Former Newark Florist Had Received Commendation

Staff Sgt. Harold D. Kirk, 30, of 702 Tenthall Street, Wilmington, is reported killed in action in Italy.

Word of Sergeant Kirk's death was received by his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Kirk. He was killed May 24.

"You have done an outstanding job, and Company A has been materially aided in accomplishing its missions because of your efficiency, quick thinking, and ability, both in North Africa and back in the states," the commendation said.

Mrs. Kirk received a letter from her husband which had been written three days before he was killed.

Sergeant Kirk has been overseas in North Africa and Italy for 16 months. He entered the Army April 14, 1941, and was assigned to the tank battalion after training. He was formerly in the florist business at Newark.

DR. SYPHERD IS SPEAKER

Addressing the State Federation of Women's Clubs in Wilmington last week, Dr. W. Many girls are entering business or industry who should be attending college and, while in some cases patriotic motives have led to this, in the long view the girls would serve their country best if they continued their education beyond high school.

LEVY COURT SETS BUDGET AT $1,421,870

County Tax Rate Remains 40c on $100

A New Castle County budget of $1,421,870.72 for the fiscal year starting July 1, $45,145.06 less than the current budget of $1,460,015.78, was adopted Tuesday by the Levy Court.

At the same time, the court announced that the tax rate of 40 cents on $100 of assessed valuation would be retained, yielding an estimated $1,125,954.22 on a total property assessment of $2,814,885.55.

This total assessment, showing a decided rise over the comparative 1943 estimate of $274,950,320.19, reflects increased dwelling and plant construction throughout the county.

The total income for the coming fiscal year is estimated at $1,431,870.72, less $10,000 for errors in assessment. A capitation tax of 25 cents per person on all residents of the county who are 21 years of age or more is expected to raise $10,916.50. Fees from county offices are expected to produce an additional $115,000, while delinquent tax collections are estimated at $50,000. Miscellaneous receipts and cash balances are placed at $70,000.

Slashes in the 1944 appropriations include $22,500 from the relief fund which for the current year was given $87,500, and $15,000 cut from the New Castle County Workhouse funds which this year were set at $200,000.

FIFTH WAR LOAN DRIVE OPENS HERE ON MONDAY

Zone Captains To Make First Report Next Monday, June 19

Newark's participation in the Fifth War Loan Drive opened Monday without fanfare but with quiet determination to put the local campaign "over the top" quickly and effectively, according to Frank Simons, General Chairman of the local committee.

Zone captains and their volunteer workers are at work throughout the community and a greater response than ever before is anticipated with the long awaited invasion now a grim reality.

While no definite quota for Newark has been established it is hoped that the amount raised locally will exceed the $600,000 raised during the Fourth War Loan Drive conducted last January. The state quota for Delaware for the current campaign is $54,000,000.

The first meeting of zone captains will be held Monday evening, June 19, at 8 o'clock in the Elliott Building at which time they will report on progress made during the week in their respective zones. All zone captains are urged to attend this meeting prepared to give a complete report.

Subsequent report meetings will be held at the same time and place each Monday until and including July 10 at which time the final reports will be tabulated.

Outstanding feature of the drive for next week is the movie benefit at the State Theatre which will present "Lady in the Dark", featuring Ray Milland and Ginger Rogers in technicolor. Admission will be bond purchase only. Further details of the benefit will be found elsewhere on this page.

DELAWARE FARM FRONT THIS WEEK

June Livestock Feed Reserve Is Replenished

Last week Dr. Apolonio Sales, Minister of Agriculture of Brazil; Dr. Oscar Gueles, President of the Brazilian-American Commission for the Production of Foodstuffs; and other delegates, accompanied by Dr. K. J. Kadow of the Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, made a three-day observation tour of the poultry industry of the State.

Warren C. Newton of Bridgeville, Director G. L. Schuster and Prof. A. E. Tomhave of the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station, accompanied the Brazilian delegation. The tour began with a visit to the Agricultural Experiment Station Farm, followed by a tour of the Iron Hill White Leghorn egg production area with a stop at the Fagelund Poultry Farm and a visit to the farm of Hoke Palmer, a producer and breeder of New Hampshire.

The remainder of the time was spent in the broiler producing area of Sussex County, with visits to the M. C. Vaughn Turkey Farm, the Hudson Commercial Broiler Farm, O. A. Newton and Sons Company, the Harold Morris Hatchery, and other visits in connection with their study of the broiler industry. On their return upstate, the group visited the Swift and Company Broiler Dressing Plant at Felton, where they observed the dressing, cooling, and quick freezing of broilers for export shipment.

Delaware's June reserve of livestock feed has been replenished from three sources, according to the feed allocations committee of the Delaware Agricultural Adjustment Agency. The War Food Administration allocated to Delaware 2,340,000 pounds of dried peas for distribution to farmers in mixed livestock feed. The State's allocation of government feed wheat for June is 29,216 bushels, and its share of the June supply of CCC oilseed meal is 120 tons of soybean meal and 60 tons of linseed meal.

A recommendation by the War Food Administration for grower prices for field peas for canning has been approved by the Director of the Office of Economic Stabilization, according to a joint announcement of the War Food Administration and Office of Price Administration. Prices are on a green unshelled basis, delivered to the canner and are $55 a ton for black-eyed peas and $5 a ton less for other field peas. These are the average prices that will be reflected in canners' ceilings and will permit payment of normal price differentials for the different grades customarily delivered to canners.

