

$40 CASH AWARDS TO DOLLAR DAY CUSTOMERS

August 8, 9 Are Announced As Dates For Local Sales Events

If there's any truth to the axiom "a dollar saved is a dollar made", literally hundreds of Newarkeers will save many dollars here on Friday and Saturday, August 8 and 9, when annual Dollar Days will be observed locally.

The Dollar Day committee, headed by Geo. F. Jackson, has insured unprecedented interest in the event by announcing that $40.00 in cash awards will be presented at 7:30 P. M., Saturday, August 9, on the front lawn of the Newark Academy building, Main and Academy Streets.

Patrons will receive coupons, making them eligible for the awards, with each dollar cash purchase or payment on account made during Dollar Days. Thirteen cash awards will be given as follows: $15, first; $10, second; $5, third and ten awards of $1 each. In addition it is expected that numerous merchandise awards will be made.

It is expected that every local merchant will participate in Dollar Days this year in an effort to make the event the most elaborate and successful ever held here. The only requirement for participation is that each merchant advertise his wares in the local paper, three thousand copies of which will be distributed in addition to the regular circulation in promotion of the event.

Large Dollar Day placards will be placed in windows of each participant and coupons will be available in each store displaying the placard. Large signs will be placed at each entrance to town advertising the event and the Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring agent, is spending more than $150.00 in promotion and publicity materials.

Scheduled annually during August, Dollar Days this year will undoubtedly draw thousands of rural residents to Newark to share in the bargains offered by merchants who have had a successful season and who are desirous of showing their gratitude by offering honest-goodness values for the benefit of their customers.

Joining Mr. Jackson on the Dollar Day committee are: Meyer Pitnick, George Hanes, Herbert Hollingsworth, Weldon Waples, C. P. Donovan, Flore Wertz, Herman Handloff, R. T. Ware and Jerome Weinberg.

R. FADER ATTENDING SAFETY MEET

Council Warns Of Vacation Accident Peak

John R. Fader, acting manager of the Delaware Safety Council, is attending the Institute of Safety Organization Management, sponsored by the National Safety Council in Chicago, this week.

Outlining the progress of safety promotion in Delaware, Mr. Fader said while the State is well rated in many circles there is still a great deal of improvement to be desired. He stated that 27 persons were killed as a result of traffic accidents during the month of July and August, 1940, with an estimated economic loss of $1,215,000. Every fatal accident represents a potential loss of $45,000.

This estimated loss does not take into account deaths from drowning, burns, prostrations and other vacation accidents, Mr. Fader said. It is further estimated that about 5,000 persons will lose their lives while on vacations during July and August this year.

Spending is said to be the safest time of the year with the number of fatalities recorded reaching a peak in July and August and again in December.

REFERENDUM ON PRIMARY BUILDING HERE AUG. 16

Board Approves Referendum On $60,000 Bond Issue Here

The State Board of Education has approved a referendum in the Newark Special School District to float a $60,000 bond issue required to finance erection of a proposed new primary building costing approximately $150,000. Superintendent C. E. Douglass announced yesterday.

The proposed building would provide modern housing and facilities for the ever increasing enrollment in primary grades of the District and would be erected on school property, situated on Academy Street between Delaware and Lovett Avenues.

Remainder of the funds would be supplied by the State under an act of the recent legislature "To Provide Funds for the Purchase of Land and Erection of School Buildings." The State allotment would be a direct appropriation and the Newark Special School District would not be obligated to refund this allotment, Mr. Douglass said.

Under present plans the referendum would be held at the high school building on Saturday, August 16, and all qualified voters in the District would be eligible to participate.

If the referendum is successful, construction would likely begin in early fall and the building would be completed in time for occupancy at the September, 1942, term. Present plans call for the erection of a building providing from 12 to 16 rooms.

The present taxable valuation of Newark Special School District property is something over $3,000,000 with a bonded indebtedness of $42,000 which would be decreased to $36,000 before construction of the new building is begun.

HAY CAUSES FIRE FRIDAY

B. & O. Painters Prevent Loss

Fire originating in a bale of hay on the back porch nearly caused serious damage to the residence of John Martin, Elkton Road, at two o'clock Friday afternoon.

