SALVAGE COMMITTEE IN MEETING

Blackwell Asks Contribution Of All Scrap

K. Oberlin, newly appointed Chairman of the Newark Salvage Committee, succeeding Mrs. Jos. Beatty, conducted a meeting of that group in Town Council offices Monday evening.

H. L. Bonham, chairman of the Newark Council for Civilian Defense and Vincent Blackwell, New Castle County Salvage head, were present at the meeting.

Mr. Blackwell announced that the National campaign for scrap rubber had been extended ten days and urged the people of Newark to respond to the very urgent need for this material by contributing all scrap rubber in their possession. Rubber should be delivered to the nearest service station where it will be collected by salvage trucks for disposal.

Ways and means for baling the remaining scrap paper on hand in the local warehouse were discussed. Robert J. Boyd, treasurer of the committee, submitted the treasurers report. It was stated that a campaign for the conservation of fats, grease and tin cans is being formulated and that plans and details will be made public within the next few days.

Retires From Post Office

Roy E. Reynolds

REYNOLDS RETIRES AS POSTAL CLERK HERE

Record Praised In Letter From Postmaster Gen. Frank Walker

Roy E. Reynolds, who recently announced his retirement as clerk in the Newark Postoffice, where he has been engaged for 11 years, received this week a personal letter of commendation from Frank Walker, Postmaster General in Washington, complimenting him on his splendid record of service to the Government.

Mr. Reynolds, who has devoted most of his life to work in the postal service, expects to leave Newark soon for Colorado Springs, where he and his wife will settle permanently.

A veteran of the first World War, Mr. Reynolds served in France specializing in postal work. He also spent five years as a seapost clerk, handling mail aboard ships traveling between the United States and various European ports, during which he encountered varied experiences, especially in Germany, which he visited many times.

The letter he received from the Postmaster General follows:

Dear Mr. Reynolds: Your creditable record in the postal service has come to my attention upon the closing of your career as clerk in the Newark post office.

It is a pleasure for me to compliment you on your splendid record of service to your Government.

I am sure it is a source of satisfaction for you to know that you have performed your duties in a commendable manner, and I sincerely hope you will be happy in the years to come.

The letter is signed by Frank Walker, Postmaster General.

POSTOFFICE OPEN ON JULY 4TH

Due to the urgency of the war and necessity of postal service to defense industry, all United States Postoffices will remain open for business as usual on Saturday, July 4th, Postmaster C. E. Rittenhouse announced yesterday. While there will be no rural deliveries of mail, the usual city deliveries and window service will be in effect on Independence Day, Mr. Rittenhouse said.

Other stores and institutions in town will observe the national holiday by remaining closed and displaying the flag. Both local banks, all county and state offices and most stores will be closed all day.

Most of the Newark merchants will remain open late Friday evening to take care of their customers' needs over the holidays. All firms and residents of Newark are urged to display flags in front of their residences and places of business between sun rise and sunset, if the weather is fair.

HOUSING PROJECT UNDERWAY

Ground Clearing Operations Begun; Offices Erected

Work on the $735,000 Federal housing project for war workers began Monday on the Wilson Tract, with workmen erecting temporary offices and laying out the ground.

Grading and digging machinery has arrived and, following clearing of the ground, carpenters and men will be put to work.

Contrary to original plans, it is expected all necessary labor can be recruited locally or in Wilmington, making unnecessary the erection of temporary barracks. Only union labor will be used on the project.

Operations are expected to be in full swing by Monday, with preliminaries completed this week. The contract, calling for completion of 150 permanent-type houses within 120 days has been awarded Muhlenbaum & Kahoe, Richmond, Va., with T. A. Ross, local contractor, assistant to Damon Able, architect's representative.

LIONS CLUB MEETING

Sergeant Clarence Lynch, of the State Highway Department, addressed members of the Newark Lions Club at their regular weekly dinner meeting in the Country Club, Tuesday evening, on the subject "Safety and Conservation."

Introduced by A. Franklin Fader, program chairman for the evening, Sergeant Lynch stressed the urgency of safe driving during these crucial times and the conservation of tires and gasoline for defense purposes.

A meeting of the Board of Directors was held following the program, with both old and newly elected directors in attendance. Louis T. Staats and the new slate of officers will be inducted into office at the business session of the club next Tuesday evening.

President John K. Speicher conducted the business session of the meeting.

Mayor Frank Collins, President of Council, will conduct the meeting.

I. R. BROWN ELECTED STATE G.O.P. CHAIRMAN

Unanimously Named By State Republican Committee

I. R. Brown, Jr., of Wilmington, was elected state chairman by the Republican State Committee at its first 1942 meeting last Thursday evening in Wilmington.

Register of wills in New Castle County, Mr. Brown was nominated by D. D. Wharton, Kent County chairman, and was unanimously elected. The new state G.O.P. head succeeds H. Eugene Savery, who resigned following an appointment as a deputy attorney general.

The committee also adopted an eight-point program, outlining its policy in the coming campaign and pledging "loyal and vigorous support of the President" in the war effort.

Starting his political career even before he reached voting age, the new state chairman is probably the youngest man ever to hold that post. He entered Republican politics in the Tenth Ward under his father, Isaac R. Brown, Sr., late Republican leader.

It is expected Mr. Brown will resign his position as chairman of the New Castle County Republican Executive Council to be succeeded by Elmer Taylor, Levy Court Commissioner.

Mr. Brown's first duties, as authorized by the committee, will be to issue a call and fix the time for the state convention and for the primary for the election of delegates.

To fill the membership on the state committee vacated by Mr. Brown the committee named former State Senator Edward Abraham, Jr., Wilmington.

Besides promising support of the president, the declaration of policy drawn up by the committee stated that the coming election would "cause the two-party system to shine as a symbol against totalitarianism and the fatal one-party system."

