Exercises In M. E. Cemetery

Five Squad from Company E to be Present

Joseph B. Lutton, member of Reynolds Post No. 9, G. A. R., and town councilman of Newark, has completed arrangements for the observance of Memorial Day. As in previous years fifty school children will meet at the Academy building at nine o'clock, from which point they will be taken in transfers to the various cemeteries. Formal exercises will be held in the M. E. Cemetery at ten o'clock. Rev. W. J. Rowan will make a short address, the children will sing, and a squad from Company E will be present to fire military salute at the close of the exercises. From twelve to twelve-fifty the bells of the town will be tolled in observance of "Five Minutes for Memories," inaugurated two years ago. Mr. Lutton has taken part in the arrangement of Memorial exercises for the last twenty-five years. In speaking of his experience today he stated that on his first visit to the cemeteries there were required only seven men at the M. E. Cemetery. Now there are twenty-three graves to be marked in the former, and fifteen in the latter cemetery. There are but five surviving members of the Reynolds Post living in Newark—Councilman Lutton, William Bradley, J. Rankin Armstrong, Charles Waters, and T. A. Mullin. Members of the Post, accompanied by Washington Camp, No. 6, P. O. S. of A., will attend divine services next Sunday at Ebenezer M. E. Church, above Newark.

EDUCATORS IN CONSULTATION

Meeting At The Wilmington High School

The Delaware Co-operative Educational Association met in annual meeting last Tuesday at the office of Superintendent C. J. Scott of Wilmington. Dr. P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education was present with members of his staff who have been working in Delaware for the last year.

Dr. Claxton, in his remarks, recommended the establishment of a Health Service similar to the National Health Bureau, to be under the direction of the Bureau of Education.

"No child is educated," said Dr. Claxton, "unless he is well." Dr. Claxton described a number of the recently introduced educational propositions in Delaware which have to do not only with the imparting of facts to the school children, but which also have to do with their health. Work in several other States had interfered, he said, with complete carrying out of the work here but it was progressing rapidly along the lines of mental betterment of the children, development of interest in civic and industrial problems, and in school gardening and health problems.

Miss Lemberg, in charge of work among the mentally defective, Dr. Randall, school garden expert, and Dr. Dunn whose specialty is civic work, were present and reviewed the work of the year.

Professor H. Hayward of Newark is president of the association and Dr. C. A. Wagner, of Wilmington, secretary.

MANY GREET OLD FRIEND

Rev. T. G. Baxter Preaches In Newark

Reverend Thomas G. Baxter of Sunnyburn, Pa., secularly known here as "Tom" (he will never outlive it) preached at the Presbyterian church here last Sunday at both morning and evening services. While no public announcement had been made, the report at a late hour brought out good congregations. His sermons, vivid, straightforward, clean cut have been the subject of much favorable comment.

Dr. Rowan preached in Mr. Baxter's pulpit at Sunnyburn.

DANSANTE SPLEN-DID SUCCESS

One Hundred Dollars Cleared by Committee

The strawberry dansante and peddlers parade given in the Armory last Saturday for the benefit of the New Century Club Building Fund, afforded a pleasing departure from the usual order of money-making socials. A part of the large armory was reserved for dancing, a feature which proved popular among the younger folks during the evening. There were booths exhibiting fancy articles for sale, tempting cakes, and aromatic coffee; ice cream was also to be had and attractive tables were scattered about for the convenience of the patrons. Charming peddlers sold chocolates, flowers, maple sugar, and a variety of knick knacks. The lady with a thousand pockets had something attractive for every child. The rags which club members have been so industriously sewing all winter appeared at the sale in the guise of attractive bed room rugs, which sold readily. The peddlers who were all in costume advertised their wares in a parade, which won the applause of everyone. Over one hundred dollars was cleared by the entertainment. Among ladies in charge of the affair were Mrs. A. T. Neale, Miss Lindsay, Mrs. J. P. Cann, Miss Hurd, Mrs. Pilling, Mrs. Tiffany, Mrs. Whitteir, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Houchin, Mrs. Blake, Mrs. Tyson and Mrs. Bowen.

