PRICE SEVEN CENTS

Three Of Four Bond Proposals Approved In Freeholders Vote

Property Owners Authorize Borrowing Of $2,011,000 For Capital Improvements, Reject $100,000 Sidewalk Program With Less Than One-Third Eligible Voting

With less than a third of Newark's 5,300 eligible property owners voting last Tuesday, a municipal bond issue of $2,011,000 for a capital improvement program was approved with an 860-719 rejection of but one of the four proposals — the $100,000 requested for city costs with mandatory sidewalk construction.

A total of 1,656 votes out of a potential 5,300 was registered at the polling place in the Aetna Fire Hall on Ogletown Road.

The proposal to borrow $600,000 for electric, water, sewer and street improvements was approved in a 1,117-509 vote.

Park and recreation facilities in the amount of $857,500 were approved 853-745.

And $750,000 for a new municipal administration building with police headquarters was approved in a 900-608 vote.

Reduced by $100,000 The original proposal to borrow $2,111,000 was reduced by $100,000 with rejection of sidewalk construction costs.

Electric distribution improvements of $92,000 include construction of a south well field station to serve the Industrial Park and southern Newark area with 12-KV service, $30,000 construction of new 12-KV circuit from south well field station to Industrial Park and southern Newark area at $12,000; and purchase of 12-KV facilities from Delaware Power & Light to serve the Industrial Park at $30,000.

Water distribution improvements of $270,000 include metering of 10 production wells for output and control at $20,000; construction of new well field and transmission lines $200,000; and construction of booster station and main on Chestnut Hill Road, $50,000.

Sanitary sewer improvements of $28,500 include construction of gravity main on upper Christiana Creek to eliminate pumping stations and to serve newly annexed areas connected to Fairfield interceptor sewer.

Street improvements of $241,000 include construction of Hillside Road between Spherd Drive and Barksdale Road, $35,000; North Chapel Street and Cleveland Avenue intersection improvement, and widening of North Chapel from West Street to Cleveland Avenue, $58,000; and storm sewer construction from intersection of Delaware and South College avenues to PRR, $12,000.

Parkland The $657,500 for parks and recreation includes parkland acquisition and development at Newark Street, $87,000; Lewis Avenue, $44,000; Fairfield, $189,000; New London Avenue, with building renovation, $81,000; and park development at Lumbrook, $43,000; Phillips Avenue, $70,000; and Downes School, $7,500.

Costs for parkland acquisition include $42,500 at Barksdale Road, and $69,000 at Kelle Avenue.

Swimming pools are to be built at seven sites at a total cost of $32,000.

Kathy Ciesinski Featured Soloist For Final Concert

City To Conduct Spring Clean-Up Refuse Collection

"Anything Within Reason" To Be Collected At Curbs During Week Of May 6

The City of Newark will sponsor its annual spring clean-up campaign for one week only beginning Monday, May 6, and ending Friday, May 10. During this week, refuse crews will pick up anything within reason that is left at curb side.

Calls will be taken on Wednesday, May 8, for special pickups.

Beginning Monday, May 13, the city will resume its regular schedule for trash pickup with strict enforcement of the trash removal ordinance.

Trash includes both refuse and rubbish. Rubbish includes garbage, tin cans, bottles, food cartons and wrapping, dead pets and ashes.

Rubbish includes paper, yard-waste, yard clippings, garden litter, five brackets, furniture, bedding, glass and crockery.

All refuse must be kept in a water-tight container with a tight lid. Any trash except ashes may be placed in this container. Each home must have one or more such containers in use. It must be made of galvanized iron or plastic, not less than five gallons per more than 200 gallons in capacity, and be equipped with handles.

Rubbish must be placed in refuse containers which are secure against wind, animals, and insects; not subject to collapse during inclement weather; and not in excess of 30 gallons in capacity and 100 pounds in weight.

Large items of bedding, furniture, and tree limbs need not be put in containers, but will be collected only if the total weight is less than 100 pounds.

Brush must be cut in lengths of 4-ft. or less and tied in bundles. Tree limbs cannot exceed 6-in. diameter.

The GNRA will also hold registration for its New-Rec Baseball and Junior Miss Softball leagues at the same time and place.

Boys 12 and under 16 before Aug. 1, are eligible for the New-Rec League, and girls 12 and under 16 are eligible for the Junior Miss League.

Takes First Solo Flight

Matteson S. Cary

Naval Reserve Ensign Matteson S. Cary, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cary of 422 Orchard Road, Newark, has made his first solo flight.

Cary's flight was made in a T-34 Mentor trainer aircraft after one-month of primary flight training at Saultfield, Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

The Mentor is the military version of the civilian Beechcraft Bonanza.

Ensign Cary will continue flight training for 13 more months, before his pilot's "Wings of Gold."

According to Kellar, DuPont's rapidly expanding gas pipe business has been largely the result of the company's ability to supply gas companies a complete piping system, including fittings and tools.

Kellar said another important reason for the new plant is to provide greater service to utilities and other customers in the East and Southeast.

"Aldy" A pipe is made from the company's "Aldon" polyethylene resin. Pipe is extruded in a variety of sizes and lengths. Certain pipe sizes are produced in coils up to 1500-ft. long which offer simplified and economical installation by unrolling and plying-in techniques, or inserting through existing pipe.

Christiana-Salem School Fourth Grader Dean Shaffer Finalist With Toy Design

For designing an original model of a spider copter from Tinkertoys, Dean Gerry Shaffer of 202 Nathaniel Road, Newark, has been selected as the Delaware state finalist in the third Toy Tinkers scholarship award program.

