FHA DIRECTOR RESIGNS POST, BANKERS TOLD

Merger of Philadelphia and Wilmington Offices Is Announced This Week

SPRINGER IS ADVISOR

Wilmington Headquarters To Be Continued As Unit Of Eastern Penna. Dist.

In a communication to State of Delaware leading institutions operating in the insured mortgage program, J. Griffith Boardman, Eastern Pennsylvania Director, Federal Housing Administration, on Monday announced the administrative consolidation of the Wilmington-Philadelphia office, and pledged speedy and efficient cooperation in the underwriting of home-mortgage loans.

"Mr. Willard Springer, former Delaware State director of the Federal Housing Administration, has announced his retirement from that government post May 15, so that he may devote all his time to private business," Mr. Boardman said at Wilmington Monday. "Mr. Springer properly feels that he has accomplished his assigned task of getting the FHA program vigorously under way in Delaware. At the request of Washington FHA officials he has graciously consented to continue serving in an advisory capacity in the Wilmington FHA office."

Bankers Are Notified

Mr. Boardman's letter was sent to the following officers of New Castle County financial institutions: J. P. Wright, president, Newark Trust Company; Francis A. Cooch, president, Mutual Building and Loan Association, Newark; Daniel Thompson, president, Farmers Trust Co., Newark; Harry L. Gray, president, Saint Georges Trust Co., St. Georges; James R. Clements, Clayton Bank and Trust Co., Clayton; Frederick Kniffen, president, Claymont Trust Co., Claymont; and Thomas W. Farrell, president, Arden Building and Loan Association, Arden.

Mr. Boardman's announcement follows:

"Mr. Stewart McDonald, administrator of the Federal Housing Administration."

Farmers Advised To Vaccinate To Avoid Fowl Pox

An increased number of New Castle County poultrymen are planning to vaccinate their pullet flocks for fowl pox this year reports County Agricultural Agent G. M. Worrlow, of Newark. Fowl pox vaccination is cheap insurance against future losses. Poultrymen who take a chance and figure they will save time and money by not vaccinating for pox, quite often learn the costliness of their mistake in decreased fall and winter egg production as well as mortality.

Fowl pox is prevalent in communities where poultry is raised on a large scale, and being very contagious it spreads through all the flocks in the community. Fowls that have had pox, naturally become resistant to the disease because they build up an immunity to it which lasts for several years. Vaccination does the same thing at a time when the bird is in condition to withstand the shock.

Double Needle Method Used
Chickens should be vaccinated at 8 to 12 weeks old. The double needle method is most commonly used. Two persons can vaccinate from 100 to 300 birds per hour depending upon their experience.

Vaccine can be purchased from commercial laboratories at any time at a very small cost, or it can be obtained free of charge from the poultry disease laboratory of the State Board of Agriculture at Dover. When writing for vaccine, state the number of birds to be treated. Poultry Pathologist H. R. Baker, advises that this year's supply of vaccine prepared by the state board will be available to poultrymen after May 20.

Mr. F. H. Leuschner, extension poultryman, or the county agent, will furnish further details concerning this phase of management to interested poultrymen.

HOUSING BOARD ENDORSES BILL

Measure Before Congress To Provide For Housing of Low Income Families

At a recent meeting, the State Board of Housing endorsed the principles embodied in the Wagner-Steagall Low-Rent Housing Bill before Congress. Copies of the resolution of endorsement have been sent to Delaware's senators and representatives, and to the chairmen of the congressional committees now considering the bill.

The Wagner-Steagall bill provides for a long-term permanent program of federal aid to state and local governments and other local agencies for the provisions of decent housing for families of low income and for slum clearance.

Power To Make Loans

The proposed United States Housing Authority would have authority and the funds to make loans and annual grants to local housing authorities. The low-rent character of the projects is definitely secured, occupancy being strictly limited to families who are not being adequately housed by private building. Standard working conditions and fair wages are assured to labor on the projects.

Local housing authorities will have full responsibility for developing their own policies, making surveys, and determining housing needs. They will choose sites, select tenants, and work out their own systems of management.

Delaware has all the legal authority needed to benefit under this program, with a State Board of Housing already functioning, and with the necessary law on its books since 1934 providing for the creation of local housing authorities.

Model Log Home Sold To Wilmington Couple

Mrs. Katharine Wilson Williams, representing Brown and Madden, Inc., Wilmington real estate agents, announced on Tuesday night the sale of J. Clifford Willis' model log house, Capital Trail, to Walter H. Salzenberg, Wilmington.

Built for his own use, Mr. Willis has constantly refused to rent the house and only lately considered selling the property. Mr. Salzenberg, an engineer with the E. I. duPont de Nemours Company, expects to bring his family from New Brunswick, N. J., at an early date.

Plans Made For Second Short Course At College

Plans for the second annual Delaware homemakers' short course to be given at the Women's College, University of Delaware, from June 13 to 16, are nearing completion and will be announced next week, Mrs. Helen McKinley, state leader of home demonstration work, announced this week.

The annual affair, which last year brought 60 Delaware homemakers to the local campus, is planned to attract women interested in homemaking and to give them an opportunity to learn of new methods and practices in all its phases.

URGE CAUTION BE EXERCISED BY DOG OWNER

State Agencies Issue United Warning Against Rabies
Spread In County

INOCULATION ADVISED

Delaware dog owners are cautioned to continue exercising strict vigilance against rabies, in a joint statement issued this week by the executive heads of the State Board of Agriculture, the Game and Fish Commission, and the State Board of Health.

