Wilmington Del Dec 18th 1862

Dear Brother

We received your letter of the eleventh today. It had been missent, I expect you are very anxious after an answer, but ~~it~~ <sup>your letter</sup> has been a week on the way. Mother went to Mr. Waltons and got the best medicine he had for frosted toes. We will put it in the office at the time we do this letter. We sent to you a letter on last Friday with stamps in. And on last Tuesday some letter paper and envelopes. Mother says to let us know whenever you need anything and if it is within our power we will send it to you. Mother heard today that a committee had gone to Washington to see the President about the Pennsylvania, sick and wounded, soldiers. Something about getting them nearer home. The other week we had a letter from the Brick asking for directions to you, Cousin Ellis was thinking about going to see you, but I dont know

Dear Brother

We received your letter of the eleventh today. It had been missent. I expect you are very anxious after an answer, but [strike-through]it[strike-through] your letter has been a week on the way. Mother went to Mr. Waltons [Alfred Walton] and got the best medicine he had for frosted toes. We will put it in the office at the time we do this letter. We sent to you a letter on last Friday with stamps in. And on last Tuesday some letter paper and envelopes. Mother says to let us know whenever you need anything and if it is within our power we will send it to you. Mother heard today that a committee had gone to Washington to see the President about the Pennsylvania, sick and wounded soldiers, Something about getting them nearer home. The other week we had a letter from Brick asking for directions to you. Cousin Ellis was thinking about going to see you, but I don't know wether he will get up or not. Mother wants you to be sure and tell us wether you are in frame or canvass tents and wether you have any fire or not. Hyett's school house and dwelling is turned into a hospital, and there are several wounded soldiers in it,

and they expect more next week.
Anna intends writing you another letter to see wether you will get it or not.
She was so unlucky with the others,
I will send you a paper in a few days.
Do you have the same nurses all the time?
and are they men or women? Please write soon. Mother and Anna join me in love to you. Yours affectionately Sarah C. Fulton.

George Washington

An Acrostic.

Goodness and greatness were in him <sup>combined</sup>
Envy and malice leagued could never find
One ear to listen to a slanderous tone
Respecting him; for "all hearts were his own!"
Grasping his trusty blade with valor's might,
E'er ready to maintain a heaven-born right.

Wise was his counsel, prudent in its tone,
Against the tyrant king on England's throne.
Standing beneath our flag, to do and dare;
Hope in his heart, born of the courage there,
In God his trust, to Him he did appeal—
Nor other king, than Heavens had seen him <sup>kneel</sup>—
God heard his prayer, and stretched his mighty <sup>hand</sup>
That he might triumph with his patriot bands
On God relying, freedom's band he won—
No tyrant rules where sleeps our Washington.

End Sallie
