Sat. Oct. 19th 1893.
 Went to Matinee, at the Academy, saw "Tilly."
 Was perfectly well-
 lighted with the play.
 It was magnificently
 staged.
 Only actress & actor
 up to her feet.
 Tilly was fine.
 She was beautiful
 of face and lovely soft form, her voice
 soft, strong & clear.
 Taffy was splendid,
 good, noble, and
 generous.
 His physique was magnificent, and his heart was nobly personified, he was

Just like some one
I know in Cambridge.
He is good true
and devoted friend
lover one to be trusted at all times in every emergency.
So is my love of Cambridge.
He is tall and strongly built - so is my dear
love of C.

The two are just like each other,
I love more now
than ever,

Bengali was finely impersonated
by Mr. H. S. Carleton.

BE YOURSELF.

For The Times-Democrat.

JUST BE YOURSELF ALWAYS,
 In face of blame or praise;
 Say what you think right out, Despite the fear or doubt;
 Stand ever strong, erect,
 In truth and self-respect.

Don't hold in stern disguise Your heart from those you prize; Tho' all the world may laugh,
 And at your fondness chaff, With all your might defend Your trusting absent friend.

Just what you are, appear,
 With little care or fear Of those who criticize

By "Mrs. Grundy's" eyes;— Far, far too many heed
 That babbling, idle creed.

Oct 10 I wrote quite a letter to James's Mother, and sent her a photo of my baby. I hardly know how either will be received, but as she is such a nice old lady, doubtless she will be pleased to hear from her daughter in law and grand baby. James is out visiting the neighbors & baby is asleep while Mama is down stairs reading. I am sitting at my desk in the study writing. I hear

WEARYIN' FOR YOU.

(Frank L. Stanton in Atlanta Constitution.)

Jes' a-wearyin' for you—
All the time a-feelin' blue; Wishin' for you—wonderin' when You'll be comin' home agen.
Restless—don't know what to do—
Jes' a-wearyin' for you!

Room's so lonesome with your chair Empty by the fireplace there; Jes' can't stand the sight of it!
Go out doors an' roam a bit;
But the woods is lonesome, too—Jes' a-wearyin' for you!

Comes the wind, with soft caress, Like the rustlin' of your dress; Blossoms fallin' to the ground Softly, like your footstep sound; Violets like your eyes so blue—
Jes' a-wearyin' for you!

Mornin' comes; the birds awake;
Use to sing so for your sake!
But there's sadness in the notes That come thrillin' from their throats; Seem to feel your absence, too, Jes' a-wearyin' for you!

Evenin' comes; I miss you more When the dark glooms in the door; Seems jes' like you orter be There to open it for me!
Latch goes tinklin'; thrills me through—Sets me wearyin' for you!

Jes' a-wearyin' for you!
All the time a-feelin' blue;
Wishin' for you—wonderin' when
You'll be comin' home agen;
Restless—don't know what to do—
Jes' a-wearyin' for you!

 A great deal of snow this day.
 James, Baby & I
 spent afternoon at Barr St. house
 had a pleasant
 time had fun
 coming home in snow that same night.
 James carried bag & umbrella.
 That same night I had a fearful fight,

 neighbors came out in full force &
 broke hall door
 down came in to my rescue.
 I was almost dead from fight
 Instead of third
 ring the man who white cat was found to have tried to get in my room.
 He turned the
 knob of the door James had just stepped out to go up to Mr Hallonell to get an order for Christmas, he broke his neck

+ legs getting home when he heard my screams.

Quite an event
ful night.

Dec 4 Monday Mrs Smith brought a girl out to do my work.
quite a green Irish girl.

Dec 5 Tuesday
Marna came home this morning Alice is better &

and in school again.

I was surprised to see Mrs Smith on Monday she was very kind to come out + bring me a girl, during her busy time.

Dec. 25th Christmas day, also my birthday.
 Alice came in the morning after experiencing a dreadful fight
 in the boat.
 We were a little uneasy about

Alice as she was so very late getting home breakfast was late still she did not show up, every thing was cleared away, still she did not come.
 Finally in despair
 we gave her up. I had in vited big company for dinner, so I was wondering what I would do
 when the bell rang, and upon looking out there
 stood a depot carriage & Alice loaded down

tened to a most thrilling narrative the boat was in danger of sinking so of course there was almost a panic
people thought jumping over board, and others thought how fearful
for Amos morning help aid came to the doomed boat and all reached Boston
in safety.