Since a Wilmington dog was discovered suffering from rabies, last March, successive cases have been picked-up every week or two; to date the southernmost point of incidence has been slightly above St. Georges.

The disease is of a nature that may lie dormant for periods varying from ten days to a year, and then suddenly recur, without warning, in all its virulence; it is because of this, that state authorities are urging dog owners and others to in no way slacken their caution.

Transfer Easily Possible

Since the transfer of the disease from dog to dog is easily possible through bites or injuries, owners should make every effort to see that their dogs are protected from contact with stray animals. It is considered definitely unwise either to take animals into the infected area, or to accept any which may have been exposed to infection therein.

These authorities have repeatedly advised owners to consult veterinarians about the protective results to be expected from inoculation, but if this treatment is used, not to gain overconfidence and a feeling that it is the only preventive measure that need be put into effect.

Use Care In Killing

A dog suspected of having rabies should not be killed, if avoidable, immediately when he shows the first supposed signs of the disease, according to a pamphlet issued by the State Board of Health. If possible, lock him in a secure place from which he may not escape and do any harm, and give him normal amounts of food and water; not all dogs that an amateur diagnostician states have rabies are so afflicted, and the animal may recover. If he actually has rabies, he will die within a few days, probably within seven, by progressive paralysis.

GOV. McMULLEN SIGNS "DAMAGE" BILL TUESDAY

Town Council Authorized To

While members of the General Assembly were authorizing expenditures of state funds totaling $8,645,699 in a special one-day session at Dover, Tuesday, Governor Richard C. McMullen was affixing his signature to two bills introduced by Senator Norris N. Wright during the regular session.

The Governor's signature came as good news to seven property owners and two business establishments at the end of South College Avenue, where damages had not been allowed following the erection of the new span over the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Lesson for May 23

THE WEAKNESS OF ESAU

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 25:27-34; 27:41-45. GOLDEN TEXT—And every man that loveth his father or mother is not perfect in Christ. 1 Corinthians 13:2-3. PRIMARY TOPIC—Twin Brothers. JUNIOR TOPIC—Twin Brothers Trading. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Winning by Self-Control. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Conquering Appetite and Greed.

One of the difficult and at the same time challenging things about teaching the Word of God is that its divine precepts are diametrically opposed to the current philosophy of men. In our lesson of last week we saw that meekness and forbearance are strong and commendable qualities in a world which magnifies brute force. Today we are to study a portion of Scripture which shows the folly of living for the flesh, and we are living in a world where the flesh and its appetites are given full sway.

Professors in many colleges are openly advocating the free exercise of every fleshly appetite as a normal expression of life. Morality is cast off; the flesh rules. Many of the nations of the earth look upon boys and girls as merely so many physical units useful in a future war. Motherhood has been degraded into an animal-like function, solely for the breeding of more manpower. One nation recently advocated as great an increase as possible in the birth of illegitimate children to be cared for by the state as a measure of national security. One shudders to mention such unspeakable wickedness, but even so we have only touched the surface.

Is it true that man is but a beast? Is there no spirit in man capable of fellowship with God? Has the moral law of God been abrogated? The story of Esau and Jacob is most pointed and instructive in its answer to such questions. Two New Testament quotations have been chosen to express the truth of an Old Testament lesson; namely, Galatians 5:17, and 6:7.

I. "The Flesh Lusteth Against the Spirit" (Gen. 25:27-34).

Esau is a type of the man of the flesh. He was "a cunning hunter, a man of the field." Evidently he was an athletic, outdoor man of attractive personality, of free and easy-going spirit. He was a hail-fellow-well-met. Had he lived in our day he would have been featured in the rotogravure, would probably have been in the movies, would possibly have been a great athlete, and the good-looking boy who set hearts a-flutter at the country club dance. He came from the hunt, and he had found nothing. He was hungry. What a type this is of the folly of seeking satisfaction in the world. It never satisfies. For all its glitter and glamour, it is empty and shallow. He had a birthright—a valuable possession in any case, but doubly so as a son of Abraham. But he was hungry, he would simply die if he did not eat. His brother Jacob, inspired by his scheming mother who was not willing to abide God's time for the fulfillment of his promise, had the savory potage ready to tempt him and he sold his birthright for a "gulf of that red stuff," for so might v. 30 be translated.

One is reminded of a clergyman who attended the Keswick Conference in England. He sent a request for prayer to the platform and asked this question: "I have a habit which is dishonoring to Christ. If I give it up I will die. What shall I do?" The wise and complete answer was one word—"Die." Rather should we lose our body and its desires than to lose our soul.

II. "Whatsoever a Man Soweth That Shall He Also Reap" (Gen. 27:41-45).

Jacob and his mother found that one lie called for another, and ultimately their deceit led (as deceit always does) to the place of reckoning. The law of sowing and reaping is inexorable. Jacob fled from his angry brother. Rebekah thought it would be for "a few days" (v. 44), but it proved to be twenty years, and she never saw her favorite son again.

Let us make no mistake about it. Our sins will always find us out. Even God's people must learn to walk uprightly before Him if they are to walk in peace.

The Season of Hope

Youth is the season of hope, enterprise, and energy, to a nation as well as an individual.—W. R. Williams.

Part of His Plan

I find most help in trying to look on all interruptions and hindrances to work that one has planned out for one's self as discipline, trials, sent by God to help one against getting selfish over one's work.—Annie Keary.

Bountiful Blessings

Forever from the hand that takes one blessing from us, others fall; and soon or late, our Father makes his perfect recompense to all.—Whittier.

