City Faces Tax Rate Increase To Finance Municipal Program

Deficit Of $160,505 In Revenue For Proposed Program In Tentative Budget May Require 55 Cent Raise In Tax Rate On Real Estate Unless New Sources Are Revealed

A 55 cent increase in the local real estate tax rate—80 cents to $1.35 per $100 assessment—may be required to finance the municipal program for the City of Newark in 1959 unless new sources of revenue are obtained to provide the additional $160,505 required in the tentative budget presented last week by City Manager J. J. Savaara for council review.

Savaara did not recommend a tax rate increase, but he did leave it to the council to decide how much should be raised by other means.

The city manager budgeted $10,000 for a not-yet-enacted measure of capital revenue, which in this amount would cover the deficit of $160,505.

The budgeted $300,505 revenue in real estate taxation compared with $190,000 collected last year at the 80-cent rate. However, the council has these alternatives:

Selection

It seems clear that either the proposed projects and services must be funded or a new increased real estate tax rate or some portion thereof must be enacted to pay for them.

Some new approach, form or source of additional revenue, such as a service charge for waste collection or by the basic employer-employee head tax now under consideration by Wilmington may be council's review.

Savaara's list of new expenditures for 1959 includes $120,000 for the council's ideas and $40,000 of its own.

Council Proposals

Proposed by council: Salary for city manager, $10,000; purchasing and supplies, $17,000; master plan, $14,000; police station renovation, $14,000; fire marshal's office, $2,000; park land site acquisition, $20,000, and pension contributions, $2,000.

Administration proposals: Police station, $2,000; waterways and storm drainage, $27,000, and board inclusions, $2,000.

The budget includes $41,940 for new employees not yet hired—a foreman and survey chief of the public works department, a detective, three trainees and clerk-typist in the police department, an accountant and two clerks in the finance department, an administrative assistant to city manager.

Segregation

The budget segregates electrical water revenue into separate accounts, each contributing operating costs into the general fund.

Source of the $742,025 profit from Electric Fund, $75,000 from Water Fund, $41,000 for sewer revenues, $78,000; fire, $10,800; inspection, $1,000; civil defense, $500; streets, $2,000; lighting, $2,000; snow removal, $14,000 for sewage disposal, $100,000 for sewage disposal, recreation, $50,000; interest, $1,000; bond redemptions, $20,000; salaries, $30,000; and capital expenditures, $30,000 for sanitary lines.

Major Expenditures

Estimated expenditures in major areas are: Administration, $29,000; agencies, $88,000; police, $90,000; fire, $10,800; inspection, $1,000; civil defense, $500; streets, $2,000; lighting, $2,000; snow removal, $14,000 for sewage disposal, $100,000 for sewage disposal, recreation, $50,000; interest, $1,000; bond redemptions, $20,000; salaries, $30,000; and capital expenditures, $30,000 for sanitary lines.

Anti-TB Leader Detection Program For Migrant Labor Aids In TB Fight

Executive secretary of the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society, Taggart Evans, said today that this state's program of tuberculosis detection in migrant labor camps is attracting the attention of TB groups throughout the nation.

To date, requests for detailed information have been received from tuberculosis associations in New York, Texas, Michigan, Connecticut, Virginia, and Maryland. Complete data is being furnished to the groups by the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

The program was described by Dr. Floyd I. Hudson, executive secretary of the State Board of Health, as an "unqualified success," a joint effort of the Board of Health, U.S. Public Health Service and the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

Teams of x-ray and serology technicians and mobile x-ray units visited 117 labor camps, most of them in Kent and Sussex Counties, and tested the workers. Follow-up tests and treatment were given to reactors.

A total of 4,117 individuals were x-rayed in the mobile x-ray units which visited the camps. Of this number, 39 workers were labeled "TB suspects."

Thirty-five of these returned for larger x-rays, which gave clearer pictures of the lungs. Eight workers were found to have active tuberculosis infections. Of the others, 15 were advised to be re-examined in six months, while remaining workers were released outright.

Murder Sets Stage For E-52 Theatre Campus Portrayal

The first melodrama of this sort to be produced in several years by the campus group, the play will star Gretchen Richards as the murderer whose crafty mind solves the housing problem for her two half-crazed sisters by simply doing away with her employer.

