Thrift Shop Welfare Project To End For Lack Of Quarters

Final Clearance Sale Stated June 11. As City Takes Over Academy Building Basement; Mrs. Donald Dutton Reports Unsuccessful Search For New Shop Facilities

The Newark Thrift Shop will conduct its final regular sale of used clothing on Friday, June 7, and a final clearance sale on June 11, with an enforced move from Thrift Shop quarters in the basement of the Academy Building.

A major fund-raising project of the Newark Area Welfare Committee, which provides emergency relief for needy persons on the local level, the Thrift Shop has operated from the Academy Building since 1961 after a move from quarters over the Newark Police Station.

City need of basement facilities in the Academy Building basement precludes further use of this area by the Thrift Shop.

New Quarters Sought
Mrs. Donald L. Dutton, general chairman of the Thrift Shop, reports that the shop's sale of used clothing as gifts or on consignment must terminate after the June 11 clearance, unless adequate quarters for the shop's continued operation are obtained. Extensive search has revealed no place where the Thrift Shop may be relocated, Mrs. Dutton said, but any offer of adequate facilities will be welcomed.

Mrs. Ruth Hausman heads the management section of the Thrift Shop; Mrs. H. Gifford Jones, children's wear; and Anne Ritz is treasurer.

The Newark Area Welfare Committee is headed by Kenneth C. Lambert, with Mrs. John Cray, vice-chairman; Mrs. Richard D. Gross, secretary; and Arthur E. Tomkowiak, treasurer.

Last year, Thrift Shop contributions included $1,000 to the welfare group provision of Christmas baskets for the needy and $300 in dental care for unprivileged children.

Three University of Delaware faculty members are retiring at the close of the 1967-68 academic year after long careers as professional educators.

Their university service totals more than 68 years, but their service to the teaching profession is considerably longer.

Ending their university careers are Donald MacCreary, research professor in the college of agricultural science, 38 years; Frank Zozzora, professor of engineering graphics, 21 years; and Mrs. Magdelene R. Teufel, associate professor in the college of home economics, nine years.

Since joining the university in 1959 Prof. MacCreary has done extensive research in mosquito, tick and burdock control, and played an important role in distribution of information to farmers as an extension entomologist. He also participated in early research with toxaphene, which has become a million-dollar product in the cotton industry.

41-Year Veteran Overseas Agriculturist Ray Russell Provides Vietnam New Rice

Ray Russell of 17 Lovett Avenue, Newark, has been in overseas agriculture work for 41 years, but has seldom encountered a challenge comparable to the farmers of Vo Dat, Vietnam.

When floods destroyed half of Vo Dat's rice crop last September, Russell, who works for the U.S. foreign aid program, was called in to help.

The decision was made to plant fast-growing, high-yield IR-6 rice from the Philippines.

An agriculturist who has spent 25 years with the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) and its predecessor agencies, Russell was to instruct the people of Vo Dat in proper techniques of growing IR-6. But first he had to persuade local farmers steeped in the customs of growing Vietnamese rice varieties, that IR-6 was the rice of the future.

As project manager, Russell was confronted with a new crisis every week. After telling the people on the idea of planting the new rice, he found that excess water from the flood had to be drained or pumped out so the seedling could begin.

Open Housing, Work Program For Federal Aid Approved 5-1

Revised Fair Housing Ordinance Scheduled For Final Reading On June 21; Workable Program For Federal Funds Endorsed By Council; Coverdale Opposes Plans

A revised proposal for an open housing law was approved in a 5-1 vote, with a final reading scheduled for June 24, and a resolution approving a workable program for community improvement in order to obtain federal funds was adopted by a 5-1 majority with Councilman William M. Coverdale opposing both measures at the regular meeting of Newark City Council last Monday night. Coverdale objected to proposed open housing legislation at an earlier meeting when the measure was referred for revision as "an infringement upon the constitutional rights of a property owner," and last Monday night voted against the workable program as "a bill into the federal grab bag for funds that all taxpayers must pay."

