Many dorms held parties on

This year's musical, was one of the most ambitious undertakings of E-52. Staging, lighting, and costumes were superbly done.

Rod McWherter and Joan Matthews co-starred.

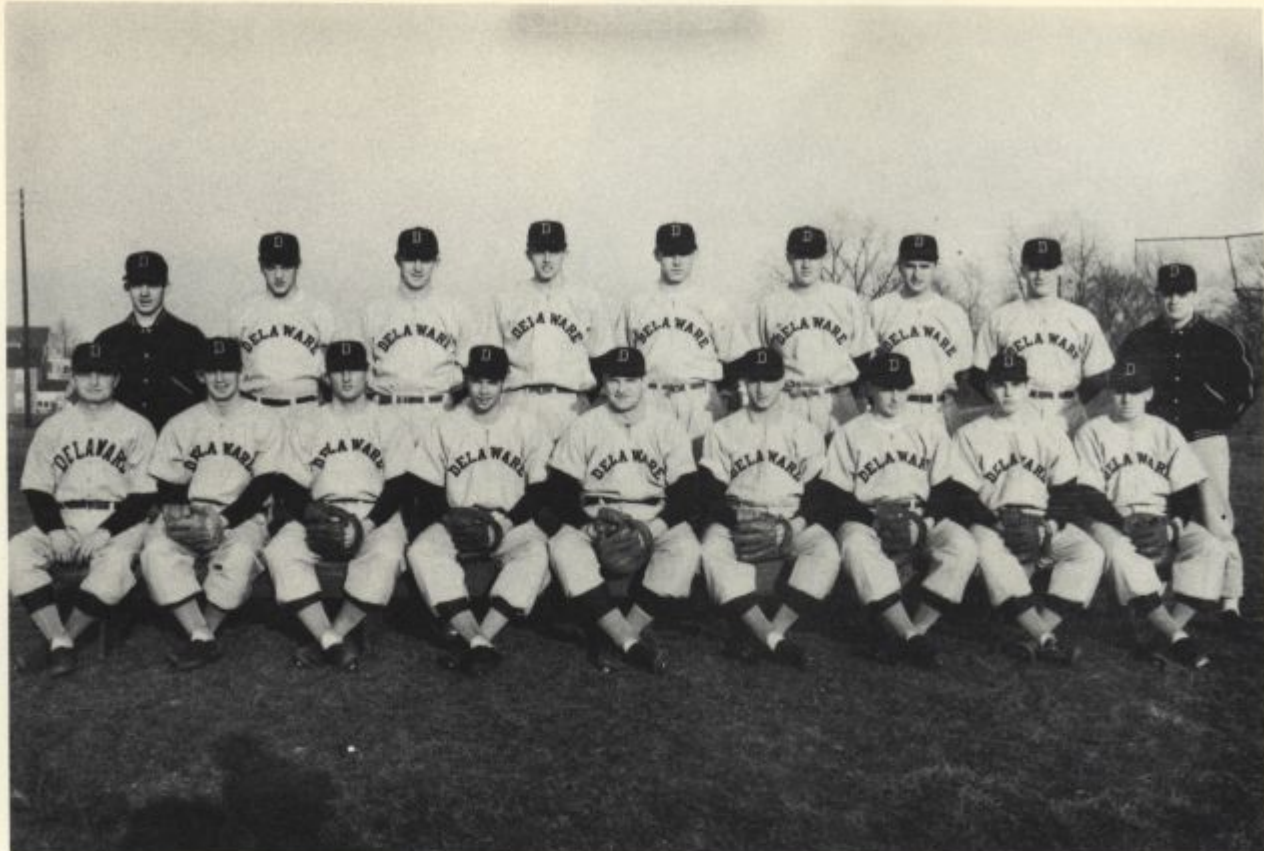

Lois Alava was this year's Cherry Blossom Princess. Under the Sponsorship of the News-Journal Company she represented Delaware at the annual Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D. C.

The students chose the Cherry Blossom Princess from among these eleven well-qualified candidates.

Spring Heralds Baseball — America's National Sport

The Blue Hen Baseball team of 1951 enjoyed another successful season under Coach "Shack" Martin, finishing up with a record of 11 wins and 8 losses. This continued Martin's record of never having a season's average at Delaware figure at less than 500. Captain Joe Higgins, and outfielders Larry O'Toole and Joe Heim were the only graduating letter winners. The others make up the strong sector of the 1952 team.

Pete Carlson, Bill Shockley, and Lewis Wright were first line chockers, and accounted for most of the team's wins. Hard-hitting Al Brodhag supplied much of the power at the plate, in addition to showing strength as catcher, while Joe Lank, shortstop, and Joe Higgins, at second, guarded the middle of the infield. Steady Dick Evans held down the first base slot, and Chuck Abrams played third base, and had the highest batting average of the regulars.

Dick Goldberg, Larry O'Toole, Ducky Carmichael, and Joe Heim patrolled the outfield, and strengthened the offense.

The Hens fashioned four and five game winning streaks, and never lost more than three games in a row. Four of the games were lost by only one point.

It is hoped that the members of the 1952 Blue Hen team (pictured above) will be as successful as their predecessors. At printing time the roster stacks up in this manner:

Strong Lacrosse Teams are increasing this Sport's Popularity at Delaware

Varsity Lacrosse continued its upward surge at Delaware under Milt Roberts. 1951 produced an enviable record of 8-5, with 147 goals scored to the opponents' 92. Don Swan and Haight West served as co-captains of the team, and Swan set a national intercollegiate record with 65 goals.

Swan was the big gun of the team, carrying the scoring burden on his shoulders as he received All-American recognition. But his teammates will be the first to say that it was Swan's all-around team play which made him so important to the team.

Dan Cappel, Paul Catts, Dick Foster, and Ken Klatt all added to the powerful Delaware offense, while John Higgins, John Kinter, Doug Greenfield, Don Cherr, and Carl Walbeck ably handled the defense.

After beating Hofstra and V.P.I., the Hens dropped a decision to Virginia, and then came back to take four in a row before losing to Swarthmore, 9-4. Two more losses were followed by wins over Lehigh and Franklin and Marshall. Washington College beat the home team in their next-to-last contest, but a successful season was closed out with a 17-2 trouncing of Western Maryland.

LETTER WINNERS

TRACK

Coach Ken Steers' trackmen engaged in five two-school meets during the 1951 season, and could salvage only one victory. After opening the season with a heart-breaking  $62\frac{1}{2}$ - $63\frac{1}{2}$  loss to Swarthmore, the thinclads beat Johns Hopkins 75-51. Then Swarthmore, Lehigh, and Muhlenberg in succession trounced the Hens.

A little was gained from the season as the Mile Relay team took a seventh in the Penn Relays.

Although the team had capable performers in Captain Curt Turner, Tom Baylis, Bill Dick, Bill Fisher, Jim Jones, Harry Loose, and Don Vane, the depth necessary for a successful track season was lacking.

With several fine freshman prospects in sight, and with many experienced men remaining for central support, the trackmen should make a more successful record in 1952.