New plant facilities are now producing large-size rubber tires for military vehicles, for trucks on farm and other domestic transportation, for new farm tractors, and for replacing worn tires on tractors equipped with rubber. Production will be stepped up as soon as possible to permit conversion to rubber tires of many farm tractors now operating on steel tires.

Sheep raisers in Delaware are not affected by the War Food Administration program for buying wool to insure adequate military supplies. In most other states all wool will be purchased for the account of the Commodity Credit Corporation. There are 3000 sheep in Delaware this year, an increase of 1000 over the 1943 numbers. Farmers in Delaware may sell their wool to handlers for the account of the CCC. Clarence E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware Agricultural Adjustment Agency, reports that, where farmers sell wool for the account of the CCC, county AAA officials will certify to the CCC the amount sold and the prices paid by the handler.

"America is a land of plenty even in the midst of global war because people all along the line from the plow to the plate did a good job of growing more food, conserving more food and sharing food," Clarence E. Ocheltree, Delaware AAA chairman said recently in a statement issued to the AAA community committeemen in Delaware. "Until the war ends and world reconstruction is complete, Delaware farmers and victory gardeners must continue planting up to the military and civilian requirements of the United Nations and consumers must continue saving and sharing food because food reserves are temporary and storage facilities limited."

Seven Million Pairs Of Shoes Ration Free

The office of Price Administration has authorized a national odd lot sale of shoes, ration free, provided dealers reduce the prices at least 25 per cent under June 1 figures.

The sale is planned from July 10 to July 29, and OPA estimated that about seven million pairs would be available. This "odd-lot" sale will include footwear for men and women, boys' sizes 1 to 6 but not children's, misses' and little boys' shoes which were included in the temporarily ration free shoes for three weeks in May.

Less than 15 per cent of the estimate included in the July ration free total supply of shoes for 1944 will sales, OPA said.

VICTORY VOLUNTEERS SAVE CROPS FOR FARMERS

High School Boys and Girls Aid Valuable Contribution

During the past six weeks high school boys and girls all over Delaware have been turning out wherever they were needed to help farmers with emergency war food production, serving as members of the Victory Farm Volunteers under the emergency farm labor program of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

School officials have cooperated readily in helping recruit students from their classes and in releasing them from school work for short periods to save essential foods.

A report on their accomplishments and earnings just released by J. Frank Gordy, state supervisor of the emergency farm labor program, shows that in Sussex County 530 different boys and girls have worked. Of this total, 345 were boys from the Wilmington area living at Camp Victory. These boys have been working in two-week periods since the last week in April, the camp starting at that time with 81 boys and building up to as many as 125 with half of the group replaced each week. They have worked a total of 21,763 hours, have earned about $8705, and have saved 260,351 pounds of asparagus which would probably have been totally lost without their help. In addition to this camp group, about 180 local high school boys and girls in Sussex County have worked under the day-haul plan in local crop areas, saving food valued at $3500 and earning about $1000.

In Kent County about 130 different boys and girls from local high schools have volunteered to save food valued at about $2800, earning about $600. This group also worked under the day haul plan.

And in New Castle County about 165 different high school students set 250 acres of tomato plants, earning about $7100.

Boys and girls are expected to give even more help during the summer when they are free of school work and when crop harvests are expected to demand every bit of labor available.

Soft Coal Purchases Are Urged by Potter

Delaware consumers of coal were warned yesterday by Deputy Solid Fuels Administrator Charles J. Potter to stock up now on alternate solid fuels currently available—particularly run-of-mine bituminous coal—to avoid a repetition of last winter's fuel shortage.

"I am informed," he said, "that there is available now in coal yards of Wilmington and other Delaware communities, some high-grade, low-volatile, run-of-mine bituminous coal and some reclaimed coke. Consumers who recall the difficulty encountered last winter in obtaining preferred fuels would do well to acquire the alternative fuels now, without waiting until it is too late."

Auto Owners Lagging In Reregistering Cars

Only 316 out of a total of 2,900 automobiles in New Castle County which must be reregistered by June 30 have obtained new tag inserts, officials of the Motor Vehicle Department announced yesterday. The registration renewal for the June group has been slow and officials fear a last minute congestion unless there is a better response within the next two weeks.

There are approximately 6,500 automobiles in the state which must be reregistered by the end of this month.

Christiana School News

The graduation exercises at the Christiana School were held on June 7th. Rev. Harry M. Buchanan of the Christiana Methodist Church pronounced the invocation and benediction.

The graduating class presented the war bond program called "Sharing America". Delena Amoroso, William Reusch, and Dorothy Keeley were the chief narrators. Mrs. Ellen Vernon was the accompanist. Following the program, over $400 worth of war bonds and stamps were sold; this makes the total amount sold by the school for the year $6,385. Pledges amounting to $200 were also received.

The P-T-A Scholarship Awards were presented by Mrs. Howard Green, president.

The Community Improvement Association Citizenship Awards were presented by Mrs. Fred Miller, secretary.

The Class Will and Prophecy were read by the president of the eighth grade, Miss Betty Musser.

Mr. R. Earle Dickey, Chairman of the School Board of Trustees, presented the certificates to the graduates.

