

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON

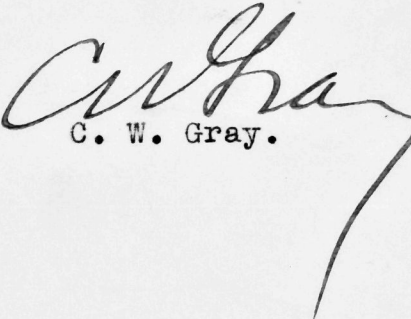

November 27, 1940.

My dear Mr. Heineman:

It was a real pleasure to see you the other day, and I especially want to thank you for your subsequent letter of November twenty-fifth. I am always interested in any comments of this kind and shall make them available to the other officers of the Department.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

C. W. Gray.
