Steam, No Smoke Provides No Fire In Aetna Alarm

Local Volunteer Firemen Face Real Fires Tuesday With Farmhouse, Ceiling

Where there's smoke, there's fire—usually—but in this case, smoke proved to be steam and there was no fire at 67 Montrose Drive in Brookside when Chief Clifton Knotts with volunteer firemen manning two engines of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company responded to an alarm at 7:40 a.m. yesterday.

There were two very real fires last Tuesday, however, and Chief George Robinson led 32 men with three trucks to the Judge Morris property on Polly Drummond Hill when an alarm was received at a very early 2:12 a.m.

An old, abandoned farmhouse was completely involved in flame when the firemen arrived, and the building was destroyed.

At 7:55 a.m. that same day, Chief Knotts with 28 volunteers, three pumper trucks and the Aetna ladder truck, extinguished a fire in the ceiling of a residence at 344 Delaware Circle. Minor damage was reported from the fire caused by a light fixture too close to the ceiling.

Captain John Smith led 10 men with one engine in extinguishing a fire off South Chapel Street and Chestnut Hill Road after an 11:15 a.m. alarm. Sunday, and that night at 7:30, Chief Knotts with five volunteers responded with one truck to wash away an oil spill on North College Avenue.

NRA Hallowe'en Mardi Gras Rained Out For First Time In Eight-Year History

For the first time in its eight-year history, Newark's Hallowe'en Mardi Gras was rained out with cancellation of the parade, midway and dancing.

Although dampened a bit, spirits soared as prizes were presented to those who participated in the window painting, jack o' lantern and float contests.

Hallowe'en artwork by junior and senior high school students again produced top-flight exhibitions on local store windows.

Newark High School students again were responsible for painting Newark Shopping Center windows. First prize winners are Lani Snow and Robin Haight with their "Hallowe'en Hayride" on the Newark Department Store window. Second prize went to Ron Bagdon and Ben Belote with their Acme window; and third prize to Judi Hentosh and Brenda Wertz with "Twisting Skeleton" on another Newark Department Store window.

Main Street windows were painted by Central Junior High students. First prize winners were Mary Anna Keeney and Nella Godbey. Hobby Shop window; second prize was won by Virginia Johnson and Allison Walker at Theo. S. Jones; and Betty Gore and Debbie Burke painted the third prize window at Fossett's Barber Shop.

Ogletown Junior High students again painted Brookside Shopping Center windows. Diane Field, Nancy Foraker and William Coleman took first prize with their painting on the Clayton Hardware window. Second prize was awarded to Judy Martin and Pay Fitzgerald for their painting on the National Five and 10 window, and the Sally Ann Shoppe had the third prize painting by Judy Snow, Robert Lanier and Nancy Hamilton.

The window painting project was organized and supervised by the Newark Recreation Association with cooperation of the Newark Board of Education, individual school principals and art instructors.

So that time and effort spent on the parade should not be completely wasted, parade judges toured the area in the rain and judged floats to be entered.

All floats were reported of "excellent caliber," and results were "very close" between all six entries. Beta Tri-Hi-Y edged out last year's Falcon Hi-Y winner for top honors, and Phi Delta Tri-Hi-Y won third place with their "Goblins Will Get You!"

The Beta girls "Fairlyland Trick or Treat" displayed fairy tale characters about to receive goodies from the old witch at her goodie shop. Falcon Hi-Y with their huge "You-Too" plane billowing smoke portrayed the theme "Hallowe'en over Moscow."

Firemen Plan Return Calls This Sunday For Contributions To Aetna Fund Drive

Ninety-six volunteer firemen of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company distributed folders at each house in the Newark fire district last Sunday—folders containing letters explaining the fund drive; pictures of all of Aetna's fire-fighting apparatus, including the new American La France pumper to serve areas with and without fire hydrants; gummed stickers with the fire phone number, and business reply envelopes.

Return calls will be made by uniformed volunteer firemen this Sunday, to pick up envelopes with contributions, and to answer questions residents may have concerning operation of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company.

