Geological Survey Reports Monthly On State's Water

Johan J. Groot, State Geologist, Announces
Water Condition Data

The Delaware Geological Survey has begun publication of a monthly summary of water conditions in the state.

State Geologist Johan J. Groot said five-year drought conditions in the Northeast, including Delaware, have led to anxiety about the availability of adequate resources in the present and future.

"Stream flows have been below average for much of the past five years and water levels in many wells have been somewhat low too, particularly during the summer," said Dr. Groot, professor and chairman of the department of geology at the University of Delaware.

Professor Groot said monthly summaries are intended to provide facts and figures on current water conditions to the many people concerned with Delaware's water resources.

The first report, which includes data from selected points throughout the state, covers November. December's report is expected to be issued mid-way through this month.

The November report notes that precipitation in Delaware was below normal—down 1.73 in New Castle County; 2.22 in Dover; and 2.54 for Kent and Sussex counties combined.

Also included in the report are stream flow and withdrawals for Brandywine Creek; static ground water levels, and maximum daily chloride concentration of the Delaware River at the Memorial Bridge.

The summary notes that ground water levels in all eight of the observation wells rose slightly less than a foot during November.

Kenneth D. Woodruff, hydrologist with the Delaware Geological Survey, prepared the November report.

Maligned French Poet's Work Evaluated In New Book by Samuel L. Borton at UD

The work of a much maligned French poet is reevaluated by a University of Delaware professor in a book recently released by Mouton & Co. of the Hague.

"Six Modes of Sensibility in Saint-Amant" by Dr. Samuel L. Borton charges that the generally low esteem in which the poet was held by critics of his era is unfair.

Borton considers Saint-Amant "an artist of that very marked individuality and versatility which resist classification in preconceived or pre-established categories."

The study by Prof. Borton was undertaken as his doctoral thesis and attracted the attention of Mouton & Co. when the abstract describing the thesis was circulated. It has been published as Volume VIII in a series entitled "Studies of French Literature."

Borton discusses six poems originally printed in 1629. He notes that they represent six phases of developmental maturity in the period 1617 to 1627 which were fulfilled during the poet's subsequent life. Borton, who has taught at the University of Pennsylvania, Franklin and Marshall, and Delaware, is a resident of Chadds Ford, Pa. He is a graduate of Haverford College and received a graduate fellowship to France in 1964.

Prior to his college level teaching, he was master of languages in the Riverdale Country Day School in New York City; assistant editor of a musical magazine in Argentina; and traveled in Europe.

He has studied music; has been bass soloist in concert, opera and church performances; and worked in radio for several years in New York.

Fair Share of Federal Research Dollars Urged by Perkins at Foundation Meeting

Dr. John A. Perkins, president of University of Delaware, said last Saturday that educational institutions in the Middle Atlantic States ought to work cooperatively to get their fair share of Federal research dollars.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the University of Delaware Research Foundation, Perkins said "Four or five years ago the Big Ten institutions and the Central Midwest States in which they are located, became considerably exercised that the number of federal research dollars, in view of the strength of their colleges and universities, did not compare favorably with the number of research dollars going to the West Coast and New England."

"Their governors and congressmen decided to drop all political differences and do something about it for the good of their geographic region. I doubt that the Middle Atlantic States are doing as well, considering their population and the strength of their universities, as even the Midwest was doing—Maryland excepted, because of its proximity to Washington."

DuPont Provides $100,000 for UD In Education Aid

E. I. du Pont de Nemours Co. Sponsors Teaching Advancement, Research

Grants to the University of Delaware total more than $100,000 in the DuPont Company's program of educational aid for 1967. Funds are for advancement of teaching, fundamental research, and special programs of the university.

A major grant was an award of up to $28,000 for the pre-college opportunity program, to take care of financial needs not met from other sources.

This program started last year to prepare high school boys from culturally deprived backgrounds in northern Delaware to enter college. DuPont had made grants totaling $58,000 to draw up such a plan and get it started. It was subsequently supported by additional federal grants.

