ARREST DEPUTY ON DOG CHARGE

CASE THROWN OUT WHEN IT IS APPEALED

Miss Wilson Opposes Action of Wideman Over
April Burial

DENOUNCES OFFICERS

Situation Termed "Pitiful, Neglectful and Shameful" by Ladies

Prospects for bringing the troublesome "dead dog" situation to a head here were frustrated yesterday when a case against Deputy Game Warden William Wideman was dropped by Miss Elizabeth E. Wilson, "Oaklands," Old Oak Road.

Following a complaint Monday from Miss Wilson, Magistrate Daniel Thompson issued a warrant for Wideman's arrest on a nuisance charge.
Chief of Police William Cunningham served the warrant.

Wideman waived a hearing before Magistrate Thompson yesterday and elected to have the case tried by the Court of Common Pleas, Wilmington.
Game Warden Clarence Foster posted bond of $50. Miss Wilson, however, not wishing to spend the time and money in pushing her claim, dropped the charge.

Discourtesy Prompts Arrest

Resenting the manner in which he addressed her when she notified him of the improper burial, supervised by him, of a dog, which he had killed on her farm in April, and further resenting his refusal to do anything about the situation, were the reasons given by Miss Wilson for requesting Wideman's arrest.

According to her statement, Wide-man shot a stray dog on her property on April 11, and, with the permission of David Boulden, tenant farmer, buried the remains there. Two Negro youths, Charles Roy and Francis James, did the actual work under Wideman's supervision, Boulden said.
The farmer, who had just returned to the place when the shooting occurred, became occupied with his own affairs and left Wideman to his task, with a warning to "bury the dog deep enough," he added.

Odor Rushes Investigation

During the extreme hot weather on May 9 and 10, residents of the farm were almost driven from the place by a foul odor that pervaded the entire premises. Having forgotten about the buried dog, an intense investigation was made around the farm.

Boulden, who conducts a model dairy farm and who enjoys one of the highest bacteria-count records of any shipper to the Philadelphia Milk Shed, was reminded by a neighbor some four days later of the dog. The remains were found near the barn in a

Local Critics Review "Dover Road" For Post

Two excellent criticisms of the University Players' production, "Dover Road," offered Tuesday night at Mitchell Hall, have been written exclusively for THE NEWARK POST.
T. W. Keithley, Jr., and Carl Bleiberg are the authors of the reviews.

The management regrets that receipt of the articles was too late for publication in this issue but offers assurance that they will be included as an added feature of our release next week—May 28.

Firemen Called To Two Small Blazes

The Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company was called to the home of Tolbert Chalmers on the Capital Trail, to extinguish a chimney fire early last Thursday. The house is owned by George Chalmers. There was no damage.

As the firemen were returning, they were directed to the North Star Orchards, north of Newark, owned by J. Simpson Dean and tenanted by James Peterson, where a shed had caught fire. Mill Creek firemen had the fire under control when the local organization arrived.

Recognizes Warrant— Frown Follows Smile

Summoned before Magistrate Thompson on a charge of maintaining a nuisance, Deputy Game Warden William Wide-man laughingly responded to Chief of Police William Cunningham's query of "do you know what this is?" with a hearty "sure that's a warrant."
"Ha, ha yourself," said Cunningham, "it's for your arrest."
The warrant was sworn out on Monday by Miss Elizabeth
E. Wilson, "Oaklands."

FUND SHORTAGE FACES SCHOOLS

The State Board of Education at its meeting, May 15, authorized the publication of the following statement:

There appears to be a common misunderstanding of the condition of the school finances of the State.

It is currently reported that there is a considerable surplus in the School Fund and this has given rise to the belief that new projects and new activities in school affairs could be undertaken without curtailing expenditures under the existing system.

The truth is, unfortunately, that the schools are facing a vanishing surplus and a declining revenue so that even the maintenance of the existing budget may soon be a financial problem. Last year, for example, current school expenses exceeded current school income.

Balance Shrinks Fast

At the beginning of the school year
July 1, 1935, the balance in the School Fund not pre-empted was $3,358,- 086.66. On May 1, 1936, the total amount available for school purposes and not pre-empted was $1,048,049.80.
That this balance may be required for current school expenditures during the next school year seems not impossible from what has happened during the present school year.

One of the main sources of school revenue is the franchise tax and the Secretary of State has recently pointed out the sharp decline in the receipts from these taxes.

The State Board of Education feels it necessary to bring this matter to the attention of those connected with or interested in our schools.

The disturbing question is being forced to the front, must there be a return of school taxes, the head and property tax, from which Dela-wareans have been relieved in recent years?

Dial Phone Installation For Newark In Summer

In preparation for the introduction of the dial method of telephone operation next fall in Newark, Holly Oak, Delaware City and Hockessin, the Diamond State Telephone Company on Monday, May 18 began installing dial instruments in the homes and business establishments of telephone users.

In making this announcement, J.
Edward Murphy, Manager for the Telephone Company, stated that the initial installations are scheduled to be made in Holly Oak and vicinity.
The installers will come to Newark on July 20 to change the telephones in this central office area. The Company's program calls for the installation of dial telephones in Delaware City and Hockessin to begin early in September. Several weeks will be required for completion of the installation work in each town.

Mr. Murphy stated that construction work on the new telephone building in Holly Oak is virtually completed. New buildings to house the dial central office equipment in Newark and Hockessin are being constructed.

May Mart Funds To Be Used For Welfare Work

According to the report issued by Mrs. Leon H. Ryan, chairman of the May Mart Committee, the affair held last Saturday was a big success. Although the definite amount of the proceeds is not known, Mrs.
Ryan said, that the amount cleared will be over $400.

Funds will go into the general treasury of the P. T. A. and will be used for health and welfare work.
Appreciation is expressed for the fine cooperation of the Continental Band, Lions Club and the merchants of Newark who supported the Mart so enthusiastically.

A large crowd was on the grounds all day and enjoyed the games and sport events held for its entertainment. Following the program held during the day, a dance was held in the Newark High School Gymnasium.

Commanders Make Poppy Day Appeals

An appeal to all veterans of the World War and other patriotic citizens to pay tribute to the war dead by wearing memorial poppies on Poppy Day, Saturday, was issued today by Walter R. Powell, commander of the J. Allison O'Daniel American Legion
Post; and R. E. Reynolds, commander of the local unit of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Both leaders urged generous contributions in exchange for the flowers to aid the war's living victims, the disabled veterans and families of the dead and disabled.

Police Here Hold Man For Ohio Authorities

Arousing the suspicions of housewives on Orchard road, where he was begging for food Tuesday morning, a ragged panhandler gave the name of John Adams when picked up by Constable Wilbur Bush.