Only prompt action on the part of a crew of painters employed in painting the B. & O. Railroad buildings averted serious damage. The blaze spread upwards from the porch and enveloped the porch roof and rear portion of the two-story frame dwelling before the Aetna Hose, Hook & Ladder Company arrived.

Two streams of water soon brought the blaze under control and only slight damage resulted.

Attracted by smoke and screams, the B. & O. painters rushed ladders to the scene and played a small stream of water from garden hose on the conflagration. This failed to stem the blaze, however, and the fire was gaining headway when the fire company arrived. A chemical line and one stream from the fire hydrant soon put the blaze to rout.

NEW CHECK PLAN MEETS APPROVAL OF DEPOSITORS

Newark Trust Co. Checkmaster Plan Opens Account With $1 Deposit

Introduction on Monday of the CheckMaster plan as an additional checking account service by the Newark Trust Company, was marked with pronounced success and great enthusiasm, according to J. P. Wright, President.

The inauguration of the plan makes checking account facilities available to practically anyone inasmuch as no minimum balance is ever required in this new department of the bank. The depositor pays just 5c for each check drawn and each item deposited. This fee is charged only as the account is used. Checkbooks are free, with no advance payments of any kind.

"We were confident," says a statement from Mr. Wright, "that the public would welcome the opportunity of enjoying banking facilities which have heretofore been considered the prerogative of the well-to-do. Because depositors in this new 'white collar' plan of banking control what their service costs them, CheckMaster wins widespread acceptance from the outset."

"We were also pleased to note that our first depositors in the CheckMaster plan were a representative cross-section of the community—wage earners and salaried men and women generally, housewives, lawyers and other professional men, mechanics, teachers, clerks, etc."

It is pointed out that despite the fact that a checking account may now be opened with an initial deposit of any amount, even as little as one dollar, the opening amounts were in many instances fairly substantial. It is again emphasized that the CheckMaster department is in addition to the existing checking account facilities at the Newark Trust Company.

Officials of the bank are certain that the plan will be as successful here as it has been in hundreds of towns and cities throughout the United States. CheckMaster accounts may be opened in person or by mail.

Merchants Urged To Plan Dollar Day Advertising Early

With Newark's greatest Dollar Day sales scheduled for Friday and Saturday, August 8 and 9, local merchants desiring to participate are urged to plan their Dollar Day advertising early in order to allow time for including their advertisements in the 3,500 circulars to be distributed throughout the county.

There is no charge for participation, nor is there any increase in advertising rates for this event. ALUMINUM COLLECTION WILL BEGIN ON MONDAY

Rural Groups Organize To Gather Metal For Defense

With the slogan, "Anything made of aluminum will do," hundreds of Delaware homemakers and farm boys and girls are joining forces to plan for collection of used aluminumware during the week of July 21, part of a nationwide campaign.

During the nine-day campaign it is hoped that 20,000,000 pounds of aluminum—enough for 2,000 fighter planes—will be obtained from the homes of farms of the United States.

Members of 51 Delaware home demonstration clubs and 85 4-H clubs have formed committees for the collection of the aluminum from the State's farms. Farm families are starting to look around for used aluminumware that can be turned over to the collectors or left at deposit stations to be established in towns throughout the State. Collection campaign leaders emphasize that the aluminum be donated only to bona fide campaign collectors who will probably be well known in each community.

All aluminum collected during the campaign will be used for national defense purposes. And proceeds from the sale of aluminum are to be used only by the Office of Civilian Defense.

Information on the operation of the aluminum collection campaign in rural New Castle County may be obtained now from the county Agricultural Extension Service office at Newark—phone, Newark—511.

NOW A 5-DAY WEEK FOR A&P EMPLOYEES THROUGHOUT THE NATION

Stores Will Be Open Six Days A Week As Usual But No Employee Will Work More Than Five Days

Two months ago this company tried the experiment in a few eastern states of a five-day work week for our retail store employees. Now we are able to announce that we have adopted the five-day week as our national policy.