FATHERS, TOO, NEED HEALTH

War—the invasion over-seas—which has taken so many of the nation's fathers, makes the folks here at home a bit more appreciative of the fathers who are still with us. Certainly many of these men are working harder than ever, longer hours and greater strain in the various fields of industry, business, and agriculture.

But too often father's health is taken for granted. Being of the masculine gender we expect him to be big and strong, forgetting that his human machine, too, is susceptible to disease and needs care, rest and repair.

With Father's Day occurring on Sunday, families might well consider how they can help with the health of the nominal head of the family, says the State Board of Health.

Three points can be emphasized:

1. Give Father a chance to relax at home. After long hours of work, often under strain, a chance to rest in a quiet atmosphere is often the healing that he needs. For some men this may mean lying down, for others a chance to sit and read their paper or listen to the radio in peace before dinner. Mothers can explain Daddy's need to older children and younger ones can, perhaps, be routed out-of-doors or in another room to play while Daddy recovers his energy. Eight hours of sleep per night will also help to maintain Father's stamina under strain.

2. Food is a second contributing factor in Father's health, not only on Father's Day but all through the year. Almost everyone knows that children need milk, citrus fruit, green vegetables, and whole grain cereals for the maintenance of health and growth. But how many realize that the masculine machine also needs these foods for the best performance. Too often daddys are solely "meat-and-potatoes-men". These foods are good but everybody needs other protective foods, too. Mother's introduction of more of the basic 7 foods both in Father's meals at home and in his lunch box if he carries his lunch, may help to prevent that 4 o'clock slump—a fatigue brought on by too little of the right kind of foods. Summer always increases the consumption of liquids and Father might well be encouraged to drink more milk, fruit and tomato juices and less of the non-essential soft drinks.

3. Food and rest are day in and day out affairs like gas and oil for the family car. But, just as the engine needs an occasional over-hauling, so, too, does Father need periodic physical check-ups by the family physician. Cancer and tuberculosis are two widespread diseases from which people may recover IF these diseases are discovered and treated EARLY.

State Board of Health reports show that 101 men between the ages of 20 and 69, many of them fathers, died from cancer, and 74 from tuberculosis, during 1942.

Heart disease claimed 306 men in this age group during the same period. The lives of a number of them might have been saved if they had had early physical examinations, realized their handicap, and taken greater care not to over-exert their hearts.

Other leading causes of death among men from 20 to 69, according to the records of the State Board of Health for 1942 are: nephritis (kidney disease) 85; cerebral hemorrhage 60; pneumonia 43; auto accidents 42; and diabetes 28 deaths.

Fathers Day is a good time to resolve to take better care of Father and also to encourage him to take better care of himself, suggests the State Board of Health.

FISHY

With tuna production running nearly 65 per cent better than last year, the pack by California canneries is the largest since 1940. The large pack will not necessarily mean more tuna for civilians. The Army and Navy have already placed orders for a quantity equivalent to about 40 per cent of last year's pack, which means that the industry will have to push its production even higher if it is to provide enough tuna to meet civilian demands as well as military orders.

The catch of tuna has been much reduced during the past several years because many of the largest and best vessels of the fleet were requisitioned for war service. Although a few of these vessels have been replaced by new construction, the fleet is still below the size necessary to build up the catch to the pre-war level.

New fish processing methods at sea and expanding inland markets for fresh fish are likely to lure American fishing fleets again to the once famous Grand Bank and other remote Newfoundland fishing areas soon after the war, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service's Division of Fishery Industries has reported.

In colonial days 90 per cent of the catch of New England fishermen was salted and vessels commonly operated on the distant banks, salting their catch at sea.

WHO SHALL ESCAPE?

There are gloomy prediction concerning the ability of big business to furnish sufficient employment for returning soldiers and civilians after the war. Small business is even more uneasy in considering the probabilities of the future. When you come to analyze the whole problem, the result lands one in a confusion of possibilities that involve all the economic conditions and systems. Nobody knows what the harvest of peace will reap. So do your own guessing.

COST OF LIVING

The Bureau of Labor Statistics index of the cost-of-living shows an increase of 3.1 per cent in house furnishings and small increases in food, clothing, and miscellaneous items. The index of all items showed an increase of 23.5 per cent above January, 1941, and 26.3 per cent above August, 1939.

Labor Statistics are often criticized as being too low in comparison with other official authorities, and civilian findings.

IN REVIEW

25 Years Ago

What might have been a serious fire in the heart of the business district last night was averted by the presence of mind of Mrs. A. C. Stiltz.

A fuse had blown out at the Stiltz home and in an effort to locate the trouble short circuits were created which burned out the meter. Sparks from the wire ends threatened to create a fire. Mrs. Stiltz immediately summoned the fire company but there was no need for their services. Volunteer help had broken the circuit and eliminated the danger.

Fire at Wolf Hall

In some mysterious manner a quantity of ether caught fire at the Wolf Hall laboratory on Wednesday and might have proved serious had not Prof. F. W. Thompson, with rare presence of mind, removed a large can of the inflammable material which was in close proximity to the flames.

Fortunately the fire confined itself to the large piece of apparatus which contained the ether. Only the fact that Wolf Hall is a fireproof structure prevented the flames from spreading beyond the control of those present. Because of the nature of the blaze water proved useless and slowly the flames became less vigorous and in the course of a few minutes died down so low that they could be smothered.