Showing evidences of being slightly demented, the suspect, who says he is 34, was held on a technical charge while his description was broadcast over the teletype by Delaware State Police.

A response from Columbus, Ohio, leads local police to believe that the man is wanted there as an escaped inmate of the Ohio State Hospital.
He admits having been confined in the institution but claims that he was discharged in 1932.

Local Committee Thanks Patrons for Subscriptions

The undersigned members of the Newark Committee for the membership drive in the Wilmington Community Concert Association wish to thank the people of Newark for the cooperation given last week in the purchase of memberships. It is a matter of real regret that many of the subscribers were unable to get the $5.00 memberships.

The sale went over in a larger way than anyone thought possible for the first year, and the Playhouse was sold out by noon Saturday. Unfortunately this was too late to prevent subscriptions being taken from more people than it was possible to accommodate.

Those who are disappointed this time will be given the opportunity to purchase memberships for future concerts before new names will be considered. A fine series of concerts is now assured to Wilmington and vicinity for the coming winter.

Signed: Mrs. T. D. Mylrea, Miss
Elsie M. Wright, Miss Edwina Long,
Miss Freda Ritz, Miss Helen A.
Russell and Dr. George W. Rhodes.

STUFFED FLANK STEAK—A DELIGHT!

A stuffed flank steak, such as one pictured above, is the answer to many a housewife's prayer for a meat dish which is both attractive and economical. This flank steak, deliciously browned and served with fruit and vegetables, is a real delight.

A flank steak in order to make it tender is cooked by the method known as braising. It is browned first on both sides, then a small amount of water added, the skillet or kettle covered tightly and the steak allowed to simmer slowly either on top of the stove or in a slow oven. More water may be added as needed, but only a small amount at a time as each time the liquid evaporates, the steak becomes that much browner and that much more delicious.

In the photograph shown above, two small flank steaks have been sewed together and stuffed. If the steaks are small, it will require two, but if large, only one is needed as the stuffing may be piled in the center and the edges sewed around it. For sewing, simply use a large darning needle and clean white string, and sew the edges together in large overcasting stitches. If two steaks are used, you may have them sewed together on three sides at the market, leaving one side free to insert the stuffing. After the steak is stuffed, sew or skewer the open side to keep in the dressing.

The kind of a stuffing you prefer depends upon personal preference. There are few more tasty than a real sausage stuffing. Here is the way it is made:

Sausage Stuffing with Flank Steak

1/2 pound bulk sausage
2 tablespoons grated onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 cup bread crumbs
Salt and pepper
Stock or water

Fry the sausage with the onion and parsley, stirring constantly until the meat is cooked enough so it separates into particles. Add the crumbs and seasonings and enough liquid to make a moist dressing. Season the steak with salt and pepper and pile the hot stuffing on it. Sew the edges together, brown in hot lard, add a small amount of water, cover, and cook slowly until done, forty-five minutes to one hour.

Frequently, a flank steak is scored at the market, that is, the steak is cut across making diagonal lines. This cuts the long fibers and makes the steak more tender.

To serve, the flank steak is cut across in slices so that there will be both meat and stuffing for each serving.

The accompaniments served with the stuffed flank steak may be any ones that you desire. On the platter shown above, tiny baby beets and baked spiced pears are used. A potato dish, such as mashed or browned potatoes, and the delicious gravy made from the flank steak drippings are all that you need to complete the main course of the meal.

Workers Dine To Open $10,000 Y. W. C. A. Fund

The $10,000 campaign for the Delaware Young Women's Christian Association summer camp opened Monday night when 150 workers from the state, outside of Wilmington, dined in the Wesley M. E. Church, Dover.

Mrs. Richard L. Cooch, Newark, who is chairman of the drive, headed a list of dignitaries at the speakers' table. Both Mayor Woodford and Mrs. Cooch extended greetings to workers and guests.

"Where is your blue feather is a question being asked all over Delaware this week," Mrs. Cooch stated. Wearing a blue feather stamped "Young Women's Christian Association" is evidence of having contributed toward the $10,000 goal. "Every man and woman in the state should wear one, since it is proof of an investment in Delaware girls, the women of Delaware tomorrow. Youth, this week, is challenging the state and Delaware will not fail its girls," Mrs. Cooch confidently stated in closing.

Mrs. Ralph W. Jones, South College avenue, is key woman for workers in this community.

Knights of Pythias to Attend Services Sunday

Oscar Lodge, No. 5, Knights of Pythias, were entertained Monday night with motion pictures. Robert Strahon was in charge of the entertainment. Following the show, refreshments were served.

On Sunday the members of the order, accompanied by the members of Friendship Temple No. 6, Pythian Sisters, will attend the morning service at the Newark Presbyterian Church where a special sermon will be preached by the Rev. H. E. Hallman.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Attends Church Services Sunday

"Services held last Sunday morning at the Newark M. E. Church were well attended by the American Flag Council No. 28," said A. Neal Smythe, publicity head of that organization, in an interview this week.

"Dr. White gave a well delivered sermon on 'Loyalty,'" Mr. Smythe continued, "as he laid stress on our loyalty to God, organization and brotherhood."

"Our attendance," Mr. Smythe said, "took a slight drop last Monday evening. No doubt some were backward about getting wet," Mr. Smythe laughed.

"Several members spoke on 'The 3rd Anniversary of Juniorism,'" he continued, "and Brother Colmery read some interesting and startling information on immigration problems that confront the country."

On Tuesday night, 25 members were guests of the Middletown organization. Regarding this Mr. Smythe said, "We regret more did not go, but they did good work at home tending the children, so the good wives could have the night off." He laughed for the second time during the interview.

Many Attend Eastern Star Banquet at Georgetown

Naomi Knauss, worthy matron of Chapter No. 10, Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Lydia McCloskey, Mrs. Gladys Armstrong, Mrs. Edna Sparks, Mrs. Martha Krapf and Mrs. Lettie McMullen, all of Newark; and Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson Abbott, of Wilmington, attended the Grand Chapter Banquet held at Georgetown on Tuesday evening.

Many Guests Present at Meeting of D. A. R. Thurs.

Mrs. Harry L. Bonham, 22 Amstel avenue, Newark, entertained Cooch's Bridge Chapter D. A. R. on Thursday afternoon. A huge flag hung in front of the doorway served to mark the house for members and guests. Spring flowers brightened the interior. Mrs. Sam Park, a former resident of North Carolina but now of Newark was a guest. Other out-of-town members and guests were: Mrs. Ruth A. McKinsey, Mrs. Mary L. Foreman, Mrs. Lucinda Shriner, Miss Greta McKinsey of Wilmington and Mrs. Sarah Beals, of Dorchester, Mass.

