

City Council Orders Purchase Of Five More Traffic Lights

Letter From F. A. Cain, Lumbrook Resident, Touches Off Lengthy Discussion Of Traffic Problems Here; Light For Corner Main And South College Avenue Included

Control of the present heavy traffic traveling the streets of Newark and effective way of reducing the amount of speeding in the city occupied considerable time at Tuesday night's meeting of City Council.

A letter from F. A. Cain, resident of Lumbrook, touched off the lengthy discussion. Mr. Cain pointed out in his letter the difficulty that Lumbrook residents were having in getting in and out of driveways and called upon the Council to install a traffic light at the corner of Orchard Avenue and Capitol Trail.

Following considerable debate on the subject of traffic in the city, Council voted not only to purchase a light for the above intersection but at the same time instructed J. Francis Neide, city engineer, to purchase four additional lights to be installed at other spots throughout the city.

The other intersection to be controlled by lights in the near future are Capitol Trail and East Cleveland Avenue; North Chapel Street and Cleveland Avenue; Ogletown Road and Capitol Trail; and Main Street and South and North College Avenues.

The cost of the installation of the above five lights will cost, according to Mr. Neide, about $3000 and Council requested that he contact the state highway department to see if that agency would bear all or part of the installation cost. All of the lights are being installed on main thoroughfares which are maintained by the state.

Mr. Neide informed Council that the city engineering department, in having the cost of the current street repair program, had made a mistake in estimating that the job would take 100 tons of asphalt. Actually, he said, the job will take about 380 tons and will add about $6500 to the cost of the program. This will mean that the street repair program will cost about $15,000 instead of the $8500 previously estimated.

It was also announced by the city engineer that he had ordered the repair work now being done halted until the contractor involved provides proper supervision over the work. Both Mr. Neide and Councilman Samuel Dineen reported that the work was being done according to specifications.

PTA Committee To Study Traffic At City Intersections

Survey Result Of Recent Meeting Held To Ascertain Need Of Crossing Guards

Where and when are the busiest intersections in Newark? These are questions which members of Newark's PTA Traffic Survey Committee, recently appointed by Dr. Howard Reed, PTA president, expect to answer in an all-week survey, which will be carried out Sept. 22-26.

According to an announcement following a recent meeting between Dr. J. R. Downes, councilman, and head of police committee, William Cunningham, chief of police; Wilmer Shue, Newark superintendent; and Mrs. David Anderson, Mrs. John Corbin, and Mrs. Vernon Steel, members of the committee, the group laid plans for a systematic count of all children and cars crossing Newark's 18 busiest intersections.

The dates Sept. 22-26 were chosen because the University will be in session at that time and Newark's traffic will be at its peak.

Suggestions made by the committee as a result of last Friday's meeting are as follows:

1. That parents select most practical and safest route for child and see that he follows that route daily.
2. That parents allow students to walk to school during Sept. 22-26 so that the count will be the finest picture possible (car pools tend to distort the picture).
3. That parents always load and unload children on the east side of Academy Street, on the side of the school buildings only.
4. That parents and children cross all intersections including the one at Academy and Delaware in box fashion rather than diagonally.

Site Of Proposed City Park

The above drawing by E. William Martin, provided as a service to the citizens and the Newark Recreation Association, shows the area recently donated to the association by Hugh F. Gallagher, Jr., and Arthur Rittenhouse as a site for a proposed city park. George Neighbors, association president, stated this week that the park area will provide the city with what has been a great need for a place where the citizens can enjoy leisure time activities.

Through the efforts of various groups and individuals, said Mr. Neighbors, much work was done during the past summer to improve the area. Land has been cleared, picnic tables built, and a swimming pool formed in the Christiana Creek which flows through the area. During the past years, said Mr. Neighbors, funds collected in annual drives have only been sufficient to provide for the regular activities of the organization which included playground activities throughout the city. "With this much-needed park as a possibility," he said, "we hope that funds will be made available whereby we can furnish permanent equipment for future activities and plan for the future needs of our youth and other residents."

Newark Neighbors Day Program At Chrysler Tank Plant Will Include Added Inspection Tour

Chrysler Officials Obtain Special Permission From Army Ordnance To Allow Plant Tour With Each Of Six Scheduled Tank Shows For Residents On September 27

A tour of inspection of the 21-acre manufacturing building at the Chrysler Delaware Tank Plant has been added to the Newark Neighbors Day program for Saturday, September 27, it was announced today. A tour will be conducted in connection with each of the six scheduled tank shows.

Original plans for the Neighbors Day program called only for demonstration of the Patton 48 medium tank on the obstacle course at the rear of the tank plant.

The program will now combine the tank demonstration with a tour of the building in which nearly 10,000 machines, gauges, tools and fixtures have been installed for volume production of the Patton 48's.

