BUSINESS MEN SEEK

About twenty Main Street business men and members of the Chamber of Commerce attended the public meeting held in Room 117 of the Newark High School last Thursday evening to discuss present parking conditions and

D. A. McClintock presided over the meeting and immediately declared it open for general discussion, whereupon expressions were offered by most of those present. The concensus of opinthose present. The concensus of opin-ion was that present parking regula-tions are not adequate to cope with conditions and upon action by George Danby, seconded by Herman Handloff, it was decided a resolution be pre-sented to Town Council expressing the views of those attending the meeting and recommending that existing re-strictions on Main Street be amended to read:

stons are not adequate to cope with conditions and upon action by George Enaby, seconded by Herman Handloff, it was decided a resolution be presented to Town Council expressing the views of those attending the meeting and recommending that existing restrictions on Main Street be amended to read:

"One hour parking on the North side of Main Street and two hour parking on the South side of Main Street, from Chapel Street to North College Avenue, between the hours of 8 A. M. and 7 P. M." Under the proposed resolution, there would be no parking restrictions, on Main Street, after seven o'clock in the evening.

George F. Jackson and Cyrus E. Rittenhouse spoke on the opposition being offered to the proposed erection of a garage on the Methodist church property across from the primary school building. Mr. Rittenhouse stated that traffic survey showed this location to be safer than that of any other garage now located on Main Street. In support of his contention he offered figures from an actual count on two days.

On January 27, school children passed local garages as follows: Cunning-On January 27, school children pass

On January 27, school children pass-ed local garages as follows: Cunning-ham's, 74: Diamond Service, 192; pre-sent location of Rittenhouse Motor Co., 10, proposed site of new Rittenhouse Motor Co., 1; On January 28, the fol-lowing day, a count taken of only the proposed Rittenhouse Motor Co., lo-cated showed that nine children, in one group, crossed the street from the high school and proceeded past the lot under discussion. Following the discussion, Herman Handloff proposed that the meeting authorize a delegation appear before Town Council at its meeting, February Town Council at its meeting, February 3, and advise them that the group favored their action in amending the present ordinance to permit the erection of a garage on the Academy Street location. Mr. McClintock appointed George Danby, George Jackson and Herman Handloff to wait upon the council in this respect. No opposition was offered to the proposal. The group was instructed to represent the action as being that of this meeting only and not as the opinion of the Chamber of Commerce, as that body had not yet considered the subject.

Present at the meeting were: Rainby

So many letters have come to me from individuals and organizations requesting that I appoint "special deputies" to perform certain tasks for these individuals and organizations, that I have taken this opportunity to reply to all these requests by the following announce-

The matter of appointing "special deputies" is of such importance that I have asked for and have received a legal opinion concerning my authority to make these appointments. I have been advised that I have no legal authority to make these appointments.

In view of the legal opinion I have received, and as a matter of policy, I am compelled, therefore, to re-fuse all these requests and any future requests that may be made for the appointment of "special deputies".

CHORUS

Will Appear

At Mitchell

This year, the original Don Cossack Chorus, directed by Serge Jaroff, celebrates its twentleth anniversary with its eleventh tour of the United States junder S. Hurok's management, during which it will make its first appearance in Mitchell Hall on Feb. 13. The chorus, which will present a program of Josops and dances which date back a housand years for their origin, will come to Newark under the sponsorship of the Community Concert Association.

In February, 1920, the renowned Don Cossacks Chorus was formed by Jaroft from a band of homesick giants of the Steppes in a prison camp near Constantinople.

The vicissitudes of two decades have left the ensemble comparatively unsagened.

Steppes in a prison camp near Constantinople.

The vicissitudes of two decades have left the ensemble comparatively unscathed. A record of which they are proud is that in four thousand appearances no one missed a concert, and only once was a man tardy for rehearsal.

This, they assert, is not due to the complicated system of fines levied against rule-breakers, but to the strong comparatively in the property of ances no one missed a concert, and on-ly once was a man tardy for rehearsal. This, they assert, is not due to the com-plicated system of fines levied against rule-breakers, but to the strong com-munity of interest and love of their work.

Few changes have occurred in the membership of this organization whose unity and artistry have made it unique in both hemispheres. From the original thirty-four, death took three; and another has been lying in at a Lauter, notwithstanding his inactivity, receives his weekly salary according of a practice instituted by the Don Cosacks' internal government.

