FRESH AIR CHILDREN TO ARRIVE IN JULY

Local Families To "Adopt" New York
Girls And Boys
For Two Weeks

Newark will again be asked to participate in the New York Herald Tribune's "Fresh Air" program which takes approximately 14,000 tenement youngsters out of New York for two weeks, Mrs. Robert T. Jones, chairman of the local committee, announced yesterday.

Two weeks' free hospitality is asked for boys and girls from six to twelve years of age. Transportation is paid by the fund. Each child is given three examinations before departure and hosts may specify the age and sex of children desired.

Twenty children were extended hospitality by Newark families last summer. They were selected for the fund from more than 100 welfare agencies scattered throughout the tenement districts.

Now in its sixty-fifth year, more than 14,000 youngsters enjoyed the two weeks' vacation, about half of these going into private homes and the other half into camps maintained by the fund's contributors.

Hosts of last summer who desire to re-invite their visitors this year are advised to put in their request to the committee as soon as convenient so that the particular child may be reserved for the Newark group. The children will probably arrive here about the second week in July.

CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS UNDER WAY

Contributions
Sought To Meet
Estimated Costs

The annual campaign for funds with which to operate the Community Playground and Swimming Pool officially opened for ten days on May 5 and will close on May 15. Contributions are invited from every local club, organization, firm and individual.

The goal has been set at $1,500 this year. Approximately this amount is needed to defray actual operating costs of the project for the eight-week period from June 23 to August 15.

Newark is fortunate in having available the playground and swimming pool at no cost other than maintenance each summer. Both the high school grounds and the U. of D. swimming pool are contributed free of charge, the only expense being upkeep, electricity and water.

According to statistics compiled from previous years, the average per capita cost of each boy or girl taking advantage of the Recreation Center facilities is about twelve cents per day—extremely low in comparison to maintenance costs of other community projects of a similar nature.

Contributions from all sources—however small—are not only welcomed but actually needed. With only about $200 as a nucleus, from the Lions Club card party, the committee feels that individual contributions of smaller amounts will go a long way towards assuring the achievement of their goal.

It is hoped that everyone will give generously to this movement in order that the $1,500 may be raised voluntarily and eliminate the necessity of a house-to-house canvass. All contributions should be given or mailed to Miss Edwina Long, secretary, at the Women's College.

EXTENSION OF POSTAL ROUTES IS ANNOUNCED

Expansion Project
Expected To Be
Underway June 1;
Marks Progress

Keeping step with the progress and development shown in recent years, Postmaster Cyrus E. Rittenhouse has announced an extension of the mail routes that will give Newark one of the best carrier systems in the United States for a town this size.

As a result of the new development which Mr. Rittenhouse has been working on for more than a year, residences in the new suburban districts which have sprung up will receive mail twice daily instead of having to go to the postoffice. It is hoped to install the new system by June 1.

Under the new setup, mail will be delivered by mounted carrier to Old Oak Road, Dallam Road, Tanglewood Lane, and Nottingham Road as far as Leon H. Ryan's residence, and on Capital Trail as far as Ash Avenue, Lumbrook.

Elkton Road will be taken off the city route and placed on the mounted carrier route as well as Corbit Street, Wilson Street, Ray Street, Rose Street, and North Street.

Extensions to city carrier routes will also be made within the town on Townsend road; one block on Orchard Road; one block on East Park Place; one block on Benny Street; three blocks on South Chapel Street; one block on Tyne Avenue; one block on Linden street to New Street, and on Winslow Road from Orchard to Townsend Roads.

As a result of the expansion, it will be necessary to add at least one, perhaps two men to the present staff. At the present time, the postoffice employs five clerks, two supervisors, three rural carriers, three city carriers, two janitors, one special delivery carrier, and one substitute.

TICK WARNING

Ticks come with warm weather and with ticks may come Rocky Mountain spotted fever, according to Dr. Theodore E. Hynson, director of the Division of Communicable Disease Control of the State Board of Health. The principal danger of the tick is his bite, and even though only one in several hundred of these ticks may carry the fever virus, that one tick, which cannot be distinguished from the rest, may cause a fatal infection.

