DELAWARE COLLEGE

NOW, as never before, Delaware College is prepared to give to the graduates of four-year high schools the training that will enable them to take better places and do more efficient work in the business or profession that they expect to follow. New courses have been added to the curriculum to meet the needs of young men who wish to engage in business and in teaching. The courses in engineering have been expanded and strengthened, as have those in other departments. The campus has been enlarged and beautified; new buildings have been erected; new and complete equipment has been purchased. The expenses are comparatively low; tuition is free to natives of the state. Delaware College is the logical choice of all Delaware young men who desire to prepare themselves to help meet the demand for trained men that is becoming stronger and stronger as the years go by.

YOUNG WOMEN! Your Government Needs You!

THE United States Government is seriously handicapped in carrying on its departmental work through a great lack of trained office workers. A. G. Benkhart, Director of Employment, U. S. Department of Labor, states in a recent letter, "Over 10,000 new stenographers and clerks will be needed within the next six months. They are as much in demand as soldiers for the proper conduct of the war."

This is a fine opportunity for well-educated and patriotic young women to render valuable and effective service toward winning victory for the Allied Nations.

Will YOU help?

Throughout the year, Goldey College will give intensive individual instruction in shorthand, bookkeeping, typewriting and related subjects. In a short time, at reasonable cost and with proper effort, you will be qualified to "do your bit" either in a government office or by taking the place in business of the young man who is "somewhere in France."

This is your call to duty. Will you heed it?

Full particulars as to courses, rates, time to enter, etc., sent promptly upon request. Ask for them today.
