Aibel To Appear In Piano Concert At Mitchell Hall

Public Invited To Hear
Award-Winning Pianist
In U. D. Summer Series

Howard Aibel—winner of the 1959 Naumgard Award, one of America's most coveted prizes—will be the pianist in Mitchell Hall at the University of Delaware next Monday at 8:15 p.m.

Aibel began his studies with his mother, an accomplished musician, and at the age of six he performed in Town Hall as gold medal winner of the Music Education League contest.

When he was 12, he had "arrived" at Carnegie Hall. There followed a series of radio and television engagements, including the Kate Smith Show.

He was winner of auditions judged by such eminents as Vladimir Heifetz and Rudolf Serkin.

Horowitz, Olin Downes, Jascha Aibel made his Town Hall debut last November under the sponsorship of the Walter W. Naumgard Foundation, and was winner in 1959 of the Joseph Lhevinne Memorial Award.

He will play a concert of traditional and contemporary compositions.

Local Boys Travel To Philmont Ranch In New Mexico

Five Newark boys, along with a former local Boy Scout now residing in Illinois, are away on a 21-day cross-country bus trip to the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, N. M., where they are spending 10 days in the wide open spaces of the Southwest.

Richard Hawthorne, Barry Jones, Mike Kubicki, George McCaulley, and Bryan McCully of Newark Boy Scout Troop 17, headed by Scoutmaster Ed Smith, were accompanied by Richard Olney, who traveled back East from Illinois to join his "old" friends for the trip back West.

The Newark Boy Scouts are among three busloads of 54 boys who left for Philmont on July 7, and are scheduled to return next Wednesday.

Young George McCaulley called from Dodge City to his grandmother in a nearby Kansas town, reporting that it was all well.

And Grandmother relayed the information home to Newark to relieve the strain on George's spending money.

"We expected to have a good time," the boys reported, "but we're having twice as much fun as we thought we would."

Robert N. Kidwell Awarded New Post In DuPont Change

Robert N. Kidwell of Newark, assistant director of production for the DuPont Company's photo products department, has been placed on special management assignment.

Kidwell has been with DuPont since 1941 in engineering, production and sales. He was manager at Parlin before being named assistant production director in 1958.

A chemical engineering graduate of the University of Texas, he also attended the graduate school at the University of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Kidwell, with their four children, reside at 425 Nottingham Drive, Newark.

Optimist Club To Sponsor Circus For Boys' Fund

The Newark Optimist Club will sponsor Mills Brothers Circus in Newark on Monday, Aug. 29, for the benefit of the Optimist Boys' Fund.

The circus will be set up on a lot off Elkton Road opposite the Park 'n' Shop Center, with a big three-ring tent and menagerie tents.

Harry McKenry is chairman of advance ticket sales, and Dick Hamilton is publicity chairman for the Newark Optimist Club.

VACATION SHUTDOWN

The Newark Post will not be published on Thursday, July 28—the one week in 52 that the paper is not printed, and members of the staff take their annual vacations.

The office and plant at 14-16 Thompson Lane will be closed from Saturday, July 23 through Sunday, July 31.

Commercial printing orders will be received and processed thru Friday, July 22, with deliveries to be made after the week's vacation period.

Six-Year-Old Son Of Sebring Racing Ace Wins Shopping Center Kiddie Auto Event

Mark Hoffstein, six-year-old race driver of 1613 Stoney Run Drive, Northwood, is following in his father's footsteps.

The youngster won his qualifying heat, two semi-final tests, and the final event in the Newark Shopping Center's Kiddie Auto Races last Saturday.

Playgrounds Plan Day At The Races At Delaware Park

A "Day at the Races" will feature the Newark Recreation Association's playground field trip next Tuesday when youngsters from the eight Newark area playgrounds journey to Delaware Park.

The children will be guests of the Delaware Park management and will be treated to a day of touring the clubhouse, grandstand, grounds and stables—viewing the horses warming up—and talking to trainers.

The climax of the afternoon's activities will be viewing the first race from an area especially designated for them next to the track.

The buses will leave each playground at 9:30 a.m., and a nominal fee will be charged to cover transportation.

"Anything Goes" is the theme of next week's activities at the playground. Besides the "Day at the Races," boys and girls again will journey to Rittenhouse Park for their second outing this season, with watermelon, races, swimming and a tug-of-war the order of the day.

New London, Galloway, George Read Village and Cleveland Avenue playground youngsters will be at Rittenhouse Park next Wednesday, and the Jennie E. Smith, Medill, West Park Place and Brookside children will go on Thursday.

Tot-Lot children will visit the zoo on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, leaving their respective playgrounds at 10:30 a.m. under supervision of Marilyn Woodhouse, Midge K'burg, and volunteer mothers.

200 Youngsters Take Tour Of Dover Air Force Base

Some 200 children enrolled for the Newark Recreation Association's eight playgrounds journey to Dover Air Force Base last Monday, where the four busloads of children and adult volunteers of the Parent Playgroup Association were met by Air Force guides who in turn took them on a tour of the base.

The boys and girls were treated to movies of the Air Force in action, an actual tour through a transport plane, and the thrill of seeing jets and transports taking off and landing.