Last summer, the university conducted a successful program for 54 boys who finished their junior year in high school. DuPont worked closely with the university in the development of the program, including making available jobs for 24 boys in August.

A grant of $25,000 was made to enable the university to initiate a program for up-grading the teaching of chemistry in public schools of the state. Objective of the program is to improve the number and quality of students interested in scientific and engineering careers.

A grant of $14,000 a year for three years was made to support a new engineering scholarship program at the university.

Other grants included $15,000 for establishing a DuPont non-resident lectureship in chemistry for one semester, enabling the university to invite an outstanding visiting lecturer to the campus for that time.

$40,000 for the extension division program; $9,500 each for fundamental research and graduate study in chemistry, chemical engineering, physics, and for a graduate fellowship in business administration; $3,000 for a postgraduate teaching assistantship in chemistry; and up to $5,000 for summer scholarships for prospective high school science teachers.

Her attendants' Empire dresses were willow green satin. Fashioned with scooped necklines and A-line skirts, they also featured elbow-length trumpet sleeves edged in willow lace.

The bride's veil was a poof style of illusion and the headpiece was of matching Chantilly lace.

EDNA CHALMERS DICKEY

Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey—"Mrs. Delaware Welfare" to the many, many distressed people receiving help when they needed it most, from the efforts of Edna Chalmers Dickey as a volunteer leader in social welfare work—was in truth, Newark's First Lady. She was the first to whom the poor turned in time of need, and from whom the more affluent sought assistance with her vigor, judgment, kindness and leadership in community service.

To her associates with this newspaper, she was "Mrs. Newark Post," or just plain beloved Edna—the heart and soul of the Post over the years since the late Everett C. Johnson founded the paper in 1910, and happily, employed her as a young lady in her small college town of Newark.

A leader in her church on the local and national level; tireless welfare worker for the underprivileged of the State of Delaware and in her home community of Newark; newspaperwoman—housewife—devoted Big Sister for a fine, large family—Edna Dickey led an exemplary, full, good life of great achievement—a lifetime that has enriched the lives of those legions fortunate enough to have her pass their way.

We are privileged to have known and worked with Edna Dickey since 1953 when we came with the Newark Post, and well remember our first meeting on that first Wednesday in January, 13 years ago, when Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey skipped smiling up the steps and into the office to help write the social page for the week. Her smile was sunshine, and her laughter, music—and few ladies laugh with the delightful lilt of a rollicking rill. Edna did, and often.

Her keen sense of humor never failed, and she brightened the long, trying hours on many Thursday nights late in the pressroom when difficulties were encountered with the vagaries of newsprint, machinery—and editors.

"If you don't print every word of it, just the way it's written, I'll come back to haunt you," Edna often smiled.

"I have my obituary all written out."

And the reply would be that we hoped never to write that story, although the threat of being haunted by an angel was no threat at all.

But she didn't have it all written out—and even if she had, it would not have eased a sad, sad assignment.

Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey was to have been honored officially this winter at a public dinner, as Newark's outstanding citizen. She has been that throughout her life. God bless and keep her!

College Seniors Receiving More, Higher Salary Offers, Geraldine Wyatt Reports

To the surprise of practically no one, college seniors are receiving more and higher salary offers in what is expected to become the most competitive recruiting season in history.

Despite intense competition, escalation does not appear to be as sharp as anticipated, according to Mrs. Geraldine M. Wyatt, director of placement for the University of Delaware which is participating in the College Placement Council's 1966-67 survey of beginning salary offers to college seniors.

The council's first report of the season shows that, since the end of June, the average offer to bachelor's-degree candidates with a technical background has risen 5.2 per cent to $706 per month, while the average offer to non-technical students has gone up 4.6 per cent to $596.

Although still early in the recruiting season, the council's first report has for seven years proved accurate for the remainder of the recruiting year.

The most notable trend revealed by the survey has been the gain in volume of offers, rather than in dollar value.

The sudden surge in demand for college-trained manpower by business and industry has resulted in a 42 per cent increase in the number of offers to bachelor's candidates. Technical students in particular have been in short supply and the number of offers to this group has climbed 59 per cent in the two years.

