

MERCHANTS TO SPONSOR FALL 2-DAY SALE EVENT

Newark Calling Days Slated To Promote Local Trade

More than fifty local retail merchants are cooperating to sponsor the "Newark Calling" sales days here on August 6 and 7 in conjunction with the two-week radio show also being broadcast by this group daily over station WTTX.

Each merchant is to be assigned a certain section in a closely coordinated plan. These merchants are working together to promote local trade and to give the community a shopping day. Their radio program attracts attention and interest in the daily prices and pyramiding of the hold inducements for the annual sale. The quiz contest aired each week on page circulars and a special section in this newspaper will be held weekly after next will officially announce the sale dates and announce the various values offered by individual merchants. Virtually all retail merchandisers in town are expected to bring shoppers of the Newark trade area seasonal values that will mean great summer savings on many items from the smallest novelty to the largest piece of home furniture.

After the radio program, "Newark Calling" the two-day sales event will stress the theme "Make It Habit to Trade in Newark" with each of the fifty-two merchants participating endeavoring to make it profitable and pleasant for residents to keep their money at home.

Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and being promoted by a subcommittee of that organization, this is the first to be staged locally in several years and bids fair to crown the committee's efforts with success at this point of view.

HORSE SHOW NETS $400 FOR CANCER SOCIETY

Mrs. T. D. Mylrea Accepts Check Presented By Col. Ashbridge

A check for $400 has been presented by Col. Donald Ashbridge, chairman, Newark Horse Show Association, to the Delaware Division, American Cancer Society. It was announced here yesterday.

The check represents the proceeds of the fourth annual Newark Horse Show held May 22 at the Homeward Driving Park on the Newark estate of Samuel Dameron, for the benefit of the Delaware Cancer Society. Colonel Ashbridge presented the check to Mrs. Thomas D. Mylrea, the Cancer Society's state field army commander.

"All those who worked to make the Newark Horse Show the great success it was are to be congratulated heartily," Mrs. Mylrea said in accepting the check. "Proceeds this year were considerably larger than last, and the Cancer Society is deeply appreciative."

The check for $400 swells the 1948 cancer fund to $67,859. Mrs. Thomas B. Young, executive secretary said—over $5,500 more than was contributed by the people of Delaware last year, and $16,559 above the state's quota of $51,300.

A portion of the funds, Mrs. Mylrea pointed out, is set aside for the maintenance of the state's Cancer Detection Centers which already are saving lives through the early discovery and prompt treatment of cancer.

"In some cases," Mrs. Mylrea said, "symptoms of cancer have been found in women who believed themselves to be entirely well. These women have been most grateful that the symptoms of cancer were found early enough that prompt treatment, and almost certain cure, could be effected."

Cancer Detection Centers have been established at the four general hospitals in Wilmington, and one at the Health Center in Georgetown.

All afford free, specialized examinations for cancer to women of 40 and over, from all over the state. Appointments may be made by phoning Wilmington 2-4118, or Georgetown 162.

ROTARIANS ON PICNIC

Outing Enjoyed At Mayer's Farm

Members of the Newark Rotary Club, their wives and families, enjoyed one of the most delightful affairs of the summer season, Monday night, when they gathered at the farm of Vincent L. Mayers, on Elkton Road, for their annual outdoor meeting.

About fifty were in attendance. Ernie Hausman and T. R. Silk presided over the outside grill and dispensed tasty hot dogs and hamburgers to the hungry picnickers following which they engaged in pitching horse shoes with Vincent Mayers and Ken Steers emerging as champions.

The meeting was entirely social with no business session being conducted. Rotarians will revert to regular procedure next Monday evening when their regular meeting will be held at the Chimes Restaurant.

Recently installed President Kennet Steers will preside over the meeting. H. Wilson Price is program chairman for the occasion.

MOTHER IS FOUND DEAD IN BED BY 3-YEAR-OLD

Mrs. Tina Smith's Remains Sent To W. Virginia For Funeral

The remains of Mrs. Tina Smith, of George Read Village, were shipped to Prince, W. Va., yesterday by Funeral Director R. T. Jones, the home of her parents where funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will follow in the Sunset Memorial Park Cemetery at nearby Beckley, W. Va.

The death of the twenty-three-year old mother of two children was discovered by neighbors at 11:30 Sunday morning upon investigation of three-and-a-half-year-old Frances Lee Smith's story that her mommy wouldn't talk to her.