OPA EXPERT TO SPEAK AT MEETING ON MONDAY

Talk For Local Consumers At Century Club

In order to clear up confusion in the minds of many people with regard to price control and rationing, Miss Marjorie Clark, O.P.A. expert, will speak at a meeting in the Newark New Century Club, July 6, at 2:30 p. m., explaining what the O.P.A. is hoping to accomplish through its rulings.

Miss Clark, whose headquarters are in the Pennsylvania Building, Wilmington, has been loaned by the Office of Price Administration from the regional office N. Y. to the Wilmington office for the month of July.

In order to be intelligent buyers, we must understand the problems involved in price control and rationing. It is hoped the meeting in the Century Club will be an aid to local consumers.

July 6 has been designated as "Cost of Living Posting Day" and it is expected all stores in the community will post on that day ceiling prices as of March, 1942.

All women of Newark are strongly urged to attend the Century Club meeting in order that they may more intelligently back out merchants in keeping down the cost of living. This is the next step in the work of Civilian Defense. Having spent months preparing defenses against outside danger, we must now protect ourselves from inside danger—inflation.

Dr. W. M. Johnson Made Major On Son's Birthday

The many friends and former clients of Dr. Wallace M. Johnson will be happy to learn that he received his majority commission yesterday after having served a little more than a year in the U. S. Army.

Dr. Johnson's son "Wally" was observing his birthday by visiting with his father at Fort Benning, Ga., when he learned of the promotion. "Wally" was privileged to pin the gold leaves, insignia of the rank of major, on his father at the exercises.

Major Johnson, a member of the Reserve Medical Officers Corps before the war, was inducted into service as a lieutenant in April 1941. He was commissioned captain several months ago and has now been rewarded by promotion to the rank of major.

225 NEWARK YOUTHS IN DRAFT CALL

Serious Attitude Of 18-20 Year Olds Praised

A total of 225 Newark youths in the 18-20 age group registered for selective service on Tuesday at the Deer Park Hotel, announced Lt. P. K. Musselman, registrar, stating that the figure marked one of the largest registrations for a community of this size in the state.

Young men came in a steady stream all day, said officials, who commented on the cooperative attitude of the youths, satisfied to be included in the nation's military manpower. "They were a group of very serious young men," stated those in charge.

The majority of the men, it was said, are working, those still attending school in the winter having summer jobs.

The 20 year olds were signed for military call, the 18 and 19 year olds for occupational classification and liable to military service when they reach 20.

The registration was conducted by a group of volunteer workers in charge of Mrs. Musselman. The committee included: Rev. A. W. Mayer, Mrs. C. H. Hopkins, Miss Gladys Selner, Mrs. T. A. Baker, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. L. A. Stearns, Mrs. Samuel Handloff, Mrs. G. Taggart Evans and Mrs. Donald Dutton.

JACKSON ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

George Jackson, member of the club, was the speaker at the weekly meeting Monday evening of the Newark Rotary Club in Hanna's Tea Room, resident Samuel Dameron presiding.

Visitor of the evening was Wilson Price, a Rotarian from Middletown Rotary Club.