"FIVE MINUTES FOR MEMORIES"

For the last two years the bells of Newark have been tolled from twelve to twelve five on Memorial Day, in accordance with a beautiful custom originated in Philadelphia—the custom of setting aside "Five Minutes for memories" during which people may give silent tribute of respect to those who fought and suffered in the past, that their nation might live. The custom has spread to all parts of the United States and is widely observed as an appropriate part of the exercises of Memorial Day. The observance rests with each individual. Will you not join in the silent tribute to the nation's dead? Make the tolling of the bells a sacred memorial; see that it never becomes a thoughtless sacrifice.

DR. RANDALL VISITS GARDENS

Congratulates Young Workers

Dr. Randall, of the Bureau of Education, Washington, visited the School Gardens, located on Academy street, opposite the Grammar School last Saturday. A number of the boys were at work when the federal representative paid his visit, and the young gardeners received compliments on their work. All of the plots have been numbered during the last week, so that it is easy for each young enthusiast to direct attention to his particular plot. The boys during the last week sold tickets for a moving picture benefit, from which they realized $16.10.

NEWARK BOY SUCCESSFUL JOURNALIST

Editor Of Paper In New York

Newark will be interested to learn of the success of Philip Everhart Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Armstrong of Cooch's Bridge. Mr. Armstrong was a member of the Class of 1910 but left College before taking his degree to do reporting for the Philadelphia Press. He was later Dramatic Critic for the same paper. After serving with The Press for two years, he was associated with the Philadelphia Ledger where he was Assistant City Editor. Last November, Mr. Armstrong accepted an offer as Editor and Manager of The Cohoes Evening Despatch of Cohoes New York. The paper has shown a marked improvement and is a force in the city.

Mr. Armstrong has been elected a member of the Board of Trade and is prominent in the affairs of Cohoes, a thriving city of 30,000.

In spite of the strenuous life experience in the newspaper world, Mr. Armstrong has found time to publish a book of short stories "Foreordained." It is the work of a stylist, much on the order of French story artists. In addition, he has contributed musical articles and short stories to National publications. Last June he was given his degree at Delaware College.

The relation of these facts makes Newark get off the old stunt—"Why, I knew him, when he was a boy. Always knew he would make us proud of him."—and he has.

Competition to Continue Until 1917

At a conference held at Delaware College last Wednesday afternoon by members of the agricultural committee of the trustees, members of the State Board of Agriculture and a representative of the Philadelphia North American, it was decided to continue the international egg-laying competition until November first, 1917. The competition is conducted jointly by the three interests represented at the meeting. Several points of difference were adjusted previous to the decision to continue the competition. Those who attended the meeting were: Messrs. Benson, Newton, Cannon, Grubb and Webb, members of the State Board of Agriculture; Joseph H. Hossinger, Samuel H. Derby, Samuel H. Messick and Frank C. Bancroft of the Agricultural committee of Delaware College, and F. L. V. Turner, representing the North American.

Escaping Prisoner Shot

Crowd on Street Becomes Excited

Much excitement was created on Main Street last Saturday about nine o'clock, by the escape of a prisoner on his way to the lock-up after trial before Squire Lovett. The man attempting to escape was Irvin Thomson, colored who had been arrested early in the evening by the colored officer, on the charge of wife-beating. He was given a hearing before Magistrate Lovett and held in $300 bail for the Court of General Sessions. The officer and the prisoner had gotten as far as Dr. Kollock's residence when Thomson broke away and, jumping a fence, started to run. The officer called for him to stop but when he failed to do so Morrison pulled his revolver and fired, hitting Thomson in the calf of the right leg. Dr. Kollock dressed the wound which was not serious and the man was placed in the lock-up. On Sunday he was taken to the Workhouse, no bail being forthcoming, to await the fall term of Court.

The shooting on Saturday occurred at a time when Main Street was crowded with shoppers, and caused considerable excitement. Frank Walls, making loud comment on the matter, was arrested for attempting to start a riot, and Robert Wilson for swearing. The former was fined $8 and the latter $6 at a hearing by Magistrate Lovett on Sunday morning.

Thrown From Sulky Plow

John McKeon, well-known farmer living west of town, was thrown from a sulky plow one day last week, sustaining internal injuries. Although Mr. McKeon is still under the doctor's care, he is coming along nicely. It is believed he will be able to look after his summer work within two or three weeks.

Speakers Chosen For Commencement

Senator duPont Consents To Become Candidate

Colonel Henry A. duPont, senior Senator from Delaware, in response to inquiry, has given out the following statement:

"If the Republican voters of this state, through the delegates they send to the next Republican State Convention, express a desire for me to serve another term, I am at their disposal," the senator said.