Equipment and Corn

5 COMPANIES RESPOND

Mrs. Sarah Cloud Hannum of Kennett Square spoke on the "Wild Flowers in Pennsylvania and Delaware." An exhibit of wild flowers was shown by her also.

A paper was read by Mrs. Paul W. Mitchell, "The Wild Flowers of California." A piano solo was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Mitchell, "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell.

Carnival Committee

Ernest Crossan, chairman of the carnival to be held from June 23-26 for the benefit of the Hockessin Fire Company, has selected the following committee to make further plans: Samuel S. Dennison, Clarence Highfield, Clarence Collins, Elmer Taylor, Edward Halloran, Robert Kelton, Caleb Wilson, James Beason, and Mrs. Margaret Collins, chairman of the Ladies Auxiliary.

ROOKIE

"I've only been with the telephone company two months. I'm just a rookie in the ranks. But I've noticed one important thing about this outfit. The big idea around here is SERVICE. That's all I hear. And it's more than a word — it's the real thing. Everybody I've met here works with one thought always in mind — how can we best serve the public? Seems to me, a company with that attitude is on the right track."

Service records of twenty, thirty, even thirty-five years are not unusual among telephone men and women. Most of us regard this as our life's work. Naturally, then, we're vitally interested in this business of ours. That interest is reflected in constant improvement in your telephone service. Today you can telephone across the state or across the nation as easily and clearly as you telephone across the street. Try a long distance call tonight after seven, or any time Sunday, when reduced rates are in effect, and see for yourself.

Delaware Power and Light Co. Showing New Fixtures

Displaying in this section for the first time, a new power-driven floor polisher was shown by the Delaware Power and Light Company, 600 Market St., Wilmington, this week. Built by the Eureka Vacuum Cleaner Co., the polisher is designed for use on any type of flooring. The tremendous volume of air delivered at high pressure by the Eureka vacuum cleaner is used to propel a large, rotary turbine-polishing brush at amazing speed. W. L. C. Lang, sales manager of the Delaware Power and Light Co., pointed out.

The rotary polishing brush is mounted to the back of a special turbine fan and they operate together at great speed. The speed plus the weight of the fan and brush produce the friction necessary in effective polishing.

A special trade-in plan is being offered owners of vacuum cleaners.

The number of men employed in the steel works is nearly double the low record of 1932.

By Miss Emma S. Maclary
Newport, May 19.—Ground was broken on Saturday afternoon for the addition to the Newport M. E. Church, which building will provide an addition to the Sunday School rooms, as well as a large social hall which will be used for meetings of the various church organizations. The project is estimated will cost $12,000. Arthur G. Craig, chairman of the building committee, arranged the exercises on Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. J. C. McCoy, pastor of the Newport M. E. Church, presided, and made the opening prayer, and the congregation sang "I Love My Church." The Newport Church choir sang a hymn, under the direction of Mrs. Blenna J. Tatman, director of the choir.

The Rev. O. A. Bartley, pastor of the Brandywine M. E. Church, Wilmington, addressed the group, and commented that this glad day had been looked forward to for some time, and he rejoiced with the people that their aim in having this church addition was being realized. He cited two building projects as studied in the Bible, and expressed the hope that this project would progress without interruption. Following Rev. Bartley's address, Mrs. Elizabeth Hilyard, the oldest living member of the Sunday School who has 60 years of active service behind her, and little Dallas Green, four years old, and a member of the Beginners' Class, turned the first spadeful of dirt for the new building. Mrs. Hilyard was presented with a beautiful bunch of lilies of the valley, the presentation being made on behalf of the Sunday School, by Jacqueline Bratton. The section where the building will be erected was staked off, and a man with a plow proceeded to plow the ground in readiness for the foundation. Many of the members, including the Rev. McCoy and the Rev. Bartley exhibited their ability at the plow.

W. A. Thompson, industrial fire chief of the Pyrties Company, Wilmington, was the principal speaker, stating that industrial fire chiefs would be glad to cooperate with the volunteer association in the development and promotion of all phases of firemen's endeavors. He referred particularly to the fire essay contests which the volunteer fire companies have conducted, stating that this teaches the children along fire prevention lines, and they will have a better understanding of fire prevention than the present generation has. He pointed out that "fire control" is very essential, and must be studied, but stated "fire prevention" is still a more important subject. In conclusion, Chief Thompson commented "We volunteer firemen owe it to ourselves, our families and to our communities to bring home to our fellow citizens the importance of his personal responsibilities for the correction of unsafe and dangerous conditions."

UNIQUE STORE TO INTRODUCE FOOT SERVICE

Dr. Scholl's Traveling Shop
To Be At Pilnick's All
Day Wednesday

1,000 PAIRS OF SHOES

Truth is stranger than fiction and that adage may be aptly applied to this story. To build shoes that would satisfy the most discriminating taste and, at the same time, fit comfortably has been the despair of shoe manufacturers.

Years ago, Dr. Scholl, famous foot authority, began working on a line of shoes that would completely solve this knotty problem. When he gave to the public his now famous line of shoes, his efforts were crowned with success.

Here Next Wednesday

Meyer Pilnick, who for years has carried a full line of Dr. Scholl's foot remedies and appliances, has arranged a demonstration of Dr. Scholl's shoes at his store, 50 East Main Street, on Wednesday, May 26. Dr. Scholl's foot and shoe experts will bring with them advance showings of the complete line of new style shoes. There will be 600 fittings to meet the most fastidious tastes and all types of feet, in sizes for men from 6 to 14; for women from 3 to 11; in widths from AAAA to EEE.

