37 Students In Delaware Group

Sail for Year's Study in France on 17th; Three from University on List of 18 Colleges

Thirty-seven young men and women, representing nineteen colleges and universities of the nation, will sail under the Delaware Foreign Study Plan banner for France on Thursday, July 17th, according to advices received today from headquarters here. Six other students may go with the group. Their status is pending with the committee in charge. The group will be under the supervision of Prof. Raymond Kirkbride and Miss Carolyn Fitzwater of Wilmington chaperone for girls.

Three Delaware Students

Only three Delaware students, two men and one woman, are listed in the group, the smallest representation from this state since the plan was inaugurated four years ago. They are:

Charles L. W. D. Stein,
Fred K. Nevins,
Miss Dorothy E. Interlied.

The group will be accompanied to France by Arthur G. Wilkinson as an official member of the party. Mr. Wilkinson will remain abroad until late in August when he will return to the States.

Many Colleges

The group's headquarters on and after the 16th will be the St. James Hotel in New York. They will board the liner "La France" of the French Line on the morning of the 17th and sail at noon.

Eighteen other colleges are represented in the group, including: Wellesley, Vassar, Mt. Holyoke, Randolph-Macon, Hood College, all women; and Miami University, Washington University, Dartmouth, Williams, Amherst, Brown, New York University, Cornell, Dickinson, Michigan, Kenyon College, Iowa State and Minnesota.

Four of the ten scholarships awarded this year for foreign study in England and France by the American Council of Education, are held by students in the Delaware Group, it is stated.

HISTORIC GIG PASSES

Vehicle Which Carried Jefferson To Philadelphia in '76 Takes Joy Ride

Many Newarkers waited patiently Sunday for a glimpse of the time-worn gig which Thomas Jefferson used in his memorable ride from Charlottesville, Va., to Philadelphia, carrying with him the original draft of the Declaration of Independence one June day in 1776.

They were not disappointed. Guarded by special autos and Virginia troops, the gig, encased in the bonnet of a touring car, passed through Newark shortly after noon. Those who expected to see it move under forced power, however, were non-plused when the event occurred. Minus wheels, shafts, springs, with only a portion of the dashboard and front intact, the historic relic left a great deal to the imagination.

According to report, the gig will be a fixture at the Sesqui in Philadelphia, and will be housed, strangely enough, in the New York state building.

PASSES 87th MILESTONE

Hattie Davis Receives Many Callers Monday

Miss Hattie Davis celebrated her eighty-seventh birthday quietly on Monday at the home of her nephew, W. Davis, near Cooch's Bridge. A number of Miss Davis' friends called at the Davis home during the day and she received a large number of cards. Miss Davis, who has lived in Newark and vicinity nearly all of her life, is a most charming woman, interested in social and civic affairs.

GOING ABROAD TODAY

Newark friends of Dr. and Mrs. George Morgan of Philadelphia, will be interested to know of their sailing for New York today on the S. S. "Morgan" for a cruise through the Mediterranean, and later to Norway. Dr. Morgan is Sunday editor of the Philadelphia Record, and a leading member of the Alumni of Delaware College.

GOING ABROAD

ARTHUR G. WILKINSON

Mr. Wilkinson, business administrator at the University, will accompany the Delaware Foreign Study Group to France, leaving New York July 17th. He will direct the setting up of an accounting system in connection with the group.

Brinser Coming To Local Schools

Lewes Man Accepts Offer; Enters Work Here This Week; Has Notable Record as Educator

The appointment of Ira S. Brinser of Lewes to be superintendent of schools here beginning July 1st, was officially announced late last week through the Board of Education.

The probable appointment was announced in The Post as early as June 16th, being gathered from authoritative sources.

Mr. Brinser, upon arrival in Newark, will immediately take up the task of supplying several vacancies in the teaching staff. He is widely known throughout the state, and by many people in this vicinity.

Mr. Brinser received his early education in the rural schools of Pennsylvania and was graduated from Bainbridge High School. After teaching in the rural schools for two years he entered the Millersville Normal School, graduating in the three-year course in 1913. After serving as principal of a grammar school and two years as assistant of the Marysville High School, he completed the four years' course at Millersville and then did post graduate work for two years. After two years as supervising principal of schools he entered the United States army.

A "course in human conduct" worked out under Mr. Brinser's direction in the Lewes school attracted considerable attention among educators. He is a life member of the National Education Association of the United States and is also a member of numerous other educational organizations and associations. He served as president of the Sussex County Teachers' Association.