"Funds are needed if Newark's volunteer fire department is to continue to provide adequate protection for life and property in this growing area," Aetna Treasurer Wallace Butterworth said today. "The $19,540 is sought to provide the major share of Aetna's projected 1961 budget of $28,480."

"Of this," Butterworth continued, "a large portion will be used to pay for the 1959 and 1958 American La France pumper trucks, which cost a total of $51,000. He explained that the new engines have been paid for, but the money was taken from the company's reserve fund, which must be reimbursed."

Aetna's equipment consists of nine pieces of active apparatus including a rescue truck, four pumper trucks, a tank truck, an aerial ladder engine, and two ambulances.

The Aetna fire district includes the City of Newark, Brookside, Chestnut Hill Estates, Delaware Manor, Roseville Park, Milford Crossroads, Milford Meadows, Newkirk and Todd Estates and other building developments in the area.

For all contributions received, and Aetna President John List requests that names and addresses be included with all envelopes returned.

According to Anna Gallagher, Newark senior civics teacher, the school tends to predict the outcome on the national level, and the current registration list shows more Republicans.

Cougar Captures Squirrel For Family At Brookside

Most housecats are hunters, but few are as gentle in their hunting as Cougar, the pet cat of the Jon Halls at 16 Korda Drive, Brookside.

University Offers Laboratory Tests Of Soil Samples

If you wonder what kind of soil you have, how much plant food is in your soil and how acid it is, now is the time to find out.

Things in the soil testing laboratory at the University of Delaware school of agriculture slow down at this time of year, so you can send samples in and get a report back in a matter of a couple of weeks, according to Extension Service Agronomist William H. Mitchell.

If you are a farmer you can take your report and plan on how much lime and fertilizer you will need during the coming year. Then you can take advantage of price discounts in buying early.

If you are a home gardener the same things hold true, Mitchell said. "Planning makes more good lawns than too much, too late of all the other things," Mitchell said.

Leadership Topic For Home Ec Club Conference At UD

Members of the University of Delaware Home Economics Club were hostesses for Future Homemakers and New Homemakers of America last Friday and Saturday at a leadership conference. The conference is to train students for more effective leadership in officer-club member communication. Special attention will be given to increasing self-confidence while speaking before a group, and to methods of working tactfully and effectively with individuals. Bonnie Lee Mispaw is student chairman, and Frances Jordan, assistant professor of child development, is faculty advisor. Friday's program consisted of a coffee hour in the faculty lounge at the Student Center from 4 to 5, a dinner at 5:30, and a workshop from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Morgan and Vandalia rooms. On Saturday, registration was held in the Student Center from 8:30 to 9 a.m., followed by another two-hour workshop, campus tours, luncheon, a special FHA meeting, and attendance at the Delaware-Hobart Hare reports.

OUR CANDIDATES

There they are—our Democratic and Republican party candidates for President and Vice-President of these United States—and the voice of the people will decide the choice of the people for our national, state, and county leaders at the next Tuesday.

We sincerely hope that Senator Kennedy's religion will prove a factor in Tuesday's election—that the Democratic candidate for President of the United States will neither win nor lose votes because he is a Catholic. Religious prejudice can work both ways—both are bad—and we trust that Americans will vote as Americans should—without fear and bigotry, and with knowledge and conviction.

America was founded for freedom of worship, and it would be a tragic thing, indeed, if our inheritance were to be abused with next Tuesday's vote.

Senator Kennedy and Vice-President Nixon are well qualified for the presidency. Governor Boggs and Senator Carver are tried and true, and we are assured of an able senator in Washington. McDowell and McKinstry, Carvel and others—take your choice.

And thank Heaven, we in America have a choice. Vote Tuesday, and insure that freedom to choose!

People Of Delaware, From 1790 To Date Featured In Ag Station's New Bulletin

A new bulletin, "The People of Delaware" has been released by the University of Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station, with Dr. William E. McDaniel, chairman of the department of agricultural economics, and Dr. Robert K. Hirsch, University of Maryland, co-authors.