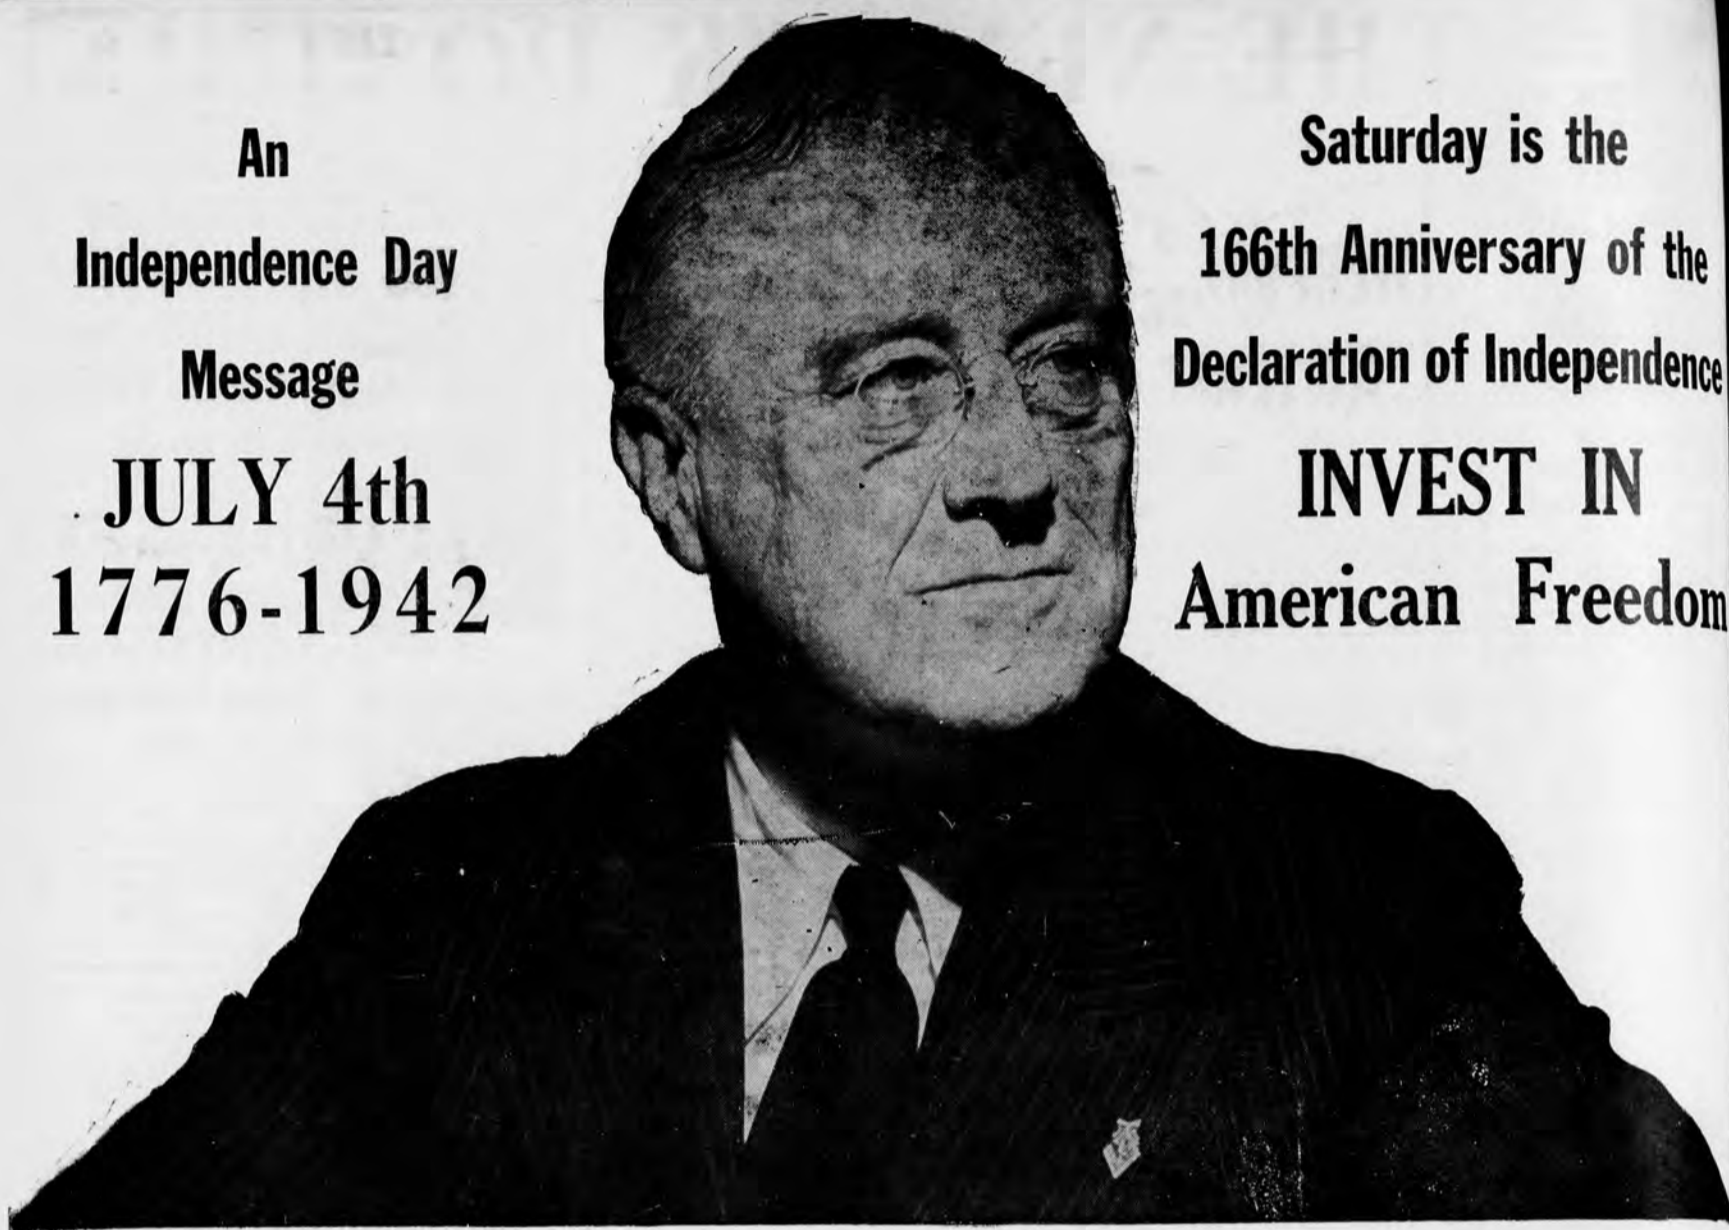

Mr. Jackson discussed "Pennsylvania" pointing out that while the state was a great mining and industrial center, it also ranked high in agriculture, with 170,000 farms, average acreage 88 acres.

Although ranking 32nd in area and 31st in farm acreage in the nation, the state led all others in poultry and egg production last year and in the growing of cigar leaf tobacco, being second in Buckwheat crop output.

The state ranks third among the nation's peach growers; fourth in the raising of clover, hay, timothy, commercial apples, and maple sugar; fifth in the cultivation of grapes; ninth in rye, eleventh in winter wheat, and twelfth in the production of corn.

A War Message on WAR BONDS from the President of the United States

“... The American people know that if we would raise the billions which we now need to pay for the war and at the same time prevent a disastrous rise in the cost of living, we shall have to double and more than double the scale of our savings.
 “Every dime and dollar not vitally needed for absolute necessities should go into

WAR BONDS and STAMPS to add to the striking power of our armed forces.

“If these purchases are to have a material effect in restraining price increases they must be made out of current income.

“In almost every individual case they should be big enough to mean rigid self-denial, a substantial reduction for most of us in the scale of expenditure that is comfortable and easy for us.

“We cannot fight this war, we cannot exert our maximum effort, on a spend-as-usual basis.

“We cannot have all we need if our soldiers and sailors are to have all they need.”

BLUE STAMP FOOD LIST FOR JULY ANNOUNCED

Shoppers Urged To Watch For Victory Specials

Blue Stamp Foods available in the Wilmington and New Castle County areas during the July period were announced today by William H. Harper, State Supervisor for the AMA.

Fresh peaches, fresh plums, and fresh apples have been added to the list. These, together with oranges, all fresh vegetables including Irish and sweet potatoes and the staple foods continued in the list, will give participants a wide variety from which to select the foods they require.

Dried prunes and fresh grapefruit are the only two commodities removed from the July list. Dried prunes are being acquired for use largely by our armed forces and the season of heavy marketing of grapefruit is drawing to a close.