In addition to winning a personally engraved wall plaque, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don G. Shaffer also received word that his model qualifies as one of 30 finalists to be judged on the basis of imagination and creativity of design for the grand award — a $1,000 savings bond and a trip to New York City for both the "Toy Tinker of the Year" and his or her parents.

The grand award winner is to be named in June.

When Dean submitted his Tinkertoys model in the nationwide program in 1967, he was honored as a recipient of a Junior Engineer Certificate of Award from the Toy Tinkers division of A. G. Spalding & Brook, Inc.

Anti-Vietnam War Meeting Leaflets Result In Arrests

Four Face "Obscenity" Charges With SDS Event Held At Student Center

The fourth person charged with distributing "obscene" literature at the University of Delaware turned himself in to Newark police Tuesday afternoon.

Stephen Ross, 18, a sophomore at the university, from Flushing, N.Y., was released under $500 bail for a hearing next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the local alderman's court.

Three others, arrested Monday, and released on $500 bail also are to appear Monday night.

Edward M. Cook, David McCormick and George Wytkind were arrested in connection with the distribution of a leaflet advertising a Monday night teach-in at the Student Center, part of a 19-day anti-Vietnam War program organized by students for a Democratic Society.

Cook was depicted as president of the Student Government Association when temporarily suspended for disruption of ROTC drill in which SDS also was involved.

The university released this statement Tuesday as its version of what happened.

"The distribution of mimeographed leaflets advertising an SDS teach-in at the university began Monday morning at about 9:30. Shortly thereafter, a student who objected to the nature of the leaflet brought a copy to the office of student services. By this time, members of the Student Center staff also had seen the leaflet and considered it obscene, as did other university officers who were offended by its contents.

"Those distributing the leaflets—undergraduates Ramon Cecil and Steven Sasse; graduate student David McCorquodale, and a non-student, George Wytkind, were several times asked to discontinue distribution by professional staff members of the Student Center. Subsequently, upon instruction by the office of student services, uniformed personnel from the university's security force also requested that distribution be halted.

DuPont To Build Plant At Newark Industrial Park

Gas Pipe Production Set For Next Spring With 40 Employees At 7-Acre Site

The DuPont Co. is to build a second plant to make polyethylene pipe. Construction is scheduled to begin in May on a seven-acre site at the Diamond State Industrial Park at Newark, and production is expected by next spring.

Like DuPont's other pipe plant in Tulsa, Okla., the Newark plant will have both production and sales office facilities.

It will produce "Aldy" A polyethylene pipe, tools, and a complete line of fittings including tees, elbows and couplings for the gas distribution industry.

The production facility will start with 40 employees and will be called the Pevacore Pipe Plant.

In announcing the proposed plant, Robert A. Kellar, pipe marketing manager of DuPont's plastics dept., said rapidly growing markets for plastic pipe, particularly in gas distribution, was the major impetus for expanding production. He said the amount of plastic pipe used by gas distribution companies in the United States has more than doubled since 1965.

According to Kellar, DuPont's rapidly expanding gas pipe business has been largely the result of the company's ability to supply gas companies a complete piping system, including fittings and tools.

Kellar said another important reason for the new plant is to provide greater service to utilities and other customers in the East and Southeast.

"Aldy" A pipe is made from the company's "Aldon" polyethylene resin. Pipe is extruded in a variety of sizes and lengths. Certain pipe sizes are produced in coils up to 1500-ft. long which offer simplified and economical installation by unrolling and plying-in techniques, or inserting through existing pipe.

Taxable Property Assessments Scheduled For Public Display

Council Approves Property Assessment Rolls Presented By Assessor Charles D. Long In Amount Of $79,200,870 For April 26-May 20 Display With May 21, Appeal Day

Property assessment rolls presented by Assessor Charles D. Long in the amount of $79,200,870 with a gross tax revenue of $514,805.66 at the 65 cents per $100 tax rate for the fiscal year July 1, 1968 to June 30, 1969, were approved unanimously by the new Newark City Council at its first regular meeting last Monday night, with an increase of $24,458.66 in revenue over the 1967-68 tax year.

Assessment rolls are to be displayed from April 26 through May 8, in the Drug Store on East Main Street, and at Cannon's Pharmacy on Elkton Road from May 9 through May 20.

Appeal Day was scheduled for Tuesday, May 21, with appeals to be heard by a council quorum in the Academy Building from 1 to 3 p.m.

The total assessment includes $9,660,400 in buildings, and $19,149,463 in land.

Councilman William M. Coverdale said if the assessment of proposed parkland was comparable with the year being asked for such land, and a five-minute recess was declared at 9:05 p.m. to obtain this information.

"In Line" Long reported that the assessment of proposed parkland was "in line" with other assessments, and the rolls were approved for public display.

A new municipal pension plan with improved employee benefits was "adopted in principle" by council after City Manager Edward R. Stiff's presentation of the proposal. Pensions are to be based on 2 percent of the employee's monthly salary multiplied by years of service, with mandatory retirement at age 65 for the chief of police and all municipal employees except other members of the police department who must retire at 55.

The revised pension program will cost $14,100 more than the present plan, but provides some 60 percent of the employee's normal salary after lengthy service and retirement.

Copies of the new pension plan will be available for all city employees, Stiff said.

Four proposed ordinances received tentative approval at preliminary readings.