Young Soldier Discharged

William C. Chalmers, who has been in the service for 7 months, stationed at Fort duPont was discharged on Monday and arrived home that evening.

Auto Truck Burns

When Ben Butterworth of Deandale was vulcanizing a tube on Friday the gas tank exploded burning the top and necessitating a call for the Aetna Fire Company. Friends and neighbors had given aid before the company arrived and with their aid the fire was put out.

About 45 members of Minnehaha Tribe No. 23, Improved Order of Red Men attended divine service at St. Thomas' Church on Sunday morning.

The choir repeated the Easter music. A special processional and recessional and a sermon of particular interest to the order was delivered.

Senior Warden, A. A. Curtis; Junior Warden, Dr. George A. Harter; secretary, D. Lee Rose; financial secretary, W. D. Dean; treasurer, Dr. Harter; auditor, D. C. Rose, W. D. Dean and Charles Colmery.

Weekly Sermon

Text: "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." Hosea 4:6.

God's Book is neglected and opposed today.

Its use is forbidden in public schools, and it is given but a secondary place in religious education. Yet ignorance of God and His Word is accountable for the breakdown of moral standards in the world. A study of the Bible is therefore most essential.

No one can lay claim to being well informed who is not acquainted with the Bible.

It contains the highest system of ethics found in the world. It produces the highest type of character in individuals and communities where it is accepted and lived.

The Bible insures safety to life and business where it is believed and lived. The awful racketeering in our country is the result of ignorance and rejection of the light of the Bible. The only solution for all types of crime lies in applying the laws of righteousness revealed in the Word of God.

The Bible is God's Book. Without it, knowledge of God is limited to that revealed through nature.

In His Word God has revealed His plan for the world. Those in authority should know the Bible. All rulers should have as advisers men who know God's Word. It is impossible to know the meaning of world movements apart from the Bible. The war was no surprise to those who had a true knowledge of the Scriptures. If the world had been true to the Bible, there would have been no World War. Nor can abiding peace come to the world till the nations recognize and worship the God of the Bible.

The Bible is the final authority in spiritual matters. Neither reason nor church has ever proved adequate. Much is heard of church union, but true Christian union can come only as men gather around the Word of God.

In the Bible, and here only, has God's way of saving grace been made known. The need of salvation, the meaning of salvation, and how it is to be obtained are all clearly set forth in the Scriptures.

The Bible should be studied because all we know of the future life is found in its pages. What of the other world, our departed friends, our own future? Revealed in God's Word are the great and assuring truths that answer man's urgent questioning. "If a man die, shall he live again?" In the Bible is the answer that satisfies.

WAR BONDS SECURITY TO FARMERS

Agriculture Also Supports Bond Drives

Delaware farmers have done an outstanding job in producing war food—last year they met all of the goals set for them in production of essential crops, and they are well on the way to meeting this year's needs.

But producing food is not the farmer's only part in the war effort. Last week our armed forces started on a new campaign which will cost many lives and enormous quantities of war materials, but the more materials they have the sooner the war can be ended and the fewer lives will be lost. We can give them those materials by buying War Bonds.

During the Fifth War Loan drive we must put more money into bonds than we have in any other drive—we must "Buy more than before"—for this drive must support the present greatly increased military activity, and it may well be the most important bond drive of the entire war.

G. M. Worrlow, chairman of the Agricultural Division of the Delaware War Finance Committee and acting associate director of the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, points out five good reasons why Delaware farmers should buy extra bonds during this drive: (1) War Bonds are the best, safest investment in the world; (2) War Bonds bought today will buy farm equipment, home equipment, a new car or truck or a farm after the war is won; (3) War Bonds (series E) return $4 for every $3 in 10 years; (4) War Bonds provide a reserve for lean years and old age; (5) War Bonds bought today help win the war.

Certainly the need of our armed forces for this support is all the reason we need to put all the money we can into War Bonds. But farmers must also look ahead, and they are looking in the right direction when they buy War Bonds now for the things they will need later. Equipment and machinery are not available now, and land prices are generally at an uneconomical level—the money will be worth more in terms of these resources when the bonds mature.

TOMATOES ATTACKED BY APHIDS

The pink and green potato aphid suddenly appeared in large numbers on tomatoes in Delaware. This pest is widely distributed in the United States where it feeds on a variety of host plants and is particularly important on potatoes and tomatoes. Delaware tomato growers have not recently been bothered with this pest but the infestations this year are causing severe injury. It seems likely that the aphids may have been present on the plants when they were received from the South.

The insects appear in two color phases—green and pink. It multiplies very rapidly, going through a complete generation during warm weather in about two or three weeks. On tomatoes the insects suck the juices from the stems and leaves. Many infested plants have ceased to grow and may eventually be killed entirely.

Dr. Paul L. Rice, acting head of the Department of Entomology at the University of Delaware, recommends control through the application of nicotine dust or spray. The dust recommended is a 3 per cent nicotine dust in hydrated lime. This material is most effective if applied with a power blower to which is attached a cloth tray about 25 feet long which holds the dust around the plants for a few seconds after the aspiration. If a trailer is used some provision must be made to keep it from dragging too heavily on the plants and breaking them over. This dust will give a fair control if applied with a hand duster and a very thorough application is made to the individual plants. Dusts should be applied when the air is still and when the temperatures are high (80 or higher).