Mrs. Joseph Murphy, the next door neighbor to whom the child ran sobbing for an explanation of her mother's quietness, went with the child to the Smith home and discovered the deceased lying in bed where she had been dead for several hours.

Mrs. Murphy notified Newark Police who in turn notified Coroner James F. Hearn who said that the cause of Mrs. Smith's death had not been determined but that an autopsy would be performed. He said she had been under a physician's care but was last seen about 8 o'clock Saturday evening and did not appear seriously ill.

Mrs. Smith was also the mother of a five-month-old son, Elbert Lee Smith, Jr. Her husband, Elbert Lee Smith, Sr., arrived here Monday from the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, where he is stationed. He was notified of his wife's death through the Red Cross.

BEGINNERS REGISTER FOR SCHOOL AUG. 23-27

Pre-School Registration And Medical Plans Stated

Registration of primary students who have not before attended school at the Newark Public Schools will be held during the week of August 23 between the hours of 9 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 3 p. m., other hours by special appointment only.

All beginners not registered previously and students entering school in Newark from another school must register during this period. Beginners must be six years of age or older before December 31, 1948. Any child born after December 31, 1942, is not eligible to enter school this year.

Beginners who did not go through the pre-school clinic held at the school last May, should first register at the school office and obtain the proper forms for a follow-up medical examination by their local doctor.

No registrations will be taken on the opening day of school.

Students will report for school at 8:30 a. m., September 9. Half day sessions (from 8:30 to 12:30) will be held September 9 and 10 with full sessions beginning on September 13. Bus children in grades from one through six should either bring their lunch or arrange to buy it in the school cafeteria on September 9 and 10.

MEMORIAL FUND PLANS PROGRESSING

District Workers To Be Named At Meeting Monday

Claude Galyen and Ernest Turk, co-chairmen of the War Memorial Fund presented to their committee, at a meeting Monday evening, a town map divided into districts, for discussion and allocation of districts to soliciting organizations.

Appointment of workers to individual districts will be the major part of the program for next Monday evening preparatory to launching the actual campaign on Monday, August 2, with complete coverage of Newark as its goal.

"Doorbells and knockers will be sounded on every front door in Newark before the drive is finished. We'll go to the back door also if it becomes necessary," one member of the committee stated.

The committee is well pleased with the result so far and feel that the advance contributions are any indication of town feeling there is no doubt of the success of the campaign.

Individuals or organizations desiring to make a contribution may do so by mailing their check to Newark War Memorial, Inc., 92 East Main Street. Already more than twenty-five contributions have been received.

YOUTH MAY ENLIST NOW 18-Year-Olds Are Draft Bait At 19

Eighteen-year-olds who want to avoid being drafted next year can start volunteering in the armed forces as of Wednesday, July 21.

The date was set by Secretary of Defense Forrestal.

Under the draft law, all young men 18 through 25 must register, but none can be drafted until reaching the age of 19.

However, 18-year-olds become draft-subject on their 19th birthday—unless they're already in service for a special one-year hitch, followed by a longer period in the reserves.

The new law limits the annual total of these enlistments to: Army 110,000; Navy 36,000, including 6,000 Marines; Air Force 15,000. For the first four weeks after July 21, the Army will accept 10,000 men; Navy-Marines, 3,000; Air Force, 1,300.

Buddy Cataldi Joins Utica Infield Service

Dominic (Buddy) Cataldi, 20-year-old Newark all-around athlete, reported to Utica of the Class A Eastern League for infield duty after signing a contract with the parent Phillies. Cataldi attended the recent baseball try-out camp at Wilmington Park and impressed Scout Cy Morgan with his work at shortstop.

Cataldi, 6 feet, 2 inches and 190 pounds, graduated from Fork Union Military Academy in Virginia last month after starting in baseball, basketball and football. He captained the basketball team and was co-captain in baseball. He had been playing this season with Delaware Legion Post No. 1 of Wilmington in the Semi-Pro League. "Buddy," as Cataldi is known to his friends, is the son of Angelo Cataldi, North Street. He formerly attended Newark High School where he also participated in sports.

GALLAHER RENAMED TO NEWARK SCHOOL BD.

Jos. McVey, W. F. Wilson Re-Elected At Meeting

The reappointment of Robert S. Gallaher as a member of the Newark Special District Board of Education was announced at a meeting of the Board held in the Newark High School last Friday evening.