Data in the current report, limited

Pursuant to Title 41, Section 1904 of the Delaware Code Annotated, the Delaware State Highway Department announces the following plan for permanent mosquito control work in New Castle County.

Ditching operations will be conducted in the next 30 days to drain all breeding marshland in three different areas. The first location will be the marsh bordering on a stream running partially through the City of Newark, Delaware, and continuing in a north westerly direction to Wilmington.

The second area to be drained is the marsh along Army Creek, including both prongs at the head of this stream. The third area to be drained is the marsh bordering on Nonesuch Creek, a tributary of the Christina River.

The owners of the land in question in the first area are Griggs & Perry, Inc., New Castle Commons, Immanuel Episcopal Church on the Green, St. Peter's Catholic Church, John State, James Julian, and B. T. Hoy.

The owners of the land in the second area are Delaware Sand & Gravel Co., Plassek Aircraft Corp., Avian Corp., heirs of James Quigley, Howard Wilson Enterprises, Inc., and heirs of Marjorie H. Walker.

The owners of the land in the third area are Myron Long, Charles G. Ryan, Albert A. Donofrio, James J. Dalley, Russell J. Reed, William R. Reed, General Trucking Inc., Jeanette Cunningham, Raymond E. Cathell, Theodore Grunza, William J. McKelley, Alexander P. Kalinowski, Jr., George Golbi, Horace A. Wahl, Steven Siva, Robert Beverly, Fred Stroud, Lawrence E. Merzenthaler, Curtis Potter, Elsie Bryant, Helen Lake, Albert R. DeVries, August Martin, John F. Sutton, Judson Goldsborough, Hardy Realty Co., Claude E. Rievers, Peter P. Savitsky, Robert V. Mitchell, Delmarva Power & Light, Charles S. Rains, Edward P. Klosewski, Roland Hamilton, James Henry, Harold M. West, Francis X. Smith, Edward Crescenzo, William E. Langshaw, Robert Bryant, Henry R. Nisky, Earl L. Vanderveken, Irving L. Hopkins, Nelson Carroll, Charles J. Klenken, Danvir Corp., Frederick A. Wilson and E. J. duPont De Nemours Co.

In addition to the names listed above, it is possible that there are some other owners within the three locations who are unknown to the Department.

Staking and survey work on this project began approximately October 17, 1966 and is expected to be completed by January 31, 1967. Actual contract ditching will probably not be undertaken before March 1, 1967. Any landowners who object to these plans may request a public hearing before the State Highway Department. Any such request should be addressed to the Director of the Department and should be submitted on or before February 7, 1967.

Elizabeth Tynning Dies at Daughter's Home at Newark

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Tynning, 75, of 207 Vassar Drive, Newark, died Jan. 2 at home after a long illness.

Mrs. Tynning, a native of Dalton, Mass., moved to Newark three years ago, living with a daughter, Mrs. Elaine C. Miller on Vassar Drive. She was the widow of Frank E. Tynning.

Surviving her in addition to Mrs. Miller are a son, Robert, Holyoke, Mass.; another daughter, Mrs. Ruth M. Deloach, Newark; 12 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Services were conducted Friday morning at Algers Funeral Home, Holyoke, with interment in St. Rose's Cemetery, South Hadley Falls, Mass.

ed to male students, cover actual offers made from Sept. 1 to Dec. 13. The bachelor's-degree phase is based on a total of 3,130 offers—2,344 to technical students, and 786 to non-technical.

The master's section covers 493 offers to students with less than two years of previous full-time, non-military experience, and the doctoral information is based on 182 offers to students in eight graduate programs.

As in the past, the aerospace industry has made many more offers to bachelor's candidates than any other of the 16 employer groups studied—924, almost one-third of the total.

The most notable increase in volume has been recorded by public utilities, which were not included in the four most active groups at this time a year ago. This year it is second with 279 offers, followed closely by electronics, chemicals and drugs, metals, public accounting, and petroleum.

Public accounting firms and public utilities also figure prominently in the gains in dollar value of offers. Accounting firms have made the most significant increases with a 9.6 per cent rise in their average offers.

