CENTURY CLUB GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

Seven Former Presidents Portrayed By Models

Newark New Century Club celebrated its 50th anniversary with a luncheon program in the club house on Monday afternoon.

The speakers' table were many presidents of the club and the guests of honor, including, Mrs. Delaney Clark, charter member of the local club; Mrs. T. D. Mylrea, president of the State Federation and also a past president of the Newark Club; Mrs. Clarence Fraim, historian of the General Federation; Mrs. Arthur Wilkins, vice-president for New Castle County; Dean Marjorie Golder of the Women's College and Mrs. J. Morton Baxter, president of the Wilmington New Century Club. Mrs. A. D. Warner, Sr., who was unable to be present, sent a gift to commemorate the occasion.

Mrs. Fraim, introduced by Mrs. Robert Boyd, president of the Newark Club, brought greetings to the club members and paid her great tribute.

Mrs. Delaware Clark, only living charter member of the club gave some reminiscences of old club problems and solutions and expressed great pleasure at being at the 50th anniversary celebration.

Mrs. John Standen sang "Sunset and Evening Star" thus paying homage to the club members who had gone on.

Following the meeting a bounteous supper was served and enjoyed by all present.

Pfc. Bruce Rankin At Lehigh University

Private First Class John Rankin, 32 West Park Place, is now stationed at Lehigh University as an advanced member of the Army Specialized Training unit, where he will study engineering. The basic engineering training is given in three, 12-week terms.

The arrival of a second contingent of cadets raised the total to 1,500 soldiers who are stationed at Lehigh under the AST program. Soldiers assigned to ASTP units are considered potential officer material and are in line for O.C.S. after completing their academic work in the college classroom.

UNITED WAR FUND CAMPAIGN NOW ON

Newark Visiting Nurse Association Is Not In Drive

Robert C. Levis and John R. Fader, co-chairmen of the Newark committee conducting the United War Fund Campaign have stated that all Zone Captains are requested to turn in completed pledge cards and collections by Friday of each week.

They may be delivered to either: Robert J. Boyd at the Newark Trust Company or H. Lloyd Yarnall at the Farmers Trust Company.

Canvassing in each zone should be completed and all reports turned in not later than Friday, November 12. The drive opened on Monday, October 25 and will continue through November 15.

The Office of Civilian Defense, Elliott Building on East Main Street next to Rhodes Drug Store will be open on Friday evenings, October 29, November 5 and November 12, from 7:30 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. on provide additional supplies, etc.

The local committee wishes to state that the Newark Visiting Nurse Association has decided not to participate in the drive. They prefer to remain as an independent organization and conduct their own drive for funds as in the past and the public is advised that they will in no way benefit from this drive.

Additional pledge cards, or Workers' and Captain's envelopes may be obtained at either of the above banks or at the Civilian Defense headquarters.

VIOLINIST AT MITCHELL HALL NOV. 19

Music Society Will Present Five Concerts

The Newark Music Society, whose membership drive was recently successfully completed, will inaugurate the first of its series of concert programs in Mitchell Hall on the evening of Friday, November 19, with the appearance here of Frances Magness, a talented violinist.

The series will consist of five concerts featuring nationally known and recognized artists. All programs will be held at Mitchell Hall and will begin promptly at 8:15 P. M.

It has been announced that no further memberships in the Society will be accepted. Single admissions to the concerts may be purchased at the door on the night of the program.

The second program in the Fall series will be the appearance of the Curtis String Quartet on December 15. The remainder of the program includes appearances by Robert Elmore, organist, Thomas Richner, pianist, and the Opera in Miniature — dates for the last three mentioned programs to be announced later.

Junior Mechanics Hold Meeting

American Flag Council No. 25, Junior Order United American Mechanics held their regular weekly meeting on Monday night in the Odd Fellows Hall and it was decided to hold a memorial service in the Council Chamber on Monday night, November 15 when all members of the order are urged to be present.

Last Thursday twenty members of the lodge went to Wilmington where they attended a class initiation at the Jr. U. A. M. hall, 907 Tatnall Street.

Following the regular business session there was a short entertainment and refreshments were served.

60 TIRES APPROVED BY RATION BOARD

Certificates Issued At Meeting Held This Week

ALL OUT SCRAP DRIVE NOVEMBER 6

Metal Needed To Replenish "Scrap Bank"

The Newark Salvage Committee is cooperating with the War Production Board in its effort to build up a "Scrap Bank" of metal, particularly iron and steel, to be used as a reserve in supplying the producers of war materials. The Committee is anxious to get all the available scrap metal for the local "bank" by November 15, the date set for the termination of the concerted national effort.

Consuming steel mills and suppliers have on hand an inventory of about 7 1/2 million tons, which will last only two months. Fear of this situation has prompted the War Production Board to launch this all-out nation-wide scrap salvage campaign.

Now that military events are beginning to overwhelm the enemy, we need more than ever to make sure that our fighting units have everything they need to finish the job, and finish it at the earliest possible moment. The "Victory Scrap Bank" is an important step in this direction.

Locally, the drive in the rural areas is to be held on Sunday, November 7, when transportation facilities can be made available from Fort duPont. In town, the schools are going to "get in the scrap" on Saturday, November 6, and Monday, November 8. It is hoped that every person will take the responsibility for collecting scrap at home. If it is not convenient to take it to the "Bank" on Elkton Road, call 511 (Mr. Lanier or Mr. Standen) and arrangements will be made to have it conveyed to one of the central depositories.

An Open Letter to Subscribers of the Newark Visiting Nurse Association

To Subscribers:

The Newark Visiting Nurse Association has been conducted successfully in the past as a purely local affair, and its Board of Directors deems it best to continue it as such, and has decided not to participate in the United War Chest Drive now starting, which includes a place for the community nurse. We, therefore, hope that you will reserve your nurse's subscription for the Newark Association when it makes its annual appeal in January.

Sincerely,

NEWARK VISITING NURSE ASSOCIATION

Mary Richards, Secretary

RED CROSS CONDUCTS HOME SERVICE

Course In Home Nursing Sponsored

During the month of October the Newark Branch of the Red Cross had four requests for Home Service in the local area. The purpose of this special service is to alleviate troubles of families of those in the armed forces and to relieve the minds of service men by special investigations of home conditions, etc., when so requested.

Mrs. George E. Dutton, chairman of knitting, has had a call from Chapter Headquarters for army gloves, army sleeveless sweaters, navy gloves, and navy helmets. Wool for these has been sent to Newark and may be called for at Mrs. Dutton's home, 183 W. Main St. There is an evergrowing demand for these articles and it is hoped that knitters will apply at once. The Women's College is filling an order for 15 sleeveless sweaters.

A course in Home Nursing is now being sponsored by the Red Cross with classes taking place at the Women's College.

This month the Canteen Committee, of which Mrs. Ralph Jones is Chairman, has served tea, coffee and cookies at luncheon to 92 workers in the Red Cross rooms.

Production of surgical dressings and sewing has slowed down during the first weeks of October. Everyone that can devote even an hour or two a week to this essential work is asked to do so. The rooms will continue to be open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., and Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

6,237 NO. 4 BOOKS ARE ISSUED

Prof. Kutz In Charge At School

6,237 copies of War Ration Book No. 4 have been issued at the Newark High School the first three days of the ration period which will end this evening with the close of the rationing at eight o'clock, it was stated by Prof. Frederick B. Kutz, in charge of the rationing at the local school.

Carlton E. Douglass, supervisor of rationing for the entire district comprising all the schools in the territory stated that members of the school faculties in the district have cooperated 100 per cent.

Prof. Kutz stated that on Monday there were 509 applications and 1397 books were issued. Tuesday there were 648 applications and 1939 books were issued. Wednesday's registration was the heaviest with 1056 applications and the issuing of 2961 books, making a total of 2213 applications with 6,237 books being issued.

Congratulations are being extended to Sergeant and Mrs. George Howell, Newark, on the birth of a daughter, October 26, at the Memorial Hospital, Wilmington.