Don little Alice was so overcome
with nervousness & excitement until she relieved herself by shedding heavy
tears.
We were delighted to see her.
She looks well & very stylish.
She brought us presents also some from Mrs

Mrs Smith was out & brought a few presents.
We all had

We had a good time at the Whist Party & enjoyed the company as well as the generous supply
of refreshment.
We reached home about 10 o'clock.

Friday, Dec. 8!

 I hated very much to part with

 obliged to do so.
 So a whole the

 spent and went by so rapidly.
 I sincerely pray
 + hope the whole new year
 of 1898 will be as pleasantly spent as the first day was!
 I hope Alice will have as little disappointments as possible +

 I do pray her health will be better.
 My little lady deserves all the good things that God will give her.
 She does all the good she possibly can for others.
 She never thinks of speaking ill or of doing a mean act to others.
 May God bless her + help her.

James has been good & patient
with all of us, He gave fall in the house presents
He gave me more
as the Christmas
was my birth day He seemed pleased with my presents
to him.
He enjoyed his holidays also.
He seems to love me more & more as the days & months
pass.
He loves his baby so much,
He is just as sweet and good as she can be. I write I hear her singing & playing her self to sleep.

Well as I have nothing more of interest to write
I think I shall say good bye to the old year of '97.

say good bye.

If you want knowledge, you must toil for it; if food, you must toil for it; and if pleasure, you must toil for it.
Toil is law. Pleasure comes through toil, and not by self-indulgence and indolence. When one gets to love work his life is a happy one.

Feb. 12 1898

My little darling
is eleven months old on this day at twelve o'clock in the night.
She is so sweet & good.

Tell Her So.

Amid the cares of married life,
In spite of toil and business strife,
If you value your sweet wife,

Tell her so!

Prove to her you don't forget The bond to which your seal is set; She's of life's sweets, the sweetest yet —

Tell her so!

When days are dark and deeply blue,
She has her troubles, same as you, Show her that your love is true —

Tell her so!

In former days you praised her style,
And spent much care to win her smile;
'Tis just as well now worth your while —

Tell her so!

There was a time you thought it bliss
To get the favor of one kiss; A dozen now wont come amiss —

Tell her so!

Your love for her is no mistake — You feel it, dreaming, or awake — Don't conceal it! For her sake,

Tell her so!

You'll never know what you have missed
If you make love a game of whist; Lips mean more — than to be kissed!

Tell her so!

Don't act, if she has passed her prime,
As though to please her were a crime.

Jokes About the Klondike.

Cleared a Million.

NEW COMER (in Klondike)—That fellow over there looks as if he had struck it rich. I suppose he's working some rich "placer."

MINER — Placer nothing. That's Freezim, the ice magnate. He's got a monopoly on all the ice up here, and he's shipping it down to the States. He has cleared a million already.

He Had Been Well Fixed.

As though to please her were a crime!
 If e'er you loved her, now's the time—
 Tell her so!

She'll return, for each caress,
 An hundredfold of tenderness!
 Hearts like hers were made to bless!
 Tell her so!

You are hers, and hers alone;
 Well you know, she's all your own; Don't wait to "carve it on a stone"— Tell her so!

Never let her heart grow cold—Richer beauties will unfold;
 She is worth her weight in gold!
 Tell her so!

Saturday Aug 20, 1898
Paul Lauffer of Dunbar and Alice, or I should have said Mr. & Mrs.
Dunbar returned from New York.
We had been expecting them hourly
+ at last they came.
Lora Leromwell was here and we had a jolly reunion,
had supper, then
walked over to the cars with Lora, returned, talked
and retired. James came in very late did not see Paul until Sunday morning. On the same night of their arrival, Col W. Med. was aroused by some excitement opposite us every thing was out & the boarder of the Obier's was arrested.

Sunday Aug. 24

Every one tired & sleepy, the two men met & seem to get along well, as James remained out so long we were oblig to have dinner with him.

He took Mr Dunbar out on the team in the morning. Companys came in the afternoon & evening. James still out until quite late that night.

