DOG BAN CONTINUES

Newark's six-week quarantine on dogs ended last Saturday, but the restrictions will be continued until further notice, it was announced this week by Dr. John R. Downes, public health officer.

The quarantine was declared in February when a local dog died of rabies. In order to curb the spreading of the disease, owners were requested to muzzle their pets or permit them to go out only when on a leash. Since the first case was diagnosed, two other dogs were found to be suffering with rabies.

Dr. Downes has requested complete cooperation from all dog owners in following out restrictions placed by the quarantine. It is possible that the ban may continue for another two months.

FRATERNITY DESPOTISM CHARGED BY STUDENTS

Ruling Minority Again Under Fire; Non-Frat Faction Seeking Changes

Following their protests in the "Review," undergraduate publication, to the present system of student government, non-fraternity leaders at the University of Delaware announced that a rally will be held Tuesday evening in Wolf Hall for the purpose of organizing the attack.

Plans for the assembly were announced by Mike Poppitti, former co-editor of the newspaper, after Norman Schutzman, Student Council president and a member of the Sigma Tau Phi fraternity, had denied all charge of fraternity "despotism" with the general statement, "Most of the facts recorded in the 'Review' are false."

"Schutzman will be the first speaker invited," Poppitti said, "and he will be given ample opportunity to present the issue from the fraternity's point of view."

Spark to the explosion was ignited last week when the fraternity-controlled Student Council voted to limit the class election voting period to 50 minutes. "This would mean that 599 students would have but 50 minutes to cast their vote, or 12 men will have to ballot every sixty seconds," Poppitti pointed out.

Under the present system, 108 students, representing five fraternities, are represented by 10 members on the council, while the majority non-fraternity group of 491 students, is represented by only five councilmen.

Three petitions signed by more than 25 per cent of the student body are now being considered by the council. The non-fraternity group seeks to set the election day for Tuesday, April 29, instead of April 8; the time from nine a. m. until 4:30 p. m. A more representative council is also sought. The third petition would prove four councilmen from the two upper classes and three from the sophomore class, all with voting power, and two representatives from the incoming freshman class without the power of voting.

R. P. MAJOR ELECTED TO HEAD P.-T. A.

Election Held By Stanton Group Thursday

Stanton, March 26—The Stanton School P.-T. A. held its monthly business session Thursday evening, with Mrs. Charles Wilson, president, presiding. Approximately 150 people attended. Announcement was made of the State P.-T. A. convention to be held on April 19th at Dover, and delegates were appointed as follows: Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, Mrs. J. O. Hedlicka, Mrs. George Barr, Mrs. R. P. Major, Mrs. Clarence S. Reed, Mrs. C. McVey, Mrs. Della Othosen, Mrs. M. Wise, Mrs. Irvin Steele, Mrs. Wilmer Stevens, Mrs. William Bradley and Mrs. Natalie Sietz.

Mrs. Helen W. Wright, teacher sponsor of the Stanton school junior Red Cross, displayed the work completed by the branch and now ready for delivery to the Red Cross headquarters. The P.-T. A. is arranging a benefit party for the April 17th meeting, dispensing with the business session. The May program will be in charge of the state art director, at which time accomplishments of the Stanton School in art during the past year, will be displayed.

The Nominating Committee, comprising Mrs. Paul Wier, Mrs. Charles Singles and Mrs. James Moore, presented the following list of officers for the ensuing year, and they were unanimously elected by the association: President, R. P. Major; vice president, Clarence S. Reed; treasurer, Mrs. Irvin Steele; secretary, Mrs. Ada B. Helmpreck.

Mrs. J. O. Hedlicka, chairman of ways and means, reported that 113 dozen hot cross buns and doughnuts had been sold during the past week, and a profit of $9.63 realized. Another sale will be conducted this week.

Joseph O. Hedlicka, serving as chairman of the program committee, presented Lieut. Col. John F. Daye, of the U. S. Army, a retired service official from San Francisco, who is in charge of Recruiting Service for the state of Delaware. He addressed the group on "National Defense."