Other business conducted at the meeting included the reelection and reorganization of the Board. Joseph M. McVey was reelected president, and Wilmer E. Shue, by virtue of his position as Superintendent of Schools was named Secretary of the Board.

Little other actual business was conducted at the meeting which was largely devoted to a general discussion of budget requirements and how best they may be met during the coming school year.

An innovation in local school administration next year will be the contemplated formation of a Community Advisory Committee made up of parents. The purpose of which would be for representative parents to meet and discuss with teachers those problems affecting the students in an effort to cement closer school and home relations.

Another new idea which will likely be put into effect will be the notification of parents between marking periods when students are making failing grades. This would be an advantageous addition to the present system as it would offer every opportunity for students making failing grades to improve them before the end of any marking period.

AETNA WINS IN PARADE

Gets New Castle Appearance Award

The Aetna, Hose, Hook and Ladder Company of Newark, one of 30 units from four states in a firemen's parade at New Castle, last Friday night, won the judges' votes as having the best appearance.

The event, which attracted some 5,000 spectators along Delaware Street and down to Battery Park on the Delaware River, was sponsored by New Castle's Goodwill Company. Runner-up for appearance honors was Harrington, which traveled the greatest distance for the march.

Special mention for appearance was accorded to the Citizens' Hose Company of Smyrna, the Union Fire Company of Oxford, Pa., Singlerly of Elkton, and the Salem, N. J., volunteers.

An unscheduled event occurred at the close of the program. Word came that a Trans World Airline DC-4 plane was in trouble over New Castle County Airport.

Three units—Elsmere, Minquale, and Oxford—rushed equipment to the airport but found their services weren't needed.

PROPOSED ORDINANCE ADVERSE TO MERCHANTS

Final Reading And Passage Scheduled For August 2

A proposed ordinance to reestablish the Main Street building line eighteen feet back from the curb, which has reportedly been given its unpublished first and second readings, is arousing considerable interest and indignation not only among the affected merchants but most of the citizenry as well.

The last and final reading of this proposed ordinance is scheduled to be given at the next meeting of the Town Council which will be on Monday evening, August 2. Undoubtedly quite a delegation will be on hand to register their objections to its passage.

Further evidence that this proposed ordinance is attracting more than usual attention is a letter recently circulated by the Chamber of Commerce urging all residents to attend a meeting in the old Legion Room of Academy Building at 7:30 p. m., Thursday.

The present building line on Main Street, it is understood, is twelve feet. Present buildings would not be required to move back, as the proposed ordinance is interpreted, but it is understood that Council would withhold granting any future building permits for remodeling Main Street stores unless compliance of the proposed 18-foot building was adhered to which, as we understand it, would mean that a Main Street merchant could not modernize his store front without cutting off six feet of its space.

Obviously such an ordinance would work undue hardship on a great number of merchants and Main Street property owners may yet join together in voicing sufficient protest to prevent its final reading and passage by Council.

HERE'S WHAT BECOMES OF GRADUATES

Ninety-One Out Of Ninety-Five Accounted For

An interesting survey of the occupational whereabouts of members of the 1948 graduating class at the Newark High School, conducted by F. B. Kutz, is revealed in the following tabulation:

The senior class, boasting of 95 graduates, was the largest in the history of the Newark High School. Mr. Kutz' figures show that thirty-six members will attend the University of Delaware in September; eight will attend other institutions of learning, with five of them enrolling in business colleges.

Remaining at home, and this includes those seniors who have since married, is listed only a single June graduate. Enlisted in the pursuit of agriculture also is only one member of the graduating class while other various types of business have enlisted the services of twenty-six. Eight girls are in training to become nurses; six boys are serving in the armed forces and the whereabouts of the remaining four are not known.

TEXT OF WINNING ESSAY BY NINTH GRADE NEWARK PUPIL

A Sketch of Industrial Newark

By Jane Clark

One of the foremost causes of Newark's growth and increasing population is the industrial and commercial inter-industry possibilities. These are very important to the inhabitants of the city, but without them many would be unemployed or working at a disadvantage. Since most of you are familiar with the city, I shall outline them only briefly.