Monday, Aug. 25 (22)
Ma. Alice & Mr Dunbar with baby went car riding. I was quite ill so could not go, as they started late they were a little disappointed by not taking the bride expected.

Alice had a little accident with baby in her arms.

James came home early & was with me until they returned. The same night the Dr. came to see me.

He then had a game of stix but I could not finish
the game as I was very ill.

I was excused, they had supper, then
retired.

Before the game commenced, we had words, that is game time, about causing us to wait so long for him.

Tuesday, - Aug. 23
After much changing & running Alice & herhus

they rode through Cambridge and visited. All the principal parts &
places of interest
Mr. Dunbar is charmed.
They had lunch at Bow St. Jaynes
was with them
a long while.
I took baby down
but they had gone remained quite a while.

As the storm was coming up pretty rapidly I started for home and to my pleasant surprise Paul

met me at the cars in Arlington
with a carriage
so we got home
in good shape +
a little style.

James came in very late, as usual but we were all up as we had been playing cards until late.
had a pleasant
time.

Wednesday - Aug. 24.

The first Adisapi
-printing day of all.

James promised to take Paul

to Concord for a fishing expedition.
had told us all about it and made plans, but being called away suddenly so he claims, to Newport the fishing
did not take place.
Paul, Alice, & I went in to Boston
met at H. D. Leno's office from there
went to Marston's
and had dinner.
After a very pleasant time we started for home
played cards,
talked and had fun.

Thursday Aug. 25.
Well, at last, Paul and James got off
on their fishing
excursion.
They claimed to have had a jolly time, brought home lots of fish which we had for breakfast next morning.

Maudie Trotter called but as Paul had not returned from fishing, we did not see him.
When the fishermen did come home, we had a big supper

after supper we played artist,
drank champagne & had music.
It was one o'clock
when we came up stairs.
A delightful eve.

Friday, Aug. 26
This fall I had lunch at the Boats' Club including baby and spent a very pleasant day.
Bill & Paul had dinner at Miss Lewis'.
Mama, baby & we came home

I found a telegram
for Paul.
When they returned home it was found to be a message for Paul's immediate return to New York.
So he left us.

Saturday morning at a very early hour.

We enjoyed his visit exceedingly and disliked very much to have him leave us so suddenly.

We sent each member in the house a present which was very nice of him as the general character

characteristics of the negro is to be ungrateful and disloyal.
We would like to have Paul visit us again as his visit was a source of pleasure.

 Friday "khiz"
 I gave a "khiz"
 party for Alice before she left for Washington.
 Quite a success and every one enjoyed it and all
 went away satisfied. Mrs. Brown won the ladies'
 prize, Mr. Brown the gentlemen's.
 James as usual
 lied & pretended
 he had business & could not be present, but he watched his wife's house.

September 1898
 This summer of '98
 shall live in my memory as a delightfully pleasant
 one. Alice spent it with us and her visit

I am very uneasy about him &

soon be alright.

Nov. 2. Wednesday
My dear James is much improved he seems to be in good shape
once more; but not very high spirits. I should not wonder when that dirty cur Mitchell is always

talking to my mother about him and saying such mean
things, he is so jealous of my husband & so mad that Alice & I treat him (Mitchell)
with such contempt
he don't know what to do or say.
James is going to take me to matinee this day
I am so pleased
I shall surprise him by wearing a new suit I bought Monday.
I did not tell him of it. I said

($10.00) ten dollars for it, the best bargain that I've made for a long while. I know James will like
it.
The other surprise I gave him was when I showed him my photo
I had taken.

Nov. 3 I cut a small piece of baby's hair.
I intend to have James put it in his locket on his watch.
Matinee was beautiful, we had lovely

seat two rows from the stage.

We attended the foot ball game of the year between

James is telling me
lies as usual
about staying out at nights. I pretend he is working.

I don't know for I have done all I can to make her

give her all I can but she seems to want more.

I have deprived my

Nov. 17, Thursday.

James went away
this morning. He went to New Haven
with Harvard Team who are to play football with Yale
on Saturday Nov. 19.
We are all extremely anxious and if Harvard will win
James is quite busy.
I expect him home
on Sat. night or Sunday morning.
We miss him.

out a magnificent set of furs.
They are perfectly longly and I am
tickled to death.

I have all the furs that any one would, I could wish for.
These last set of furs were a surprise
until I almost lost my breath.