Albert Lewis Completes Army Electronics Course

Army Pvt. Albert L. Lewis, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lewis, 150 Academy Street, Newark, completed the 12-week electronic instrument repair course on July 8 at the Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

Trained to repair and service delicate instruments used in the testing of radio, radar and other communications equipment, Lewis entered the Army last January and completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex.

He is a 1958 graduate of Newark High School and a former student at the University of Delaware.

Miss Jennie Smith Honored With Portrait

Painted by Newark artist Dorothea Donoho, a portrait of Newark's beloved school teacher, Miss Jennie E. Smith, has been presented to the school named in her honor. Miss Jennie retired several years ago after teaching Newark youngsters for a near half-century.

Mrs. Donoho (left) and Miss Smith are photographed with the portrait in the presentation last month in the Jennie E. Smith Elementary School.

"Good Old Days" Scheduled As Features For Annual Farm Field Day On August 3

People who talk about the "Good Old Days," when life seemed less complicated than it does now, will have a chance to relive some of those days at the University of Delaware's Farm Field Day in Georgetown on Aug. 3.

The university is sponsoring an antique farm equipment show and visitors are invited to bring old-time tools and equipment with them and enter the items in the show. There'll be prizes for the best-preserved items, the most unusual, the most antique, etc.

So if you have an old ox-yoke, walking plow, butter churn, or grain cradle out in the tool shed, the attic, or back in the woods—pull it out; polish it up a bit, and bring it along to Farm Field Day. You may win a prize.

Everyone who enters will receive a watermelon that is up to University of Delaware quality standards—so you can't lose.

Show classes include tractors, field and hand equipment, trucks and wagons—and a miscellaneous section for everything that doesn't fit in the first four.

Applications should be sent to the agricultural engineering section, University of Delaware, Newark, by July 28. Your name, address and the name of the item you will enter in the show should be given in your application.

Local Youngsters Win Music Honors With Accordions

Two young accordionists—local students of Anthony P. Zampanti at the Diamond State Music Center, Brookside—won honors among the 1,500 contestants of the National American Accordionists' Association in Chicago on July 10.

Larry, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Baine Curtis, Newark, and Linda, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Cox, Harmony Hills, won prizes in the Junior D and E events.

Larry, a West Park Place School pupil, and Linda, a Medill student, have been studying the accordion for eight and 15 months respectively.

The youngsters were accompanied to Chicago by their parents and by Mr. Zampanti.

A graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Anthony Zampanti has been active as a musician for 22 years as a composer, studio manager for the Gavioli Conservatory of Music in Boston, as assistant conductor of the Gavioli Symphonic Orchestra, and instructor.

Reception At Newark's State Apartments

Newark's Mayor Frank M. Durnall (center) makes an inspection tour of the new 80-unit State Apartments on Wollaston Avenue, accompanied by H. Gibbons Young (left) and Harlan C. Williams (right) of the real estate firm of Young and Williams—hosts at last Thursday's reception marking the official opening for occupancy of the 10 Colonial-styled buildings which comprise the State Apartments.

Mayor Durnall was one of 40 business and community leaders from the Newark-Elkton area who attended the reception and inspected the one-and-two bedroom apartments.

Argentina Scouts Join Newark Boys In Jamboree Trip

Seven Newark Boy Scouts
Attend Colorado Springs
50th Anniversary Event

Two Boy Scouts from Argentina arrived in Newark last Saturday night to join seven Newark boys in the Del-Mar-Va Council contingent attending the 50th anniversary celebration of Scouting at Colorado Springs.

Ricardo Jorge Baracca, 16, and Jorge Alberto Baracca, 13—both from Buenos Aires—were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Cain and by Mr. and Mrs. Donald McIntosh of Radcliffe Drive—went for a Sunday dip in the Nottingham Swim Club pool and boarded the train at Wilmington on Monday to join some 55,000 Scouts at the Colorado jamboree.

Through the help of Dr. Cain, two Spanish-speaking students attending the university under the U.S. Office of Education Summer Foreign Language Institute, met the Scouts and served as interpreters.

Local boys traveling to Colorado Springs include Paul "Kip" Becker, son of Col. and Mrs. Paul E. Becker; Eddie Cain; Dennis Clancy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Clancy; Robert Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cronin; Harry Hogshead, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hogshead; Larry LaSalle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaSalle; and Fred McIntosh.

James Gursha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gursha of Newark, missed the trip because of illness, Mrs. C. A. Sikas reports.

Accompanying the boys are Scoutmaster William D. Whisler, and Asst. Scoutmaster Robert W. Cordrey. The travelers are due back home on July 31.

Kent-Sussex Fair Offers 4-H Clubs 125 Class Events

This year's Kent and Sussex Fair—July 25-30, at Harrington—will offer many opportunities for 4-H Club members according to Dr. Sam Gwynn, assistant director of extension at the University of Delaware, with 125 project classes on the program.

Club members may take part in the junior dairy, swine and poultry shows.

The 4-H feeder pig roundup will be held on Friday, July 29, sponsored by the Delaware Swine Producers' Association in cooperation with the University of Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

In addition to the exhibits, there are the state 4-H judging contests on Tuesday, July 26, in clothing, baking, food preservation, vegetable, dairy, poultry, eggs and swine.