Tax Exemptions Proposals are to provide persons 65 or older with income not exceeding $3,000 annually, exemption from city taxes on real estate assessed values up to $5,000 to establish a fee of $50 for zoning application; and reduce confinement penalties to a maximum of 30 days. Final readings are scheduled for May 13.

The proposed ordinance to provide tax exemption for older residents will result in a gross loss of $1,859,416 in revenue for the city, it was stated.

"What was the fee?" Councilman Olan R. Thomas asked concerning the proposed $50 cost for zoning application, and City Solicitor Clyde M. England, Jr. replied that "for years there was none," although a $50 fee is established in the subdivision regulations ordinance.

The application of Newark Corporation to construct a drive-in theatre on a 10-acre site north of East Cleveland Avenue, south of McKees Lane was approved unanimously after Solicitor England's advice that "you can't prevent a person from going ahead with a permitted use" of his land.

Gardner Announces DP&L $236-Million Construction

Delmarva Power Light Co. expects to spend about $236,000,000 during the next five years for construction of facilities, president Austin T. Gardner, told stockholders at the April 16, utility's annual meeting.

"This figure includes not only costs related to major generating capacity, estimated at $88,000,000 but also major additions to our transmission and distribution plant."

"We have always prided ourselves on our ability to meet in full, the rapidly expanding electric and gas requirements for our service area. We are confident that our future construction program will adequately provide for the demands which we will be called upon to meet," Gardner said.

Other officers to be installed are: Mrs. Carl Feucht, treasurer; Mrs. William Barrow, delegate-at-large; and Mrs. R. Allan Warner, alternate.

Mrs. Charles Kane, Mrs. Warren Gregg, and Mrs. Olanek are the club committee for refreshments for County Recognition Day next Monday at 7 p.m. at Newark.

Eleven members plan to attend the annual state meeting in Dover next Wednesday.

Mrs. Kane and Mrs. Thomas Church had the program relative to time savers in daily routine.

Mrs. Walter Blevins discussed teeth implant work for health. Mrs. Church reported on civil defense and Mrs. Richard Tibbels collected Poinsettias for Friendship.

Mrs. Miller reported taking final arrangements to Mrs. Bertha Acum, Annie Klair, and Mrs. Myrtle Cox, all shut-ins.

KILOWATTS—
Millions to Make ...
Pennies to Purchase

Flick a switch and the lights go on. Can you think of a product that's as convenient, dependable and economical as electricity?

Have you ever wondered, though, what lies behind that handy switch on the wall? If you could see behind it, you would discover huge generating units spinning at 3600 revolutions per minute... dedicated linemen, engineers, servicemen, accountants, secretaries, meter readers... miles of transmission lines... modern machines and operating techniques.

Keeping your electric service and, in New Castle County, gas service, dependable and low in price requires planning. And millions of dollars, too.

Right now we plan to spend $236 million over the next five years to keep bringing you the best possible service at the lowest possible cost.

Interesting, isn't it? It costs millions to make kilowatts so that you can purchase them for pennies!

MISS PHOEBE FASSIG BRIDE AT ST. JOHN'S

Mrs. Thomas Patrick Doherty

Miss Phoebe M. Fassig and Dr. Thomas Patrick Doherty were married last Saturday at 2 p.m. in Holy Angels Church, Newark, by the Rev. Stephen Breen.

A reception followed in the Constitution Room of Howard Johnson's in Newark.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Fassig of Fremont, Neb., formerly of Newark, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Thomas Doherty of Omaha, Neb.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace with a lace-trimmed bouffant skirt and a chapel train. A crown of pearls and crystals held her shoulder-length illusion veil and she carried her grandmother's prayerbook with miniature engravings and bells of Ireland, centered with an orchid.

Miss Claudia Lambert of Fort Wayne, Ind., was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Elizabeth Gallagher, Miss Nancy Susan Dunham and Miss Carol Fougere.

The conference in the nation's capital is being conducted Monday through Thursday of this week.

Donald Biehn Play Encore Scheduled On Saturday Night

This Saturday night, the Laboratory Theatre at the University of Delaware again will present "Theatre Piece No. 1" in Mitchell Hall at 8:15 and 9:30.

The play, an original work by senior drama student Donald Biehn, was first presented April 12, as part of the regular Laboratory Theatre program. After standing ovations, it was decided to repeat the production.

"Theatre Piece No. 1" is a love story involving performers but projecting only two characters — a young boy and girl.

The boy played by Joseph Stewart, and the girl portrayed by Nona Kelly, react to the original lyrics of Biehn sung by William Bayne and Rita Devlin.

The music Biehn has written, which is played only on guitars, is the ultimate motivation for singers and actors.

Ray Markowski plays the six-string guitar; Larry Adams plays the 12-string guitar, and John Althouse, a bass electric guitar.

Silhouette figures moving against a lighted cyclorama reflect the subconscious of the characters, while slides are projected on screens to explore other dimensions of relationship.

The two performances will be free to students, with a nominal charge for faculty members and the public. Tickets will be available at the door.

Mayer's Successor Sought As AYR Club President

The executive board of the Greater Newark Active Young Republicans will meet next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Dan, 206 Vassar Drive, to elect a successor to Dr. Arthur P. Mayer as president. All interested persons are invited.

Mayer is resigning the AYR presidency because of increased demands upon his time with reelection as Newark deputy mayor and councilman for the fifth district.

100th Anniversary Jambalaya

Jambalaya (from the Spanish word jamon, meaning ham) was introduced to New Orleans by the Spanish in the late 1700's. Made at first only with ham, Creole cooks later added Gulf shrimp. This classic dish is one of 10 recipes in a new booklet issued to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Tabasco sauce this year.