Mr. Brinser is a member of the American Legion, the Junior Order United American Mechanics, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, Wilmington Consistory, Lu Lu Temple and the Harvard Club of Philadelphia.

MISS LONG SAILS

Miss Edwina Long will sail from New York on Saturday on the "Paris" for France, where she will stay until the last of August.

Former Pastor In Nearby Churches Receives Honorary Degree From Southern University

An old time graduate of Delaware College of the class of 1886, Rev. Edward Henry Eckel, rector of St. Andrew's Church, Fort Worth, Texas, has recently received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from the University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee. Dr. Eckel grew up in Wilmington as the adopted son of Henry Eckel, editor and publisher of the Delaware State Journal, through the period of the Civil War, and after attending Dr. S. W. Murphy's Rugby Academy and graduating, as above stated from Delaware College, went to the General Theological Seminary of the Episcopal Church, New York, and was Bishop Coleman's first ordi-

Lodgemen Invade Newark Friday

Gathering of Red Men Tribes to Feature Parade Through Principal Streets; Carnival Continues

The real feature of the Red Men-Heptasoph Carnival, the big fraternal parade, will take place here Friday evening, beginning at 7 p. m. standard time. The parade, originally scheduled for June 24th, was postponed one week due to inclement weather.

In connection with the parade, the carnival will be continued starting tomorrow evening, for the balance of the week, ending with the award of the Overland Six sedan on Saturday night. Bands will play each evening, and large crowds are expected if the rain holds off.

Many Lodges Coming

General Chairman William Armstrong announces that a number of visiting tribes of Red Men will be in town Friday night, resplendent in their war paint, and accompanied by their women folk, better known as the Degree of Pocahontas, who will also assert the right of modern women and take part in the procession.

Lodges who are certain to appear are: Cherry Hill, Md.; Wawa, Little Bear, Kennett Square, North East, Andastaka and Elkton, with Pocahontas delegations from Wawa, Little Bear, Kennett Square and North East. A local band, and probably one or more visiting bands, will furnish music for the parade.

Two prizes will be offered by the committee in charge following a review of the procession down town.

DOMESTIC FIREWORKS

Two Negro Boys Badly Burned Throwing Powder on Stove

While their mother was out of the house Saturday, Herman Lane, aged 7, and his brother Morris, aged 8, of New London avenue, conceived the early observance of the glorious Fourth.

A handful of gunpowder thrown on a hot stove in the Lane home brought the pyrotechnics. It also brought severe burns to the boys' faces and arms. Their condition, when taken to the Delaware Hospital, was pronounced serious for a time, but they are expected to recover. The injured were taken to the hospital by Irwin Wright.

TO FILL PULPIT

Prof. Richards, principal of the Newark grammar schools, will conduct services at both Head of Christiana and Pencader Presbyterian Churches next Sunday, in the absence of Rev. Mr. McMurray, the regular pastor.

JOLLY OUTING

Eighteen autos filled with members of the Methodist Men's League, their wives and friends picnicked at Welsh Tract last evening. A program of games and sports featured the occasion.

TO BUILD HOME

Mrs. Hannah Pilling has purchased a lot on the corner of Orchard Road and Winslow avenue, adjoining the property of Dr. R. E. Price on Winslow avenue. Mrs. Pilling will begin to build at once, a Dutch Colonial house of frame construction. James Hutchison is the contractor.

Glimpse Over Horizon Fails To Locate Gas; Rumor Some Rural Owners Are "Hold Outs"

Mains Laid Along New Depot Road Improvement, However, and Gas Officials Expected to Get Rights of Way Adjusted Soon

Exactly six months remain for the laying of gas mains from Marshallton to the corner of Elkton Road and West Main street, Newark, but no amount of squinting towards the eastern horizon reveals an open ditch.

The fact above stated has created no little comment on the part of Newark residents, who are confidently awaiting the great household convenience. They point to the expiration of three months during which no actual operation has been started. They ask "Why?"

As is generally known, a project of this sort involves the very necessary item of right of way. The Wilmington Gas Company, therefore, has not been inactive. The entire section from Marshallton to Newark has been canvassed and rights of way secured. Such methods are imperative.

Rumors Are Rife

It is rumored on the street here that a few farmers living along the highway whence the gas mains proceed have held up the party on the basis of damages agreement. Their names have not been revealed by the company. Instead, every confidence is expressed that these troubles will be ironed out and the ditches opened in time to allow the successful completion of the work under the provisions of the franchise entered into with the Council of Newark.