"Ladies in Retirement," doesn't make the audience guess who is the criminal, but the audience watches her psychological change that takes place as the play develops.

PTA Panel

Edward Baldwin, president, moderated a panel discussion on the question of consolidating the Christiana-Salem school district with the Newark special school district at last Wednesday evening's PTA meeting in the school auditorium.

School board panelists Mrs. Florence Blest, Albert Jones, Homer Vincent and Frank Dianich, who unanimously recommended consolidation, brought out the facts that the local school would not be closed under the Newark system, but that seventh and eighth graders would have the advantages of a complete junior high school curriculum, including classes in shop, manual training, and home economics.

Taxwise, they reported, a small district can never hope to provide high educational benefits of a large district such as Newark for the same tax rate. Mrs. Thomas Whittington of Bear reported on the success of the recent consolidation of the Eden district with Newark.

Also represented was the opposition faction which felt that control of the school should remain in the community and fears loss of local representation on the school board.

as far as prices are concerned, remains much as it was last week and shows a slight downward trend. This is particularly so of pork and beef. T-bone, porterhouse and sirloin steaks are down in price about three to five cents a pound. Ground beef has dropped a penny. Round steak, stew beef and chuck roast are all about two cents cheaper.

This week most of the beef found on the local market is choice grade meat, making this lowering of prices even better.

Fresh pork cuts such as ham, loin roasts and chops have dropped as much as four cents a pound. The only increase in pork is found on bacon and sausage, both showing a penny increase in some stores.

Vegetables remain about as they were last week. More fresh peas are available, but so far, no evidence of price change.

Fresh mushrooms are the most outstanding vegetable since prices have dropped on them. Look for specials on mushrooms. Quality is excellent for the most part, making them truly a good buy.

More broccoli, cauliflower, new potatoes and vine-ripened tomatoes are reaching local stores and do much to brighten the vegetable counters.

Look for specials in most stores this week on these vegetables!

More Wash-Wear Clothing Anticipated During 1959

More wash-and-wear, particularly in men's dress shirts, is the outlook for this year, according to a U. S.

Department of Agriculture report. About 40 per cent of the wash-and-wear clothing produced last year was of this year's design and may be wash-and-wear.

The textile apparel industry is devoting research technology for wash-and-wear and continued improvement of the report.

DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING

coming March 15 for
NEW CASTLE COUNTY

On Sunday March 15, at 2:01 A.M., Direct Distance Dialing will go into effect for all New Castle County telephones (except coin). This important advance in telephone service will greatly extend the reach of your dial . . . you will be able to dial straight through to many distant cities throughout the country—as far as Denver, Dallas and San Francisco.

Dialing Areas

This advance has been made possible by dividing the United States into approximately 100 dialing areas, each having its own 3-digit Area Code. Your area will be the entire state of Delaware.

Dialing local calls . . . no change

To call points within your local flat rate calling area, do just as you have been doing. Simply dial the 2 letters and 5 figures of the desired number.

Direct Distance Dialing

Calls to dialable points in Delaware*

To reach dialable Delaware points outside your local flat-rate calling area, dial the Special Code 112, which will connect you with the Direct Distance Dialing equipment, and then the 2 letters and 5 figures of the desired number.

Calls to dialable points outside Delaware*

Here is the way you dial to other areas throughout the country. First dial the Special Code 112, then the 3-figure Area Code, then the 2 letters and 5 figures of the desired number. For instance, if you want to call New York, PLAZA 5-9970, you dial as follows:

Special Code	Area Code for New York	2 Letters	5 Figures
112	212	PL	59970

*After you have dialed the complete number (except from PORTER individual and 2-party telephones), an operator will say, "Your number, please?" Give her the number of the telephone you are calling from, not the number you want to reach.

PORTER Telephone Customers: Special Instructions

- Omit the Special Code 112
- For calls in Delaware simply dial the 2 letters and 5 figures of the desired number
- For calls outside Delaware dial the 3-figure Area Code, then the 2 letters and 5 figures of the desired number

Consult information folder for instructions

Before March 15 you will receive a Direct Distance Dialing folder containing complete information on this coming improvement. Please read its instructions carefully and keep it handy. Notice it has gummed edges so that you can paste it into your telephone directory for ready reference.