In the period 1888-1908, many restaurants throughout Louisiana featured "Authentic Creole Jambalaya." Tabasco, a native product made from red peppers grown only in Avery Island, Louisiana, gives piquant spice to this simplified 1968 version.

- Creole Jambalaya
- | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| 1/2 cup butter | 1 can (1 pound, 12 ounces) tomatoes |
| 1/2 cup chopped onion | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1/2 cup chopped green pepper | 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco |
| 1 clove garlic, finely chopped | 1/2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice |
| 1/2 pound cooked ham (1 1/2 cups diced) | |
| 1 pound shelled raw shrimp, cleaned | |

Heat butter in skillet. Add onion, green pepper and garlic and saute until lightly browned. Add ham and shrimp and cook over low heat until ham is lightly browned and shrimp are pink. Add tomatoes, salt and Tabasco. Cover and simmer about 5 minutes. Stir well; add rice and continue to simmer 5 minutes longer. YIELD: 4 to 6 servings.

Newark, Delaware, Thursday, April 25, 1968

MOTHER OF THE YEAR

Mrs. Melville G. Kershaw was as much surprised as gratified with her selection as Delaware Mother of the Year, and the Newark lady graciously attributed her newly-won honors to the exemplary deportment of her children, and to their father's counsel and care.

However, neither Mr. Kershaw nor the children qualified for the state selection. Florence Kershaw is Delaware Mother of the Year — and the judges' decision takes care of that — with good judgment, too.

PROMISED LAND

Parkland for the future is assured with a majority of Newark property owners favoring the expenditure of $657,500 borrowed for such purpose. But the highlight of last Tuesday's referendum in which a $2,011,000 bond issue was authorized for capital improvements, concerned a pleasant, personal bit of observation at the Aetna polling place.

Mrs. Ivan Parsons, after a long, long period of convalescence from surgery and complications that would have caused a lesser couple to despair, was escorted by her heroic husband from the Aetna Fire Hall where they had voted concerning the city's capital improvement program.

Newark's "Mrs. Democrat" may face the presidential election with mixed emotions. Navy Commander Ivan Parsons bears a striking resemblance to Richard Nixon.

City Council

Mayor's Reservation

"If I vote for this, it won't be because I believe drive-ins belong within the city limits," Mayor Norma B. Handloff noted.

The Newark Planning Commission rejected the application for the drive-in theatre on April 2, on the basis of traffic congestion, glare, and noise.

John P. Sinclair, attorney for Newark Corporation, said that the planned theatre was "not the old myth about drive-ins — that it would reduce the myth that a drive-in theatre is 'not the place nice people go to'."

Sinclair said his client was making a second application for "legally permitted use" of the property after rejection of an apartment project.

"Council cannot legally turn it down," Sinclair advised. And the application was approved.

Contracts were awarded for municipal purchase of switching equipment from Arcraft Electric Supply of Salisbury, Md., for a bid of $2,246.70; for summer police uniforms from Bob's Men's Store of Wilmington at a cost of $1,333.55; and for three police patrol cars from Rittenberg Motor Co. on a bid of $4,373.10.

Chamber Membership

City membership in the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce at a cost of $400 was approved with the mayor's comment that "we can make great progress together."

Councilman John H. Fassnacht asked "what do we get for the $400?" And Mayor Handloff replied with "chance to participate fully in chamber activities."

The 1967 audit report submitted by Leonard Ross Bros. & Montgomery was received and "made a part of the minutes" of Monday's meeting.

Council action on Harold Gwaltney's request for relief of some $22,000 in assessments levied against his property on McKees Lane, was tabled pending "determination of the length of McKees Lane (involved)" by the May 19, meeting.

John P. Sinclair, attorney for Gwaltney, said that the paving and provision of utilities on McKees Lane had provided "a benefit" to his client, and that the "entire project was done for the benefit of the Newark Housing Authority. The city, itself, appears to be the only other beneficiary," Sinclair added. He said that McKees Lane has been a street since 1915, and should have been included with the streets listed on the controversial map of 1955 for which owners of abutting property were not to be assessed for improvements.

Consistency

City Solicitor England recommended to council that "you eliminate assessment for storm sewer" against the Gwaltney property, and Councilman Coverdale cited the "Silverbrook cul-de-sac, Willa Road, and Holton Place" as examples of waived assessment charges, and urged that "to be consistent, include McKees Lane."

Thomas added that McKees Lane had been "used by the city for the sewage disposal plant and for the landfill before it was paved," and the request for assessment relief is to be reviewed on May 13.

Coverdale questioned legality of Tuesday's referendum for the $2,111,000 capital improvement program, citing city charter provision for "polling places" when but one was selected.

"I feel council acted hastily in selecting a spot on the extreme eastern perimeter of the city," Coverdale said.

Quarry Permitted To Use Equipment For Rock-Crushing

Judge's Decision Favors Pencader Corp. Iron Hill Operation In Legal Battle

Superior Court's George R. Wright has given Pencader Corp. permission to use rock-crushing equipment in its quarry at Iron Hill, south of Newark.

The decision following five years of legal battle, upheld a New Castle County Zoning Board of Adjustment decision that the equipment may be used in an agricultural — general purpose zone.

Pencader has been trying to get approval of the crusher since February, 1962, when the county building inspector refused to issue a permit.

Wright disagreed with the zoning board's finding, that the rock crusher would alter the character of the 123-acre tract where it is located, and would impact the neighborhood.

