one) as the neighbor round out the cast of characters.

That this thrilling tale has as happy an ending as ever devised will be demonstrated to the satisfaction of all. John P. Sinclair, a former President of the University Drama Group, directs this sterling play. It is hoped that a large turnout will enjoy the Meller-Drammer of the year.

Arrests Decline To 28 Here Past Month; Nine Disorderlies

Speeding Second On List With Seven Violations

Police made 28 arrests here in November, considerably under the figure for the previous month, according to Chief William Cunningham's report.

Disorderly conduct was the most common offense. Nine persons were picked up on this count. Speeding, usually at the top of the list, dropped to second, with seven motorists being held for violating the 25-mile limit in town.

The others were classified as follows: drunkenness, 5; resisting arrest, 1; passing red light, 1; larceny, 1; and interfering with police, 1.

Police also investigated seven cases of malicious mischief, one breaking and entering report, an attempted larceny of a car, a report of an unconscious woman, two charges of larceny, and one report of discharging a firearm in the town limits.

Magistrate Clarence Foster announced he collected $180 in fines.

The police handled 175 telephone calls. Overnight lodging was furnished for five persons. Six persons were sent to the workhouse. The police car covered 3542 miles.

Rotarians To Hold Xmas Party Dec. 19

Hugh Gibb Is Speaker At Monday Nite's Meeting

The Newark Rotary Club met Monday evening, at the Chimes Restaurant, with President Jack Handloff in charge. Following the dinner Secretary Gilbert Nickel gave a tabulation of the birthplaces of our members. It turned out that twelve states were represented with Pennsylvania having the greatest number and Delaware placing second.

The annual Rotary Christmas party date was set for December 19, and a committee was formed to take charge of proceedings. It consisted of Howard Ferguson, Joseph Bryan, William Martin, Alvin Handloff, Jack Handloff and Hugh Gibb.

Hugh Gibb was the speaker of the evening and his subject was the Suez Canal. He pointed out that the linking of the Mediterranean Sea and the Red Sea by an artificial waterway is one of the oldest enterprises in the history of civilized man. Prior to the construction of the present canal during the years 1859 to 1869 two earlier canals had been dug by the Egyptians, one by the Romans and one by the Turks, all of which fell into disuse. No canal existed between 776 and 1869. The talk ended with a discussion of the strategic potential and future prospects for the present canal.

Alden Keene was a visitor from the Middletown, Del. Rotary Club. Next week Rodney Dann will address the club on tug boat operation.