The best of modern telephone service

With the coming of Direct Distance Dialing you will have the finest of modern telephone service. This advance is one more example of your telephone company's continuing policy of bringing you the best of service at the lowest possible cost.

Newark, Delaware, Thursday, March 5, 1959
BUDGETARY SCHIZOPHRENIA

To hear some politicians tell it, President Eisenhower committed an act just short of treason in submitting to Congress a balanced budget.

Their argument seems to be that this country is so rich it can afford to spend more than it takes in, and that it would do so because we need so many things.

Is it really true that this rich but needy country can operate without penalty the financial laws which every family in America must obey or meet disaster? Of course not. Whether your name is Astor or Smith, you'll pay the penalty if you go head over heels in debt for things you can get along without.

When the government goes in the hole, we all pay. Either taxes are raised to cover the shortage, or inflation takes another bite out of every family budget in the land.

As the President asks, if we can't pay as we go in a year of prosperity, can we ever again escape from deficits and inflation?

Letters To The Editor

March 2, 1959

Sir:
The Letter to the Editor that appeared in the Post contending that college graduates alone make "superior" councilmen, was most repugnant. It was a lengthy note on this subject matter in connection with Newark's coming city elections. If this was an endorsement of the quoted article, then to at least one American it was repulsive! Repulsive, because it took me back to Adolph Hitler's conception of building a superior race of "pure Aryan" blood. America didn't buy that one either! I didn't buy it either and served with the United States.

On a current basis, and using quotes, let's look at a modern statesman and history. David Ben-Gurion, "largely self-educated," founded the newly created republic of Israel.

Since quotations were freely used in the subject letter, I am proud to quote from the Declaration of Independence, United States, adopted July 4, 1776:
"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights... deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it..."

Hitler boasted that Nazism had solved the problems of Germany and would endure thousands of years. Germany emerged from the last conflict beaten, divided, and impoverished.

Are we to believe that only college graduates plus a manager are the answer to Newark's problems instead of the "Consent of the governed"?

The quoted article was too critical of both past and present members of Newark's Council. My hat is off to any man who has the courage to run in this city.

Quoting a self-educated man, Abraham Lincoln, I believe, "that government of the people, by the people, for the people," not college graduates alone, plus past American fragility and economy is our answer.

Schabinger Cites
State Corn Yield
As Nation's Best

Delaware ranked up the top corn yields in the country and broke the national record of 68 bushels by averaging 70 bushels per acre last year, according to U.S. Department of Agriculture records, Edward H. Schabinger, county agent says.

Only irrigated corn in Washington and California produced a higher average yield.

Schabinger says there are "plenty of good reasons why Delaware farmers reaped such a mark."

Those farmers who didn't keep up with their neighbors can find out why by writing or calling the county by office and getting a copy of the corn yield contest summaries and corn variety test results.

The corn yield contest summary lists the producers of corn and how they did it. It lists the seed, fertilizer, cultural practices, planting time, plant population per acre, previous crops and weed control practices used by the high producers.

The other summary sheet on variety tests gives yield results of seed varieties tested on plots at the Substation farm, Georgetown.

Delaware-produced certified hybrid seed performed as well or better than hybrids from out of state in the test plots, the agent said.

New Seed Catalogs
Provide Gardeners
With Winter Hope

"Pictures on new seed catalogs are real pretty and the vegetables are extraordinarily large and colorful at this time of year," according to Robert Stevens, extension horticulturist at the University of Delaware.

"But part of the beauty of these garden plants is due to time of year and the gardener's frame of mind," Stevens smiled. "He is thinking about the garden—all frozen or sloppy with mud, as the case may be—and those picture book vegetables look wonderful to him."

Every home gardener expects to grow vegetables in his garden that are just as big and colorful as those new varieties on the cover of the catalog.

The problem, according to Stevens, is that the "best" new varieties are developed for certain sections of the country for particular markets. The new seeds this year package of the new seeds this year.

Stevens suggests trying a small to compare results with your regular variety.