Instructor

Lieut. Charles E. Cranston

CRANSTON IS MADE AVIATION INSTRUCTOR

Local Pilot Now Rated Airplane Commander

Lieut. Charles E. Cranston, 31 Lovett Avenue, was graduated on October 12 from Liberal Army Air Field after nine weeks of intensive four-engine bomber training.

Lieut. Cranston, a commissioned officer before he began training at the new Southwest Kansas bomber base, is now rated an "Airplane Commander" qualified to command the combat crew of a giant B-24 in overseas air war.

His training at Liberal Army Air Field included every phase of the operation of a Liberator, from flying blind through storms to repairing its intricate machinery.

Lieut. Cranston was scheduled to go to a tactical unit where he was to have met the crew of the ship he was to have flown in combat but word has been received that he has been retained at the field as an instructor.

The son of Mrs. Clara C. Truitt, the 24-year-old pilot won his wings and commission, July 29 at Ellington Field, Texas.

SHIELDS HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Local Man Resigns Red Cross Post

Joseph A. Shields, executive secretary of the Delaware Red Cross, has resigned that position to become production manager of a food concern in Phoenixville, Pa., according to information received this week.

A resident of Newark and former Director of Physical Education at the University of Delaware, Mr. Shields was honor guest at a luncheon in the Hotel duPont Tuesday given by R. R. M. Carpenter, chairman of the Delaware Red Cross.

A portfolio brief case was presented Mr. Shields as a gift from the staff. Wm. B. Russell and Mrs. R. Blair Myers, will serve as assistants to Mr. Carpenter who will assume active control of the Delaware chapter when Shield's resignation becomes effective, November 1.

"It is a matter of keen regret that the Delaware Chapter is losing Mr. Shields," Mr. Carpenter said in announcing the resignation. Shields had been executive secretary of the chapter for a little more than one year.

Judson Ryan Speaks At Rotary Club Meeting

Judson D. Ryan, owner of the National Food Center in Wilmington, was the guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Newark Rotary Club held at the College Inn on Monday night.

Mr. Ryan spoke on Vitamins and their uses. He outlined how each vitamin affected the body and from what foods a person can get these vitamins. He also spoke about meat substitutes which are on the market today and told about the Soy Bean and its many by-products.

T. Russell Silk, past president of the club presided at the business session and introduced Francis E. B. McCann, a visitor from Wilmington.

AUNT MAUDE AWARDED WAR BOND MONDAY

Has Cared For 22 Children In Four Years

Mrs. Maude G. Thornton, 806 South College Avenue, known as "Aunt Maude" to the 22 children she has taken into her home from varying periods since December, 1939, received a $25 War Bond award on the "Salute the Heroes" program on WDEL at 7:30 o'clock Monday night, in recognition of her outstanding service as a foster mother.

She and her husband were middle-aged when they decided to apply to one of the agencies now sponsoring the "Homes for Delaware Children" campaign to find homes for 100 Delaware children. Unfortunately, Mr. Thornton's sudden death prevented the placement of these children and Mrs. Thornton had to withdraw her application.

After several months, when Mrs. Thornton had become adjusted to living without her husband, she returned to the agency and made a reaplication for children.

Mrs. Thornton's first children came to her on December 1, 1939. These were two little sisters and a brother. The children were malnourished and in poor physical condition but the loving care of "Aunt Maude" soon helped to build them up physically and also provided the affection and attention needed for emotional health. These children stayed with Mrs. Thornton for six months.

Since that time, Mrs. Thornton has had 19 other children from time to time. Their ages have ranged from seven months to 17 years. She has given each of them excellent care and sincere affection.

Mrs. Thornton stated that her biggest job was in obtaining household help.

PRANKSTERS WARNED BY COUNCIL

Destruction Of Property Unpatriotic

Another last minute warning to would-be pranksters and vandals who often take advantage of Halloween evening to indulge their fancies in practical jokes, soaping automobiles, removing doors and otherwise defacing or destroying personal property was issued this week by the Town Council and Chief of Police Wm. H. Cunningham.

Orderly celebration of Halloween will be welcomed, they stated, but the destruction or defacement of real or personal property is definitely taboo—more so this year than ordinarily because materials for repair purposes are critically needed in the war effort and are not readily obtainable.

Local police officers will strictly enforce this edict, it is said, and all perpetrators apprehended will face prosecution on a charge of malicious mischief. There are plenty of innocent, harmless methods of amusement besides wilful destruction, they opined.

FREDERICK SPEAKER AT LIONS CLUB

Members of the Newark Lions Club were honored by a visit from District Governor Frederick on the occasion of the weekly dinner meeting, Tuesday, held in the Country Club.

Mr. Frederick was introduced by President E. A. Curtis and made a constructive talk on the purposes and accomplishments of District 22-b of which the Newark Club is a part. He also held a short conference with local club officials following the program.

A brief directors meeting was conducted by President Curtis at the conclusion of the meeting. Frank Fader, chairman of the committee on arrangements for the celebration of the club's fifteenth Charter Night announced that the affair would be held at the Country Club on Tuesday, November 9.

A program of entertainment is being arranged. Each Lion is expected to bring either his Lioness or a lady guest. Tickets will be available from members of the committee.

TREASURE HUNT HELD AT NEWPORT ON TUESDAY

Sixth Grade Pet Show To Be Held On October 28

Newport, Oct. 28th — The Young Women's Progressive Club of Newport held a brief business session on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. J. J. Fleming, President, presiding. The group joined in singing "America", and pledged Allegiance to the American Flag.

The feature of the evening's entertainment was a Treasure Hunt, in charge of Miss Mabel Steinbaker. There were about 50 members present, 30 of whom went on the Treasure Hunt, while 20 others remained at the Clubhouse and made scrapbooks for Christmas for the Stockley Colony. Mrs. Fleming's group found the Treasure, after which the guests returned to the Clubhouse and prizes were awarded members of the successful group. Hostesses assisting Miss Steinbaker with the evening's entertainment included Mrs. James Johnston, Mrs. Fred Benoit, Mrs. Garrett Steel, Mrs. Claude Hall, Mrs. Charles Stumpf and Mrs. J. D. Genet.

The Club will hold its next business session on November 2nd, and the program for the evening will be in charge of Mrs. Frank Maslin, Chairman of Art. Hostesses for the evening will be Miss Florence Groves, Chairman; assisted by Mrs. Ralph Garland, Mrs. Charles Glennon, Mrs. Arthur Craig, Mrs. Louis Brenner and Mrs. Harry Chambers.

On November 12th, members of the Club will serve as hostesses at the Newport Service Center on the occasion of the weekly dance for service men from the New Castle County Air Base. On November 16th, the Club will be hostesses to 25 service men from the Base at a Covered Dish Supper and evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Elva K. Bogia, chairman of War Stamp and Bond Sales at the Krebs School, announces that sales this week totalled $291.85. Grades where children purchase 100 per cent of the enrollment were — Mrs. Grace Maguigan's second grade; Mrs. Dorothy Pyne's third grade; Miss Mary Katherine Gray's sixth grade; and Mrs. Margaret Ford's seventh grade. Mrs. Elsie Lynch's third grade was high for the week with purchases of $43.40.

The Quarterly Conference session of the Newport Methodist Church was conducted this week with the Rev. Oliver J. Collins, District Superintendent, presiding. Reports from the various branches of the church were made by Mrs. David Stevenson, President of the W.S.C.S.; Miss Lela Lynam, Treasurer of the Church; Mr. George L. Biddle, Superintendent of the Sunday School and Charles Bratton, President of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the church. George L. Biddle was elected and confirmed as Superintendent of the Sunday School for the ensuing year.

Special units of work are being carried out at the Krebs School. Mrs. Grace Maguigan's second grade pupils made a visit to the local Minquas Firehouse on Tuesday to study about fire-fighting equipment. They are making a town model in their classroom. Miss Jane Lynam's second grade visited the Minquas Firehouse on Monday, as they are also studying about the community, and will visit points of interest.

Mrs. Dorothy Pyne's third grade pupils took a trip to Old Swede's Church this week. These pupils were 100 per cent in their purchase of War Stamps for the week.

Miss Mary Katherine Gray's Sixth grade pupils have started a school newspaper. On Thursday, Oct. 28th, Sixth grade pupils will conduct a Pet Show on the School Grounds from 9 a. m. to 9:30 a. m., at which time children will take their pets to the school where they will be judged, and ribbons awarded.