The board was not justified in these findings, the judge held.

The State Supreme Court returned the case to the board in 1964, with directions to decide whether rock crushing in fact is an necessary use to commercial quarrying.

The board also was ordered to decide whether rock crushing would change the character of the property or impact the neighborhood.

The board's affirmative decision came in February, 1966 — 15 months after rehearing.

Pencader then appealed — Arguments were heard by Wright last October — and his ruling was issued two weeks ago.

Newark City Solicitor Clyde M. England, Jr., is the attorney for the County's Bridge Civic Association, opposing the rock-crushing operation.

Local Girls To Take Part In "Pirates Of Penzance"

Two local students at Susquehanna University will appear in the chorus with the May 4-4 production of Pirates of Penzance.

Amanda R. Boligiano, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Boligiano, 226 Cheltenham Road, and Lois C. Sielaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sielaff, 620 Lehigh Road, are members of the chorus.

Miss Boligiano, a junior, and Miss Sielaff, a freshman, are majoring in music with specialty in voice.

Areas Rezoned Southeast Of City By County Council

Rezoning Approved — 18 New Castle County Council approved two rezoning ordinances last Monday night, and voted to change the county's comprehensive plan to accommodate development of 350 acres southeast of Newark.

The land is located between the Delaware Turnpike and Chestnut Hill Road and between Chapel Street and Salem Church Road.

The rezoning involved extending a corridor west of the Delaware Turnpike for industrial use, and building a residential area parallel to the industrial corridor. A 150-ft. Delaware Power & Light Co. right-of-way will be a buffer between the two zones along with proposed parkland.

Included in rezoning is reconstruction of the proposed Bay Bridge Connector Freeway to go through 152 acres owned by Maegness Construction Co.

Maegness originally asked to be allowed to build a large single-family housing development.

The other request was from Newark Oak, Inc. Over 200 acres in this request were zoned residential, light manufacturing and general industrial. Monday's action rezones the area to residential and will permit construction of residential subdivisions.

Nottingham Green Club Wins $100 Sears Civic Prize

The Nottingham Green Garden Club won in the Sears Foodclub Civic Beautification Contest sponsored by the Delaware Federation of Garden Clubs in competition with 13 other garden clubs.

Nottingham was awarded $100 for the civic beautification project which involves relandscaping the entranceway to Nottingham Green.

Work began by removing overgrown shrubbery, and new Shadblow master locust trees will be planted in the near future.

Colorful annuals will be planted this spring, and additional shrubs will be planted as funds permit.

The new landscape design has been drawn by Bob Bert, local landscape architect. Mrs. Don Gouffrey, club president, reports.

Suburban Hospital Receives Support Of State Planner

Construction of a large suburban hospital facility in Southwestern New Castle County received support last week from Harry Camper, director of comprehensive health planning of the State Board of Health.

Speaking at the monthly meeting of the Suburban Newark Hospital Committee, Camper indicated that he favored the long range hospital planning alternative that concentrates acute health care resources in a single 1,200-bed facility in suburban New Castle County, perhaps on the Wilmington-Newark axis, with a smaller 300-400 bed facility in Wilmington.

Advantages of this approach described in the consultant's report prepared for the Wilmington Medical Center include concentration of health resources in the area having the largest growth in population, unrestricted and unlimited site expansion of the medical center complex with good traffic accessibility, and concentration of resources for more complex care in one facility.

Camper mentioned the added advantage that an accessible and modern hospital complex would attract the entire spectrum of specialized medical and support personnel to staff a major health center.

Camper and Anne Burke, medical facilities coordinator for the State Board of Health, explained requirements for obtaining federal funds for health needs; Delaware's hospital needs from the federal viewpoint; and trends in hospital design and organization.

James Anderson and other members of the Suburban Newark Hospital Committee reported on the April 3 presentation by Dr. Shortell of the Wilmington Medical Center which covered a comprehensive review of the Cresap, McCormick and Paget Management Consultants Report which recommended three long and short range alternative plans for meeting hospital needs of Wilmington and New Castle County to 1980 and beyond.

Students attending the teaching heard McCosquade, 23, the first of three students arrested for distributing the antiwar handbill bearing the name of the antiwar group.

The literature condemned the U.S. position in Vietnam and also racial trouble in the ghettos.

The first scheduled speaker was Allan Brick, a member of the American Friends Service Committee in Baltimore.

Brick said the United States spends much more on military operations than on health, education and welfare, and has pledged military aid to 42 countries.

"Conscription is accepted as a basic way of life in America," Brick told the gathering in the Rodney Room.

Kathie Witherson, regional secretary of SDS, denounced higher education and patriotism as American myths.

Tom Bradley, a professor at Swarthmore, attacked college as the great white middle-class dream, the hospital result of endless grubbing for grades.

A Catholic priest arrested and convicted in Baltimore for pouring blood on draft board files, evicted American use of military force.

David Barnes, editor of The Heterodox Voice, newspaper, discussed opposition to U.S. Vietnam involvement from the Truman ad-

Viking Capt. Pete Sukalo Wins 440, 880 As Jim DiStefano's Squad Loses Opener

Capt. Pete Sukalo led Coach Jim DiStefano's Vikings with first place finishes in the 440 and 880 last Tuesday afternoon, as Christians last its opening Blue Hen Conference track and field meet to the Redskins at Conrad by an 82-40 count.

Sukalo ran the 440 in 52.0, and won the 880 in 2:04.4.