Some of the new ones worth trying here in Delaware are: Golden Beauty sweet corn, a second early variety that is reported to be good quality and resistant to wilt, and Gold Cup, a mid-season to late variety producing a good yield of excellent quality.

Three new varieties of cantaloupes are available which may have a place in Delaware home gardens—Harper Hybrid, Supermarket F, and Edisto.

Watermelons—Hope Diamond is resistant to disease and of excellent quality but seed is scarce and this variety matures late.

There are many other new varieties available but it is best to risk only a few each year, Stevens said.

Yields, Stevens Advises

Three Regulars Of '59 Champs Form Nucleus For Hens' Nine

Pitcher Al Neiger, Shortstop Karl Frantz, Dick Duerr In Right Field, Strengthen Coach Harold Raymond's Squad In Preparation For Southern Trip On March 28

"One thing this team won't get is too much coaching," Coach Harold Raymond said today about his 1959 University of Delaware Fightin' Blue Hen baseball team, which is working out in Carpenter Field House in preparation for its annual southern trip on March 28. Only three regulars from the 1958 edition that compiled a 19-3 record and completely dominated NCAA statistics, are back as a nucleus for the '59'ers.

Returning are Pitcher Al Neiger—5-1 last year—Shortstop Karl Frantz, and Rightfielder Dick Duerr. Of the trio, only Neiger hit the record books.

Delaware scored as best pitching college team in the nation on the strength of the perfect 10-0 record of Jerry Bachner, and Neiger's performance.

Bachner had the nation's best earned-run average (.78) and best win percentage.

Neiger was among the leaders with 1.50 earned runs per game.

The team's earned-run average topped the field with 1.60 runs a game allowed.

John's of New York was the only other team to give up less than two runs a game.

Third Baseman Fred Walters was the nation's home-run king with eight and topped the nation in runs-batted-in with 39.

The Blue Hens ranked among the leaders in batting with a .291 team average and a 430 slugging average, based on 318 total bases. Delaware was fourth in defense with a .965 fielding average.

Lee Elia, center fielder took honors in the base-stealing department with 15, or 68 a game.

"It didn't take much work on my part to coach those guys," reminisced Raymond about the team that just missed going to the District II playoffs because the dates conflicted with Delaware's final examination schedule.

Among the Missing
This year, however, the picture is different. Bachner is gone, with Walters, Elia, Second Baseman Jimmy Smith and First Baseman Gene Watson—and all had batting averages over .300.

The Hens still appear strong in the pitching department with Neiger, back and Vern Welch—a sophomore out of Clayton, who threw a no-hitter as a freshman—providing the punch.

Says Raymond about Neiger, a left-hander: "He can play major league ball right now."

And Welch is just a tiny bit below him. These two are backed by Sophomore Dick Broadbent, from Conrad, a 6-3 southpaw at 200-lbs., who can "throw hard," and a staff of five others as yet untested.

Seeking infield positions are Frantz, Sonny Rehm and Jack Turner, both reserves last year, and newcomers Mickey Heincken and Hank Richards.

Duerr, a good hitter and fielder, is pretty much assured of his outfield post, with the other positions up for grabs among Dick Holden, veteran reserve, Leon Dubrowski, Curtis Coombs and Merritt White.

Gaglia Scores 18 As Falcons Wallop Rock 'n' Rollers

In the Oglethorpe Junior High School League last Thursday, the Falcons rocked and rolled all over the Rock 'n' Rollers to the tune of 48-8, as Joe Gaglia led the Falcons attack with 18 points while teammates Gil Myers and Joe Spayd threw in 16 and 10 points.

The Spark Plugs squeaked by the Eagles, 29-23, as Jim Smith had 18 of the Spark Plug points while the Eagles' Smith and Riley hit for 14 and eight.

The Vampires edged the scrappy Bombers, 10-8. Ron Oley had four of the Vampire points while teammates Elwood Layton, Mike Munine and Mikovick each chipped in with a field goal.

John Viteusky and Jack Quinlan each accounted for two field goals in the Bombers' losing cause.

Next Thursday at Oglethorpe, it's the Spark Plugs vs. Rock 'n' Rollers, and Vampires vs. Hot Rods at 3 p.m., and at 3:45, it's the Globe Trotters vs. Bombers, and Eagles vs. Falcons.