The citizens advisory committee recently recommended recommitment of a revised workable program for community improvement - a program was first adopted in 1964 - for eligibility for federal funds administered by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

"For every federal open housing bill, Coverdale said, with reference to requirements for urban renewal with demolition of local substandard housing, and requested a detailed report on such replacement."

City Councilman Frank J. Osborne, 812 Pettiblers, a majority in the audience of some 35 persons attended Monday's meeting in support of the fair housing proposal, and a petition with 462 names was presented in favor of such legislation.

Mayor Norma B. Handloff reported that the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce opposed city regulations for open housing, but favored a state law.

Councilman Clyde M. England, Jr., reviewed the revised open housing proposal, citing a maximum fine of $300 for violations, and an "effective date left blank because of lists realtors may have" to pose additional problems from any "forthwith enforcement."

Councilman Frank J. Osborne, Jr., proposed that a quorum of the seven-member fair housing board be increased from four to five, and Councilman Olan R. Thomas urged that the entire section of the ordinance providing for such a board, be deleted, and that a "commission" be set up to study the ordinance, in accordance with a separate ordinance, according to Milwaukee law, with enforcement by the city solicitor.

To Osborne's query, England replied that the proposed Newark legislation had "some jurisdictional limitations in its application" with regard to out-of-town lending firms, but that it was "not basically a defective law."

And the first reading was approved 5-1 in the absence of Councilman William E. Frame, with a final reading slated for June 24.

Hospital Study
Osborne volunteered to serve as council representative with City Manager Edward Stiff on the Health Facilities Planning Council with a study of a hospital for the Newark area.

Reporting on McKee's Lane assessments, City Manager Stiff said that if the law is "placed on the books, the city will have to find resources for $38,000" with waiver and refund of assessment costs for paving and storm sewer.

John P. Sinclair, attorney for Harold Gwaltney, requested relief of $12,000 in assessment for his client with direct improvements that provide no benefit for the Gwaltney property.

Sinclair, Stiff, England, and Gwaltney are to confer on the problem for "report within a month" to council.

Contracts were awarded to Henry A. McCoy, Inc., for the low bid of $2,780 for widening the left turn lane on Delaware Avenue at South College, and to E. Earl Downing, Inc., for the low bid of $4,400 for clearing and rip-rap of Boylston from the Newark County Club dam to a point 100-ft. below New London Road.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

A NUCLEAR POWER PLANT
[OF ALL THE FUELS FOUND ON EARTH, ONLY NUCLEAR FUEL CREATES NO SMOKE OR SMELL.]

AN INDIAN WOULD'NT HAVE MUCH LUCK SENDING SMOKE SIGNALS IF HIS CAMPFIRE WERE MADE OF NUCLEAR FUEL. THERE'D BE NO SMOKE.

JUST ONE LUMP OF URANIUM (THE MOST COMMONLY USED NUCLEAR FUEL) CAN CREATE AS MUCH HEAT AS BURNING ALMOST 2 TONS OF COAL, ACCORDING TO GENERAL ELECTRIC SCIENTISTS.

NUCLEAR AND CONVENTIONAL POWER PLANTS PRODUCE ELECTRICITY IN MUCH THE SAME WAY. PERHAPS THE MOST AMAZING THING ABOUT NUCLEAR POWER IS THAT HEAT IS PRODUCED WITHOUT BURNING ANYTHING.

HEAT IS GENERATED BY ENERGY RELEASED AS THE NUCLEAR FUEL ATOMS ARE SPLIT. THIS SPLITTING PROCESS IS CALLED NUCLEAR FISSION.

AIR IS NOT REQUIRED TO BURN NUCLEAR FUEL. THEREFORE, NUCLEAR PLANTS MAY BE THE ANSWER TO POWER NEEDS BEYOND THE EARTH'S SURFACE AS WELL AS ON THE SURFACE.

and earnings were lower during the year's first half, continuing a trend begun during the last half of the 1966-67 fiscal year.

"Responsible for these declines were higher operating costs coupled with a tight competitive situation which forced a downward adjustment in prices," Park said.

This year, it plans to open 26 markets — seven of them in the west.

Sixty-one stores were remodeled during the past year — to better serve customer needs.