Handy Glines of Christians won the 220 in 2:17, Bob Titus copped the 100-mile run in 10:56.6, and Charles Golt won the discus with a toss of 125-ft.

Curt Payne was second in the 120-yard hurdles; Jerry McCarns finished second in the mile; and Payne took third over the 120-yard low hurdles.

Paul Thorpe was second in the pole vault won by Conrad's John...

Little Joey Bennett had a catfish, and Grandfather Joe Marousek had a pair of rock and a silver white perch on the bank and of the Delaware River's rocky tidal beach just south of Port Penn last Friday afternoon before the third member of the party had outangled a baby-fish of leader entwined with a June Bug spinner, float, and sinker after a first cast with a fancy bottom rig into the teeth of a strong sou'easter sweeping gray whitecaps over the murky water from the Jersey shore.

And it didn't take too long to untangle the results at that first backlash. Granddad Joe and Little Joey had come up with four fat fish as a half-dozen unsuccessful anglers in the area fished at this sudden display of fortune.

Joey was experiencing more than a bit of difficulty in retrieving his spinning tackle from a real marine obstacle course of rocks, leathery tidal grass, and submerged timbers, and few manfishers have exhibited more patient understanding than Joseph C. Marousek, who time and again reeled hooks and sinkers on a near first-time starter's line.

"Keep your rod up high when you reel in," Big Joe advised, but that was a large order for a little fellow full of enthusiasm.

Those initial four fish were the only ones caught by anyone during our two-hour stand on the windy shore, and although it was nice and warm back inland, it was cold in the near gale blowing off the river.

Little Joey fished manfully on without complaint, and belatedly a chilled, adult companion thought to ask if Master Bennet was getting cold. And Joey nodded vigorously, suppressing any chatter of baby teeth that may have been invoked by verbal assault.

With real relief, we left the waterfront for the warmth of the car to drive down along the river, past Bayview, and through the marshlands turning green with spring, and where we observed a gorgeous cock pheasant standing unafraid in red gold iridescent splendor just off the road shoulder, and applied the brakes to avoid a covey of quail darting themselves under a westering sun.

Player were wading on the flats, and a black duck twinkled over us in flight to the river — an abundance of wildlife within view of the Wilmington skyline.

"We had a ball with those snook," Young Reginald B. Rockwell related of his recent trip to Florida, while the alter Reginald Rockwell — the Hercules Powder titan, Nova Scotia Squire, Georgia Gentleman, and Mississippi Master was trying the fabulous Down Under rainbow trout of New Zealand.

After fishing all day with dolphin in the Gulf Stream out of Boynton...

Randy Spinks Hits Four-Run Homer In Viking Victory

Highfielder Randy Spinks socked a grand-slam homer run for an eight-run fatal fourth frame for Brown Tech last Tuesday afternoon as Coach Bob Turnberger's Christians Vikings walked off Brown 12-2 at Price's Run.

Turnberger's team hosts P. S. du Pont this Friday on the Christians diamond, and entertains Conrad next Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Centerfielder Glen Thompson collected two hits in three times at last for the Vikings.

Delaware Scores For Meet Records At W. Va. Relays

Morantown, W. Va. — Coach Jimmy Flynn's Delaware track team set meet records in two relays and the discus in the West Virginia Relays here Saturday.

The Blue Hen two-mile relay team won in 7:51 and the 480 yard sound finished first in 1:20.6, both meet marks.

Bob Clinton, Bob Johnson, Bob Woerner and Jimmy Smith ran the winning two-mile team.

Neil Mayberry, Bill Taylor, Jim Foster and Frank Gordy ran in the 480.

Bill Wheeler won the discus event with a toss of 154-8, another record, after winning the shot with a 47-ft. heave.

Delaware relay teams finished second in the mile and four-mile races, behind Richmond and YPI. The Hen 440 team was disqualified for passing the baton out of the zone.

John Miller took second in the javelin with his best effort of the year, a 207-ft. toss.

Brian Harrington placed second in the two-mile.

Newark's Pat Walker was third in the high hurdles.

Flynn's Hen's face the Penn Relays in Philadelphia this Friday, host the Bucknell varsity and finish at 1:30 p.m. this Saturday adjacent to Delaware Stadium; and meet Lafayette away next Tuesday.

Inlet with Skipper Dick Pleasanton and Mate Stan Somerville, Jr. aboard Gibby Young's Florida-berthed Young Lady, Publisher-Editor Rockwell spent most of the night with Stan Somerville in pursuit of rolo or snook in the phosphorescent shoreline bays.

On light or any tackle, a snook provides a supercharged shock of super savagery, speed, and power — and toasty tangled with a dozen of those mother-of-pearl scaled silver specimens with the great under-stung jaw, mighty maw, and black lateral line — snook going up to 12-pounds — and on slight spinning tackle.

In contrast with golden dolphin in the blue Gulf Stream, and silver snook in the black bays of Florida, Reg Rockwell tackled a treasure trove of big, burly, native brook trout in a North Carolina mountain pool on his way back home to Newark, and introduced young son Jeff to wild, wonderful fontinals thriving without hatchery supplement.

And Young Jeff will long remember those big brook trout that he caught while fishing with Dad in Carolina where nothing could be fins.

Barrows-Winton Team Scores Low Gross 87

Tom Palmer, Larry Walker Hurl Hen Wins As Delaware Takes Gettysburg Twin-Bill

Delaware remained unbeaten in Middle Atlantic Conference baseball after sweeping a doubleheader against visiting Gettysburg Saturday.

