

257
ADDRESS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO
THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

August 16, 1933.

My dear Messersmith:

Just in case you missed a complimentary editorial in the PHILADELPHIA PUBLIC LEDGER, I enclose a copy to show that the excellence of your work is beginning to command public recognition.

With every good wish, as ever yours,

P. M.

Enclosure:
Clipping.

George S. Messersmith, Esquire,
American Consul General,
Berlin, Germany.