WANTED-A NEW ELEMENTARY BUILDING

Somebody has at last brought our Elementary school situation out in the open. Somebody has finally said the present building is outmoded and we need a new one.

Of course, everybody has known it for lo, these many years, but it's one of those things that haven't been spoken of publiclyat least not in some circles. But, now the skeleton is out

Operated as a community project with no means of support, the ambulance has served the people of this community well during the past five years.

But that, like all good things, must end and the end is in sight. Only a little over two hundred dollars remains in the fund for 1941 operation and annual insurance will take the greater portion of that very soon.

To state the matter clearly—the ambulance fund needs to be replicated which have been during fine. We hope the people of this community will realize and appreciate what having available ambulance service, day and might, without obligation, means to them and come forward with donations sufficient to assure the continuance of the ambulance along the same lines it has been operated since its purchase about five years ago.

Fortunately, the prof proved able to inflict only a minimum of injuries and although the sale of aspirin tablets boomed to a new high during the past two weeks, most of the athletes emerged from their semi-annual or-leal suffering with little loss of sleep.

ALL OF WHICH IS VERY EN couraging when you consider the fact that the cost at examination time is that the cost at examination time is suaully one or two key performers in one sport or another. This year, Ed Bardo's swimmers escaped unscathed while Joe Shields lost only Fred Sloan and Lew Selby, two reserve players, from his basketball squad. Two gridders, Ed Carullo and Jim Spillane, were placed on the ineligible list, but both will have an opportunity to pull their standings up by the time autumn rolls around.

WALLS AND HOGAN IN CUE TITLE BATTLE

Move Into Final Round As Beck And Hogan Fall; To Meet Tuesday

Three Wilmington teams invaded the American Legion bowling alleys Saturday night with little success as local contingents walked off with victories in all of the competitions.

A Continental Plant quintet, headed by Paul Whiteman, downed the duPont Experimental Station, 2,579-2,287. Whiteman accounted for a grand total of 563 pins, while Jack Crowley and Al Kite were best for the losers with scores of 485 each.

An American Legion team, paced by Morris Adams with a total of 610 pins, downed Twentieth Century by a 2,599-2450 count. Adams rolled up games of 201, 222, and 187 to compile his brilliant score. Joe Glenn, with a 558-pin total, was top man for the defeated combine.

Another Newark team, with Walter Powell showing the way, handed the Brandywine Alley outfit a 2,601-2,431 setback. Powell accounted for games of 201 and 200 in his first two trips to the boards, but slipped to 169 in his back Renshaw by 100-89, in what

Hogan, in moving to the final oracsstot, overcame a five-ball hurdle to turn his back Renshaw by 100-89, in what pin powed to be another close affair. Hogan will sport a 20-ball handicap when he meets Walls on Tuesday.

SPECIAL OFFERING TO BE MADE

meet three war-caused appeals, it was announced by the Rev. O. A. Bartley, yesterday. The offering plates of 43,194 Methodist congregations in the United States will be simultaneously passed or what has been named "Methodism's Day of Compassion," Sunday, March 2. Members of the local church serving on the committee are: Earl F. Dawson, Mrs. Ruth Runk, Mrs. Howard Wil-liams, J. A. Correll, and Margaret Dawson.

The Rev. Bartley explained the three types of appeal that are consolidated in the Good Samaritan movement:

1—$250,000 to be allotted to the religious and social well-being of young cames and navy yards. men in army camps and navy yards. In some cases, this fund will provide general Methodism's share in creating interdenominational social and relig-ious centers to sustain and build character.

2—$20,000 will be devoted to assist the mother church in England in temporarily easing some of the frightful situations involving in 150 bombed churches. Also, in the south and east of England, there are parishes so dangerously located that almost the entire congregations have evacuated, leaving quite unprovided for the pastors who are staying to minister to those who remain.

3-$500,000 will continue and supple-

3—$500,000 will continue and supplement the Methodist overseas relief now in progress; feeding, clothing and sheltering non-combatant war victims. Since war conditions make added demands on all regular missionary and philanthropic funds both the national and local leaders of this campaign emphasize that this is an emergency offering and must not be allowed to block the flow of giving to the regular world service activities of the church or the result will be the creation of new and equally serious problems. new and equally serious problems.