Every household pet is a potential danger as dogs, and sometimes cats, may bring ticks into the house. Keeping ticks from gorging themselves on the blood of dogs is a protective measure. A pair of forceps is all that is needed in removing ticks where only a few have attached themselves. Dusting every five days with derris powder is necessary when animals have a large number of ticks. Ticks should be handled with great care. Infection can be contracted by crushing a tick full of blood.

Out-of-doors, ticks are usually picked up from grass or weeds close to the ground. Boots laced over trouser legs help to protect men walking thru infested areas. Ticks often work their way upward before attaching themselves, the tick of the neck and the head of human beings are favorite feeding places. Careful examination of heads, especially of children, at least twice a day may reveal a tick in time to prevent a fatal bite. Examination of the whole body is advisable after exposure to ticks.

People are warned not to become unduly excited if they do find a tick because it must be attached for 6 hours, and must be an infected tick, in order to transmit the disease. Remove the tick with forceps, tweezers or rubber gloves. If these are not available be sure to scrub the hands well afterwards. Then take a toothpick or the sharpened end of a match stick, dip in iodine and turn the stick in the tick bite hole in order to cauterize the tissue. If the tick is not easily removed consult your physician at once.

A vaccine has been developed for Rocky Mountain spotted fever (also known as tick fever) but is only available, as yet, in small quantities.

Last year Delaware had six cases of this disease, scattered over the three counties. There were no deaths from these and only one death from 5 cases in 1939.

YOU'LL FIND OUT

The national income for 1941 is expected to be in the neighborhood of 80 billion dollars, which in simple words means that all payments made to individuals by business enterprises for goods and services plus all business savings, will total the "national income".

The total budget of the Government for the coming year is now figured at 19 billion dollars. Two-thirds, or approximately 12½ billion dollars will be raised by Federal taxation.

The Federal and local tax collectors will take 1 out of every 4 dollars of the national income in the coming fiscal year, most of which will go into the Federal treasury. Recent reports of large industries that show large gains in revenues also show that taxes not only "took the gains" but so much more earnings that the corporations actually dropped behind in net profits.

The family man that paid a few dollars for last year will find his tax bill multiplied several times in the coming fiscal year that indicates the rising tides of taxes. It's a painful process, but you, kind reader, are going to get it in the neck. You are going to find that you are dead wrong in your boast that "I don't know the difference between a million and a billion dollars."

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Very few people realize what a range of activities are directed from the American Red Cross national headquarters in Washington. There is no method of human service that is overlooked, no kind of trouble in the human family which is not met. Recently there was a significant ceremony at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, where Brigadier General Shelley U. Marietta, Commandant of the Army Medical Center, delivered an informative address explaining the part of the Gray Lady Unit, whose activities were a feature of the annual Red Cross convention held in Washington. A large and impressive gathering witnessed the presentation of certificates by General Marietta, and the presentation of Pins by Mrs. Henry R. Rae, honorary chairman of Gray Ladies of the American Red Cross. The famous U. S. Army Band was present and upheld its high musical standards. Mrs. Ella Burt Claussen of New York City, one of the twenty-one Gray Ladies to receive graduate honors, explained to the writer of this item the distinctive character of service performed by the Gray Ladies. This exceptionally high class unit undertakes to sustain the morale of patients in hospitals, and at other parts of duty. This is a task that was undertaken during the World War in 1918, and which has been developed until it is a very important part of the volunteer responsibilities of the Red Cross at home and in foreign fields.

The wedding of Margie Atkins and Alex Cummings of Minehead, Eng., was delayed because the bridegroom was too nervous to make the responses properly.

Pete, a canary owned by Mrs. Effie Bishop of Quincy, Mass., survived by burying his head under his wing when a fire filled the house with smoke.

William Rutter, 98, a Civil War veteran of Prairie du Chien, Wisc., helps with the harvest.