The Rev. David W. Baker, Pastor of the Stanton Methodist Church, is making plans for a week of special services during Holy Week, with a three hour service on Good Friday.

The Junior Red Cross Branch recently organized through the Stanton School has just completed 80 pieces of materials including articles of clothing, baby sacks, blankets and crib quilts, as well as dolls and toys for children. A previous shipment of articles numbering about 40 pieces has been sent to headquarters. The group is very much interested in this work, and will continue its activities. Mrs. Helen W. Wright and Miss Lora Little, are the school sponsors of this group.

THE PERENNIAL SQUABBLE between factions representing University of Delaware fraternities and the non-fraternity group is with us again, but leaders of the uprising are resolved that the protest will not die a natural death as it has done in former years.

From information we have picked up from various sources around the campus, the heart of the difficulty lies in the fraternity - controlled Student Council, run by a better-organized minority which has reaped most of the honor and glory while the less solid non-frat representatives collect only the crumbs.

AND IF YOU REMEMBER YOUR French history, no man is satisfied with a crumb when the baker is turning out ovens full of sweet buns.

Co-editors of the "Review," Mike Poppiti and Jan Bove, fired the opening campus-shaking volley last week when they published an edition crammed full of protest which was designed to enlighten all members of the non-fraternity faction who were not aware of how they were being kicked around.

In answer to the charges of fraternity "despotism" and unfair legislation against the majority, Norman Schutzman, Sigma Tau Phi's first Student Council president, brilliantly defended his fraternity group, the block that rode him into office, with the very, very general statement: "Most of the facts published in the 'Review' are false—other than that, I have nothing to say."

FRATERNITY MEN, ALTHOUGH nettled at the viciousness of the current attack, are inclined to sit back on their haunches and await developments—but non-frat leaders are confident that the series of moves scheduled will bring something in the way of results.

In an editorial headed, "Reckoning Necessary," the "Review" editors charge that: "... grossly undemocratic political actions by the fraternities on this campus are operating to the detriment of an overwhelming majority of our student body, and that these Hitleristic methods should be brought to the attention of the student body in an effort to eliminate them."

Pointing out that when ample time was provided at the last election, the vote cast doubled that of any previous election on the campus, the editorial attacks the council's move to limit the period to one hour. "In this connection," the editorial states, "it is to be noted that only one fraternity man was elected to class office."

According to figures published in the same issue, five fraternities, consisting of 108 members, have 10 seats on the council while 491 non-fraternity students are represented by only five councilmen.

IT IS OBVIOUS, AS IN CITY, state and federal governments, that the group in power will legislate to its own advantage and the fraternity faction has seldom permitted more than a very small crack in the dike. Last year, they approved a four-hour voting period and the water rushed in, but an attempt has been made to plug the wall again by limiting the balloting to 50 minutes. Above all, nothing must interfere with the system of rotating class offices around the fraternity houses.

In 1937, when the intramural program was introduced, the inter-fraternity relay was abolished by the physical education department. The inter-fraternity council voted to withdraw support from the new setup unless the race was returned to the schedule. At that time, we expressed the following views on fraternities and their influence on campus life:

"RUNNING TRUE TO FORM, THEY are once again attempting to get something for themselves rather than concentrating their interests on a program, that so far as the whole student body is concerned, has it all over the old order.

"A fraternity sets itself apart from a university and works for its own betterment rather than the school's. It is useless to phys ed directors to request them to drop selfish interests and concentrate on improving something outside of their own limited area."

Maybe the non-frat majority couldn't even do as good a job of running student activities, but at least they're entitled to an adequate voice in the way things are run.

We doubt, however, if they could conceive of anything more vicious than the fraternity "spoils" system.