Newark is the fibre center of the state with offices of two large companies located here. The largest of the fibre companies is Continental-Diamond Fibre Co., located on South Chapel Street. It has its main office here, and the National Vulcanized Fibre Co., is on Paper Mill Road. The other fibre products are railroad ties and athletic equipment. These companies together have one thousand employees.

Newark Post is the town's newspaper, published weekly by William Ware and his staff. It was established in 1910 by Everett C. Johnson. The modern equipment is used in all modern equipment, including a linotype machine, a binder and a cylinder press.

Newark Pooling Company, located on Academy Street, is one of the town's oldest industries established prior to 1906.

One of the newest establishments is the piece depot of the Chrysler Corporation. It is located on the outskirts of the southern part of town.

Other industries in Newark are Newark Hosiery Mills, Incorporated, Newark Box Toe Company, and Newark Packing Company.

Newark is supplied with two railroads, the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio, and a bus line running from Wilmington and Lancaster.

Newark will continue to grow and prosper with its facilities, educational institutions and industries. It is an up-growing community of which we should be proud.

BLUE HEN GRIDDERS TO REPORT AUGUST 31

Coach Murray Planning Two Drills Daily For Candidates

Thirty-five gridiron veterans will report to Coach Bill Murray on August 31 to open the University of Delaware 1948 football campaign. In addition, more than 20 candidates from the 47 freshman squad will be on hand to bid for varsity spots as the Blue Hens prepare for their opener with Penn Military College on Sept. 25.

Until the fall semester opens in the third week of September, the Hens will hold two workouts daily, with a noontime rest to avoid the worst of the September sun. The main gridiron on Delaware's Frazer Field replanted and equipped with a sprinkler system—is ready for the campaign, and in case of rain, drills will move into the spacious Carpenter Field House. Murray again will be assisted by Joe Brunansky on the line and W. S. (Shack) Martin in the backfield.

Of the team that broke even in eight games last year, only seven members will not be in harness. Co-captains Jack Messick and Walt Marusa from the line, and backs Gerald Doherty, Joe Coady, Fred Spasato, Jim Buchanan, and Tony Strli will have been graduated by this fall. Nevertheless, Murray has replacements lined up for all except Marusa, and filling the guard spot vacated by the colorful "Moose" looms as one of his toughest problems. Of the eleven men who started the Hens' final game in 1947, six will be back, including Jack Gallagher and Carroll Hauptle, ends; Jack Miller and Bob Campbell, tackles; Gene Carrell, guard, and Billy Cole, halfback.

These veterans are expected to nail down starting berths again this fall, although the offensive switch may force several changes. Bob Glisson looms as the likely successor to Messick's center spot, but in the right guard hole left by Marusa, Murray is still pondering over Ted Youngling, Jack Weaver, and several reserves. Youngling, a husky Cornell transfer, has the inside track.

The problem of digging up new blocking backs to replace Buchanan and Spasato was eliminated with the change in the offense, and in the new ball-handling role at quarterback, Bill Otton and Charley Smith—the latter a sophomore passing wizard probably will split the chores. Hank Paris will be groomed to replace Storti at left half, and Mariano Stalloni looms as a sure starter in the fullback role.

Murray plans to continue use of the modified double wing (introduced this spring) as his top offensive weapon. Although the formation remains the same, the blocker has been converted to a T formation quarterback and will replace the fullback as the ball handler and passer.

Murray has announced that Marty Pierson will continue to coach the frosh team. Candidates for that squad will not report until after the opening of school, Dan Wood and Bob Papy, both of whom have completed their work at the university after assisting Pierson last fall, will not return.

COLORED ARTIST TO SING HERE

Thomas Bias In Concert On Friday

Thomas Bias, young concert singer of Newark, will appear in a benefit recital at the Newark Community Center, Cleveland Avenue, at 8:30 p. m., July 23. Guest soloist on the program will be Paul Rice of the Philadelphia School of Music.

He was given the chance to sing over WPEN for one year on two different programs. During this time, he appeared at the Academy of Music with the all senior high chorus of Philadelphia, a selected group of singers from all high schools in the city.

During his two years at the West Philadelphia High School, he appeared on the platform almost weekly. He is now studying at Temple University.

SEE TIMBER LACK IN U. S. IN 30 YEARS

'Saw' Stands Will Be Exhausted If Caution Not Used

Unless private owners adopt far-sighted plans for replanting and reforestation, the nation's "saw" timber will be exhausted in about 30 years at the present rate of cutting, according to the Forest Service.

