

The Old House on The Hill

They wonder why she lives alone
Upon her hill so high;
They pity her because they feel
That life has passed her by;
But ah, they miss the things she Sees
In gleaming wastes of sky!

The clouds like carven ships that Drift
Upon an opal sea,
The bare oak branches' delicate
And ebon tracery,
And that fair frock young April Brings
The little cherry tree!

She says: "They do not wait to hear
The songs the North wind sings,
Sad songs the willows croon to me
Glad songs the black bird sings;
Who walk on city avenues
Seem deaf to beat of wings!"

Within, beside her crackling fire,
Piled high with knotted pine,
Her books crowd thick on every side,
Her polished brasses shine;
The thin old rug beneath her feet
Is rosy like rare wine!

She says: "These are the things
they loved,
The folk who once loved me—
That grim, dark highboy over
there,
These Canton cups for tea,
The brown-toned etchings on the
wall,
Grandmother's tapestry!"

"My father's portrait gravely
smiles,
My mother's candles gleam,
Strange fire shapes flicker on the
wall,
Grotesque yet gay they seem,
While from the embers faces peer,
Fantastic as a dream.

"They wonder why I live alone!
They never seem to see
That houses have an eerie spell,
A magic witchery,
And that at night the folk I love
Come stealing home to me!"
Elizabeth Newport Hepburn.

For The Homemaker's Eye

If you need sour milk while cooking and find that you have none in the house, very good sour milk, which will act the same with soda as the real sour milk, can be made by adding a few drops of lemon to the fresh milk.

Denatured alcohol will remove stains caused by oleomargarine coloring.

Sift dry ingredients before measuring if you wish accurate measurements.

Slices of lemon, topped with grated horseradish, make a tasty
garnish for veal.

Rub soiled places on the rugs
with ammonia. If the color fades, apply chloroform.

Leftover cauliflower may be mixed with some other vegetable and baked in scallop shells.

If ashes are allowed to accumulate in the fireplace, they will burn the feet off the andirons.

When a recipe calls for small quantities of ingredients by weight, don't forget your little postal scale. It is convenient and accurate if you are not the fortunate possessor of a larger kitchen scale.

Be sure to take an old fashioned corn popper on your camping trip.
It is invaluable in broiling meat,
bacon or fish, sausage or toasting
bread over the campfire.

When winding the spring in the window blind, place one end of it in the keyhole of a door and you can easily wind it without having it slip.

Save the paper that comes with a bolt of ribbon. It is most useful when sewing fine fabrics such as chiffon and thin silk because,
being narrow, it is more convenient than larger pieces of paper and it pulls away easily from the stitching.

AND HE GOT IT

The time had come to dole out
the day's rations, and in an Irish regiment the quartermaster and his assistant were portioning them out in preparation for distribution. At last, just before the orderly men were due to arrive,
the assistant turned to the quarter. With a twinkle in his eye, Mike said: "Av ye plaze, sorr, there's a loaf short. Who'll I give it to?" "Keep it yourself, Mike," replied the quartermaster.

BIBLE VERSES KISSED BY HARDING PRO-PHETIC OF JUSTICE

Curiously Fitting Phrases Touched by Lips of Other Presidents

When Warren G. Harding took the oath of office of President last Friday he pressed his lips to the holy writ, touching the following passage from the sixth chapter,
eighth verse of Micah:

"What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and to love mercy, and walk humbly with thy God?"

From past inaugurations, records show the following list of passages selected from the Bible by Presidents from Grant to Wilson:

U. S. Grant—Isaiah 11: 2-3:
"And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

"And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears."

R. B. Hayes—118th Psalm: 11-13:
"They compassed me about;
yea, they compassed me about;
but in the name of the Lord I will destroy them.

"They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns; for in the name of the Lord I will destroy them.
"Thou hast thrust sore at me
that I might fall; but the Lord helped me."

James A. Garfield—Proverbs 21: 1:
"The king's heart is in the hand
of the Lord, as the rivers of water:
he turneth it whithersoever he will."

Chester A. Arthur—31st Psalm:
1-3:

"In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed;
deliver me in thy righteousness.

"Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily; be thou my strong rock, for an house of defense to save me.
"For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me."