The publication deals with population trends from 1790 to date. Dr. McDaniel said the bulletin should be of value to legislators and those interested in rural and urban changes because comparisons are made concerning factors such as age distribution, dependency ratios and trends in population growth.

Delaware's population in 1790 was 59,096. Sussex County had 20,488 people then and has about 73,000 now. Kent County had 18,920 in 1790 and now has more than 65,000 while New Castle County has grown from 19,688 to more than 300,000 in the 170-year interval.

Children constitute a large segment of the rural support burden and upon reaching employable age many leave the farm community to go to the urban areas. Thus, rural communities tend to lose the investment of rearing children, the bulletin reports.

The bulletin is available at Agricultural Hall, University of Delaware, or from the county extension agent's office. Ask for Bulletin No. 331 or "The People of Delaware."

Letters To The Editor

5 October 1960

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: I most sincerely want to tell your citizens how magnificent your town of Newark is, not only in beauty, but in your fine civic understanding and the helping hands extended to me recently.

Mr. Neil Kline of Brookside Park

I had planned to take a cab and found out none were operating at that hour. The unusual request from me for a lift was so understood by Mr. Kline, who not only drove me to the motel but understood and

SRO Crowd Of Broiler Industry People Attend Laurel Meeting On Condemnation

A standing-room-only crowd of 250 broiler industry people attended the Delaware regional poultry meeting at Centenary Methodist Church in Laurel, Del., Sept. 21, with a program on reduction of broiler condemnations.

Dr. Morris S. Cover, chairman of the department of animal and poultry science at the University of Delaware, opened the meeting with a report on a survey of growers management practices in relation to poultry condemnations on the Delaware Peninsula.

The survey, showed that broiler growers following recommended vaccination and sanitation programs had a lower condemnation rate on their birds than did other growers studied, Cover said.

The survey covered 61 growers and involved 930,642 birds. Other results of the study indicated that narrow broiler houses and houses with solid partitions also decreased condemnations.

Nelson's Hens Halt Hofstra Skein At 17 For First Win; Delaware To Face Owls

Coach Dave Nelson's Fightin' Blue Hens hammered Hofstra's Flyin' Dutchmen in a 20-0 first victory of the season for Delaware last Saturday in the Newark rain at the local stadium, halting Hofstra's three-season, 17-game winning skein at No. 17. And the improving Delaware—following up a tie with Marshall by adding the Hofstra win after a series of successive losses—met Temple this Saturday afternoon in Philadelphia at the Owls' stadium.

On the basis of comparative scores, the Hens are 22 points stronger than the Owls. Hofstra stopped Temple, 6-4, and the Hens were 20 points ahead of the Dutchmen. But Nelson isn't banking on statistics.

Both teams are building on young talent, and much will depend on which has developed the most by this coming Saturday. While the Hens were snapping Hofstra's 17-game unbeaten string, Temple was walloping Drexel, 30-8, for its second win in six starts. Delaware's record is 1-4-1.

Delaware's running attack seemed to "come-of-age" against the Flying Dutchmen behind the sophomore running of Tommy Michaels, Karl Lorenz, and Ron McCoy. The Hens' team rushing effort was their best—270 yards.

Temple showed a well-balanced running and passing game against the Dragons. The Owls also start three sophomore backs in Tom Schwinn, quarterback, Don Council and Ernie Wayland.

According to Delaware scouting reports, Temple is a rapidly-improving football team under new Coach George Makris. After opening the campaign with its first win in 22 games, the Owls bowed to Buffalo, Muhlenberg, Lafayette, 9-7, and Hofstra. In each loss the Owls won the battle of statistics, and were on the short end of the score by a combined total of only 16 points.

Nelson feels that the Dutchmen's highly-regarded aerial game was handicapped by Saturday's rain at Delaware Stadium, and that on another day it might have been a different story.

Also, the Owls should be keyed up for this shot at the Hens who humiliated them 62-0 last year. Under Nelson, Delaware has lost only once to the Owls—13-7 in 1951 at Wilmington Park.

The Temple-Delaware series dates to 1913 with the Blue Hens owing an 8-2 edge. Temple's other victory was in 1950, when the Owls crushed the Hens, 39-0.

