State To Conduct Free Chest X-Ray Service In Newark

Board Of Health Mobile
Units To Arrive In City
Sept. 20 For Students

Chest x-rays will be available to all Delaware residents 15 years of age and older again this year. Dr. Floyd L. Hudson, executive secretary of the State Board of Health, has announced. Two mobile x-ray units will begin operation in the Newark area Sept. 20 and move throughout the state providing locations for school, industrial and community participation. Students of the University of Delaware will be the first to participate in this program.

A total of 173,151 persons had chest x-rays at the mobile buses in last year's statewide program. At the end of the 1953 fiscal year, Dr. Hudson reported that 120 new active or probably active tuberculosis cases were registered as survey cases. In addition other chest conditions, including lung tumors, were discovered.

Physicians recommend that persons have a chest x-ray at least once a year so that tuberculosis can be discovered in its early stages when treatment is more effective in bringing about an early recovery from the disease. In planning this year's program Dr. Hudson recommended that "all persons who had chest x-rays last year should have them again this year and those who did not participate are urged to avail themselves of the opportunity this year."

Chest x-rays are free and reports will be sent to the individual.

This year's program is sponsored by the State Board of Health and the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

Kids, Kiwanis--Dogs' Day, Too Planned For Newark on Sept. 25

A pedigreed pooch can win a prize in the Kids' Day Dog Show to be sponsored Saturday, Sept. 25, by the Newark Kiwanis Club. But the pedigreed pup will have to be the longest, largest, shortest, smallest, funniest or most prettiest dressed dog in his class to rate the judges' consideration for a prize.

It's any dog's day--and a day for the kid, particularly.

The Kids' Day Dog Show will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Sept. 25, at the high school field, with Dan Harvey heading a committee of Wm. Skold, J. McCambridge, Victor Macy, and Merle Taylor in charge of arrangements for the annual event.

Any breed of dog, from Heinz to husky, may be exhibited but Chairman Harvey cautions contestants that each dog must be on a leash and the dog handler must be under 16 years of age.

No entry fee will be charged, and many prizes are to be awarded, members of the Kiwanis Club have announced.

Special Kids' Day Buttons will be sold by members of the Kiwanis Club, and proceeds from the sale of these buttons will be used by the local Kiwanis for the benefit of the youth in the community.

You may be dog tired, but doggone it, don't dog it. Come out to the Kids' Day Dog Show--a week from Saturday.

Dog days are defined as the sultry period from July to early September. But then Webster hadn't heard of this one.

City Water Usage Close To Maximum Geologist States

Rotary Club Hears Talk
By Wm. Rasmussen On City
Water Supply, Prospects

Newark is using ground water at a rate very close to the safe maximum of the reservoir now being tapped, the Newark Rotary Club was told Monday night at dinner in the College Inn.

"Right now you are pumping water at a rate pretty close to what I call 25-year amortization—that is, at the end of that time you will have to look for a new source," explained the speaker, District Geologist William Rasmussen of the U.S. Department of Interior.

However, another reservoir of water-bearing sand exists near Brookside, he said, and the situation can be eased by tapping it. The city of Newark already has taken preliminary steps toward this action.

Useable amounts of ground water underlie parts of the Newark area in rather serpentine channels which are believed to be former stream beds, he said. Newark's water supply comes from wells along the Pennsylvania Railroad near Academy Street, he pointed out, but two large industries on opposite sides of this supply failed to find water on their own properties.

"Your water is of good quality," commented the speaker, "There's a little iron in it but it's good."

School Cafeterias Offer Varied Menu For Local Pupils

Hot, Nourishing Lunch
Provided At Near Cost
As Student Health Aid

Pupils attending the Central and Medill public schools are being offered nourishing, hot, lunches planned and prepared by the cafeteria staff at approximately food cost prices.

A typical lunch served this week consists of meat loaf, mashed potatoes, green beans, one-half pint of white milk, buttered bread and a fruit cup—all for 30 cents.

In these cafeterias, chocolate milk, soup, salads, ice cream and sandwiches are served a-la-carte for pupils who prefer to bring part of their lunch from home to school.

A modified lunch plan is in operation at the New London Avenue elementary school, and cafeteria facilities are being prepared at the new West Park Place elementary school.

The managers of the cafeterias have accepted menu planning as a challenge and responsibility, a spokesman for the Newark school district stated this week, "knowing that school lunches are a valuable contribution to the health and well-being of the children."

Basic requirements for the Type A lunch served daily consist of one-half pint of milk, two ounces of cheese, dried beans or peas, eggs, fish, peanut butter or poultry; three-quarters cup of vegetables or fruits; one slice of enriched bread; two teaspoons of butter or fortified margarine as a spread or seasoning; plus additional foods to meet energy needs.

