Rep. J. Caleb Boggs Addresses Local Lions Club Tuesday

Calls Community "Bedrock" Upon Which Welfare Of Our Nation, World Is Built

U. S. Representative J. Caleb Boggs, speaking before the members of the Newark Lions Club on Tuesday night, congratulated the group on the active part it is taking in the solving of the great problems connected with the recent development here, and warned that each citizen must continue to take an active interest in their solution.

"The community is the bedrock upon which the welfare of our nation and all countries of the world is built," said the Republican nominee for governorship of the state, "and until we can solve the problems present there we can not hope to build a better and stronger nation or world."

Rep. Boggs pointed out that although there are many serious problems facing the city of Newark, other towns in the state are facing similar situations. All of them are due, he said, to the rapid development of the entire state.

"In order that all of these problems be solved to the best of our ability," Boggs said, "not only do the communities have to work together, but there must be a strong and healthy state government working for the intelligent solution along with the residents of all communities."

a result of the new street a chance to be heard on the subject. At the same time Council will decide what compensation will be awarded to those persons to be deprived of property.

It is reported that the new street will cross the property of several residents of the area, none of which have been contacted regarding the obtaining of the necessary right of way.

Property owners concerned are William J. Barnard, Elizabeth Grimes, Ralph Whitman, and James Lumb.

Work on the project will be delayed—possibly a month or more if there are any legal entanglements—until the matter of right of way can be decided.

If any of the property owners are dissatisfied with the compensation awarded them by Council for the property they are deprived of, they may take legal action through the Superior Court of the State, at which time a group of impartial property owners will be appointed to fix the amount of damages to be awarded the owner.

Councilman William Coverdale of the eastern district brought the matter of right of way to the attention of Council last week and stated that in his opinion someone had "bungled" the job.

J. Francis Neide, city engineer, answered the charge by stating that it was the duty of the state highway department to obtain the proper rights of way and that despite considerable effort on his part he had not been able to get the state highway representative here to take care of the matter.

Recreation Association Feels Much Accomplished During Year

"The interest in Newark's recreation program during the past summer has been most gratifying and we feel that much has been accomplished with the limited means at our disposal," George Neighbors, association president said this week in summing up the year's activity.

"Playgrounds and the new swimming pool were well patronized," he continued, "and I would like to take this opportunity to thank all who contributed money or time to making the program the success it was."

In commenting on the new outdoor pool, Mr. Neighbors pointed out that many improvements have been made during the past few days. Large rocks have been cleared from the stream, branches and brush cleared away, and sand by the ton spread on the banks to eliminate the muddy conditions.

Although the picnic area is still available for use, the president emphasized that the pool is officially closed and sanitary inspections and lifeguards are no longer provided by the group.

Any and all interested parties are invited to take part in these weekly work sessions each Thursday evening.

Considerable criticism is being expressed around the city about the plan to have children who do not use school buses attend the afternoon sessions at the Newark Elementary School this year.

This plan will be in effect for the students of the first and second grades. Basis of the criticism is the fact that the children will be released at 4:30 in the afternoon just as traffic from local plants is homeward bound. Parents of the children are very much concerned about their having to negotiate this tremendous traffic rush at such a late hour.

It is their opinion that the children who use the buses should attend the afternoon sessions since many of them are carried directly to their homes by the bus. Others may live some distance from the bus route but at least they will not have the heavy traffic to contend with like the city children. Then too, since there would be a small number of children involved who have a distance to go from the bus, parents could meet them at the point they get off the bus it was pointed out.

The argument makes sense to us. Personally, we would never allow our children to come home alone at such an hour under present traffic conditions. On the other hand you can imagine the problem which would arise if many parents decided to meet their children at dismissal time. Traffic conditions around the school would be made almost impossible.

Indications are that the decision to divide the pupils in this way was forced on the local school authorities by the fact that the state, which pays for the bus transportation, refused to pay for the extra trips which would be involved if the bus-transferred children were to attend the afternoon sessions. The bus would have to make a trip in the morning to pick up those rural children in grades higher than the second and then would have to return later to get those in the first and second grade. The same two trips would be necessary at the close of school.

If the decision stands the way it is now, and we don't know how it could be any different if the state refused to finance the extra trips, then a large number of traffic directors who would be stationed at the various crossings must be provided.