An official of the department told a reporter that if the forests are handled properly, however, the danger of exhausting the "saw" timber—which can be cut for lumber and other forest products—would be over in a few years and there would be enough lumber for everyone.

"Cutting of saw timber is about 50 per cent greater now than the amount we are growing," the official said.

It is estimated that 38,000,000,000 board feet of lumber will be cut this year from American forests—as much as in peak war years.

The forest service is hoping to impress upon private owners the value of proper cutting of forests and of keeping trees growing.

About 90 per cent of the timber is cut from private forests, it said.

The official said recent surveys show that about 64 per cent of the cutting of trees is still done in the "old style," with no planning for preservation of the forests. Twenty-eight per cent is "fair" and only eight per cent is said by the foresters making the survey to be of the kind that would build up the forests.

About 75,000,000 acres of forest lands in this country are "poorly stocked," the service said, and probably will have to be planted over again if they produce commercial lumber.

In the last 25 years an estimated 6,000,000 acres have been planted in trees. The government has appropriated funds to help states finance forest nurseries and the service hopes plantings this year will be on about 200,000 acres, compared with about 100,000 last year.

The Forest Service has advocated a law under which "stripping" of forests would be prevented and the private owners would have timber coming in by selecting only those trees which are "ripe" for cutting and allowing the others to grow. Each state would enforce the proposed law.

List Car Inspections By License Groups

The schedule for inspections of cars with licenses expiring September 30 has been changed because of the large number of cars falling within this period. It is announced by Frank L. Reed, motor vehicles commissioner.

Numbers from 10,000 to 20,000 will be inspected through Wednesday.

Starting next Thursday through July 31 numbers 20,000 to 30,000 will be inspected.

Registrants are asked to respond promptly so as to avoid congestion at the end of the period.

University Wheat Scab Experiment Is Helpful

Low wheat yields on many Delaware farms this season points up the fact that more attention to seeding disease resistant varieties is needed, says Claude E. Phillips, agronomist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

Phillips says that varieties lacking resistance to wheat scab have been the cause of many low yields. Especially low yields have been harvested from fields where the beardless types of wheat were grown.

Since weather conditions frequently occur which are favorable to the development of wheat scab, Phillips advises growers to carefully consider the seeding of the more resistant bearded varieties.

He reveals that this year a variety of wheat developed after 18 years of research at the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station has proven highly resistant to scab. This variety, first announced at the annual meeting of the Delaware Crop Improvement Association meeting this past winter, has been named Nu Del. This variety has been grown on farm plots this year, and a limited supply will be available for distribution to farmers this fall. The agronomist hopes that as soon as a supply of this variety can be produced, a general use of it among the wheat growers of the state will help to eliminate the low wheat yields that occur with less hardy varieties commonly grown.

WHEAT, CORN YIELDS TO BE HIGH IN 1948

Other Crops Also Promise Big Harvest

The largest corn crop and the second biggest wheat crop in the nation's history are predicted for 1948, according to the U. S. Agriculture Department. Prospects for high yields on other crops are also reported.

The new record corn crop is expected to total 3,328,862,000 bushels, nearly 41,000,000 above the previous top crop of 1946. It compares with the very small 1947 crop of 2,400,952,000 bushels.

The wheat forecast of 1,241,751,000 bushels is only 123,169,000 bushels below the record set in 1947.

The American housewife, however, will not get any immediate break in regards to supplies or price of beef, pork and other meats.

A department expert told a reporter that while "this report is one of the most encouraging signs in a long time, benefits in terms of meat and prices will be of long range and not of any immediate effect."

He put it this way: "The house wife will not see any real easing of the tight pork supply until probably October of next year. In beef, she will get a better grade starting possibly in December and running through the summer of 1949.

"Any drop in prices, however, of beef or pork will probably not be more than the seasonal cut-back in late fall—and this will be delayed more than usual."

Farmers are expected to hold back large numbers of hogs that would normally go to slaughter this fall for additional fattening. In addition, with the larger supplies of feed in view, farmers are likely to hold out more than the usual number for breeding purposes.

More cattle are expected to be brought into the feed lots this fall for fattening on the ample grain supplies. This will cut the fall slaughter supply. This in turn will raise somewhat the supply of meat for next year, although cattle numbers on the ranges have been steadily dropping.