Brother Lew Waggaman, missing member of the Symonds Creek duck blind syndicate during the recent, somewhat unlamented wildfowl season, paid his first and last visit to the reed-covered, plywood structure next to nowhere in the tidal mud of Kent County last Saturday, and contemplated an imposing array of empty shotgun shells on the floor of the near duck-less blind.

"It looks as though somebody did some shooting," he said wistfully—and a bit suspiciously, too, in view of the discouraging reports he had heard from his financial companions in the syndicate.

"Well, we did," Gibby Young said, "but not at many ducks. Things would get sort of dull around here after the morning flight failed to fly, and we'd do some shooting at tin cans and hunks of wood thrown into the air."

"I shot at just one duck all season," Mr. Young continued. "One that lit in front of the blind when we weren't looking. I shot in the water close to him and he flew up, and then everybody in the blind cut loose—and missed," he concluded with a reflective frown.

Total of 10
Rugged Robert Kidwell, with his sons Bob and Steve, accounted for all 10 birds taken from the blind, while Doc Calder, Bill Murray, George Wiggins, Harley Williams, Gibby and the two brothers failed to get a duck.

With Big Bob Kidwell and H. G. Young, he enlisted Lew's after-the-season service in retrieving a pair of box and a half dozen baskets of decoys last Saturday.

"We ought to show old Lew the blind, at least," Gibby said. A great rationalizer, he added with conviction: "He's the luckiest one of the bunch—besides Bob and his boys. All Lew had to do was pay his money and stay home, while we froze in that blizzard of a blind, got soaked in the rain and mud—and didn't get any ducks either."

Carried away by this line of reasoning, he favored having the younger brother trot behind the car from Dover to Smyrna to even things up. But in this, he was dissuaded.

Black Ducks
Hundreds of black ducks rocketed up from the golden marsh as we left the landing on a high ebb tide for the blind, and the sight of these burly, black feathered bombs with the silver-white flashing wings, together with a pair of twinkling teal, almost sold us on staking a claim in the area for another year.

But after the first half mile of travel we didn't see another duck, and while slopping around in the mud at the blind, there wasn't so much as a sparrow in the air to provide a bit of avian life over the yellow marsh grass waving to the horizon—par for the course from past experience.

Harold Sheaffer, tanned and fit after his recent trip to Florida's West Coast, was moodily contemplating the great sailfish adorning his office wall—a beautiful sail casually caught by the Commodore's son Bob on a flying trip to Key West.

"No, I didn't catch a sailfish," Mr. Sheaffer said with a frown. "We were on the West Coast and sailfish don't frequent the Gulf—not so you can catch 'em, anyway."

"But I did have some wonderful fishing," he added, brightening. "With Skeets Steedle and Charlie Bolch, we caught red snapper and beautiful grouper running up to 25 pounds out in the Gulf of Mexico over the reefs, and plenty of trout on the flats."

"That trout fishing is something," Harold Sheaffer continued with mounting enthusiasm. "We used bait casting tackle with Mirror Lures, fishing over the grass in shallow water in St. Joseph's Sound near Clearwater and in the channel of Hurricane Pass when the water was rolled."

John Link Scores 126 To Lead NRA Basketball League

Top 10 Scorers Named In Intermediate Loop Recreation Cage Play

John Link of the Intermediate League first place Bandits heads a list of the top 10 scorers with 126 points, followed by teammate Guy Johnson, and Dave Stimmel of the Panthers with 95 each.

Bucky Eller, Falcons, has scored 87 points; Jack Hummel, Aardvarks, 70; Rod Blansfield, Bandits, and Cliff Carney, Owls, 65; Dick Ely, 64, and Guy Cage, 57 for the Falcons; and Alan Reinhart of the Panthers has scored 56 points for the season.

In recent play, the Bandits rolled over the Aardvarks, 55-28, as Rod Blansfield scored 11 field goals and one foul in leading the Bandits' punch, and teammate John Link accounted for 15. The Aardvarks' Jack Hummel hit for 18 of a total 28.

The second place Panthers had to go all out to down vastly improved St. Nick's, 36-33.