"I am a Republican, I believe in Republican principles, and I am firmly of the opinion that the welfare of this country demands that our next Congress shall be composed of men who will assist a Republican President in putting those principles into effect. That is all I care to say at this time."

This statement appearing in last night's evening papers has been received with enthusiasm in this section. It is the opinion of local Republicans that it will clear up any uncertainty in the plan of action of the state campaign. Speaking locally, based on inquiries made during the past several weeks, it meets with more than ordinary confidence.

High School Alumni Meeting Announced

CHAT FROM THE FEDERATION MEETING

The Things that Interest Delaware Club Women

The annual meeting of the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs was held at the New Century Club building Wilmington, last Thursday and Friday. Fifty-two delegates and twenty-two officers and members of state committees were reported by the credential committee.

The official attendants, however, formed only a small part of the large and enthusiastic attendance of club members from all parts of Delaware. The members were greeted by Governor Miller, Mayor Price, and the State President, Miss Ray Heydrick, of Bridgeville. Items of interest brought out during the two day session follow:

Membership of the Federation
During the session two new organizations, the Civic Club of Greenwood and Wilmington Chapter Women's Organization National American Retail Druggists, were admitted to the Federation. This makes the D. S. F. W. C. composed of 24 affiliated bodies, with a total membership of 2284.

Governor Urges Interest in Schools

Governor Miller, in addressing the Federation congratulated the members on "the potential influence of the organization in the State," adding "it is bound to tend to the advancement and improvement of our citizenship." He urged the attention of club women to the rural schools, especially referring to the one condition that is throttling them—the tax system. "The law is archaic," he said, "nearly one hundred years old."

It is impossible to get the legislature to change it, and we will have to get a dynamic force, such as yours, back of our legislators."

Delegates to Biennial in New York
Miss Heydrick spoke enthusiastically of the Biennial to be held in New York May 23-June 2. The club women of the city have been thoroughly organized for months planning a royal entertainment for the visitors from every state in the Union. Delaware's delegates are:

Miss Heydrick, president; Miss Anna Hough, Smyrna; Mrs. J. A. Colby, Wilmington; Mrs. R. J. Lindale, Wyoming; Mrs. S. J. Reynolds, Smyrna; alternates—Mrs. O. C. Purdy, Wilmington; Mrs. L. B. Cannon, Bridgeville; Mrs. R. L. Holiday, Dover.

Mrs. George W. Marshall of Milford, Mrs. W. H. Evans and Mrs. Harry Hayward of Newark; Mrs. C. C. Fulton, Mrs. James Pennewill, Mrs. R. H. Van Dyke, Mrs. Robert Ferguson and Mrs. C. D. Sypherd of Dover; Mrs. Willard Morse of Seaford, Miss Clara Brady Green and Ada Warren of Middletown will be visitors.

The Work of the Educational Committee

Mrs. William H. Evans, of the Newark club, chairman of the Committee in Education, reported as follows:

"It is the aim of this report to show how the federated clubs of this State through their committees on arts and crafts and education have co-operated to make this year fruitful for the schools of Delaware. The plan conceived was to join forces and work wholeheartedly toward the achievement of two purposes; the establishment of a circulating picture library for the use of the school children of Delaware and a Federation Loan Fund for the students of the Women's College."

"At the beginning of the second college year there was a recognized need for a fund which accepted students could borrow to help them complete their college courses. The subject was agitated by those interested and was brought to the department of club work. At an open conference of committees on arts and crafts and education held at the Women's College, October 30, 1915, enthusiastic addresses were made by Mrs. A. D. Warner, Dean Robinson, Miss Rachael Howland, President S. C. Mitchell and Daniel O. Hastings."

Gifts to Students' Loan Fund

A great deal of enthusiasm was exhibited over the Students' Loan Fund for the Women's College, which amounts to $668. The clubs gave as follows: Washington Heights, $25; Harrington, $5; Newark, $25; Felton, $25; Delaware City, $10; Smyrna, $25; Wilmington, $50; the federation, $50; Delmar, $5; New Castle, $15; Bridgeville, $5; Seaford, $10; Milton, $5; Dover, $100; Milford, $32. Smyrna Club not only gave $25 but brought that amount up to $127.50 by individual contributions from all over the State.