Feet Are Different

Unless one has made an intensive study of the feet, he would never realize how many different kinds there are. Here is a woman who has a short, stubby foot; the next is a man with a long, slim foot with a narrow heel; the next customer has a high arch and, his friend, weak, broken-down arches.

Then there are legions who have foot troubles such as corns, callouses, bunions, crooked, over-lapping toes and those who continually run their heels over. In short, many people will tell you, "I have the hardest foot in the world to fit." It is this class, Mr. Pilnick says, who should be vitally interested in Dr. Scholl's shoes and the forthcoming demonstration.

Array of Shoes

With this array of shoes there will be included the latest model X-Ray machine, the pedograph and Dr. Scholl's automatic shoe sizer. In testing feet and fitting these shoes all guesswork is eliminated.

Dr. Scholl has given the growing feet of children the same careful consideration as he has adults. He claims that many of the foot ailments from which men and women suffer today can be traced back to improperly made or fitted shoes when their feet were in the tender, plastic stage of childhood.

Heck, supervisor.

Children's Day exercises will be held at the Salem M. E. Church on Sunday evening, May 30.

Farm Cash Income From Milk Makes New Five-Year High

FARMERS' cash income from the nation's milk production totaled $1,417,000,000 for 1936, an increase of $128,000,000, or 9.9 per cent over the 1935 total, according to the Milk Industry Foundation.

Farm milk income has increased nearly 50 per cent since the depression low. Cash milk income for December 1936 of $113,000,000 was 91.5 per cent of the 1924-29 average compared with the 78.5 index figure for agriculture as a whole.

Since milk production in 1936 is estimated to have increased by 2 per cent to 3 per cent over 1935, the past year's larger cash payments to farmers are chiefly due to higher unit prices paid for milk. Increasing consumption of milk in fluid form, for which farmers receive their highest prices per quart, also helped to increase dairy farmers' milk checks.

While supply and demand are in fair adjustment for the nation as a whole, there has been an unusually high production of milk in some sections of the country.

Farmers are evidently feeding their herds well despite high feed prices. This, together with the high percentage of cows being milked, has caused a substantial increase in milk production in most markets.

To aid farm income this increase in production can best be marketed through stimulating consumption of milk in fluid form, as milk used for butter and other products brings the dairy farmer lower prices.

Lions Change Meeting Site; Members Honored

The Lions Club of Newark voted to stage meetings during the summer at the Newark Country Club, following a "sample" meal there Tuesday evening. The club group has used the Deer Park Hotel as headquarters for several years.

Meal service was introduced on a limited scale at the country club last Sunday under the direction of Ray Goodwin, proprietor of a Main Street restaurant and former steward at the Cumberland (Md.) Country Club.

In the absence of President Joseph M. McVey, John K. Speicher, vice-president, was in charge of the weekly session of the Lions.

Greetings were extended to C. Emerson Johnson, Leonard Fossett, Louis K. Staats and William Holloway, new members, by Alexander D. Cobb, Sr., chairman of the membership committee. Keys as a reward for obtaining new members were presented to Lions T. A. Baker, George Danby and James H. Hollingsworth.

Grange Claims Broadest Foundation Of Any Organization Now Existing

By Robert Yearsley

Lecturer, Delaware State Grange

The Grange lives because it rests on the broadest foundation enjoyed by any organization—the farmer and his family. Fortunate it was that from the beginning the Grange developed as its goal, better manhood and womanhood and emphasized the fact that the farmer is more important than the farm. Good soil and good agricultural practices are necessary, but better men and women are fundamental. The bedrock of the entire Grange structure is the Subordinate Grange. Growth and loyalty here make it possible to support an organizational structure that will become imposing and permanent. Of equal importance is the great contribution of the Grange to our youth.

Young People's Rights

Ours was the first farm organization to grant the young people equal voice and vote with their parents. They are not only welcomed in the Grange, but they are the life blood of the order. It is not necessary for the order to build any youth movement or women's auxiliary. They are an integral part of the organization.

A "tour of Delaware counties" featured the lecturer's hour at the Delaware Grange meeting Monday evening. Robert P. Robinson discussed Sussex County; Joseph Clark, Kent; and Mrs. Edward Weer, New Castle.

Mrs. Helen McCallister and Mrs. Eleanor Clark will have charge of the program next Monday night, and on May 31 the annual "ladies night" will be observed. It was announced the annual Grange festival will be held at the church house June 4.

Hockessin Meets Monday

Hockessin Grange will hold its regular meeting Monday evening in the Grange Hall.

Harmony Grange, No. 12, sponsored the play, "Comin' Thru the Rye," by the Red Lion Dramatic Club on Monday evening. About 125 attended and the proceeds were turned over to the hospital committee. The meeting on May 24 will be "married folks" night under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Springer.

V. F. W. Elect Raymond Edmanson As Commander

Reorganization of the J. Allison O'Daniel Camp, No. 475, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at a meeting held Monday night in the Academy Building. Officers elected were: Raymond Edmanson, commander; Stephen McCormick, senior vice-commander; Horace C. Davis, junior vice-commander; William F. Rupp, chaplain; J. Mance Tweed, officer of the day; Raymond Mercer, quartermaster; and R. E. Reynolds, Harry A. Kelley and J. E. Daugherty, trustees.

Installation of the newly-elected officers will be held at the post rooms on Monday, May 24 at 8 o'clock. Regular meetings of the auxiliary are held on Thursday while the men's organization meets on Monday.