Reports of the National Conference at Washington last month by Mrs. Ernest Frazer, and Mrs. Shriner, were most entertaining and were greatly enjoyed. Considerable business was transacted and the formation of a C. A. R. in Newark was discussed and approved. Mrs. G. S. Skinner was appointed to organize the group.

The chapter went on record as approving a change in the by-laws whereby the date of the Winter Conference which has always been held in February will be changed to March. Bad weather in February has prevented many from attending the Conference. It was thought that more members especially those from down-state could attend if the date was moved from February to later in the season.

The Good Citizenship medal will be awarded to Miss Betty Hearn at commencement this year. In addition to this award, two prizes will be awarded; one to the boy and one to the girl of the Junior Class of the Newark High School who stands highest in American history. Mrs. Ruth A. McKinsey, regent, will present these prizes.

On Tuesday evening, the Minnehaha degree team, under the leadership of Captain Vaughn Heavell, went to Wilmington, where they adopted four pale faces in the wigwam of Cherokee Tribe, No. 4. The team was accompanied by a number of other members of the Tribe.

Frank Taberski, Jr., son of the former world's pocket billiards champion, will practice law upon his graduation at Cornell in June.

Extension Service

A complete report of investigations conducted by the Agricultural Experiment Station of the University of Delaware relating to the control of insect pests which have been making serious inroads into the Delaware grape industry has been published by L. A. Stearns, W. R. Haden, and L. L. Williams.

In Delaware, where a considerable expansion of the grape industry took place between 1920 and 1930, the grape has always been more or less subject to attack by several insect pests which limit production by injuring the roots, foliage or fruit. The rapid planting during the period of expansion in a comparatively small area aggravated insect infestation and complicated the control problem, according to the authors of the bulletin.

Within a short time, serious annual losses were sustained which were directly attributable to the grape leaf-hopper and the grape-berry moth. The leaf-hopper is a member of the group of insects which obtain their food by sucking the juices of the host plant. The leaf-hopper confines its feeding to the under surface of the leaves. The resulting injury varies in proportion with the intensity of the annual infestation.

The grape-berry moth in its larval stage is injurious to the grapes themselves.

Results of investigations and methods for the control of these two pests outlined in the Bulletin Number 198, entitled "Grape Leaf-Hopper and Grape-Berry Moth Investigations," which may be obtained from the University of Delaware, Agricultural Experiment Station, Newark, Delaware, without cost.

The condition of winter wheat, rye, tame hay, and pastures in Delaware on May 1 was below that of a corresponding period last year and below the average May 1 condition for the period 1923-1932, according to word received at the University of Delaware from J. A. Ewing, Federal Agricultural Statistician for Delaware, whose offices are at College Park, Md. Mr. Ewing's figures show that winter wheat was off six points when compared to last year's while rye was five points lower and hay was 14 points lower than the 1935 figure. Pastures, however, showed the poorest condition, being given a rating of 69 as compared to last year's May 1 rating of 84 and the 1923-1932 average of 77.

At the time the May 1 survey was made, extensive frost injury to strawberry, apple, and peach blossoms was reported, indicating a low production of these crops in 1936.

Indicated wheat production for Delaware this year is 1,530,000 bushels as compared to the 1935 production of 1,658,000 bushels and the ten year average production of 1,800,000 bushels. Rye production is down 2,000 bushels from last year with 70,000 bushels indicated for this year as compared to 72,000 bushels last year and the ten year average of 82,000 bushels.

Unevenly distributed rainfall and extreme temperatures are given as the chief reasons for the decline of 1936 crop prospects.

Milk and egg production have been showing the usual seasonal increases and both were running slightly heavier than at the corresponding time last year.

Three Delaware Graduates Receive Army Promotions

Three second lieutenants of the 621st Coast Artillery, Organized Reserves, graduates of the University of Delaware R. O. T. C. course, have completed requirements and have been granted certificates of capacity for promotion to the rank of first lieutenants. They are: Robert Glover, Jr., 2210 Baynard boulevard, and Gilbert F. Moore, 715 Rodney street, both of Wilmington; and Smith C. Toulson, Jr., of Montchanin.

Jimmy Caras, of Wilmington, Del., who is pocket billiards champion, is the youngest player to win this title since Ralph Greenleaf first annexed it in 1919 at the age of 19.

MEET THEM WITH A SMILE

Saturday the women of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will be on the streets with baskets of memorial poppies to be worn in honor of the World War Dead. They will work throughout the day, distributing the little red flowers and gathering contributions for the welfare of the disabled war veterans and the families left in need by the death or disability of a veteran. Their unselfish efforts will give every individual in Newark an opportunity to pay personal tribute to the men who gave their lives for the country, and to extend a helping hand to those who sacrificed health, strength and happiness on the altar of patriotism.

The Auxiliary women are the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of men who served in the war. They will do the hard, unaccustomed work of Poppy Day without any recompense except the knowledge that they are helping keep bright the memory of the war dead and helping keep hope in the hearts of those who are bearing the war's burden of suffering and privation. They deserve the thanks and applause of the entire town.

When we meet these women on the streets Saturday, let us all show understanding of the work they are doing. Let us meet them with a smile of appreciation and put on our poppies, glad for the opportunity they are bringing us to honor the nation's heroic dead and aid those still within reach of our help.

SPRING IN THE ATTIC

Spring is here! And it's about time for householders to start their semi-annual house-cleaning. While doing that, they should keep a weather eye out for the common fire hazards that multiply in homes during the winter season.

Dangerous hazards can be found on every floor of the average home. Start in the attic—look at those dog-eared magazines, finger-marked books that no one will ever read again, the battered furniture you inherited from Aunt Millie and put out of sight as rapidly as possible. By disposing of such junk, the chance of fire can be greatly reduced.

Then come downstairs and go through the closets. There you'll find clothes of the 1920 vintage—worn-out dust mops and cleaning rags and paraphernalia—waste matter of a dozen different kinds. Fire likes nothing better as a starting point.

The cellar probably resembles the attic—plus a few special hazards of its own. Paints and varnishes, often found in topless cans, are usually inflammable and some are actually explosive. Gasoline, benzine and solvents have caused many a big fire—store them properly, if you don't want your house added to the destroyed list.

Now go outside. Is the grass yellowing, are there piles of twigs and boughs in the yard? If so, the fire demon is lurking just around the corner, waiting to get to work.

And so it goes, in homes and places of business and abandoned houses and uncut fields. A relatively small number of ordinary hazards are responsible for the great majority of all fires. Make your spring "house cleaning" a personal fire prevention campaign as well.