In order to include the plant tour on Neighbors Day the local Chrysler Management had to obtain special permission from Army Ordnance. This was granted on condition that certain parts of the plant remain "out of bounds" for all visitors.

A Chrysler spokesman pointed out again that no cameras will be permitted on the premises.

The manufacturing building of the Chrysler Tank Plant is one of the largest buildings of its type in the East. The roof area of this single building is the equivalent of the flight deck areas of about a dozen large aircraft carriers.

At the demonstration of the Patton 48 tanks the Newark guests will witness the maneuverability and steamroller power that overcomes the specially constructed obstacles on the tank plant show course.

Some of the superior features of the new tank are its low silhouette, elliptical design and one-piece construction of hull and turret wider tracks, power steering—velocity 90 m.m. gun.

Tickets for Newark Neighbors Day at the tank plant may still be obtained by anyone with a Newark mailing address by writing to Newark Neighbors Day Committee, Chrysler Delaware Tank Plant, Newark, or by telephoning Newark 6811, Ext. 216. The requests should indicate how many tickets are desired and for which of six different tank performances. The scheduled times for Saturday, September 27 are: 9:00 a.m.; 10:30 a.m.; 12:00 noon; 2:00 p.m.; 3:30 p.m.; and 5:00 p.m.

It is proposed at that time to take x-ray films of all freshmen, new students, graduate students and others who desire films made. It is also planned to x-ray all food handlers.

Faculty members, employees and local civilians (over 15 years of age) are also invited to take advantage of this health measure.

The Newark Thrift Shop will open for the first time this fall on Friday, October 3, from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. in the rooms provided by City Council over the Police station on Academy Street.

Bill Clancy Looking For Twins That Left Coats in Theatre

William Clancy, major-domo of the State Theatre, revealed this week that he is looking for twins. Seeing the reason that this unexpected statement brought from all within earshot, he hastily added that he didn't mean that. What he was really looking for, he explained, was the mother of twin boys.

Realizing the latter statements had some little to clear up the incident, Bill tried again and came out with the classic statement, "I hope my wife doesn't hear about this, but there are two perfectly good coats that I found in the State Theatre room going to waste."

Seeing that he was getting no place out of this line of explanation, Bill called in his buddies on the police force for support, adding, "Now don't get me wrong. It's not only me but all the boys in town are looking for twins."

less for poor Bill and he wisely decided not to say another word until the commotion died down. Once things were back to near normal he started all over again and told his story.

What he had tried to say originally was that about a month ago some mother and her twin boys had attended the State and when they left they failed to take along with them two coats belonging to the boys. Ever since Bill said, he has been trying to find out who the people are and where they live. He explained that he has also solicited the aid of the local police in helping him to find the lady, but so far to no avail.

According to Bill the boys must have been seven or eight years old, so if anyone knows of a family containing twin boys in the vicinity please check and see if they could have left the coats in the State Theatre. Bill would like to get rid of the coats and forget the whole thing.

Vaughn Fox Will Leave October 15 For Stay In India

Newark Boy Will Serve As Farm Exchange Delegate For 6-Month Period

Vaughn Pierce Fox, of R. D. 1, Newark, is Delaware's 1952 International farm youth exchange delegate. Sam Quinn, State 4-H Club leader, announced this week. Vaughn will leave October 15 for India, where he will spend 6 months living and working with farm families.

Vaughn, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Fox is no stranger to Delawareans. Vaughn has been a 4-H Club member for 9 years and president of the New Castle County 4-H Junior Council for 2 years. He is a member of the National Junior Vegetable Growers Association, has won 2 state awards, and was on the state demonstration team. He was a Delaware delegate to 1951 National 4-H Camp in Washington.

He has lived on a Delaware farm all of his life, attended Newark schools, and is now a junior in mechanical engineering at the University of Delaware. Recently he won his fourth state award from the Fisher Body Craftsmen's Guild.

Vaughn is also active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Delaware Rifle, and Alpha Tau Omega fraternities.

This is the second year Delaware has taken part in the IFYE Program. Last year's delegate, Helen Samendinger, spent the summer on German Farms. Vaughn is taking part in the winter exchange with southern hemisphere countries. He is studying Hindustani and reading about India and its customs, so that he may do the best job possible as a "grass roots" delegate of good-will. In order that Delawareans can share his trip when he returns, Vaughn plans to take a 35 mm. camera and a movie camera.

Delaware families, through 4-H Clubs, Home Demonstration Clubs, Granges, and anonymous gifts, contributed the money for Vaughn's trip. This money also helps exchanges from other countries visit the United States. Vaughn was chosen by a committee composed of Harry C. Johnson, Smyrna, Master of the State Grange; Mrs. Edwin P. Nollan, Newark, former state Home Demonstration international relations chairman; and John Hastings, 4-H Club leader from Bridgeville.