Public Invited To English Reading

The last English Reading of the year, to be held at the Women's College of the University of Delaware under the auspices of the English Department, will be given on Monday evening, May 12, by Dr. Cyrus L. Day of the English Department. Dr. Day will read from William Saroyan's new novel, "My Name is Aram." The program will begin as usual at seven o'clock in the Hilarius of Residence Hall, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

NOTES TO GROWERS

This season's first edition of Vegetable and Small Fruit Notes went to New Castle County growers late last week.

Information on culture and pest control is arranged in separate sections for asparagus, tomatoes, lima beans, white potatoes, cucumbers, cantaloupes, peppers and strawberries.

The section of the Notes devoted to asparagus reads—"During warm weather, watch your asparagus plantings closely and cut each day if necessary, in order to prevent seedy or 'feathered' spears. Remove all spears, marketable or otherwise. Frequent cutting is the most important step to prevent asparagus beetles from becoming established. During the cutting season, the tips may be protected by spraying with four pounds of derris in 100 gallons of water, with a commercial wetting or sticking agent added. In young plantings, which are not to be cut this spring, dust with lead or calcium arsenate, one part, and hydrated lime, five parts, if the beetles become abundant."

The Vegetable and Small Fruit Notes are prepared jointly by the departments of entomology, plant pathology and horticulture of the University of Delaware, and are distributed by the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service and the State Board of Agriculture. The men who have prepared the Vegetable and Small Fruit Notes include E. P. Brasher, W. H. Phillips, L. A. Stearns and K. J. Kadow.

New Castle County growers desiring the first 1941 edition of Vegetable and Small Fruit Notes can obtain them by seeing, calling or writing George Worlow, county agricultural agent, University of Delaware, Newark.

AT LONG LAST, THE UNIVERSITY of Delaware baseball team has turned up with a real hitter and followers of the Blue Hens really have something to get excited about when Bill (Red) Hogan steps up to the plate.

Not content with the 435 average he was sporting last week, Hogan proceeded to collect two for five against Johns Hopkins and three for four against Lebanon Valley to boost his mark to an almost unbelievable 468. And the nice thing about his hitting is that he comes in for more than his share of extra base knocks. He blasted out a home run and a triple against the Flying Dutchmen in an effort to lead a late-inning comeback, but the Hens failed to make up the deficit. He has connected twice for the circuit on Frazer Field.

THE HURLING TURNED IN FOR the first four innings by Frank Kuhn, Lebanon moundsman, was the most brilliant of the season thus far as only 12 batters faced him during that time. One man reached first on an error, but he was sniped at second on a quickly-executed double play.

Not until the fifth inning did Kuhn allow a hit and it was Hogan who finally broke the ice. None other than Wilmer (Lunk) Apsley crashed through with the Hens' second hit (his first in many a moon) in the sixth frame and for the last three frames, the Blue and Gold had little difficulty finding the range although they failed to emerge victorious.

But while Kuhn's work in the early innings was outstanding, the relief work of Bill Tibbitt, who replaced Hugh Bogovich after a disastrous third inning, was magnificent.

HE ALLOWED ONLY TWO SINGLES during his six-inning tenure on the mound and gave up two walks while striking out seven Dutchmen.

Turning in his best work of the year, Tibbitt shut the invaders out, but the damage had been done by a five-run blast in the third, and the Blue Hens were forced to swallow defeat from a reportedly weak team that had won only two of its six starts.

No more than four men faced Tibbitt in any inning, as he set three down in succession in the fourth, fifth, and eighth innings.

Looking back over the defeat at the hands of Lebanon Valley, it was a freak double error in the third that resulted in the setback. Beckner singled and Schillo followed with a hard drive that whistled between Shortstop Freddy Mitchell's legs. The hit, at that, should have been good for no more than one base and Beckner could have been held on second, but the ball rolled merrily on its way and ducked between Left-fielder Gerry Doherty's legs, allowing a run to score and the Dutchmen's batter to wind up on third. Miller dropped a Texas Leaguer over second to drive in another run and Stacy singled, sending Miller to third. Kern singled, scoring Miller and Kuhn followed suit with a single into leftfield. The two winning runs crossed the plate when the ball ducked between Doherty's legs again.