The Women's Auxiliary of the St. James P. E. Church is meeting every Wednesday at 10 a. m. in the Parish House to sew for the mission boxes.

Mrs. Leslie Mahan, Chairman of Public Welfare, is asking for volunteers for Red Cross work. Workers will meet on Wednesdays 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., and in the evening from 7 to 10 p. m. The group will sew and make surgical dressings for the Red Cross. Urgent calls are being sent out by the Red Cross for additional materials.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stevenson of Silview returned last evening after spending their vacation this week in New York City visiting points of interest.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Hodgson have had as guests for a few days, Mr. Hodgson's sister, Miss Katherine M. Hodgson of Selbyville, Del., and Miss Lydia Edgerly of Millsboro, Del. They returned home last evening.

Mrs. Rebecca Valentine is confined to her home by illness. Pfc. Delbert Gooden of 111 Adelphi Avenue, Silview, is home on leave due to a death in his family.

More than 200 guests attended the weekly dance held in the Newport Service Center in the Masonic Hall, Newport, Friday evening, at which time service men from the New Castle

County Air Base, and young women were entertained.

Private Wayne Arthur of Seymour Johnson Field, No. Carolina, Trumpeter, played in the orchestra this week. The volunteer orchestra comprised Buddy Benson, Paul Stradley, Francis Highfield and Norman Unkhard.

Irwin Jefferis of Armstrong Lodge, Master of Ceremonies, was assisted by Henry Gerstenburg, Raymond Smith and William R. Preston.

Miss Betty Reed of Stanton was the announcer.

Miss Bessie Lynam, President of the Service Center Organization, Mrs. Harry Poole, Mrs. Frank R. White, Mrs. William Crink, Mrs. Paul Stradley, and Mrs. Virginia Williams, were in charge of the Junior Hostesses.

Rev. Alex Boyer of the St. James P. E. Church, Newport, was a guest. Hostesses who provided and served the refreshments were members of the Woodcrest Catholic Church, and included Mrs. Marie Groome, Mrs. Emma Deery, Mrs. Gertrude Blansfield, Mrs. Dorothy Fahey, Mrs. Agnes O'Connell, Mrs. Myrtle Thompson, Mrs. Alice Burns, Mrs. Margaret Rossiter, Mrs. Rebecca Woodrow, Mrs. Margery King, Mrs. Helen Riley and Miss Mary Burns.

Next Friday evening there will be a Halloween Dance at the Center with junior hostesses groups under the direction of Miss Bessie Lynam and Mrs. Leslie Mahan in charge of arrangements.

On Wednesday evening officials of the Center, accompanied by about 75 young women and hostesses visited the New Castle County Air Base at the invitation of Lieut. Dan C. Park, in charge of Recreational Activities. The group was welcomed by Lieut. Park and Lieut. Fabian.

Dairymen May Now Purchase Hay

Delaware dairymen needing hay may purchase either carload or less than carload lots from their local farm supply dealer.

Under the hay purchasing service developed by the Commodity Credit Corporation to bolster Delaware's short hay supply caused by the drought, the Southern States Cooperative has agreed to purchase and distribute the hay to farm dealers.

When making a purchase the dairyman must sign an eligibility certificate stating that he is a keeper of dairy cattle and will use the hay for feeding the cattle.

A farm supply dealer or farm cooperative may secure hay for distribution from the Southern States Cooperative.

The cost of this hay which will include alfalfa, clover, mixed legume hay and lespedeza ranges from $20 to $27 per ton.

Farmers needing hay should see their local farm supply dealer.

1944 FOOD GOALS WILL GUIDE FARM PRODUCTION

Crop Changes Recommended To Contribute To War Program

Delaware farmers were given a guide for producing the foods most essential to national wartime economy by the recent war food production goals conference held in Wilmington. Earlier in the year national needs for 1944, including civilian, military, and Lend-Lease requirements, had been estimated, and suggested allotments of the necessary production were made for the various states. At the recent state conference local, state, and federal agricultural leaders set up actual goals which they felt Delaware farmers could reach, considering shortages of feed, labor, transportation, and machinery, and the aid which various agricultural agencies will be able to give to relieve these problems. County groups will subdivide these production requirements within the State, and the individual farmer can use the goals as a guide to doing his part in producing the food which the Nation will need next year.

On many crops production will remain about the same as it has been this year. But several important changes in production were recommended to contribute more to the war program. The group recommended, for example, that 65,000 acres of soybeans be planted in Delaware, since this crop is important for food, feed, and oil. Only 42,000 acres of soybeans were raised in the State in 1942. An increase of 10,000 acres in corn was recommended for the State over this year's production of 133,000, since this would help offset feed shortages. And for the same reason, the group recommended that wheat acreages be increased from 59,000 to 62,000, and tame hay from 69,000 to 71,000. Oats could be reduced, since this crop is not too satisfactory for Delaware.

On the basis of feed shortages, most livestock numbers will have to remain about the same. But the great need for increased egg production brought a recommendation for an increase of 15 per cent in numbers of laying hens and pullets, to be offset somewhat on the feed supply by a reduction from 90,000 to 80,000 turkeys, and from 10,000 sows to farrow (spring and fall) to 6,400.

An increase from 39,200 to 41,700 acres of vegetables for processing was recommended, with a shift of 2000 acres of this year's 4000 acres of peas to other vegetable crops. And the group recommended a reduction of 600 from this year's 4,600 acres of Irish potatoes, with an increase of 500 on this year's 3000 acres of sweet potatoes.

The group hoped for an increase from 5000 to 6000 acres in farm gardens, and recommended continuance of this year's successful Victory Garden program, with special attention to selection of sites and proper use of seed and fertilizer.

In considering the problems which farmers will face in meeting these production requirements, J. Frank Gordy, state supervisor of the Emergency Farm Labor program, said that labor would still be the farmer's biggest problem in 1944. However, Mr. Gordy reported that though farmers had done a lot of extra work this year, labor needs had generally been met successfully—the labor program was able to supply 9,000 of the total of 11,000 laborers requested during the year. Inexperienced workers convinced farmers that they could help—boys and girls in the Victory Farm Volunteer corps save an estimated $410,000 worth of food. Washington representatives felt that more foreign laborers and out-of-state workers might be available next year. But Mr. Gordy said the best advantage of handling the labor situation was to get to work on it early.

An early start was also considered the best answer to machinery and fertilizer problems. George M. Wierlow, associate director of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, said the farmer could do a lot toward helping the manufacturer meet demands by making applications for machinery and fertilizer as soon as possible and by accepting delivery whenever the materials were produced. To avoid peak labor and transportation loads later, and to keep materials from piling up in storage and interfering with production, manufacturers must keep goods moving as they are produced.

The big job of meeting these problems, planning production to meet requirements, and getting the production job done, goes to the farmer, but every effort will be made to give him help.

Put Your Scrap Metal In The "Bank!"

Do You Know ??

That about 4 million tons of scrap metal are needed each month to keep our steel mills going? At the present time the National "SCRAP BANK" contains only two months supply.

The period from OCTOBER 1 to NOVEMBER 15 has been designated as a time for building a "surplus" of metal in the "SCRAP BANK" of the country. There must be many tons of scrap metal in cellars, sheds, barns, garages and other places around the house—please take an hour or so to collect it. If it is not convenient to take it to our "SCRAP BANK," on Elkton Road, let us know and it will be picked up before November 15. THIS IS URGENT.

MIGRATORY GAME BIRD SEASON TO OPEN NOV. 15

Possession, Bag Limits Established On Wildfowl

The 1943 regulations governing the hunting of migratory game birds have been announced by Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes. The new rules differ only slightly from those in force last year.

At the request of State authorities both Iowa and Pennsylvania have been placed in the Northern zone. Because of the change in regard to Pennsylvania, the important Pymatuning Reservoir, which lies partly in Pennsylvania and partly in Ohio, is now entirely in the Northern zone and regulations affecting it will be simplified.

