BLUE HEN II

The yearbook started off with great success this year. We rounded up at least three new members in Club Rendezvous, and lost half of them within a week. We also went through three photography editors, and promotions came at a pace equal to a high speed train. But, despite this the Blue Hen II was completed.

Sales promotions were very unique this year. Will you students please pick up some blue books, we have a ton of them. Some other of our Business Manager's atrocities included a rebate system that made no sense, and the writing of Christmas letters in January, which was highly disclaimed.

Our Photo Editor spent hours upon hours in the dark-room and returned with four "beautiful" shots, and the Associate Editor thought he could maintain his position without ever visiting the office. Finally the Editor was foolish enough to think that he had normal everyday people around him. He was wrong and the staff was great.