Those growers who are equipped to spray can use a combination made up of 1 quart of 40 percent nicotine sulfate and 4 pounds of soap flakes per 100 gallons of water. The spray should also be applied in still warm weather. From one to three applications of the dust or spray at intervals of two to three days may be needed.

Lady bugs and small wasps are natural enemies which attack the aphids.

by
J. H. (Sureshot) Rumer

Anything appearing in this column is purely the opinion of the writer and does not express the views or policy of the paper. Any exceptions should be taken up with the writer.

Another week has rolled around and now it is time for another column by Sureshot and really we are at a loss who to RAZZ this week. We were told that Assistant Fire Chief Edwin Shakespeare in an effort to put out a fire last week rushed out of his house and twisted his ankle but he got the fire out before it was necessary to send for the big red wagon. Too bad Eddie, when you know how bad Joe Lutton wanted to get a ride while he was home on furlough.

Speaking about Joe Lutton — here is one for the book. Joe was born on the 13th; called up for the draft on the 13th; inducted on the 13th arrived at Camp on the 13th; his first furlough was 13 days and he left on the 13th to return to camp. Well Joe, here is hoping that you get a poke at Hitler and I get a poke at John Lewis.

The American Legion Carnival opened on Monday — on the lot alongside of the Ritz House Garage (free publicity for Rittenhouse) and they were just getting underway when Blooey—the lights went out. Shucks, all these young folks down at the carnival with their girls and the lights went out. Some folks get all the breaks.

We are told that Bill Hamilton and that Coach fellow grabbed up the money and Doc Downes sat on it. They were afraid that someone would steal the dough. When the crowd was treated to seeing how Josh Wood, the town electrician, and his crew went to work to repair the damage to the lighting system. Mr. Wood climbed the pole and then climbed down again and the Red truck dashed away and soon returned with another one of those black gadgets that they put on the pole to make the electric bill bigger. Well, Josh and Slim Chalmers went to work and with the help of town supervisor George Ramsey and a fellow by the name of Herbert Wood they cut wires and scraped them and stuck them in the slots of the new gadget or transformer and soon the lights came on again. Well, they were fast workers.

We are told that there will be Junior baseball again this year sponsored by the American Legion. Well, that is a step in the right direction. We need more activities for the children. Sureshot needs more sports for his sports page.

I wonder if anyone ever stopped to think how hard it is to write news in a dead town. Well, it is not quite dead but it is getting dead. The boss says that you have to have two double-column stories on the sports page and there are no sports in Newark (We forget the fellows that go out to the track each day). Then along comes Harry Bonham and wants a story about the Bond Drive. Shucks—how can a fellow write a story about that if there is nothing doing in connection with the drive but get the workers together once and send them out from door to door. In other towns they have rallies, parades, dances, dinners, speeches by folks who can't talk and raise quite a fuss. But Newark—Newark is content to poke along without a lot of baloney. They know they will reach their allotment so why go to all the fuss of having something special. By golly, these special affairs gives Sureshot something to write about.

With the Century Club shutting down for the summer; the schools closed for the summer—Gee, it puts a reporter on the spot. What else is there to write about unless we start to gather some town dirt. That would make good reading but it would be tough on the parties involved. Gee it would be a lot of fun to write about it anyway. Well folks, enough of that — there is a Bond Drive on NOW. The folks who have volunteered their services to go from door-to-door need your cooperation. The other day the cutest little girl came to my door and she shoved a pencil in my hand and held out a card and said sign it. Sure I signed it. Who could refuse that cute little youngster. And on top of that, where could a fellow get a safer investment. It beats betting on slow horses at Delaware Park.

What about a playground for the children this summer. We are told that the churches holding vacation Bible Schools are having very large attendances at these schools. Last year there was only one church bothering with this subject. This year, I understand that there are at least four of these schools and all of them have more children in attendance than the one had last year. The older folks must find something for the kids to do or stop talking about what is going to become of them.

This delinquency matter is caused by the older folks who don't have time to provide the proper recreation for the young folks. At the end of next week after these vacation Bible Schools close what is provided for the kids. Where can they go and what can they do? Run the streets and get into mischief? A few years ago we provided supervised recreation for the kids. This year there are more children running loose and what has been done? Does Sureshot have to be a one-man crusader with no one to back up what he squawks about. I have a lot of folks who come to me and ask me to shoot off about something but they fail to furnish the backing.

OPPORTUNITY to change breakfast menu. Serve new Post's Raisin Bran, the delicious combination of crisp wheat and bran flakes plus choice California seedless raisins.

Homewood Driving Park Club Will Sponsor Matinee Harness Races At Local Track on S. E. Dameron Farm; First Race Will Start at 1:30 P. M.

Harness racing fans from all over the Delmarvia Peninsula will be present at the Old Huber Race Track on the farm of Samuel E. Dameron Saturday afternoon to witness the first Matinee Harness race of the 1944 season when the bell rings for the first race at 1:30 P. M.

Aviation Cadet Preston Transferred to Athens, Ga.

Naval Aviation Cadet Thomas E. Preston has reported to the U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School at Athens, Ga., for intensive physical training and ground school study. The course of at least three months' duration, is a preliminary step in the progressive stages of flight training for future Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine combat pilots.

Cadet Preston is the son of Professor and Mrs. Howard K. Preston, 280 Orchard Road. He graduated from the Newark High School in 1941 and attended the University of Delaware for two years.

