

G. Messersmith

December 24, 1942

Honorable George Messersmith,
United States Ambassador to Mexico,
American Embassy,
Mexico City, Mexico.

Dear Friend:

I beg to introduce to you the bearer of this letter, Mr. P. E. Teppema who is and has been for the last ten years Minister of the Netherlands in Buenos Aires.

Mr. and Mrs. Teppema are good friends of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Armour and I met them at a dinner given at the American Embassy in Buenos Aires. Mr. and Mrs. Teppema who have been on a short visit to the United States are returning to Buenos Aires via Mexico and I am sure you and Mrs. Messersmith will enjoy meeting them.

Mrs. Teppema will be obliged to remain in Mexico for about a month as she has only an E priority whereas her husband is traveling on C priority.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dannie Heineman.