Meanwhile, wherever a street is

Batterymen Prepare To Encamp This Month

Full Strength Estimated When Boys Take Fifteen Day Practice Session At Rehoboth Beach

Members of Battery E, Delaware National Guard, are preparing, along with other units in the state, for the annual fifteen day summer encampment at New Castle and Rehoboth.

Captain James C. Hastings and First Lieutenant Wallace Cook have been attending the officers school of instruction, preparatory to moving the troops. At the school, instructions and the program for the camp were given to the officers.

Captain Hastings, in discussing the outing a few days ago, stated that the Newark unit would be recruited up to full camp strength by the time July 31st rolls around. The men are looking forward to a splendid outing.

Most of the time will be spent at Rehoboth, and work will be divided into two sessions, morning and afternoon, with plenty of time for a dip in the ocean at midday and in the late afternoon. The men will be on leave every evening, save for the necessary guard at the encampment. The troops from Milford, New Castle, Seaford and Dover will join the Newark battery in the camp. Daily practice with anti-aircraft weapons will feature the camp's program.

SEQUI HOSTESSES

Several Local Women Take Part Next Week

Members of the Newark New Century Club who will be hostesses at the Delaware Building at the Sesqui-Centennial next week will be: Monday, Mrs. J. P. Cann, Mrs. James Hastings; Tuesday, Mrs. J. Irvin Dayett, Mrs. F. A. Wheelless; Wednesday, Mrs. George Dutton, Mrs. Whittemore; Thursday, Mrs. A. T. Neale, Mrs. Levis; Friday, Mrs. George Rhodes, Mrs. Peach; Saturday, Mrs. R. O. Hausman and Mrs. Cobb. Other members of the club are urged to visit the building and to spend a day there.

ENTIRELY RECOVERED

TOOK PART IN PLAY

Miss Frances Hulihan, Willard Doordan and Harry Williamson were Newark entrants in the junior tennis tourney at the Wilmington Country Club early this week.

Mill Creek In New Road Snarl

Minority "Bloc" Firm Against Present Right Of Way, Is Report; Lid May Pop Off Any Time Now

With three property owners and lessees said to be holding out their right of way unless fat damages are awarded them, and with the entire countryside strictly divided, Mill Creek Hundred is in the throes of another wrangle over a road.

About a year ago, aggressive tactics were employed in the hundred to get a new road through from Milford Cross Roads, via Peach's Hill, to connect with the Limestone road. At that time, such a road was on the approved Highway Department list, but little encouragement was given the residents.

The road now is being built, but the former solid phalanx of support has divided itself.

According to reports, two or three owners do not want the road as it is now laid out, claiming undue damage to their properties. The majority cannot see it that way, and register supreme disgust and annoyance when the subject is broached. It is even rumored that sums as high as $50,000 will be demanded of the Highway Department to let the road go through some properties. The unfortunate part for all concerned, of course, is the fact that the road has been started. Work is progressing rapidly on the north end of the sector.

Leaders among the opposing property holders are said to be Frank Buckingham, Harvey Mously and a Mr. Ullman, lessee of the Newark China Clay quarries.

Contractors Going Ahead

D. E. O'Connell and Sons, contractors, are blissfully going ahead with their work, and today are over a week ahead of their estimate. Rumors emanating from the boosters of the road have it that upon the completion of the north end, work will commence on the Milford Cross Roads end, leaving the middle section, where the fight is raging, to revel in mud until an adjustment is made.

Messrs. Buckingham, Mously and Ullman are reported to have made a recent trip to Dover where they protested the present right of way. Thomas Dwyer, another farmer, is pointed to with pride by the boosters, who claim he lost a part of his orchard but gave not a little of his land for the road. Major Richard Buckingham, veteran political warhorse of the hundred, is also mixed up in the fight it is understood, as an active member of the "bloc."

FIND LONESOME STILL

The pages of Kentucky hill-country romance and adventure, read surreptitiously at one time or another by all of us, were reopened in memory last week, when prohibition agents waded through half-forgotten marsh trails on Iron Hill, pounced on a 150 gallon still, one and one-half miles from the nearest house. The raid took place Wednesday. The still was still warm, but the Maryland moonshiner, unlike his legendary Kentucky brother, held no bitterness, took no pot shots at the "damned revenooers."

John Frank, John Burke and Armour Church, found in various homes in the vicinity, were arrested and held under bail by Commissioner Cann in Wilmington. The still was demolished.

UNION SERVICES PLEASE

Newark turned out en masse at the first Sunday evening union church services held in connection with the Summer School last Sunday. The spacious Presbyterian Church was crowded with worshippers.