Continental-Diamond, Union Pact Provides Added Employee Benefit

The Continental-Diamond Fibre Company has announced that an agreement had been signed with Local Union 206 of the United Textile Workers of America, AFL, providing for three weeks vacation for employees with 15 or more years of service.

The new agreement also provides for adjustment in wage rates based on changes in the cost of living index as reported by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, and starting this year the four hour shut-down period on Christmas Eve will be paid for by the company.

A spirit of cooperation prevailed throughout the negotiations which had been in progress since June 13, the company spokesman announced.

The new pact runs until Aug. 23, 1957 and provides for annual opening on basic hourly wage rates. This action was taken according to the negotiators "to assure customers of uninterrupted production and to give the employees and the community a sense of security."

Gamma Globulin On Prescription To Be Available

Gamma globulin, for the prevention of paralytic polio, measles and infectious hepatitis, will be available on doctors' prescriptions through regular medical supply channels after Oct. 1. The announcement was made by Lederle Laboratories Division, American Cyanamid Company. Herebefore the protective blood fraction has been available by the Federal Office of Defense Mobilization to local departments of health for use in polio epidemic areas only. The processed supply of gamma globulin available to physicians this year, though still very small, is nearly twice as large as last year's supply.

In a report to physicians sent out this summer, Dr. Kenneth S. Landauer, assistant medical director, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, points out that "gamma globulin is the only proved weapon now available to physicians for prophylaxis against paralytic poliomyelitis."

The basic scientific evidence established in 1951 and 1952 field trials that gamma globulin can prevent paralytic polio has recently been not only reaffirmed but strengthened, so that its usefulness seems even greater than we formerly believed," states Dr. Landauer.

University Band Ends Three-Day Camping Session

The University of Delaware's marching band spent three days beginning Monday, practicing at Camp Tockwogh, on the Chesapeake.

In readiness for the early practice of freshmen as well as upperclassmen, director J. Robert King screened the university admission applications early last spring. After receiving verification of the musical capabilities of the college applicants, the band director extended invitations to join.

A concert will be presented by the university band and the DuPont Employees Band in the Playhouse on Oct. 31. This program will be directed by E. Russell Williams, conductor of the DuPont Employees Band, and Mr. King.

Band functions also include appearances at each of the home football games, a tour of high schools of the state, two indoor concerts, and two outdoor concerts in May.

St. Paul's Plans Building Program At Glasgow Roads

St. Paul's Lutheran Church held a congregational meeting in the Newark Country Club on Monday night to adopt a 1955 budget, discuss adding three members to the nine-man church council, and to discuss and adopt a building program.

The congregation has purchased as a church site the triangle formed by the intersection of the old and new Glasgow roads, a few hundred feet south of the city line on Route 896. It now meets in the chapel of the Newark Funeral Home, 121 West Park Place.

Six adults and 11 children—eight of them in one family—were received as church members at Sunday's morning service by the Rev. Howard S. Huges, pastor.

Unemployment Checks Increase 400% Since 1953

Unemployment checks paid during August by the State Unemployment Compensation Commission averaged 1,925 weekly, an increase of 201 over the weekly average in July, according to the Labor Market Letter made public Monday by Albert Stetser, chairman-executive director of the commission.

Last month's total of unemployment checks issued was more than four times greater than the number issued in August, 1953, the labor letter showed. The total in August of last year was 461.

SECOND CALL

You might think that we are the talking people on the telephone. But the statistics show that the Canadians are, with 388 phone calls per inhabitant per year, as compared with our 383 p.p.y. Strangely enough, Iceland is third, with 360.

State Hospital To Request 20% Added Appropriation

The Delaware State Hospital at Farmhurst will need better than a 20 per cent increase in appropriations and 37 additional staff members to bring it to the minimum standards of the American Psychiatric Association during the next two fiscal years, according to the proposed budget for 1956-57.

The hospital will ask the 1955 General Assembly for $1,753,000 in fiscal 1956, and $1,805,000 the following year, as against current appropriations of $1,377,000.

A substantial part of the requested increase is based on the hospital's request for five more psychiatrists, five more occupational therapists, and 27 more graduate nurses.

Goldie-Beacon Business School Begins Fall Term

The fall term of the Goldie Beacon School of Business began Monday with a capacity enrollment. Dr. Jay W. Miller, president of the school, announced.

Included in the group are 100 veterans studying under the Korean Educational Act which provides educational benefits for persons who have served in the Armed Forces since June, 1950. About 20 disabled veterans will also be in attendance. The student body represents 10 states, three foreign countries, and more than 100 high schools and colleges.

