Dear Jimmy -

I'm still not dictating which explains why I have not written you or your father. I'm feeling much better.
The Colitis persists but the nervousness is better. I'm getting more and more into my normal stride and am much encouraged. We are spending a little more time in Cuernavaca. The Rosas and Miller spent a long week end with us.

How is your father? I hope all is going well. Please send me a line as to how he is getting on. No tariffs for the Company yet and the Common dividend will have to be passed. For God's sake the only thing to do. It is impossible for me with all my years here to fully approve what the Government has in mind - but the situation looks bad. They have allowed the matter of the Comiso to get into a situation which seems to be beyond their control now. I doubt if we see any clear answer before December.

This is just a hurried note before we leave for Mexico City. Love to you & Jane - and to all the family. Let me hear just a word about your father.

Always faithfully