He completed Naval Flight Preparatory School at Wooster, Ohio, and was transferred to Athens, Ga., from the CAA Training Service School at Edmond, Oklahoma.

CEILINGS PLACED ON USED AUTOS

The Office of Price Administration this week slapped price ceilings on all used passenger cars, whether sold by dealers or private owners, at the levels which prevailed in January, 1944.

The order is effective July 10, the month's delay being allowed for the trade to make its adjustments.

OPA set forth specific dollars-and-cents prices for 23 makes and about 6,000 models manufactured from 1937 through 1942. Older cars may not be sold for more than the comparable 1937 model.

The ceilings were fixed at different levels for three broad geographical regions. Highest prices prevail in the Far West, lowest prices in the region east of the Mississippi River.

Two ceiling prices were set for each model, one covering a car sold "as is," the other a "warranty" price covering cars sold by dealers with the guarantee that they are in good operating condition.

The ceilings will drop four per cent of the "as is" price every six months. Typical ceilings on a 1942 model Ford V-8 deluxe four-door sedan are $990 "as is" and $1,238 on a "warranty" basis in region A, covering all states east of the Mississippi; for a 1941 model, the prices are $845 and $1,056 respectively; for a 1937 model, $330 and $430.

All persons who are not dealers are required to sell at the "as is" price or less.

Horses have been entered in this event from all the racing tracks in Delaware and several tracks from Maryland, and New Jersey have sent entries for the six races that will feature the afternoon's sport.

J. Wirt Willis, one of Delaware's most prominent racing fans is again expected to be in the judges stand and will act as the starter for the six card event.

Lou Seth and Robert Shallcross are expected to act as the timers for the races and J. H. Rumer will be the clerk.

Among the local horses who will give the visitors some keen competition will be Joy Worthy, green pacer, owned by Warren Kelsler of Woodstown, N. J., who has been stable at the local track and given daily workouts.

Bobby Flash, a trotter owned by Preston Shallcross of Elkton, Md., has been stable at the local track and has a record of 2:10. Samuel E. Dameron's trotter Bernon has a record of 2:08 1-4 and is expected to be among those horses who will finish in the lead.

War Victory, a green trotter owned by E. Ricard of Wilmington is also being worked out at the local track and shows great promise. Herman Heavell's pacer, Little Boy is another horse from the local club that is expected to make a good showing on Saturday and Madge Martin, a pacer with a record of 2:09, owned by Hiram Collins will be among those running.

Walter Bolton's pacer, Dallas, with a record of 2:12 is showing some good form and is expected to come across with a win in this race. Gratton McKullopp owned by Herbert Beauchamp of Wilmington is a pacer with a 2:05 1-2 record and is showing some real speed in workouts.

Highland Tillie, a pacer owned by Brandon Killmon of Wilmington and Nancy Ryan a green trotter owned by Harvey Bolton of Newark will also be entered in the races Saturday.

Refreshments will be sold at the track by members of the women's organizations.

Corporal Charles Jarvis With Clark's Fifth Army

Word has just been received here that Corporal Charles Jarvis, brother of Mrs. E. E. Weggenmann, is serving with General Mark Clark's Fifth Army in Italy.

A former employee at the University of Delaware, Corporal Jarvis is originally from Berlin, Md., but has made his home with his sister, at 262 So. College Avenue, for the past several years.

He was inducted into the Army in July, 1942 and has been serving overseas for the past eighteen months. He was recently decorated with the Fifth Army Insignia and also has been awarded an African campaign ribbon.

13 Barred From Race Track as 'Undesirable'

Pinkerton agents at Delaware Park requested 13 men, termed "undesirable" by state troopers, to leave the race track Saturday, according to Supt. Paul W. Haviland of the state police. Plain clothes troopers have been at the track since its opening conducting investigations in the interests of the state to prevent bookmaking, it was said.

Such operations on the part of book-makers would affect tax income which the state receives from the track, it was said.

Assisting the troopers was Capt. Steve Ryder, head of the police at Hialeah Park, Fla., and the Garden State track at Camden, N. J. It marked the first time that such a large group of persons considered "undesirable" and detrimental to the best interest of the race track" have been ousted at one time. The men hailed from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newark, N. J., and New York.

DELAWARE PARK NOTES

A group of riders and trainers from Delaware Park were on a fishing trip out of Bowers Beach Tuesday with Capt. Walter Stokesbury and J. R. Roberts.

Included in the group were Johnny Breen, a leading jockey; Arnold Kirkland, contract rider from Brandywine Stables; Carson Kirk, jockey; Jimmy McGee, trainer; Virgil (Buddy) Rains, trainer at Brandywine Stables; Mrs. Rains, and an exercise boy, Melvin Mawry.

The group caught 160 fish—croakers, trout, and a few king fish. Kirkland hooked a black drum, believed to have weighed nearly 70 pounds, but it tore up his tackle and got away. Breen was high man in fish caught. Carson Kirk landed several blow fish.

While he is a very doubtful starter, Mrs. Albert Sabath's name horse Alab has been given the post of honor—126 pounds—for the $10,000 added one mile and a quarter Sussex Handicap to be renewed Saturday at Delaware Park.