The International Farm Youth Exchange is not being led, as in not being driven.

Brown, Patricia Steward, and Lancia Richards will dance in luminous costumes beneath "black light," the initial use of this technique in a UDG production.

The first meeting of the University Drama Group for the 1952-53 season will be held in Mitchell Hall at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, September 24. The 2-2 Players will present "The Still Alarm," a one-act play being given during the University's annual Freshman Week.

Fran Patrovic, president of the Drama Group, will preside at the meeting, and the hospitality committee will serve refreshments following the meeting.

Members are urged to attend and to bring prospective members as their guests.

City Council on Tuesday night instructed John P. Sinclair, city solicitor, to draw up a resolution limiting parking on several streets adjacent to the University of Delaware to two hours. Those included were S. College Ave., Delaware Ave., Amstel Ave., Winslow Road, and Kentway.

In so doing Council served notice that they have given up any hope that they have held that university officials and the students there would cooperate by not using these streets as all-day parking areas.

Some time ago several residents of these streets appealed to Council to take some action to keep students from monopolizing the parking areas in front of their homes. They also complained that the students parked across driveways and frequently tossed trash and garbage on their lawns.

At that time Council seriously considered limiting parking on these streets to one hour. They received appeals from the university and from student representatives asking that they delay action and give them a chance to remedy the situation.

It is true that all that they can have done about all that they can. They have provided the students with several parking lots. But they were unable to furnish these lots as close to classrooms as the streets mentioned and human nature took its course.

The students refused to walk further than absolutely necessary and continued to park as close to classrooms as they could get. This is also true of members of the staff. Their cars are parked on the streets mentioned all day.

Council is going to make the parking limit two hours to begin with and if that doesn't work—it is going to make the limit one hour.

George Neighbors, president of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company, was invited to Tuesday night's meeting of Council to discuss the speed with which the ambulance has been traveling through the city recently.

Dr. John R. Downes pointed out to Mr. Neighbors the trouble which had resulted from an accident in Wilmington last year involving an ambulance, and reminded him that medical authorities at that time pointed out that maybe no more than 2% of ambulance cases were emergencies.

Mr. Neighbors stated that all ambulance drivers had been instructed to drive with due care but that the matter would be brought to the attention of all drivers again.

Council also asked him to discuss with the volunteer firemen the speed with which they drive through crowded streets in answering fire calls. Mr. Neighbors assured them that it would be discussed at the next meeting.

Newark Gridders Meet Elkton Here Tomorrow Night in Opener

Kickoff Slated For 8:15 P.M. On Local Field; Coach Fred Spasato Has Club In Top Shape For Contest With Strong Marylanders Looking For Upset Win

Newark High School will open its 1952 football season tomorrow evening on the local field at 8:15 p.m. with Mal Masonheimer's Elkton High School furnishing the opposition. Following two informal scrimmages this week with Bel Air, Md., and Archmere Academy, Coach Fred Spasato pronounced his club in top shape for the season opener.

Dicky Lawson, 145-lb. fullback, is unlikely to see action in the contest due to a pulled muscle which has hampered him for the past two weeks. The fullback post will be manned by Albert Jczyk, 158-lb. letterman.

Coach Spasato was highly pleased with his team's performance in the two scrimmages, especially with the offense. This week, he said, has been spent working on the defense which although satisfactory, was not as impressive as the offense.

Jake Shew, 135-lb. sophomore, has won the starting quarterback post after a spirited battle with Bobby Townsend but the latter is expected to see plenty of action. According to the Yellowjacket mentor, Shew's better handling of the "give or keep" play, basic to the split T, won him the starting post.

All seven starting linemen for the Yellowjackets will be lettermen with the shifting of Arthur Boulden to the center post. He will replace Bill Wetzel who had been counted upon to fill the center duties.

With a line averaging 190 pounds, including two 250-lb. tackles, the Elkton team will be no pushover. The Marylanders are reported to be confident of upsetting the Newark team which thrashed them 27 to 0 in the opening contest last year. In an informal scrimmage last week Elkton outscored a good Conrad team three touchdowns to one, and Coach Spasato is not taking the contest lightly. Probable starting lineups:

Newark	Elkton
Sobolewski	King
Lee	Albanese
Sparks	Justice
Wetzel	Griffin
Sharpe	Scott
Thorpe	Campbell
Hurm	Stewart
Shew	Trounman
Palmer	Young

Just A Rumer

Although up in the air at the time the above picture was taken, Don Rumer, former Newark High School athlete, has firmly settled himself in the offensive plans of Dave Nelson, Blue Hen football coach, and is being counted upon to see plenty of action from the right halfback post during the coming season. Coach Nelson stated recently that the 150-pound senior has been one of the leading backs in pre-season practice and is battling for the starting assignment at right halfback with Joe Scarica and Jimmy Flynn.