PRAYER FOR A WRITER

By Harry Franklin Harrington

Help me, O Lord, in a land of borrowed ideas to keep and develop what originality I already possess.

Make me more aggressive, more interested and alert in my daily contacts with people and with life, that I may find fresh material on which to write.

Increase, O Lord, my power to observe and feel and think, and to express my inmost thoughts with daring incisiveness and pungency.

Forgive my indifferent spelling and my careless literary lapses, and prune my manuscript of faded phrases and dangling sentences. Give me the courage to say resolutely, "I don't know," and then to go out unashamed to discover the right answer.

Help me to cultivate constantly at least one major interest, and to enjoy at least one recreation and hobby.

Give me an abiding pleasure in the arduous task of writing, keeping in mind always my obligation to win the interest of my reader.

Keep my mind well filled but never closed, and free me of conceit, buncombe and pose, so that I may do my daily stint honestly and thoroughly, and without too much expectation of applause.

Let me not be too greatly discouraged by rejection slips, remembering that acceptance cometh in the morning.

And when my typewriter is covered with dust, O Lord, add to my unfinished story a happy ending to all I have dreamed and thought and prayed.

Amen.

HOBBY RIDING WITH MAX CHAMBERS

Boat Making

Up and down the shores of the Chesapeake Bay, hundreds of Bay sailors are patching, painting and building boats. Even thinking of boats takes us lands away to adventure in all climes. And talking about adventure, Richard Haliburton, probably America's outstanding adventurer, visited the State Teacher's College at Salisbury on April 22. He spoke that night on his journeys and mentioned the "S. S. Haliburton," as he called himself when he sailed through the Panama Canal under his own power from ocean to ocean.

No place in the East offers a more interesting location for adventure in boat building and boat sailing than this country of ours. There are more different types of boats on the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries than any other body of water in the world.

Boat building has changed a lot since Noah built the Ark which lacked the style, grace, and sailing qualities of the Chesapeake Bay log canoe. Captain J. B. Harrison is a "master builder" of these fast boats which often live a hundred years. Caulk Kemp's "Island Bird," hailing from St. Michaels, is the fastest log canoe on the Bay. Wm. Mason Shehan, Jr.'s "Star Dust" is champion Star boat. There are hundreds of others which you can see when the regatta season opens. This year you will no doubt see some cellophane sails on some of the star boats and "scrappy cats."

Carl M. J. Von-Zielinski, owner of Johnson's Island, has built a complete model fourteen feet square rigger which he sails on the Bay. She is rigged as a brig and has seventeen sails. Rev. John White, an Episcopal minister, is making a complete set of models of all Chesapeake Bay craft. This will be a real museum exhibit when completed. A former resident of St. Michaels, Captain Robert Landon, spends his spare time making models at the Old Men's Home in Baltimore. All over the peninsula ship models are to be seen in show windows, in dining rooms and on the home mantels.

Boat modeling is a happy hobby and costs little to ride for most of the material can be salvaged. If it is a sailing boat you want you can find ample designs in the books listed below:

Boat Book—Popular Mechanics; Outdoor Motor Boats—Burnham; Wooden Boat Building—Van Goss-bek; Big Book of Boy's Hobbies—Hale.

Newark Students Give Gym and Dancing Program

A physical education program was given Wednesday morning at the Newark High School assembly. Miss Ethel Johnson and Harold J. Bant, physical education instructors at the school, directed the proceedings.

Both girls and boys went through tumbling and parallel bar work, and military and clown tap dances were also presented. The chief novelty of the program was a horse, which was impersonated by Barbara Benedict and Margaret Dawson. The program closed with a minuet.

CHOOSE POSITIONS

Members of the 1936 Vanderbilt football team will play the positions they like best.

Coach Ray Morrison, believing that a player will do better in a position he likes than in one foisted on him, asks each candidate reporting for spring practice: "What position do you desire to play on the varsity?"

And the candidate's answer decides his position.

HEY MOTORISTS! LISTEN!

JANGLED NERVES!

By THE LITTLE ENGINEER

WE all know the type of driver who lacks decision, who drives in starts and spurts and who is a nervous wreck after a day's motoring.

We all know the type of passenger who spends every moment in the car peering at possible dangers, jamming on the brake involuntarily, criticizing the driver and generally having a miserable time.

When driving or riding we have all had moments of motorized jitter over the actions of people in our car or in other vehicles. Most of this is just plain nerves totally unnecessary and actually harmful to you and others. Perhaps the most comforting thing to remember is that when professional racers are driving at speeds of 120 miles an hour on the tracks they are thoroughly relaxed. They have schooled themselves to avoid any tenseness that might give them the wrong reflexes in emergencies.

Here are some driving rules that will save wear and tear on the nerves:

Don't bawl out other drivers; don't let their misbehavior rattle your temper. They'll get theirs eventually.

Don't be annoyed by trifling traffic delays and mix-ups.

In case of accident or mishap be practical and calm instead of hysterical and inefficient. What has happened is finished; what takes place from then on is largely up to your good sense.

Maintain a steady moderate pace. A rule book for passengers might begin like this:

Your driver has been motoring for years without accident. He knows his car and his own ability to control it better than you do. Have faith in him.

But if you know him to be reckless, a veteran of many accidents and prone to drive on the left side of curving roads at high speed, take a train or go to another car.

If you have the habit of jamming on imaginary brakes in imaginary emergencies and wish to stop it ride with your wrists and ankles crossed. It works.

Three in a Seat and Room to Spare

The positive increase in seat width and headroom clearance dimensions in Nash built cars has proved a triumph in passenger comfort for long journeys or short. Six passengers are accommodated with comfort and extraordinary freedom in the sedan type models—three on a seat and room to spare. Nash engineers achieved the increased interior dimensions by using the extra space that resulted from all-steel, one-piece body construction, an advanced feature of Nash and LaFayette body design. For summer driving and long touring the new roominess factor is a distinct advantage.

decomposed state and had become infested by vermin and flies.

Miss Wilson, as an owner of the property, appealed to local Board of Health officials for help. Her pleas were denied on the grounds that they were powerless to act.

Wideman Spurns Request

Extending a call to Wideman, Miss Wilson stated that she was rudely turned down by that official. She added that Wideman frankly told her that burying dogs is not his business and that he is not paid to remove such animals. The warrant for Wideman's arrest followed.

Statements given by the three owners of the estate—the Misses Martha R., Elizabeth E., and Alice Wilson—Mr. Boulden and workers indicate that the dog was buried in a shallow grave and that it was not covered by more than four inches of dirt over any portion of its body.

They also added that due to the proximity of the barn and milk shed, the purity of the farm's principal source of revenue had been greatly endangered.