Individual contributions $25—Mrs. W. P. Bancroft, Mrs. Preston Lea, Mrs. F. G. Tallman, Mrs. C. B. Evans; $10—Mrs. A. D. Warner, Mrs. S. S. Deemer, Miss Ray Heydrick, Mrs. S. J. Reynolds, Mrs. J. P. Hoffecker, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. S. M. Farrell, Mrs. L. I. Handy; $5—Mrs. W. W. Tschudy, Miss Anna Hough, Mrs. Victor Messick, Mrs. Margaret Collins, Mrs. R. W. Waller, Mrs. J. E. Carter, Mrs. F. F. Evans, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. L. M. Price, Mrs. Walter Hinson; $2.50—Mrs. J. E. De Ford; $2—Mrs. J. A. Hoffecker; $1—Mrs. J. F. Webb, Mrs. F. E. Postles, Miss Anna Beckett, Mrs. B. C. Collins, Mrs. E. M. Fowler, Mrs. W. G. Denkyne. The Seaford Club raised $17 among the townspeople.

Suggestions to the Club

"Suggestions for work which may be begun now and carried forward throughout the year were:

"First, Interesting all teachers in the great advantages to be derived from attending summer school for teachers at Delaware College."

"Second, Adopting one school by improving and beautifying it in a way of sanitation, equipment, decoration and play grounds."

W. C. T. U. WORKERS IN CONVENTION

A. R. Spaid Among The Speakers

The 29th annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of New Castle County was held in Forest Presbyterian Church, Middletown, last Thursday. Each Union was represented by two or more members. Mrs. Mary B. Donnell of Newark presided. Principal speakers at the all day meeting were former county superintendent of public schools, A. R. Spaid, Mrs. Lulu L. Shepherd, State president of the Utah Union, and Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles of Wilmington, who talked on the coming of Equal Suffrage. A resolution urging the judiciary committee of the United States Senate to report favorably on the Susan B. Anthony Suffrage Amendment was adopted. At the evening session a special musical program was given by the combined choirs of the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches.

During the convention the election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. Mary B. Donnell of Newark; vice-president, Mrs. Elsie McVaugh of Hockessin; secretary, Miss Lillie B. Williams of Marshallton; treasurer, Mrs. Isaac Woodrow of Wilmington.

STATE LICENSE DUE IN JUNE

To all licenses not paid in June, 5 per centum will be added, to all licenses not paid in July an additional penalty of 10 per centum will be added and to all licenses not paid in August a further additional penalty of 10 per centum will be added, making making a penalty of 25 per centum on licenses paid after August, in addition any person or persons conducting a business after August of each year without a license is liable to be indicted by the grand jury at the ensuing term of court.

Any person refusing to permit such examination shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined $500 or imprisoned or both.

The manufacturer's tax is $5.50 plus 20 cents per thousand on the gross receipts.

The merchant's tax is $5.50 plus $1.00 per thousand on the gross purchases.

Dogs in Relief Work of War

The Red Cross St. Bernard dogs are performing a valuable part in the relief work of the war. "They are a great help to us, writes a nurse, "and it is remarkable how they know the dead from the unconscious. "When they find a living man they give a low mournful howl to fetch us. We don't let them out till battle is over, and sometimes we can't tell exactly where they have found the man, so when no one goes to them they come to us carrying the man's cap, and lead us to the spot."

FEAR DAMAGED APPLE CROP

Early Varieties Blighted

Apple growers throughout Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland, composing the Delaware and Maryland Peninsula, are much concerned over practically the total destruction of their early apple crop, mainly the Yellow Transparent variety, caused by the scab of fire blight, which has affected many of the orchards, both large and small. The cool weather of the past several weeks has been most favorable to the disease, and for this reason apple growers contend that they have much to fear for their early apple crop.

F. M. Soper, of Magnolia, Well-known as the Delaware "Apple King," reports that his Yellow Transparent apple crop will practically be a total failure and loss, with probabilities that the disease may extend to other earlier varieties.

Dr. W. S. Maxwell of Still Pond, Md., another large apple grower of the Eastern Shore, reports his Yellow Transparents badly damaged, with less than half a crop, possible less than a quarter of a crop.

Farmers and fruit growers, however, claim that the cool weather has not affected wheat or other early vegetables and fruits, the only complaint being a setback to the yields. Strawberries, while plentiful, will be at least two weeks later in Delaware this year than in former years. The same will be true of other berries and vegetables.