Aletorn, belonging to A. C. Ernst and winner of the $50,000 Suburban Handicap at Belmont Park, is the second highweight in Handicapper Edward Brennan's weight for the Sussex. Aletorn must take up 120 pounds if he 108 pounds. A very likely starter and starts. His weight in the Suburban was the high-weight of 118 pounds provided Alab and Aletorn to not come down from New York, is Max Marmorstein's Castleman, a two time winner at Delaware Park with the Brandywine Handicap to his credit.

Also in the 118 pound class are Aonbarr and Alex Barth. Aonbarr was reported as not having pulled up so well after his last Delaware race.

Other Sussex Handicap eligibles and their weights follow: Eurasian 115, Four Freedoms 115, Bright Gallant 113, Lord Calvert 111, Famous Victory 111, Gay Bit 111, Grey Wing 110, Incoming 110, Moon Malden 110, Soldier's Song 110, Sick's Choice 110, Tola Rose 110, Barbara Childs 109, Salto 109.

Eyr Wooreye 108, Hadford 108, Bon Jour 108, Alfios 107, Plantagenet 107, Sea Marriame 106, Coat of Arms 104, Paperboy 104, Sals Jimmy 104, Half Crown 102, Burgawa 102, Shrimple 102, Dartaway 101, Charter Member 100, Gold Flare 99, Lieut. Well, Portage Trail 98, Westey A 98, Spuyten Duyvil 97, and Whizling By 96.

In addition to the excellent show being put on by the horses at Delaware Park, highly interesting races are being staged by the jockeys and trainers.

As the sport was renewed Tuesday after a lay off since last Saturday there were ties among both the riders and conditioners.

Johnny Breen, who needs no introduction to Delaware Park fans, and the comparatively newcomer, Doug Daodon, were deadlocked in the jockey's race, each having been on nine winners. Apprentice Ken Scawthorn has been on eight winners and the veteran Johnny Gilbert on seven. Gilbert made a couple trips from Delaware Park to New York and he cancelled his mounts on D-Day. Jimmy McGee, who conditions the horses belonging to Max Marmorstein, leading money winning owner of the meeting, and others and John Paul (Doc) Johns are the leading trainers, each having tightened the girths on six winners. Trainers Tom Waller and Don Yates are credited with five winners.

FINED $300 ON BET CHARGE

Clifford Phillips of Lancaster, Pa., was found guilty yesterday of receiving horse race bets at Delaware Park and was fined $300 and costs by Common Pleas Judge P. Warren Green. He was arrested by state troopers at the track Friday. He was represented by H. Albert Young, and the case was prosecuted by Chief Deputy Atty.-Gen. Thomas Herihly, Jr.

CLASS DAY GRADUATION EXERCISES AT STANTON

Students Win Certificates For Perfect Attendance

Stanton, June 15th — Graduation Exercises of the Stanton School were held Monday evening in the school, with Miss Lora Little, Principal, and members of the faculty in charge. About 300 persons, including parents and friends of the graduates attended. The feature of the program was a Pageant, "Sharing America", with Alfred Kossak, Marian Woodward and Elaine Lind, narrators, announcing. A Bond Sale was conducted by Mrs. Alma E. Boulden, local Postmaster, in connection with the Pageant, at which time over $300 worth of bonds were purchased by the pupils and their parents.

Mrs. Martha I. Barnes, Attendance Officer of New Castle County, addressed the students and their parents, and presented the certificates. Mrs. Barnes pointed out that the example set by the parents for their children is quite as important as the education they receive from their books, and if parents would give their children better care and guidance there would not be such a thing as juvenile delinquency.

Robert P. Major, President of the Stanton School Board, also spoke to the members of the class. He compared the building of their lives and character with the building of a house, stating that the elementary school education they receive is the foundation of their building; the high school training — the house proper, and their later lives and activities — the extra wings they build on — completing the structure.

During the pageant, a new Honor Roll of those in service from the community who have attended the Stanton School was unveiled, with 85 names including girls and boys thereon, most of whom had graduated from the local school. There were three gold stars on the roll, which was framed, and will hang in the school permanently. There were three bearers taking part in the presentation, including Carl Stafford, Robert Benge, and Everett Ovenden.

Mrs. Robert P. Major was pianist and accompanied the students for the presentation of their pageant. They presented Mrs. Major with a large vase filled with flowers, in appreciation of her services.

Mrs. Barnes, Attendance Officer, also presented certificates for perfect attendance to the following students:

Carl Stafford for a period of six years.

Russell Lombardi, five years.

Carl Ferrier, four years.

Class Day and Closing Exercises were held at the Stanton School Tuesday.

The Class History was given by Alfred Kossak; Prophecy — Miss Helen Ogonski and the Class Will was read by Miss Doris Hastings.

Presentation of gifts were made to Miss Lora Little, Principal, and all members of the faculty, by members of the graduating class.

Miss Little reports that sales of War Bonds and Stamps during the month of May totaled $347.70. Sales to date in June, which will be counted in on the Fifth War Loan Drive amounted to $1,264.30. Sales for the school year, September 1st to June 6th, totaled $12,529.65. Weekly sales of Bonds and Stamps have been conducted at the school by Mrs. Helen W. Wright.