Supplemental Days For Registrations To End Sept. 22d

September's supplemental registration period with voters adding their names to the voting lists in the Wilmington Public Building, Tenth and King Streets, will continue until Sept. 22, the last supplemental registration period before the Nov. 2 election.

All voters not registered under the state's new four-year registration law must do so to be eligible to vote in November.

Staff members of the New Castle County Department of Elections will be on duty in the Public Building from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday.

There will be two regular registration days in voting districts on Oct. 2 and Oct. 16.

Auto Inspections Lag As Deadline Of Sept. 30 Nears

Only 11.6% Of 36,763
Registered Vehicles
Report For Inspection

Only 11.6 per cent of the 36,763 motor vehicles with Delaware registration expiring Sept. 30, had been inspected by the first of this month.

As of Sept. 1, only 4,291 had been inspected, leaving 32,472 to be inspected in September. Of the expiring licenses, 21,398 are in New Castle County, 7,966 in Kent and 7,409 in Sussex. Motor Vehicle Commissioner Harvey Spicer pointed out that there will be a jam at the inspection lanes at the end of this month. "Owners of these vehicles have had since July 1 to have their vehicles inspected," commented Mr. Spicer, "but during July and August not many of them took advantage of the opportunity."

On Saturday, Sept. 11 and 25, the inspection lanes will be open from 8:30 a.m. to noon. However, the commissioner stated, nothing can be done now to prevent the jam that is sure to occur the final days of this month.

Religious Census Reveals 700 Plan To Attend Church

Kingswood-of-Brookside
Methodist Church Pastor
Announces Survey Result

According to religious census, sponsored by the Kingswood-of-Brookside Methodist Church, 700 men, women, and children in Brookside intend to participate in the life of the new suburban church.

Returns from the religious census to date reveal that 150 adults intend to become charter members of the church on Charter Membership Sunday, Oct. 3. The Rev. Milton H. Keene believes that this figure will approach 200 when all of the census cards have been tabulated.

In addition to those who intend to become charter members in October, 200 adults have indicated their intention to attend services at the church, to unite as members at a later date.

The children of both groups who will participate in the church program number 350. These facts, according to Mr. Keene, confirm the conviction of Dr. John Link and himself that a large building will be needed to accommodate the people.

While building plans have not been completed, ground will be broken for the new suburban edifice sometime this fall, Mr. Keene said.

FOR THE GOOD HARVEST

American industry is sowing today for a promising harvest of jobs and production in the years to come. As it sows, to be sure, so shall it reap.

The sowing consists of the millions of dollars it must spend for research, expansion, new plants and equipment. The fertile ground is an American economy which must support a 200 million population by 1975.

If a trend toward ever bigger and bigger government is not permanently reversed, the sowing for tomorrow will be meager indeed. The Administration has made a start toward bringing Government Back Home, thus reducing its size federally.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Unarmed Officer Subdues Assailant

Special County Police Officer Walter Hamilton arrested a 19-year-old Newark youth for driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, and resisting an officer, after a long chase which culminated in a fight. The unarmed officer chased the youth and his three companions from the intersection of the Lancaster and Baltimore pikes, to Hockessin where he caught up with the fleeing machine and forced it over to the side of the road.

The driver jumped out of his machine and attacked the policeman, but despite interference by the youth's companions, he was arrested and sentenced to 90 days in jail and a fine of $300.

Record Enrollment

Newark school enrollment reached a record high of 1103 at the beginning of the week. An additional third grade teacher, Miss Doris Erdman was engaged to assist with the 98 children in the third grade classes.

Captain Frank Mayer is at full-back; Rip Smith at quarter; and Barrow and McCully, at halves.

Among the candidates reporting are Oscar Morris and Vincent Mayer, both former Newark High School football stars. Morris, a sophomore, was in last year's line-up and seems sure of being in the first string backfield. Mayer, a freshman, has impressed Coach Ziegler as a prospective end.

U. of D. Freshmen (Continued from Page 1)

The increased enrollment, however, will not pass the record 2,217 students set in 1949.

Letter To Parents A letter to parents of students from John E. Hocutt, dean of students, discloses that the university will operate its two dining halls as cafeteria this year because of the growing number of boarders.

Dean Hocutt told the parents that plans are being drawn for a $738,000 dining hall at the corner of Delaware and South Colleges Avenues. The new building, he said, will be designed to feed 1,200 students in cafeteria fashion.

The letter also discusses the university's dormitory and parking problems, and asks for parental cooperation in impressing students with a sense of responsibility toward their work and the university's rules.