ROOSTER WEEK LATEST FAD

The Pennsylvania State Department of Agriculture has issued a call to the farmers and poultry raisers of the State to observe "Rooster Week" between May 29 and June 3, and either kill a rooster a day or pen up the cockerels.

A statement put out by the Department says that the suggestion to reduce the number of roosters is made by W. Theo Wittman, the poultry expert to the Department, "for the betterment of the poultry industry of the State" and the production of more non-fertile eggs. It is declared that fertile eggs are the cause of heavy loss to the poultrymen annually, the Department saying that the fertile eggs spoil easily in summer months and that they do not command as good prices as others.

"There are probably 600,000 to 800,000 roosters running on farms in Pennsylvania right now and with what are in the villages, towns and cities the total may reach 1,000,000 roosters," says the Department statement. "As of these male chickens we can easily and profitably do without and it is the earnest desire of those interested in the poultry industry of this State to have all poultry raisers either kill off or pen up their roosters not later than the last week in May."

Will positively produce more milk than any other ration either home mixed or purchased, and do it without giving your cows constipation or other trouble. Ready to use right out of the sack without any mixing or bother.

Larro-feed

Absolutely free from adulterants and fillers. Just like the feed you would mix for yourself, is a special combination of choice cottonseed meal, dried best pulp, gluten feed, corn distillers' grains, wheat bran, wheat middlings and a little salt, that's all; each ingredient weighed by automatic scales and all thoroughly mixed in huge power-driven mixers, so that it is always absolutely uniform, and always good. An extra quart or two of milk daily from each cow may turn a loss into a profit. Try LARRO-FEED for more profits. Sold in a sack of "meaty" bulk if you wish and satisfied."

SPEED REGULATION CONTROVERSY

Just another word concerning the article of last week on the Auto-Speed Regulation as passed by Council and enforced by the officer in charge.

The article, as usual when any straightforward criticism appears in print, has been the subject of considerable comment both reasonable and unreasonable. A good portion of the talk has centered in wholesale condemnation of The Post, rather than a consideration of the merits of the criticism. There has been no pretense of defense of the ordinance as handed out to the traveling public. We should be very glad indeed to print a contradiction to the accusation, and give publicity to any argument of officials may have in defense of the town.

The facts are these, known generally throughout the town—that many arrests have been made which were grossly unfair. The officer in charge cannot be held accountable. He is simply following instructions of Council. Again, the accusation is made that a very great majority of arrests are foreign cars. "Another $7.00 for Newark,"—a laughing comment at a recent arrest, is a standing joke.

Still again, these accusations as reported last week, are from citizens as law abiding and reputable as those who live in Newark. Their prominence adds nothing to the merit or truth of the accusation, but it is sufficient for us to take notice of it.

Heretofore, we have not held Council responsible for this. But now we think some expression is due from them, in answer to these reports. We have brought these reports to the attention of Newark in order to prevent, if possible, the town being so grossly represented at every hotel and garage from New York to Washington.

Squire Lovett in speaking of the matter says he thinks the officer should be given more discretion and that he has urged Council to so instruct him. Suffice to say that Newark is the subject of very unfavorable comment by men who observe the law just as much as we do. The Post has, rightfully we think, brought it to the attention of our citizens. That we should have kept quiet is not our version of civic duty. If the accusation is false, in the name of the town, let's defend ourselves. If true, let's remedy the trouble.

The sentiment of Newark for reason, fair play, and courtesy has been very seriously questioned by reputable and very serious people.

Whether rightly so is the issue.

No one wishes Main street to become a speedway, nor is this any plea for such. Reasonable safety, public courtesy, fair play is the true sentiment of the community and we want the traveling public to so consider it.

BOY SCOUTS HIKE TO CROW'S HILL

Practice Scoutcraft among the Hills

Troop 2, of the Newark Boy Scouts held the regular meeting in the Armory on Friday, May 19th. After some time spent in signal practice and bandaging the Troop was put through a good hard drill by the officers. The following were named by Scoutmaster Tarr to draw up a set of Rules and Regulations: Senior Patrol leader, Clarence W. Evans; Patrol Leaders Johnson Rowan and Joe Willis; Corporal, James Longfellow; Scribe, Cleaver Price.

On Saturday, May 20, the Troop hiked to Crow's Hill under the leadership of Scoutmaster Tarr. The vicinity of Crow's Hill is noted for its wildness and beauty, being covered with large pine woods in which grow lady-slippers, showy orchids and other rare flowers.