The Blue Hens 3-0 in the conference and 9-3 overall, won the opener 5-1 on Tom Palmer's five-hit pitching, then used a five-run second-inning rally to take the night-cap 8-4.

Gettysburg scored its only first-inning tally in the first inning on Mike Darr's single after two Palmer passes. The Hens tied the score in the same inning as Shortstop Jimmy Robinson came home on a successful double steal.

Robinson led the Hen's hitting with three singles, while Dave Yates, Hale and Hinton had two apiece.

The victory evened Palmer's record at 2-2.

Gettysburg took a 1-0 second-

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day Canine Horse Owner

Not all of the horses that were shown at the Thoroughbred races during 1967 were run up at the Recheval or Saratoga sales. One record was established in England's Newmarket sales last December, but it took a Californian bidding against a Texas bidder to set the record. The highest priced three-foal-in-training sale ever sold at auction, bidding for the role of Hollywood's January sale, was the lot of a three-year-old, Albert Vanh, an equally colorful Californian horseman, went to the 120,000 pound (110,000 lb) $232,720 to outbid Nelson Hunter Hunt, of Dallas, son of H. I. Hunt who is described as "superior" even by Texas standards.

Bunker Hunt has since become half owner of Vaguely Noble, and another member of the syndicate formed by Dr. Franklin is reported to be J. Brande Berry-Bush, Esq., a golden retriever, other dogs have been credited with owning

Gary Ludwig Fans 12 With Two-Hit Win; Dick Bauer Blasts Three-Run NHS Double

Right-hander Gary Ludwig struck out 12 and gave up but two hits in winning his second victory of the season as Coach Francis Fulghum's Yellowjackets blasted Brandywine 13-0 in a Newark home stand last Tuesday afternoon.

Fulghum's Newark nine faces visiting Clayton this Friday at 3:30 p.m., and the Yellowjackets are slated to play at McKean at 4 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon.

Second Sacker Gary Connell contributed a two-run double in the second inning to open the scoring, and First Baseman Dick Bauer's three-run two-bagger in the third wrapped things up behind Ludwig's stellar throwing.

Tuesday's win provided Newark with a 2-1 share of first place in the Blue Hen Conference tie with Brandywine.

Heineken's Hens Lose To Loyola In Lacrosse

Delaware's Brian Roth opened the scoring, but it was all Loyola the rest of the way, as the visitors tallied seven times in the first two periods last Tuesday.

Loyola beat Coach Mickey Heineken's Hens 11-4 in lacrosse.

Delaware was hampered by the loss of Alex Wise, who suffered a shoulder injury in the first quarter.

The Hens with a 2-3 record travel to Towson State on Saturday, and to Washington College next Tuesday.

Paul Schlosser Stars In National Bowling

Paul Schlosser of Newark, after leading all Delaware contestants in the American Bowling Congress Tournament with 1,750 pins in Cincinnati, failed to survive the final cut for the Masters Tournament.

Schlosser rolled a 691 on Sunday after a Saturday 712.

John McNelis' Netmen Stopped By Brandywine

Unbeaten Brandywine High won its fourth straight in Blue Hen Conference tennis competition with a 5-0 victory over the Yellowjackets at Newark last Tuesday.

The Yellowjacket netmen of Coach John McNelis lost Clayton at 3:30 this Friday, and play Tuesday at McKean High School.

Tom Palmer, Larry Walker Hurl Hen Wins As Delaware Takes Gettysburg Twin-Bill

Delaware remained unbeaten in Middle Atlantic Conference baseball after sweeping a doubleheader against visiting Gettysburg Saturday.

The Blue Hens 3-0 in the conference and 9-3 overall, won the opener 5-1 on Tom Palmer's five-hit pitching, then used a five-run second-inning rally to take the night-cap 8-4.

Gettysburg scored its only first-inning tally in the first inning on Mike Darr's single after two Palmer passes. The Hens tied the score in the same inning as Shortstop Jimmy Robinson came home on a successful double steal.

Robinson led the Hen's hitting with three singles, while Dave Yates, Hale and Hinton had two apiece.

The victory evened Palmer's record at 2-2.

Gettysburg took a 1-0 second-

Christiana, Newark Cage Stars Join As Eagle Champs

Christiana and Newark High School basketball players teamed up at the Newark Eagles to win the Junior Basketball Tournament Championship at St. Elizabeth's gym last Saturday night in Wilmington, defeating Van's Chevrolet 89-64.

Newark's Gary Hayman and Bob Tucker paced the Eagles' offense with 24 and 22 points, and Christiana's Lee Swazey was named the tournament's most valuable player.

The Newark Eagle champions include Christiana's George Cavanaugh, Ed Firechak, Verne Orndorff, and Swazey, with the Yellowjackets represented by Hayman, Wayne Massada, Bill Mills, and Tucker.

Newark Eagles vs. Van's

G	P	T
Cavanaugh	9	23	2
Firechak	7	23	6
Hayman	11	23	23
Massada	3	10	13

Senior Paul Camp, Favero, Purzycki Defensive Leaders

The emphasis on defense continued Monday as the Delaware football team began its third week of spring practice.

Coach Tubby Raymond says he has been satisfied with development of defense. Defensive breakdowns caused most of the Blue Hen's problems in a 2-7 season last fall.

"We are about as far along as we can expect to be while coaching everyone both ways," Raymond notes. "We are going to continue to teach everybody both offensive and defensive assignments for the rest of spring practice."

The Blue Hens will conclude spring drills with the annual Blue-White Game at Delaware Stadium on May 4.