Pays For Burial

Following an informal statement from State Sanitary Engineer R. C. Beckett to the effect that property owners would be expected to dispose of remains in such cases, the Misses Wilson paid an attendant for completing the job.

While dropping the charges against Wideman on the grounds that they can neither spare the time or money to push the case, the sisters, scions of an aristocratic family that settled here more than a century ago, are bitter in their resentment of the situation which they term "pitiful, neglectful, and shameful."

Baldwin Makes His Newark Debut

This article is a little off the "movies" but still in the line of entertainment. Freddie Baldwin (the Dizzy Dean of the Bi-State League) made his Newark debut Sunday, and the baseball fans of this town sure liked him (like a rattlesnake). Their "booming" was right up Freddie's alley. Only pitching 3 and 2/3 innings he did not allow a run to cross the home plate and struck out 6 men, laughing at them as they went back to the bench looking like a bunch of licked dogs. In spite of the brilliant pitching of Baldwin, Newark won the ball game 6 to 4.

Freddie has an understudy by the name of Elmer and can talk a good game. You don't have to take my word for it just ask the fans that sat or should I say, stood, along the first base line. To my opinion, which is one in a million, these two should be put in the "movies" to show how the game of baseball should be played.

Capra the No. 1 Man of Filmland

Frank Capra, the director with the "magic touch," is conceded to be one of Hollywood's most interesting personalities. He has made so many consecutive hits that the film colony regards him with awe. Every actor who has ever worked with him will vouch for his kindness, humanness and charm which are reflected in his work. Capra started out to be a scenario writer. He still keeps on hand all his pictures' scripts from the time he started in the film business. He has had a picture in "the best ten" as far back as 1926. What studio would not want him to make a picture for them, having a record like the one of this great man.

State Theatre House Notes

If you like real entertainment with thrills, laughs, tears, and action then see "Small Town Girl" at this theatre Friday or Saturday. Janet Gaynor and Robert Taylor have the leading roles in the film, supported by Lewis Stone, Binnie Barnes and many other screen favorites. Both Miss Gaynor and Mr. Taylor reach new heights in the stirring story about a modern runaway marriage brought about by the rural girl's effort to escape the boredom of a small town that is snuffing out her life. Janet's work as the small town girl is outstanding as is Robert's role of a young doctor who wakes up in his car to find he is married and who takes his wife on a honeymoon to avoid a scandal and then refuses to even speak to her.

"Desert Gold," a thrilling western, will be added to the bill on Saturday.

Monday and Tuesday will find the oddest, gayest comedy-romance since Adam ribbed Eve! "The Moon's Our Home" starring Margaret Sullivan, Harry Fonda and Charles Butterworth. It's a swell story about a movie queen, and a world-famous explorer, who ran away from the autograph hunters and bumped into each other. The story was adapted from Faith Baldwin's Cosmopolitan Magazine serial.

Jimmie Allen, the idol of millions of radio fans, makes a thrilling screen debut in the Paramount production "The Sky Parade." America's most popular birdman takes you on an exciting air adventure that blazes new sky thrills. This new star is supported by a fine cast including William Gargan, Katherine DeMille, Kent Taylor and Little Billie Lee. The Richfield Oil of New York broadcasts this territory over 20 important stations reaching a potential listening audience of more than 20,000,000 people. If you have not heard these programs listen to radio station WOR, Newark, N. J., or KYW, Philadelphia. Then see this young star on the screen in one of his thrilling adventures on Wednesday or Thursday evenings.

Avenue Theatre

"Captain January" Shirley's Latest
A famous story becomes Shirley Temple's greatest picture as the tiny, dimpled Fox star returns in "Captain January," at the Avenue Theatre, Monday and Tuesday.

Adapted from the beloved tale by Laura E. Richards, the new picture is a heart-tugging drama of a lovable little girl and a sweet, old sailor, set in a lighthouse on the rocky coast of Maine.

How Guy Kibbee loves and protects this tiny waif he had picked out of the sea years before, how he loses her to a vixenish old truant officer and eventually wins her back again is revealed in the fascinating plot of "Captain January."

Shirley performs a series of tinkling new steps, including a delightful novelty called "The Multiplication Table Dance," and sings three brand new songs. The hit of the three, all with music by Lew Pollack, is "The Right Somebody to Love." Slim Summerville, Buddy Ebsen, lovely June Lang and Jane Darwell are the principal supporting players in the picture, directed by David Butler.

The Liberty Bell Rings Again

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN

National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

Recently the Liberty Bell was "rung" again in Philadelphia.

At its guarded shrine in Independence Hall the famous relic was tapped with a rubber mallet and its deep tones were broadcast into homes throughout America and many parts of Europe.

On this occasion the Bell was sounded in the cause of peace. To the people of America and other lands it carried the message of our desire to live honorably in amity with all nations. But there are other messages which the Bell that has made glorious history could carry throughout the world.

It could remind us at home of the courage and strength and passionate desire for personal liberty on which our fathers founded and developed this nation.

It could carry to the regimented millions of Eastern Europe a reminder that it was in devotion to those principles that America attained a greater measure of well-being and happiness for all its people than any nation on earth.

It could recall to the autocrats and the people of central Europe the glorious history of a nation which wrote tolerance and freedom of religion into its fundamental law, and has devoted itself to those principles through 150 years of liberty.

It could remind the men and women of southern Europe that peace and happiness find their surest resting place where the people, not a dictator, rule the land.

Those are some of the principles for which the Liberty Bell first rang a century and a half ago. If today it can strengthen those principles, not only at home but abroad, it will have performed another great service to mankind.

OLD COMPANY'S ANTHRACITE

ROAMIN' WITH RUTLEDGE

Odd Ones

Prior to last week-end, outside of Trust, Aberdeen shortstop, every lead-off man in the Bi-State League was a second baseman — Bridge-water, Newark; Cooney, Perryville; Warpole, Providence; Myers, Havre de Grace; and Dennison, Elkton. Shifting batting orders moved Warpole to the bench and Dennison far down in the list.

"THE ROAMER"

Jim Barnes, local life insurance peddler, holding forth on the end of a dock at Chincoteague Island, astounding natives by "thumbing" a boat ride while on a fishing party with Dick Ware, John Stephens and Harry Cleaves of the Press of Kells last Saturday. The gang "caught" a lot of sunburn and exactly five fish.

RWR

Mighty Mike

While sluggers in the Bi-State League have been making it tough for pitchers so far this season, it remained for little Mike Peterson, Providence's scrappy catcher, to show the other hitters a few tricks last Sunday.

Playing against Havre de Grace—on the wide open spaces of du Pont Field, where he received no help from short fences—Mighty Michael came up with a collection of five bingles in as many times at bat. His string included three home runs, a triple and a single, good for 16 total bases. He scored four runs and drove nine across the plate, making him responsible for 13 markers.