State 4-H demonstration contests will be held on Wednesday, July 27, with county winners participating. The state 4-H tractor operator's contest will be held on Thursday, July 28, starting at 4 p.m. in front of the grandstand. Three winners from each county are eligible to enter the contest.

All exhibits must be in for judging by noon, Monday, July 25. The public is invited to visit the 4-H exhibits at the fair and to attend the other 4-H events during the week.

The 4-H exhibits will be housed in the extension service and poultry buildings at the fair.

Lawrence McFadden Cited For Army Signal Course

Pfc. Lawrence R. McFadden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. McFadden, 28 Merry Road, Newark, completed the 30-week micro-wave radio equipment repair course on July 17 at the Army Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J.

McFadden, who was trained to install, operate, maintain and repair multi-channel micro-wave radio relay communication equipment, entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

The 18-year-old soldier is a 1959 graduate of Newark High School.

Capitol Trail District Boy Scouts Plan Local Golden Jubilee Camporee Weekend

Boy Scouts in the Del-Mar-Va Council's Capitol Trail district will have conservation as the theme of their big three-day Golden Jubilee Camporee during the weekend of July 22-24, it was announced today by Ray E. Keesey, district camporee chairman.

The Capitol Trail Camporee, to be set up across the highway from the Meadowood development by the New Castle County Engineering Building, between Newark and Wilmington, will include a soil conservation exhibit under the supervision of Wilmer Aist of the New Castle County Soil Conservation Service, and a live animal exhibit sponsored by the Delaware Game and Fish Commission, directed by Warden Dawson M. Sapp.

Scouts will begin setting up their camp on Friday, July 22 at 4 p.m., and it will be manned continuously through Sunday noon. Demonstrations will be held at regular intervals throughout the daylight hours on all three days.

John Cordrey is campmaster for the entire camporee; Dr. Bruce Partridge is chairman of the Capitol Trail District, and Eugene Pierce is chairman of the district committee on health and safety.

The camporee will permit local Boy, Cub, and Explorer Scouts to participate in the 50th anniversary Scout celebration, highlighted by the National Jamboree being held simultaneously near Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mr. Keesey noted that 18 Scouts from this area would be attending the National Jamboree and that four local troops would be at the Scouts' Camp Rodney on Chesapeake Bay during the period.

Troops taking part in the Capitol Trail District Camporee and their scoutmasters are as follows: Troop 43, William Whisler; Troop 35, Thomas Van Kirk; Troop 36, Kenneth Crouse; Troop 75, Donald McLaughlin; Troop 37, William Niblette; Troop 17, Ed Smith; Troop 30, Howard Harrington; Troop 203, Phillip Janvier; Troop 86, Robert Cordrey; Troop 91, Herbert Harvey; Troop 19, John Wykes; Troop 50, Henry Charlton.

Similar camporees will be held at the same time in the 11 other districts in the Del-Mar-Va peninsula council area, and throughout the nation, each stressing some significant aspect of scouting.

Registration Sites Announced For National Fall Elections

New Castle County Department of Elections Announces
Registration Locations For Three Local Hundreds, With
Saturday As Last Chance To Change Party Affiliation

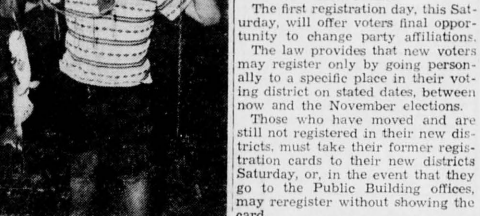

The New Castle County Department of Elections has announced registration sites and reminds new voters that this Saturday will be the first registration day.

Other dates when new voters wishing to cast their ballots in the fall elections may register are: Saturdays Sept. 10, and Oct. 15.

The offices of the department of elections in the Wilmington Public Building will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. today, for voters who have moved, who want to change party affiliations, or who have changed their names.

Registered voters may also make adjustments this Friday, July 22, but only during the regular hours—9 a.m. to 5 p.m.—it was announced by Edwin W. Hutchison, secretary of the department.

Prize Fish — And Grin

Michael Edward Cook

Seven-year-old Michael Edward Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Cook of 22 Playliss Drive, Newkirk Station, displays a big catfish and a bigger grin as prize-winner in the recent Junior Fishing Derby conducted by the Newark Recreation Association and the local Jaycees.

Young Michael caught this 11-lb. catfish to win a prize for the longest fish in the 6-13-year-old boys' class with fishing contests conducted at Harold Stanley's Pond near Newark.

District Governor Osborne Nichols Rotary Club Guest

District Governor Osborne Nicholson of Ocean City, N. J., making his traditional visit to the 58 clubs in the district, addressed the Newark Rotary Club last Monday night.

The world's problems weigh as heavily upon the Newark Rotary Club as they do upon the Calcutta or the Jerusalem Rotary Clubs, though those may be closer to the scenes of the problems, Rotarians were told by their new district governor.

"There are unfortunate ones over the world; we just don't see many of them," Nicholson said.

He suggested that the real way to find happiness in an organization such as Rotary is to do something about such problems.

Nicholson said his goals include a 500 increase in membership for the district during this year which ends next June 30.