Last Saturday, Delaware struck early and never let up. Ron McCoy, with 42 seconds left in the first period, cut in over tackle for the Hens' first touchdown, capping a drive of 57 yards.

Junior Quarterback Gary Hebert, engineered the drive that included a 14-yard counter criss-cross with hand-offs from Hebert to Tommy Michaels, to McCoy, who lateraled back to Hebert, trailing the play.

The play moved the ball to the four with McCoy cracking over after two tries.

Arnold Dick Polquin recovered a Hofstra fumble on the Dutchmen's 26, to set up the Hens' second quarter touchdown. Hebert threw 28 yards to Soph End Dave Ennis alone in the end zone.

Karl Lorenz, a sophomore stand-out, accounted for the Hens' third touchdown when he intercepted a Hofstra pass at the Delaware 22 and raced back all the way for 78 yards. A pass from Quarterback Barry Fetterman to Lorenz accounted for two more points in the conversion.

Fine defensive work by the Hen line and secondary prevented a Hofstra score in the dying minutes. The line headed by Earl Ritchie, forced Hofstra to the air, and Bill Began, junior fullback from Baltimore, broke up a touchdown pass in the end zone.

Newark's Brandon Davis—former Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder, and now Los Angeles Dodger system playing-manager, stopped at the Newark Post last Thursday evening just as Bill Durham was feeding the last of the week's edition to the rumbling press, and displayed a beautiful big bass that had been a very recent resident of Lum's Pond.

The three-pounder had smashed a red and white jitterbug for Mr. Davis, and Brandy reported that the bass had jumped time and again, thrashing the surface into a foaming froth, and in general had done everything an imaginative bass can do in the way of battle, along with an original twist or two.

Printing halted momentarily as we admired the green-gold-silver of large-mouthed dynamite from Lum's—and it takes a bit of real doing to take a bass from that pond.

Brandon Davis does his fishing the hard way—back in Delaware, and in Lum's Pond, too—after spending a near non-fishing summer in Florida, a bass paradise. As playing manager for the Dodgers' Orlando baseball team, Brandy lived in the heart of the Sunshine State's lake country, and in close proximity to Lake Apopka, a bass fisherman's dream come true—where you can drift before the wind over some 100-sq. miles of water and catch bass—when they're striking—as well in the middle of the lake as along the shorelines.

Delaware's hunting season for ducks and geese opens next Wednesday at noon; Maryland's goose-hunting season opens next Wednesday a half-hour before sunrise; and Maryland's duck season follows with a noon start on Nov. 19. The Delaware season on ducks closes Dec. 28; for geese, on Jan. 7; and Maryland's season for both ducks and geese extends through Jan. 7.

As most wildfowls know by now, canvasback and redheads are not to be shot without unpleasant

Ciesinski Harriers 9th In State Meet For Season Finale

Coach Ray Ciesinski's cross-country Yellowjackets finished ninth in the state meet at Rockford Park yesterday afternoon, to wind up the season for the Newark High School harriers.

Point-makers for the Newark squad in the state meet are Capt. Ed Kremer, Gerry Meyer, Richard Hawthorne, Gary Griffith, Joe Gaglia, Matt Cray, and Frank Shelton.

The squad includes Harry Wyman, Charlie Hammer, Dick Ely, Phil Kremer, Bob Richards, Temple Connelly, Richard Chittenden, Terry Crowe, Kurt Ingold, Steve Inman, Mike Sobolewski, Henry Wagner, Alan and Ray Ely.

legal consequences upon apprehension, and unfortunate natural consequences, arrest or no. The big trick for most hunters will be to recognize a can of a redhead before the lethal load is loosed. This is largely a problem for the Maryland gunner since the canvasback and redhead flight in Delaware is on the slim side, indeed—even when these hard-flying divers are generally abundant.

They're alarmingly scarce in Delaware and everywhere this year, and it will be well worth the wildfowls' while to pause for some duck identification before shooting, aside from any entanglement with the law. With real protection in cooperative, curtailed shooting on the part of each sportsman, these two grand birds may reinforce their numbers and come pouring down the skyways of another season as legal, thrilling game once more.