The trio of homers in one game equals the mark set by Harold Koppe, then playing for Perryville, last year. Mike's figures for total base and runs responsible for, are new league records for one game.

Altogether Mike gathered seven hits in eight times at bat against Havre de Grace pitching last week-end. His average for the season jumped from .286 to .448 which is rapping the leather in any league.

RWR

More Hitting

Aberdeen registered 20 blows to outdistance the Jackets, 10-9, in ten heats, last Saturday. Perryville, leading the pack by two full games, and the local tossers' next opponent, tagged Elkton pitching for 23 blows, good for 20 runs, on Sunday. Just a warning to Manager Bridgewater and his charges.

As a matter of information and comparison, the Newark team is hitting .308, while Perryville's mark is ten points better. Strangely enough the Pandours have scored ten more runs than the Jackets, 67 to 57 in seven games. Newark has collected 83 hits good for 111 total bases, while Perryville, on one less hit, has made them count for 113 total bases.

Thus, according to the figures, you have two teams of almost equal strength. It should be a grand pair of battles this week-end. Local fans who don't go to Continental Field on Sunday should be ruled off forever.

Perryville is undefeated while the Jackets sport five victories against two defeats. It is up to the New-arkians to halt the leaders if they hope to remain within striking distance of the first-half bunting.

James Cleo Collins, city high school student at Chattanooga, Tenn., is only sixteen, but his youth did not keep him from winning the gruelling five-mile foot race held in his home city recently.

JACKETS TO BATTLE LEADERS

First Post Tennis Tournament Plans Take Shape

PETERSON, PROVIDENCE, BELTS TRIO OF HOME RUNS IN GAME

Undefeated Pandours Next Jacket Foe; Baldwin's Great Pitching Wasted; Fans Thrilled; Papermakers Win As Catcher Gives Record-Breaking Performance; Crucial Games This Week

By "The Roamer"

Three crucial series are on tap in the Bi-State League this week-end as arch foes entangle for positions on six fronts. With Newark and the undefeated Perryville Pandours going into action for the lead in the first-half pennant scramble; Aberdeen and Havre de Grace will attempt to smash a third-place deadlock; while Providence, finally getting on the winning track, will meet Elkton in an attempt to climb out of the basement.

Saturday's card calls for Newark at Perryville, Elkton at Providence and Havre de Grace at Aberdeen. Probably the biggest gathering of the season will view the Perryville-Jackets scrap at Continental Field on Sunday (weather permitting), while Providence plays at Elkton, and Aberdeen struts its stuff at Havre de Grace.

The Jackets divided with Aberdeen last week, losing on Saturday, 10-9 in ten innings, and downing the Cannons, 6-4, on Sunday here. Perryville registered two more triumphs, 7-0 and 20-3, over Elkton, while Providence, after bowing at Havre de Grace on Saturday, 11-0, smashed through to take a 14-5 slugger bee on Sunday.

Weird Baseball Played

While Mike Peterson, Providence receiver, and Manager Freddie Baldwin, Aberdeen's deluxe outfielder and flinger, were turning in brilliant individual exhibitions, action was wild and wooly with much weird baseball being played around the loop.

Leading Providence to victory over Havre de Grace, Peterson established a pair of new records and equalled another as he tagged the sphere for five hits in five times at bat. His string included three home runs, a triple and a single. He figured in scoring 13 runs—a new mark. His collection of total bases, 16, is another new figure. His trio of homers equals a previous record made by Koppe, Perryville, last season.

Baldwin gave a pitching exhibition at Continental Field Sunday that brought forth rounds of applause from a hostile but admiring gallery. After loading the sacks in the eighth frame, the eccentric southpaw proceeded to deftly retire Bridgewater, Edmondson and George, the lead off end of Newark's batting order for the day, via the strikeout route. The last pair went down swinging while Bridgewater took the third strike with his bat on his shoulder. "Bully" Mitchell started for the Cannons.

Errors Galore

Aberdeen, sinking the Jackets for their second straight loss, overcame a 5-run advantage in taking Saturday's decision, Wilkinson, making his first appearance following an emerggency transfer from Perryville, held Newark in check after relieving Carter in the second inning. The Cannons counted twice in the ninth to tie (Continued on Page 7)

HIGH SCHOOL "9" SMASHES SLUMP; WIN TWO IN A ROW

Proving the adage that it never rains but what it pours, the Newark High School baseball warriors humbled a pair of rivals this week to smash a heretofore winless record that has been carefully piled up during a now waning season.

Welcomed for coming at a belated date, the victories were doubly cherished in that they were scored over a pair of arch foes to somewhat lessen the pangs of a painful campaign.

Meeting an accumulation of pseudo tossers billed as the University of Delaware Jayvees on Monday, the schoolboys romped off with an easy 13-5 triumph. "Slim" Hill pitched for the winners with George behind the bat while Dunlap and Perry hurled to Hodgson for the college array that included many of "Doc" Doherty's varsity combine. Egnor and Ewing clouted home runs for the youngsters.

"Lefty" Wright had New Castle eating out of his hand yesterday, fanning 14 opponents as Newark registered a 5-1 victory. George did the receiving. New Castle's battery was Dobson and Pedrick, pitchers, and Riley, catcher.

RACE IS WIDE OPEN IN SOFT- BALL CIRCUIT

Leaders Toppled In Upsets As Teams Engage In Bitter Fight

KNIGHTS STOP CHAMPS

Five teams, separated by a mere 1½ games, are entangled in a red hot fight for the lead in the Newark Soft-Ball League as a result of surprising defeats handed the earstwhile undefeated pacemakers—the Mainstreeters and Knights of Pythias—this week.

Downing the 1936 champions, 8-6, Tuesday night, the Knights took a temporary lead but fell a victim of the aroused Aetna outfit last night to fall, 13-10. It was the initial defeat for both the Mainstreeters and the Pythians.

Although outhitting the Lodgements, 12-9, the champs were unable to make them register effectively as a 4-game winning streak went to smash. The Pythians saw a record of three straight victories go by the boards when the Firemen climbed into a second-place tie on Wednesday.

In the other games of the week, the Firemen humbled the Red Men, 18-13. The Streeters spanked the Boy Scouts, 14-2, during the rain Monday night. The luckless Golden Eagles dropped two, 31-1 to the Presbyterians, and 7-0 forfeit) to the Boy Scouts.

KEEN RIVALS EXPECTED TO VIE IN TEST

Affair Will Start On June 22 With Seeded Lists to Close June 1

ENTRY BLANKS READY

Local Tennis Club Planned; May Affiliate With State and M. A. L. T. A.