Alan Reinhart led the Panther with 16 points, followed by Captain Bob Wiley with eight.

St. Nick's Ed Thompson scored 13 points, while David Coursey chipped in with eight.

Last Monday at the Armory, the Newark Hi-Y played their best brand of ball this season by downing the aggressive Falcons, 38-22.

Frank Jerzyk led the Hi-Y with 15 points, followed by teammate Ted Houle with 10. Dick Ely led the Falcons with 11.

Next week at the Armory on Monday at 7 p.m. it's the Bandits vs. Panthers; at 8, Newark Hi-Y vs. Aardvarks; and at 9, Motors vs. St. Nick's. Next Thursday, the Owls and Falcons play at 9 p.m.

"Quite a trick to casting for those spotted weakfish," he explained. "Skeets says you have to outsmart 'em—reel real fast—and if you don't, you don't catch trout. It works—and they were beautiful fish—in beautiful weather, too," he said with a slight shudder after a quick look out of the office window into the wintry, windy, gray daylight over Newark's Main Street.

The Seddon Sportsmen's Sailfish

Walter G. Seddon (left) of Newark, caught this 51½ pound semitar snouted sailfish recently from the Mystery I out of Haulover Inlet, just north of Miami Beach, Fla., while drift fishing with a live blue runner. Captain Bill Seddon (right) who might pass for Louie's golf pro Johnny Long, is Walter's brother and skipper of the Mystery I. The big sailfish was a long-time leader in the current Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament—and if the sail hadn't been such a whopper, the Seddon brothers would have released it to swim and fight again, as they have done with other, less sizeable specimens.

Last Friday, at P. S. du Pont, the Yellowjackets lost a close 23-19 match to the more experienced Dynahs.

At Dover, Charles Cole, and Brown, Dziewit, and Harrington defeated their opponents; Wayne Crisman wrestled Dover's John Reish to a draw in the 175-lb. class; and Howard Thomas, Jim Craun, Howdy Wallace and Burton won by forfeit.

Yellowjackets Beat Colonials To Tie For 4th In Conference

Coach Ray Ciesinski's Newark High Cagers Win Game From Colonials, 61-51. As Carl Rice Scores Yellowjackets To Close Season Friday At Brandywine

Coach Ray Ciesinski's Newark Yellowjackets beat the William Penn Colonials last Friday night at Newark, 61-51, as Carl Rice rang up 24 big points for the cagers in their second victory of the season over the Wood's Pennmen. The Yellowjackets joined the Colonials in their first meeting at Newark.

Ciesinski's cagers close the current campaign tonight away at Brandywine. In an earlier game at Newark, the Yellowjackets stopped the Brandywiners, 42-39.

Tied with William Penn for fourth place in the Blue Hen Conference, the Yellowjackets can clinch the No. 4 spot this Friday with a repeat victory over Brandywine—and if the Colonials lose their Friday night test with the powerful Dynahs of P. S. duPont High School.

In their most recent win over William Penn, the Yellowjackets had several uneasy moments in the third period when their hosts drew within four points of Newark.

Challenge
But the Yellowjackets were more than equal to the challenge and drew away by 17 points, with Big Ray Ciesinski calling on his reserves in the final quarter.

The Yellowjackets have record for the season with losses to Mt. Pleasant and three successive wins over mere, Wilmington and Brandywine, and suffering through game losing streak with Pont, Archmere, Conrad, Redding, Mt. Pleasant andilmington.

A home game against Newark back on the calendar. Ciesinski's cagers have of the last four—and hope it four out of five with son's log after Friday's Brandywine.

FFA Goes Hunting
For Farm Hazards
In Safety Project

The Future Farmers of America, Newark chapter, have sent out a hunting party — armed with note pads and pencils — and their quarry is unprotected hay chutes, frayed electric wires, broken steps — anything that can cost a farmer life or limb.

The hunt is the first step in a community improvement project, with Charles Walther and Frank Jezek, chairman.

"We're trying to help farmers have safer places to live and work," they said. "Our teams will hunt for hazards and urge farmers to remove them."

The boys hope to visit all farms in the area. For every hazard a team finds, it will score two points toward an award which the Newark Future Farmers chapter will present in May to the best CIP team. For every hazard team members get farmers to remove, they'll get five more points.