Rev. Frank Herson had charge of the service. A combined choir under the direction of Prof. G. H. Ryden gave a pleasing musical program.

DELAWARE DAY

Members of the Delaware D. A. E. will take part in the ceremony at the Sesqui-Centennial on Sunday, when the signers of the Declaration of Independence will be honored. A wreath of flowers will be placed by them on the column known as the Delaware Column, and dedicated to the Delaware signers.

Applying Federal Aid Funds Here

Dean McCue Working on Program Calling for Expenditure of $30,000. To Aid New Staff Man.

Plans for the utilization of $30,000 Government funds in experimental work on Delaware farms are about completed by Dean Charles A. McCue, director of the Station here, it was announced a few days ago. The above fund is derived from the Purcell act, appropriating an additional $10,000 on the $20,000 used during the fiscal year, 1926-1926. July 1st marks the opening of next year's program.

Act's Provisions

The Purcell act provided $20,000 the first year to each state. This amount is to be increased each year by $10,000 until a total of $50,000 yearly is reached. Thus by July 1, 1928, there is a possibility of a total of $80,000 of Federal funds being appropriated yearly to the Experiment Stations of each state. The Purcell act is an enabling act and the appropriation must be made yearly by Congress.

Add New Man

On July 1, this year, the additional funds will be utilized in the following manner; addition of another worker to the department of agricultural economics; broadening the work of the department of agronomy and providing for field tests of certain crop treatments upon various agricultural soil types throughout the state; transfer of certain problems in the horticulture department from Hatch to Purcell funds thus relieving the already over-burdened Hatch fund.

GETS HIGHEST HONORS

Newark Boy Receives Diploma From Princeton After Fine Record

John McMurray, Jr., elder son of the Rev. and Mrs. John McMurray of this town, was graduated from the Engineering School at Princeton last week. The exercises were attended by his parents.

Young McMurray, who went to Princeton after two years' undergraduate work at Delaware, won the highest engineering honors in his class. During his college career, he contributed articles to engineering journals, and was considered by his professors an extremely able student. He has become associated with a large New York City construction firm.

N. E. A. Contingent Fails to Arrive

THE Delaware Day program of the National Educational Association, now meeting in annual convention at Philadelphia, missed Newark completely today.

According to advance notices, a special trainload of delegates were due to arrive at noon, have lunch at the college, and take part in lecture and demonstration activities under the direction of the State Parent-Teacher Association.

A last-minute change removed Newark from the itinerary. The program will open an evening in Wilmington instead, beginning early this afternoon, and ending this evening in a banquet at the Y. W. C. A.

Officials of the University, the Parent-Teacher Association, clubwomen and the Service Citizens staff are taking an active part in the entertainment of the visitors.

Pencader Church In Large Reunion

Judge Morris Chief Speaker In Afternoon Meeting
Sunday

The tenth annual reunion of the Pencader Presbyterian Church, of Glasgow, held Sunday under the auspices of the Pencader Cemetery Association, was a delightful affair. With a prominent clergyman addressing the morning session and Judge Hugh M. Morris, of the United States District Court, the afternoon session, the reunion was in the nature of a combination of lectures on the gospel and the law.

The morning services began at 11 o'clock. Rev. Joseph B. C. Mackie, pastor of the Northminster Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, preached an eloquent sermon, using as his text the biblical story of the prodigal son.

At the afternoon service, at 2:30 o'clock, Judge Morris, in a brief address, gave a learned treatise on the progress of the human race from its inception down to the present time.

Rev. John MacMurray, pastor of the church, presided at both services. Excellent music was furnished under the direction of Harry W. Frazer, of West Presbyterian Church, Wilmington.

Miss May Janvier, of Philadelphia, secretary of the Cemetery Association, and one of its oldest and most faithful members, was among those present.

The meeting closed with a total of $3,030 subscriptions actually turned in, aside from nearly $1,000 more reported verbally.

Chairman Irvin T. Kepler presided at the meeting, which was attended by 40 district leaders, representing a team body of 130. Subscriptions turned in ranged from $100 to $10 a year, on a 2-year basis.