STAKES AT DELAWARE PARK INCREASED FOR 1941 MEET; SEASON TO OPEN MAY 30

Purse Money To Be Distributed To Horsemen Estimated At $360,000; New Castle Handicap To Climax Season On July 5; Sussex Moved To June 21

With increases all along the line so that the total purse distribution will be the greatest in the track's history, and with a filly and mare stake occupying the climactic place of honor, Delaware Park will begin its 1941 meeting on Memorial Day, (May 30th), with a new attractiveness for horsemen and public. It is estimated that the money distribution during the thirty-six day race meeting which will come to an end on July 5th, will approximate $360,000, a figure that will set a new record for total, as well as per diem, distribution.

Devoted to the breeding side of the sport as well as the competitive side, the Delaware Steeplechase and Race Association will for the first time conclude its session with the $10,000 New Castle Handicap. Breeders from Kentucky to California long have clamored for more emphasis on the distaff side of the sport—more devotion to the races for fillies and mares.

Altering long established custom, Delaware Park has given the final place of importance to the New Castle, a test of endurance as well as speed for fillies and mares, since it is at a mile and a sixteenth. This shift is believed to be the first of its kind at any major American racetrack and was decided upon following a conference of the Delaware Park big three—J. Simpson Dean, president; Donald P. Ross, and William duPont, Jr.

The $10,000 Sussex Handicap, which has been the windup feature at Delaware, has been moved forward to June 21st. The third of Delaware's $10,000 stakes, the Kent Handicap, is scheduled for June 14th. The Kent is confined to three year olds. The Sussex is for any horse of three years and upward. The New Castle is restricted to fillies and mares, three years old and upward.

What doubtless will interest the rank and file of horsemen much more, is the increase in the minimum purse value. A system of graded values has been worked out so that only a few purses will be as low as $1,000, which in other years was the Delaware bottom figure. This year, according to the distance of the race, and value of the horse, values will range from $1,100 up to $1,500. The only purses as low as $1,000 will be those for the cheapest claiming horses running at distances less than a mile and a sixteenth.

General Manager Edward Burke, and Racing Secretary Edward J. Brennan have aimed at placing emphasis on distance races as well as on tests which will help breeders. Thus the book which Secretary Brennan has written finds more opportunities for horses who can run over a distance of ground. The public likes such races. And the purse money will be there to reward owners and trainers who fit their horses for the extra distance.

Once again Delaware Park will have fourteen stakes, and there will be no diminution of the emphasis on steeplechasing. Four of the fourteen stakes will be jumping tests. And once again Delaware Park will cooperate with New York racing in that the sport

Forced to drop from school last year due to a mysterious eye ailment, the Hen's veteran shortstop has returned to the University of Delaware baseball team and is expected to prove a big help to Coach Gerald P. (Doc) Doherty. The team will make its 1941 debut next Thursday when Dartmouth College invades Frazer Field.

DELAWARE TOSSERS PREP FOR OPENER

Problem Created At First Base; Dartmouth To Invade Newark

Coach Gerald P. (Doc) Doherty of the University of Delaware today announced that the baseball team will open its first workout of the season on Thursday, the Hens have only a few days to prepare for their first game against Dartmouth College on Frazer Field. A lot of work will have to be done in time for the opening game on Saturday, May 31st.

While three infield positions more or less settled, a big vacancy has been created by and Tom Skrippe divided last season, but the former was shunted to the sidelines by difficulties, while the latter held by Earl Sheets who was held by June. Conrad Sidoway groomed for the job just as he recovers from an injured leg. In the meantime, the surprise of Brock-E. received the Blue and Gold in week. turned in most of the victories of the Hens.

Three veterans, Captain (Lunk) Apley at third base, Sam Crowley at second, and Fred Samuels at shortstop, are practically starting posts in the game. The snappy infield will be the presence of two from (Red) Hogan, who started the Hens last season on the field. Greg Hillman, reputed to be an infielder and a good hitter. The outfield will be the only Perry Burkett, the only Cornelius, Harry Irwin, and Phil Doherty. The first game, just as soon as conditions improve.

