J. H. (Sureshot) Rumer

Anything appearing in this column purely the opinion of the writer d does not express the views or slicy of the paper. Any exceptions ould be taken up with the writer.

should be taken up with the writer.

Well, Sureshot never says the right thing at the right time. Yes, I have received another bawling-out. What is it this time? Well, in a recent issue of this column I mentioned the Men and Boys in the Infantry, Private John W. Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Powell writes back and informs me that when a fellow gets in the infantry they find that the outfit is composed of ALL MEN. That is might fine of Juck to stick up for his branch of the service. When we hear the stories that go around about those fellows who do most of the dirty work and have to service. When we near the stories that go around about those fellows who do most of the dirty work and have to take a beating like they do I don't blame Jack for sticking up for them. From all reports the only fellows who have it easy are the 4-Frs, those fellows who are getting jobs in the warplants so that they don't have to fight. After all the publicity that has been given the Delaware Festival of the Arts and after trying to make it plain that the Newark committee's participation in this annual after will take place in the Hilarium of Warner Hall at the Women's College, at which time Mr. Schoonover, Delaware's outstanding and noted artist will be the speaker, we are told that some folks think that the affair will be held at the Newark New Century Club and only club members will be allowed to attend. Shucks, I try to make everything clear and only use the plainest kind of words, no fancy touches and no High-Brow stuff. Well, it could possibly be that some people went to night school and can't read in the day time. Anyway, this affair should be one of the outstanding events in Newark's social life. This affair is open to the general public and that is supposed to include anyone who is not too tired to go. We are sure that we have a lot of folks in Newark and vicinity who will derive a lot from hearing this speaker. It won't be time wasted.

Last Christmas the Newark commit-Last Christmas the Newark commit

Last Christmas the Newark committee in charge of sending Christmas remembrances to our boys in the service sent out about a thousand 16-page folders or booklets with a lot of baloney about the town and pictures to remind the boys what they left or what they will come home to when this scrap is over. There were some who might have thought that this was not very much to send the boys but according to a large article appearing in the National Rotary Mogazine for the month of May there are those that thought it was a fine gesture on the part of the folks back home.

A letter was received by Sureshot
this week stating that the town shelk
Eugene Campbell is now a sailor, stationed at the U. S. Maritime Training Station at Sheepshead Bay Brooklyn.

Eugene Campbell is now a sailor, stained at the U. S. Maritime Training Station at Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn. Well, Brooklyn is good enough for Eugene. It is a wonder they don't ship him to Harlem. He is not stuck on himself—much. Already he wants his name on the honor roll. And what do you think? He is bragging about how nice he looks in his uniform. Any of the young folks that want Campbell's new address can contact the Newark Post. He said he was interested in receiving chocolate nut sundaes, boxes of fudge and pin-up pictures.

Private Joe Lutton who is now stained at Camp Blanding Florida, writes and wants to know how all the firemen are making out and if his name is in a good spot on the Fire Company honor roll. He wants to get back home so that he can ride the fire engine. Well Joe, all the boys miss your sunny smile and really, since you left it has been stated that two fellows now can ride in the same amount of space that you took up when you got on the engine.

The old fire siren has been quiet for the engine.

The old fire siren has been quiet for quite a while lately. Possibly the grass is too wet to burn. When there are no fires there is no chance to poke fun at certain members of the fire com-

Admiral Bill Lloyd also sent a ca

in this week. Bill naturally wants know how the dogries ran at the la beagle trial of the Eastern Beagle Cli where he is one of the big shots. The will not be anything doing at the cli until the annual bench show that is be held in June so we guess that Bi won't get much out of the paper unt that time.

Last week the Newark F.F.A. boy held their annual banquet in the his school cafeteria and Sureshot missed of, yes, I was invited but was prevented from attending on account other business. That is the first F.F. banquet that I have missed in a lor time, but the folks that attended it affair had just as good a time as if time, but the folks that attended the affair had just as good a time as if I had been there. Despite the ration hardship they all had enough to eat and from the menu my heart is broken when I think what I missed. Newspapermen always like to get a free meal. Then besides the fine meal that I missed there were some mighty fine speeches by M. James Parsons, assistant superintendent of Newark Schools for the past seven years and then there was intendent of Newark Schools for the past seven years and then there was that fellow C. Ed McCauley who is a big shot in the 4-H club work in Delaware. Gee, what those boys had to put up with just to get a meal. Well, it is all in a life time. Those kids at the Newark school will do anything to get a second plate of ice cream.

SHERIFF TO SELL LOTS AT AUCTION

Saturday at 9 a. m., there will be a chance to secure suburban building lots at a bargain, when Sheriff Taylor will sell 65 parcels containing 140 lots located in various parts of the county. The lots are located as follows: Twelve in Claymont Addition: 1 in Claymont Center; 8 in Penn Rose; 58 in Concord Manor; 2. Wilmont; 1, 60 concord Manor; 2. Wilmont; 1, 80 concord Manor; 2. There is likely to be considerable demand for these lots, all of which will likely be sold for moderate prices. Not only will there be a chance to secure a lot for a postwar home cheap, but there will be plenty of these lots on which Victory gardens could be planted until ready to use for building. This sale is part of the continuing effort to clean up the county tax rolls. There have been several inquiries already about some of the lots to be sold, for they include some very desirable sites for suburban homes. It is probable that owners of adjoining properties may wish to buy some of them.

TOPIC OF SCHOONOVER LECTURE

Public Is Invited To Hear Festival Speaker

Frank E. Schoonever, noted Delaware artist and speaker for the lecture which the Newark Committee of the Delaware Festival of the Arts is sponsoring, as Newark's participation in the annual festival, has informed the chairman, Mrs. Harry Clark Boden, that he will speak on the noted Delaware artist, Howard Pyles. The title he has given his talk is, "The Intimate Life of Howard Pyle and His Students".

Mr. Schoonover points out that he will talk on incidents and anecdotes which he personally remembers and which are un-published in the many works referring to Pyle.

Newark will be fortunate in hearing Mr. Schoonover present the great artist from this angle, since he is known as one of Pyle's most brilliant students and admirers, and is well qualified to give this unique approach to the late Delaware painter.

The committee wishes to emphasize

The committee wishes to emphasize again that this lecture is open to the public and takes place in the Hilarium at Warner Hall on the Women's College campus, University of Delaware at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, May 9th. It is hoped that all those interested in Art will attend.

There will be no cripted appropries.