Grover Cleveland—112th Psalm:
1-6:

"Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord,
that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

"His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

"Wealth and riches shall be in his house; and his righteousness
endureth for ever.

"Unto the upright there ariseth
light in the darkness; he is gracious and full of compassion, and righteous.

"A good man sheweth favours
and lendeth; he will guide his affairs with discretion.

"Surely he shall not be moved for ever; the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance."

B. Harrison—121st Psalm: 1-6:

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

"My help cometh from the Lord,
which made heaven and earth.

"He will not suffer my foot to
will not slumber.

Behold he that keepeth Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep.

"The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

"The sun shall not smite thee
by day, nor the moon by night."

Grover Cleveland—91st Psalm:
12-16:

"They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

"Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot.

"Because he hath set his love
upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him on high because he hath known my name.

"He shall call upon me and I answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him.

"With long life I shall satisfy him and shew him my salvation."
William McKinley—1st Chronicle:
1-10:

"And Cush begat Nimrod; he began to be mighty upon the earth."

William McKinley—Proverbs 16:

Theodore Roosevelt—James 1; V.
22-23:

"But be ye doers of the word,
and not hearers only, deceiving
your own selves.

"For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass."

W. H. Taft—1st Kings 3; V, 9-11:

"Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this thy so great a people.

"And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

"And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing
and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches
for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment."

Woodrow Wilson—119th Psalm:
43-48:

"And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

"So shall I keep the law continually for ever and ever.

"And I will walk at liberty; for I seek thy precepts.

"I will speak of my testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.

"And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.

"My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes."

Woodrow Wilson—46th Psalm:

"God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

"Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

"Though the waters thereof roar
and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof, Selah.

"There is a river, the streams
whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernales of the Most High.

"God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved, God shall help her, and that right early.

"The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved; he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

"The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
Selah.

"Come behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

"He maketh wars to come unto
the ends of the earth; he breaketh
the bow and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

"Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

"The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
Selah."

A JOKE ON THE PROF.

When Professor Walter Raleigh
was asked to lecture at Princeton College Professor Root went down to the station to meet the distinguished visitor. Professor Root did not know Professor Raleigh, but walking up to a man who he thought looked like him, he said:

"I beg your pardon, but am I addressing Walter Raleigh?" The man looked at him a moment, and,
thinking he must be mad, replied:

"No, I am Christopher Columbus.
Walter Raleigh is in the smoking
room with Queen Elizabeth."

The devil doesn't stay awake
o' nights wondering how he can get his clutches on a hypocrite,
but he may worry a good deal
over how to escape from one of that breed.

Motors as well as Men. The Willys-Knight Motor is beyond description. You simply have to usually applied to perpetual motion theories--certainly not to motors.

But they are a fact. The man who loves the

the silent motor.

Willys-Knight is that Car.

Every motorist, however experienced, simply cannot believe the claims of the Knight Car.
The claims and the service are not in the Auto Class

that will convince when you see the Car.

MARVELOUS STRIDES IN ROAD-BUILDING LAST YEAR

Construction Equal to Five Times Length of Lincoln Highway

Five parallel transcontinental highways—duplicates of the Lincoln highway—would represent the highway construction completed in the various states during 1920.

Approximately 20,000 miles of new improved roads were finished, according to reports sent in to the travel and transport bureau of a rubber company. Estimates from state highway engineers say that half again and possibly double this mileage will be completed during 1921.

Nebraska, Texas and Minnesota were among the leaders in total mileage of new construction. Nebraska built 1307.50 miles; Texas, 976.59, and Minnesota, 911.06. Nearly every state reports mileage under construction almost equal to the total actually finished. Many of the states were unable to submit figures on highway construction.

This year is expected to be the greatest road building year in the history of the country. Handicaps such as scarce and high-priced materials and labor shortages will be absent this year. A mild winter, which tended to lessen the destruction of roads, and an early spring are favorable to the road building program for 1921.

With more than $1,000,000,000 now available in state and federal money for highway work the good roads situation is more favorable than ever before in history.

THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH; BIG OFFICIALS REPORT EARLY

It is apparent that the old order in Washington is on the wane. What are the old guard and the recent influx of juvenile underlings to do with such irrepressible chieftains as Herbert Hoover, reporting for duty at 8:30; Mr. Hughes, brisk and unsmiling, at his desk by 9; the attorney general and the secretary of war turning up at the same unholy hour; the postmaster general beating them to it by a few minutes, and—to cap the climax—the President himself dictating to his stenographers at 8:30, after keeping late hours the night before?

If the contamination of this example set at the top is spread, we shall find it a pervasive heresy that in state and municipal offices, as well as in national, a snug encasement on the payroll is no guarantee of immunity from hard work. The pet theory, handed down from classical antiquity, was that if you had pull enough to land a place you had the necessary drag to keep it. Along comes a gentleman named Hoover with uncomfortable theories of waste motion and engineering economics, and he wrecks the creed of the politicians. He believes that one good man at a fair salary is capable of doing the work of a whole group of eye servants, puttering along and merely going through the motions at smaller stipends. If you have five men at $1500 doing something that one man at $5000 can do, you will save money by getting the more expensive man. Competition is the life of a government office as of trade. It will do no harm to give some of the place-holders at Washington and elsewhere the idea that the public as an employer demands and deserves as faithful and efficient service as a private corporation.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"TOO NEGATIVE YOUTH"

An extraordinary amount of "concern," in the Quaker sense, seems to be felt just now about the younger generation. Its literary and artistic standards, its moral and social views, its political opinions are endlessly discussed. The last number of The Bookman, for example, has several articles on the young enthusiasts, the young intellectuals, and so on. And the point stressed is that youth is in revolt. Everything that the elders approve it rejects. It doesn't like their novels, their poetry, their criticism, their painting, their morals, their politics. The characteristic attitude of the young is thus represented as a tremendous negative.

There is no great novelty in this. Frosty conservatives today cannot forget that they were flaming radicals in their hot and rebellious youth. Mark Pattison used to say that Oxford students always revolted against their teachers, with the result that opinion in the university completely changed every thirty years—the rebel undergraduates coming back to be professors only in their turn to be rebelled against. Youth is always iconoclastic, but would appear to be more absorbingly so today than before, if we are to believe the alarmed mentors. Young men and women are trying to make a joy smash of what has been established. They don't seem to be building much of anything on the ruins they would make.

Here is where the chance comes, according to a veteran English critic, for greatly daring boys or girls. Let them boldly proclaim to the world what they like! We know to surfeit what they don't like. The sensation would be to find out what suits them. If they are satisfied with poems on a battered tin can on a garbage heap, or on a dead fish floating in the gutter, let them make that important fact known. Grant that the old is repulsive; show us the attractive new. The rising generation ought to be able to rise to the height of the great modern criticism: "I know what I like." Then it could tell others what that is.—New York Times.

BETTER CONTAINERS NEEDED FOR PERISHABLE SHIPMENTS

Perishable products worth millions of dollars are destroyed annually on account of breakage in transit of the containers in which they are packed. More than one railroad has appealed to the U. S. Bureau of Markets to help remedy this situation, a high official of a southern railroad stating recently that in his opinion shippers should be compelled to use containers of adequate strength, and that proper car-loading methods should be exercised.

It is vastly to the interests of the shippers to use containers of a strength that will carry perishable products safely to market, and the Bureau of Markets has made many investigations and experiments to determine just what strength containers should be to accomplish that result. These investigations are still in progress, but the information already collected is sufficiently complete to enable the bureau to advise shippers with regard to the best containers to use in shipping specified fruits and vegetables.

"COUNTRY COUSIN" COMING TO NEWARK

Exceptional Entertainment by Century Club

Miss Grace Sage, of Boston, will give a dramatic reading of Booth Tarkington's "Country Cousin," in the New Century Club House, Tuesday evening, April 5. The committee in charge of the entertainment have received from friends who have recently heard Miss Sage, most favorable accounts of the ability and charm of the gifted artist. Miss Sage possesses the happy faculty of making her characters real people. She is so purposeful, so observant and true in characterization and so firm in her handling of a scene that no play of hers fails to be of compelling interest.