As a start, he inducted three new members into the Newark club during the dinner meeting in the Colony Inn.

Girl Scouts Of Troop 13 Visit In New York City

Wool Growers To Receive $43.20 As Incentive Pay

Growers will receive wool incentive payments of $43.20 for every $100 they receive from the sale of shorn wool during the 1959 marketing year, according to William H. Reynolds, Middletown, chairman of the Delaware agricultural stabilization and conservation committee.

The rate of 43.2 per cent, just announced by the Department of Agriculture represents the amount needed to bring average wool prices up to the previously announced incentive level of 62 cents per pound under the National Wool Act.

The Three-In-One Homemakers' Club will hold an all-day sewing for the Needlework Guild next Tuesday starting 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Pusey Pemberton on Elktion Road.

The club met last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Leta Phillips of Newark as hostess. A resume of the annual short course was given by Mrs. R. P. Major and Mrs. McCormick Dexter, Sr. B. H. McCormick reported on forthcoming community work.

The annual picnic was arranged for Aug. 11 at 6:30 p.m. at the Dexter home near Corner Ketch. Each member is to bring a covered dish and place settings for their families.

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton
U. of D. Agricultural Extension Service

This is the time of year when all meats are generally high—and it is true now—All except chickens and turkeys. Chickens have gone up two or three cents, but even with this increase they remain one of the best buys. Weekend sales bring the prices of these two meats down and make them outstanding buys.

During August this plentiful supply will continue. Since July 1, all broilers and turkeys have had to be meatier to qualify for US Grade A. At this time the U. S. Department of Agriculture revised its standards for poultry. The revised standards specify a greater amount of flesh on the breast of A-quality birds.

Also new standards and grades for poultry parts are now in effect. Beef prices increased from one to four cents a pound on most popular cuts this week. Pork prices are also on the seasonal rise as supplies decrease in hot weather. Only veal has come down. Again this week-end, look for some fair to good buys on this meat. Not only is veal on "special" for weekend shoppers, but so are beef roasts, steaks, ground beef, smoked picnic hams, turkeys, frankfurters and many luncheon meats. These offer you best opportunity for worthwhile savings.

A fairly wide variety of fruits at reasonable prices continue at most fruit counters this week. More peaches are arriving daily, with both quality and price making them good buys. Watermelons range from 59 cents to $1.25 each, according to size. Estimates of this and the later summer watermelon crop show them, especially the late crop, to be considerably above average. This means there are and will be many good to excellent buys on this fruit.

Other fruits to check are lemons, seedless grapes and California oranges.

Cantaloupes should be checked, however, they continue to sell in a rather wide price range, from 19 to 39 cents apiece, due to the fact that many western cantaloupes are being shipped into this area, competing with melons from nearer growing areas.

The supply of fresh vegetables continues to be adequate. Best buys this week are squash, green beans, of Mrs. Lawrence B. Dean.

Mrs. Lawrence Pennington, Mrs. Sara P. Evans, and Sallie Evans of Marmad, were weekend guests of Mrs. Pennington's brother, C. L. Walker, at his cottage on Shalloss Lake near Middletown.

The Gifford Nowlands of Paper Mill Road were among the guests at the wedding last Saturday of Virginia Nowland and Ralph Buckingham in Head of Christiansa Presbyterian Church.

Theodore Dempsey of Corner Ketch, and Frank Morris of Millford Crossroads are patients in Riverside Hospital.

Bobby Dempsey, who is with the U. S. Navy at San Diego, Calif., is home on furlough.

Herbert McCave, a member of the board of elders at the Limestone Presbyterian Church, will preach this Sunday at 10 a.m. as the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Read is on vacation.

REMINDER

"THERE'S NO VACATION FROM TAXES!"

RESOLVE TO MAKE ME THE FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS WHEN YOU RETURN!

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Members of Congress have been taking a vacation during political conventions, but there is no vacation for the taxpayer. Government expenses and taxes go on without a break.

Let people realize there will never be an end to paying taxes. What many do not realize—including some Congressmen—is that the federal government is charging heavier taxes than necessary. Hanging fire in Congress during recess are bills which would reform the income tax and ease the load on everybody. These bills, sponsored by Democrat A. S. Herlong of Florida and Republican J. B. Baker of Tennessee, would reduce federal income taxes in every bracket.

The government could be expected to benefit as well as taxpayers. Economists predict that much of the money from taxes would be invested to start or expand businesses. This would mean new jobs, new products—and tax sources.

Now is the time for all good Congressmen to remind voters that the Herlong-Baker tax rate reform bills of 1960 need their attention when Congress goes back to work.

Year-Old Newark Boy Wins Top Prize in Model Plane in New York Contest

Eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rouse, 1003 Baylen Road, Newark, won first place in the annual New York Model Plane Contest, held at the Field, Long Island, N. Y., July 17-18.

The flying scale event at the annual New York Model Plane Contest, held at the Field, Long Island, N. Y., July 17-18.

Jeff placed first in the control line flying event at a meet of the Wilmington Modelers in May at Claymont, Del.

He also placed second in combat at the meet, but failed to take top honors which would have meant a free trip to Dallas, Tex., for the national model meet.