- This, we believe, constitutes the first five-day week and the shortest general working hours of any major retail food establishment.
- This shorter work week will be in effect before Labor Day in A&P food stores in thousands of communities throughout the country. It will be extended as far and as fast as possible. Frankly, however, we must recognize that in a few states and a number of cities the introduction of this policy may be delayed or even prevented by state or local labor regulations or local agreements.
- A&P food store employees affected by this policy will work only five days a week although stores will be open six days a week as usual. Their weekly salaries will not be reduced by their shorter work week. Our policy is to continually improve working conditions and salaries as evidenced by the fact that during the past year alone we have been able to make actual wage increases and to pay added compensation to our employees in an amount totaling more than $4,000,000.
- Many people are utterly astounded at the new low prices for quality foods in A&P Super Markets. They are getting so much more and better food for the same money that they wonder how we can do it. Frankly, it is simply because A&P Super Markets represent a new, more efficient, more economical way of distributing food to the public.
- This new, shorter week is still further evidence that the tremendous savings you can now make in buying groceries, meats and fresh fruits and vegetables in the great, new A&P Super Markets are made possible by savings through efficiency and that no part of these savings comes out of the wages of our employees.

FOR many years it has been a source of pride to us that we have been able generally to maintain the highest average wage scale and the shortest general working hours in a field where long hours have been traditional. Since we first cut the work week eight hours in 1916, there has been a long record of further reduction in hours, increases in wages and vacation schedules.

Because our new low prices have resulted in increased patronage, we have been able to further reduce our operating expenses and increase our efficiency and still further improve the working conditions of our employees.

At the same time thousands of families will testify that they buy their foods today at lower average prices in A&P Super Markets than in any group of stores in the highly competitive retail food field. Today, when you spend a dollar in one of our stores, more of that dollar actually purchases food and less of it goes to cover distribution costs and profits than ever before in the history of the food business.

There is no conflict between low prices and good working conditions. We have achieved both by constantly improving methods of bringing food from producer to consumer, cutting out waste and unnecessary handling operations along the distribution route.

The new A&P Super Markets have made possible savings so astounding that we would not have believed them possible five years ago. This year we are paying the highest wages for the shortest work week in the history of the food business and yet our customers throughout the country will save more than $50,000,000 on the food they buy as compared to the lowest prices we could charge on the basis of our own operating expense only five years ago.

We are more than ever conscious, in these unusual times, of an obligation to make every possible contribution to the American standard of living. We know that we are making it possible for the average family to buy more good food for the same money, or to buy the same quantity of food for less money.

We are happy to tell you that you can enjoy these savings with the knowledge that the people who serve you in our retail stores are sharing more than ever before in these good things. This means a better standard of living for you and for those who serve you.

This plan will necessitate slight adjustments in store hours which will be announced locally. We respectfully ask our customers for their cooperation and assistance in making this new schedule a success.

IN VIEW OF THIS IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT, THERE WILL NOT BE A MERCHANDISE PRICE AD THIS WEEK-END, AND AS USUAL, OUR LOW PRICES WILL PREVAIL.

OUR NEW BATTLESHIPS

By the recent commissioning of the new battleships North Carolina and Washington, the United States Navy received its first addition in capital ships since 1923, when the Colorado and West Virginia were completed.

The new ships are only slightly larger than their predecessors of 18 years ago, but there is an immense difference in their cost. The older ships were of about 32,000 tons and cost approximately 25 million dollars each, while the North Carolina and Washington are 25,000-ton ships and cost about 70 million dollars each.

Four more battleships of this class—the South Dakota, just launched, the Indiana, Massachusetts and Alabama—are nearing completion, and will be ready to join the fleet in a few months. There are 17 battleships included in the expansion program to give the nation a two-ocean navy. With 15 old battleships still in service, these will bring the total to 32 capital ships.

The new battleships are 750 feet long, with a designed speed of about 27 knots. Each has a main battery of nine 16-inch guns, capable of firing a broadside of projectiles weighing 10 tons for a distance of 20 miles. Each will carry a complement of 75 officers and about 1,200 men.

Some idea of the comparative cost of a modern battleship with those of former days may be gathered from the fact that the new Washington cost almost as much as all the battleships of the United States Navy at the time of the Spanish-American War.

PEOPLE NEED FACTS

Much controversy over the effectiveness of the nation's defense effort might be avoided if the government departments would be more frank in giving the people uncolored facts. Everyone recognizes that there are many kinds of information which must be kept secret, but this is no excuse for misleading the public regarding obstacles which must be overcome.

The tendency in Washington has been to give the impression that the defense program is being carried out with efficiency and speed, when this is only partially true. From reliable private sources it is known that there are serious defects in the organization and administration of production efforts.