We camped on the banks of Middle Run in a pretty valley between two series of wooded hillsides. Mr. Tarr thought it a fine country for real practical scouting. He, therefore, picked out two parties, one to attack the camp, and one to defend it. The attackers were given a one-half hour's start and instructed to push back into the hills as far as possible in the half-hour. Then they were to move toward camp, trying to reach it without being seen by the defenders, who were required to be always advancing and not spying on the camp. The contest lasted about an hour. Senior Patrol Leader Evans and Scout Bayard Lindell caught two attackers. The rest reached camp safely.

Near dark, we cooked our supper and after a little drill, we started for Newark, arriving home about 9.30 p. m.

CREDIT

TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE AND SHARE PROFITS WITH THOSE WHO MAKE POSSIBLE YOUR SUCCESS

These are definite policies of the Newark Trust and Safe Deposit Company. The practice of these policies has brought us Success.

Service, Business Accommodation, Interest on Saving Accounts, Interest on Checking Accounts,—these things have given us the name of LEADERSHIP among Rural Banks. But the real cause is the interest we have taken in the small depositor with his careful savings, and the small business man who has a safe, but small checking account. While we welcome heavy, big business accounts success has been made by our many small depositors. With these, we share our profits just the same as if they carried a big balance, at all times. It means that EVERY DEPOSITOR here is, as far as profits go, a stockholder. His savings account may be a thousand, a hundred or just ONE DOLLAR, he gets interest on that. (By the way, this bank was the first in rural New Castle to do this.) Again, if a depositor has an account with a balance running into thousands or hundreds, he gets no more than the man with only a few dollar's balance. The man who is building up a business, and has only a small account, gets his interest on his balance the same as the big fellow. We place no limit on the amount you deposit before you get any interest.

An account with us means, we divide the profits with you.

As a Community Bank, we must do this. Our Bank is not an Institution for the Director's and Stockholder's profit alone. It is a Depositor's Bank. Every Depositor who has ONE Dollar, here, gets a profit.

So this is the reason we say "CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE".

The Small Depositors, the little business men are the cause of the growth and Success of our little Trust Company whose 10 years' service to this community shows a record to be proud of.

ESPECIALLY PROUD when we show these figures,

PAID IN INTEREST OUT OF OUR PROFITS

$ 46,339.34

Until we started this, these profits went to Directors, Stockholders and the big money men.

This money, heretofore Bank Profits, has been handed back to the Community. This amount, $46,339.34, nearly equal to our Capital stock, has been given to the Depositors—the small sharing proportionally equal with the large.

2 PER CENT CHECKING ACCOUNTS

ATTENTION TO NEW TOWN ORDINANCE

Receptacles For Waste Paper To Be Placed On Streets

Edward L. Richard, chairman of the committee on waste paper boxes, has been busy the last week inquiring into the best kind of receptacle to provide. He has had letters from Washington, New York, Columbus, Ohio, and other cities and has learned that they cost anywhere from $4.00 to $13.00 each. It is the hope of the committee to decide upon the make and price of the boxes within a week, and to order five to be placed along Main street. In this connection the Town Beautiful Committee wishes to direct attention to this new ordinance just passed by Town Council.

"It shall be unlawful to distribute posters, price lists, or any other papers excepting where they are handed to persons, placed in private mail boxes or put under the doors of houses or business places, thus prohibiting the throwing of posters in yards and in the street. Any one so offending shall upon conviction before the magistrate pay a fine of not less than $5.00.

The observance or the enforcement of this ordinance will bring about a great improvement in the appearance of our streets which for a long time have been in a disgracefully untidy condition, and Council is to be congratulated upon its action. The paper strewn streets have been due not entirely to the distribution of circulars by merchants. Much of the waste paper blowing about the street is the discard of people who in walking along drop paper bags, wrappings, envelopes, etc., and this is especially noticeable near the post office.