His other trophies include a first place in control flying at a Baltimore meet last year and a second place in the beauty event at a Memorial Day meet in Union, N. J.

The Winner and New Champion

Each week's session includes 25 courses in phases of the church program, with Dr. William Yingling of Harrisburg, dean of the school.

Learning To Drive Is Lifetime Job Motorists Warned

Delaware Safety Council Offers Campaign Slogan "Drive To Arrive Alive"

"Learning how to drive is not a five-lesson proposition—it's a lifetime job!"

That point was made today by William P. Markland, manager of the Delaware Motor Club, AAA, and Charles W. Lawson, executive secretary of the Delaware Automobile Association in connection with the "Slow Down and Live" campaign of the Delaware Safety Council.

Markland and Lawson, both directors of the safety council, pointed out that the past decade has seen marked strides forward in automobile design and production, with the result that modern automobiles are faster and more powerful—and more numerous—than ever before.

"But the increased speed, power and traffic density require more control and greater skill in driving," the two auto club officials said.

Urging all motorists to keep up to date in their driving habits, they said that many drivers on our highways today are still using driving techniques as obsolete as the outdated model in which they first learned.

"A motorist has to be alert to rapid developments in our highway system, too, especially with so many superhighways springing up over the country," the two men said.

"These smooth ribbon-like roads cutting across mountain and valley from one end of the country to the other are beautiful to drive on, but driving a modern high-powered car on them requires control, precision and highly developed driving skills," they said.

Pointing out that the comfort and ease of driving today has a dangerous tendency to dull the alertness of the driver to the increased dangers of modern traffic, they cautioned all motorists, especially those on vacation trips, to drive safely, to keep alert at all times, and to shun speed.

"A good motto for every motorist to heed," they concluded, is "Drive to Arrive Alive—Slow Down and Live."

Tree Experts Cite Hazards In Yards For Leafy "Pets"

Backyard trees may be backward because of you. Your intentions may be good but your actions harmful to your woody pets. Among the things that cause tree casualties in casual suburban living are automobiles—moving or parked—says H. I. Spelacy, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

The gasoline and oil that keep cars running are a great menace. Carelessly spilled over road areas, petroleum products spell immediate and long-time repercussions. As a powerful herbicide, petroleum will kill plants almost on contact. Even worse, the petroleum saturated soil may remain sterile for months or even years.

Careless driving that scrapes or bumps driveway trees also takes a big toll. Bark breaks are open invitations for invasion by insects and diseases. And trees severely damaged sometimes suffer loosening of the root systems.

Power lawn mowers banged against trees also are a common cause of serious injuries. Parking under trees compacts the soil, one of the big problems in tree health.

Many housewives who prize themselves on their green thumbs often do their landscapes more harm than good. They may thoughtlessly dump in the back yard soapsuds, dry cleaning fluids, ammonia and other wastes that are harmful to trees and other growing things.

Slip-knotted clotheslines hung from trees can strangle branches in a single season. Clotheslines, dog wires and similar devices should be attached to trees only with lags or screw eyes. Never should they be wrapped around trunk, limb or branch.

Little progress can be made by merely attempting to repress what is evil; our great hope lies in developing what is good. —Calvin Coolidge

"Suburbs are the spawning grounds for great ideas — on keeping house and tending lawns. —Dan Kennedy.

Freezing Advised With Sweet Corn To Retain Flavor

Freezing is a good way to preserve sweet corn, County Home Demonstration Agent M. Katharine Jones says.

Corn retains more of its original flavor and nutritive value when frozen than when preserved any other way.

Select only high-quality corn. Freezing does not improve corn and may magnify its undesirable characteristics, so avoid over or under-ripe corn.

Remove the husks and silks and wash the ears in clean, cold water. Discard any ears that are injured or bruised.

All corn should be blanched before freezing so that it will retain its original quality and flavor. Place about eight ears into five quarts of boiling water for about four minutes. Then cool the ears quickly by plunging them into cold water. Make sure the cobs as well as the corn cool sufficiently.

If you wish to remove the corn from the cob, do this after blanching. After cooling, drain thoroughly and pack. Make sure the containers are moisture-vapor-proof. Store at zero degrees or lower.

Labels Cited As Guides To Better Clothing Care

Your fiber label can be your guide to better clothing care, according to M. Katharine Jones, county home demonstration agent.

Wearing apparel, accessories, draperies, floor coverings, and bedding are required by law to be identified with generic names and the percentage by weight of fibers in the product.

All you need to do Miss Jones says, is to find the generic name and compare it with the convenient chart in "Clues to Clothing Care," a new publication from the University of Delaware.

For your copy, write M. Katharine Jones, University of Delaware.

Alan Whiteman Hurls One-Hitter To Win For Newark In Babe Ruth League Tourney

The Newark Babe Ruth League All-Stars beat Brandywine, 3-0, in the opening round of the state tournament last Saturday at the Mt. Pleasant diamond, as Alan Whiteman fired a one-hitter with eight strikeouts, backed up by some brilliant fielding plays.

Shortstop John Collins for Newark ably handled five chances—all hard-hit balls—while Ken Fell at second base came up with two tough putouts and an assist. Only two balls were hit out of the infield—both to center—in the first and in the last innings.