Parking Problem Reviewing the parking problem, Dean Hocutt pointed to the new university regulation which prohibits freshmen (other than commuter students) from "storing, maintaining or operating a motor vehicle in Newark while in attendance at the university during 1954-55." The regulation also requires all upperclassmen to register their cars, and limits use of university parking areas during daytime to cars owned by commuter students, faculty, staff personnel, and campus visitors.

Dean Hocutt wrote that the university has the services of a health staff, including a resident physician, a consulting psychiatrist, a physiotherapist, and four nurses.

"In the near future," he added, "we hope to facilitate further the medical care of students by the addition of an 18-20 bed infirmary, with additional examination rooms and laboratories."

The dean also reviewed the ban on fireworks and alcoholic beverages at the university, and asked for cooperation of parents in impressing on students "the importance of day-to-day study, and the desirability of using opportunities offered students for consultation with their instructors, faculty, advisers, school deans, and counseling personnel in the office of the dean of students."

BEAR 4-H CLUB HELD MEETING SEPT. 9

Camp songs and stories, as well as other vacation experiences, were discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the Bear 4-H club on Wednesday evening, September 8, in the home of Skippy and Joan Mowll, Bear. Plans for an October Masquerade Party and Square Dance were also begun.

Three members of the club attended 4-H camp this summer, while another attended national 4-H camp. Sammy Bowser, who was a member of the Seneca tribe, Bill Walther, a member of the Cherokee, and Anita Fox, of the champion Delaware tribe had great fun exchanging happy memories and new ideas with each other and the other club members present. Milmo Ann Clark, who attended the national 4-H camp, was not present to share her experiences.

President Bill Walther gave a report on the recent Junior Council meeting. The Bear club has been asked to contribute a pie or six cupcakes and two loaves of bread to the Jr. Council booth at the county fair, to be held on September 23 in Newark. Carol Sweetman volunteered the pie or six cupcakes and Sammy Bowser and Joan Mowll volunteered a loaf of bread apiece.

Club leader, Sylvia Walther, said that club parties had been excellent. Six completed for scholarships to 4-H camp or short course in 1955, and five were successful. Betty Moore and David Moore both received trophies in the egg-judging contest, where Betty received first prize and David received second.

Anita Fox received hers in the baking dept., Jimmy Moore in the poultry division, and Sammy Bowser through the home economics. The club has won seven first prizes. Anita Fox received two, and Dickie Gardiner, Milmo Fox, Carol Sweetman, Bill Walther, and Sammy Bowser received one apiece.

In the treasurer's report, Wilbur Gregory reported that there is $61.56 in the treasury.

Newark High Jayvee Gridders Practice, Play In Own Class

Coaches Dick Rhodes, Charlie Griffith, Conduct Daily Sessions With 28 Junior Varsity Athletes; Competition Limited To Games, Practice With Comparable Age Groups

While the Newark High School varsity football squad is seeking another scrimmage opponent after last week's successful, preliminary skirmish at the expense of the visiting Bel Air gridders, 28 junior high boys, including some sophomore candidates, are working out daily with Jayvee coaches Dick Rhodes and Charlie Griffith in preparation for varsity berths in the years to come.

The Newark Jayvee squad will not play a formal schedule. Head Coach Raymond "Scotty" Duncan has announced, and any inter-scholastic competition will be limited to boys in a comparable age group. Scrimmage sessions are restricted to varsity vs. varsity candidates, with the younger Jayvee squad members waging their own wars of like-to-like under the tutelage of the Jayvee coaching staff.

Tentative Test
The Yellowjacket Jayvees are tentatively slated to meet the Mt. Pleasant junior varsity eleven on Oct. 11, on the Green Knights' gridiron.

This year, the Jayvees will not be in uniform nor on the field during the Yellowjacket games, Coach Duncan stated.

Jayvee gridders who have impressed the coaches with their performance in early practice sessions include Fullback Wilson Cooper; Bobby Downes, alternating at the quarterback and halfback posts; Clark Weber, quarterback; and halfbacks Phil Schuyler, Carl Butterworth, Joe Marvel, and Ernie Congo.

Other backfield athletes who are making strong bids for future varsity service include Jack Gordon, Bill Chalmers, Fred Borcherdt, Bob Hoyer, and Calvin Weber.

Up front in the Jayvee line are candidates for ends in John Talucci, Dick Pyle, Mike McCully, Tom Hogshead, Frank Jozyk, Melvin Ludlow, and John Field, while Carlton Jackson, Charles Fisher, and Joe McNair have been turning in top tackle tasks.