For the most part, published articles and radio comments by capable observers who have called attention to these defects have been sincere and well-meant. There have been exceptions, in which comment has been irresponsible and tinged with political or personal bias, but constructive criticism has been helpful.

The people do not want alarmist interpretations of the facts, neither do they want optimistic assurances that everything is progressing satisfactorily when such is not the case. At present so many conflicting reports are going about that the average citizen does not know what to believe.

One thing seems certain: The mass of the American people are not yet awake to the dangers which confront this nation, and until they are awakened they will not be disposed to make the sacrifices and efforts which must be made if these dangers are to be overcome.

CAPITAL GROWTH

The District of Columbia has been the Capital of the United States ever since the early days of the Republic. There was space to spare in 1846 when part of the original territory of 100 miles square was ceded back to Virginia. But in this year of 1941, great new buildings are looming on the Virginia shore of the Potomac and they will be for offices for the Navy Department, which has over-run its quarters in Washington.

There are more than twice as many officials and clerks employed in the Federal Government in Washington today as there were when President Roosevelt took office in March, 1933. Observers who have frequently commented upon "what Mr. Roosevelt has done to the United States" will find "what he has done to the District of Columbia" even more astonishing.

Virginia and Maryland are taking care of several hundred thousand of the District of Columbia overflow, and Government bureaus are branching out into some of the States to find new headquarters.

MISS JOHNSTON BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. CRAWFORD

Yesterday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, a very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, when their daughter, Miss Genevieve Byers Johnston, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Crawford of New York City. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene E. Kraemer, rector of St. John's Church, and was witnessed by members of the immediate families only.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white peau-de-soie, with a close-fitting bodice with an off-the-shoulder effect outlined by rosettes of Valenciennes lace, and short sleeves. Her full skirt was also trimmed with large lace rosettes and was in a long train. Her long veil of tulle fell from a Juliette cap of rose-point lace caught at the sides with orange blossoms. She carried a cluster of white Cattleya orchids and a bouquet of the valley with showers of ranunculus.

Miss Deborah Marie Johnston, sister of the bride, and Miss Betty Anne Johnston, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids of honor. Miss Johnston wore a gown of white marquisette, fashioned in a long train. Her long veil of tulle fell from a Juliette cap of rose-point lace caught at the sides with orange blossoms. She carried a cluster of white Cattleya orchids and a bouquet of the valley with showers of ranunculus.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of pale rose and mauve chiffon with accessories of a deeper shade of rose matching her corsage of orchids. Mrs. Crawford wore sea-blue and white with pink accessories. The ceremony was followed by a reception for relatives and friends at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Johnston left on an extended wedding trip, temporarily, at 1115 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Miss Edith Zebley of Appleton entered this week in honor of the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Jaquette.

Miss Jocelyn Roberts, of Claymont, is spending this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Roberts, of Cooch's Bridge.

S. T. Kimble, of Washington, D. C., is visiting his sisters, Misses Ida and Evelyn Kimble.

Miss Jane Carr, Miss Elsie Hopkins and Miss Virginia Stickley are spending this week at Wildwood, N. J.

Justin Steel, of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Walter Steel, South College Avenue.

OPERETTA AT LONGWOOD AUGUST 7, 8, 9

Brandywiners To Present "The Fortune Teller"

In Uncle Sam's new army, the Brandywiners Ltd. have found one of their principal singers for their tenth annual production, Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller", which will be presented at Longwood Gardens Open Air Theatre on August 7, 8, and 9.

John Schwarzwald, who will take the role of Sandor, the gypsy musician, was training for an operatic and concert career in New York when Uncle Sam reached out his long arm and drafted him for war training. He is now stationed at Fort duPont, near Wilmington.

Possessed of a fine bass-baritone voice and natural dramatic ability, Schwarzwald was assigned a leading role although he has never been in a Brandywiners' production. All of the other principal parts have been assigned to singers and actors who have appeared in past shows of the summer operatic group.

Elizabeth Norman Veasey and Helen McCormick Turner, leading ladies in former operettas of the Brandywiners will share the feminine lead in "The Fortune Teller"—Mrs. Veasey taking the part of Musette and Mrs. Turner that of Irma. Both are sopranos.