Brandywine, with one out loaded the bases after three hits—all in the sixth—a ball that bounced high over Pitcher Alan Whiteman's head and over second base where Fell just failed to get his glove on it.

The next two batters walked, but Alan was up for the task. The next man up took a called third strike; and the next man—or boy—took three healthy cuts in striking out to retire the side.

The Newark All-Stars came up with a total of three hits—all in one inning. John Collins doubled; Ken Fell singled; and Alan Ely came up with a two-base hit. But Newark scored two of its three runs on perfectly bunted squeeze plays by Matt Cray and Joe Brothers, Dad Ken Fell reports.

The Newark Babe Ruth League All-Stars face the Smyrna-Clayton Stars at Smyrna this Saturday at 1:30 p.m., with the state championship final scheduled for July 30. With Paul Whiteman as Newark All-Star manager; Bill Ritchie, as manager; Randy Mann, coach, and Robert K'burg, business manager, the Babe Ruth League Newark All-Stars include Walt Jones and John Collins, VFW; Ken Wilson, Newark Lumber; Dick Taylor, Mat Cray, and Eugene Garritt, Optimists; Joe Brothers and Alan Ely, Curtis Paper; Robert Cray, Alan Whiteman, and Ken Fell, CDF; Bill Beatty, Ronny Hill, Wayne Wood, and Tom Van Kirk, Bankers.

The distant surfman on the point of sand where the Atlantic breakers were heaving to thunder with the tide flooding Townsend's Inlet, N. J., looked like Graham Berry except for the slim midriff and cigar.

Mr. Berry, a surf fishing companion of some 18 summers, had always displayed the dimensions of an able trencherman, and had been an inveterate cigarette smoker. But the long, determined stride was familiar—and so was the long range artillery fire with the big Calcutta pole that few can match. And when the sturdy figure made two trips back to his beach basket with wriggling, silver kingfish while the rest of us fished on in vain, there remained little doubt as to the identity of the surf custer.

We walked up the beach to make sure, and sure enough, it was Graham Berry—with a cigar—and without his former portliness.

"Took off some weight," the Philadelphian from Virginia by way of Portsmouth explained. "And I feel better," he said. Never did expound on the switch from cigarettes to cigar, and in listening to his account of fishing at Townsend's Inlet since we last met three summers ago, we forgot to ask.

"Haven't caught a weekfish all year," Mr. Berry growled. But brightening, added "We've really been knocking the kingfish with bloodworms and shiner eggs—bang, bang, bang. Six the other night, just as fast as I could cast," he said.

Out of the League
In response to a rather proud reporting of two grandchildren acquired since we had last fished together, Graham Berry grinned: "You don't even belong in this league. I've got 11—and Emil, here," he said, indicating a bronzed, powerful companion—a living magazine illustration of a surfman—"Emil has 17."

Grandchildren outnumbered the fish for the trio last Saturday. Berry wound up with his two kingfish—a remarkable feat considering the apparent almost total absence of marine life other than the pestiferous calico crabs that carpeted the sandy bottom of the inlet—while with Emil, we failed to get a strike.

Last Monday night, the VFW defeated CDF, 7-0 at the Sline Laid field to take the lead in the local Babe Ruth League pennant race. Jack Alley allowed but two hits as the winning pitcher.

Billy Beattie pitched the Bank of Delaware nine to a 4-1 victory over 13-year-old Don Leamy, hurling for Newark Lumber on Monday. Beattie gave up but four hits.

The Bankers beat Curtis Paper, 8-2, last Tuesday night behind the five-hit, 11 strikeout pitching of Ronny Hart, as Wayne Widdoes collected three hits in three trips for the Bankers, including a home run. Widdoes was lost for the balance of the season with an ankle injury in Tuesday's test.

The Vets and Optimists played a 4-4 game called because of darkness on Tuesday.

The VFW scored the tying run in the final inning and played the first triple play in Newark Babe Ruth League history.

Elisabeth Young Loses in 20-Hole Golf Semi-Finals

Elisabeth Young, Newark, lost a 20-hole semi-final match to Mrs. G. J. Berchet, DuPont, in the second round of the Delaware State Women's Golf Tournament at the Brandywine Country Club last Friday.

Gertrude Smart, Newark, lost to Rock Manor's Mrs. N. A. Brown, 6-5, in a second flight consolation round; and Mrs. Wesley Barrows, Newark, was stopped 3-2 by Mrs. Florence Williamson, DuPont, in third flight consolation play.

Mrs. D. E. Backman, Newark, lost to Madrina Baxter, DuPont, 4-3, in fourth flight play, while Mrs. A. L. Dollins, Newark, lost by default to Mrs. W. T. Friedlander, DuPont, and Mrs. F. H. Fernengel, Newark, lost 4-3, to Mrs. Benjamin Mark, Rock Manor, in fourth flight consolation competition.

Mrs. E. C. Mahanna defeated D. D. Lanning in fifth flight consolation play.

Friday night, with normally ideal flood tide conditions at Townsend's Inlet, we fished along with Little Bill for hours in a chilly south-easter amid the rising, black surf washed with gold from the lights of Avalon and the bridge—and caught one shark in the one strike of the night.