This list, which includes all fresh vegetables, will enable stamp customers to buy plenty of Victory Food Specials as they are announced throughout July. Food stamp shoppers are urged to watch for these Victory Food Specials, and to do their bit by helping to purchase seasonal surpluses when they hit peak production, thereby easing transportation bottlenecks, and allowing farmers to continue maximum food production.

The complete list of Blue Stamp Foods issued by the Agricultural Marketing Administration for July 1 through July 31 in all stamp program areas is as follows: fresh peaches, plums, apples, and oranges, all fresh vegetables including Irish and sweet potatoes, shell eggs, butter, corn meal, wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, self-rising flour, enriched self-rising flour, and whole wheat (graham) flour. "Farmers," Mr. Harper said, "are working to produce abundant quantities of all the food needed by the United Nations. The Food Stamp Program helps to assure them, particularly in seasons of heavy marketing, of a fair return for the efforts they are making. At the same time the program adds many nutritious foods to the diets of public-aid families."

Let Everybody Know You're Investing 10 Percent of Your Income in War Bonds

The attractive red, white and blue window sticker, pictured above, is the new yardstick of patriotism in the War Bond drive throughout the nation. With the slogan, "Everybody every pay day, ten percent," sweeping the country, patriotic Americans on the home front are rallying to their Government's appeal for funds with which to help finance the war. The home which displays the "ten percent" sticker is doing its share toward Victory for America and the United Nations. The stickers are being distributed through local War Savings Chairmen.

ELEVENTH HOUR CALL FOR SCRAP RUBBER

More Needed To Go Over Top By July

An eleventh hour appeal to every man, woman, and child in Delaware to make a final search through closets, attics, basements, garages and barns for additional articles to add to President Roosevelt's scrap rubber drive was made today by H. V. Daniel, Secretary of the Delaware Petroleum Industries Committee.

"Rubber and more rubber is needed to bring the drive in Delaware to a successful conclusion," Mr. Daniel said. "The response from everybody has been very generous to date, but now, with the finish of the campaign on July 10 in sight, we must make a final stretch drive.

"The Army, Navy, the Marine and Air Corps have had to cut their use of rubber in military equipment 25 per cent, so there is literal truth in the slogan 'With your pounds of scraps, you help pound the Japs.'"

Mr. Daniel made four suggestions to Delaware residents for the last few days of the drive to insure that every ounce of available rubber scrap is collected before the end of the campaign on July 10th.

1. If you haven't turned in any rubber scrap yet, go through your house, your closets, your basements, your attic, your garage and your yard and make as big a collection of old rubber as you can. Try to reach a goal of at least five pounds for each and every member of your family.

2. If you have already turned in some scrap, try to find some more that you can spare. Even if the additional amount is not large, when multiplied by thousands, it will be substantial.

3. Look around your office, shop, store or factory for discarded or worn out rubber articles that can be spared.

4. When this has been done, telephone relatives and friends to make sure they have turned in their share of rubber scrap. Rubber should be taken to a gasoline service station whenever possible. Mr. Daniel suggests that anyone who finds it impossible to get his collection of scrap to a service station, should notify the Boy Scouts of America. Industrial and commercial families whose scrap rubber concerns are too large to be handled by the Boy Scouts should notify the scrap rubber committee, salvage committee, and send around to make

CONSUMER CREDIT TO BE LIMITED BY JULY 10

Credit Buying On Certain Goods Stopped

Buying on charge accounts may soon have to be limited for those who allow their current bills to remain unpaid. In spite of all the publicity, many purchasers have not heard of the consumer credit regulation and some do not understand it. The President of the United States has emphasized its importance as a part of the effort to hold down the cost of living.

The gist of the regulation affecting charge accounts is that, if a charge account is not paid by the tenth of the second calendar month after the purchase is made, the store cannot extend further charge or instalment credit to the customer to buy any one of a wide variety of goods, ranging from automobiles and furniture to such things as clothing and accessories. The provisions do not apply to groceries, coal and a few other consumers' goods.

The first effective date of this part of the regulation is July 10, when many charge accounts will be closed to further purchases if bills incurred in May or earlier are not paid. For example, take the case of a person who in May purchased groceries from a general store on open credit. He neglects to pay this bill before July 10. He can still buy groceries from the store, but he could not then buy on credit articles of clothing or other things that are subject to the regulation. This provision of the regulation will, of course, not affect the large number of customers who pay their bills promptly.

Sharply advancing prices threaten our incomes and standards of living, scarcities have become acute in many lines, and it has become difficult to distribute our limited supplies efficiently. Consumers are being asked to give up many things so that the armed forces will have the equipment necessary to win the war.

Our economic problem, in a nutshell, is that we as a nation have more money to spend than we have goods to buy. We must not aggravate this situation by using our buying power now bidding for scarce goods when we shall need it so greatly later to keep the wheels of our industries moving so that we can all have jobs and income when the war is over.

We are not asked to deprive ourselves of necessities, but to budget our spending. Our credit privileges are not being taken away from us. We are simply asked to keep our bills paid up.

Industrial Sugar Users Reminded To Register

Commercial and industrial sugar users in this vicinity are reminded to register for their new certificates as soon as possible, announced rationing officials this week.

The second registering period opens June 22, and applications from retailers and industrial users thus far have been particularly slack.

The board, now located in the Armory, is open mornings and afternoons daily, closing Saturday afternoons.

Two Newark youths, Hubert A. Price, 48 West Cleveland Avenue, and James W. Harkness, 214 Capitol Trail, were recently inducted into the Army.

Along with twelve others, they have been sent to Aberdeen Proving Grounds for training in the Ordnance Department.

WAR KNOWS NO HOLIDAY

Has the "Gas Hog" made his appearance in our community? The "gas hog" is the selfish motorist who has heard of gasoline shortages in defense centers and rushes to his station to fill his tank whether he needs the gasoline or not.