Flashes

By
Fletcher's Nemesis

NEW YORK SUNDAY TIMES — Among the better known sports writers now vacationing in the North woods are Bill Stern, Sports Reel of the Air and Movies; Bill Fletcher, Newark Post, etc.

ATTEMPTING TO SUBSTITUTE this poor person's literary efforts for your erstwhile column editor is a difficult task; but that we might continue to enjoy his wit, humor and personality it is necessary that someone be the martyr so that our columnist can rest the inner works.

Willy, the Flash, a fisherman bold Who, when armed with rod and reel Was a sight to behold? He would feint with a Coachman And lead with a Silver King 'Till the fish became weary From tangling with Willy; And off they would hie And laugh at the sucker Who, when armed with rod and reel Was a sight to behold?

HE (OF THIS COLUMN) LEFT A thought in his last writings before departing for parts unknown that merits further discussion and that is "opportunity for youth of today". Opportunity for all classes of people today is fast expanding. The removal of the depression pressure upon our people and thus the removal of the lack of opportunity will tend to balance extreme socialization and individualism.

This town and this town's schools are coordinating a program of recreation that offers opportunity for all of our youth in skill and competitive games as well as in the finer arts and vocations. The youth of our town should be thankful that they are offered opportunities such as our public schools offer in education and recreation and the community as a whole offers during the summer in the playground program. The boys and girls should be quick to avail themselves of these opportunities and make the most of them for their own physical well being.

IT IS IN PLAY SUCH AS THIS now afforded the Newark youngsters that characters are developed and means of expression offered.

Yet there arises now and then curious ideas about these programs of athletics and games in the minds of some parents, and their reactions leads one to wonder if it is all worthwhile. Awards in the form of monograms are usually given participants in athletic programs with a certificate that can be signed by the proper authorities if the recipient so desires. Recently a parent upon seeing the monogram and certificate rashly exclaimed "and this is what my boy gets for playing so and so". The opportunity for physical development was offered the boy and he took advantage of it; but yet the parent seemed to be disappointed because the boy didn't receive more in the way of remuneration or money value.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT LAST week that the dog would again have his day during the celebration of National Dog Week was received in this town I imagine with mixed emotions. We have dog owners, dog lovers or admirers and others.

The others of this community-meaning those people who do not own, or who do not like dogs certainly deserve to have their feeling in this matter respected and on the other hand the dog owners should be granted the right to exercise their feeling in the matter without too much antagonism.

NATIONAL DOG WEEK attempts to bring about more harmonious relationships between the groups of people mentioned above by setting up as its objectives the following meritorious aims.

First, a good home for every dog. Second, elimination of stray dogs from the streets.

Third, better dog owners. Fourth, to teach kindness and consideration by children and adults alike towards dogs and other animals.

Fifth, emphasize the use of the dog as a home protector.

Sixth, to secure fair and just laws for dogs and their owners and Seventh, to respect the rights of those persons who do not own dogs.

Newark will again participate in this celebration as it has in the past by holding a dog show. Why with the many fine dogs now in Newark and vicinity, couldn't this show be a point show?

NEWARK COPS JR. CROWN

The Newark Junior League nine again successfully defended its league crown by defeating New Castle, Friday night, at New Castle, 4 to 1. Albert Thorp hurled for the locals with Moore behind the plate.

The second half opened Monday night in Wilmington with the Newark Legion meeting and winning over the C. Y. O. Green Team by 7 to 2. Lefty Charles Riley pitched for Newark with Potts and Moore doing the receiving.

The American Legion Tournament opens Friday on the Glasgow diamond at 9 P. M., under the lights when the Newark Legion team again meets New Castle in a series of three games, the winner to meet the winner of the southern tournament for the state championship.

BUCKINGHAM DELEGATE TO A. K. C. CONVENTION

Eastern Beagle Club Annual Outing To Be Held On Sunday

Raymond Vansant Buckingham has been chosen delegate to the American Kennel Club convention in New York City, succeeding the late Ross S. Robinson, at the regular meeting of the Eastern Beagle Club, held on the estate of S. Hallock duPont, Milford Crossroads, Friday.

President Charles S. Hopkins announced the Memorial Trophy Stakes will be run over the course on the first Sunday in April, winners in each class to receive a trophy bearing names of deceased members of the club, the winners and winning hounds. The cup will be competed for only once.