NEWPORT IS GRATEFUL

Felicitate H. J. Krebs For His Gift of
New School to Village

That the people of Newport are appreciative of the generosity of Henry J. Krebs, as shown by his presentation of a $150,000 public school to the town was demonstrated last Friday night when the town commissioners of Newport sent a telegram expressing their gratitude. The telegram, addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Krebs, was sent to them at their Wilmington home during the progress of a family dinner, which was in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary. Following is the text of the telegram:

"In behalf of the whole community of Newport, we extend to you hearty congratulations on this, your golden wedding anniversary and humbly thank you for your most benevolent gift to us in celebration of this happy occasion. Rejoicing and heartfelt appreciation abound in this community tonight. May the Henry J. Krebs School redound to your glory and our advancement.

"The Commissioners of Newport."

Tax Feud Bobs Up In Wilmington Court

Iron Hill Man and Former Levy
Court Commissioner Go To Court
Over Alleged Attack

An alleged personal attack, growing out of a general disagreement lasting close to fifteen years, brought two well known lower county men into Magistrate Jones' court, Wilmington, Friday last. The two men are William C. Leal, a farmer of Iron Hill, and former Levy Court Commissioner Boyd C. McCoy, of the same district.

According to the story Mr. Leal told Magistrate Jones, he was walking on a road near his home at Iron Hill ten days ago when he was passed by McCoy in an automobile. McCoy, the story of Mr. Leal continues, stopped and hailed Leal.

An argument followed in which Leal alleged that McCoy charged him with having circulated stories about the former Levy Court Commissioner having been short in accounts. Leal, according to his story, retorted with reports of McCoy having circulated stories about his tax receipts. With this McCoy grabbed Leal, the plaintiff added, and hit him twice, leaving blue marks on his throat.

McCoy, who was represented by Charles C. Speakman, did not testify. Three Negro laborers who had been working in a ditch near the scene of the fight stated that Leal had used profane language and had called McCoy a liar.

Dates Back 15 Years

The story of the case dates back about fifteen years when Leal purchased land near Iron Hill. Soon after the purchase, he divided the land, sold one-half to his brother-in-law and had the other half deeded in the name of his wife. The bill for the taxes, however, was mailed to Leal, who paid it.

The next year, Leal said, the bill for taxes came to him again and he appealed to the Levy Court to have the two properties assessed individually. It was at that time that McCoy clashed with Leal, when McCoy is said to have declared that the latter would have to pay all the taxes.

Quarrels followed and at one time the question of the tax bill was about to be aired in a magistrate's court.

During the last general election when Leal was a candidate for the State Representative on the Democratic ticket, he was again charged during a political meeting, it was alleged, with not having paid his taxes. Leal stated that he then replied he could furnish receipts signed by McCoy himself.

ELKTON GUARD TO ENCAMP

Captain Russell M. George, commander of Company E, First Maryland Regiment of Elkton, has been notified by Adjutant General Rickards, that the annual encampment of the Maryland National Guard will again be held this year in August at Virginia Beach, Va. It was thought for a time that it would be possible to get the new site for the State encampment near Buena Vista ready for this year, but this idea has been abandoned.

Elkton Council In Split Over Tax Rate

AN increase of 5 cents faces the taxpayers of Elkton for the current fiscal year as a result of a spirited Council meeting late last week. The rate has been fixed at 85 cents on the $100 for the municipal levy.

The raise was accomplished, but not without a struggle, so reports go. Councilmen were split, three to two on the issue. The minority put up a stubborn fight against the increase. Proponents argued equally well. The majority, as usual, won.

Opposition to the raise takes its basis from the fact that town property has been so materially increased through the re-assessment that the tax rate should not be increased.

HOCKESSIN MAN FOILS BANDITS

Runs Down Masked Man and Escapes Holdup On Lonely Road

Two masked men were foiled in their efforts to hold up Harold Brown of Hockessin, when they stopped his automobile on the Lancaster pike near Oak Hill School, shortly after midnight Sunday morning, according to a report made by Brown to the state police.

One man is said to have stood in front of the machine, while the other jumped on the running board, both carrying pistols.

Realizing the seriousness of the situation, Brown started his car, running one of the holdup men down and knocking the other off the running board.

He then reported the case to State Policemen Workman and Buffington.

According to Brown, one of the men must have been badly injured, as he believes at least one of the wheels passed over his body.

A Discovery

"I plunge stupidly, head foremost, into this dumb Deep, which swallows me, and chokes me, in a moment—full of insipid-ity and indolence. Death, which is but a quarter of an hour's suffering, without consequence and without injury, does not require peculiar precepts."

In all nature there is nothing melancholy but man, and yet he is the only one to laugh. But man's laughter often conceals dejection; it is not an infallible barometer of gaiety. One can never be sure that this man is at peace with the world and this one is not. There is no way of telling with any accuracy.