I CALL IT MY JACK RABBIT PAINT REMOVER because it works so fast

ONE of the biggest secrets of a good professional-looking job is having the surface in A #1 shape before repainting. But ordinary folks hate to spend a lot of time taking off ugly old paint, varnish and enamel.

You don't have all that hard work when you use my Jack Rabbit Semi-Paste Remover because here is all you do: Put it on with a brush, just like paint. In a few minutes it eats far down under the old finish. Then scrape it off with a putty knife.

My Jack Rabbit Paint and Varnish Remover has many advantages over the ordinary remover. Being a semi-paste you can apply it to up-and-down surfaces without having it run off. Also, it stays wet much longer, thus permitting thick films of paint to be softened in only one application.

Visit my authorized dealer this week and take advantage of his special money-saving offer on the pint size. While you're there, ask for my free color card showing the beautiful modern color combinations you can get with my Zan-Z-Lac Quick Drying Enamel for furniture and woodwork. It's a fine team-mate for my Jack Rabbit Paint Remover.

"MY 117-INCH WHEELBASE NASH
COST ME ONLY A FEW DOLLARS
MORE THAN THOSE SMALLER CARS!"

Before you make any decisions, read
this experience of
Mr. Harry V. Kegel

"Remember the old saying, 'What you don't know—won't hurt you?' Well, that fits me. I didn't realize how much I wanted a big car until I got one. The way my Nash Lafayette '400' gets away in traffic, the way it just hums along the road... the extra room in it... the substantial, luxurious 'feel' of it—it's hard for me to express just how pleased I am. Believe me, it feels grand to be out of the 'All Three' class!"

Actual photograph of Nash Lafayette "400" 4-Door Sedan with trunk

*FOR AS LITTLE AS $1 OR $2 A MONTH EXTRA you can get out of the "All Three" class. A check-up recently made in ten representative cities shows that the Nash Lafayette "400" 4-Door Sedan with trunk DELIVERS for just a FEW dollars more than the similarly equipped 4-Door sedans of the "All Three" small cars. In many places, the SLIGHT difference in price amounts to just $1 or $2 a month extra on your time payments.

Legion Offers Memorial Day Cooperation

The Annual American Legion Memorial Vesper Service is conducted by this Post at the Memorial Library on Memorial Day Sunday each year.

The Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion reads in part, as follows:

"For God and Country we associate ourselves together—to foster and perpetuate a 100% AMERICANISM—to preserve the memories of our association in the War and—to INCULCATE A SENSE OF INDIVIDUAL OBLIGATION TO THE COMMUNITY, STATE AND NATION."

This Post is proud of what it has done in this community and the services they have been able to render in Newark.

As Sunday, May 30th, is Memorial Day, this Post is only too glad to cooperate, with the Mayor and his Community Memorial Day Committee, in combining their Memorial Vesper Service with the Mayor's program for the good of the "Community, State and Nation."

What! Still Shouting Alibis?

Accustomed, no doubt, to presenting alibis after picking Governor Alfred M. Landon to defeat President Roosevelt in the late national election, the Honorable Wilfred J. Funk, editor of The Literary Digest, in a special despatch to Delaware editors under date of May 19, attempts to "laugh off" a formal condemnation of his publication by the special session of Delaware's Legislature on Tuesday.

The learned Mr. Funk would have us believe that his notorious periodical is being used "for a whipping-boy to absorb the shock . . . to establish an alibi with (legislators') families and . . . constituents at home" for alleged, by The Literary Digest, hilarity on the last night of the regular session of the General Assembly.

Alibis are needed, it's true, but since the members of the Delaware Legislature completed their business at a special session on Tuesday—without pay—we can see no room for criticism on that score.

But The Literary Digest, after that harrowing experience of last November, seems not to have learned a lesson. It's still offering alibis and finding them handy.

direct a special memorial program as part of the memorial vesper service. Introduced by the J. Allison O'Daniel Post, of Newark, the Memorial Cemetery and Unknown Soldier replicas will be on display again this year as part of the program of respect to the war dead.

The Memorial Day program will be conducted by Past Commander Walter R. Powell and his committee and will include an all-day patrol of the Unknown Soldier's tomb by scouts and sons of legionnaires of Newark.

Graves of all ex-service men of all wars are to be decorated with flowers and flags on Saturday, which is a regular part of the national legion program.

ministration in Washington, D. C., in pursuance of the government re-trenchment policy, has authorized the consolidation of the Wilmington office, which includes the State of Delaware, with the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

To Continue Function

"The present Wilmington office will continue its functioning in the way of preliminary and valuation examinations of applications for insured mortgages under the provisions of Title II of the National Housing Act. The balance of the processing of such applications will be completed in the office covering the Eastern District of Pennsylvania located in the Federal Building, 9th and Market Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. This new arrangement, in the interest of economy, will in no way delay the regular processing of mortgage applications. "Every effort will be made by this office to continue the service rendered approved mortgagees by the Wilmington office, and Mr. William P. Carson, Manager of Financial Relations, will personally call upon you very shortly with a view to rendering all possible assistance. "Please do not hesitate to call upon us any time we may be of service."

"Damage" Bill Tuesday Gov. McMullen Signs

$100,000 and specifies that the money be used to redeem bonds due on February 1, 1937. Interest rates on the notes are limited to four per cent.

Serving at their one-day session Tuesday, without pay for themselves or their attaches, members of the General Assembly authorized expenditures of state funds totaling $8,654,699.

Included was $7,028,000 for maintenance and operation of the public school system for the next two fiscal years. This is the measure which failed to pass at the regular session and for which the special session was primarily called.