Adopted by Secretary Ickes in accordance with a law of Congress making effective treaties relating to birds migrating between the United States, Canada, and Mexico, the amended regulations were approved by President Roosevelt on July 16. They were recommended by the Fish and Wildlife Service following biological investigations and consultations with State game administrators.

Hunting of migratory game birds this year, sportsmen will be permitted to retain birds lawfully taken for a period of 45 days following the close of the open season in the State where killed—an extension of 15 days.

Changes were made in the dates for hunting woodcock in Connecticut, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Vermont, and West Virginia. The season for hunting rails and gallinules in Maryland was shortened 30 days, and closed in Iowa to conform with State laws.

Open season for hunting wild ducks, geese, brant and coot in Delaware and Maryland are from November 15 to November 29, both dates inclusive.

On the opening day of the season no person may possess any migratory game birds in excess of the daily limits.

Daily bag limits on ducks are 10 in the aggregate of all kinds including in such limit not more than 1 wood duck, or more than 8 singly or in the aggregate of redheads and buffheads. Any person at any one time may possess not more than 20 ducks in the aggregate of all kinds but not more than 1 wood duck nor over 6 of either or both of redheads or buffheads.

The daily limit on geese and brant is 2, but in addition 4 blue geese may be taken in a day. If blue geese only are taken the daily bag limit is 6. The possession limit on geese other than blue geese is 4 but in addition 2 blue geese are allowed. If only blue geese are taken the possession limit is 6 of them.

The bag limit for sora and coot is 25 singly or in the aggregate a day, not over 25 in the aggregate in possession at one time.

Fifteen rails and gallinules in the aggregate of all kinds (except sora and coot) may be taken daily, possession being limited to that number in the aggregate.

Woodcock shooters may take 4 of these birds daily and may possess not exceeding 8 of them.

Not over 10 of both mourning or turtle and white-winged doves in the aggregate may be taken in one day. Possession of mourning doves is limited at any one time to not over 10 and white-wings to 20.

How About That!

By Ruth Safran

Dear Paul:

My journalistic conscience bothered me after I dashed off the letter last week—about how Newark was weaving welcome mats. That is only part of the story, you'll say—and you're very right.

How about their working community—these young girls from far away? What kind of greeting do they get at the plants? Is any attention given to their problems—housing, transportation, financial?

Fortunately there aren't many supervisors today like the oldtimer quoted in Fortune. When asked how he received a new worker, he boasted: "I just stand there and stare him down, to kinda show him how dumb he is." "And then?" "Then I spit."

There were plenty of stories like that that you could pick up about local war plants—say a year ago when the human approach was not thought of in terms of maximum production. Get the present supervisors to talk about their first day on the job. One shuddered: "I told my family when I came home the first night that my boss was a human Frankenstein," and another admitted "I cried on my first day on my job. The supervisor didn't bother to teach me, then yelled 'You're too dumb' when I made a mistake". Another added, "The girls seemed to resent me when they first brought me in as a new employee because I wasn't doing anything—only because the foreman didn't give me anything to do, didn't pay any attention to me. I figured I'd better look around for some work or quit."

There were hundreds of stories adding up to inadequate instruction or a cold reception in the new work place.

I say "were" because I've watched foremen absorb the lessons of human engineering and admit that employees were more than a pair of useful hands and a paycheck.

One foreman told me a story that had taught him a lesson—about the importance of treating each employee as an individual, learning what made them tick. "One of the girls came in a couple of minutes late. The shift had gotten under way and I had someone at her place. When she came in, I told her to go over to another building for the evening."

"I won't go. And you know why," she said.

"I didn't know what she was referring to—and I wasn't going to have her walk over me, so I told her 'Either you go to that building or you leave this department.'"

"She walked out, didn't say another word."

"About a week later, a friend of her's came up to me. 'Why were you so tough on Susie?', she asked. 'Me tough?' Nobody's going to refuse an order of mine!"

"Don't you know that Susie used to be engaged to the foreman of that building and they broke off. She wouldn't go near him with a ten-foot pole!"

"I also found out that Susie had told the other Supervisors about her broken engagement and figured that I knew about it too."

One of the things that has brought this new appreciation of employees as people is the Training Within Industry programs that have been launched in war plants.

Job Instructor Training, for instance, teaches the foremen the importance of putting the worker at ease, the proper way to "pass the know-how along," the right size of the learning doses.

And Job Relations Training emphasizes chiefly the importance of treating each employee as an individual.

It stresses the foundations for keeping good job relations—and also the approach for handling such problems as they arise.

Lots of films like "New Line Home", "Fair and Cautious", "Big Little Things" show by their titles that they use films almost as much as the Army. Induction programs, too, make the approach to industry easier by the education of pay procedures knowledge of plant facilities.

And once he's at work, companies service for employees help to work out any future job adjustment. The transportation board arranges his relocation problems; the housing department gets him housed.

Another valuable "frill" is the movies shown during rest periods—like "December 7th", more powerful than any fictional approach. "The Life and Death of the Hornet", also packed with emotional punches.

Sure there were a few pioneers who have had the programs I'm telling you about before the war. But there was nothing like the general acceptance of the ideas that workers must not be driven but directed, not pushed but understood, and given the tools that they belonged to.

And I don't believe this approach will die out after the war because it does add up to the maximum production. Or as Stuart Chase remarks, "It seems clear that a man who has been shown the value of all his muscles is never going to fill his muscles case with sand again."

My regards to the other fellows in Algiers.

"Aunt Maude" Thornton, 396 South College Avenue, received a $25 War Bond last Monday for being a mother to 22 Delaware youngsters. Anyone who knows "Aunt Maude" can be sure that those children were made welcome in her home and given the best of care.

It was stated by a member of the Junior Mechanics that the Concrete Derby this week should be presented to Roland Marine for his card playing and to Charles W. Colmery for his ability to EAT. Fellows, I don't know what your fellow-lodger member was referring to but I did see Roland Marine walking down Main Street on Monday night with an arm full of pint boxes of Ice Cream. Was that all for C.W.C.?

Possibly it referred to the oyster banquet at the Odd Fellows. Charley said it was a BOUNTIFUL oyster supper.

The "Little Admiral" (Ott Gribble) is home on a short leave. Wonder how the Navy makes out without him? He has been seen in the second floor hall at the Newark High School surrounded by Gals. Well, that is as usual. Ott has had the Big Black Buick out this week. It has been said that the only reason he joined up was so that he could go away long enough to save some A stamps and have enough gasoline when he came back. It could be that he heard that service men got extra gas.

Jim Megliligan seems to be having trouble with Pin Boys at the bowling alleys. Why not try some PIN-UP Girls.

Bobby Hopkins trimmed his dad Clarence this past Monday night. Beat him by 7 pins. Dad is pretty hot Bobby, but you are not so bad either.

Jim Megliligan, the manager at the bowling alleys is trying to plan a Turkey Match to be rolled off real soon. He figures that both he and Sureshot would be able to get the booby prize. Last week Jim bowled 126-177-117. The first and last games were getting down to my class.

The Wildcats in the Monday night league had better get started. They are in the cellar, only won one game. The Lions Club and the All-Stars of the Tuesday night league have not even started according to their standing. Lost them all. That is bad.

The Blue Hens in the Thursday night league are on the tail-end. Girls, you had better put on some steam.

Ruth Safran may be able to write "How About That" but when it comes to bowling, she is not so hot. 63-49-47. Gee, Ruth, you can do better than that. Me-No, I, can write better than I can bowl. Possibly my great writers can't ever get to be good bowlers.

Yes, Sureshot bowls with the tail-end team in the Friday night leagues. Possibly the reason the team is at the bottom of the league list is because Sureshot is on the team.

Everyone is looking forward to seeing the Newark High School trip the Delaware Freshman team Saturday afternoon when they meet on the school field. Handsome Joe Talucci will again be given a chance to STAR. Yes, there are several other members on the team. That Brandon Davis fellow would be sore if his name was left out. So would Bill Hamilton, Len George, Cueball Martin, Fatty Butler, Wells, Vansant, Gaskiewicz, Lee, Geddy, Williams Ryan Beers, Shean, Widoes, Lomax, Crossan, Walker, McKenry, McCormick, Gilston, John Hamilton, Casho, Oh, Yes, Buddy Cataldi, and Roddy Holton. Griffin, I nearly forgot you.