Public utilities and the glass-paper-packaging group are next, both at 6.6 per cent.

Dollar-wise, the electronics industry, which was third at this stage a year ago, is back in first place with an average of $712 a month.

Aerospace, the leader all last year, is second at $709, followed by chemicals and drugs at $702.

By curriculum, there is the same order in volume of offers as the last two years: electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, accounting, and business. As was the case a year ago, chemical engineers are receiving the largest offers with an average of $717.

Next in line are electrical engineers, $716; aeronautical engineers, $710; and mechanical engineers, $708.

In the master's and doctoral phases of the study, the increases in dollar value of offers are more modest than in the bachelor's section. Where a significant volume has been recorded, the top increase is in the master's area since June is 5.0 per cent for mechanical engineering.

Chemistry is the only doctoral program with a sizable number of offers, and its increase is only 2.3 per cent.

Overall, the volume of offers to doctoral candidates is almost double that of a year ago, while the master's volume is up 16 per cent.

Tips for Dry Basements Offered With Bulletin

A basement adds to the value of any house. It provides storage, a workshop, laundry or recreation room—if it's a dry basement.

Basements don't have to be damp or wet. According to the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture bulletin, "Making Basements Dry," they should be made watertight at time of construction. Correcting wet conditions after construction can be difficult and expensive.

Copies of the publication are available from the Mailing Room, Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware, Newark.

Our goals are pretty high this year

Even the best New Year's resolutions don't always work out . . . and ours might not either. But we're sure going to try.

We made our own list, just like most everyone else, and we thought you might like to see it.

1. To encourage our people to set higher goals of quality, service, and responsibility for themselves (this one is a pretty safe bet—that's the way Bell people are, anyway).
2. To try to keep in mind that good can usually be better.
3. To recognize our mistakes when we make them—and try hard not to make them again.
4. To become an even better corporate citizen in all the communities we serve.

You see, to telephone people, the spirit of '67 is the "Spirit of Service." We may be the only telephone company in town, but we try not to act like it.

Farmers Offered Meeting On Income Tax Returns

A meeting to help farmers and those who assist farmers in filing their income tax returns, will be held at Crothers Brothers Store, Mt. Pleasant, at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 16. The session is sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Delaware, the Internal Revenue Service and the State Tax Department.

All forms needed for farm income tax reporting will be available at the meeting, and those who attend will be given the 1966 Farmer's Tax Guide.

W. T. McAllister, university farm management specialist responsible for meeting arrangements, says farmers—and others who advise farmers on income tax matters—should attend the session.

He points out that this is an excellent way to brush up on federal and state income tax regulations and get answers to specific tax questions.

Marcantonio's Wrestlers Get Five Pins In Beating Knights 46-12; Kelley Draws

Coach Andy Marcantonio's Yellowjacket matmen scored five pins in walloping the Mt. Pleasant visitors 46-12 last Saturday at the Newark High School gym, and Newark's Blue Hen Conference Champion Dick Kelley was held to a draw by the Knights' Mulhern at 154 lbs.

Kelley, wrestling with a severe cold as well as with Mulhern, had difficulty in breathing during the heated match, and the result, Craig Nau, last year's conference champion at Conrad and now a transfer student at Newark, pinned White in 12 seconds of the opening, 95-lb. event, and Yellowjacket Ron Matthews pinned Xodus in 51 seconds of the 103-lb. match.

Gary Carpenter won a 6-1 decision over Anderson at 112 lbs., and Newark suffered its first setback of the season when Mike Kerstetter was pinned by Mt. Pleasant's Barlow in 53 seconds of the 120-lb. event.

Letterman Bruce Jones pinned Mayo in 45 seconds with the 127-lb. match, and Steve West, 133-pound transfer letterman from New Jersey, won an 8-0 decision over White.

Yellowjacket JV's Beat Mt. Pleasant Wrestlers 44-11

The Yellowjacket junior varsity wrestlers of Coach Andy Marcantonio threw the undermanned Mt. Pleasant Jayvies for a 44-11 loss last Saturday in preliminary matches to the varsity contests in the Newark High School gym, as the junior Knights forfeited five matches.