Squirrel Scare
Bruno Ciccone recently bagged—in more ways than one—a promised squirrel for the Newark Post editor, a squirrel that started at least three men not counting Bruno who shot the beast, and the editor who received and ate it.

Tommy Michaels Injured In Hen-Hofstra Contest

Tommy Michaels, halfback from Sayreville, N. J., and the Hens' total offense leader and leading scorer, underwent surgery Monday for a twisted knee suffered in the Hofstra game, and is through for the rest of the season.

Michaels picked up 82 yards to boot his rushing to 315 yards and his average to 4.5 yards a carry. His yardage total was good enough to wrest the total offense leadership from Gary Hebert, the Hens' junior quarterback.

ald hamburger bags which was left on a stairway post at the Newark Post. And Newark High School's Harold Smith, and the Post's Harold "Sonny" Wilkins and St. Clair MeVicker each jumped more than a bit perceptibly as they opened the bag in passing.

Thanks, Bruno, that squirrel was tough but good—mighty good.

Channel Bass Champ
Arnold J. "Ducky" Stewart, the channel bass champion of Oercooke and the News-Journal's outdoor columnist, was taken to task by Jack Willis in North Carolina last summer for failure to pay Mr. Willis for services rendered.

As Jack told us in our visit to the Outer Banks last July, Mr. Stewart had left without paying for use of the Willis launching ramp at the Oercooke dock.

It seems Ducky was in the habit of walking out on the dock each day for some real appreciation of "nothin'" could be finer than to be in Carolina in the mawlin"—and one morning he walked off the dock into the deep water of Pamlico Sound, coming ashore via the launching ramp beneath Jack Willis' sign which reads "No use of ramp."

Jack, however, wrote off his loss with a "paid in full" receipt which he gave up for delivery to Mr. Stewart back in Wilmington.

"Ducky is the best," Jack Willis said. "We need him down here." Sportsman, friend, writer—founder and past-president of the Brotherhood of the Jungle Cock—and champion of our game and fish, Ducky Stewart's quite a guy. We need him up here, too, Jack Willis.

TERPS TACKLE LIONS

Tom Nugent's University of Maryland football team, with a three-game winning streak going for them, once again is cast in the role of underdog as the surprising and exciting young Terrapins travel to University Park, Pa., this week to play the Penn State powerhouse in one of Saturday's top intercollegiate attractions.

NRA Jr. Bowling Leagues Organized With 16 Teams

The Newark Recreation Association's AJBC-sanctioned junior bowling league has 16 teams rolling at the new Blue Hen Lanes.

In girls' play the undefeated Untouchables are heading the league with a 6-0 record, followed by the 5-1 Fireballs.

The Untouchables, with a 2,189 score, won team-high and three-game high single honors with 778. Diane Bednarek has the high series 353 and single 137.

In boys' play, the Flying Dragons have a 6-0 first place record, with the 5-1 Toppins a close second.

The Toppins won team high series honors with 2,318.

Tom Kramer's series 442 was high. Logan rolled the high single 179.

Linda Handloff was selected president of the girls' league, with Nancy Sobolewski, secretary.

Mike Sobolewski is president of the boys' league, with Paul Wickensham, secretary.

The NRA league rolls each Saturday morning.

Navy All-American To Speak Monday For TD Luncheon

The Navy's All-Time All-American—Admiral "Babe" Brown—will be the guest speaker for the Newark Touchdown Club at next Monday's noon luncheon meeting at the Colony Inn, Brookside.

Coach Scotty Duncan spoke at last Monday's club meeting, and in discussing his University of Delaware freshman football team, cited Don James, his All-State line-backer from Delmar as "one of the finest recruited."

Duncan praised the backfield performance of Newark's Marshall Saunders, Conrad's Mike Brown, and of Zolak at quarter, and Flynn, fullback.

The undefeated Chicks with three victories, face the Rutgers frosh this Saturday at New Brunswick at 11 a.m.

