

MSS295 Thomas M. Reynolds letters to Louisa J. Seward, American Civil War Digital Collections: Letters, Special Collections, University of Delaware Library, Newark, Delaware.

Special Collections Department, University of Delaware Library / Newark, Delaware 19717-5267 / Phone: 302-831-2229 / Fax: 302-831-6003 / URL: <http://www.lib.udel.edu/ud/spec/>

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

Use of materials from this collection beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law. Permission to publish or reproduce is required from the copyright holder. Please contact Special Collections Department, University of Delaware Library, <http://www.lib.udel.edu/cgi-bin/askspec.cgi> Transcriptions by Center for Digital Collections staff.

Camden Dec 23rd/61

My Dearest Lou

Your thrice welcome letter came to hand on last Teusday Evening and I assure you it was read with pleasure for I had waited anxiously for its arrival. When I broke the seal and saw my name thus written by your dear pen. I could forget that it had been weeks since I had heard from you. Had you have written nothing more I could if possible have loved you dearer even for that. We sometimes conclude that words are [inserted text] when [end inserted text] separately taken; of very little importance yet when a [underline] dear word [underline] is uttered by one we love, one who we believe, yes we know, will not utter it falsely, then it is, that they are divine then it is that they live brightly in memory [inserted text] halls [end inserted text]

My Dearest-Lou
Camden Dec 23rd/61
Your thrice welcome letter came to hand on last Teusday Evening. And I assure you it was read with pleasure, for I had waited anxiously for its arrival. When I broke the seal and saw my name thus written by your dear pen. I could forget that it had been weeks since I had heard from you. Had you have written nothing more I could if possible have loved you dearer even for that. We sometimes conclude that words are ^{where} separately taken; of very little importance, yet when a dear word is uttered by one we love, one who we believe, yes we know, will not utter it falsely, then it is, that they are divine then it is that they live brightly in memory ^{halls} and will ever live, even after the voice that uttered ^{them} shall have been hushed forever. You since the receipt ^(of your letter) and indeed some days before, up til last Saturday evening I suffered very much with the Neuralgy in my face which kept me awake almost night and day except when I taken something to make me sleep. This Lou is the cause why I did not write immediately after I received your letter.

I was glad to hear that you were home again and that Joshua's oldest Daughter can dispense with your presence for awhile at least, just here I would remark that the news reached Camden some days since that Mr.
Williams was dead, it surprised me very much indeed. for I thought him a very healthy man. You remarked that the protracted meeting at Bridgetown and will ever live, even after the voice that uttered [inserted text] them [end inserted text] shall have been hushed forever. Lou since the receipt [inserted text] of your letter [end inserted text] and indeed some days before, up til last Saturday evening I suffered very much with the Neuralgy in my face, which kept me awake almost night and day except when I taken something to make me sleep. This Lou is the cause why I did not write immediately after I received your letter. I was glad to hear that you were home again and that Joshua's oldest Daughter can dispense with your presence for awhile at least, just here I would remark that the news reached Camden some days since that Mr Williams was dead, it surprised me very much indeed for I thought him a very healthy man. You remarked that the protracted meeting at Bridgetown was in progress, you have had beautiful moonlight-evenings during the time. I guess you have not forgotten how well I like them and you can judge how I should have enjoyed them had I been in Maryland, for it doesn't take much effort to recall to mind many moonlight-evenings we have attended Bridgetown. I enjoyed them a year ago and could I enjoy them less now? no! no! I loved you then and you are dearer now.

I must hasten on. The interesting and very instructive experience of the Lady you spoke of. must I think inevitably be the experience of every individual that in the divine ordinance of Matrimony, places his or her hand and not their heart-upon the altar No doubt Lou it was interesting and I must hear the whole story sometime when an opportunity is afforded.

was in progress, you have had beautiful moonlight evenings during the time. I guess you have not forgotten how well I like them and you can judge how I should have enjoyed them had I been in Maryland, for it doesn't take much effort to recall to mind many moonlight evenings we have attended Bridgetown. I enjoyed them a year ago and could I enjoy them less now? no! no! I loved you then and you are dearer now. I must hasten on. The interesting and very instructive experience of the Lady you spoke of must I think inevitably be the experience of every individual that in the divine ordinance of Matrimony places his or her hand and not their heart upon the altar altar No doubt Lou it was interesting and I must hear the whole story sometime when an opportunity is afforded.

There is very little news in Camden at this time. the young Folks are looking forward with considerably anticipation. The boys are eagerly hunting Boxes Barrels etc for a grand "Bon fire" to morrow night. this and an occasional report of a Torpedo or Firecracker which some little urchin throws under ones feet, is all that I find to remind me Christmas is near, of course I get a glimpse occasionally of Doughnuts and Molasses Candy &c. But enough of this. This morning I arose from my bed by 5 O'clock and walked down to Church to hear the old Father Hearsey preach, perhaps you have heard him if not you ought to hear him some morning about as early as I did this. without your breakfast and I assure you that you will experience a fearful attack of the Blues Fidgets or something similar.

I hope you will start on your visit in Delaware as early at least as you anticipate. I have something to tell you or at least I have some business with you that I will not speak of at present. and perhaps not till I see you.

Sue Roe and John Lee were in town Sunday morning only halting a few minutes. I would love to fill a page on the peculiar state of the great war question of the day but I have not room and it is now 12 O'clock at night.

In conclusion let me wish you a happy Christmas, ~~wishing~~ that the period which you once looked forward to with the fervor of a child's hope, may it yet be pleasantly enjoyed. I can say no more only that I shall spend it as becomes me most occupying the position I do in every respect. Oh that I could spend it with you in Maryland but cannot - Excuse all errors and be sure to write very soon if possible. I am as ever yours only T M Reynolds
Lou J Seward

There is very little news in Camden at this time. the young Folks are looking forward with considerably anticipation. The boys are eagerly hunting Boxes Barrels etc for a grand "Bon fire" to morrow night. this and an~~occasional~~ report of a Torpedo or Firecracker which some little urchin throws under ones feet, is all that I find to remind me Christmas is near, of course I get a glimpse occasionally of Doughnuts and Molasses Candy +c. But enough of this.

This morning I arose from my bed by 5 O'clock and walked down to Church to hear ~~the~~ Old Father Hearsey preach, perhaps you have heard him if not you ought to hear him some morning about as early as I did this without your breakfast and I assure you that you will experience a fearful attack of the Blues Fed gets up something similar.

I hope Lou you will start on your visit in Delaware as early at least as you anticipate for I have something to tell you or at least I have some business with you that I will not speak of at present and perhaps not till I see you.

Sue Roe and John Lee were in town Sunday morning only halting a few minutes. I would love to fill a page on the peculiar state of the great war question of the day but I have not room and it is now 12 O'clock at night. In conclusion let me wish you a happy Christmas, ~~wishing~~ hoping that the period which you once looked forward to with the fervor of a child's hope, may it yet be pleasantly enjoyed. I can say no more only that I shall spend it as becomes me most occupying the position I do in every respect Oh that I could spend it with you in Maryland but cannot - Excuse all errors and be sure to write very soon if possible
I am as ever yours only

T M Reynolds

Lou J Seward