Blue and Gold Ends
A Successful Season

Baseball Team Conquers Rivals

With the final defeat over their old rival, Johns Hopkins, last Saturday, the Delaware baseball nine completed what is considered one of the most successful seasons in several years. Coach Shipley not only managed to trounce our four rivals, Dickinson, Haverford, Swarthmore, and Johns Hopkins, but also ran away with such strong teams as the University of Virginia and Syracuse University.

This year's schedule has been one of the hardest ever carried by a Delaware ball team. Holy Cross humbled many of the strongest college teams in the East this year, but Delaware's team came away with a loss of 1 to 0 at the end of twelve innings, that was almost as much to her glory as a win would have been.

Out of a total of 22 games played, 11 were won and 11 lost. The southern trip took 5 of these but it is felt that the tour paid for itself in the end by putting the Chicks in fine shape for the remainder of the season. After the tour at the first of the season the team won two-thirds of its games.

Two five dollar gold pieces were offered as prizes by Mr. A. G. Wilkinson, one to the player getting the most hits during the season, the other to the player scoring the most runs. Yap heads the list of hitters with 23 hits out of 81 times up, making a batting average of .284 and Wilson leads the run scorers with 19 circuits to his credit.

After such a fine showing it is probable that the Athletic Council will award gold baseballs to the letter men. No definite action has been taken upon the matter, however, nor have the letter men been announced as yet.

The standing of the first fourteen men is as follows:

New Officer For

Captain Yates reported this week at the college R. O. T. C. unit for duty. Captain Yates will fill the vacancy left by the transfer of Captain Mackenzie to Camp Benning. Captain Mackenzie, however, will remain with the unit until the close of college.

CELEBRATE MEMORIAL DAY ON THE CAMPUS

Wreaths Placed On the Boulder

In France today, the graves of our American dead are being decorated in grateful remembrance of those who died on the soil of France. All France remembers. From the great public observances in the large cities and cemeteries, to the simple little services held in some tiny mountain chapel where those who will never forget to place their poppies and roses on the solitary grave on the hill side; all France remembers.

Here, in Newark, under the shade of old trees on the campus, Memorial Day again brought salutations to all men who died that America might live. And here, as everywhere in America, the spirit of Abraham Lincoln lived again. "Let us have faith," he said, "that right makes Might, and in that faith let us to the end dare to do our duty as we understand it."

After the opening prayer by the Reverend H. E. Hallman, Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read with fine feeling by Representative R. G. Buckingham, a veteran of the War between the States. Dr. Walter Hullahen introduced Mr. Buchenal, the speaker of the day.

Wreaths of fresh flowers were piled high around the Memorial boulder. The ceremonies closed with the singing of the national anthem by a thousand voices, a salute by a firing squad, and the long sweet notes of taps.

Sigma Nu Has Fine House Party

Members of Sigma Nu were somewhat disappointed last Saturday when an abrupt change in the weather compelled them to alter their plans for a lawn party. The entire evening was not lost, however, for the affair was changed to a house party which proved very enjoyable.

Most of the active members of the chapter were present, and dancing afforded the chief pleasure of the evening.

Several high school men were invited, and spent the entire week-end at the house.

The patronesses were Miss Dorothy Calef and Mrs. Wilson, both of the Women's College of Delaware.

Tickets for the Farewell Hop will be on sale to alumni and Juniors until Friday, June 2nd. After that the sale will be open to all students. Tickets may be bought from C. A. Nutter or H. F. Crawford, Jr.

COMPANY B WINS COMPETITIVE DRILL

General Wilson Reviews Battalion

Company B under command of Cadet Captain Arley B. Magee won the Roberts Medal at the annual competitive drill held in front of Wolf Hall last Thursday. The other companies, however, in command of Cadet Captains F. R. Deppe and T. M. Keith presented stiff opposition and made the choice of the winning company a difficult decision for the judges, Major C. L. Williams, Major H. W. Stark, and Captain L. A. Hudgins, all of Fort duPont. The winning of the Roberts Medal is the honor for which each Company strives, as an officer's sabre is donated by the Governor to the winning captain and a banquet is given to the men in the company.

Captain of honor company and recipient of sabre donated by Governor W. E. Denny.

At the close of the exhibitions a general review in command of Cadet Major J. H. Harper was given in honor of General J. H. Wilson, retired, and Colonel J. E. Smith, donor of two of the prizes awarded for military efficiency.

After the battalion review the companies were formed in a hollow square and the following prizes were awarded:

Lieutenant Clarke Churchman memorial prize amounting to (Continued on Page Four.)