The American Society of University Extension of Philadelphia presents Miss Sage in their lecture course, which would of itself be a guarantee of the standard of her art or impersonation. In connection with the reading of the "Country Cousin," a musical program will be given by local talent, both vocal and instrumental. The committee asks the generous support and attendance for this entertainment given under the auspices of the New Century Club.

HIGH SCHOOL AGRICULTURAL STUDENTS VISIT WINITHUR FARMS

The Agricultural class of the high school attended the bull sale at Winithur Farms on Thursday, March 17th. Some time had been spent in the class room in study and discussion of records of milk and fat production. This sale, where pure bred stock of the highest type was auctioned off, gave the boys an idea of the money value coming from high producing parents.

GIRLS' TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Through the courtesy of Dean Robinson, the Women's College of Delaware has invited the D. I. A. A. to hold its Girls' Tennis Tournament at the college on Saturday, May 7. The advantage of this day is that many people from all over the State will be at Newark for conferences and the Delaware College Track Meet, and it will be easy for any school girl who may compete to find some one who is going to Newark on that day. While in Newark, the girls will be guests of the College.

The winning school will receive a silk banner. Each school is entitled to enter one singles contestant and one doubles team, making any substitutions in personnel that may be found necessary later.

The man who strikes a blow at Education to gain personal, political or economic advantage has either not caught the spirit of America or is a traitor to our ideals. The man who flirts with compromise where the Hopes of Children play is innocently, ignorantly or maliciously a coward.

Beginning March 21st, "How-Many-Saw-Teeth-in-This-Windaw?" contest awards will be given. You are invited to come in and register your count.

STATE GRANGE REJOICES OVER SUPREME COURT ACTION

Decision on Farm Loan Act and Lever Bill Gratifying

The Congress that passed out of existence on March 4, had before it a good deal of very important legislation but the only two measures of any great importance to agriculture that were passed during the closing session were the repeal of the war finance corporation and the repeal of war time legislation. This, of course, does not include the agricultural appropriation bill which is sufficiently large to take pretty good care of the National Department of Agriculture, although many items were reduced. The National Grange through its representative in Washington brought to bear a good deal of pressure upon the Congress in favor of the repeal of the war time legislation, and was strongly behind a number of other measures that did not reach final enactment. Perhaps the most important of these is the Packer control legislation, which passed the Senate but could not be brought to a vote in the House. The National Grange also favored the act authorizing the Federal Reserve Board to loan money to farmers and the control of wheat gambling. The efforts of the National Grange will be continuously exerted when the new Congress meets for legislation that will effect the interest of the farmer. The Grange is rejoicing in the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court confirming the constitutionality and validity of the Farm Loan Act and the unconstitutionality of the Lever Law which permitted price fixing on farm products.

HOMEOPATHIC HOSPITAL BENEFIT

In Wilmington, under the auspices of the Junior Board of the Homeopathic Hospital, on June 1, at the Playhouse, will be given the Adolph Bohm Ballet and Little Symphony. There will be two performances, matinee and evening, given under the direction of the Metropolitan Concert Co. The Ballet consists of Russian dancers who are well worth seeing, and the Little Symphony is conducted by George Barrere, the famous French Flutist. Nothing like this company has been in Wilmington before. As the Homeopathic Hospital is the only one of its kind in the State the committee in charge hope that its friends will subscribe to the program or purchase tickets. The solicitors for the program are going through the State now and shortly the circulars will be sent out for the ordering of tickets. The net proceeds of the Benefit will be given to the Hospital. Any questions are referred to Mrs. Walter D. Mode, 1406 Gilpin Ave., Wilmington, local treasurer of the benefit.

JUST FORGET

If you would increase your happiness and prolong your life forget your neighbor's faults. Forget all the slander you have ever heard. Forget the temptations. Forget the fault-finding and give a little thought to the cause which provoked it. Forget the peculiarities of your friends, and only remember the good points which make you fond of them. Forget all personal quarrels or histories you may have heard by accident, and which, if repeated, would seem a thousand times worse than they are. Blot out as far as possible all the disagreeables of life. They will come, but will only grow larger when you remember them, and the constant thought of the acts of meanness—or, worse still, malice—will only tend to make you more familiar with them. Obliterate everything disagreeable from yesterday, start out with a clean sheet today, and write upon it only those things which are lovely and lovable.—Claremont Herald.