CONTINENTAL MOVED OFF TO a good start Tuesday night in the New Castle County Baseball League when the local tossers handed Worth Steel a 3-0 shutout. Reggie Conway handled the mound assignment and set the Steelmen down with only five scattered hits in the five innings.

Ellis Cullen has predicted a Continental victory this year—just how right he'll be remains to be seen.

WHIRLWAY ENTERED IN DELAWARE PARK'S KENT HANDICAP ON JUNE 14

Warren Wright's Calumet Farm To Be Well Represented At Stanton Oval This Year; Four Named For Polly Drummond And Christiana Stakes

Warren Wright's Whirlway, the sensational Derby winner, heads a list of eighteen Calumet Farm nominations for the stakes at Delaware Park, where the racing begins May 30. The smashing son of Blenheim 2nd is entered in Delaware's Kent Handicap, $10,000 mile and a sixteenth run set for June 14. His black stablemate, Blenweed, also is named for the Kent. Whirlway is a chestnut. Blenweed also is by Blenheim 2nd, but he is out of Starweed, while Whirlway's dam is Dustwhirl.

The strength of the Warren Wright entry at Delaware is greater than in any previous year. The master of Calumet Farm has nominated liberally for the two year old stakes, as well as to those for older horses. It is very likely that Mr. Wright will have one or more colorbearers in action on Delaware's opening day, May 30, as the Dover is to be the feature that day and there are no less than half a dozen Calumet racers named there.

On the following day, May 31, Mr. Wright has Easy Mon named for the Wilmington Handicap, a six furlong sprint. The Dover is at only five furlongs, being a dash for two year olds.

For the Polly Drummond Stakes, to be run June 28, four Calumet horses have been named. They are Mar-kell, Ky-Flash, Gal Ann—and Lady Flame. Likewise in the Christiana Stakes on July 4, there have been four named. The Dover, the Polly Drummond and the Christiana each carry $5,000 in added money. The Christiana, coming as it does later in the meeting, is a somewhat longer distance, five and one-half furlongs.

This season Delaware Park is trying a new idea in making its climactic stake an event for fillies. Delaware's $10,000 filly and mare race is the New Castle Handicap, and it will be run on closing day, July 5th. It is at a mile and a sixteenth and for it Mr. Wright has named Proud One.

Delaware's aim in switching a filly and mare stake to the closing spot is another effort to sustain the breeding side of the sport and is in response to the pleas of many breeders that more prominence be given to races of this kind.

ROADSIDE MARKETS

A new leaflet just issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture contains helpful hints for designing and building roadside markets. The leaflet suggests building a stand that will display farm products to advantage. But it warns against constructing a freakish looking building just to get the proper display of farm produce. The leaflet also suggests placing the stand far enough off the highway to allow plenty of room for parking.

In another part of the leaflet, the Department of Agriculture marketing men write of the need for a roadside stand operator building a good reputation for quality, freshness and fair prices as a way to make repeat sales.

Copies of the new leaflet are available at no cost from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Title of this publication is "Roadside Markets" and it has been designated as Leaflet 68.

STOCK CARS TO RACE AT ALLENTOWN

To Stage World Title Test at Fairgrounds

The first of a series of world's championship stock car auto races throughout the United States under promotion of Ralph A. Hankinson will be held at the Allentown Fairgrounds on Friday, May 30, Memorial Day.

Originator of the national championship events two years ago at Langhorne Speedway, the veteran operator will transfer his third annual stock car classic to the fast Allentown (Pa.) half-mile track. It will be the debut of eastern certified stock car events on a four-furlong course.

Previous winners in his stock car meets have been Mark Light, in 1939 and Henry Banks, victor last year. He was affiliated with the 240-mile stock car beach-road race held in March of 1936 at Daytona Beach, which was won by Milt Marion.

The operator is now in the midst where he is aligning dates to fit in with Allentown and Charlotte, N. C. He is scheduled for the second half-mile endeavor at the North Carolina City on July 4. Western classics will likely be restricted to mile tracks.