Tennis Receives
Little Support

Tennis at the University of Delaware, notwithstanding the strenuous endeavors of "Doc" Smith and a few other earnest devotees, has proven a failure from the point of view of winning games. With practically no equipment for practicing, the team deserves much credit for making as good a showing as it did.

All the matches were played away from home, because we do not have even a suitable court to practise upon.

The team had matches with the duPont Country Club, Swarthmore, Moravian College, Drexel, Haverford, and P. M. C.

DELAWARE WALLOPS
HOPKINS TWO WAYS

Hoey and McDonnell Hang Up Records

Delaware crowned her victorious track season with a wonderful triumph over the Johns Hopkins track team last Saturday by the score of 70 1-3 to 50 2-3. Despite the fact that Delaware had lost and Hopkins had gained thru the enrollment of "Man-O-War" Booth at the Baltimore institution, the Blue and Gold trackmen could not be denied the victory. Captain Harmer carried the Blue and Gold colors to two firsts and a third, taking first in the 440 dash and 220 yard hurdles, and third in the broad jump. Betzmer's mighty arm brought down three firsts in the field events. "Tom" McDonnell established a new track record with his pole vault of 11 ft. 6 in., and "Pat" Hoey ran the grilling two-mile race in a new record of 9 minutes and 47 1-5 seconds. Pitman the 100 yard flash, equaled the track record of 10 seconds in the century. The Delaware fans had the opportunity of once more seeing Booth, formerly a wearer of the Blue and Gold, run his superb races. He romped away with the mile in his old masterly way and also captured the half-mile event.

The summary:
100-yard dash—First, Pitman, Del.; second, Steele, Del.; third, Norwood, J. H. Time, 10 seconds (equals record).

One-mile Run—First, Booth, J. H.; second, Mowlds, Del.; third, Smith, Del. Time, 4 minutes 55 3-5 seconds.

120-yard High Hurdles—First, Hearn, J. H.; second, R. France, Del.; third, Conning, J. H. Time, 17 seconds.

440-yard Dash—First, Harmer, Del.; second, Dorkins, J. H.; third, Skinner, J. H. Time, 52 1-5 seconds.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM CHANGED

Separate Exercises for Men's and Women's Colleges

The original plan for the Commencement Day exercises of the graduating classes of the University has been changed at the last minute. There will be two separate exercises instead of a combined program for the Men's and Women's Colleges as originally planned. United Senator I. L. Lenroot, of Wisconsin, will deliver the address to the graduating class of men and Dr. Reed of Vassar will speak at the Women's College.

Owing to the usual worries connected with final examinations, the Staff does not consider it wise to publish the next issue of the Review until June 10th.

Sig Eps Dance

The Senior Farewell Dance, the last dance that the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity gives this scholastic year, was held Saturday evening in Old College. The few alumni and the many guests who attended augmented the number of dancers to over seventy-five couples, which proved to be just the right number.

The cool breeze, which caused the spectators of the track meet and baseball game in the afternoon to shiver produced the same effect upon those dancing, apparently.

The decorations were unique by their almost total absence and by their simplicity: a couple of banners, a Sigma Phi Epsilon shield, and the fraternity colors covering the lights completed the decorations. But the lack of any elaborate ornamentation did not appear to detract from the enjoyment of those who were suffering from a temporary attack of choromania caused by Madden's Orchestra; everyone seemed to enjoy what is known as a "good time."

The dance was made memorable by two events: the large number of Seniors from the Women's College who were present, and a ballad sung by Mr. Hougland in which "Dutch" Carl was the hero.

The dancers had "refreshments" before they finally departed, each with a pleasant memory and each experiencing a tired happy sensation which only follows a successful dance.

The patronesses were Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. George L. Townsend, Mrs. H. E. Tiffany, Mrs. Charles C. Palmer, Mrs. Robert C. Levis, Mrs. Carl S. Rankin, and Miss M. E. Parkhurst.

O. A. House Party

The members of the Omega Alpha Fraternity had a thoroughly enjoyable evening last Saturday night at their house party. Dancing began at 8:30. Under the influence of good music and a cool evening, enthusiasm ran high until 11:30, at which time refreshments were served. About twenty-five couples attended. The patronesses were Mrs. Gallagher, of Newark, and Miss Rohr of the Women's College Faculty.

Pitman To Head Varsity Club

At the meeting of the Varsity Club last week the following men were elected to officer the club through the coming year:

E. P. Pitman—President
H. R. Cole—Vice President
C. A. Nutter—Secretary and Treasurer

At the Wolf Chemical Club elections held last Thursday, Brandt was elected president, Schaefer vice-president, Mortimer secretary, and F. B. Smith treasurer.