The boys will also get five points for explaining how a hazard can be eliminated.

Team members who win the award will have not only the pleasure of winning, but the satisfaction of knowing they have helped make another farm and home a safer, happier place to live.

McDaniel, Cover To Speak
At Poultrymen's Meeting

Can Delmarva poultrymen survive the competition from red meat, from other broiler producing areas, and from each other?

Dr. William E. McDaniel, chairman of the department of agricultural economics at the University of Delaware, will try to answer this question at the regional poultry meeting at Salisbury, Md., March 11, according to Ralph Barwick, assistant extension poultryman with the University of Delaware. Registration begins at 8:45 a.m.

The last topic in the morning session will be Dr. McDaniel's talk. The afternoon session will be split into a broiler section and an egg producers section, Barwick said.

Dr. Morris S. Cover, poultry pathologist, University of Delaware, will talk on "The Latest on L. T. and S. Yovisovits."

Meat-Cooking Tips
For Homemakers
Offered By Expert

Ronald Davis, National Livestock and Meat Board, Chicago, gave a demonstration and talk on selection, care and cooking of meat, during the recent Farm and Home Week program in Newark.

The meat specialist strongly recommends use of a thermometer to prevent overroasting, and "Use as low heat as possible... roast at 300 degrees for all meat except pork at 350 degrees."

When roasting or broiling meat, Davis said the meat should always be placed on a rack to keep it out of the drippings and a cover should not be used, particularly on tender cuts.

With the less tender cuts such as chuck, pot roasts and round steak, a cover should be used during cooking.

Davis said an easy way to tell top quality is to look for marbling — an "intermingling of fat with lean."

Home Accidents
Kill 67 In State
During Past Year

Sixty-seven persons were killed in home accidents in Delaware last year, the Delaware Safety Council reported yesterday. The 1957 fatality total was 63.

Falls accounted for 30 of the 67 fatal accidents, and fires for 24 deaths. Suffocation caused five home deaths; poisoning, one; and seven were due to other causes.

The figure of 67 deaths has "caused us in the Delaware Safety Council to pledge ourselves to redouble our efforts to leave no stones unturned in reducing the number this year," declared Mrs. William N. Cann, council vice-president for home safety.

The February issue of the Home Safety Leader, a council publication, emphasizes things to do to plan a hazard-free home.

The five-page issue features a check list of 57 questions householders may ask themselves on safety in their homes.

Copies of the Home Safety Leader are available at the Delaware Safety Council office.

"Outstanding Young Man"

Merritt E. Tilley, Jr., of Newark, general chairman of the Delaware Jaycee project, said today that "Delaware's outstanding young man of the year" will be announced at the second annual banquet next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Avenue Methodist Church at Milford.

Principal speaker for the banquet will be Grover Gouker, national vice-president.

The plaque will be presented to the 1959 recipient by Dolphus B. Wilkins of Milford, last year's winner.

Nancy Williams, Miss Delaware of 1958, will present a certificate to the winner and silver cups to the runners-up.

Father-Daughter Banquet
Held By Neighborhood D

At the recent father-daughter banquet held by Girl Scouts of Neighborhood D, Chestnut Hill and Todd Estates, ladies were presented to Christine Baker, Patsy Bethard, Patrice Kosey, Paula Donahue, Jackie Meyer, and Marion Roder, of Troop 469, led by Mrs. E. V. Roder and Mrs. Bob Meyer.

Winners Reported
For Inter-Fleet
Safety Contest

Six firms have been declared winners, and five others have earned honorable mention in the 1958 Inter Fleet Safety Contest run by the Delaware Safety Council, it was announced yesterday by Dorsey B. Kinnaman, council vice-president for public safety.

The five first place winners are: Burris Food Distributors, Inc., Milford; The Atlantic Refining Company, Wilmington; Slaughter Beverage Transport, Smyrna; Delaware Hardware Company, and Brake & Equipment Company, Inc., Wilmington.

Among the 11 winners, eight had no accidents at all; the others had the lowest percentage of accidents per 1,000 miles traveled in their groups. Among the 39 fleets, 31 had a total of 274 accidents.