NEWARK TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Old Fire House Being Remodelled As Headquarters For Town Council

From Issue of July 25, 1923

New Council Rooms

With the transfer last week of the headquarters of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company to its new building across the street, workmen under the supervision of J. C. Willis, local contractor, commenced the remodeling of the old fire house. It will be occupied by the Town Council as soon as it is completed. The interior will be entirely rearranged to make it a suitable office for the Secretary of Council and to provide for a meeting room. New plumbing and heating fixtures will be installed and an attractive door and window placed on the street front.

The former Council office will be relinquished to its owner, Mrs. Mary Donnell.

Two New Homes

Ground was broken this week for two new homes in the Depot Road section of town. On the Wollaston tract, Kells Avenue, a new bungalow will be erected by Mrs. Helen Wollaston.

On Elkton Road a new home was started for Mr. and Mrs. Orville Little, of this place.

New Fire House Furniture

A complete assortment of furniture, glass and other equipment for the new home of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company on Academy Street was purchased one day last week by a committee of local firemen and will be installed within the space of a few days.

The purchasing committee was composed of Chief E. C. Wilson, Charles W. Staborn, Charles W. Colmery, Leslie Hill and George W. Rhodes.

Business Enlargement

Several Newark business men have greatly improved their buildings and surroundings the past few weeks and the approach of fall other developments are in the making. The Kilman Restaurant on Elkton Avenue has been enlarged and remodelled extensively.

A large tree has been removed from the sidewalk in front of the Newark Inn on East Main Street.

The Pilnick Shoe Store, also on East Main Street, is undergoing an extensive enlargement which will increase the floor space. Mr. Pilnick's plans call for a separate store for retail shoe trade.

Newark Miss Wins

Little Miss Catherine Pie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pie, of this place, recently won a prize in a picture coloring contest now being held regularly by a Wilmington newspaper. She received a Jack Rabbit.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Frazer, living on Lower Depot Road, were tendered a luncheon and variety Monday evening of this week by their neighbors and friends of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazer returned from a short wedding trip to Atlantic City last week and will reside in Newark. Mr. Frazer was formerly Mrs. Letitia Frazer, of Philadelphia.

His Majesty the Stork

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy P. Campbell, of Cleveland Avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth one day last week of a baby daughter. Both mother and child are doing well.

Personals

Due to the delay of his steamer at New York, G. Gray Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, of Newark, will embark next Wednesday for England where he will take up his studies at Oxford University as a Rhodes scholar. Mr. Carter was scheduled to leave New York today. He has been visiting friends and relatives throughout the state during the past week.

William J. Lovett suffered a painful injury Monday when a finger was crushed by a heavy stone. A local physician treated the injury.

Mrs. Anna Balling and Miss Katharine Balling, of Wilmington, are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balling.

Mrs. Charles Steele, Misses Sara Steele, Martha Pepper, Elizabeth Steele, Ethel West and Marjorie Johnson spent last Friday at Charleston, S. C.

$300 U. of D. Scholarship Awarded To Penna. Girl

The Alice P. Smyth Scholarship has been awarded for the 1948-49 academic year to Miss Lois Deiss, of Lansdowne, Pa. It has been announced by Miss Lucy Storb, chairman of the Alumnae Scholarship Committee. The award, valued this year at $300.00, is designed to aid a girl above the freshman class to continue her education at the University of Delaware.

Alternate for the award is Miss Marie Pavia, of Staten Island, N. Y.

Miss Deiss, a sophomore, last year held the Everett C. Johnson Scholarship, also awarded by the Alumnae Association. During the past year she served as vice-president of the freshman class and attained a scholastic index sufficient to merit the Dean's List. She is a graduate of Lansdowne High School, Lansdowne, Pa., in which city her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Deiss, still live.

The Smyth Scholarship, awarded this year for the third time, is named in honor of Miss Alice P. Smyth, of Wilmington, whose interest in the University of Delaware and in the education of women has continued over many years. Previous winners include Miss Virginia Carol Smith, of Wilmington; and Miss Peggy Munoz, of Bethany Beach.

AIR FORCE ENLISTMENT LIMITED

July Quota Restricted To 9,000

With the new enlistments of non-high school graduates in the United States Air Force restricted to 9,000 for the month of July, Captain Walter G. Runte, officer in charge of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, announced today that only a limited number of enlistments could be accepted from this area during the month.