Gerald "Doc" Doherty has accepted the job as toastmaster for the annual banquet of the Newark Touchdown Club, with huddle time to begin at 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 7, at the Newark Country Club.

Former Delaware Coach Bill Murray will be the principal speaker at the banquet to begin at 7 o'clock.

Capt. Peter Joss Kicks Three Goals As Newark Loses

Yellowjacket Co-Captain Peter Joss scored three goals as Coach Bill Kent's Newark High School soccer team lost a 4-3 game to the Brandywine booters last Friday.

Newark faces Coach Gene Watson's Delaware freshmen in a return game this afternoon at the high school field, and the Yellowjackets wind up a five-game season next Monday in a home stand and return bout with Brandywine.

Kent particularly praised the work of Jack Slack as goalkeeper in Friday's fracas, crediting Slack with "20 or 25 saves."

The entire Newark squad has seen action in this first local soccer season in many years.

"We were handicapped by playing with tennis shoes instead of cleats," Coach Kent said, "for the muddy field. And the boys are improving steadily."

"Give a pig and a boy everything they want. You'll get a good pig, and a bad boy." —Bill McKenna.

Yellowjackets Top Unbeaten Brandywine As Wells Scores TD For Conference

Newark Halfback Lloyd Wells scored the only touchdown of the game last Saturday in the Brandywine mud, as Coach Bob Hoffman's Yellowjackets stopped Coach John Modica's Brandywine Bulldogs 6-3 in their first loss of the season.

Newark, sharing a three-way draw for first place in the Blue Hen Conference with Brandywine and Coach Wayne Pollari's Green Knights of Mt. Pleasant, faces the Red Devils of Wilmington High School in Baynard Stadium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock—and Wilmington with four losses has yet to win a conference contest.

The Yellowjackets scored their touchdown in the second quarter last Saturday afternoon when Wells carried from the two-yard line to clinch a sustained drive from the Newark 28.

The punting of Brandywine's Buddy Hailey, along with the muddy going over the Bulldogs' gridiron, near nullified Newark's scoring power, and Hailey's 42-yard kick which rolled dead on the Yellowjackets' six-yard line in the second period was responsible for Brandywine's two points.

Brandywine's Buddy Vaala hit Yellowjacket Halfback Charlie Word behind his goal line on Newark's third attempt to run in the mud, and the Bulldogs had their safety.

Hoffman expressed pleasure with the showing of his Yellowjackets, and also had praise for Brandywine. "The muddy field slowed down our passing game," Hoffman said, "but I thought our boys did a good job, especially under pressure. We took advantage of the early part of the afternoon when the weather was better and then were able to hold off their threats."

The winless Delaware lost their fifth game of the season to Johns Hopkins last Thursday at home, 2-0.

The art of living is not that of wrestling with the main thing is to be ready for an unforeseen.

Local Response To Goodwill Industries Necessitates Larger Collection Center

Newark citizens have responded to Goodwill Industries' appeal for a larger collection center for the 14-acre parking lot in the shopping center. Shopkeepers and residents have been asked to contribute to the collection of second-hand clothing, furniture, and household items.

Center have cooperated with us in placing display materials in their store windows and distributing bag stuffers and inserts." In addition to its outdoor collection center at the Newark Shopping Center, Goodwill Industries maintains a sales office in Newark where articles repaired by handicapped persons are sold. Main offices and workshop facilities are located at 214 Walnut Street, Wilmington.

Employment and training are provided for physically and mentally handicapped persons in northern Delaware by the Wilmington Goodwill Industries. This is made possible through usable clothing, furniture, shoes, electrical appliances and household items contributed by local homemakers. These articles are cleaned, repaired, painted and serviced by handicapped workers, and sold in Goodwill Industries stores.

J. Carlys Simmons, executive director of the Wilmington Goodwill Industries, pointed out that there are more than 3,500 handicapped workers in New Castle County who could benefit from the Goodwill program.

Many of these with training can move into competitive industry—some will always need an employment opportunity at Goodwill Industries—and 65 physically and mentally handicapped workers are in training and employment in local Goodwill.