If the Newark police are unable to furnish the necessary personnel by increasing the number of part-time employees, then it would appear that the Newark school system will have to bear this responsibility.

These young children can't be allowed to make their way home alone at such an untimely hour.

Newark Gains Last Place With Two Losses To Chesapeake City

Double Shutouts Bring Newark Record To Fifteen
Losses In Eighteen Contests For League's Lowest;
Elkton Clinches Pennant With Victory Over Hickory

Newark fought its way into last place in the Susquehanna League on Sunday as the local club dropped a double-header to Chesapeake City, 9-0 and 4-0.

In shutting out the Newark club with two hits in each contest, Chesapeake City won almost as many games as it had during the entire season up until Sunday. Prior to the games their record stood at three wins and fourteen losses.

Newark earned its claim on the last-place slot by rolling up the largest record in the league, three wins and fifteen losses.

Chrysler Corporation received an assist in the Newark team's showing, according to Manager Leroy Hill, Jr. Several of the regular players on the club were unable to play on Sunday due to the fact that the local Chrysler plant required their services that day.

Just to be opposite, Elkton won its seventeenth victory of the campaign Sunday to clinch the Susquehanna League pennant. They have lost only two.

Sunday's clincher was at the expense of second-place Hickory to the tune of 10 to 7. Harry Anderson, who played with Newark in the recent state semi-pro tournament, led the Elkton club at the plate with four hits, including a pair of home runs.

Bunny Blaney, .320, Is Only Other To Reach .300 Mark;
Hal Kinnart Leads Pitchers

Heading into the last week of Susquehanna League competition only two Newark hitters can boast of batting averages over .300.

Bobby Laws is leading the club with .346 in 26 attempts for a healthy .346. Bobby Blaney, fleet outfielder, holds down second place with .320 in 53 times at bat for a respectable .320.

Bobby Hock, who left the local club in the early part of the season to set the Interstate League on fire, is the only moundman to equal the .500 mark. Bobby won one and lost one while with the team.

Hal Kinnart has the most wins with two. He has dropped three games.

Motocycle Aces To Meet Sunday At Langhorne Track

100-Mile Championship To Feature Card; Bill Huber Looking For Third Victory

The greatest motorcycle riders in the Nation will converge on the world famous Langhorne Speedway this weekend for the running of the 100-mile National Motorcycle Championship. Saturday the Novice and Amateur riders will decide their title events with a series of sprint races and the two days of activity will be climaxed on Sunday with the running of the only century classic sanctioned by the American Motorcycle Association.

Bill Huber, defending champion and current holder of the world's record, will attempt to be the first rider to annex three consecutive triumphs. In addition to last year's Reading ace also won in 1950.

Dick Klamfoth, winner of the Daytona Beach classic and the Leona road race will again try for the grand slam in the cycle sport. So far the Langhorne classic is the only major event that has found the Ohio speedster missing when the checkered flag was dropped.

Al Wilcox, of Trenton and Leon Applegate, of Burlington, looms as threats to annex the major laurels in the popular sport. Both of these boys are veteran campaigners with a great deal of experience around the Bucks County course.

Stan Myers, of Doylestown and Jimmy Chann, former record holder who originally made his home in Bridgeport, N. J., are expected to make a strong bid for the title. Myers will be driving a foreign cycle recently imported from Germany.

Among the standouts who will appear in the starting field of close to forty will be Billy Hill, spectacular Ohio ace who will be gunning for his first century win; Bill Miller of Mountville, Pa., second man in the 1951 event; Paul Albrecht, sprint champion from Sacramento, Cal.; the veteran Babe Tancredi, Rhode Island policeman and part time cyclist and Jullau Wooleyhan, former Canadian champion. The race will start at 2:30 P.M.

62 Gridders Report For First Practice At Newark High

Intra-Squad Scrimmage On Saturday Will Conclude Week Of Light Workouts

Sixty-two candidates reported on Monday for the opening practice session of the 1952 edition of the Newark High School football team.

Head Coach Fred Spasato and his assistants, Line Coach Ray Ciesinski and End Coach Bob Schwartz, put the group through a light workout aimed at ironing the kinks out of muscles and joints in preparation for heavier work ahead.

A light blocking drill performed without pads was the heaviest work of the day. Following a week of light practices, the candidates will get their first opportunity to display their talent on Saturday when Coach Spasato has scheduled a full-dress intra-squad scrimmage.