"Lost" Bills Re-Passed

One covered an appropriation to the Governor's contingent fund omitted from the general appropriation act; another authorized an appropriation for building jetties to protect Bethany Beach from erosion, a bill which had been passed at the regular session, but record of which was lost. Another prohibits fishing with trawl nets within the three-mile limit off the Delaware coast, also passed by the regular session, but of which record was lost.

The fifth authorized transfer of school funds to the general fund to be allotted the University of Delaware,

State College for Colored Students, and for operation of the State Tax Department.

The deadline for signing bills, 30 days after the Legislature ends its regular session, will be reached at midnight tonight.

Urges Caution Be Exercised by Dog Owner

If a person has been bitten by a dog even suspected to have rabies, he should immediately consult a physician and arrange for treatment, for, warns a State Board of Health publication, "only by being treated can one be sure that adequate safeguards have been taken."

"And" concludes the joint statement, "don't relax your vigilance over your pet!"

FOR A CAUSE

(There's point to this, but we'd suggest solicitors be used.—Ed.)

Sometime ago, one of our children was struck by an automobile and killed. Another child was recently struck and sent to the hospital with leg injuries. Through these unfortunate happenings, the glaring need for a suitable recreation location is evident.

We are much in need for a community center where our boys and girls can play games of sport without being in danger of being maimed for life or killed. Such a place would serve to educate our children to the dangers of playing on the street and keep them where their lives are safe.

The only way for us to obtain a community center is to ask donations from our business people and organizations. For this cause we shall solicit.

Donations will be taken care of by the Pride of Delaware Lodge of Elks, No. 349.

HOW MUCH?

Nobody has ever added up
The value of a smile,
We know how much a dollar's worth
And how long is a mile.
We know the distance to the sun,
The size and weight of earth,
But no one here can tell us just
How much a smile is worth.

For a good meringue allow 3 egg whites to a pie and 2 level tablespoons of sugar to each egg white, a few grains of salt, and a few drops of vanilla. Beat the whites until they are stiff but not dry, adding the sugar when they look glossy. Continue beating until the whites are stiff enough to stand in peaks. Spread the meringue over the top of the pie filling to the edge of the crust. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in a very moderate oven (325°) until delicately brown. The moderate heat allows the protein of the egg whites to cook through slowly and become firm so it will stand up after the meringue has cooled.

Betting Notes

Barber Bob Connell mopped up last week at the expense of this column while the A's were making their surprising dash to the top of the American League. . . but what goes up must come down and if Bob'll only stick to Connie's chillun, we have a hunch we'll be even before long. . . .

"THE ROAMER"

Incidentally, Bob lost his "jeep" while the horses were at Havre de Grace and a "good thing" in Boomerang went sour. . . . True to its name, however, the nag made a comeback at Pimlico and Bob, who is a sticker, cashed in at 7 1/2 to 1. He's been yelling over that one, all right, all right.

Pete (Scarbelly) Stiltz, another horse fancier (at the pari-mutuel windows), who occupied the same room this department recently occupied at the Wilmington Homeopathic and who received attentions from some of the same nurses, wants to borrow this space in order to tell all—he heard about us in the hospital. . . . We're game, Peter, but warn you to remember the "Three Little Pigs."

Pity The Duke

Wally Cuts Duke's Liquor, Air Trips and Late Hours; Reduces Smoking By Half—to repeat a "head" from a recent daily paper. . . . The story tells of how England's former King is in accord with Mrs. Warfield's attitude. . . . Maybe it's ok now, but for a guy who has always led a free and easy life, how long will he stand for that stuff? Wally, it is evident, didn't learn much from two former marriages and continues to practice the irksome art of possession over a husband, which is characteristic of American women and which probably accounts for a big majority of the bachelors who enjoy single blessedness.

On the subject of marriage, incidentally, did you note that Joe (Ninny) Charshee, last year a center fielder with the Newark Yellowjackets, had taken the gas pipe again? Miss Audrey E. Carr, Elk Mills, was the bride. . . . They will reside in Mercerville, N. J., where Ninny weaves and labors for a living.

In the absence of league baseball, the Yellowjackets are seeking games with the Penn A. C. and the Baltimore Orioles following the Milford series.

What Derby?

It happened on the night that practically the entire nation had its attention concentrated on Churchill Downs, Louisville, and Mike Pinlick tells it for a true story. To relate the tale, Harvey Armstrong, inveterate wearer of a derby hat, strode into Mike's shoe store shortly after the running of America's greatest racing classic. Said Mike, "Who won the Derby, Harvey?" "I do not know, Mr. Pinlick, who was chasing it off?" was the innocent response.

Huey Morris reports finding a grave marked, "Charles Rutledge," in a little cemetery near the crossroads village of West Liberty, Harford County, Maryland. . . . What's that you're wishing?

According to a recent article in Collier's, Timothy Pickering, Secretary of the Treasury, denounced Associate Justice (Supreme Court) John Rutledge as a "driveler and a fool." Things have improved for the Rutledge clan, however, or have they?

Hooray For Our Side

Ray, ray, ray—G. O. K.—Don't get alarmed if you hear a yell like that in the vicinity of Park Place and South College Avenue. It's merely the red headed stenor in Kells shouting over the victory of Martha Leahy Snyder, winner of the state "spelling bee." Both girls attended Christ Our King Parochial School in Wilmington. At different times, of course.