Enlistment of high school graduates under the Air Forces' "Aviation Career Plan," however, will remain unrestricted with such graduates being assured of assignment to the technical school of their choice before they actually enlist, Captain Runte said.

There are twelve such schools offered, covering a variety of subjects ranging from Aviation Specialist to Administrative Specialist. These schools will assist a man to select a well paying career in many fields. A complete list of these schools and the courses offered are available. For further information, contact your nearest United States Army and United States Air Force Recruiting Station, located in Room 345, Post Office Building, Wilmington.

Emphasizing the limited number of vacancies available for non-graduates of high school, the recruiting officer advised interested applicants to apply at the earliest possible date.

Foreign Study Group To Meet

For the first time since their return from France, all living members of the first University of Delaware Foreign Study Group will meet next month, as they observe the 25th anniversary of the foreign study program.

Seven members will be on hand for the reunion, to be held at the home of T. Russell Turner, 2913 Franklin Street, Wilmington. Two will come from great distances for the occasion.

Mr. Turner, who is boys' work director for the Wilmington Y. M. C. A., said that the other members of the group are: Dr. David M. Dougherty, chairman of the Department of Foreign Languages, University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore.; Herbert H. Lank, vice-president, Canadian Industries, Ltd., Montreal; William K. Mendenhall, assistant secretary of the New Jersey State Bankers Association, Newark, N. J.; Austin Cooley, of Sandy Lake, Pa.; J. Winston Walker, assistant principal of Haver-town (Pa.) High School; and Dr. Francis J. Cummings, executive secretary of the Delaware Commission for the Blind. All except Mr. Cooley, a graduate of Westminster College, are graduates of the University of Delaware.

The eighth member of the original Foreign Study Group was Cedric Snyder, who was killed in an automobile accident a few years after his graduation. The director of the group, Dr. Raymond W. Kirkbride, also is deceased.

KENT FAIR EXHIBITS PLANNED BY 4-H CLUBS

Rural Boys And Girls To Enter Varied Competition

Boys and girls enrolled in 4-H Club work for getting ready to exhibit their projects at the Kent-Sussex Fair, which begins July 26. The 4-H department of the fair includes over 70 classes in which club members may exhibit canned food, baking, vegetables, eggs, clothing and crops.

In addition, 4-H'ers are encouraged to enter their livestock and poultry in the open classes at the fair. From the number of entries now pouring in the county extension offices, more than 500 entries are expected in the 4-H Club department and many more in the open classes.

This year the 4-H Club department is initiating a new method of awards known as the Danish system. All exhibits that meet the standards required of the highest award group will receive a blue ribbon and cash award. Exhibits meriting second prizes will be placed in the red ribbon award group, and so on. In this manner each exhibit will receive a ribbon and every member who has done a first-rate job on his exhibit is eligible to win a first prize.

Judging contests are always a popular feature of the fair, and Tuesday, July 27, is 4-H Club Day. Club members may compete in one of six judging contests—swine, dairy, poultry, vegetable crops, food and clothing. This is an excellent opportunity for boys and girls to learn by doing and by comparison. For the three highest scoring members in each contest, scholarships will be awarded to the 1949 Short Course to be held next summer at the University of Delaware. Since the judging contests are run on a county basis, a total of 52 scholarships are available.

Traditional among 4-H members at the fair are demonstrations. This year the county contests in dairy foods demonstrations will take place on the stage of the 4-H Club building on July 28, beginning at 1:30 p. m. Dairy production demonstrations will be held there on July 29, at the same time. In these contests, 4-H members try to demonstrate better methods they have learned in relation to some phase of dairy foods or dairy production. Winners in each contest will receive cash awards and medals and will be eligible to compete in the state contests next fall.

The calf scramble, held for the first time last year, proved so successful that it will be continued this year. Last year, 26 Delaware 4-H boys between the ages of 14 and 19 participated, along with 34 other Maryland and Delaware 4-H and F. F. A. members, in an effort to win one of 30 calves. Eleven Delaware 4-H boys walked out of the scramble pen with baby Angus calves for their projects. These winners will be showing their animals at the fair this year. Approximately 30 Delaware 4-H boys have submitted applications for this year's calf scramble. From this group a proportionate number will be selected to participate.