By "Doc" Nichols

(Staff Correspondent)

With plans for the tennis tournament sponsored by The Newark Post well under way, the organization of a local tennis club, affiliated with the Middle Atlantic Lawn Tennis Association, is the next step toward putting Newark on the map as a tennis town. Such an organization could well be a part of the Newark Country Club.

Such enthusiasts as the defending champion, Ned McCull, the Laskaris boys, Marshall Manns, and Jack Sinclair are expected to be among the first to sign up for the tourney. Numerous members of the young set, such as Harold Tiffany, Bob and Guy Hancock, Alex Cobb and others are invited to swell the ranks.

Competition To Be Keen

No one man can be absolutely sure of winning the event as competition will likely be very great, especially among certain members of the tennis group, as a definite rivalry has grown out of the past. The introduction of new blood into this rivalry will, in all probability, serve to lend an added spice to the tourney. Couple this with the fact that a handsome silver statuette trophy is the reward and a grand scrap for the said trophy is the outcome.

The opening matches of the tournament will get under way on June 22, in order that all summer school students who wish to play may be accommodated. Definite hours for the play-off of matches will be arranged and the participants in such matches notified in due season. Failure to appear at the hour will mean the defaulting of the match by the tardy player.

Three set matches will comprise the opening settees. Semi-final and final matches will consist of the best three sets out of five.

Entry Blanks Ready

All persons wishing to take part in the tourney are asked to sign the official entry blank, and return it, with the entry fees, to The Newark Post, care of the Tennis Editor. All entries are subject to the approval of the tournament committee. Umpires will be appointed to see that matches are run off according to schedule and to remove the burden of close decisions from the shoulders of the players themselves. All participants are urged to send in their entries before June 1, in order that players may be properly seeded.

LOSES PRO NINE

Charlotte, N. C., has lost its professional baseball team in the Piedmont League, but has entered a club in the Carolina semi-pro league.

FLASHES

By BILL FLETCHER

WE BOW IN HUMILIATION at the gentle reminder given us by Dave Sloan, peerless sports editor of The Review. Sloan, ever alert, was kind enough to inform us that the name of Ed Thompson was omitted from last week's column.

"BILL" FLETCHER

It was unfortunate, and we do not hope for vindication, for Ed has been somewhat of a landmark as far as Delaware athletics are concerned. A star in three sports, Ed has been an outstanding performer in baseball, football, and basketball. He made his exit from the Delaware sport world when he scored four touchdowns against Washington College to send the Shoremen down to the worst defeat suffered at the hands of the Hens in a long time.

The next day he was dismissed from the squad for breaking training rules.

We sincerely apologize to Ed, and offer as our only excuse the fact that the blaze of glory with which he departed must have scorched our memory. And anyway, his record speaks for itself.

THE BLUE HEN'S ACE, quarter-miller had a tough time of it at Swarthmore, the scene of the Middle Atlantic Championships this year. Joe finished sixth in a field of six, but it was only because he was tackled, ribbed with elbows, knifed in the back, and almost planted under six feet of earth as he heekly tried to run the distance in his own sweat way.

According to reports, as he rounded the first turn, something which felt like a ton of bricks, but was in reality a big Lafayette man's elbow, pounded into his mid-ribs. The race was won by a guy whom Joe had beaten in a coast-in the day before in the qualifying heats, who ran the distance in the time of 51.8.

IF COOPERATION is not lying dormant within our fair city, there is a fine possibility of a town tennis team being organized that will play regularly scheduled matches under the sanction of the Delaware State Lawn Tennis Association.

"Doc" Nichols, local enthusiast, is making every effort to put the idea across, but his efforts will amount to nothing if every person who has had a racquet in his hand does not pitch in and help.

The tournament this year will take on a more official appearance, with a trophy and two medals being awarded to the singles and doubles winners.

It is hoped that the enlarged plans will attract many of the local players who shied from participating last year, and we earnestly urge their cooperation in making this a success.

When potential plans are completed, a Newark Tennis Club will be formed and it is hoped, through the cooperation of college authorities, to receive permission to use the university courts.

NEWARK WILL ALSO be the scene of an eight-mile marathon on June 6. About 25 entries will race for five loving cups and five medals, which will be awarded to those finishing in the first ten.

Among the entries will be Jack Sharp, transfer from Columbia, who has had considerable experience in long distance running.

He's enthusiastic about the sport, which is probably the explanation for (Continued on Page 7)

DO YOU REMEMBER THIS HISTORY MAKING CREW?

The classy outfit pictured above won the Tri-County pennant for Newark in 1914. Membership in the circuit varied between Newark, Elkton, Oxford, Elk Mills, Rising Sun, North East, Perryville, Havre de Grace and Aberdeen. With many of the same towns supporting teams in the Bi-State League this year fans are wondering if the 1936 Jackets will duplicate the feat of the 1914 aggregation. Those in the picture are: left to right, Back row—Clarence Grant, gateman; Elmer Ellison, manager; Harry Hill, gateman; John D. Grant, president; and John Steele, gateman. NEWS NOTES HERE AND THERE

Mrs. Alfred Curtis is able to be out again after a long illness.

D. Lee Rose moved his family last Friday to the Bungalow opposite the Red Men's Home.

Conrad Lewis, pupil in the sixth grade, Grammar School, who has been threatened with appendicitis, is improving.

Twelve Newarkers enjoyed the dancing at Kemblesville last Friday evening. The trip was made in Strahorn's transfer. The party was composed of Mrs. L. B. Jacobs, Mrs. Lewis Thomas, Miss Winnie Fader, Nell Wilson, Laura Fader and Louise Sentman; Messrs. Will Smith, Harry Snelman, Clarence Major, Eugene Mandelman, Lee Lewis and Norman Ferguson.

A party from Newark attended an informal dance at Elkton on Friday night. Misses Elsie Wright, Cornelia Pilling, Eleanor Pilling, Edith Spencer, Ethel Campbell, Marion Campbell, Ruth Davis, and Katherine Bowen; Messrs. Hart Scott, Eph. Jolls, Richard Taylor, Harrington Heisler, George Chambers, Robert Raughley, Mixin Wilson composed the party. Mrs. John Pilling and Mrs. H. M. Campbell chaperoned the crowd.

Mr. John W. Dayett and wife spent Saturday with their son, Sherman Dayett at Yeatman's Mills. Mr. Dayett assisting with the art he is so familiar with—the making of fine flour.

Mayor Joseph H. Hossinger, Victor Willis and Scarborough made a visit to Mr. Willis' cabin along the Susquehanna recently and enjoyed the fishing in the vicinity. In addition to about 50 fine perch and some other fish they caught three snappers weighing about 20 pounds each.