He is the motorist who "got the jump" on gasoline rationing in rationed areas by hoarding 10 or 20 gallons in containers in his garage a few days before rationing began.

Since the value of his existing ration units was doubled recently to provide him with sufficient gasoline for an additional two—now three—weeks before the permanent rationing system goes into effect, he has been fearful that he might find himself on July 22 with unredeemed ration units.

He knows essential vehicles must have gasoline. He knows trucks, physicians, defense workers and others need the gasoline far more than he does, but he demands a filled tank even though others may not receive a single gallon. He is the unreconstructed "Sunday Driver". Remember him?

The full gas tank is generally credited with causing the gasoline shortage. Thousands of filling station attendants report that many thousands of motorists, many of whom are women, have asked for six gallons and been able to take only two to three because their tanks are brimful.

After many gallons of the precious fluid—brought here at the cost of many lives—had spilled on the ground, attendants now are on the outlook for "gas hogs" and insist on seeing whether the tank will hold six gallons before making the sale.

There will come a day of reckoning for the "gas hog." It will be in the not so distant future, when his rapidly thinning tires, wearing away on unessential joyrides, give up the ghost.

Then this mistaken individual will drop out of motoring circulation for one year, two years, perhaps even longer. No one will miss him.

What are your plans for Independence Day? Most of America is going to give up its traditional "Fourth of July" holiday and work to insure the observance of future Independence Days.

This is America's answer to Donald M. Nelson's appeal to continue war production and the manufacture of essential civilian products.

Read his message to yourself on the Fourth if you are one of those who agree that the Home Front and the Fighting Front must make every day a winning day. Here it is:

"We Americans have traditionally observed Independence Day with patriotic meetings and a rest from labor. We have paused in our peaceful work to re-examine the principles of Liberty and Justice for all men which gave birth to our democratic nation.

"Today, we are again fighting for our independence. We are fighting in every part of the world so that those basic principles of Justice and Liberty for all may continue to prevail here in our land.

"We are fighting for our freedom and for the freedom of millions of helpless, crushed people.

"Therefore, on Independence Day this year we can pay proper honor to our freedom only by working in the defense of that freedom. Our soldiers on the battlefields of the world celebrate no holidays. We at home dare not have a July 4 holiday in war production. Every factory which is making materials of war or essential articles for civilian use should make this Independence Day a day of full production.

"I am sure that management and labor alike will realize that by producing materials and weapons for the defense of our freedom, they will be acting in a spirit worthy of the men who gave this nation Liberty and Independence."

HOUSEWIVES MAY HELP

In July, a new form of salvage will be launched. This is the collection of waste household fats. Because glycerine is used in the manufacture of munitions and comes from fat, housewives will be paid five to six cents per pound for drippings and other forms of grease and fat. Grocers will act as collection stations. Here is another way for the Home Front to aid the Fighting Front.

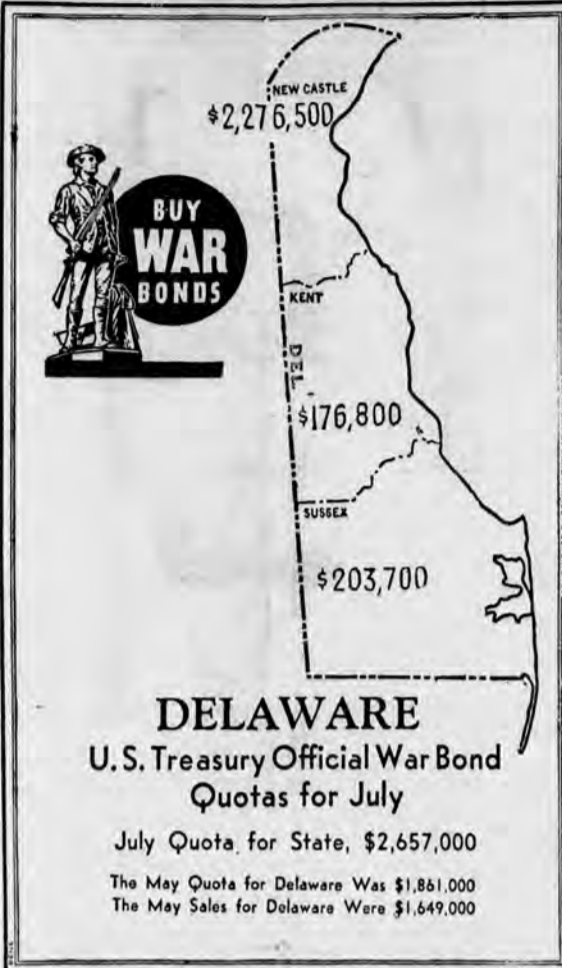

A total of 64 filling stations in New York, Newark and Philadelphia will not receive gasoline for 15 to 30 days because they sold gasoline without punching ration cards. . . . The Maryland Office of Price Administration has named Edward W. Ross, Pocomoke City, Md., acting district manager of the new Eastern Shore district OPA office in Maryland. . . . To spur industrial salvage in the bustling Beaver Valley of Pennsylvania, a Beaver Falls committee of manufacturers has been formed to aid the drive. . . . C. L. Sullivan, Mt. Lebanon, Penna., has been appointed by the War Production Board to keep scrap metals moving from scrapyards to steel mills in western Pennsylvania.

In Pennsylvania during May, more than 30,000 junked cars in the 1,600 auto graveyards in the State were cut up and sent to steel mills for use in war production. Have you an old "Jalopy" that should be junked? Send it off to war now when its metal is needed to keep our war production going at top speed.

Massachusetts, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Kentucky are officially known as commonwealths, according to their state constitutions, while subdivisions of Louisiana are known as parishes instead of counties. Oak Park, Ill., with a population of over 65,000, is officially a village.