Georgetown, Del., is going to be a metropolis with a housing problem and congestion of traffic 'n' everything if this keeps on. Butter is forty cents a pound there, and eggs are twenty-six cents a dozen.

HE "NEVER EXPECTED" IT!

Last Saturday night was a "snappy" night for us—had to "shake a leg" to take care of the store full of customers who knew what our PINK AND GREEN TAG SALE amounted to.

Yes, everyone of them knew through a relative, friend or neighbor just what to expect when we put on a sale. This Mr. . . . , erecting a bungalow out in Brack-Rx knew from his neighbors what to expect from us. In fact he was so pleased with the bill of fixtures which he ordered that he could not refrain from saying, "To tell you the truth, I never expected these fixtures at such a low price!"

There's a satisfied customer near you, ask him, or better see us, before the sale is all over.

Goods bought at high prices, left over from fall and winter are being disposed of at reductions that will surprise you.

It promises to be a Sensation in Sales. We are going to take our loss---and start over again.

We could sell this surplus stock to salesmen for the Big City sales. But it isn't fair to Newark.

Our customers, who have made possible our success in this town, come first in our consideration. So we are making the offer here.

Spring is right at hand and we need the space. So Friends of the Quality Shop, here's your chance to FORGET HIGH PRICES.

SPRING ATHLETIC PROGRAM OF D. I. A. A. FOR BOYS

Baseball
County games to be played off and championships determined, so that final State Championships can be played off on May 28 and 30 and June 4. Teams holding county championships will each play one game with the other two county champions on these dates. In case of a triple tie after these games, Executive Committee will arrange games between the two teams whose season's record ranks them highest. State prize—Silk Banner.

Track
County Meets will be held on the following schedule:
New Castle county, May 21.
Kent county, May 14.
Sussex county, May 21.
All school children in the State are eligible, and classes enough will be provided to give the younger ones a fair chance. Details will be given out shortly.
State Meet, under auspices of Delaware College, on Joe Frazer Field, Newark, May 7. High School students eligible. See later announcement from Delaware College.

FOR GIRLS
Tennis
Every High School is urged to make the necessary provision for tennis for girls, if it is not yet so provided. A court can be laid out and fully equipped for very little money, depending upon the locality. In some towns, courts not on school grounds can be effectively used. Dual meets can be arranged, with numbers of contestants agreeable to the competing teams, and the Women's College of Delaware has invited us to hold a State tournament at the College. Details and dates will be given later, depending upon conditions. State Prize—Silk Banner.

BASEBALL "FANS" ARE WARMING UP
The interest manifested by the young men in Newark High School and the numbers who turn out for practice augur well for the quality of the baseball team to be formed this year. A tentative schedule has been prepared and will be announced soon.
Tryouts for a team to represent the American Vulcanized Fibre Co. are being held and various groups meet and practice in the evenings. A team representing the town will doubtless be put in the field.

African golf, however, continues to be the most popular outdoor sport. The only apparent qualification for membership is a steady hand and a restless dollar or two and a drag with "Lady Luck." The "links" are located under the old el-lum tree southeast of the town. The membership as apparent from a distance, is evidently large.

INTERESTING SPEAKERS AT APPLETON WOMEN'S CLUB
The Appleton Woman's Club met on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. R. Smith. The vice president, Mrs. John Atkinson, presided. At the roll call each member responded with a cleaning hint.

Mrs. H. I. Garret read a helpful article on "The Renovation of Old Floors." Mrs. Atkinson gave an instructive talk on "Picture Framing and Hanging." Misses Mathilda Moore and Alice Blackson, each spoke in an interesting way on "Wall Paper," telling of its effects on people, apart from its harmony with the furnishings and its suitability to various rooms. An Irish story was read by Miss Ida L. Kimble. Miss Edith A. Robinson gave a report of the proceedings of the Community Council, held recently at Rising Sun.

About seventy-five people enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Smith.
The next meeting will be held at Mrs. W. T. Lofland's new home at Cowtown, April 20. Miss Dorothy Ross will demonstrate making a home-made dress form.