Operating from the unsung guard slots are Fletcher Truitt, Danny Belasotto, and Clem Fowler, with anormen at center consisting of Marshall Wilson, Oris Davis, and Barney Field.

In varsity drill, Coach Duncan has had John Miller alternately playing at left guard and fullback, while Lee Schaffer, alternate halfback, has been operating from the right and left halfback posts without record duty.

Movies of the recent varsity excursion at Camp Tockwagh are to be released in the near future for entertainment and interest of community residents in an effort to stimulate the sale of high school football season tickets.

The Yellowjackets open with the Elkon eleven at home on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 25, at 2 p.m.

Dave Hurn Bids For Duke Duty At End With Murray

Sophomore Dave Hurn, former Newark High School athlete, has been playing one of the starting end positions for Coach Bill Murray's Duke Blue Devil grid squad in Durham, N.C.

Of Murray's 10 candidates for the end posts, only three have seen game action and five of the ten are sophomores.

In a recent scrimmage session, Hurn turned in a favorable performance as an end on the first string squad.

With only about a week remaining until the Fighting Blue Hens of the University of Delaware meet their foes from West Chester, the college squad is still undergoing drills before the critical eye of head football coach Dave Nelson. The two weeks since the beginning of fall drills have seen definite changes in the team that will represent Delaware on the gridiron this fall.

Viewing the lack of depth in the Blue Hen line with alarm, Coach Nelson instituted a series of position changes. Five of the most promising sophomores, Jerry Weiss and Ed Sakuaki, were shifted from tackle to guard. Ed Malinowski, former sophomore end, now occupies a tackle position along with former center Jim Shelton and last year's freshman guard, Tommy Thomas. Carmen Cella was drafted from the Hens' crowded backfield to supplement the Delaware end corps. And sophomore John Oberer took his position as fullback instead of halfback in the wing-T.

Reserve Problem
Thus the problem of reserves seems to have been solved, at least for the time being. The task of finding is another matter indeed. The graduation of John Borresen, '33 Blue Hen captain who handled 35 of the 41 punts last season, left the Delaware team without an educated punter.

Bob Hooper, Carmen Cella, Marty Apostolico, and Vince Grande have been the leading prospects in this field so far. The difficulty lies in getting a first class punter on the first team. And around we go again.

Offensively speaking, the University of Delaware team appears to be in top form. Alternating white-shirted teams collected a total of seven touchdowns in 18 minutes of playing time during the brief scrimmage on Monday. Coach Nelson has backed who can pass with machine-like precision, break through opponents' lines, and outrun and outdodge opposing tacklers.

Defensively speaking, the Delaware head coach is in a less ideal position. Most of the work thus far has been concerned with offensive teamwork, new plays, passing, and the threat associated with the name of coach Glenn Gillinger still persists.

Sports Scribes Pick Hens For Banner Grid Campaign
Pre-season predictions by the nation's leading sportswriters indicate a top season for the University of Delaware's 1954 football team. Foremost among the predictions was a team breakthrough in Street and Smith's "Football" by Jesse Abramson, New York Herald Tribune sports reporter. This list placed Delaware eleventh among eastern independents.

Stanley Woodward's "Football" stated that "Delaware is considered the likely champions of the mythical Middle Six. . . Coach Dave Nelson, the old Michigan player who is beginning his fourth year at Delaware, has a top quarterback to make his wing-T offense work."

Miller was also mentioned in his football preview remarked, "The Fighting Blue Hens of Delaware will again be spurred by Don Miller, a potential Little All-American quarterback."

Newark's Ollie Williams, back on the local scene after a tour of Alabama duty with the Army, has found Delaware bass fishing more than a shade on the less interesting side after his experience with the big Bama bass who do their heavy feeding on a 12 months basis.

Ollie recently traveled down to the canal country around Chesapeake City and reports the canal-bank fishermen doing a roaring business with big channel catfish. And one good croaker had been caught far off base by one of the anglers.

Henri Dorsman, out of fishing circulation because of the trials and tribulations of establishing a new business in Newark, fondly recalls the halcyon days out of St. Pete, Fla., where the spotted weakfish or sea trout, blues, ladyfish, jacks, and spanish mackerel made things interesting for the fly caster, spinner, and plunger over the tidal grass-banks between the West Coast mainland and the chain of islets in the Gulf.

Successful Season Will Rank Nelson Among Hens' Best

Delaware Coach Compiles Winning Average Of .667 At Beginning Of 4th Term

A successful season for the 1954 Delaware football team will rank head Coach Dave M. Nelson among the top coaches in the university's football history. As he enters his fourth season as coach of the Delaware varsity, Nelson sports a winning average of .667. This figure places him third in the list of Delaware coaches, being surpassed only by Coach Glenn Kilgler of West Chester and Coach John Yovicsin of Gettysburg.