Joe Sador and Mike Bryant won by forfeit in the 95 and 103-lb. opening events, and then Newark's Bill Greenwell and Paul Chantler dropped 5-0 and 2-0 decisions to Sammons and Deis at 112 and 120 lbs.

Steve Jones won a 2-0 decision at 127, and Tim Ganous was pinned by Uhde in 2:50 of the 133-lb. event.

Don Early, 138; John Frame, 145, and Larry Smith, heavyweight, won by forfeit.

Pedro Swann, 154, pinned Schrock in 2:20; Dave Ward stopped Wayne 7-4; and Grier Murray won a 3-0 decision over Parks in the 180-lb. event.

Nelson Considered For Illinois Post As Athletic Chief

Delaware Athletic Director David M. Nelson has been interviewed for the vacant athletic director's post at the University of Illinois.

"I am interested to the extent that Illinois is one of the top schools in the country and in the kind of area I prefer to live," he said in Houston, Tex., where he is attending the National Collegiate Athletic Association convention.

The university is located in Champaign-Urbana, population 85,000.

Nelson said he was interviewed Friday at Illinois on his way to Houston. He added no commitments were made.

In 1959, Nelson was interviewed about the head football coaching job at Illinois—but reportedly expressed disinterest because he had already made up his mind to retire from coaching within a few years.

He did retire as head football coach at Delaware after the 1965 season.

Peterson's Cagers Win 5th Straight As Barnett Stars

Coach Dan Peterson's Pocono Classic champions won their fifth straight basketball game last Saturday night, lapping Lafayette 78-48 in the new Delaware Fieldhouse, with 6-8 Kenn Barnett scoring 28 pace-setting points.

Delaware meets Hofstra at home this Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the finale before the scholastic examination break.

Peterson's cagers return to action on Feb. 1, at Bucknell.

The Hens outscored Lafayette 36-12 in the first half and Barnett had 22.

When Delaware went from a 4-0 to a 25-5 lead Barnett got 19.

Parnell took over much of the scoring burden after intermission, scoring 14 of his 18.

They were the only two Hens in double figures.

Joseph F. Flanagan To Return to DP In Steward Stand

Joseph F. Flanagan, whose retirement as Maryland state steward was disclosed last week, will continue "in the stand" at Delaware Park this year.

Subject to approval by the Delaware Racing Commission, Delaware Park will conduct a 55-day meeting, opening Saturday, May 27, and closing Saturday, July 29.

Donald P. Ross, president of Delaware Park, announced Flanagan's decision to continue his duties here, following a meeting with the various official and Delaware Park General Manager Ted McLean.

Flanagan, one of the country's most respected racing personalities, has been active in the thoroughbred sport as a gentleman rider, owner, breeder and official since 1914.

In announcing Flanagan's decision to remain active as the steward representing the Delaware Racing Commission, Ross said:

"We at Delaware Park are delighted that Judge Flanagan will be with us again in 1967. He has long been a member of our official family and we always have considered ourselves fortunate to have him with us."

One of Flanagan's Delaware Park colleagues in the stewards stand, Merrill MacNelle, will fill the vacancy left by the Monks (Md.) horseman during the current Bowie meeting.

City Council

Piet van Oortop of 807 Kenyon Lane was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Frank M. Durrall as a member of the Newark Housing Authority until Jan. 17, 1968, and council adopted a resolution expressing "profound sense of loss in the passing of Frank M. Durrall, former mayor and councilman."

"His warm concern, his provident advice and sound judgment through 14 years of service to the city will be long remembered..."

Council Compensation

Proposed ordinance to establish annual salaries of $1,500 and $1,200 for mayor and councilmen; and requiring permits for planting shade trees within 10 feet of the curb line, were approved unanimously at initial readings.

Council approved Mayor Handloff's plans to appoint a five-member travel development committee; and at Councilman Mayer's urging, reaffirmed its opposition to university dormitory construction in the area of Belmont Hall.