Last year Hankinson conducted a big car race meet at Allentown on July 6, which was a rainout date from July 4. This race was won by Tony Williams, who later drove in stock car races at Langhorne.

Among drivers whom Hankinson has contacted with the idea of securing their entries are Bill France, 1940 national stock car champion; Lloyd Seay, 1939 world's champion title holder; Roy Hall, winner of the February Daytona Beach 160-mile race; Smoky Purser, winner of the March Daytona event; Ted Nyquist, sensation of the 1939 and 1940 races conducted by Hankinson; Jap Brogdon, southern champion; Bert Hellmuller, Bill Sockwell, Bob Baker, Bob Cooney, Tex Patterson, Bill McCarthy, Bill Shoop, Slat Frerick, Walt Keiper, Bert Ross, Guber Soseby, Bob Byron, Red Singleton, Fontella Flock, Dick Dickson and Karl Jobes.

The races will be sanctioned by the Consolidated States Racing Association. Models of 1938 to 1941 inclusive will be permitted to compete in the races and rules governing will be similar to the Hankinson conducted events of the past.

Offices for the May 30 events have been opened at the Allentown, (Pa.) Fairgrounds, where entries are being received.

BROILER SURVEY

The tabulation of figures obtained in a trial survey of broiler production in Sussex County just completed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture shows that by mid-April, the 120 poultry who cooperated in the survey had million broilers in their houses.

Survey figures indicate that broiler men reporting will likely have large numbers of birds ready for market last week in May and again early in first of July.

C. E. Burkhead and D. B. Department of Agriculture conducted the broiler survey, which would like to have all broiler men cooperate by sending in future reports promptly so they will be able to supply poultrymen with timely facts.

ert, scheduled to move for a repeal of the existing law, was not present at the session. Mr. Hubert announced at the April meeting that he would vote against his own measure.

The amendment will receive final action next month. It adds the following sentence to the existing law in question: "or not fronting on the westerly side of South Academy Street between the southerly division line of the state armory and the northerly division line of a lot of land now or lately belonging to the estate of Albert L. Lewis, deceased."

The power to enforce judgments was asked for Elmer J. Ellison, fire inspector, by a committee composed of Ira C. Shellender, Weldon C. Waples, and C. L. Cannon. Numerous fire hazards around town can not be eliminated, they pointed out, due to the fact that Ellison cannot penalize violators of his rulings.

Samuel E. Dameron, who is planning a development on his property east of town, requested sewage facilities for that section, while W. Harry Dawson announced plans for a 40-house development on Barksdale Road, behind Nottingham Manor, and requested water for that section. Both matters were referred to Engineer Price.

Chief of Police William H. Cunningham reported 13 arrests for April. They were classified as follows: Violation of parking ordinance, 2; reckless driving, 4; assault and battery, 1; drunk and disorderly, 2; threatening bodily harm, 1; disorderly conduct, 2; failing to have photograph on chauffeur's license, 1. One person was committed to the New Castle County Workhouse. Fines paid out amounted to $96.50.

A balance of $6,175.16 was reported by the treasurer. The March 30 balance was listed at $6,628.96 with receipts listed at $12,792.92 and disbursements at $13,246.72.

Mayor Frank Collins announced the following committees for the ensuing year: Light and water—Chairman, George E. Ramsey, John R. Richards, George F. Ferguson; police—Chairman, Charles C. Hubert, C. Emerson Johnson, George F. Ferguson; town and sewer—Chairman Charles C. Hubert, Herman Wollaston, C. Emerson Johnson; street—Chairman C. Emerson Johnson, Charles C. Hubert, Herman Wollaston. The following members of the board of health were reappointed: Chairman, Dr. John R. Downes, Paul Lovett, George L. Baker, O. K. Strahorn, and William H. Cunningham.

Water consumption for April showed a 4.42 per cent increase over last month, but a 2.16 decrease from April, 1940. The consumption for April was 14,447,000 gallons or a daily average of 481,567 gallons.