Pigtails and Pinafore Gone — The Story Behind America's 'New' 8-Year-Old

One of the best-known and loved young misses in America, Morton Salt Company's little girl with her umbrella, has received her fifth change of fashion.

In her first fascioli since 1964, she wears her hair short (done are the pigtail, bobby sock and pinafore. Her former yellow and white umbrella now is lavender and white.

The salt package she identifies has been modernized, too, and made more attractive. Changing the yellow top and bottom to white accents the purity of the salt, but the putting a point and patented shaker top are retained. The color of the package has returned to the original rich blue.

Little Miss Morton has been searching through the rain and into the hearts of millions for more than a half century. She has helped make her product the nation's favorite salt, one of just a few items available in nearly every grocery outlet across the land.

Back in 1911, the Cluett, Peabody & Co. salt company began national promotion of its new product: the original free-running salt in a round blue package with a patented pouring spout.

A proposed series of 13 ads — along with three possible substitutes — was brought to the company. Attention turned immediately to one of the alternatives: a little girl with curls, holding an umbrella and a tilted package of salt. She told the entire story in a picture: the salt would pour in damp weather.

The intended slogan, "Even in rainy weather, it flows freely," was appropriate but not short and snappy. When the ad, however, "It never rains but it pours," was selected as too negative, it was replaced with, "When It Rains It Pours."

She and her slogan first appeared on the package in 1914. Unlike Little Orphan Annie, the apocryphal Morton umbrella girl has been given a few wardrobe and hair style front time to time to keep her fashionable. The first change came

The 1914 change reflects the modern appearance of America's eight-year-old "girl next door."

In the 20's, in the 30's she appeared in "Shirley Temple" curls, so popular then. Pigtails first were seen in the 40's and in the 50's she took on her jaunty look that lasted until this year.

The 1968 change reflects the modern appearance of America's eight-year-old "girl next door."

Trees On Lawn Need Food

Robert F. Stevens Advises

Trees growing on your home lawn often lack natural advantage of their woodland cousins, says Robert F. Stevens, extension horticulturist at the University of Delaware.

Leaves which form a natural mulch and nourish the tree, are raked away and most rainwater is absorbed by grass. As the tree's food supply decreases, limbs die, wounds fail to heal and the trunk begins to decay.

To prevent these conditions from developing, you need only feed the tree, says Stevens.

MANAGEMENT

Ability to manage is most important in determining a farmer's success that the size of his farm. The quality of his land or his particular enterprise, says W. T. McAllister, extension farm management specialist at the University of Delaware.

Pears Combine With Cheese For A Continental Salad

Contrast delicately flavored, juicy canned Bartlett pears with a nippy cheese dressing. Top it off with crunchy cashew nuts and you have a mouth watering blend of flavors and textures that can't be equalled.

Use remaining pear syrup as the liquid in gelatin salads or to flavor dessert sauces. In combination with fruit juices it makes a wonderfully refreshing drink.

Continental Pear Salads 1 (1 lb. 13 oz.) can Bartlett pears halves 1 (5 oz.) jar old English cheese 1 (3 oz.) package cream cheese 2 table-spoons pear syrup 1/4 cup chopped dates 1/4 cup chopped cashew nuts Lettuce

Chill pears. Bring cheeses to room temperature. Drain pears and reserve 2 table-spoons pear syrup. Place pear halves on plate up, on a lettuce-lined platter or individual salad plates. Combine cheeses, thinning a little with reserved pear syrup. Blend in chopped dates. Place spoonful of cheese mixture in center of each pear half. Top with cashew nuts. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

"If there's one God, why are there so many religions?"

That's a question that has plagued thoughtful people for centuries. Religions often have seemed to divide men rather than join them—which could hardly be God's will.

In our time, so full of wonders, we're witnessing what may be the greatest wonder of all: the growing force of Inter-faith understanding. It seems to promise a fuller flowering of God's hopes for man. You and me.

Great new things are happening in churches and synagogues these days. But find out for yourself. This week.

Then take your strengthened faith out into the world—and put it to work!