In Nelson's three seasons at Delaware, the Hens have scored on every opponent, and have won their best season, percentage-wise, since the undefeated and untied fall of 1946.

Teammate of '94
Nelson's gridiron talents were developed at the University of Michigan where the fleet 150 pound back posted a rushing average of 6.31 yards per carry, top average for the team, in his senior year. As a member of the Wolverine squad, Nelson was a teammate of the spectacular Tommy Harmon.

Nelson received high recommendation for his baseball skills in college and in service. Mickey Cochran, coach of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station team, rated him as a very good prospect for major league baseball. Nelson's tie with Hoot Evers for the Big Ten record of the most runs in one season still stands.

Following his graduation from the University of Michigan, Nelson served for 41 months in the Navy. His participation in major Pacific campaigns earned him three battle stars and the nickname, "The Admiral," which still persists.

After service Nelson received his master's degree while serving as freshman baseball coach at the University of Michigan. He later was appointed director of athletics and head football coach at Hillsdale College. Successive positions consisted of backfield coach at Harvard University and head football coach at the University of Maine.

All signs point to a team in top form by Sept. 25, the season's opener. West Chester's Rams will be minus several members of last year's starting backfield; however, the threat associated with the name of coach Glenn Gillinger still persists.

POSTED

A number of customers seeking "No Hunting" signs at the Newark Post marked preparations for the squirrel season that opened yesterday, and as Delaware gunners took to the tall timber for their initial rounds with the nutcracker set, a still heavy stand of foliage tossing around in a breeze of some magnitude added and abetted the chances for the bushy-tailed tree-dwellers.

Sunday, in a preliminary scouting expedition, a number of scattered doves were observed rocketing over the cornfields of a farm near Port Penn, but a sortie into the neighboring woods revealed nothing more than a horde of hungry mosquitoes and a luxuriant stand of greenbrier.

Too Early?
It was a bit early in the afternoon for squirrels to be on the move, but it was early for mosquitoes, too.

There were fresh cuttings at the bases of the hickories and along with Axel Anderson, who suffered through the insect plague for too long a time while a pair of hunting beagles worked musically over the trail of a cagy old swamp rabbit that took them around and around through the marshy, impenetrable thicket in the hollow below.

Squirrels and rabbit failed to show, and we left the woods to the mosquitoes who should have been sated with gamma globulin and insect repellent.

Little League Boys Feted At Banquet Here Monday Night

Chrysler Tigers, V.F.W. Phils Awarded Trophies As '54 Pennant Winners

The annual Newark Little League baseball banquet was held Monday night at the Masonic Hall and some 130 Little League players, sponsors, managers, and guests attended the turkey supper and witnessed the presentation of special awards.

Each Little League player received a special Newark Little League T-shirt, and members of the All-Star squads received shirts with a special star.

Guests and league officials were introduced by Jack Sheldon, master of ceremonies, and special autographed baseballs were awarded to Luke Lackman for his record homer in the All-Star game; to J. Dickerson for a no-hit, no-run pitching performance; to Henry Coursey for the first home run of the season; and to Jimmy Cairns, star of the 1953 season.

Little Leaguers Tim Burns, Robert Hart, and Jimmy Murphy won prize drawings of a wrist watch presented by Otis Greger, a half-gallon of ice cream offered by Ralph Colbert, and a haircut provided by Ralph Berchardt.

Pennant-winning trophies were presented to Manager Van Leeuwen, for the National Little League Tigers and to the American League Phils' Manager Bill Morgan.

Umpires Ernie George, J. Saunders, J. Colbert, and S. Stephani received an ovation for their efforts during the season.

Robin Roberts, involved in a night game, was unable to be present as the featured guest of the evening.

Hens Equipped With Pads Designed By Jim Sullivan

Many Delaware football players will be equipped with special shoulder pads designed by the freshman football coach and equipment supervisor, Jim Sullivan.

The revolutionary pads have been issued to 30 players. Fifteen additional pairs were secured this season following a complete absence of shoulder injuries among wearers last year.

Working closely with the MacGregor Sporting Goods Company, Sullivan arrived at the present model—an incorporation of his idea with the standard MacGregor pad.

Playing in the Philadelphia District PGA Open Golf Tournament, at Torresdale-Frankford on Monday, Newark Country Club's golf pro Joe Aneda carded a morning round of 66 and an afternoon tour of 82 for a total 148, some 20 strokes off the pace.

The course was especially rough because of the high grass and recent rains, and many of the professional competitors failed to compete for the second round.