GET RID OF YOUR ASHES

Committee Plans Convenient Method

The most active of the Committees the last week has been the Committee on Un-sightly Objects, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Rowan, John R. Chapman, George W. Rhodes and George Casho. The Committee has made record tours of inspection along Main street, carefully noting objects that offend the eye—such as ash piles, dilapidated fences or buildings, high weeds, etc. In many cases just a mere suggestion to a property owner has been sufficient, and the Committee wishes to thank those who have shown such a ready co-operation with the Town Beautiful idea. From time to time property owners along Main street will be asked to do specific things to enhance the appearance of their places, and it is hoped that any suggestion made by the committee will be received with good nature even though they are unable to act on the Committee's request remembering that the body is commissioned by Council to undertake this work for the good of the town so that it may become a model for other places in the state. This committee wishes to announce that it has completed arrangements with Alfred Stiltz (telephone No. 170) who has made a special price for the removal of ashes, during the next few weeks, that is, 50 cents for a one horse cart load, or $1.00 for a two horse load. This special offer includes the charge for dumpage.

THE WAY OF IT IN MIDDLETOWN

Pavement Notices Issued By Town Government

The following item under the date of May 16 from Middletown appeared in the Every Evening:

"The Town Commissioners have prepared their annual batch of paving notices, and they are now in the hands of the chief of police, to be served. About this time of each year the list is prepared and the notices are sent to the property owners whose pavements are in bad shape. Notice is given to pave in a required manner within three months, or penalty will be inflicted."

In Newark things are done more gently—less compulsive and more moral suasion, though if the truth were told there is far more reason

TREES FOR STREET PLANTING

A good street tree should possess certain qualities, such as hardiness, adaptiveness to soil conditions, have ornamental and shading value, good habit of growth, a long life and comparative immunity from diseases and insect pests.

No one tree seems to have these qualities. There is scarcely a tree used in street planting that some one cannot find some fault in.

The following list is subjective:

Oriental Sycamore

1. Oriental Sycamore (Platanus orientalis). This tree is not as hardy as the native sycamore, yet in this latitude it is perfectly hardy. It is more beautiful and a more rapid grower than the native sycamore. It has a wide adaptation to soil conditions and will succeed in locations where other trees would quietly succumb. It is a particularly good tree for paved streets and will thrive in openings made in paved side walks. It also responds to good conditions and makes its best growth in a sandy loam soil. It is not attacked seriously by insects and is practically immune to certain leaf diseases that render the native sycamore unsightly. It is one of the few trees that combine rapid growth and a long life. It is a good shade tree, and while not as handsome as some other trees, it is not unattractive. Its green and white mottled bark and spreading compact head make it an attractive tree to flourish under mutilation. (Take a look in the winter time at the row in front of the High School.)

Norway Maple

2. Norway Maple (Acer platanoides). The Norway maple is the best of all the maples for street planting. There is question of its hardiness. It readily adapts itself to wide range of soils. It is a rapid grower and is long-lived. The branches are tough, not easily broken and there is but little refuse from it to litter up the street. For Newark's narrow streets it has almost too compact a head, as the narrow streets necessitate its being fairly close to the houses and the dense foliage shuts off the much needed southern breeze on summer nights. The Norway maple is a beautiful tree. The blossoms are attractive in the spring and the leaves remain on in the fall long after they have fallen from most other street trees. It needs but little pruning if it is carefully trained for a few years after setting. The young trees are somewhat crooked but as the tree grows older it outgrows this defect. It is practically free from diseases and no serious insect pests molest it. It is better adapted to residence streets than business streets. As a street tree the head should not be started too low. There is a good specimen in the front yard of the primary school.

American Elm

3. The American Elm (Ulmus Americana). The elm altho it adapts itself to most soil conditions grows best in rich moist soils along the banks of streams. The American elm may well be called the most beautiful of all American trees and proud indeed is that town which can boast of an avenue of old, undamaged elms. Its habit of branching high, its vase shaped form and wide spreading crown, make it rank in these points as first among shade trees. It does not adapt itself well to paved streets. It is essentially a tree for the residence sections of villages and towns. The elm is seriously attacked by many insects such as the Elm leaf beetle, the Elm bark beetle, the Elm scale and other insects. It needs occasional sprayings to keep it in good condition. The Elm is the tree for the big front yard. There are two or three old trees on the College Campus.

European Linden

4. European Linden (Tilia vulgaris). The European Linden far exceeds the native Linden as a street tree. It thrives in a great variety of soils. It does not adapt itself well to paved streets. When it gets old it sheds a great amount of dead twigs each year and it apt to litter up the walks underneath. The Linden is a beautiful tree and makes an excellent street tree where conditions favor it.