By golly, some one said that the team had a manager and an assistant, Albert Vogel and Harvey Renshaw. Can anyone tell me if Sammy Talucci is on the team to play ball or just to go to the Football Banquet and eat.

School teachers throughout the country are taking it on the chin this week. The time they should spend at home correcting lessons, they are devoting to helping the OPA get out the latest edition of ration stamps. They won't get any pay for the job but they will possibly be given medals sometime during the next 40 years.

Then there are those ladies of the town and the men and women who serve on the local panels without pay and get blessed if they do and blessed if they don't. Gee, I would rather have the job of writing this baloney. When I take a crack at the OPA, it is only the official setup. It wouldn't do for Sureshot to be on the board or any of the panels. Sureshot would say, the duce with the regulations, they are all wrong to start with.

Sureshot is wondering what the Fortune Teller told those football players at the Carnival last week. The young lady, (Her name was Dawn) seemed to dawn on the boys. She kind of worked on that Campbell fellow also. He is not on the team, so we wonder what he wanted to find out. Probably he had another kind of problem.

The Buzz staff is busy this week getting out their paper. They do a fine job on it. Oliver Suddard may be the production manager but when I was in the press room on Tuesday afternoon Peggy Nichols was doing all the work.

Dick Robinson was sporting the cutest legions of the Hi School Tuesday afternoon.

Tommy Runk really put the grub away last week at the Ushers League Banquet. So did several other fellows (Sureshot included) and Albert Clark has done a fine job of organizing those ushers. Boy, oh, Boy, those ladies at

YELLOWJACKET-BLUE HEN CLASH SET FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT SCHOOL

Coach Martin's Freshman Team Is About Evenly Matched With Newark High School; Bowlus, Hen Triple Threat Man, Out With Broken Foot

Newark High School will play host to the University of Delaware Freshman team on the school athletic field Saturday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

Both teams are about evenly matched and a real tight game is expected to be witnessed by the spectators.

Bowlus, a former Salesianum student and a triple-threat man for the Blue Hens is out of the game with a broken bone in his foot. Bowlus was the player the Hens depended on for much of their ground gaining. He will be replaced by Duncan of New Castle High.

Norbert Cashell, playing at quarterback will be playing against his former Alma Mater as he is a graduate of the Newark High School. Cashell scored one of the two touchdowns against Conrad in the game played at Conrad two weeks ago.

Coach "Shack" Martin stated that he expects this to be the hardest contest his charges will have for the entire season as he knows that the Jackets always fight hard to the very last second of the game.

Coach Roland Jackson, mentor of the Newark High team will start the usual team that has taken the field in the previous clashes. Jackson has been putting his team through intensive indoor practice this week due to the bad weather but expects to have them out on the field before the end of the week.

The Jackets are working on several trick plays that are expected to give the Hen Frosh a lot of trouble and the Jackson coached team will be out for their third win of the season, having defeated Brown Vocational in the opener and Friends School at Wilmington. It is reported that members of the Newark team have even resorted to finding fortune tellers in an effort to find out their weak points and possibly the secrets of the other teams.

The possible lineup of the opposing teams is as follows:

Newark	Position	Dea. Frosh
Talucci	Center	McCandless
Wells	Right Tackle	Nelson
J. Hamilton	Right Guard	Vincent
Vansant	Right End	Zink
Griffin	Quarter Back	Cashell
Davis	Left Half	Prigione
Martin	Right Half	O'Neil
George	Full Back	Duncan

BLACKOUT TUESDAY A SUCCESS

Harry Bonham Well Pleased With Test

Newark experienced the first of the one-a-month practice blackouts on Tuesday night and despite the rain was pronounced one of the most successful ever held in this area by Harry L. Bonham, general chairman of the Newark Council for Civilian Defense.

The cold, rainy weather kept many persons off the streets but nevertheless, the turnout of air raid wardens, civilian police and other civilian defense workers showed no let-down.

The Yellow signal was received at the Warning Center at 8:14 p. m. by Mrs. Myra Robertson and Mrs. A. E. Tomhave who were on duty at the time. This is the third time that Mrs. Robertson has been on duty when the Yellow signal has been flashed to the local Center.

The first Blue signal came through at 8:36 and all street lights went out at once and the whistles and sirens started to notify civilian defense workers that a raid was in progress and they rushed to their stations.

The Red or danger signal was given at 8:46 and remained on until 8:53 when the Second Blue Signal was flashed. The All-Clear was given at 9:02 when the street lights came on again.

No test incidents were conducted by the local authorities on account of the inclement weather.

The Methodist Church make the best rolls.

"Flash" Bill Fletcher, former member of the staff at the Newark Post will see service in the Armed Forces of his country. Bill is scheduled to receive a uniform in the Army. The war will soon get over now. Bill will help the generals get things in shape and as Bill will want to get back to Newark as soon as possible he will try and speed up the old war and get it over with.

SMALL GAME GUNNING SEASON TO OPEN NOV. 1

Sportsmen Face Serious Shortage Of Ammunition

Local sportsmen are busy this week cleaning guns, giving dogs last minute work-outs and making frantic efforts to secure enough shells to properly usher in the opening of small game bird season on Monday, November 1.

Small, upland game such as quail, rabbits and pheasant are reported more plentiful than in recent years despite the summer's drought and full bag limits on opening day are eagerly anticipated.

A recent press release issued by an overly optimistic O.P.A. office has set maximum prices on common sizes of shotgun shells and cartridges which would undoubtedly benefit gunners IF they are fortunate enough to find dealers equipped to supply their needs.

The table of maximum prices, as issued by O.P.A. follows:

12 ga. shells, $1.38 per box
16 ga. shells, 1.32 per box
20 ga. shells, 1.32 per box
Cartridge prices are: 22 long rifle, regular, 34c; 22 short, regular, 21c per box of fifty. Center fire cartridges: 25-35 Winchester, $1.41; 30-30 Winchester, $1.46; 30 Remington, $1.46; 300 Savage, Remington, $1.85; 32 Winchester Special, $1.46; 35 Remington, $1.64; 270 Winchester, $2.10 for boxes of twenty.

State and local taxes may be added to the maximum prices provided they are stated as a separate charge on the invoice or sales slip. All retailers are required to keep posted a copy of the above table so that it is clearly visible.

SUBSIDY ON HAY

County Drought Area

New Castle County has been added to the designated drought area of the Middle Atlantic States by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Eligible farmers in this county are now in a position to purchase government hay at savings of from $10 to $15 per ton.

The government is subsidizing the hay to this extent to help dairymen maintain herds and milk production so consumers may have the needed supply of milk.

Southern States Cooperative has been "drafted" by the government to purchase and distribute the hay. Under an agreement with Commodity Credit Corporation, Southern States must sell the hay only to farm supply dealers and farm cooperatives servicing farm supplies, and not directly to dairymen. Dairymen then purchase from agencies to which Southern States sells the hay.

The hay which is being purchased for dairymen is alfalfa, first and second cuttings, and mixed hay—clover or alfalfa with grass mixture. Hay with the highest possible legume content will be supplied, but frequently grasses will predominate. There is practically no alfalfa hay obtainable. Dairymen therefore are advised either to place their orders for mixed hay or authorize its shipment in case alfalfa is ordered.

As required by Commodity Credit, dealers order hay on a special form which may be obtained from Southern States Cooperative, Richmond, Va. It is also necessary for dairymen who purchase government hay to sign an eligibility certificate covering each purchase. A farmer eligible to purchase government hay is one who certifies that he is a keeper of dairy cattle on his farm in a designated drought area and that he will use this hay, in addition to other hay available to him, for feeding his cattle before May 15, 1944.

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE SOCCER TEAM DEFEATS WEST CHESTER TEACHERS

Blue Hen Booters Score Second Win Over West Chester State Teachers College By 2-1 Score; Fernandez And Walters Tally

The University of Delaware soccer team scored its second victory of the season over the West Chester State Teachers College on Saturday by a score of 2 to 1 at West Chester. The Blue Hens defeated the Teachers earlier in the season on the home field by a score of 6 to 1.