Monthly field trials will be run on the first Sunday in each month, beginning in September and continuing through March, the first five hounds placing to be eligible for the Memorial Stake.

Duties of Mr. Buckingham, who has served as secretary-treasurer for the past several years were lightened when Charles Marlowe, Wilmington, was named Treasurer. Mr. Buckingham will continue as secretary.

Two hundred rabbits will be purchased from Woodward, Oklahoma, and released on club grounds in September to insure plenty of game for the fall trials.

The annual fall week's trials, licensed and run under A. K. C. rules, will be held on the club course beginning Sunday, October 5, and continuing through Saturday, October 11, with meals being served at the clubhouse by the Ladies Auxiliary. Judges will be Lewis Madden, Vanderbilt, Pa., and William P. Fisher, Wilmington. Prizes will be $25, first; $15, second; $10 third and $5, fourth.

The annual club outing will be held at the clubhouse on Sunday, July 20, with Robert Litzenberg, chairman, assisted by Nolan Hutchison, Willard Wahl and John Johnson.

He tightened to hold the opposition scoreless again in the eighth and yielded one run in the final frame. Earl Sheats, former U. of D. athlete, held down the receiving post.

Presbyterian Ushers. The Ushers managed to hit 5 times against Jack E. mon and score twice for the final round of 16 to 2. Gerald Walker led Southside at bat with 3 for 4.

The second game, an abbreviated impromptu affair was a no-hit business until the 5th and last inning when Saxie Joe's outfit collected here and yonder broke the ice with several runs and Walker's outfit tallied in like manner to score their half.

The Playground team is now having the league for the first half. Continental has a postponed game with C. Y. O. to play and should Continental win this game, they will tie with the ground for the first half of the season should C. Y. O. win, they will be in the Playground.

Twenty cars qualified last Sunday (July 13) in the fastest and most generous qualifications ever run at Langhorne. A spectacular four-car pile-up brought the qualifying races to a bawling finish. But luck was with the drivers, for only one of the four demolished their cars remain in the hospital. He was Sam Moody, 27, Richmond, Va., who suffered back injuries. Treated at the hospital but charged and said to be ready to attempt qualifying again Saturday.

Ace Lewis, 27, of Dorchester, Mass., suffered a shoulder injury, and J. McBride, of Trenton, N. J., lacerated the arm. Bud VanHouten, of Perth Amboy, walked away from the wreck.

NEW DRAFT NUMBERS LOTTERY HELD TODAY

Local Boards Register 1,593 In Delaware On July 1

A total of 1,593 Delaware men who registered July 1 have been assigned serial numbers by their local draft boards, Gen. Wm. Berl, Selective Service Director for Delaware, said earlier this week. Most of the boards have already issued their lists.

Unlike those used in the first registration last October, the new registration numbers are prefixed by the letter S. The numbers will determine the order in which names of the new registrants will be integrated with old registrants on local board lists, after the second national lottery to be held in Washington today.

The order in which the new names will be inserted will be determined by the sequence numbers drawn in the lottery today, with the new registrant drawing number one being the first to have his name integrated in the list.

The New Castle County Board No. 1, located at New Castle, which includes Newark, has the largest number of registrants of any other one board in the state with 293. Other rural boards are: New Castle Co., No. 2, Middletown, 51; Kent County No. 1, Dover, 87; Kent County No. 2, Harrington, 92; Sussex County No. 1, Georgetown, 139; Sussex County No. 2, Seaford, 187.

With four local boards in Wilmington a total of 744 are registered. Numbers assigned to men in the immediate Newark area by Board No. 2 are: 4 — Arthur F. Smith, Glasgow; 8 — Leo Adolf Tammi, Newark; 12 — Anthony Joseph Reimer, Bear; 15 — Charles Thomas Brown, Newark; 32 — Harry Wilson Murray, Bear.

Thirty-seven Delawareans reported Tuesday for medical examinations at the Trenton, N. J., induction center where 30 out of the 36 who reported on Monday were accepted for service.

Those accepted from New Castle Board No. 1 were:

Burns, Newark; Walter Boys, Stanton; William F. Sowden, Wilmington; Franklin W. Morris, Newark; Ralph G. Scott, Wilmington; William R. Bellin, Claymont; Ralph S. Johnston, New Castle; Fred P. W. McDowell, Newark; Melvin L. Cox, Stanton; Carroll F. Lucas, Stanton; Charles Chubb, Wilmington.

