ABOUT

THE "GOP WOMEN'S NIXON-AGNEW VOTESWAGON" JOURNEY TO VICTORY '68

"The launching of a "GOP Women's Nixon-Agnew Voteswagon" is an exciting campaign idea. The success of any political campaign depends on the support and dedicated service of the women of the country. The "Voteswagon" will be instrumental in getting more women to the polls in support of your Republican candidates, and, in particular, of my own and Governor Agnew's candidacy for President and Vice President of the United States.

"The Governor joins with me, I know, in wishing you the very best of luck on your journey and in an expression of a very real gratitude to you, Mary Brooks and Gladys O'Donnell, for traveling this long road to victory in November, 1968."

Sincerely,

Richard M. Nixon

"It gives me the greatest pleasure to offer my best wishes for a rewarding campaign tour to you women who will undertake this exciting, first-time expedition of the "GOP Women's Nixon-Agnew Voteswagon." The proposed 26-day itinery will be a direct

"women-to-women" communications line that will surely afford us the most beneficial insight as to what the American woman is thinking and feeling about her country and about our candidacy.

I appreciate your efforts, and I know I may express this appreciation for Mr. Nixon as well, we are both deeply grateful for your help. We wish you every success.

Located between Cedar City and Panguitch, Utah, magnificent Cedar Breaks is a series of vast amphitheaters cut down from Kolob Plateau, 10,400 feet high and 3,000 feet deep covering 60 square miles. Its huge rough erosions in every conceivable shape and color form a most impressive and beautiful sight.

The valley in which they lie sits beneath the Wasatch Mountains - Perhaps the prettiest we have seen. Salt Lake & The Bay are a deep blue (like this ink) the long ride from Cheyenne to Salt Lake caused my first migraine, however. We are on our way to Sun Valley, Idaho. Looking forward to a rest - This is really an endurance test - But we are really doing a lot of good. In some towns, our stop will definitely cause a Republican to be elected to the House! We can see it is not all in vain. Do miss you all - Very, very much. Love, Marjorie

TWELVE "SWITCH-BACKS" on WHITE BIRD HILL
Tourists have little trouble knowing other vehicles are coming or going with no obstructions for the view ahead. In spring this hillside is covered with wild flowers. (On U. S. 95.)

Wed. Oct. 9

Dear Tom - You just won't believe this "hill" - no guard rails on the curves! Absolutely the most spectacular ride imaginable - don't know when the natives call a "hill" a Mt. - This is as high as I care to go - like life Mt. goat trail - Love, Marjorie

THE LEWIS & CLARK HWY., in general, lies between Lewiston, Idaho and Missoula, Montana. It climbs Lolo Pass in the Bitterroots and parallels the Lochsa River for a hundred miles through one of the largest big-game wilderness areas in the U.S. The highway (open in 1962) is appealingly different - long-primitive stretches without signs, fences, utility poles or buildings - just the ribbon you're jammed against the scenic wilderness.

Dear Sherry,
We go along this road this morning on our way to Missoula, Montana. This is beautiful country and is really Northwest Territory - looks like Canada.
Love, Mommy

VICTORY '68

Season's Greetings '69

'Twas the months before Christmas and all through the land
Mary Brooks, in a bus, rode about with her band

Into 17 States, they arrived with such clatter
That the whole U.S.A. took a vote on the matter

Over mountains and prairies the "Voteswagon" scurried
Distributing brooms, while the Democrats worried

"Sweep 'em out!" was the battle cry heard at each stop
And our gals used their brooms, starting right at the top!

"Now that Dick's got the White House," says Mary with glee,
"Many thanks come from Richard, from Spiro—and me!"

And we hear as the "Voteswagon" rolls out of sight,
"MERRY CHRISTMAS to all, 'twas a jolly, good fight!"

Thank You

Dear Mary:

I'm sorry it took us so long to get this little note off to you, but when we left you in California, we came home and campaigned all over Illinois for our state candidates.

We just wanted to thank you especially, for helping us in many ways, many times. You'll never know what your warmth and kindness meant to us.

The next time we're in D.C., we'd love to see you and meet your family, I'm sure they're all as lovely as you.

