Dear Yvonne:

I am sending you herewith a copy of a letter, with accompanying memorandum, which I have sent to Mr. Graydon in Toronto, which is self-explanatory. I have not been able to indicate the amount of my hotel, both at the Carlyle and at the Mayflower, as Mr. Heineman paid the bill at the Carlyle for me, as well as the whole bill at the Mayflower for our group which stayed there in connection with the signing of the long-term loan agreement. May I suggest that Mr. Heineman inform Amitas or Mr. Graydon of the amount for which he should be reimbursed on account of the bills which he paid?

I was glad to have a talk with Mr. Heineman over the telephone last evening and I will try to call again before you all sail on Saturday. Marion and I wish that we were going with you as I think a sea trip would do us all some good.

I am sending a word to General Franklin, who is the Chairman of the Board of the United States Lines, telling him that you all are sailing on the AMERICA and for him to inform the Captain. I am sure you will enjoy your trip over as it is a very comfortable boat and you should be having good weather this time of year. Most of the stewards in the smoking room have been with the United States Lines for many years and are old friends, and you must give our very best wishes to Gus, who is the big, fat fellow who is always bursting out of his short jacket.

Marion and Helen Hall join in affectionate good wishes to you all and in the hope that you will have a very pleasant and restful trip over, and I know you will be glad to see your family. Give them all, please, our very best wishes.

Cordially and faithfully yours,

Miss Yvonne Jensen,