An unrepentant thief, who has spent 30 of his 81 years in jail, told a New York magistrate: "My big mistake was the one year I did honest work and lost an eye through an accident. That taught me a lesson."

OFFICIAL U. S. TREASURY WAR BOND QUOTAS FOR JULY

The above map of Delaware shows the War Bond quotas, by counties, for the month of July, 1942. Total War Bond quota for the state is $2,657,000. With the National quota total placed at a billion dollars, the nation goes into high gear in its support of the War financing and to give our fighting forces adequate implements of war which will bring ultimate Victory. American Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Airmen are on every front. They are giving 100 percent for their country. What are we doing here on the home front? Are we lending at least ten percent of income to help them? It's very little. But to fight this war successfully our country needs a billion dollars in War Bonds every month from us—the People. Let's Go, America.

Weekly Sermon

The Words of Jesus
By the late Rev. George S. McCune, D. D., of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

Jesus said many remarkable things, but nothing more remarkable was ever uttered than the words recorded in Mark 13:31: "Heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away."

Try to imagine the circumstances under which these words were spoken. The speaker was a peasant in Judea. He was without the education of the schools. For the greater part of his life he had toiled as a carpenter, leaving the bench only a short time before his hearers for the most part were peasants like himself. They were obscure and commonplace. Think of these circumstances and then consider His words. They fall on the inner ear like the stroke of a bell. "Heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away."

The words of Jesus are abiding. They will remain when all else passes away. The historic fact is that Jesus' words gain in vitality and influence. There is a striking comparison between the words of Plato and those of Jesus. Plato was born in the most brilliant age of the most brilliant country of antiquity. He was the greatest thinker Greece ever produced. He was the incarnation of the philosophy and faith leaving his highest and truest thoughts of his age. He died at a ripe old age, leaving his highest and truest thoughts on record, and a school to perpetuate his name. And yet today, the name of Plato is scarcely ever heard outside scholastic institutions, and his history and words are unfamiliar save to the comparatively few students of ancient philosophy.

But the miracle of miracles in history is this—that the words of Jesus have been the spirit and life of the greater part of humanity for more than nineteen hundred years, and their influence increases as the world grows older. Age has not dimmed their light, nor lessened their sweetness, nor diminished their force. Familiarity has not spoiled their freshness or fragrance. Life has not outgrown their wisdom. Not a single recorded saying of Jesus needs to be modified by the growth of modern knowledge. No rival to the words of Jesus has ever arisen. His words are eternal, for they were spoken by the eternal Son of God.

In all the world's confusion today let us look up and get comfort as we repeat His eternal words, uttered many centuries ago, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

A Philadelphia firm twice robbed quit business with the explanation: "What is the use of carrying on a business for the benefit of robbers?"

NEWS OF THE RECENT PRODUCTION cut down on pin ball games comes as one of the grimmest sacrifices of total war to numerous enthusiasts of the game.

The average layman is apt to pass the matter off lightly, regarding pin ball players as weak and falling characters generally. A moment's observation in any soda pub will convince one, however, that plunger pushers are not as 'teched' as we think, neither are they dim-witted dodos blinded to trickery and corruption by the appeal of flashing lights and ringing bells.

THEY ARE, GENERALLY SPEAKING, upright fellows who enjoy pitting human timing, precision, split-second judgment against mechanical perversity and devilishness. 'Tis true, the odds are against them but therein lies the thrill.

Pin-ball players fall into a few familiar types, which for a better understanding of the specie we outline.

Most common is the "Blubberer", who when things go wrong (viz: last ball does not hit last obstacle but darts playfully away) loses control. Face contorted like an infant's with a cork in its windpipe, the blubberer takes down his hair, cries out against fate, the proprietor, and the machine. A "coke" or soda however quickly steadies him. Courage returns, and he is ready to invest another nickel.

SOMEWHAT SIMILAR IS THE "Beef". When hope ebbs and bright visions of free games do not mature, he turns mean—pounds glass, pushes machine pettishly, slams plunger, threatens to throw the whole thing into the street. Man the animal, in short, takes control. Here too, a steady "coke" is essential before calm outlook returns.

Less common is the "Cynic". Here we have stouter stuff. He will not be unmanly by a mere gadget. He plays with calm fatality. Fate cannot jar him; he runs off the balls with a sardonic smile, stepping back to let each do as it will.

WHEN HE ALMOST WINS BUT doesn't, he permits a bitter chuckle. "See," he says, "what did I tell you. You can't win." And he turns to invest another nickel.

Rarest type of all is the "Artist". Men of skill and fine artistry these, virtuosos truly, a joy to behold in action. Perfect in timing and coordination, they work best in a sort of perspiring ecstasy.

SUSPENSE MOUNTS STEADILY until man and machine become one in a symphony of heaving and grunting. The mysterious fascination of the pin ball game may be summed up this way: Some people like to go to the movies. They sit and look. It costs 40c. Other people like to play machines—a suspenseful drama in which they are the hero. It costs a nickel.

CUSTODIAL OFFICERS ARE WANTED

The United States Civil Service Commission today issued a new announcement for Custodial Officers, junior grade, and modified its requirements for Junior Public Health Nurse. It also extended until further notice the acceptance of applications for Radio Monitoring Officer, $2,600 and $3,200 a year, and for Bindery Operative for the Government Printing Office, 66 cents an hour.

Custodial officers will be appointed to the Department of Justice's Federal Prison service, the entire personnel of which is under civil service. The salary for the junior grade is $1,860 a year. Promotions are made on merit and demonstrated ability. The work of appointees may include receiving inmates and instructing them in prison rules; laying out work assignments and supervising groups of inmates employed upon construction work, labor details, laundry and other maintenance shops, and farm work; acting as referee and directing recreational activities; and assisting in rehabilitative work.

Applicants for custodial officer positions must be men between 25 and 58 years of age, in good physical condition, and of fearless and strong character. A written general test will be given to measure aptitude for adjusting to the duties. Applications must be filed with the Commission's Washington office not later than August 11, 1942.