"With that scrimmage as a guide," said the Yellowjacket mentor, "we will be able to tell a little better what we can expect from the boys during the coming season. Several of the boys reporting are first-year students here and so far we know only their names."

Spasato pointed out that indications are that the Yellowjackets will have a big, heavy forward wall with the boys from tackle to tackle averaging a whopping 185 pounds or more. In contrast, he continued, the backfield will be light with the emphasis on speed and deception. Passes may play an important part in our offense this year, he concluded.

Asked if he would use separate offensive and defensive units, Spasato answered "If we can. It looks right now as though three or four of our

Foxcatcher Trophy Valued At $5,000

The duPont gold cup, which is part of the prize for the Fair Hill Steeplechase, one of the supporting attractions of the Foxcatcher National Cup Steeplechase, is probably one of the most costly trophies of its kind in racing. In pre-war and gold standard days, this massive gold cup was valued at $3,500. Today it is easily valued at $5,000 or more. The cup is solid gold and stands more than 20 inches high. It is presented by Miss Amy duPont and can be won for permanent possession by an owner winning the Fair Hill three times.

The race is over a two-mile brush course for three-year-olds and up, and carries a purse of $1,200.

Thus far seven owners have a leg on the cup, and among them are some of the outstanding steeplechasing enthusiasts in the country. They include F. Ambrose Clark, Mrs. Marion duPont Scott, C. Mahlon Kline, G. H. Bostwick, and others.

The thirteenth running of the Foxcatcher, the greatest spectacle in American racing, will be held Saturday, September 6, at Fair Hill. Other events supporting the Foxcatcher and the Fair Hill will be the Cecil County Steeplechase, about three miles over a flat hunting country; the Big Elk Flat, at one mile and seven furlongs on the turf, and the Lewisville Flat Race, also on the turf, and at seven furlongs.

linemen are going to have to play both. But then maybe we will be able to find enough material in the new boys to enable us to use two units as we would like."

Poetry comes nearer to vital truth than history.

Lehigh Has Troubles As Pre-Season Practice Begins

Finding suitable replacements for eighteen veterans from last year who were graduated in June is the big job facing Bill Leekonby, Lehigh head coach, as he prepares his football team for the season opener.

Lehigh, defeated by the University of Delaware Blue Hens in the season opener last year, will play host to the Hens at Bethlehem, Pa., on October 4.

According to Leekonby the main worries will be a new offensive backfield and the left side of the offensive line.

During the past two seasons the charges of the former Brooklyn Dodger halfback have produced sixteen victories against two losses.

Dave Douglas Wins $600 To Bring Total To $14,158

Dave Douglas picked up $600 over the past weekend to bring his total golf winnings during the current year to $14,158.

Putting together 4 rounds of 67-69-71-69 for a 36-hole total of 276, Dave ended up in a three-way tie for seventh place in the Wayne Open Golf Championship played in Fort Wayne, Ind.

237 State Drivers Lose Licenses During July

A total of 237 automobile drivers lost their car registrations and operators licenses during July for failure to comply with the provisions of the state's financial responsibility law. This was revealed this week by Harry P. Jones, director of financial responsibility division of the Motor Vehicle Department.

Of the 552 cars involved in accidents in the state involving damages of $100 or more, 244 were from out of Delaware. 154 of the owners did not have protection through insurance.

Others of first importance, according to OPS, are record high incomes and employment, record high savings and spendable money in the hands of the American public, increasing defense production, decontrol of all fruits and vegetables, and continued improvement of business generally.

Employment now totals well over 62,000,000 persons. Defense production is not expected to reach its peak for another year and a half, about the middle of 1954. OPS said. Both savings in banks and income from wages and salaries have never been higher.

As to business conditions during the months ahead, a recent survey of some 1200 business leaders forecast increased sales and continuation of high income. In addition, almost all the executives interviewed expect either to continue or increase the number of people they now employ. OPS said. Meanwhile, a check of food prices disclosed that fresh fruits and vegetables, not price controlled, were two, three and even more times higher than a year ago. Prices of white potatoes, paid by housewives, are now ten or more cents a pound, compared to earlier OPS ceilings of about seven and a half cents. These are but a few of the pressures which are likely to continue for some time to come OPS concluded.