Raymond cited senior Paul Camp and juniors John Favero and Joe Purzycki as potential leaders of the defensive unit. All three were starters last year — Camp as a tackle; Favero, a linebacker; and Purzycki at cornerback.

Ed Woodhouse Scores Ace On 17th Hole At Newark

Ed Woodhouse scored a hole-in-one Sunday on the 17th and 17th hole at the Newark Country Club.

With a steady wind blowing in his face, Woodhouse used a five-wood to score his ace, the first hole-in-one in his years as a golf veteran.

Scotty Duncan's Golfers Face Two Home Stands

Coach Scotty Duncan's Delaware golfers face a pair of home stands on the Lovelock course next week.

The Hens are slated for triangular meets with PMC and Rutgers, and with Johns Hopkins and Villanova on Tuesday and Wednesday at 12:30 p.m.

Conway Hayman, Dick Kelley, Pat Walker Among 13 State Stars As Likely Starters

Delaware's football team will have a distinct local flavor this fall.

"We have a larger number of Delaware residents competing for regular jobs this year than we have had since 1959," Blue Hen Coach Tubby Raymond says. "We have many of the products of an ever-improving Delaware high school football program."

As many as 13 former Delaware high school standouts could earn starting berths on this year's variety. The group of 13 includes three each from Newark and DeLaWarr; two from Sateleton, and one each from A. I. du Pont, Conrad, Middletown, Tattall and William Penn.

Indicative of Delaware's youth movement and budding effort, 10 of the 13 players Raymond mentioned will be sophomores in the fall.

Two teammates on Newark's powerhouse football team of 1966 are candidates for positions on the varsity this spring.

Dick Kelley, former All-State halfback who scored 144 points in his brilliant career at Newark, is in the running for an offensive halfback position.

Conway Hayman, a massive 230-pounder who opened holes for the freshman running backs last fall, is a top contender for an offensive tackle spot.

Kelley and Hayman will be joined in the fall by another Newark product, Tackle Pat Walker, top high jumper and hurdler on the Delaware track team.

Another trackman could also challenge for a regular job. Halfback Jim Foster, a Salesianum product who tied the Delaware 100-yard dash record with a 9-second clocking, could be a contender for a spot in either the offensive or defensive backfield.

DeLaWarr product Chuck McCatton was a defensive starter as a junior last season, holding down a cornerback spot. He will be joined on this year's varsity by fellow DeLaWarr graduates Ted Gregory and Ron Whittington.

Gregory, a 6-3 and 210-pound defensive end, was named the Outstanding Linebacker of last year's Delaware All-Star Game and then turned in a strong performance for the unbeaten Delaware freshman team. He is a top candidate for a defensive end job with the varsity.

Whittington, another 210-pound freshman, also was a member of the Gold team in last year's All-Star game. He was a regular offensive guard for the fresh last year and is pressing veterans Hank Veldorff and Bob Newberry for a place on this year's team.

Former All-State Guard Stu Harrison will represent Salesianum on next year's varsity. Harrison, a 205-pounder, missed his freshman season because of injuries and has been hampered by an ankle injury this spring. If healthy, he could challenge for an offensive guard berth in the fall.

Dave Smith, former Conrad end who led the freshman team in rushing and scoring last year, has picked up where he left off in the fall. Smith, one of the smallest players on the roster at 9-8 and 153 pounds, has impressed the coaches with his quickness and ability to find the hole.

William (Sonny) Merkel, former All-State quarterback from Middletown, is a candidate for a first unit berth both offensively and defensively. One of the most versatile players on the team, Merkel can play quarterback, spread end and defensive safety.

Fred Krapf, All-Stater and former captain of both the football and track teams at Tattall School, is in the running for the offensive center spot. The 230-pounder has been one of the pleasant surprises of the spring drills.

Last but not least of the 13 Delaware residents contending for a starting berth is former William Penn Tackle Joe Smalley. The 210-pound Smalley was the state heavyweight wrestling champion in 1967, and was outstanding on both the freshman football and wrestling teams this past year.

Newark Trackmen Of Ray Ciesinski Compete In Rain

Coach Ray Ciesinski's Newark Yellowjackets, who were running in the rain against Conrad in the Blue Hen Conference track and field opener at Newark yesterday afternoon, are scheduled to entertain P. S. du Pont at 4 p.m. next Monday.

And after a day off, Ciesinski's squad returns to action on Wednesday with Wm. Penn's Colonials in New Castle.

Big Ray's Yellowjacket squad of 18 lettermen is headed by four captains and a pair of Keiths — Green and Walker.

Pat Walker Wins 2 Events As Hens Beat Gettysburg

Delaware romped to its fourth straight track victory last Tuesday with a 121-19 trouncing of the Bulldogs at Gettysburg.

Frank Gordy paced Coach Jimmy Flynn's Blue Hens with individual victories in the triple jump and 400 before running the anchor leg of the winning mile relay team.

Newark's Pat Walker took the high hurdles and high jump, while Bill Wheeler won the shot put and discus.

Grass Champ Top Weighted For Pimlico Riggs' Cap

Rockey Stable's Fort Marty, champion grass runner last year and conqueror of Damascus in the Washington International, has been assigned top weight of 126 pounds in Saturday's Riggs Handicap at Pimlico.

The 1-1/16-mile Riggs carries a purse of $25,000 and is a prelude to the longer and richer Dixie Handicap on May 11.

RYLANDER NETMEN

Coach Roy Rylander's Delaware tennis team entertains Temple this Saturday at 2 p.m., and the Hens host Rutgers next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