POULTRYMEN ORGANIZE

Appointment of a State Defense Committee to guide activities of the Delaware poultry industry in the current National Defense Program has just been announced by Charles Conaway, Greenwood, president of the Delaware Poultry Improvement Association.

Personnel of the newly-named committee composed of representative producers and supply and equipment men, includes: Dan Enterline, Dover; E. A. Yutzi, Millsboro; Alden Short, Georgetown; Victor Lehtinen, Newark; Dave Greene, Milford; William Murray, Ocean View; John Pitkin, Dover; I. C. Mumford, Selbyville; H. R. Baker, State Board of Agriculture, and H. L. Richardson, University of Delaware.

When he made the announcement, Conaway declared, "The federal government is asking the poultry industry to speed up production as an aid to national defense. So steps must be taken to see that the industry is supplied with essential material and equipment. Probably not more than three or four days' reserve feed supply is available on the Delmarva Peninsula. Any traffic tie-up might prove serious. The shortage of electrical energy bids fair to be a problem and aluminum and other metal for equipment is already proving to be a problem."

Conaway also revealed that the committee would work in cooperation with the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council to consider especially the matter of feed supplies, labor deferment from army conscription, supply of electrical energy and priority on materials and transportation of necessary equipment and supplies.

BUREAU ACTS TO SUPPLY FARM LABOR

Names Placement Representatives

Meeting an increasing need for organized direction of the farm labor supply in Delaware, the Delaware State Employment Service has located a farm placement representative in each of its offices. John P. Benson, State farm placement representative, is at the Wilmington office, 601 Shipley St.; John Lyndall is directing the farm labor work in Kent County from 307 S. State St., Dover, and Edwin E. Hughes is at the W. Market St. office in Georgetown.

Delaware's move to supply badly-needed labor on farms is part of a nation-wide drive to bring aid to farmers facing demands for increased production under the Food For Defense Program and an acute shortage of labor with which to accomplish production increases.

Action of the employment service in balking a farm labor shortage crisis was given increased attention after its directors had heard of the Delaware farm labor situation through meetings of Land-Use Planning Committees where farmers maintained that labor is their No. 1 headache.

"Farmers must realize," states Thomas Russell, manager of the Kent County office of the employment service, "that we ought to have their requests in advance if our newly-organized farm labor set-up is to function to the advantage of all farmers. Even though their peak labor needs might come two weeks or a month in the future, we should know about their demands for farm labor now so the needed help can be located and made available at the right time. And we are asking farmers to request only the number of workers they actually need. We also want farmers to let us know what they are paying farm workers at the time their requests are sent to our farm placement representatives."

The possibility of shifting farm labor from farm to farm as demand changes has prompted the Delaware State Employment Service to ask that farmers report to the county offices whenever they have idle farm labor. Such labor can then be directed to other farms for short periods of time, eliminating dangers of farm workers entering other than agricultural employment.

Cooperating in this first organized farm labor placement service in the State, the WPA has pledged itself to provide men from its rolls for farm work. WPA workers released for farm jobs will be allowed to make up time lost when they return to WPA projects so that their returns from WPA work will remain the same. WPA officials say that men on their payrolls will be required to take up farm work when they are needed. Farmers hiring help from WPA will pay their regular farm wages, not the prevailing WPA rate.

Farm placement representatives in the county offices of the Delaware State Employment Service are continually available for consultation with farmers who desire help with their labor problems. Telephone numbers of the offices are: New Castle County, Wilmington—34331; Kent County, Dover—1073, and Sussex County, Georgetown—289.

AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT!

The Management of the American Stores Company and Acme Super Markets announce today that a five-day work week for retail store employees will be further extended throughout the system, about the middle of September, upon completion of the employees vacation schedule.

Instead of having one-half day off each week, as at present, under the new plan, store employees will enjoy a full day off each week, in addition to which weekly work hours will be reduced to forty-eight, with wages continuing at the six day level.

While this further betterment of working conditions for our employees will necessitate a considerable readjustment of working schedules and operating conditions, our stores, nevertheless, will be open SIX DAYS WEEKLY.

We have been gratified to note the general approval that has attended the introduction of this plan in a part of our system, and we feel confident that its wider adoption now will prove equally acceptable to our employees and customers.