For Junior Public Health Nurse positions, $1,800 a year, there are now no age limits. Registered nurses who have graduated subsequent to January 1, 1920, from an accredited school of nursing having a daily average of 100 or more patients, and have completed or are enrolled in an approved course covering 1 academic year in Public Health Nursing, may apply. One year of supervised experience in general public health nursing may be substituted for one half of the year's study in public health nursing. The physical requirements have been greatly modified. No written test is required. Positions will be filled in the Public Health Service and the Indian Service. Applications must be filed with the Civil Service Commission in Washington, D. C., and will be accepted until further notice.

Full information as to the requirements for these examinations, and application forms, may be obtained from Ralph B. Kee, Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at the post office or customhouse in this city, or from the Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners,

70 ATTEND OPENING OF MATTAHOON BOYS' CAMP

First Week Attendance Twice That Of Last Year

Camp Mattahoon, the summer camp operated by the Wilmington Boy's club on Limestone road, Marshallton, opened this week with 70 boys in attendance. The attendance more than doubled that of opening week at the camp last year.

Several new improvements have been added to Mattahoon this year. A foot bridge has been erected across Mill Creek near the recreation hall and 10 cabins have been built to care for youths, who formerly slept in tents. Alfred Kamm is managing director of the camp assisted by Thomas R. Gibson, program director of Boys Club. Senior counselors include: Floyd F. Cantrell of Seaford, nature recreation program director; his assistant, Paul F. Ehinger of Dover; Scott Gebhardt of Dover; James H. Connelly, both of Philadelphia, co-directors of the craft department; Ludwig Yakimoff, Lewes, and Floyd Cantrell, Jr., Seaford, sports program directors; Ralph Bilon and William Nash in charge of the swimming pool, and A. Lee Gladden, Jr., camp bugler.

HOSPITAL FUND
Twenty cents is deducted from the pay of every officer and enlisted man in the U. S. Marine Corps each month and applied to a hospital fund.

The crown, fitting Richards with the snugness of an old hat, is the veteran linksman's fourth, he having already been three-time club champion.

The victor, however, was forced to give a bang-up golf exhibition in winning. Wollaston pressing him all the way, as Richards carded a 75 on the first eighteen against the losers, 75, followed by the champ's scintillating 70, one below par, on the second eighteen against Wollaston's 74.

Few breaks marked the competition, as both men played at top form, Wollaston faltering principally on the third nine, when Richard's deadly putting aided in netting him a three hole advantage after which he was never permanently headed.

The match opened with both men drawing par on the first hole, Wollaston jumping to a sudden lead on the 123-yd. second, holing out in par, while Richards went one over regulation margin. The champ quickly nullified the lead with a bird on the third.

Deadlocked at the end of the first nine, the opponents traded holes evenly until the eighteenth, when Richards dropped a par 4 against Wollaston's 5.

With a one up advantage entering the decisive third nine, Richards hinted strongly at the final outcome when he dropped a bird on the twentieth, his tee shot plopping two feet from the cup, his easy putt giving him a two up lead.

Wollaston rallied on the twenty-second with a par 4 against Richards' five, but the Champ came through with another bird on the twenty-fourth, when he unleashed one of the best shots of the match—a 90 foot putt—to regain his two-up advantage. He rapidly increased the lead on the next hole, taking a par 4 under Wollaston's five, to attain the final winning margin, 3 and 2.

Another bird by Richards on the thirtieth featured the final nine, which saw both men trading holes, with Wollaston unable to bring down the victor's lead.

PLAYGROUND HOLD LEAD IN SOFT-BALL LOOP

Down Presbies 8-3; Commandos Blitz Continental 21-4 On 20 Hits

Undefeated Playground continued breezily along victory road this week, trouncing the Presbies 8-3 in a softball league tilt Monday night, while the Commandos blitzed Continental last night in a bit and error sideshow, 21-4.

Playground retained the league lead with 3 wins and no losses, the Commandos taking second with 2 wins and 1 loss.

George Shaen, of Playground, allowed the Presbies 10 hits Monday night, but with men on was hard to touch.

The Presbies drew first blood with a tally in the first, which Playground quickly countered with a two run rally in the second, going on to notch four more in the fourth, their biggest scoring inning.

Needless to say, the Commando tilt was not exactly a nip and tuck affair. The Commandos piled up 21 runs on 20 hits, while Continentals lads were busy not being there when the ball was.

Odd thing was, Continental led the game in the opening innings, tallying one in the first and two in the second while the winners were held scoreless. But from there on the Commandos took command.

Schedule for next week: Tuesday, July 7 - Commandos vs. Presbies.

Wednesday, July 8 - Playground vs. Commandos.

Thursday, July 9 - Continental vs. Presbies.

Tuesday, July 14 - Playground vs. Presbies.

Wednesday, July 15 - Commandos vs. Continental.

STOP AND GO LIGHTS CITED AS GAS DRAIN

Limit To Rush Hours Possible In Many Cases

With traffic volume diminishing by car, tire and gas rationing, motorists are complaining of long and unnecessary delays at intersections controlled by traffic signals. Such delays are wasteful to rationed gas.

Municipalities however, have the answer readily at hand. They may, if safety conditions warrant, turn off the lights altogether, or where the volume is still great enough to demand some form of control, they may change the lights from "stop and go" to flashing. This type of warning provides for complete stop on the red and caution on the flashing amber. It is more flexible than the fixed-time light, which holds up traffic regardless of whether there is any movement on the intersection street.

In many cases, the Delaware Automobile Association declares, signals could be discontinued except at peak traffic hours. There is, however, always the safety factor to be considered, and motorists are strongly urged to drive with caution at locations where traffic signals are temporarily "blacked out."