600 MAY REGISTER AT U. OF D.

Second Term Classes Begin On Thursday

Registration for the second term of the University of Delaware's Summer Session will take place next week immediately upon the close of the first semester, it was announced yesterday by Dr. W. Earl Armstrong, Director of the Summer Session.

An estimated 600 students was expected to register in the fieldhouse on Wednesday, from 8:30 to 1:00 o'clock. Classes, which begin the next day, will continue until August 27.

While no specific courses are scheduled for either the School of Home Economics or the School of Education during the second semester, a wide variety of courses is available in the Schools of Engineering, Arts and Science, and of Agriculture, Dean Armstrong said.

Approximately 1,045 students will take examinations on Tuesday, covering the first semester's work at the Summer Session. This record total includes 120 teachers, which according to Dr. Armstrong, is the largest number of teachers to attend the university's summer school since about 1930, when the two-year teaching-training course was definitively abandoned.

Registration Rolls Increased By 8,594

A total of 8,594 prospective voters was registered last Wednesday in the 215 districts throughout New Castle County, the Bureau of Registration disclosed yesterday.

The net addition to the registration rolls won't be available for some time—until after the transfers are tabulated and the total number of persons stricken from the rolls for this reason or for others is known.

The registration by wards and hundreds was as follows:

First Ward, 120; Second, 245; Third, 169; Fourth, 139; Fifth, 495; Sixth, 166; Seventh, 797; Eighth, 189; Ninth, 1,109; Tenth, 221; Eleventh, 322, and Twelfth, 459.

Sixth Representative District, 1,564; Seventh, 1,081; Eighth, 252; Ninth, 280; Tenth, 507; Eleventh, 58; Twelfth, 150; Thirteenth, 103; Fourteenth, 67; Fifteenth, 41.

FARMERS IN STATE ACP TOTAL 6237

Conservation Program Is Well Backed

The 6,237 farmers of Delaware who are participating in the Agricultural Conservation Program are cooperating with farmers in all of the agricultural counties of the United States.

Farmers through their ACP committees are carrying out farming practices to conserve soil and water in every county in the United States, except the 23 counties which are non-agricultural. In Delaware the main conservation practices being carried out by farmers are liming materials, phosphate, winter cover crops, permanent pasture, and drainage.

Under the Agricultural Conservation Program, farmers are encouraged and helped in carrying out the various approved conservation practices. Assistance is in the form of materials, services and financial aid. Technical committees made up of specialists from Experiment Stations, Extension Service, State Departments of Agriculture, Soil Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration and others review and help write the specifications for approved practices.

Farmer-elected committees administer the program in all the communities and counties where the program is in operation.

Three reasons for the program: First—The need for soil and water conservation is urgent. Food-producing land is limited, population is increasing and soil must be saved now. Assistance under the ACP Program has proved the most effective way of getting needed conservation.

Second—Responsibility for conserving our soil and water resources is national. Everyone depends on the products of the soil and everyone should have a share in the responsibility of protecting the present and future food supplies. Through the ACP consumers and producers share the cost of the conservation practices. This year that cost is about $1.00 per person. The farmer matches that—and then contributes the necessary work.

Third—It's the most economical way of getting the needed conservation work done. Erosion, if let go, becomes more expensive to correct with each passing year. Not only is there a bigger job to do but the soil lost cannot be restored.

CALL FOR WAR DEAD ESCORTS ISSUED

Volunteer Applications Sought For Active Duty

Another call for about 100 specially qualified veterans to serve as military escorts for the return of World War II dead was issued today by General Courtney H. Hodges, First Army Commander.

The return to active duty will be on a volunteer basis for periods of six, nine or twelve months as the veteran elects. The rate of per diem, while traveling as escorts, has been increased from $5.00 to $7.00. Rank and pay will be determined by prior service, former rank and personal qualifications. Applicants, however, must be in the first five grades.

Men of the highest caliber and qualifications are needed for the assignment because of the high purpose and solemn dignity of the services accorded the men who gave their lives in action. The Army is looking for men with tact, judgment and initiative.

Accepted applicants will be assigned to Distribution Centers at Brooklyn Army Base and Schenectady. They will serve in the United States only and will not be subject to overseas shipment. Applications should be addressed to the Reservist's Unit Instructor.

In the first three census' of the United States, taken in 1810, 1820 and 1830, Virginia led all other states in population. In the census of 1840 New York took the lead, which it still holds.
