THE FEDERATION OF JEWISH CHARITIES OF PHILADELPHIA

330 SOUTH NINTH STREET

December 27, 1933.

My dear Mr. Messersmith:

Mr. Billikopf is out of town for the day and in his absence permit me to acknowledge your recent letter. He will be so glad to learn of your talk with Justice Cardozo.

Judge Julian W. Mack is helping Mr. Billikopf to arrange the dinner for the third of January. It will interest you to know that among the persons accepting are: Mr. Herbert Bayard Swope, Mr. Felix M. Warburg, Justice Irving Lehman, Mr. Henry Morgenthau, Sr. Mr. James Speyer has a previous engagement, but will come after the dinner, in time to hear you.

Mr. Billikopf is doing his utmost to limit the group to twenty-five, though that figure may be exceeded by only a few.

Respectfully,

Chaim N. Chodowski

Secretary to Mr. Billikopf

Hon. George S. Messersmith