The city is to advertise for bids for a police repair vehicle since the one bid received did not meet specifications; and bids are to be sought for fire hydrant adaptors to provide standard threads for hose connections; and for snow plow blades to equip municipal trucks for emergency duty.

"The city should be complimented on the job of snow removal," Councilman Olan R. Thomas said of the Christmas storm, and Staff replied that three snow plows and "occasional rental equipment" had done the job while he was vacationing in Pittsburgh "with no snow."

City Manager Staff reported that the Delmarva Power & Light Co. rate reduction notice received last Dec. 29, would provide savings of $12,278.70 in the next 12 months.

The recommendation of Finance Director Albert K. Martin to use Day & Zimmerman figures for the book value of the electric distribution system was approved.

The scheduled final reading of a proposed ordinance governing sidewalks in RT zones, was postponed at the request of the Harbour Park Civic Association.

Walefield's motion that all disputed sidewalk construction activity be "held in abeyance until the Harbour Park thing is settled" was approved in a 4-2 vote with Mayor Handloff and Councilman Thomas dissenting.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day Oh, Doctor!

Horses of the 18th and early 19th century must have been a pretty hardy breed. They were used until they were three or four years old and then for matches of four-mile heats. The wonder is not that they ran such distances but that they survived the misadventures of the "veterinarian" of the period.

Like the barber of times forgotten past, who doubled as a surgeon or dentist, the farrier, or blacksmith, was also a horse doctor. According to "The Citizen and Countryman's Experienced Farrier" by J. Markham, G. Jefferies and J. Jefferies, published in Baltimore in 1803, it might have been best had the farrier stuck to his anvil. It certainly would have been better for the cats and dogs of that era.

Recommended for back snew strain "straightness, shrinking or numbness of joints," was the following concoction: "Take a fat maffish fellow, slay it and gut it, then fill the body with grey and black snails and roast it." This was to be basted with "oil of spike coloured with saffron" and the strain was to be anointed with the hot drippings. Another "cure" for snew strain involved assassination of a cat. A recipe for sore eyes, dim sight or "moon eyes" was "a pint of snow-water in three or four drams of white vitriol!" While most of the prescriptions were alleged to be a positive cure, the authors, or perhaps it was the "experienced Indians," showed some humility in the one for glanders, a serious horse ailment. It read: "To stop the glanders until you sell your horse!"

Ken Reed Scores Lone Pin for Christiana As Conrad Upsets Viking Matmen 23-17

The Christiana Viking wrestlers coached by Joe Bell and Ken Klink were upset 23-17 by a powerful Conrad squad last Saturday in the Christiana gym, with Ken Reed scoring the lone pin for the Vikings, in the 138-lb. class. Reed pinned Craig in 4:48.

Scoring decisions for Christiana were Monte Baldwin, who defeated Kempski 5-4 at 120 lbs.; Bill Rust, 9-0 over Swain at 133; Dick Morris, 6-0 over Clapp at 154, and Heavyweight Pat Roby who defeated Ianrie 4-2.

Dwight Hastings, the Viking 95-pounder, lost an 8-2 decision to Arterbridge; the Newark Post's compositor's son, Frank Wilkins, Jr., pinned Christiana's Richard Macy in 5:10 with the 103-lb. event; and Roger Reed was edged by Conrad's 112-lb. Harrison, 10-8.

Jerry Hopper, 127, lost an 8-2 decision to Conrad's Fitzpatrick; Jeff Heath lost a 6-5 square at 145 lbs. to Doran; and Greg Krachner, 165, was defeated by Powell, 7-1.

Tom Meccariello, 180, lost a 3-1 decision to Conrad's Stryhok.

The Vikings wrestle at P. S. du Pont this Saturday at 1 p.m., with jayvee matches preceding the varsity contests.

Brandywine Razes Track Clubhouse For New Building

Brandywine Raceway's cozy clubhouse with the warmth of a pleasant summer sun is no more!

The popular blue and white structure where the greets and the near greets of the standardbred sport rubbed shoulders with Mr. and Mrs. Harness Fan for 14 seasons has been reduced to a mere ghost, but its memory lingers.