Loans To Students Increase At U. D. Hocutt Announces

Increasing numbers of students at the University of Delaware are seeking loans to finance their education, Dean of Students John E. Hocutt reports.

In a survey of financial aid to students covering the last four years, Dean Hocutt reports that from 10 students borrowing $2,500 in 1957-58, totals have jumped to 179 students borrowing $60,000 this year. Sixty-nine students were granted loans in 1958-59, and 126 last year.

For the 1960-61 session, 690 undergraduate students are receiving financial assistance in the form of scholarships, grants, loans and part-time employment totaling $349,948—all of which is administered by the dean of students' office. Another $70,000 is allocated by persons, organizations and foundations outside the university.

Dean Hocutt attributes the greater use of loan funds to the National Defense Act of 1958 which made additional funds available by pooling federal and university funds on a nine-to-one ratio.

The influence of the act, greater availability of loan funds, and favorable repayment conditions seem to have overcome student reluctance to borrow for the support of their education, Hocutt said.

Postmaster Cooch Cites Departmental Construction

Nearly 5,000 post office buildings have been constructed since the launching of the department's modern improvement program by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield shortly after his appointment to this position by President Eisenhower in 1953.

Newark Postmaster F. Allyn Cooch pointed out that while these facilities have been equipped and furnished by the department, the buildings themselves are either leased or rented in line with the completely new policy during the past seven years.

Captain Ellis Rittenhouse With Navy In South Korea

Navy Capt. Ellis B. Rittenhouse of Newark, serving on the staff of Commander Amphibious Squadron 1, took part in a recent training exercise in South Korea.

Operation "Jolly Roger" was a combined U. S.-Republic of Korea exercise and provided training in modern amphibious warfare techniques and combat readiness.

Awards Presented

Troop 255 Scouts
At Camp Program

An evening of Boy Scout activities at the open campsite at Bear with Scouts of Newark Troop 255, combined a supper, court of honor, campfire lighting, and marshmallow roast.

The Scouts cooked dinner for their families over open fires, and "We were all very pleased — it tasted wonderful," the Scouts report.

District Executive Mel Hunter, and Scoutmaster Ed Smith with his Senior Patrol Leader Bryan McCulley of Troop 17 attended.

Tenderfoot Jim Everett, was instructed in the Scout law, enshrined by 12 torches, one for each part of the law, and each torch was lit as the point was emphasized. Jeff Smith received his second class award; and first class awards went to Tommy Worrell and Dana Frazier, who also received patrol leader stripes.

The Star badge was awarded Mike Walker along with merit badges for life guard, canoeing, cooking, first aid, home repairs, lifesaving, personal fitness, rowing, and swimming.

Edward Berg received swimming and life saving merit badges, and Ricky Barbarika, his cooking badge.

New Phone Device

For Baby-Sitting
Services Offered

A new home communications system to answer the front door or mind the baby over the telephone is now being introduced locally by the Diamond State Telephone Company.

The new system called Home Interphone, works entire through telephones, District Manager Albert E. Rose said.

Besides door-answering and electronic baby-sitting features, it provides a variety of services, such as hands-free talking and broadcasting by voice throughout the house, Rose reports.

"The new Home Interphone is a real first—permitting a wide range of intercom services plus the handling of outside calls from every phone in the house," Rose said. "It makes life easier, safer and more enjoyable for the family."

Advanced Student Program

Hailed By Fletcher At UD

Eight outstanding students have been admitted to the University of Delaware in 1960 with advanced standing and credit or early admission.

According to Dr. William G. Fletcher, director of admissions and records, the university is expanding its program because it has proved "unmistakably successful."

Among the students are two from the Newark area—Zola Mae Shaul, of Wrangle Hill Road, Bear, and Nancy Mae Bonney, 501 Brennan Drive, Newark.

With Mrs. Audrey Laws presiding, Mrs. Laws, Mrs. Amanda Morris, and Mrs. Phyllis Thorp were nominated for president; Mrs. Violet Morrison and Mrs. Pat McCall, for secretary; and Mrs. Ella Rineer and Mrs. Louise DiMartino, for treasurer.