Miss Ethel Lord of Asbury Park, N. J., immediate past governor of the North Atlantic Region of Soroptimist clubs, will be the guest of the local club at the regular meeting in the Newark Country Club next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

Entries Invited
In Junior Broiler
Program For 1959

Deadline Of March 14
Set For Entry Blanks
From 10-19-Year-Olds

Delaware 4-H Club members and vocational agriculture students have been invited to enter the 1959 Junior Broiler program by Ralph P. Barwick, extension poultry specialist with the University of Delaware. The annual contest was entered by 111 young people last year.

All contestants will be invited to the festival as guests of Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc.

Contestants from 10 to 19-year-olds as of Jan. 1, 1959, may enter by filing entry blanks with county 4-H Club agents or vocational agriculture instructors not later than March 14. Each contestant is permitted to make one entry of chicks.

An entry is 50 straight-run chicks, although more may be raised in the same flock. Wingbands furnished must be attached to chicks entered within 24 hours after they are received.

Contestants are encouraged to obtain their own chicks, keeping in mind that they should be meat-type birds from a pullorum-typhoid clean source. Chick donations from hatcheries and service clubs will be requested for contestants who cannot obtain birds. Chicks must be hatched between March 30 and April 1.

Each contestant will select six cockerels for dressing, judging and displaying at the close of the project, and will be responsible for delivering the birds where designated. The six birds will become property of the program committee and be used to help cover expenses.

Training meetings will be held in each county to discuss equipment needed, caring for chicks, selecting birds for program finals, and covering rules and the schedule of events for the program.

20 Million 4-H Alumni
Receive Special Tribute

If all the men and women in the United States who have been 4-H Club members stood shoulder-to-shoulder they would reach from Washington, D. C. to Easter Island in the South Pacific — about 6,000 miles as a crow would go — if he wanted to go to Easter Island, that is.

This is just a way of saying that there are a lot of 4-H alumni around... some 20 million in fact, according to Don Burton, New Castle County 4-H Club Agent. During National 4-H Club Week, special tribute will be paid these 20 million.

Tests On Soybeans Disclose Top Seed For State Farmers

Variety tests of soybeans were made at Newark and at the Georgetown station by University of Delaware agronomists last year to find the top yielding soybean varieties for the Delaware area.

Dr. Henry Indyk, agronomist with the school of agriculture, said that of the early maturing varieties, Clark continues to be the top yielding variety in Delaware.

The major problem with Clark is poor seed quality, Indyk said. This fault can be overcome by planting at the right time, after June 15, but before the 25th.

"Even a small loss in bushels is better than getting poor quality beans," Indyk said.

The Hood variety which is a new late maturing soybean, intended to replace Ogden, looks good. It has outyielded Ogden by six per cent over tests in the last five years.

Spring Fertilizer Tips Offered By Dick Harris

Most trees and shrubs (excluding newly planted ones), require a spring feeding for optimum growth, says Dick Harris, county urban assistant. The fertilizer should be applied before June 1, however, the earlier applications are better—before the leaves come out.

Trees need fertilizers of higher nitrogen content than do flowering shrubs or evergreens. Such ratios as 5-10-5 or 10-10-10 are usually applied the assistant said.

The common rule-of-thumb for determining the amount of fertilizer needed is one to three pounds per inch of diameter of the trunk.

The fertilizers needed for flowering shrubs are similar to those of trees at smaller rates. Sprinkle 1/4 or 1/2 cup of 5-10-5, 5-10-10, or 4-6-4, over each square yard of ground below the individual shrub and then rake it lightly into the soil.

March Plymouth Schedule Highest Since Aug. 1957

More Plymouth automobiles have been scheduled for production during March than in any month since August 1957, the Plymouth division announced last week as all four of its assembly plants resumed operations.

The previous high figure was reached during the record-breaking 1957 model year when Plymouth produced 636,841 cars to set a domestic market record for the number of cars built.

Harry E. Chesebrough, Plymouth general manager, stated: "We plan to go full blast during March to produce as many 1959 Plymouths as we possibly can without sacrificing high standards of quality. On the basis of dealer orders and public acceptance of our car, there is every reason to believe we will be able to continue to build Plymouth cars at high volume."