September's hurricane weather has little enhanced what has been a mediocre season in the surf, but if Hurricane Florence proves to be the end of the windy alphabet, Delaware surfmen, bay fishermen and the offshore trollers can look for the best of the year in the way of salt water sport on into October.

Blues and trout should be in the white water off the beaches, and outside in the big blue, bonito, albacore, bluefish, and dolphin should provide the trollers with something bordering on the southern Gulf Stream fishing. One leads absent Norman Wilder, chief of the Delaware Game and Fish Commission's Conservation Division has announced the realization of a long-desired Wilder dream for the common man—the establishment of a public duck shooting area in the wider vicinity of Woodland Beach.

Some 2,000 acres of tidal marshland have been set aside for you, for him, for me, and for all other Delaware duck hunters who like to shoot at wildfowl but may not know where to go.

When the season opens we can go to the public area at Woodland Beach where the trespass law, at least, has been removed from the multitudinous list of legalities concerned with all waterfowling.

Len Fossett, Mrs. Ott Win Scotch Foursome Special Sunday Event

In the first round of the E. B. Wright Memorial Tournament at the Newark Country Club, Paul McDermott defeated Wes Barrows, Jr. 2 and 1; Jim Tyler stopped Jack Sheldon 6 and 5; Frank Wright beat Wilmer Dill 2 and 1; and Tom Blanton won over Joe Uhl through default.

Bill Hamilton eliminated Gall Lamb 1 up; Tom Skripps won by default from George Horn; P. J.quette and Stan Gibbs won by default from Ray Halsey and Joe Julian; while Hugh Gallagher stopped Ralph Madden 5 and 4.

Al Dollins defeated Bernie Doodan 4 and 2; Dick Bauer eliminated State Junior Golf Champion Natty Young, 2 up; Tony Pacello stopped Tip O'Leary 3 and 2; and Bob Stewer finally edged Joe Brunanski, 1 up on the 19th hole.

Doug McMinn defeated Sank Richards 2 and 1; Harvey Ewing won over Henry Wolf 2 and 1; and Ray Ott beat Ollie White 4 and 3.

Len Fossett and Dorothy Ott won Sunday's Scotch Foursome with an 83-11-72, as Dorothy Stiegler and Joe Aneda checked into second place with an 80-7-73.

The second place team lost the event by sinking a 10-ft. putt, believe that or not, Jack Becker related. An 81 instead of the 80 gross would have provided the Aneda-Stiegler team with a 10 instead of a 7 handicap for a winning net 71.

State 4-H Clubs Join In Highway Safety Campaign

Reflective Equipment
Being Issued For Farm
Vehicles' Night Travel

4-Hers throughout Delaware are issuing reflective materials to be used on farm equipment for visibility at night. This project is known as "The Lite Farm Equipment" campaign and is designed to decrease highway accidents.

The material has been distributed to local 4-H leaders and is being sold by club members.

During the annual 4-H leaders camp held at Camp Barnes in August, a group of leaders discussed ways and means of promoting the Lite Farm Equipment campaign. Some of the most important ways were as follows: conduct educational programs at community nights and Grange and Farm Bureau meetings; news releases, radio programs, posters, and samples available for inspection.

A typical comment at the meeting was made by Daniel Harris, a local 4-H leader and farmer of New Castle County who said, "The program is a community responsibility. Each community must determine the best ways of carrying out the campaign."

This campaign has been approved and highly recommended by the Delaware Safety Council and the National Safety Council.

County 4H Council Conducts Meeting For Fair Program

The first fall meeting of the New Castle County 4-H Junior Council was held recently in the University of Delaware agriculture building with President James Derriksen in charge.

Final plans for the annual county achievement fair, to be held on the grounds of the university's experimental farm, on Saturday, Sept. 25, were made.

The council unanimously decided to again sponsor the lunch stand located on the fair grounds, and each club having membership in the council was asked to appoint two members for duty in the lunch stand. Various articles of food were assigned each club for delivery on the day of the fair.

Maurice B. Field, county agent, announced that the county land judging contest will be conducted at this year's fair. Prizes of $10, $8, and $5 will be awarded to the entries placing first, second, and third, respectively, in each the team and individual classes.

Rev. R. H. Smith

"Know Thyself"

Your inner thoughts determine your character. You are what you think. Think evil, and your character is evil. Think pure thoughts, and your character is good. Like a mirror, your thoughts reflect your true self.

In his magnificent character of Christianity, the Sermon on the Mount, the Lord analyzed man's character by exposing his inner meditations. Said Christ, "If a man hates his brother, he is a murderer. If a man lusts after his neighbor's wife, he is an adulterer."

