Dear Sister

I received your letter this morning and was glad to hear from you. you said you was afraid I was Sick. I am not Sick. I am well and hearty hoping this may find you the Same you say things is high up there there are high and Scare down here there is nothing going on here worth noticing timer is dull here the Soldiers are all down hearted here But I am gay and happy they cant hurt me unless they kill me and they will have to be Sharp if they do that. you wanted me to tell you if I wanted any thing I do not want thing. I am well provided with every thing But Stamps and I cant get them here no how so you my send me fifty Cencets worth if you will I guess that is all I want at this time