P.S.

THANKS YOU!

...FOR YOUR COVERAGE OF THE

"GOP WOMEN'S NIXON-AGNEW VOTESWAGON."

Our journey to get out the women's vote for the Nixon-Agnew ticket covered 7,000 miles, 17 States and 74 rally stops in cities and towns along the way.

Nationwide interest in our coast-to-coast, 27 day campaign trip was due, in part, to the excellent response from people like yourself.

Thank you for telling our "Voteswagon" story to the American people.

Republican National Committee • 1625 Eye Street, N.W. • Washington, D. C. • 20006
Mary Brooks, Assistant Chairman

"THE GOP WOMEN'S NIXON-AGNEW VOTESWAGON" - CAMPAIGN, 1968WHAT IT WAS

The "GOP Women's Nixon-Agnew Voteswagon" was a dramatic and unprecedented campaign trip designed to get out the women's vote for the Nixon-Agnew ticket. The 27-day, coast-to-coast journey began on September 23, at the Capitol in Washington, D.C., and ended on October 18, at Disneyland in Anaheim, California. The "Voteswagon" travelled through States with 229 of the 270 electoral votes needed to elect the Presidential candidate.

WHO SPONSORED

The project was the main campaign effort of the Women's Division of the Republican National Committee and was also endorsed by the National Nixon-Agnew Campaign Committee. The Republican National Committee sponsored the the "GOP Women's Nixon-Agnew Voteswagon" with an assist from the National Nixon-Agnew Campaign Committee and the National Federation of Republican Women.

WHO WAS ABOARD

Assistant Republican National Committee Chairman Mrs. Mary Brooks and National Federation President Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell traveled 7,000 miles, through 17 States and 84 Congressional Districts to carry the Republican victory message to American women. Republican candidates for Senate and House, their wives and the wives of GOP Governors also rode the "Voteswagon" as it came into their State and District.

WHY

Assistant GOP National Chairman Mary Brooks invited American women (who outnumber male voters by almost four million) at each of the 74-city stops of the "Voteswagon" to "join the Republican Party in the biggest fall house-cleaning effort in the Nation--sweeping the Democrats out and sweeping Dick Nixon and Ted Agnew into the White House."

RESULTS

Republican women in 74 cities were presented "Operation Cleansweep" brooms as a campaign symbol to women all over the Nation. Mrs. Brooks gave away 84 brooms whose recipients received local press in the form of write-ups and pictures of the GOP "Operation Cleansweep" presentation.

RESULTS

The "Voteswagon" was the only nationwide, mobile source for campaign material. Voteswagon personnel distributed about two tons of bumper stickers, buttons and literature at stops on the itinerary. Many areas had not received prior campaign material and the Voteswagon enabled them to implement effective campaign programs. Campaign material was supplied by the Nixon-Agnew Campaign Committee.

RESULTS

The bus, a specially equipped Greyhound listing "White House" as its destination, was a rolling campaign billboard. A profusion of bumper stickers decorated the exterior of the "Voteswagon" as it entered each State and Congressional District.

RESPONSE:
PRESS

Press response was enthusiastic and a visit from the "Voteswagon" blanketed local newspapers, radio and television stations. About 300 members of the Press were registered at "Voteswagon" stops.

RESPONSE:
ORGANIZATION

The "Voteswagon" also served to generate enthusiasm in local Republican organizations where it became the center for campaign activity, attracting new workers to the local organization, as well as building enthusiasm among existing workers. Motorcades and rallies were a big part of "Voteswagon" activity, creating attention-getting events for the local Republican Party as well as the national ticket. The "Voteswagon" was a showcase for the local GOP candidates and helped to fuse local campaigns with the national ticket.

LAUNCHING

The exciting send-off from the Capitol on September 23 created a momentum that was maintained across the country. Julie and Tricia Nixon, assisted by Senator

Advance men did not travel with the bus.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Special contact was made with all newspapers, radio and television in each State and city, both before our arrival and, in some cases, when we hit the State. Itinerary maps, schedules, fact sheets and statements of endorsement from Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew, bios and pictures of Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. O'Donnell were given to Advance Men for use by media, press and organization people.