However, one can deduce a great deal from a face. Not just from seeing that face pass by once, but from observing that face when the soul behind it is under the control of some emotion. Then one gets something of the real man and often something not expected. For it is indeed a continuous and flabbergasting experience to be even the most lackadaisical of explorers of souls. In scouting about the most unprepossessing exterior one is never sure just what to expect. The spiritual landscape cannot be deduced unerringly from the facial contours.

Consequently, in setting out upon an exploration into the psychical realms one can never foresee, with any degree of exactitude, just where one will arrive—whether it will be Iceland or Sussex County, a morgue or a cabaret, Main street or Quality Hill—one never knows until he gets there.

Thus it was with a great deal of excitement that we discovered the man in Newark who really enjoys living. (There is one!) And this man we learned finds his greatest pleasure in life in doing what the Boy Scouts call a "good turn daily". He is aware that the most fun to be had in life comes through unselfish service. We envy him the time, if it ever comes to him, when he has given his friends all that he has and he can add a tear.

GRANGE HOLDS FINAL MEETING

Session Prior to Summer Vacation Features Entertainment

A largely attended meeting of Harmony Grange was held in the hall at Mermaid Monday evening, being the last meeting until early in August.

Part of the binder twine order has been received and distributed. A festival committee was appointed, consisting of Eugene Woodward, Helen Pennington and Mrs. Walter Scott. A letter was read asking the Grange's support of a proposed bill making it unlawful for residents of the state to set the clocks back for daylight saving. The bill, it was explained, will likely be presented at the next Legislature.

The lecturer's program, under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Armour, opened with piano solos by Mrs. Mabel Ball, Helen and Sara Pennington gave an original farce. Then followed a reading by John Dennison, recitation by Mrs. Kate Greenwalt and a harmonica solo by Lloyd Porter. Five little girls sang "Sunshine Song" to the delight of the audience, then sang another in response to an encore. After a solo by Edna Murray, a musical sketch by Belle Chambers, Blanche Derrickson and Mrs. Pearl Harrington, proved a real feature of the evening. So taken were the grangers by the musical treats, that somebody moved to organize a harmonica band for the grange. The motion was overruled due to the fact as one member put it, that there were no "old folks" to listen; everyone would be on-the band.

A delicious treat of ginger bread with whipped cream and strawberries topped off the evening.

It has been tried for years and it cannot be done. No amount of whacking will beat all the dirt or any of the stains from rugs and carpets. Why flog your floor coverings within an inch of ruination? Why raise a whirlwind of dust for the family and neighbors to consume?

When we clean your carpets and rugs by our Special Shampoo Process, you can see and feel cleanliness all over, all through. Dirt and grease spots are dissolved and washed away by pure soap and water. The Shampoo Process is gentle, harmless and thorough. It cannot wear, tear, discolor or loosen the fibers of the finest rug. ### Golfer's Whale Away For President's Cup

Eight Remain Out of Field of 32 for Semi-final Rounds at Country Club

Despite lowering clouds and an occasional shower Saturday afternoon, intrepid golfers at the Country Club went through the third round of the President's Cup tournament. Eight survived the ordeal, eight others went into temporary retirement.

The match between C. H. Hopkins, of Newark, and F. W. Diver, of Wilmington, two duellists who have met several times in important match play during the past two years, excited no little attention from the large crowd at the club house. At the end of the regulation eighteen holes, the two men were all square. By mutual consent, they played one extra hole in an effort to settle the match, halved the nineteenth, then returned to the club house, where Mr. Diver defaulted the match as he could not arrange his affairs to continue the match over the required eighteen holes.

Bonham Loses

Another close match Saturday resulted in a tie between H. L. Bonham and Prof. G. H. Ryden. In the playoff Sunday, Ryden won the match and advanced into the fourth round.

Match play for the cup will continue to the quarter finals Saturday.

On Monday, Independence Day, a special handicap medal round against par will feature the program.

The results of the tournament to date follows:

- H. A. Turner defeated W. C. Wilson, 7 and 5.
- F. S. Crow defeated W. E. Holton, 5 and 4.
- S. J. Turner defeated H. E. Vinsinger, 7 and 5.
- F. C. Houghton defeated C. O. Houghton, 3 and 2.
- C. H. Hopkins defeated F. W. Diver, by default.
- C. J. Gardner defeated L. W. Eby, 3 and 2.
- G. H. Ryden defeated H. L. Bonham, 2 up.
- Roy Brinton defeated H. A. Garrett, 1 up.
- In the consolation eight, J. P. Wright defeated E. H. Vogt, 4 and 3.