OLD SCORE SETTLED

Newark bowlers gained revenge for a thumping received at Baltimore, Md. last week, when they played host to their conquerors and sent representatives of the Charles bowling alley home on the short end of a 2,945-2,905.

Playing no small part in the 40-pin conquest, Morris Adams, manager of the Legion alleys, turned in three games of 211, 212, and 225 for a grand total of 648 pins, to pace the locals. Charlie Tasker also performed brilliantly for the Newark team as he racked up games of 232, 220, and 170 for a 622-pin total.

Abe Cohen once again paced the Baltimore team with games of 224, 206, and 206, for a grand total of 636 pins.

A REPORT to America

The Ford Motor Company's business has always been to serve the needs of the American people. In providing them with low-cost transportation for the past 38 years, we have developed one of the country's largest and most useful industrial units. During a national emergency, we feel that these facilities should be devoted without reserve to our country's needs. Toward that end we started rolling months ago, with these results:

5 Several months ago work was started, on our own initiative, on an entirely new 1500 horsepower airplane engine especially designed for mass production. This engine is now in the test stage and plans are being developed for producing it in large quantities when and if needed.

6 A Ford aircraft apprentice school has been established, to train 2000 students at a time.

That is a report of progress to date.

The experience and facilities of this company can be used to do much of the job which America now needs to get done in a hurry.

Our way of working, which avoids all possible red tape, enables us to get results and get them fast. This benefits users of our products and workers who produce them.

We are ready to make anything we know how to make, to make it to the limit of our capacity if need be, to make it as fast as we can go, and to start the next job whenever our country asks us to. And to this end, we know we have the full confidence and loyal support of the workmen throughout our plants.

Safety Hints

WHAT IS YOUR EYE-Q?
Do Headlights of Approaching Cars Blind you?
Do You See Distant Objects Sharply?
Do You Blink and Squint in Sunlight?
Can You Distinguish Red and Green Lights?
Can You Read Highway Signs Clearly?
Have Your Eyes Been Tested Recently?
Have You Worn the Same Glasses for Years?
These are rhetorical questions, of course, but they are questions you should ask and answer yourself. The Delaware Safety Council warns that the safety of your life and those of others may depend on the condition of your eyes. Hundreds of traffic accidents, many of them fatal, are caused by faulty vision . . . faults that can be corrected often by properly fitted glasses.

Cold weather makes for poor visibility, treacherous pavements and uncertain motor operation. Combine these factors with faulty eyes and you have the ingredients of a tragic accident.
Four thousand six hundred eight persons in a neighboring state who applied for drivers licenses in 1939 received restricted licenses because of faulty vision. This represented 59% of the total of 7,820 restricted licenses issued. One hundred twenty-two persons failed completely to pass the optical test.
This figure, however, is a mere drop in the bucket compared to the thousands of drivers who obtained their drivers licenses before optical tests were required and who have faulty eyes . . . and you may be one of them! Don't wait until it is too late. If you are a potential killer because of bad vision, you should be the most interested in finding out . . . NOW!

As he watched an automobile speed away after striking Michael Flaherty, a fellow worker, John Cullinana of Quincy, Mass., wrote the license number in a pile of dirt, resulting in the arrest of George Puopolo.

PLANS NOW COMPLETED FOR TRADE EXHIBITS

Mrs. Gambeau's Cooking School Expected To Attract Women

Newark's progress in the field of merchandise and commerce will be on parade next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when nineteen business houses will present displays at the Newark Armory for the fourth consecutive year. The exhibits are sponsored by the Newark Chamber of Commerce.

J. Hollingsworth Co., Mote's Garage, Jackson's Hardware Co., Rittenhouse Motor Co., Diamond Ice and Coal Co., and the Sinclair Oil Co.
Arrangements for the affair have been made by a committee under the supervision of George F. Jackson, a former president of the local trade group, who has been in charge of the merchandise show for the past three years.
One of the features of the three-day program will be the cooking school which will be conducted every afternoon by Mrs. Mary V. Gambeau, of the Delaware Power and Light Co.