FIBREMEN MAINTAIN HOLD ON SEMI-PRO LEAD; BEAT P. & J.; TIE HOLLY OAK

Boost Loop Lead With 10-5 Trouncing Handed Pusey And Jones Thursday; Face Rose Hill On Home Field Tonight

Firmly entrenched at the top of the Semi-Pro League, Continental-Diamond ended a five game winning streak, when they drew a 7-7 tie against Holly Oak Tuesday night.

PLAYGROUND HARD BALL LEAGUE OPENERS

Dark Horses And Southside Winners In Circuit Starts

The Dark Horses and Southside set the pace for the start of the Playground hardball League this week as both took their opening games by easy margins, the Dark Horses trouncing the Black Hawks 15-2, while Southside polished off the Mohawks 13-6.

The victors tangle Monday in a tilt promising plenty of action with the league lead at stake. Mohawks and Blackhaws also meet on the same date.

Davis of the Dark Horses set the opposition down without a single safety in handling the Black Hawks their 15-2 setback. Errors in the final frame accounted for two Hawk runs.

Dark Horses led easily all the way, their big inning being the seventh when they notched 10 runs on a bevy of hits, while holding the Hawks scoreless until the end when errors denied the Dark Horses a no-hit no-run victory.

Cataldi and H. Gregg headed the Dark Horse batsmen with three safeties, while Ritchie, B. Gregg accounted for two each, the team amassing a total of 14 hits.

In the other league game, Southside pounded out 18 hits in setting down the Mohawks 13-6. Leading 2-0 entering the third, Southside decided the outcome with a five run rally on a circuit club by B. Donovan and hits by Silk and O. Donovan, coupled with several Mohawk errors.

The Mohawks rallied unsuccessfully in the fourth notching five runs on hits by Beers, Wells, Martin, Eisner, and Getty. B. Donovan, Silk, and Tallucci topped the Southside sluggers with three safeties apiece.

SUMMER IDEAL TIME TO CHECK ON CHILDREN

"Now is the time to see to the health of those youngsters who will enter first grade of the New Castle County schools this fall if you want them to be 'fit as a fiddle' to begin learning their three R's," says Dr. Marion Hotopp, Acting Director of the State Board of Health's Division of Maternal and Child Health. Four hundred and thirty-five children were examined this spring in the pre-school health examinations carried on in 22 different schools by Dr. J. R. Downes, deputy health officer of New Castle County, and his Board of Health nurses.

A study of the records reveals that a total of 534 defects were found among these 435 children, of which 294 were dental defects. One hundred and twenty-eight of the children had dirty teeth, 106 had small cavities, while 60 were found to have serious dental defects.

Of the 238 defects other than teeth found among the 435 children examined, 103 had enlarged tonsils and 8 definitely diseased. Poor eyesight took 3rd place with 63 having some difficulty in seeing and 11 with definitely faulty vision. Twenty-eight of the children could not hear well and 9 were quite deaf. Six had skin or scalp in need of attention and 12 youngsters had little backs that were not straight.

"Make your youngsters physically ready for the task ahead," says Dr. Hotopp. Summer is the ideal time to check on the child's health. The longer a defect remains uncorrected, the greater the danger of its becoming a serious health handicap.

For those parents who did not take advantage of the pre-school health examinations in the spring, Dr. Hotopp suggests that the children be taken now to the family physician for a thorough physical check-up and furthermore, that any defects found should be corrected at once.

Children who are underweight should be given plenty of nourishing food, including milk to drink, (a quart a day if possible). In summer time many youngsters are apt to drink too many soft drinks or eat candy between meals and then not have the appetite for the nourishing and needed meat and fresh vegetables at the family dinner table.

Rest, too, is essential for growing little folk. Because darkness comes late these summer evenings, many parents allow their children to stay up late with the result that they do not have their twelve hours of sleep. See that your child is "early to bed" in summer as well as in winter. If this seems impossible to accomplish have them lie down for a while in the afternoon. The rest will help even if they do not sleep for the active games of childhood are exhausting in hot weather. Both tempers and health are improved by an afternoon siesta.

June Upholds Tradition As Month Of Marriages

June upheld its reputation as the "month of brides," according to statistics just released by Clerk of the Peace George Gray Thouron, with 709 marriage licenses issued for the month—twenty-five more than the previous June record of 674 licenses, established last year.

Last month's figure was only 37 short of equalling the all-time record of licenses issued in one month since the office of Clerk of the Peace was established. August, 1940, holds the all-time high record when 846 licenses were issued.

SAFE GRAIN STORAGE IS EXPLAINED BY EXPERT

Measures To Counter Insect Damage Are Outlined

Present supplies of wheat now at terminal storage points will make it necessary to store more wheat on Delaware farms this year than in the past. Delaware farmers should not underestimate losses which may occur from insect damage though, according to John M. Amos, assistant extension entomologist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

Amos cautions Delaware farmers to make every effort to prevent insect infestations now because fumigants may be difficult to secure. He says that granaries with left-over piles of grain, sacks of feed, bran, or cracked corn are almost sure to be infested with insects that will attack new grain stored in the same or surrounding buildings.

Farmers are advised to sweep their granary and grain bins thoroughly before the new grain is stored. Where necessary the bins should be rebuilt to eliminate holes, cracks and other crevices in which moths and beetles may hide. After cleaning and repairing is completed, Amos recommends that the bins be sprayed with a good grade of odorless oil fly spray and cracks and crevices be dusted with hydrated lime.

Efforts to rid buildings of rats and mice will mean a real saving from losses by these rodents. The moisture content of grain should be kept low. Grain with a low moisture content, Amos points out, does not favor the multiplication of the insect pests and avoids the danger of the stored grain heating.

If fumigating is done the bins should be made as airtight as possible and should be done on a calm warm day. The directions for the use of fumigants should be followed. Most fumigants, cautions Amos, are harmful to man if the fumes are breathed in any quantity. Hence, breathing the fumes should be carefully avoided.