WEATHERLOW GOES ON TEAR

EDDIE STEALS SHOW IN 13-4
DIAMOND ICE CONQUEST HERE

Belts Homer With Bags Loaded, Double and Single As Brownies Route Whiteman and Argo; Pitcher Hit By Batted Ball; Milford Here Next Sunday; Barrow And Willis Clout Home Runs

By "The Roamer"

Newark's heretofore undefeated Yellowjackets of the independent baseball lots ran into a gang of swarthy ice men last Sunday at Continental Field and were belted for a 13-to-4 shelling. The Diamond Ice and Coal team that performed under the Middletown banner gained sweet revenge for a 7-to-4 stinging the Jackets hung on them two weeks back.

"Watta Man" Weatherlow

Although giving up a total of nine hits, including home runs by Bill Barrow and Vic Willis and a double by Ernie George, Lefty Rawley had enough on the ball to stop every Jacket attempt to level the score.

The big gun of the afternoon for the visitors, however, was Eddie Weatherlow who started the Brownies on a 4-run outburst in the second inning with a blazing double to right, and made another 4-run spurge possible in the seventh when he clouted a mighty homer over the centerfield barrier with the bags jammed.

Weatherlow missed a great opportunity to clear the bases in the fourth, when he rolled to Whiteman for the third out leaving three mates stranded.

Two were away in the seventh and the runways clogged with Brownies when Eddie teed off on Rube Argo's fast one, the ball clearing the distant fence in center with plenty to spare. In addition to a home run and double, Weatherlow also had a single.

Whiteman Off Form

Paul Whiteman, who stopped the Diamond delegation at Townsend two weeks ago, started on the mound for Newark but was ineffective. It might be said for the popular little hurler that less than a half hour before the start of the contest he had been knocked flat on his face by a ball hit by Jack Edmanson. Although Whiteman arose immediately and started to warm up, the blow on the head did him no good.

Argo took up the hurling assignment in the fifth and finished in good style, except for Weatherlow's mighty belt.

After Whiteman had singled and had been forced by O'Connell to open Newark's third, Barrow drove a pitch over the leftfield home run sector for two markers.

George's single, errors by Retting and Welsh and a fluke single by Sheets gave Newark its third run in the fourth.

Willis Bangs One

Stopped without a hit on ten trips to the plate in two ball games, Willis broke the slump with a home run that carried out of the park in left center in the eighth. George followed with a sizzling double to left, but Sheets ended the frame by rolling to Elliott.

Newark loaded the sacks in the ninth with one out when Argo walked, and Bones Egnor, swinging O'Connell's bat, singled to right ahead of Jackie Myers' bunt for a hit. Barrow popped to short left and Willis lifted an easy fly to Kelleher, however, to end the game.

Scheduled to pitch, George Winter left the mound work to Rawley. The former appeared as a pinch hitter in the ninth, however, and drilled a single to left. With Welsh and Jewell matching Weatherlow's three bingles, every man on the Diamond Ice team hit safely except Gallucia, who drew a pass on his only appearance at the plate.

Low Carey of U. of D. fame covered third for the visitors in auspicious style.

Face Milford Sunday

With a 2-game series with Milford scheduled to start at Continental Field next Sunday, the Newark team will need plenty of work this week to iron out the rough spots that developed in the Diamond Ice contest.

Milford will bring practically the same lineup that marched off with the independent championship of Delaware and the Eastern Shore last year, and the Jackets will have to be at their best to cope with the visitors. The second game of the series will be played at Milford on Sunday, May 30.

Hardware Outfit
Retains Hold On League Pinnacle

Racking up their third straight victory against no defeats and trimming Ellis Cullin's classy Continental Diamond Fibre crew for the second time in as many meetings, Jackson's Hardware warriors continued to command the Newark Twilight League for the third successive week.

Locked in a scoreless draw in the opening game of the season, the rivals staged a playoff battle Tuesday night with the leaders winning, 5-to-2. Big Bill Deaver limited the slugging Fibremen to five scattered bingles.

Paul Whiteman, Continental's starting hurler, was battered from the mound as the Jacksonites counted four runs in a big fourth inning. Charlie (Tink) Cole, the "Handy Andy" member of the Fibremen finally stemmed the tide. The relief hurler was found for a run in the fifth, but gave only one hit in the two innings he worked.

Costly errors by Bayard Perry, Continental's crooning catcher, and Jack Edmanson, coupled with timely hitting by Hal Hickman and Bud Lloyd, were contributing factors in the outcome.

National Loses-Wins

Losing their third straight game on Monday night, when Continental took them into camp by a 9-to-2 count, Charlie Moore's 1936 champions from the National Vulcanized Fibre plant came through last night to stop the Newark Cardinals, 6-to-0.

Officer LeRoy Hill, hurling for the Cards, failed to dim the aroused titleholders as Sid Argo, backed by some great fielding on the part of his mates, had little trouble in halting the Red Birds.

Reggie Conway was the winning pitcher Monday. He held the National sluggers to three hits, while fanning eight. Tommy Wright went the route for the losers, but gave up 14 bingles, including four doubles.

National and Jackson's were rained out last Friday night for the second straight time. Forthcoming games bring Jackson's and the Cards into action Friday night; Jackson's battle National on Monday and engage Continental on Wednesday.

W. C. TO MEET JONESMEN

Hurlers To Meet P. M. C. In Effort To Annex Seventh
Win; Netmen After 5th

Saturday, May 22, will wind up the University of Delaware's most unsuccessful spring sports program in several years. Slated to go into action for the last time this year, are the Blue Hen baseball, tennis and golf teams, with the hurlers and racquet-ers slated to perform on home grounds. The pill-chasers will cross drives with the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Coach Gerald (Doc) Doherty's charges will face Pennsylvania Military Academy on Frazer Field, in an effort to grab their seventh conquest of the season. With losses numbering eleven, the Hens record on the diamond has been far from flawless this spring.