Getting off to an early start the Hens scored a goal in each of the first two periods and then held a strong Teachers squad to one goal to win the contest.

Captain "Gee" Fernandez of Delaware scored the first point of the contest in the opening period. Jimmy Walters, playing inside right for the Blue and Gold, put over the game winning goal in the second period.

Center half Mayer scored the Teachers' only tally in the same period on a brilliant 40 yard boot which just sneaked between the goal posts.

Outstanding for Delaware was Gabe Bud Shivers, who played his last game before entering the Navy, made numerous saves, and fullback John Szeski, who time and again stopped Teachers offensives with his booming kicks.

The lineups:

Delaware	Position	West Chester
Shivers	Goal	Kott
Sowinski	Right forward	Walton
Spiller	Left halfback	Shaw
McHenry	Right halfback	Michals
Harrison	Center halfback	Myers
Sapowich	Left halfback	Burton

HISTORY OF NEWARK NEW CENTURY CLUB LIFE

A Summary Of Fifty Years Achievement, 1893-1943

Fifty years ago, in 1893, eight women—Mrs. Delaware Clark, Mrs. Alfred A. Clark, Mrs. Susan Evans, Mrs. L. A. Clark, Mrs. George A. Harter, Mrs. Frances Hurd, Mrs. H. G. M. Kollok and Mrs. T. R. Wolf—formed a reading club called the "Tuesday Club." Mrs. Delaware Clark is the only living member of this early club. In 1901, the club was reorganized for the purpose of forming this group into a "Newark New Century Club." On the way home the question was asked, "Why can't we have such a club in Newark?" These four ladies immediately got busy, invited four of their friends, and the "Tuesday Club" was formed.

Very probably no officers were elected at the first year, but the second year Mrs. Kollok was elected leader of the club. The following year (1895), looking courageously forward to a coming era, they changed the name of the club to "New Century Club of Newark."

Early Meeting Places

The newly organized club met weekly at the home of members, until the "Men's Club," located over Mr. Wallington's store, was offered to them. Several years later when the Men's Club disbanded, the women had to seek new quarters. Mr. S. J. Wright, who owned the Opera House (now the Academy Apartments building), offered them a room in that building, and they occupied for some time until they were given the use of the large room on the second floor of the present Town Council Building. At that time this edifice was the Fire House. There they continued to hold their meetings until they moved into their own Club house on April 19, 1917.

Early Aims and Rules

The object of the Club was "What ever purpose may seem advisable in the opinion of the Club." Each member had to "pledge herself to do all in her power when asked by the Club to further its interest."

The small club was active and its members industrious is shown by a report read in 1899 showing that 43 letters were read and 27 discussed on assigned subjects took place the membership at that time being only 32.

The "Rules" were very strict and in keeping with the times. Dues were 5 cents a month and members were fined 5 cents whenever they absented themselves from meetings. A "Rule" adopted in 1900 stated that any member who failed to write a paper would be fined $1. In 1904 this fine was increased to $5. Dues were increased to $2 per year in 1911, and in 1924 to the present amount, $5 a year.

Club membership was limited to 25 until 1908 when it was extended to 35. From 1911 the club doors have been thrown open to an unlimited number.

Club colors, green and white, were adopted December 13, 1897.

The Club Motto, "Non nobis solum" (Not for ourselves alone), was suggested by Mrs. Kollok and adopted in December, 1898.

The Daisy was selected as the Club Flower on April 18, 1898, but later, November 7, 1908, the records show that Laurel was chosen. All Club programs in the past two decades list the Daisy as the "Club Flower." The minutes are not clear on this point and some uncertainty exists as to which flower is actually the Club Flower.

The Gavel in use today was presented to the Club in November 1899 by Paymaster J. R. Martin of the U. S. S. Boston. It is a relic of the battle off Cavite in the Philippines, May 2, 1898. This is carved into the wood.

Incorporation

Steps were taken March 3, 1902 to have the Club incorporated. The Charter was read on April 21st and final action was taken on April 29, 1902.

Although the Club in its early existence was more a literary and social group, the records show that the members soon began to interest themselves in educational questions and civic affairs. In 1897 the Education Committee of the Wilmington New Century Club visited the Newark New Century Club and suggested that the two clubs unite in urging the Legislature to start a Normal School. At the close of this meeting, which was held in Recitation Hall, University of Delaware, the ladies were met by several faculty members and taken on an inspection tour. Mrs. A. D. Warner was a visitor that day, and she is still active in club work. At this meeting she suggested the formation of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. It was formed shortly afterwards (1899). Newark participated in the first meeting but withdrew April, 1900 and did not rejoin until 1911. Today, Mrs. Warner is Honorary President of the State Federation, and Mrs. T. D. Mylrea, an active member, and a former President of the Newark New Century Club holds the honored and responsible position of President of the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Nothing came of the Normal School but in 1910 a Civic Improvement Committee was formed with Mrs. C. O. Houghton as Chairman. This Committee met with a committee in Wilmington, in 1911, and steps were taken to provide for the higher education of women in Delaware. This was the beginning of the movement which resulted in the establishment of Women's College, University of Delaware. A delegation was sent to Dover that year to bring this matter before the Legislature. Women's College was opened in 1914. The Newark New Century Club furnished a room, and helped buy books for the College Library. A reception was given the new Dean, Dr. Winifred J. Robinson, upon her arrival in Newark. She is today an honorary member of the Club, and attends when she is in town.

Interest in Town Library

The Town Library has always been a subject of great interest to the Club. As far back as 1897 a committee was appointed to investigate the condition of the Newark Library and as a result a real library was started in a second story room offered by Mr. Wilbur Wilson. Members of the Club took turns acting as Librarian until 1903 when Miss Clark was employed. A committee elected by the Club had full charge, and through contributions and benefits successfully carried on the work until the number of volumes grew to 5,000 volumes. The first rummage sale given in 1911 as a benefit for the Library brought in $89. It was the ambition of the first library committee to establish a FREE Library but this did not become a reality until March, 1932, when with the aid of the New Castle County Free Library the books were recatalogued and a new system of charging books was installed. The Library is now in charge of a paid Librarian; the doors are open 2 hours a day; 4 days a week.

Other Civic Undertaking

The Club has always stood strongly for community cleanliness and good sanitation. They purchased and placed trash cans along the streets where most needed. They asked the Town Council to enforce the law in regard to cleaning cess-pools and stables every 10 days to prevent the breeding of flies. In 1910 the Club voted $10 to aid a preliminary survey for town sewage. The early records of the Club show a constant concern for community welfare.

One of the earliest Civic undertakings was the purchase of a street sprinkler costing $300, paid for by sales and benefits and maintained by a house to house canvass for yearly funds. Frequent mention of the adventures of this Sprinkler dot the recorded minutes of the Club meetings. At the end of 5 years the Club appealed to the Town Council to relieve them of the operation of the Sprinkler. Its last mention shows that it was sold for $150.

In 1915 the Educational Committee organized a Parent-Teachers Association in connection with the schools and stood solidly back of it while it functioned. The P.T.A. has become a valued civic organization, quite independent of the Club.

Welfare Work

One specially active Committee of the Club since 1920 has been the Welfare Committee, which was appointed to help the needy. The scope of this committee broadened constantly, and its many successive Chairmen served faithfully and well. During the Depression many families were helped with food, clothing, fuel, medicine, and whatever else seemed needed. A free dental clinic was organized in 1930 by the Club Welfare Chairman. In recent years this Club Welfare Committee has spent between $100 and $150 a year for the aged, indigent or unemployed.

During its fifty years of existence the Club has made many contributions to worthwhile and deserving organizations covering a wide range. In recent years considerable money has been voted to the Red Cross, the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, Cancer Control, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Stockley Colony, Town Playground Fund, Town Xmas Fund for Service Men, China Relief. Monthly contributions are made to the Newark Community Service Center for War Workers, and members have spent many hours at this project working for its success. Last year the Club gave $50 to the Latin-American Scholarship Fund of the State Federation for a student at the Woman's College. They also gave $15 toward the State Federation Nursing Scholarship Fund.