The Married Women's Class of the Stanton Methodist Church met this week at the home of Mrs. Edgar Boyce, with Mrs. Eleanor Trivits, serving as Assistant Hostess. The group voted to purchase dishes and silver for use in the basement of the Church for suppers and when refreshments are served at the church. The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bessie Cole, with Mrs. Grace Hale as Assistant Hostess.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Stanton Methodist Church will serve a Chicken Supper on Monday evening, June 19th in the basement of the church. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 P. M.

The Daily Vacation Bible School will be conducted in the Stanton Methodist Church, beginning on Tuesday, June 20th, and continuing for a two week period. The Rev. Kenneth M. Dickey, pastor, will be in charge, and will be assisted by members of the school faculty.

Private Collects $70 From New Lieutenants

An old Army tradition made Private Leon Stewart $70 richer.

Custom decrees a newly-commissioned officer must give a dollar bill to the first enlisted man to salute him. Private Stewart was walking near the barracks of a group of cadets who a few minutes earlier had been commissioned second lieutenants.

Out came 70 new officers. Private Stewart used one hand to salute, the other to collect.

GUARD UNIT TO CAMP AT FT. DUPONT

Reasons For State Guard Are Explained

Lieut. William B. Donnell, commander of Company "G", Delaware State Guard stated this week at the regular weekly drill that the Company is now completely equipped with full field equipment, consisting of machine guns, Lee Enfield rifles, pistols, gas masks and gas equipment, packs, canteens, etc.

The Company at Newark drills each Monday night at the Newark Armory from 8 to 9:30 P. M. The non-commissioned officers school is held each drill night from 7:30 to 8 P. M.

The training for this period is stressed on the use of weapons preparatory to their actual use at the summer encampment to be held at Fort DuPont, the last week of July.

Lieut. Donnell stated that the Company has lost several men to the Armed Forces in the past few months and are sorely in need of men to replace them. The training given in the State Guard will be of the utmost help to young men coming of draft age in the near future and the company can also use men over the draft age up to age 65 as the training program is not too strenuous for elderly men and it will be a patriotic duty for everyone to be prepared in case of emergency.

The local Company of Guards took part in a Parade and Review held last Sunday at the P. S. duPont School in honor of persons receiving the Delaware Conspicuous Service Award. Lieut. Col. Herman W. Cook, former commander of Battery "E", Delaware National Guard and now stationed with an Anti-Aircraft Battalion in the South Pacific was one of the persons who were awarded this honor. The award was presented to Mrs. Cook in the absence of her husband.

1st Lieutenants William B. Donnell and Johnson Reeves attended the Company Officers School of the Second Service Commander Technical School at Hackettstown, N. J. the week of May 29th and Lieut. Donnell stated that the mission of the State Guards as outlined by the Second Service Command states that:

The mission of the State Guards, during the absence of the National Guard in Federal Service, is to provide an adequate trained force for employment within the boundaries and jurisdiction of their respective states as directed by the State Executive or legislature thereof, so as to:

Maintain laws, suppress disorders, and protect the lives and property within the state.

Meet such domestic emergencies as may arise within the state, including civil disturbances and disasters resulting from war and other causes.

Guard and protect vital industries, installations, and factories essential to the war effort when other means such as local police or privately owned protection are deemed inadequate by authorized state or federal agencies.

In the absence of, or in support of, or in conjunction with Federal Troops, prevent or suppress the activities of enemy agents such as fifth columnists and parachute troops.

Cooperate with Federal military authorities in extreme emergencies, especially in information and observation duties at or near frontiers and in the evacuation of civilians.

Perform such other duties as were assigned to the National Guard when not in Federal Service.

Anyone desiring further information about the State Guards may call at the Armory or contact Lieut. Donnell or Reeves, phones 2-1134 or 3801. If by mail, to P. O. Box 276.

45 SENIORS GRADUATED AT NEWPORT

Largest Class Ever Graduated At Krebs School

Newport, June 15th — Graduation Exercises of the Krebs School were held Tuesday evening in the Auditorium of the School, with 500 parents and friends attending. The class of 45 graduates marched into the auditorium, after which the Rev. Alex W. Boyer, Rector of the St. James P. E. Church, Newport, made the Invocation. Members of the class presented a patriotic program, and the stage was beautifully decorated with red, white and blue crepe paper making a solid background of patriotic decorations. Their program was very impressive, particularly in view of the invasion news of the day, and they received much applause.

Dr. D. J. Richey, Principal of the School, addressed the graduates briefly. He commented that this class was the largest ever to have been graduated at Newport School, and that they had had a very happy year. He also stated that more than 30 percent of the class made an "A" average in their Standard Tests. He also commented that in view of the growth of the community that they expect the enrollment at the school to be much larger next year so if the same standards are to continue at Krebs, provision must be made for additional facilities.

Arthur G. Craig, a member of the Krebs School Board, made the presentation of diplomas. He congratulated the graduates on their accomplishments, and stated this has been a banner year at Newport; that the spirit of cooperation has prevailed, and continuing the unified effort of everyone in the community, the school officials are endeavoring to provide a building capable of giving our children the finest education possible. He urged the graduates that even though they meet obstacles in their high school training that they "do not quit" to take a job, but continue their training, thereby fitting themselves for better positions in the pre-war world, when jobs will not be so plentiful.

Presentation of gifts were made by the graduating class to D. J. Richey, Miss Belle Chambers, teachers, and Miss Sara Goldstein, pianist. The presentations were made by Joyce Taylor, Grace Eckles and James Maclary, members of the graduating class.