Mrs. Phyllis Thorp will be in charge of a luncheon to be served by the Auxiliary in the firehouse on Nov. 8. The firehouse will be an official polling place.

Women of the Auxiliary are making plans to assist with the annual supper to be held on Nov. 13 for the benefit of the Christiana Fire Company. This week, representatives are canvassing the area for contributions.

All parents of the district are invited to attend the regular November meeting of the Christiana-Salem PTA next Wednesday, at 8 p.m. in the all-purpose room of the school. Open house will be held in observance of American Education Week, and parents will have an opportunity to meet and talk with teachers in their classrooms.

Dick, Dottie, and Frankie Whittington entertained members of the Greenleaf 4-H Club at their home Wednesday evening.

Christiana school children will enjoy a one-day holiday on Nov. 8, when school will be closed for Election Day.

Cub Scouts, and Explorers of Christiana Troop 75 were busy Saturday distributing "Get out the vote" door knockers to all houses in the area. Older boys have started a sale of Christmas wrappings as a seasonal fund-raising project.

Seventeen members of the troop spent last weekend at Camp Rodney, accompanied by Scoutmaster Don McLaughlin.

Cub Scouts enjoyed a Halloween party at the Methodist church on Friday night, an added feature of the entertainment being a demonstration of King, a trained police dog, by Sgt. Thomas Everett of the state police.

Den mothers for Cub Pack 75 include Mrs. L. W. Hutchison, Mrs. A. M. Hyson, Mrs. George McCrone, Jr., and Mrs. A. J. Anderson.

Scientists At Campus Dynamics Center Search For Answers To Social Behavior

What does an Air Force commandant place at his disposal? What is a time of crisis? What does a replacement have on the latest infantry? What is the use of helicopters in the Second Division? These are some of the questions being asked by a group of scientists at the Campus Dynamics Center at the University of Delaware.

The center is a replacement of the old Social Science Center. It is a team of social scientists from the University of Delaware, the University of Maryland, the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Wisconsin, and the University of Michigan. ### Kiwanis Auction For Charity Work To Be Held Nov. 5

The Newark Kiwanis Club Charity Auction—rained out last Saturday—has been rescheduled for Nov. 5, rain or shine at the Newark Farm and Home parking lot at 123 East Main Street, beginning at 1 p.m. With hundreds of items on display and ready for bidding, the Kiwanians scurried between showers to cover the merchandise last Saturday.

Chairman Joe Formisano said "This is the largest and best assortment of items we've had in the three years of the Kiwanis auction."

Listed to go over the auctioneer's block are radios, appliances, stoves, refrigerators, furniture, sewing boxes, lamps, barbecue sets, bowling lessons, games, and hundreds of other things. The auction will continue until all items are sold. As an added attraction, a portable TV will be given away during the afternoon. The winner must be present to receive the television set. The auction is the major fund raising event of the year for the Newark Kiwanis Club. Proceeds are used to support local club charity projects, and funds from previous auctions have provided dental care for teen-agers; Christmas turkeys and parties for needy families and children; financial assistance for those in distress; and comfort in family tragedies.

All members of the Newark Kiwanis Club are active in securing items for the auction, with merchants and industries cooperating in the project, and any individuals wishing to contribute items to the auction may bring them to Newark Farm and Home Supply.

There is no happiness except in the realization that we have accomplished something.—Henry Ford

The challenge of international Communism: Castro and Khrushchev.

The growing unemployment problem.

The challenge everywhere: Tokyo riot.

We can meet the challenge

From Cuba to the Congo, the world is in turmoil. Here at home too many areas of our national life suffer from neglect.

A dazed Republican Administration is so lacking in purpose and ideas that America is in increasing danger of being second best in the world struggle.

We can meet the challenges of a stormy world with the leadership of a man and a party that will face our problems and do something about them.

It is time for a Democratic President who will bring new American leadership. It is time to elect Senator John F. Kennedy President of the United States.