The name of John Doyle was omitted from the list of second grade pupils on the honor roll of Newark School, last week.

Death of John Reed

With his head and face horribly mangled and dragging on the ground, John Reed, aged 37, a hand on the farm of Charles Walton about three miles from here, was found dead in a sulky by Walton at 2:15 o'clock Sunday morning. Foul play was suspected at first, it being thought that Reed had been held up and murdered on the road while returning from Newark where he had spent the evening.

Close friends of the dead man, however, are of the opinion that he fell through the front part of the sulky, that his feet were caught and that he was dragged to death.

The horse brought Reed home, but blood and the trail of his head were tracked for more than a mile toward Newark, and it is thought the horse had been walking around for several

CAMPUS CAPERS

By CAM

Last Saturday the campus of the Women's College of Delaware was the scene of one of the many May Day festivities in the East. In the early afternoon the entire ensemble gracefully circled the campus to approach the Queen's Throne near the gymnasium. To close the procession, the Queen and her attendants neared the throne and Miss Elinor Clay ascended to be crowned Queen of May. When the last gaily attired dancer had "tripped lightly over the green-sward" it was clearly to be seen that this year's activities were possibly the most successful ever to be presented on the University Campus. A beautiful Queen, charming attendants, and a magnificent fiesta. May there be many more.

The May Day dance at Old College, featuring Stan Gallagher and his orchestra, topped off the celebration, although the weather was a trifle too warm. Strange as it may seem—of the record crowd present there was not one who was not sober. Some question has arisen as to why Jimmie Stoll and Carlton Baccus, with their respective lady friends, meandered to Elkton in the course of their ramblings. One of the campus wits offered as his suggestion that the State of Maryland is rather easy on "minors." We're quite cerhours. Reed's parents live at Harrington. The coroner held an inquest yesterday and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Obituary

The funeral of Mary J. Perry was held Tuesday from the residence of her husband, Alexander Perry, on Chapel street.

The deceased was 72 years of age. She is survived by three daughters and one son.

Mrs. Perry was the daughter of Nelson Morgan near Smyrna. Rev. G. T. Alderson had charge of the services. Interment in the M. E. Cemetery.

Personal

Miss Jennie Moore was an Elkton visitor Sunday.

George W. Rhodes was a Philadelphia visitor this week.

Mrs. Arthur Wood, of State College, Pa., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr.

G. L. Medill, of Wilmington, visited his parents this week.

Ruth and Margaret Vinsinger are the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Vinsinger, in Elkton.

Mrs. Lewis Thomas left Monday for her new home in Philadelphia.

Mr. Orlando Strahorn and family have returned after a week's stay with Mr. Wesley Worrall.

Miss Natalie Hoeffcker, nurse in training at the Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hoeffcker.

tain he couldn't be right.

Last week one of the not infrequent lounge quarrels terminated in a discussion as to why's and wherefore's of the Jewish national flag. Some of the fellows said it was blue; others said it was striped; while still others remarked that they didn't have one. Zabowski settled what might have been a free-for-all. When asked his opinion on the question he claimed to have a flag of the disputed nationality in his pocket. Friend Zabowski then proceeded to expose his wallet, from which he extracted a one dollar bill and waved it in the atmosphere. Can the statement be disproved?

A lot of fellows thought that Thomas (Bone Buster) Leach was the proud possessor of a Chevrolet coach last week. But no... they were wrong. It seems that a certain young lady at the Women's College commutes to school from Wilmington as does Mr. Leach. Further, the young lady is reported to stop for Tommy every morning (in her car) and permit him to drive her to school. Upon reaching the halls of learning, Thomas finds that he is late for class (?) and, consequently, he drives to the early morning classes like a million dollars. Sorry we had to throw on the cold water, Leachy.

On Tuesday of this week, Professor Walter Prichard Eaton from the Yale School of Drama came to Mitchell Hall with an excellent oration on "English Composition and its History." His lecture was exceptionally well attended, although most all the fellows preferred the rear seats to those in front. As Mr. Eaton himself put it, "it was rather difficult to talk across the Grand Canyon" and he even went so far as to invite those in the very rear to take seats up front. The only one in the entire audience having interest and spunk enough to accept the invitation was Professor Leslie of the Modern Language department. It's tough that more of the Delawarrians are not interested in this sort of thing. The place to sleep is at home.

FACULTY NOT MUCH HELP

When the University of Hawaii's now well-known football team was organized in 1909 there weren't enough players to fill the line-up. Three faculty members thereupon joined the team, but the Roaring Rainbows lost three games to Honolulu high schools.

Delaware Champion 4-H Corn Judges Will Attend Short Course

EVERETT HOPKINS

JOSEPH CHALMERS

EDWARD HUTCHINS

Plans to attend the annual Boys' and Girls' 4-H Club Short Course, which is to be held at the University of Delaware in Newark starting June 17, are being made by several hundred 4-H Club members throughout the State. Among those who are sure to attend the yearly Club round-up are the three county corn judging champions chosen at the State Show of the Delaware Crop Improvement Association held in Smyrna last January.

Edward Hutchins, Hartly, State and Kent County champion; Joseph Chalmers, a senior at Newark High School and the son of Talbert Chalmers, New Castle County champion; and Everett Hopkins, Lewes, Sussex County champion, will receive scholarships to the Short Course as awards for their corn judging ability.

A. D. Cobb, Acting Director of Agricultural Extension Work, is in charge of the program planning for the Short Course and is being assisted by C. E. McCauley, State 4-H Club Agent at Large, and Miss Laura B. Rutherford, New Castle County Agent. A four-day schedule of events is being worked out which will enable those attending the Short Course to broaden their knowledge of agriculture and homemaking as well as meet other 4-H Club members from over Delaware.

The young folks will be housed in the residence halls at the University and will eat in the dining hall at the Women's College. Further information concerning the Short Course may be obtained from the local county club agents: Miss Laura B. Rutherford, Newark, for New Castle County; Miss Helen L. Comstock, Dover, for Kent County; and Miss Anne B. Moore, Georgetown, for Sussex County.

WATKINS SUPERSTITIOUS

George Watkins, left fielder of the Phillies, attributes his improved playing to the fact that Jimmy Wilson put him in left field and promised him he would never have to play center. Watkins, who is superstitious, believes that center field is his jinx.

LEARN ON HOME TABLES

Allen Hall, three-cushion billiards ace, and George Kelly, national pocket billiards champion, are the only two contenders in any title competition who tutored themselves on home billiard tables.

The bee is the only insect which feeds throughout the winter and maintains a sufficient body temperature to keep active, says Harry Kirk, apiculturist.