War Service

During World War I when troops were stationed in the Armory the Club House was thrown open to the soldiers as a recreation and reading room. Dances and Xmas parties were given for the men with club members serving as hostesses. When the Rehabilitation men were at the College following the War, the Club bought a second-hand piano for use in their hall. The basement of the Clubhouse was used during the War and afterwards for all kinds of Red Cross work.

During the National Emergency preceding Pearl Harbor, the Club House was again offered free of charge for the use of the Red Cross for sewing and the making of surgical dressings. Since we entered the War, the Club House has been used by the Red Cross not only for production work, but for classes in Home Nursing and First Aid, Canteen, Nutrition and for the Blood Bank. Members give service to all these activities. The Club House is also an Emergency Dressing Station for the Civilian Defense set-up; it was used to collect and house the Food Bank for a time; and it is a Waste Fat Collection Center to which members brought 216 lbs. last year.

Again in the present War, the Club has given dances for the boys in the service of their country, this time for those from Fort duPont as well as for those stationed at the University. In addition the U.S.O. has been using the Club House recently for their parties for the girls who have come to live in Newark so they could work in nearby war industries. More recreational activities are planned for the Club House in the near future.

In the summer of 1942 the Club began sponsoring weekly civic dances at the Club House, to provide the young people of the town with wholesome recreation, chaperoned by Club-members. The public address system used to provide good, popular music had been purchased several years previously and paid for with proceeds from similar dances at the Club House, managed by Club members.

Acquisition of a Club House

The building of the Club House was a brave and daring venture of the Club into the business world. In the beginning many members felt that it would be too great a burden financially, but with courage, perseverance and determination the Club House was built in 1916 and eventually cleared of debt in 1941, after 25 years during which it filled a very real need in the community.

The first move toward a Club House Fund was made in March, 1910. Mrs. R. A. Whittingham made the suggestion and offered to take the Chairmanship of such a committee. Money gradually accumulated through special effort in the way of entertainment, and through gifts, until 1915 when it seemed necessary to make a permanent provision for either a building or rooms for Club use. A committee inspected and secured prices on various available lots in town. However, Mrs. S. J. Wright offered to the Club the lot on which the Club House stands today, and this was accepted in January, 1915.

Although the Century Club has been incorporated since 1902, it was thought better, by legal advice, to have a separate corporation for the holding of the title of real estate. It was necessary to have 7 incorporators. The Club elected Mrs. Ola W. Cann, Mrs. Hannah M. Dawson, Mrs. Sarah E. Frederick, Miss Frances B. Hurd, Mrs. Alice Manns, Mrs. Anna L. Neale, and Mrs. Isabel P. Wright. The certificate of incorporation of the "Newark New Century Club House Company" was filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on April 28, 1916 and recorded with the Recorder of Deeds at Wilmington. All the stock was the property of the Newark New Century Club, and the Club annually elects a representative to vote this stock at the Annual Stockholders' Meeting of the Club House Company. Directors are elected at this meeting, and after this the Directors elect their own officers for the following year. The 7 Directors transact all legal and real estate business of the Century Club.

Mr. Benjamin B. Hough was secured as Architect and Builder of the Club House, and plans and specifications were submitted to the New Century Club and accepted by them. The Cornerstone was laid September 7, 1916; Mrs. Delaware Clark, one of the Founders of the Club, placed within it a box containing the Delaware State Federation Program for 1915, the New Century Club Program for 1915-1916, a copy of the Original Charter, the Commencement Supplement of THE NEWARK POST (June 14, 1916), one 1916 Lincoln Penny, the National Flag, a small Bible, and a copy of The Ledger.

Mr. Hough, the contractor, died suddenly before the building was completed. This caused many complications and added greatly to the expense of building, which was already high, owing to the high cost of materials and labor during wartime. Mr. S. J. Wright offered to manage and have the work finished, and the Club gratefully accepted his offer. For 25 years Club members and friends of the Club gave generously of their time, energy and money toward the end that the debt of the Club House might be paid off. In the fall of 1941 there was a Jubilee Luncheon to celebrate the burning of the mortgage. Mrs. J. Pearce Cann, who had been Treasurer of the Corporation Board for the entire period, had the pleasure of setting match to the paper thus removing this last vestige of the debt on the Club's home.

Today the Club is rising to the challenge presented by these difficult days, putting aside self-interest, working constantly for the good of the community, helping whenever possible with local, state and national projects.

This the Newark New Century Club, the 2nd oldest women's Club in the state of Delaware, sums up 50 years. It has lived up to its motto, "Not for Ourselves Alone". It has been the pioneer in many movements which have resulted in the betterment of living conditions in the community, and it has played an important role in Education, Civic Affairs, Welfare, and War Service.

Gas Ration Cut On Delivery of New Cars

The Office of Price Administration today set a maximum of 200 miles as the distance gasoline may be used in delivering newly purchased new or used cars. The order is effective Oct. 1.

The action was taken to conserve rubber and gasoline.

Ration boards have been issuing gasoline for 200 miles of driving to deliver a car, but OPA said that heretofore this did not always limit travel of such cars to 200 miles. In some cases, OPA said, persons added to the mileage by towing two or more cars, resulting in cars being moved much farther than intended.

The order includes commercial vehicles, but local boards may issue special rationing if circumstances warrant and authorization is obtained from the Office of Defense Transportation. Special rationing to return stolen cars and boats will also be provided.

BLUE-GREEN RATION STAMPS FOR JAMS-JELLIES

Questions Answered On Ration Problems

The Office of Price Administration has prepared the following list of questions and answers to familiarize consumers with the rationing of jellies, jams, preserves and other fruit spreads. Rationing of these items begins October 31, at the end of the current freeze of stocks.

Q. Which stamps will I use for buying rationed fruit spreads?

A. Consumers will use their processed food stamps to buy fruit spreads. These include blue stamps, X, Y, Z in war ration book two and the green stamps in war ration book four.

Q. May I buy jams and jellies without giving up ration points any time up to October 31?

A. No. These products will not be sold at all from October 23 through October 30, inclusive, except marmalades made of citrus fruits, such as orange, or grapefruit marmalade.

Imitations Also Rationed

Q. Must I give up ration points for jams and preserves. I buy in paper cartons?

A. Yes. If your dealer handles preserves in bulk and sells them to you in an unsealed container you must give up ration points in the same ways as for preserves bought in sealed containers.

Q. Does the ration order include imitation jams, jellies and preserves?

A. Yes.

Q. Why have these products been brought under rationing?

A. Jams, jellies, and other fruit spreads are becoming an important food item because of the increased consumption of bread.

Q. Is there a shortage of fruit spreads?

A. The usually heavy demand which consumers are making on existing supplies, partly because of the limited supplies of butter, makes it important to ration these items.

Tables to Be Released

Q. How will I know how many points to pay for rationed jams and jellies?

A. OPA will announce their point value when rationing begins. A copy of the table will be available in all stores.

Q. Will all jams and jellies have the same point value?

A. All jams and non-citrus marmalades will have the same point value. All jellies and fruit butters will have the same point value.

Q. Are home-made jams and jellies included in the rationing program?

A. Yes. They may not be sold between Oct. 23 and Oct. 30, inclusive. After that they may be sold at point value of other home-canned fruits (eight points per quart or four points per pound), or at the commercial point value, whichever is lower.

No Report Needed

Q. Will families be asked to report stocks of jams and jellies they have on hand?

A. No. OPA is not calling for any sort of consumer declaration of stocks of jams and jellies, either home-made or commercial varieties.

Q. Must I give up points for all fruit spreads?

A. Not quite. Citrus marmalades, such as orange or grapefruit marmalade, do not require the surrender of ration points.

Q. What will each person's allowance of fruit spreads be?

A. Jams and jellies are not rationed on a per person allowance. They will be bought out of each person's processed food allowance and the amount any person will get will depend on what else he wishes to buy with his processed food stamps.

ELEVEN BOYS IN DRAFT

Local Boys Inducted

Eleven more Newark boys have been inducted into the Armed Forces and will leave for duty with the various branches. Eight boys will see service in the Army; two will be in the Navy and one in the Marine Corps.