Delaware Offense Sparkles As Team Preps For Opener

Eight Backfield Candidates Battling For Starting Posts; Two-Line Posts Still Open

Despite a siege of minor injuries which has kept various members of the squad out of action for short periods of time the University of Delaware football team is approaching top shape for its opener with Gettysburg College at Wilmington Park on September 27.

During the past three weeks in which the Blue Hens have held twice-daily practice sessions under the sharp eyes of Head Coach Dave Nelson and his assistants, Joe Scarica, diminutive halfback, Bob Hagerty, last year's regular halfback Tony Candelora, promising sophomore from Archmere, Charlie Scarfoss, outstanding candidate for a tackle position and Charlie Cooper, aggressive lineman from Lewes, have all spent time on the injured list. All, however, with the possible exception of Cooper, will be in shape for the opener next week.

While the offensive backfield which will start the Gettysburg contest is still a battle between at least seven or eight strong candidates, including Don Miller, Tom Fanron, Kenny Reith, Bob Hagerty, Rocco Carzo, Tom Hocker, Jimmy Flynn, the offensive line is fairly well set.

Fairly certain of starting posts are Capt. Paul Mueller and Frank Serpion, ends; Paul Hellig, tackle; Johnny Meccariello, guard; and Frank Gyetvan, center.

Howard Graham and Johnny Williams are fighting for the remaining guard slot while the fight for the remaining tackle position is a battle between Bill Dopstad, Charlie Scarfoss, and Steve Butcher.

In a two and one half hour scrimmage last Saturday for the benefit of members of the radio and press, the Blue Hens appeared in mid-season form with Reith, Tom Hocker, Scarica, Flynn, and Miller clicking for frequent long runs.

Hocker has been a sensation in the pre-season practices and at the present time appears to be ahead of Bob Hagerty for the starting left halfback post. Hocker, a junior from Lewes, has not played at the university although he was a star on his high school club. He is a fast, hard running back and has caught the eye of the Hen coaches with his powerful running.

Kenny Reith, 166-pound fullback, has been outstanding in the scrimmages, and appears to be fully recovered from the broken collar bone which kept him out of action last season. Reith is a hard-running, shifty back who specializes in grabbing the aerial shots of Don Miller.

Auto Race Feature Allentown Fair

Six events will feature a 20-lap Allentown Fair Anniversary sweepstakes, with time trials starting at 1 p.m. and the races at 2:30.

Both Howard Sigmester, president of Allentown Fair, and Sam Nunis, race director, are out to mark the fair's 100th birthday with the presentation of the greatest auto race card in fair history.

Indianapolis 500-mile stars and dirt track champions at the starting line will include Johnnie Parsons, Van Nuyk, Calif., winner of the 1950 Indianapolis race, Parsons, who also won the National AAA crown in 1949, will drive a $15,000 Offenhauser Saturday, officials stated.

State Dairymen Warned Of Ketosis

With thousands of calves being born on the nation's farms this fall, the American Foundation for Animal Health today alerted dairy owners to a serious disease problem which may attack the mothers of these new calves.

The disease, known as acetonemia or "ketosis," frequently affects 15 percent of the cows in a herd.

Cows of all ages are susceptible, but ketosis usually strikes newly-fresh cows about six to eight weeks after they have calved. Foundation authorities said. Top producers in a herd are prime targets for the disease. "Ketosis may appear in either a mild form or a severe form," the Foundation reports. "In mild cases, the cow may go off feed and give milk which has a peculiar, sweetish taste. In severe cases, symptoms may vary from nervousness to depression and loss of weight. Milk production is cut drastically.

"As these symptoms can be confused with milk fever and plant poisoning, veterinarians base their final diagnosis on chemical tests. If detected in time, early treatment with intravenous injections and by other means will usually prevent death losses.

"There are three good preventive measures. First, provide liberal feedings of balanced rations, especially with cold weather coming on. Second, take every precaution to keep cows from 'going off feed.' Third, have clinical tests taken at frequent intervals in fresh and pregnant cows so any signs of ketosis can be spotted early and treated promptly," the Foundation said.

OPS Fears New Trend In Prices

Farm income, already at record levels, is expected to go even higher, according to OPS.

Mainly responsible will be the all-time high prices for farm products resulting for this year's drought, combined with history-making payments to farmers through government price supports, and much greater income from farm exports, the agency said. Already these developments have resulted in increasing living cost to new record highs and, if continued, might result in a new wave of inflation.

ton, OPS warned. Latest Bureau of Labor Statistics report food prices continued at record highs for the ten-day period ending August 25, OPS said, at the said level reported for August 13, when it was 16 percent above the pre-Korean level of June 15, 1950.