Time Allotted To Several Groups Of Girls At Sandy Landing In Sussex; Miss Good In Charge Of Work

The Girl Reserves Camp at Sandy Landing, on the Indian River, in Sussex county, will re-open for the summer on July 1st. On that date, girls from grammar schools who wish a week's outing will go to the camp to remain until July 8. The two weeks following are planned for grammar school girls also. High school girls who will go for one week are allotted the week of July 22-29; the two weeks' high school girls, from July 29 to August 12. From August 12 to 19 is Mothers' week, and from August 19 to 26 is business girls' week. The last period, from August 26 to September 4, is to be a camp week for Delaware women, and is in charge of Miss Woods.

Miss Martha Good is director of the camp. Miss Dorothy Nunn, of Milford, a graduate of the University of Delaware, '25, and head of the Home Economics Department of the Unionville, Pennsylvania, High School, will be Miss Good's assistant. Miss Marjorie Brosius, of West Grove, also a graduate of the University of Delaware, '25, and also a member of the faculty of the Unionville High School, will have charge of Arts and Crafts. A generous gift of silver has been made to the camp, so that the campers will not have to provide their own silver, as was at first planned.

Well-Known Tea Room Plans Changes

In connection with the construction of the $35,000 building being erected by the Misses Dorothy and Beulah

White, proprietresses of the Blue Bird Tea Room, at Salisbury, Md., announcement is made that an award of $25.00 will be given to the person who submits the name selected as most appropriate for the new structure. During the last four years the growth of the business has been so rapid it has become necessary to obtain a new home for the "Blue Bird," which will not only be ample in providing for guests, but will be impressive in its architecture, as the old Colonial lines of the Georgian period are being followed.

The fact that the name "Blue Bird" has been so closely allied with the success of the business creates a natural tendency to retain this name as an emblem, but as extensive additions are to be provided, including attractive living quarters and enlarged tea room service, a name more suitable is being sought.

In another section of this paper will be found a coupon, which if filled out and mailed to the Misses White, will bring a photograph of the new building and definite instruction to those desiring to enter the contest.

Three Bulletins From Experiment Station

Bausman, Detjen, Myers and G. L. Baker Submit Farm and Laboratory Articles

Three new bulletins from the Department of Agriculture of the University of Delaware have just come from the press and are available to any interested person in the state who will write the Experiment Station at Newark for a copy. The first bulletin entitled "Farming for Profit in the Middletown Area," by R. O. Bausman, county agent of New Castle county, gives the results and recommendations from the farm survey of the Middletown area. This bulletin is of particular interest to the general farmer who depends upon wheat, corn and dairy products for his principal source of income. The results of the survey show that those farmers who had the greatest return for their labor were supplementing corn, wheat, hay and milk returns by growing some intensive cash crop or crops, such as tomatoes, asparagus, poultry products, etc. They also had a good volume of business and a good quality of product, two essential things for success.

"Physiological Dropping of Fruits" is from the pen of L. R. Detjen, horticulturist to the Experiment Station. This is a technical bulletin which will be of interest to scientists and to many fruit growers.

The author concludes that there are many factors which may cause the dropping of immature fruits; Fruits that fall in the so-called June drop have been fertilized and lack of pollination and fertilization is not the cause of the June drop.

Fruit jellies, "The Role of Salts" is a very technical bulletin written by P. B. Myers and G. L. Baker of the chemistry department of the Experiment Station. This bulletin is the fourth to be published dealing with causes and reasons back of jellifying of fruit juices. This bulletin is of interest to chemists and manufacturers of jellies and other fruit by-products.

Race Still Close In Ball Loop

Providence Overwhelms Elkton; Newark Again Wins; Teams Hitting Fast Pace.

Arrants' pitching was too much for the Company E boys Saturday, Providence winning by a score of 20-1. Arrants didn't allow a hit until one man had been retired in the ninth inning, when Dickerson hit a short fly to right field for a single; but two men had reached first base up to this time, one was hit by a pitched ball and the other on an error by McCauley.