Last weekend with Billy and his mother, and with gracious Dorothy Hay as our hostess, brought back many happy memories of Townsend's Inlet—of Mrs. Eva D. Hay, Dorothy's mother, who introduced us to the South Jersey surf and the green-shuttered cottage, the Chatterbox, built just in back of the dunes where the inlet joins the ocean—and of days and nights when the fishing left little to be desired. But last weekend featured no real run of fish, although the crustacea were in near record abundance.

Bullheads and Founder
After a futile fling at weakies and kingfish on Saturday, we resorted to a pall of bullhead "minnies" for some Sunday flounder fishing, and caught four.

It took all afternoon to catch the first one in a favorable, flood tide—and in a last chance effort after supper at sunset in the ebb, Billy caught two nice flounder in two successive casts.

"You have to cast close to shore, Dad," he explained after the second fish.

Well, we had tried that. However, in reaching again for the distant Avalon side of the inlet, a back-lash dropped our bullhead-baited rig into the white water just off the beach, and an unsuspected flounder was reeled flapping from the surf and onto the smooth sand just ahead of quitting time.

"Many of you fishermen have wondered about the plane flying so low over the area in which you were fishing," the Board of Game and Fish Commissioners writes in the weekly "Fishing Lines" published at Dover. "The pilot of that plane is observing and counting each individual person that is fishing less than two miles from shore," the commission explains.

"These aerial counts, scheduled once or twice a week, begin at 9 a.m., 1 and 6 p.m. These figures do not include the number of charter boats or the number of passengers which they carry. Information concerning these boats is obtained by means of personal interviews with boat captains and passengers.

"At the end of the season the marine fisheries statistics program being carried out by the Game and Fish Commission, will give a close estimate of the number of sportsmen fishing in Delaware, a record of what they catch, and many other characteristics about the fishermen.

"In the Indian River area, bluefish are plentiful at the end of the jetty, and 40 to 50 blues have been landed per boat.

"Trout, croakers and flounder are increasing in number in Delaware Bay. The Slaughter's Beach area has experienced good fishing in the last week. Trout weighing three pounds, and flounder weighing five pounds have been reported.

Newark American, National All-Stars Face Tourney Test

The Newark National Little League All-Stars will play at Mid-Edmont, and the Newark American Little League All-Stars will play at Morse Field against the Wilmington Optimists in opening rounds of the 1960 Delaware Little League Tournament on Friday, July 29.

The games will start at 6 p.m., and traveling teams will take the fields for practice from 5:20 to 5:50 each evening.

The Newark American Little League face the defending state champions in the Wilmington Optimists.

Paul Gainer and Nat Morse, pioneers in the Newark Little League program, have been named by Director Pat Knight as Little League tournament officials.

Former Coaches Vie In Oakland's NCC Golf Tourney

Former University of Delaware basketball and baseball coaches met in the opening round of the Oakland Golf Tournament at the Newark Country Club last weekend, and the basketball tutor, Fred Emmerson, Sr., won over baseball mentor Bob Siemen, 4 and 2.

Emmerson is teaching at Elkton (Md.) High, and Siemen is with the DuPont Company.

Emmerson's son, Fred, Jr., lost to Bob Stewart, 1 up, Mcanville, Stewart's son, Bob III, advanced by turning back Bob Matthews, 1 up.

In other first flight matches, Sank Richards defeated Art Mundis, 2 and 1; Dick Tweed defeated Frank Backel, 4 and 2; Bob Mathison won over Ed Richtel, 4 and 3; Fred Mitchell defeated Bill Baillie, 4 and 3; Curly Campellone won over Bob Mead by default.

Bob Siemen defeated Walt Ingram, 2 and 1; Jed Dolan beat Ben Scott, 3 and 2; Clarence Thompson defeated Walt Cran, 4 and 3; Fred Mitchell stopped Herm Matthes, 7 and 6; and Dick Schaeffer defeated Joe Foley, 1 up.

Fred Emmerson, Jr., and Bob Stewart III gained the finals of the club's junior tournament.

In semi-finals, Emmerson beat Skip Young, 1 up, and Stewart whipped Charley Pinto, 5 and 4.

Fish are being landed in the Bowers-Kitts Hummock area, and crabs are quite plentiful.

"Speaking of fish," Bubs Eubanks said, "there was tuna for the taking at the firehouse when Shorty Bearman, Boob Beck, Cleaver Price, John Smith, and Ernie Lindell and his boy got in from Ocean City."

"They caught eight tuna weighing from 65 to 75 lbs. apiece," the former Army sergeant said. "Everybody caught one—although with a tuna that big, a few of the fishermen weren't quite sure who was hooked as the battle wore on," Mr. Eubanks concluded.

Star Jockey Eldon Nelson Rides Again At Delaware Park Scene Of '58 Triumph

Eldon Nelson, "winningest jockey" in Delaware Park history, returned to his favorite grounds when the local track opened a 55-day stand on May 28. Nelson, absent from the scene last year excepting several visits to appear in major events, was on hand for the longest race meeting in track history and to set the stage for a duel for leading riding honors with Larry Adams, last year's fair-haired lad with 46 winners.

