

N.Y. Times, March 23, 1952

ARGENTINA ORDERS POWER CUTS

Buenos Aires, March 21 - The Ministry of Industry and Commerce announced today stringent regulations governing the rationing of electric power consumption. Industrial plants were directed to suspend activities once a week for four hours under set schedules. Homeowners must cut by 20 per cent all monthly consumption exceeding forty kilowatts an hour. Public lighting will be reduced 30 per cent.