Good Start

Off to an excellent start, when they copped the first two contests of the Southern trip, the Hens lapsed into a three-game losing streak, defeated West Chester State Teachers College and then resumed their tale of woe chalking up losses to the extent of six games, broken only by a victory over the Quantico Marines. Hampden-Sydney's submersion in a return engagement and a victory over George Washington University brightened the picture, but the Hens dropped the next two to Washington College and Dickinson to make it 11 losses and 6 wins for the season thus far.

Fresh from a 6-0 win over Rider College, the University of Delaware golf team will seek its fifth conquest of the season when drives and putts will be pitted against Navy representatives. To date, victories are sported over Dickinson, Rutgers, Osteopathy and Rider while Haverford was tied. Matches were dropped to Lehigh, Swarthmore, and Johns Hopkins.

Net Finale

Coach Ralph W. Jones' charges will wind up their net season when they engage Washington College, here, in a return engagement. The Hens sport an earlier 6-3 victory over the Shomans. Following a deadlocked match with St. Joseph's College, the Blue and Gold representatives dropped two successive matches to Western Maryland and Temple and then started on a winning streak which extended over four games and included victories

Firemen Grab Softball Opener from Churchmen

Two runs in the seventh inning provided the margin of victory as the Fire Company nosed out the Presbyterians, 9-8, in the Newark Softball League opener, Tuesday night. Sheaffer and Gibbs were batting stars for the Churchmen as they clouted out round-trippers while Morgan tripled on another long hit. Tasker, slugging Fireman, also slammed out a three-base blow. Batteries for the Fire Company: Lawson and Cranston; for the Presbyterians, Gillespie and Morgan.

SCREEN SNAPS

By "SNAPPER"

Samuel Goldwyn's Big Three

Two of the most important motion pictures in the long career of Samuel Goldwyn went into production today when cameras started turning on "Dead End" and "The Hurricane."

The latter, from the novel by Charles Nordhoff and James Norman Hall, authors of "Mutiny on the Bounty" is budgeted at $1,500,000 and offers the unusual situation of requiring the work of four "units" simultaneously. The primary unit will work under the direction of John Ford, who is responsible for the entire picture, another group is in Sonoma, a third will be assigned to special effects, and the fourth will operate aboard ship out of Los Angeles harbor. Starred in "The Hurricane" will be Dorothy Lamour, Raymond Massey, and Jerome Cowan. The screenplay is by Dudley Nichols.

William Wyler will direct "Dead End" the screen rights for which Goldwyn paid $165,000. In starring roles will be Sylvia Sydney, Joel McCrea, Humphrey Bogart and Wendy Barrie. In important parts will be the six New York youngsters who created such a sensation in the New York stage production of "Dead End." The screenplay is by Lillian Hellman.

Now in its fourth week of "shooting" is "Stella Dallas" the new version of the early Goldwyn film classic. This stars Barbara Stanwyck, John Boles and Anne Shirley under the direction of King Vidor.

Swinging merrily along to the tunes of the best songs ever written by the greatest writer of songs in the world, "On The Avenue," represents Irving Berlin at his melodious best in a musical that is full of pep and hitting good spirits. With Dick Powell and Madeleine Carroll making a new and romantic twosome of musical comedy, the 20th Century-Fox musical presents a real-life romance of New York, in a show that is big as the town. Alice Faye, The Ritz Brothers, and George Barbier add both melody and mirth to the production. Six big song hits come from the pen of Irving Berlin for this film. George O'Brien in "Park Avenue Logger" will be added to the bill on Saturday. Another added feature Saturday will be the return appearance of Mrs. James' Choir of local children. They will appear only once, at 8:30 p. m.

Bette Davis, who won last year's Academy award as the best actress, makes her 1937 bid for renewed honors in a gripping story taken from the headlines that have flashed across the front pages of America's newspapers for many months. This picture, declared by Miss Davis to give her the most powerful role she has ever portrayed, is "Marked Woman." The strong and vivid story gives Miss Davis ample opportunity for the sort of diversified emotional acting that won her the award for the best actress of last year. Humphrey Bogart and Eduardo Ciannelli head the supporting cast in the film.

Man the lifeboats! Run up the storm signals! "Ginger" Jane is in the Navy now, as the rollicking star of "The Holy Terror." Aided and JANE WITHERS abetted in the gayest fun-fest of her career by Anthony Martin, Leah Ray, Joan Davis and El Brendel the angel-faced imp sings her way into trouble and dances her way right out again. If the riot squad is not called out for this film then maybe I'm wrong. Things have happened like that you know.

Old-Clothes Maker Enjoys Unique Job
Fred Waring's task in the Hollywood movie studios is to make new clothes old.

To give the movie clothes their threadbare appearance he dumps the garments into washing machines and washes them for days at a time. Strange though it seems, he enjoys his job. He roughens shoes with files and sandpaper. Hats are held against a buffer to create worn spots. When wrinkles are in order, the clothes are rolled into bundles and put into a press over night.

Pirate and miner clothes are in reality clean clothes spotted with paint, sprinkled with fuller's earth rubbed with lampblack.

Wayne La Master, young southpaw who has made such a fine showing in spring training games, is of French descent but was born in a small town in Indiana. He is the smallest pitcher on the squad but the "biggest" in Jimmy Wilson's eyes at present.