Outward shows of goodness are possible, but man discovers constantly that he is no better than his thoughts. Man never realizes a fully satisfied life if goodness is but a veneer. Trying to do good without actually being good frequently produces frustration which robs man of inner peace and rest.

Heart Troubles
Thus, the world today knows an overabundance of persons who suffer with heart trouble. No, not an organic disease, but a spiritual illness. The natural condition of man's heart is selfish, evil. Suffering with the disease of an evil heart, man finds no difficulty in loving himself. Meanwhile, he discovers that an outward show of goodness fails to help him love his neighbor as himself. He puts up a bold front, but the spirit of hatred in his heart thunders the truth that he is a defeated, dissatisfied man.

The conflicts, tensions, and inner turmoil resulting from this evil-heart condition lead men in a merry-go-round existence of frustration.

Inner Good

Therefore, always to enjoy doing good demands a good man, a man whose heart is good spiritually. If the source of a fountain is pure, its waters will be pure. Likewise, if a man's heart has been cleansed, his outward life will reveal this inner purity. Veneer goodness, acquired through formal education, culture, and like means, has only the strength of a broken reed in supporting the one who must return good for evil. But happy and contented is the person who knows the inner reality of a clean heart through divine grace and power.

The inner and outer life are in harmony. A spirit of love possesses his heart. Loving his neighbor as himself he no longer follows the pattern of mere outward show. His outward acts of goodness are not forced to maintain respectability. This man's character is pure; hence, the flow of outer actions are motivated by true, inner goodness.

"Know thyself." There is no satisfaction in deceiving yourself.

Extension Division Schedules Special Classes In Speech

A number of courses of particular interest have been scheduled during the first term of University of Delaware Extension by the Department of Dramatic Arts and Speech.

In addition to the public speaking course for Korean veterans which began Aug. 18, another section will open on Tuesday, Sept. 21, in Wilmington High School under the direction of Dr. C. Robert Kase, chairman of the department. Designed to meet the needs of business and professional people, teachers and executives, this course develops the speaker for work with various sizes of groups and for differing speech situations.

"Discussion," another course of particular interest, will be taught by Dr. Ray E. Keesey. This course has become a popular one in most universities and is being used by many industrial and business concerns as a part of in-service training programs.

The first meeting will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 22, in Wilmington. Other speech courses are "Hearing Impairment in Children" which will be offered on Tuesdays at the Delaware Hospital in Wilmington beginning Sept. 22, and "Introduction to Speech Correction" beginning in Seaford on the same evening.

Local Student Among Top 12 In W&L Name Contest

Lexington, Va., Sept. 15 — Charles S. Perry, Washington and Lee University freshman from Newark, was among the top 12 of 200 new students who took part in the annual "name contest" held at the university's 23rd freshman camp session at nearby Natural Bridge.

Perry, correctly identified 82 of 200 freshmen in the contest held at the close of the three-day outing which precedes registration week. Campers were prominent name tags during the camp period. The contest helps promote the theme of the camp—getting to know classmates and learning of Washington and Lee traditions and institutions.

Red Feather

"I'm pleased with the way things are shaping up generally," he commented after hearing the reports, "and feel that with hard work and proper enthusiasm at all levels of the organization this ought to be the best year ever reported for Newark. Certainly, with Brookside and Chestnut Hill Estates important factors for the first time, Region X should top all previous returns."

A general outline of the campaign, its organization, and goals, was presented by Ben Knepper, assistant director of the United Community Fund of Northern Delaware. He emphasized the fact that Newark is now receiving direct services from two Red Feather agencies, the Newark Recreation Association and the YMCA.

Mr. Hardy announced that the University of Delaware has been made a unit of Region X this year, having previously been included in the section for schools covering all of northern Delaware. Dr. Carl J. Rees, chairman of the schools section, commented briefly on the change.

Additional residential district chairmen were named by Bettina

Other members of the committee are John Hamilton of Bear, Del., and Mrs. William Folwell of Newark.

The contest is open to amateurs who are members of the immediate families of all farm people and all Southern States patrons. Employees of cooperative service agencies and Sargeant, vice-chairman. They are Mrs. Albert Pretko, 50 Prospect Avenue, District II, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Jones, Townsend and Winslow Roads, District V. These appointments complete the roster of chairmen for the residential districts.

Officials of the 1954-1955 Red Feather campaign for northern Delaware have selected one day—Wednesday, Oct. 13—as the day on which a concentrated effort will be made to raise the bulk of the $1,192,250 goal set for this year's drive. Results of the one-day solicitation will enable campaign officials to determine how much longer the Red Feather solicitation will continue.