HE COULD PUT IT TO BETTER USE

THE THRIFT SHOP

Amid all the local housing hassle, the Thrift Shop is going out of business for lack of adequate housing. And unsafe structural conditions with heavy city equipment stored upstairs in the Academy Building necessitate moving the Thrift Shop from the building basement — with no place to go.

For longer than most remember, the Thrift Shop has provided funds for the Newark Area Welfare Committee, with local ladies volunteering their time and effort to sell good used clothing at modest prices with a two-way benefit—good clothing at a nominal cost and emergency relief for the needy with money obtained from such sales.

A long overdue public expression of deep appreciation is extended to the Thrift Shop volunteers, with the hope that they may continue their splendid work with public or private provision of adequate quarters.

Charles E. Roe Funeral Services Held On Saturday

Charles Edward Roe, 52, of near St. Georges died at his home on May 22, after a long illness.

Mr. Roe, a native of Goldboro, Md., worked at the Delaware City plant of Delaware Power & Light Co. He was a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Marion C. Roe; two daughters, Robin and Carol Roe, both at home; his mother, Mrs. Grace Sylvester of Marshfield; and a stepbrother, Franklin Sylvester of Limestone Gardens.

Services were held Saturday afternoon from the Robert T. Jones and Son Funeral Home. Interment was in St. Georges Cemetery.

Rose Lee Clay, 61 Dies At Hopkins

Mrs. Rose Lee Clay, 61, of 19 Little Egypt Road, Newark, died May 21, in Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, after a long illness.

A native of Jackson, Ky., Mrs. Clay had lived in the Newark area for the past 20 years.

She is survived by her husband, Arvill Clay; a son, Arvill, Jr., at home; two daughters, Mrs. Jean Barnett of White Plains, N.Y., and Miss Cynthia Clay of Los Angeles, Calif.; eight grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Mollie Maynard of Mineral, Va., and a brother, Jerry Stibbom of Laguna, W. Va.

Services were conducted Friday morning at the Robert T. Jones and Son Funeral Home. Interment was in St. Georges Cemetery.

Joseph W. Remedio, the apartment project developer, urged immediate approval of his Colony plat, pointing out that he had "not all" requirements of the planning commission" and that delay was costly to him.

But Mayor Handloff pointed out that "it will take only one vote to defeat this" with three councilmen present, and that immediate action was unfair to the developer and other people concerned.

The project will involve filling in the Vannoy pond which William B. Altman in the gubernatorial race had been told "one year ago" was to be reserved as a park.

Remedio replied that he had purchased the property prior to that, with the one reservation that Ralph Vannoy could water his cattle at the pond pending development of the tract. Remedio added that the pond was non-mud, and could be filled in with a bulldozer—the same equipment used to create it.

Action on the resolution was deferred until June 10.

Monday night's meeting was adjourned at 11:05.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day Spared Blush by Redneck

Dan M. Bowmar, who retired recently after years of association with the Thoroughbred Club of America and 20 years as business manager of the Blood-Horse, a weekly breeding journal published in Lexington, once won a strange and very important wager on a horse called Redneck which saved him from being very red-faced.

Prior to his association with the Blood-Horse, Mr. Bowmar had been promotion manager for the Lexington Herald-Leader and had come up with the confident scheme whereby he would give away the entire edition of the Herald-Leader on any day that a race at a recognized track was not won by a horse bred within 35 miles of Lexington. In those days of an annual registration of something like 4,000 foals, it is estimated that perhaps 40 per cent were products of the blue grass country. At last count, of the 19,832 foals registered in 1967, only 18.4 per cent were bred in Kentucky. However, Mr. Bowmar probably could have safely made the same offer today because the proliferation of racing. On a December day in 1940 only two tracks were operating—a half-mile in West Virginia and Bay Meadows in California—and it looked very much as though the Herald-Leader was to be a giveaway until Redneck, a 7-year-old son of Hapday, got home first in the last race of the day at Bay Meadows.

Fishburne Honors NIS Lou Stengari As Best Athlete

Waynesboro, Va. — Former Newark All-State Quarterback Lou Stengari has been named the outstanding athlete at Fishburne Military School.