Constructed in 1953 with Brandywine's inception, and twice improved and enlarged, the old framed clubhouse will give way to a spanking $500,000 ultra modern emporium of pleasure, with the target date for completion set for early May. Track and Plant Superintendent Bill Davis declared.

Leveling of the old clubhouse to make way for its replacement, which looms as a masterpiece in design, comfort and convenience to handle more than 10,000 patrons, began in mid-September.

Also completely demolished near the clubhouse, were the twin buildings which housed the traffic and publicity departments.

Spared only in the old clubhouse area is the first aid building which was moved in entirety next to the offices of the racing secretary and the Delaware Harness Racing Commission facing Brandywine's stable area.

The Brandywine grandstand, completely modernized in 1961, was touched. With the new connecting clubhouse, the two massive buildings will provide the Wilmington oval with one of the finest setups of any pari-mutuel night trotting track in the nation.

Carey, Henderson Score Twin Wins for Mermen

Delaware's undefeated swimming team dunked Lehigh 65-30 last Saturday in the Hens' Taylor Pool, with Newark's Gary Henderson, and Fenton Carey scoring twin-wins for Coach Harry Rawstrom's mermen.

The Hens entertain Temple's marine Owls this Saturday at 2 o'clock, and swim at Johns Hopkins next Wednesday at 8 p.m.

"The hardest thing about parachute jumping is the ground, when you come right down to it," John Maverick, Cherryvale (Kans.) Republican.

Mike McGlinchey, Pete Heuberger Aid Billy Matmen

Undefeated Mike McGlinchey of Newark scored a 12-4 decision over Fred Montgomery in the 167-lb. class last Tuesday night, and Newark's Pete Heuberger started the Hen rally after Delaware had lost the first three matches, by defeating Dan Nussbaum 5-0 in the 145-lb. event.

Coach Paul "Bear" Billy's Delaware wrestlers went on to stop Swarthmore 18-9 in the new Delaware Fieldhouse for the Hen's fourth consecutive win of the season.

Delaware wrestles Saturday at 3 p.m. at Temple; and the Hens are away with the Johns Hopkins grapplers in Baltimore next Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Billy's matmen return to action against Lafayette on Feb. 4, after scholastic eligibility bouts with the books.

Last Saturday, Delaware defeated visiting Ursinus 22-11, with McGlinchey pinning his opponent in 2:18, and Heuberger scoring a 7-2 decision.

Charley Parnell Selected On ECAC Basketball Team

Delaware's Charley Parnell has been named to the weekly Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Division II basketball team.

Parnell was cited for his 29 points in the Blue Hens' win over Drexel and for his outstanding defense in the 78-48 victory over Lafayette Saturday.

The 6-1 Parnell, a native of Cleveland, held Lafayette's high-scoring Nick Azzolina to four points and only one of 12 field goal attempts.

The Hens' Kenn Barnett was nominated for the team.

Lee Swayze Tallies 23 Points per Game As Al Mann's Unbeaten Vikings Win Two

Lee Swayze scored 23 points in each of Christiana's last two outings, as Coach Al Mann's Vikings walloped the visiting Dickinson cagers 54-35 Friday night, and trounced the Gunning Bedford guests from Delaware City last Tuesday by 70-47.

Undefeated Christiana—sharing the Blue Hen Conference A-flight lead with Mt. Pleasant with a 3-0 record, plus Tuesday's win over B-flight Gunning Bedford—plays at Brandywine this Friday against the 2-1 second place Bulldogs.

Against Dickinson, Christiana was on the short end of a 13-12 count at the end of the first quarter, but the Vikings outscored their visitors 13-8 in the second period for a 25-21 halftime lead.

Dickinson was on top of the slim 8-7 third quarter offensive, but the Vikings poured it on during the final frame with a 22-6 bit of scoring superiority.

Christiana had little difficulty with Gunning Bedford, breezing to a 32-23 lead at the half, and drawing away 20-12 and 18-12 in the last two quarters.

Ed Firchak scored 21 points for Christiana, including eight field goals, while Swayze's high point