CARRY ON

Last Sunday we saw a procession of Civil War veterans. There was no beauty in them that we should desire them. They were shiveled up old men, limping, and leaning on each other's arms. Here was one who lost an arm; there was one who was using a crutch; and then came one who was blind. But it was an inspiring sight to view these men—men who had given of their best in order that someone else might enjoy life.

Then we looked into our own heart and thought of ourselves. Do we, like those noble veterans, lend our arm to the man who is feeble? Do our strong organizations assist and serve the weaker ones? As individuals we measure our lives in terms of personal pleasure; as groups we are selfish and egoistic. Of course, we contribute to such enterprises as the Red Cross or the Foreign Students Relief Expedition (so far as it is convenient); but if we want anything, seldom do we consider our neighbor first.

Let us think awhile on the high ideals for which these men fought and let us say with Lincoln "that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain."

UNTO CAESAR

Who is more entitled to honor than the man who does his job in a thorough manner and never seeks the world's applause? We hesitate to say who won the war but we believe it was the man who did well his task, though small it was. The backfield of a football team is dependent upon the man who takes out the interference—the man whom we seldom hear about. So in all phases of life; it is the unassuming man who makes possible the success.

Back of the success of the Review are the efforts of a few men who never received any recognition of their services. It is to these, the following men, that the Review wishes to express its appreciation of what they have done: Miller, Hastings, Krewatch, Skewis, Crothers, Hurf, Murphy, Snyder, and others.

"Dory's" Homers

Clinch Victory

In the final game of the season the Blue and Gold nine outplayed the Johns Hopkins nine and sent them back to Baltimore on the short end of a 5-3 score. To "Dory" Collins, the Ace of Delaware's pitching staff, goes the credit for this victory. "Dory" held the Baltimoreans in check by his hurling and also proved himself to be a "Babe" Ruth Jr., by cracking out two circuit drives.

Delaware started the scoring in the initial frame. Wilson connected for a single and then proceeded to steal second. McCormick contributed to the cause with a sacrifice. MacDonald then sent "Skeeter" across the pentagon by a timely single.

Hopkins came back in the second and by two singles and a squeeze play tied the score. Then Collins, to keep his club in the lead, drove out his first homer.

Again in the fifth Wilson singled and stole. McCormick drove out a double which sent Wilson across.

In the eighth after Hoch had singled Collins sent out his second circuit drive, tallying two runs. This hit probably saved the game from going extra innings, for in the ninth Knecht's home run drove in Rich ahead of it.

Washington Triumphs Over Blue and Gold

In a tossing bout between Wright and Ramsey at Chesterton last Friday, Washington College came out on the long end of a 4 to 2 score. Although Ramsey was touched for eight safeties most of the runs scored against him were gathered at opportune times.

Seniors Win In Mass Athletics

The Seniors took the honors in the mass athletic meet by a small margin, the class of '25 coming a close second. The final results follow:

Class Average
1922	9.50 6 12-point men
1925	9.41 9 12-point men
1924	8.87 6 12-point men
1923	8.52 7 12-point men
Total average, 9.10.

Bad Inning Costs Maryland Game

A bad eighth inning ruined Delaware's chances of defeating the University of Maryland at College Park last Wednesday. The Marylanders had the Blue and Gold at the eighth two to one. With two out, Delaware's infield "blew-up," and on three errors and a scratch hit their opponents counted three runs. In the ninth Delaware came back with a run but could not overcome the effects of the one bad inning. Collins started but was forced by his sore arm to give way to Rothrock. In the eighth Challenger took up the mound work.

The score by innings:

Delaware	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1—2
Maryland	1 0 0 0 1 0 3 0—5

Gamma Delta Rho Has Gala Dance

Nearly a hundred members and guests of the Gamma Delta Rho Fraternity were present at an informal dance given the past Saturday evening in the New Century Clubhouse. Shorter's Orchestra, of Wilmington, furnished the music for the affair, which commenced at 8.30 o'clock and terminated at midnight. During the intermission between halves, light refreshments were served to the dancers in the banquet hall of the clubhouse by an efficient corps of student waiters.

The large auditorium was artistically decorated in navy blue, crimson and gold, the colors of the Fraternity. The windows of the hall were draped with blue Dutch curtains, from the top of which sweet peas in a variety of colors dropped in pendent chains; twisted streamers of blue and red coiled in gay festoons from the top of the four walls to a canopy of lattice-work in the center of the hall; the banners of the other fraternities adorned the four walls in appropriate places; and from the ceiling the drop-lights cast a pale-blue light over the dancers. Stationed on a platform at the southern portion of the hall were the members of the orchestra, banked by potted palms.