There is a fine row of these trees on the College Campus. Unfortunately these trees on the Campus were not set far enough apart and as a result have failed to develop their full beauty of form.

Crimean Linden

5. The Crimean Linden (Tilia dasystyla). The Crimean Linden is the best of all Lindens for street planting. It is very hardy and will grow in any soil that is at all favorable for plant life. It is a handsome tree and supplies good shade. The leaves are thick and thrive under the dusty conditions that prevail in well traveled streets. (We need something is dust resistant on West Main street.) It has a few insect troubles and a few diseases attack it, but none are serious. As far as the writer is aware there are none of these trees in Newark.

Dr. Stanley Q. West has been spending several days at his home in the village.

Mr. Joseph Lybrand is visiting friends in New London, Pa.

Mrs. William Willard and Mrs. J. S. Curry are both on the mend.

Won Race With Auto Thief

Michael Negro, aged 18 years and two companions "commandered" the automobile of George Randman in front of 822 Washington street, Wilmington, last Monday and headed the car for Newport, Stanton and Newark. Randman missed the car and notified the police. Motorcycle officer Kane got trace of the car and caught sight of it on the road. He put on speed and after a long chase was winning the race when Negro gave their names to the police officials.

See the Clothing---Then Decide

After all's said and done, it's the clothing that counts—not newspaper talk. It's what you see in the store, not what you read in the advertisement that influences your purchase.

A man wants to see the clothes, to note their style, to examine the fabrics and workmanship and then he wants to see how the garments look on him.

And because so many men have found that Snellenburg clothes look better on them and give better service than any others, we do the biggest clothing business in Wilmington.

There's also another decided advantage in buying from us—lower prices than elsewhere. This is possible because we make all the clothing ourselves and sell it directly to you without having to add any middleman's profit to our prices.

We've never been so ready to demonstrate the superiority of our values as we are this spring. See for yourself—compare.

Baseball, Track And Tennis Teams Trim Opponents

After losing two successive games, the "Blue and Gold" team came into its own Saturday and won out over Western Maryland after a close and hard fought game. The Delaware team played good consistent ball against the visitors in spite of the fact that several errors were chalked up against her.

As usual, Delaware allowed the

Blue and Gold Track Athletes Trim Drexel

The Delaware College track team won its first home dual meet of the season Saturday on Joe Frazer Field by defeating the Drexel Institute squad. The final score was 69 to 30. In the eleven events the visitors were only able to capture three first places. Jones, of Drexel, was the individual star. He won the furlong dash and broad jump, while Hisler walked away with the one mile run in 4:49 4-5.

The time made in the sprints was somewhat slow on account of the heavy wind that faced the runners on the straightaway. Steele, the old reliable came across in the quarter and half mile events and won both. Crockett, who holds the low and high hurdle records at the Blue and Gold institution, did not participate because of injuries he sustained some weeks ago. It is probable that he will not run the rest of the season. Henry Marston and George Wilson, both freshmen, ran the hurdles and captured the events with ease. Marconetti, a freshman who has never performed before won the shot put, heaving the iron 31 feet 3 inches.

Hisler of Drexel, ran one of the prettiest races of the day. He captured the mile in 4:49 4-5. Taylor of Delaware, finished second. In the 220 yard dash, Marshall got away in the lead and kept it for 200 yards. Then Jones came to the front and won by two yards.

Delaware Wins In Tennis

The Delaware College tennis team won its first match of the season Saturday afternoon by defeating the Drexel Institute welders by the score of 5 to 1. The Gold and Blue players captured the single matches, but fell down in one double match. This victory was a great surprise because of the winning streak the Drexel boys have had the past three weeks. Coach Dutton, who has been working consistently with the men, is responsible for the fine showing the Delaware men are making.

Newark High Wins From duPont

In a fast game the Newark High School team on Friday defeated the duPont High by the score of 6 to 1. Both pitchers worked fast and the game was played in one hour and twenty minutes.

Ramsey pitched his first game for Newark and did good work. His support however, was perfect. He held the visitors to five hits and their one run in the third inning was largely due to his own wild pitch which advanced a runner a base allowing him to score on a short single. Score:

Of course our council has full power to compel the repair of sidewalks but it hopes that the Town Beautiful Committee can give this matter the attention and work out a scheme which will expedite paying improvements—that is to persuade Main street property owners to fix up their pavements during May and June so that Council will not be under the necessity of compelling them to do it by legal means.