Albert William (Flash) Fletcher, 102 East Main Street heads the list of inductees into the Army. Others who will see service in the Army are: Alexander Francis Richards, 53 Elkton Road; Zebulon Goodyear, Bear Station; William J. Burke, 82 West Cleveland Avenue; Leon Frederick Truet, 208 East Park Place; George Lobdell Bush, Christiana; William J. Brown, Newark; and John L. Earl, Newark.

George Allen Robinson and Albert Meeds French of Newark will serve in the Navy and Sheridan Wallace Marshall, 49 Center Street is the lone inductee into the Marine Corps.

CLASS PLAY COMMITTEES NAMED

Barbara Hutchison Is General Manager

Barbara Hutchison has been named as general manager of the Newark High School senior class play "The Ghost Parade" which will be produced on the stage of the school auditorium Friday evening, November 19 for the general public and on Thursday afternoon, November 18 for the student body.

The properties committee is headed by Audrey Rumer, assisted by Rae McMullen, and Dorothy Laskowski is chairman of the candy sales committee. Prompters for the play are Harriet Wilson and Marilyn Fox.

George Knighton is in charge of the scenery committee, assisted by Marvin Butler, Herman Gray, Bill Ritchie, Joseph Talucci, Robert Cox, Audrey Rumer, Ralph Berry, Barbara Hutchison and Rae McMullen.

Miss Hutchison, general manager, stated that some of the committees have not been named as yet, but every member of the class will be assigned to some job.

OFFICIAL VISITATION AT K.G.E.

Homer Reed Talks On War Effort

Grand Chief of Delaware Homer Reed of Wyoming and his staff of Grand Chiefs paid an official visit to Ivy Castle on 23, Knights of the Golden Eagle on Saturday night at their regular meeting in Fraternal Hall.

During the business session presided over by Noble Chief Roland Marine one new candidate was initiated. Plans were made for initiating a large class of candidates by the local lodge at Fraternal Hall on Saturday night, December 18.

Grand Chief Reed gave an interesting talk on the value of a fraternal organization in the war effort. Grand Sir Willard Dickerson of Camden spoke about the work of the order in Delaware.

Other speakers at the meeting were: Grand Vice-Chief James Greenplate; Past Supreme Chief John A. Johnston; Supreme Representative Norris J. Brown and Past Grand Chief W. Vaughn Heavell.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the social committee.

CANVASS AT ST. JAMES

Stanton, Oct. 28th — Miss Lora Little, Principal of the Stanton School, announces that sales of War Bonds and Stamps at the Stanton School during this week amounted to $147.55. Mrs. Helen W. Wright, teacher, is in charge of the week sales.

The Stanton Civic Association will hold its monthly business session Thursday evening in the Stanton School.

Friendship Lodge No. 4, Shepherds of Bethlehem will meet Tuesday evening in the Odd Fellow's Hall.

The Young Women's Class of the Stanton Methodist Sunday School will meet on November 1st at the home of Mrs. Sue Smith.

The Every-Member-Canvass will take place in the St. James P. E. Church, Stanton, on Sunday, October 31st. Morning Prayer and Communion Service will be held at 11 a. m. which will be followed by box luncheon at noon in the Parish House. The Parish Aid will serve coffee. The Rev. E. Kenneth Albaugh will be in charge of the special service. The plan for holding Church School at 11 in the Parish House, while parents attend morning service in the church at 11, is working out fine. Parents can thereby make one trip, taking their children to Church School, and save gasoline.

Dairy Records Serve As Basis For Payments

All dairy farmers in Delaware should keep accurate records of sales of whole milk, cream, and butter to serve as a basis for payments which will be made to farmers by the War Food Administration to offset increases in dairy feed costs since September, 1942, says C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware AAA Committee.

"This payment was announced some time ago by the War Food Administration, and at the time farmers were asked to maintain records of all sales," he says. "These records are essential if farmers are to receive their payments. The rate of payment in all Delaware counties has been set at 40 cents per 100 pounds for whole milk, and 5 cents per pound for butterfat. Since payments are based on poundage, dairymen should make certain that records furnished them by buyers show the hundredweight, and not merely the quantity of butterfat in the milk."

Payments to producers will be made by draft direct upon submission to the County AAA Committee of satisfactory evidence of the quantity of milk or butterfat sold. Present rates will be applicable to sales during October, November, and December.

It is expected that first payments will cover deliveries of dairy products, but the exact time will depend upon availability of necessary forms which will be forwarded to County AAA Committees as soon as they can be printed.

Dairymen will not be required to submit evidence showing actual quantities of feed purchased but are asked by the War Food Administration to keep such information on file. Area rates are based in part on the proportion of purchased feed fed to the dairy cows and additional information on this factor will prove helpful, says Mr. Ocheltree.

The solid fuels Administrator for War has issued a regulation giving preference to orders for pea and chestnut anthracite for heating poultry brooders and hatcheries. Orders from operators of brooders and hatcheries for the two sizes will be given preference over orders from other consumers, if additional coal does not bring the buyer's total over ninety days' supply.

An increase in production of civilian supplies of soaps, paints, varnishes, lacquers, linoleums, oilcloths, felt base floor coverings, coated fabrics, and most protective coatings will be possible under a new schedule of quotas affecting use of fats and oils issued by the War Food Administration. Percentage of fats and oils permitted in manufacture of household soaps has been increased from 80 to 90 per cent of the base period (1940-41) use; industrial soaps, from 80 to 110 per cent; and abrasive or mechanical soaps, from 80 to 150 per cent.

To assist farmers in sending the Office of Price Administration ration points they collect from the sale of rationed foods, local War Price and Rationing Boards are mailing direct to farmers the necessary reporting form, envelopes, and complete instructions on the collection of ration stamps. Farmers who either sell or transfer rationed foods, such as meat, lard, and butter, must collect ration points from purchasers. The number of points to collect is listed for each particular item on the official table of point values for rationed meats, fats, and dairy products. This table is available at County War Boards or local War Price and Rationing Boards.

Century Club Observes Golden Anniversary

before. During the entire afternoon Miss Betty Bock of Women's College, University of Delaware, played soft and appropriate music to suit the mood of the occasion. The music was in charge of Mrs. William Holton.

Masses of yellow chrysanthemums, colorful leaves, and vases of yellow roses blended with the candle light to give a beautiful setting to the well attended affair. Mrs. David Eastburn and Mrs. M. W. Hanson were responsible for the decorations.

Seven of the club presidents were portrayed by living pictures in costume. Mrs. Newman Rose portrayed the first president, Mrs. H. G. M. Kollock, 1894-95; Mrs. Richard Snyder portrayed Mrs. E. S. Armstrong, president — 1903-04; Mrs. Frank Simons, Mrs. Delaware Clark, 1910-11; Mrs. R. W. Fox, Mrs. C. B. Evans, 1913-14; Mrs. M. D. McMullen, Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson, 1920-21; Mrs. Milton L. Draper, Mrs. J. Irving Dayett, 1928-30; and Mrs. A. J. Jackson, Mrs. Alex D. Cobb, 1940-42.

These living pictures were very naturally brought to the audience by a scene, in which Mrs. Perry Arnold is serving tea, and as she mentions various early presidents, these seven appear one by one and state the major accomplishments of their regimes.

In closing, the club presidents filed upon the stage, led by Mrs. Robert J. Boyd, Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. Mylrea, Mrs. R. T. Jones, Mrs. L. A. Stearns, Mrs. Dayett, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Holton, Mrs. Delaware Clark, Mrs. Frain carried a lighted candle lit by Mrs. Baxter and came up and lighted the candles held by the club presidents. "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" was sung by all present.

Miss Harriett Bailey collected many old pictures of early club members and many early Newark scenes which were mounted and placed on display about the club rooms.

Mrs. George A. Hyde, vice-president of the club and her committee, Mrs. F. A. Weihe, Mrs. Jay Robinson, Mrs. Lee Lewis, Miss Harriett Bailey, Mrs. David Eastburn, Mrs. R. W. Heim, Mrs. William K. Gillespie, Mrs. Joseph McVey, Mrs. Ralph Beaman, Mrs. William Holton and Mrs. C. E. Douglass were in charge of the program for the occasion.