Nelson made a greater impression with race fans at Delaware Park in 1958 than did the famed Admiral Nelson in defeating the French and Spanish armadas at Trafalgar. The apple-cheeked riding veteran established two records during the 51-day meeting which are likely to stand despite the extended season this year.

The Oklahoma-born Nelson racked up 67 victories to outdistance his rivals for leading jockey honors and during his span scored with seven consecutive mounts for an all-time high at the verdant Stanton course. The remarkable skein began on June 30 when Nelson won the last six races on the program and extended his string to seven in the opening event on the following day's card.

Although the seven consecutive riding victories was Nelson's most outstanding feat of 1958, the husky Westerner scored five victories on two occasions. Nelson enjoyed a perfect afternoon on July 15 with "5-for-3" and on June 16 recorded "5-for-4."

Nelson retired from riding in 1950 when his wife suffered a heart condition but reverses in his cattle farm on the Kansas-Oklahoma line brought him back to the saddle in 1953.

At Delaware Park he rejoins his association with the Christiana Stables of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Langer, a combination which annexed major laurels in 1958. The Wilmington-owned stable was the leading money winning establishment of the season and Endine carried Nelson to victory in the $100,562 Delaware Handicap, world's richest race for fillies and mares.

Danny McAuliffe who acts as agent for Nelson sums up his rider: "He's a worker, an outstanding rider and always a gentleman." And there is no argument from anyone on this summation.

3 Quindependents, Brandywine's Trio To Aid Blue Stars

Gridders Of Tower Hill, Friends And Brandywine Selected For Blue Team

Three players from the Quindependent Conference—and all heavyweights—will bolster the Blues against the Golds in the fifth annual Delaware All-Star High School Game on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 27, at Delaware Stadium for the benefit of the Delaware Foundation for Retarded Children.

Tower Hill School, undefeated last fall with an 8-0 record, will be represented by 6-3 Richard (Munch) Cussler, 195-pound second All-State end, and 5-11 Dave Ness, 195-pound tackle.

Friends School is sending its 6-2 All-State end, 198-pound Tom Stephenson.

Cussler captained the basketball team and also won track letters at Tower, where his activities included the school paper and yearbook.

Ness was president of the junior and senior classes, served as Boys' State governor and spent last summer in Germany as an exchange student.

Harvard-bound Stephenson had an outstanding athletic career at Friends, where he also excelled in baseball and basketball. As Friends won four of seven starts, the tall end scored five touchdowns, including one on his own kickoff.

Brandywine High, which recently graduated its first senior class, will make its debut in the All-Star Game.

Three Brandywine players have been selected to play for the upstart Blues. All are linemen—Charley Friedel, 6-ft. 195-pound tackle, and Guards Dick Stewart, 6-ft. 170, and 5-9 Jan Danaway, 165. They assisted the Bulldogs to a 5-4 record last autumn.

Friedel also lettered in baseball and basketball. A slugging first baseman, he homered to decide a 1-0 game in the American Legion state junior finals.

Stewart also won a track letter. Danaway was an all-Blue Hen Conference selection and a member of the baseball, basketball and wrestling teams.

Royal Native Seen As New Castle Chieftain For Second In Distaff Big Three Series

At Delaware Park this Saturday, you'll see a four-year-old filly who has proved more valuable than an entire baseball team in the Class AAA International League. Her name is Royal Native, and she looms favorite for the rich New Castle Stakes, second gem in Delaware Park's quarter-million dollar Distaff Big Three series.

Speaking of a quarter-million dollars, that's what Miami Beach sportsman William M. MacDonald, Jr., paid in Florida last winter for Royal Native—$252,500, to be exact. MacDonald also bought the Miami Marlins ball club around the same time, for something less than he paid for Royal Native. At this writing the Marlins were in last place.

The filly has proved a far better investment than all those ball players. Just the other day, MacDonald was quoted as saying he expected to lose $125,000 on the Marlins this season.

Royal Native this year has earned $138,557, net, with seven victories and two seconds in 10 starts. And, if the expected happens, she'll be winning her seventh major stakes race of the season in Saturday's mile and a sixteenth New Castle. True, the fabulous filly has not yet "won herself out" for MacDonald, but few would dare bet she won't eventually.

She has a fine chance to add the $150,000-plus Delaware Handicap, world's richest filly-and-mare race which climaxes the Distaff Big Three and the Delaware Park meeting on closing day, July 30, to her ever-growing list of conquests. She could also win many more before her future value as a broodmare has to be very high.

First, though, Royal Native must get past the New Castle Stakes, which could be quite an assignment, you consider that the filly includes numerous warts and ship considerations.

The eligibles number about 20, including the filly, and the older stars, while common to the best three-year-old fillies and mares, might try for the New Castle, although most of them will sit out this weekend and await the Delaware Handicap.

Louise Woodhouse to Mary McDowell For

Mary McDowell and Woodhouse gained the final of the Newark County Women's Golf Championship named as Mrs. McDowell's Audrey Fernengel, and Mrs. house won over Zora Mack.

The finalists for the women's title are scheduled to meet in championship competition. Gladys Casper won the NCC Ladies Day event last year with Sally Stephenson and Fossett in a tie for second.

"One of the benefits of this is that kids no longer get a nickel's worth of candy,"