Stengari, a 5-10 and 185-pounder, was captain of both the Fishburne football and baseball teams.

He played quarterback, halfback and defensive safety on the football team, and saw double duty as pitcher and shortstop in baseball.

Chick Luckanish Named As Captain For Hen Lacrosse

Charles Luckanish, one of the top midfielders in Delaware lacrosse history, has been elected captain of the 1968 Blue Hen team.

The 196-ound Luckanish, a native of Claymont, was one of the standouts on this year's team which struggled through a 5-7 season. He was the Hen's top-scoring midfielder with ten goals.

"Chick will be a good captain," Coach Mickey Heinkeken says. "He goes all-out every minute he is on the field. He also is a very fine player and could be the best midfielder we have had here since Bob Tait in 1958. Tait was an All-American mention that year."

Luckanish succeeds 1967 Captain John Spangler, All-Middle Atlantic Conference defenseman.

Spangler, winner of the Alumni Lacrosse Award and three-year fullback starter in football, was named Delaware's Outstanding Senior Athlete this year.

before losing the last of a special tie.

Hauling anchor and drifting down into the lee of a wooded island, we broke out a flyrod and began taking crappie on a small streamer and spinner from the quiet water beside the brush, rocks, and grass of the shoreline, while Mr. Mumford, with a spinning rod and worms, was doing a land office business with luskly white perch from his stand in the bow.

With enough panfish aboard, we moved out into the current and deep water for another try at the white shad — fishing in beautiful clear green water pouring down the rocky gorge where we seemed to have the river all to ourselves in what may well have been a North Woods wilderness. The bridge traffic, and the hammering of the steaming shipyard at Port Deposit were far downstream, their noise obliterated by the restful roar of the river.

Again we failed to make connections with white shad, and cranking up the motor, headed upstream on the opposite side of the island, flicking the flyrod along the shoreline to catch a chunky red-breasted sunfish and some small crappie, and trying several stands at dark eddies in the white rapids to no avail in some frenzied fishing with twilight's chill settling over the river.

"I think we've had it!" Carroll W. Mumford said, peering a bit anxiously into the dusk in effort to pick up our distant landfall.

But it was all downhill on the way back to the landing, and we came in with no trouble, just ahead of complete darkness.

There could have been some trouble as we bore down on a gill net being drifted by a pair of night fishermen who shined and scowled frantically at us from their attending skiff — but happily with sudden composure, we pulled the whirling wheel out of the water to miss any meshed mess.

Guard, Linebacker Bob Novotny Elected As Delaware's Football Captain For '68

Bob Novotny, guard and linebacker, has been elected captain of the Blue Hens for the 1968 season.

Delaware Coach Tubby Raymond announced results of voting conducted last week.

"We feel that the team has made an outstanding choice for captain," Raymond says. "He has the same qualities of all good captains we've had. He is a hustling, aggressive leader."

Novotny, 5-11, and 200-pound junior from Maplewood, N. J., was regular as an offensive guard last year. He was switched to linebacker this spring as part of an overall effort to bolster the defense.

"Highly rated an excellent adjustment to defense," Raymond notes. "He is one of the few players capable of playing both ways in this era of specialization."

Novotny, a high school standout at Columbia in Maplewood, N. J., was a good spring as a linebacker and was

Brandywine 'Cap Saturday Feature At Delaware Park

Two prime examples of major stakes winners on the turf who were very ordinary performers before switching from dirt to grass competition, are Cedar Creek and Ginger Fizz. In fact, trainer T. J. (Tommy) Kelly once said of Ginger Fizz: "He isn't worth a nickel on the dirt, but on grass he's a real runner."

That same Ginger Fizz, who flies the silks of Mrs. J. R. H. Thouron, is one of the better prospects for the 31st running of the $25,000-added 1-1/16-mile Brandywine Turf Handicap at Delaware Park this Saturday. In his most recent outing, the chestnut veteran breezed to a four-length turf course victory at the "new" Belmont Park's opening on May 20. Last year, he captured the second division of the Brandywine.