The patronesses for the occasion were: Mrs. Lester W. Tarr, Mrs. Charles A. McCue, Mrs. Charles P. Steele and Miss Laura V. Clark. Other guests included Dean Charles A. McCue and Prof. Lester W. Tarr.

Track Team Brings Honor to Delaware

Captain Fred Harmer and his Blue and Gold trackmen have meritoriously upheld Delaware's traditional glory of the cinder path and field during the past season. In the fleetness of the dashes, the stamina of the distance runs, and the tests of brawn and might, Delaware has come thru in a thoroughbred manner. Initiating the season by completely overwhelming the Stevens Institute squad, our men have since sustained the reputation of previous years. When entered in the Penn relays against the flower of America's athletes, they brought the name of the University of Delaware before the public in a manner that could not go unnoticed. Against Swarthmore, one of the foremost Eastern colleges, they tied a dual meet, which should have been a Delaware victory. Again in the Middle Atlantic States, facing the premier athletes of this section, they showed themselves second to only two institutions. And finally, they have completed their laurels with the magnificent victory over Johns Hopkins. Delaware's track team has carried on!

Better Opponents

Editor of the Review,
Dear Sir:

I would like, as a student of the University of Delaware, to protest against Delaware's scheduling athletic contests with such institutions as Washington College. Such institutions have no eligibility rules; men may enter there in March and play baseball; men may play on their teams for as many years as they choose to go there. Schools of this type should not be on Delaware's schedule. It is no advantage to defeat them; but, how humiliating to be defeated by them. Their athletic teams, especially baseball, are professional. Delaware is now, with many eastern colleges, trying to raise the standard of collegiate athletics—playing such schools as this is a direct reversal of policy. Delaware should only recognize and play those institutions that have, at least, eligibility qualifications that are as high as hers.

Yours very truly,
H. R. Cole, '23.

A Gateway to Progress

There it stands—a simple forty-foot gateway but unlike any other in the entire world. Through it have come many of the engineering ideas that have made this an electrical America.

Labels in the advertisement include: GENERATION, AIR PURIFICATION, TRANSMISSION, TRANSPORTATION, ELECTRIFICATION, MATERIAL HANDLING, FARM ELECTRIFICATION, HOME CONVENIENCES.

The story of electrical development begins in the Research Laboratories. Here the ruling spirit is one of knowledge—truth—rather than immediate practical results. In this manner are established new theories—tools for future use—which sooner or later find ready application.

The great industries that cluster around Niagara Falls, the electrically driven battleships, the trolley cars and electrified railways that carry millions, the household conveniences that have relieved women of drudgery, the labor-saving electrical tools of factories all owe their existence, partly at least, to the co-ordinated efforts of the thousands who daily stream through this gateway.

IN MEMORIAM, MAY 30, 1922

The Spires of Oxford
 (Seen from the train.)
 I saw the spires of Oxford
 As I was passing by.
 The grey spires of Oxford
 Against a pearl-gray sky.
 My heart was with the Oxford men
 Who went abroad to die.

The years go fast in Oxford,
 The golden years and gay.
 The hoary Colleges look down
 On careless boys at play.
 But when the bugles sounded war
 They put their games away.

They left the peaceful river,
 The cricket-field, the quad,
 The shaven lawns of Oxford
 To seek a bloody sod—
 They gave their merry youth away
 For country and for God.

God rest you happy, gentlemen,
 Who laid your good lives
 down,

Who took the khaki and the gun
 Instead of cap and gown.
 God bring you to a fairer place
 Than even Oxford town.

We are the dead; short days ago
 We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset
 glow,
 Lover and were loved, and now
 we lie
 In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the Business Building

THE selling of commodities is fundamental in every business, and selling life insurance affords the maximum of satisfaction and remuneration. For the life insurance salesman is a business builder and finds innumerable ways to serve the community and make himself indispensable in the conduct of modern affairs.

The life insurance salesman is not only a business builder but he is in business for himself, creating a competence permanent and continuous. It is the best paid work for those who are ambitious and willing to work, and who have the character and stamina necessary to stamp their individuality upon the business and on their community.

The traditions and practices of the JOHN HANCOCK are such that the college graduate can take a peculiar pride in representing this company. You are liable to remain in the business you enter on leaving college. Before making a definite decision inquire into life insurance as a career. Write, "Agency Department."
