

BACKWORD

IN editing this book, we wish to thank the members of the faculty and the student body for their interest and cooperation in our work; and to those students, especially, who have aided us so materially by supplying copy, art work, assistance with the photographing, and untiring effort to make our book a financial success, we feel that we are especially indebted.

To Miss Nora Bean Keely and Miss Serene Templeman, our faculty advisers, we wish to acknowledge our deep appreciation of the assistance and advice which they have so generously given to us at all times.

Likewise, do we wish to express our thanks to Dr. Thomas F. Manns for his assistance with our photographing work.

To Mr. S. E. Sterne of the Photo-Chromotype Company, and to Mr. J. Spencer Brock and the Craftsmen at Kells, and to the Ellis Studio, we are much indebted, not only for their invaluable advice and technical skill, but for their sincere interest in the outcome of our book.

OUR FRIENDS

THESE friends of ours represent no ordinary business firms; they are the best to be found in the State. They had the vision to go into the making of this book with us. Without them, our task would have seemed impossible; with them, it has been a pleasure. We have the same high confidence in them that they have shown in us, and we ask that the readers of The Blue and Gold patronize