Providence clouted the ball hard, with Dean and Vansant leading the attack with four hits each. King was driven from the mound in the sixth inning and Lockard in the seventh; Jones who finished the game, was hammered for four runs in the final inning. The score:

Newark Wallops Charlestown, 12-2

Newark's Cecil County League team maintained a firm grip on second place in the pennant race Saturday when they downed the Charlestown team at Continental Field in a loose game, 12-2. Eight errors by the visitors paved the way for many of the runs, and at no time was Newark in danger of losing the struggle. Gregg led the home clubbers with four clean hits, followed by Chalmers with three. The Newark boys played a snappy brand of ball afield and supported the pitching of Rose in splendid form. Hamberger was best at the bat for Charlestown. The score:

A & P INCREASES ADVERTISING

Newspaper Space Now Being Used in Larger Volume by Retail Store Organization

Announcement comes from the main offices of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company in Jersey City, that the Company's advertising appropriation for the current year will show an increase of $90,000. A&P, as it is known throughout the country, is a large and consistent user of newspaper advertising space, and the bulk of the advertising increase this year is being devoted to newspapers for the furtherance of local retail business in every community where A&P is established. A magazine campaign will also be inaugurated.

The familiar red front of the A&P store is to be seen in practically every neighborhood trading center in the larger cities and in the smaller communities as well. The administration and buying organization of the A&P is world-wide. In London, England, is a purchasing office with a complete purchasing staff. Food brokers from all parts of Europe travel regularly to London to offer their merchandise to A & P. In South America, A&P maintains five coffee-purchasing offices—one at Santos, Brazil; one at Rio de Janeiro and three in Colombia. These buyers make several trips into the interior each season, 300 and 400 miles, to the coffee plantations, where they inspect and examine the coffee in the growing bean, on the trees.

STUMP

It is more expensive to remove a stump that has burned to the ground than a sound stump.

WEEDS, INSECTS WORK TOGETHER

Weeds in and around the garden harbor both insects and disease, particularly if the weeds are related to the cultivated plants.

ORIGINAL HAY MAKER

Man was not the originator of hay-making. The pika or cony, a little rodent living in the mountainous regions of the West, has probably made hay for his own use for thousands of years.

CAN'T SEE BACTERIA

Steam or boiling water is needed for proper sterilization of milk utensils. They should be exposed to a temperature of at least 205 degrees F. for five minutes.

WEED WISDOM

Principles of weed control: preventing the introduction of weed seeds; preventing weeds from going to seed; keeping perennial weeds from making top growth.

HORSE FUEL

The quantity of feed for the work horse depends on the amount of work done and on the speed at which it is performed. A horse requires considerably more feed when working at the trot than at the walk.

SWEET CLOVER

SWEET SOIL

Where sweet clover is to be sown on acid soils sufficient lime should first be applied to neutralize the acids in the soil to a depth of 6 inches, says the United States Department of Agriculture.

Although fields with apparently acid soils have been known to make a fair growth of sweet clover, such fields usually are rich in humus or phosphorus and are exceptional. Soil types with slightly acid surface soils and alkaline subsols will grow sweet clover successfully, provided the acid soil is not more than 6 to 12 inches in depth.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Loose long sleeves, open at the wrist, are most becoming to fleshy arms. Trimmings and construction lines should follow the length of the arm.

Rice and potatoes are not exactly the same in food value, even though they are both rich in starch. Potatoes contain some minerals and vitamins. Milled rice lacks these entirely, so there should be plenty of fruits and vegetables in the daily meals if rice is served often.

Do not use clothespins when hanging ing out rayon underwear after washing it. You may tear the material. Hang the garment over the line without pinning it.

"It is not always needful for truth to take a definite shape; it is enough if it hovers above us like a spirit and produces harmony; if it is wafted through the air like the sound of a bell, grave and kindly."

We, the Merchants

believe in Newark. We see its many possibilities and have faith in their being realized. Newark has everything to make it the most progressive town in Delaware—whole-hearted cooperation alone is needed. This we believe is coming.

We are doing business in Newark to serve Newark residents. We do not ask shoppers to buy from us blindly, but it appears only fair that they should try us first. We, the Newark merchants, believe that we can sell you the same merchandise at a lower price than you can purchase it anywhere else.

By shopping in Newark you save car and bus fare and give the support to local merchants that is necessary if Newark is to develop successfully.

The next time try Newark first.

BUY FROM THE HOME MERCHANTS

Why go to the city to shop?

If you will give the local merchant your patronage, we can have stores here equal to those in the city.

Who is called on first to help in the betterment of the town? The local merchant.

When you trade at home you not only keep the money in Newark, but you help to increase the value of your own property.

The city merchants are not for us; they are for their own city.

In the city you pay more for your goods, have someone who is not interested in you to wait on you, and if the goods are not satisfactory you find it embarrassing to exchange them.

It is different at home.

Try in Newark first.
