See the Team Debeat Swarthmore Next Friday

Mulenberg and P. M. C. Suffler Loss; Myersbrough Alone Victorious

Team Fast Improving

Coach McAvoys Chucks came out victorious over Mulenberg College here Saturday evening, 35 to 29, in one of the closest games ever played in the league. The score was tied at the end of the regular time and necessitated an extra five minute period.

Jackson was off in his foul shooting, making only 9 out of 23 tries; however, in floor and shooting, he and Williams were the stars of the contest. Mr. Kelvie starting for the first time this season, put up a creditable game. "Dick" more than to smooth out his teamwork he should prove a valuable cog.

France, playing stationary guard, was the backbone of the Delaware defense. HUDLY was easily the best of the visitors although Hodstrom also proved a dangerous man. Shaz at center was completely outshuttled. What halted him out of the scoring.

S. P. E. DANCE GAVE GREAT TREAT TO GAY DANCERS

Novel Decorations and Lively Music Added to the Zest of the Evening

The annual formal dance of the Delaware Alpha Chapter of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, which was held on Friday night, February 9th, in Old College House, was a success. The presence of the most pleasing and brilliant affairs of the season, and only expressions of the highest approval were voiced by the guests themselves who attended the affair.

The evening was initiated by the Gettysburg basketball game, which was attended by the majority of the Sze Ene and the Sze Ene circle. The dance was followed by the opening dance at nine o'clock. "The Dance of the Wooden Soldiers," which was used for the grand march, proved very popular and the following dances were greatly applauded for encore. Patten's Orchestra, which was a new one in the city of Philadelphia, introduced itself to the public by giving a survey of all of the French universities. Course will be offered in Literature, History, International Problems, Economics, Law, Political Science, Commerce, etc.

One of the most valuable features of the year abroad will be the opportunity for the student to become acquainted with the activities of the French in the arts, business, social, and educational fields; he will visit her in modern times, and in her historical points of interest; he will be able to trace her in modern everyday life.

The Foreign Study Plan is an outgrowth of the inter-collage co-operation of some of the most promising institutions in Paris, both French and American. It is the opinion of these men that the support of the most important government and business agencies on both sides of the water may be unhesitatingly asked for, and that co-operation with these organizations will result in the permanent establishment of the plan in the American university.

PHILI KAPPA PHI ELECTS TEN SENIORS

At Annual Meeting Last Evening New Members Were Installed From List of Eighteen Applicants.

The Delaware Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, a Scholastic Fraternity, made selections for membership from the Senior Class last Friday.

Phi Kappa Phi is a nationally known Fraternity extending from coast to coast and is strictly a college graduate's fraternity. The Delaware Chapter was admitted in 1905 when the college was well on its way to success and has been active ever since that time. The purpose of Phi Kappa Phi is to create a greater interest for scholastic studies in the college, to aid in the lasting bond among college graduates who stand high in their studies. The social functions of the fraternity are very few but the honor conferred upon eligibility to membership is the aim of every college man.

The members in every chapter, are chosen from the Senior Class. The men who are scholastically in the upper third of their class are chosen in the Phi Kappa Phi meeting. After this list of men is made up the scholastic standing of the men is not given further consideration. The next step in the process of getting up this character is made on a man's religious and moral character. This is proved according to what he has done to improve himself and his fellow men. Members are accepted if they consider the honor a man will do for his college and if he is out in the world. College activities have very little consider-

The following seniors were elected to Phi Kappa Phi: R. H. Cook, L. F. Hafke, C. T. Winger, E. D. Bird, C. N. Wade, T. H. Fye, W. M. Ewing, J. L. Wells, and R. Betty. These students who are inter-

Movement Inaugurated in 1886 Meets at Delaware to Discuss Current Problems

Everyone Invited

Planes have practically been completed for the Student Volunteer Convention to be held on February 16, 17 and 18. The Convention aims to encourage young men and young women to take an interest in the missionary field in many of the foreign countries known to be pagans and heathen.

Ever since 1886, when Robert R. Wilder initiated the move-ment, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, groups of young men and women have been interested in mission work of the United States and Canada to discuss the religious problems of the world. The modern conveniences enable many people interested in the project to get together and exchange ideas, so that the prospects of the work might be more widespread.

The convention here in Newark, delegates from Maryland, District of Columbia, and Pennsylvania. The number of people who have already registered totals about seventy-five, and more are expect to attend.

Many will arrive by bus on Friday afternoon and will take up their quarters in private homes. The majority of the men have been in securing accommodations for the visitors, Most of the participants will be at the Commons.

SCANDAL

(Take note, Mr. President, you may have your eye on me now.)

Delaware was well represented at the Beechwood Hotel, which was held last Friday through Monday.

Six of our follows were present and upheld Delaware in the mad excitement of the evening. C. R. Murray, Dr. C. O., Mr. B. B. t., "Bus" C. O., the lucky one to receive bids.

Seven punctures were experienced during the trip; one was caused by a pebble which nearly took Mr. C. C. O.'s eye.

Upon examination one of Dr. C. O.'s fingers was found to be gashed in four different places and an autopsy exposed four cuts in the hidden recesses of the heart with these initials, M. E. F. and date.

Mr. B. B. t. was discovered to be suffering from a "nerve collapse" and was promptly sent to the hotel without further ado.

Mrs. Spaniel, the housekeeper.

The story is delightfully written and unique in that all the characters are dogs with human attributes. Mr. Airedale, the architect; Mr. Poodle, the glittering spaniel; Mr. Chihuahua, the faithful, good-natured dog, and Mr. Basset, the wealthy merchant, and Captain Scott, the devoted Captain, are all but four of the characters who Gissing meets in his search for God. In his enthusiasm to tell this interesting experience to the public, Mr. Gissing has been so taken with the story that he has almost completely forgotten the dog's name.

The story is replete with such delicate sardonic remarks and sarcasm that we see ourselves as we never saw ourselves before, insignificant brutes. Perhaps you would like to know whether you are an Airedale, an Irish terrier, a Dane, or a poodle. If you do, not miss this fantastic introduction to yourself.

We have purchased 122,000 pairs of S. S. ARMY MUNITION LAST SHOES, sizes 5 1/2 to 12, in all widths and colors, plus stock of one of the largest U. S. Government shoe contractors.

Commons Lights

At last the plans for wiring the Commons with suitable lights have begun to materialize.

Two chandeliers have been placed in the main hall in order to give the architects the idea as to what kind of fixtures will be suitable for the Commons. When well-wi-dressed chandeliers are only temporary, but when no one has seen them has been the case in the past and it is expected and hoped that, if the Commons will be completely wired with fixtures of this kind. Nothing definite, however, has been decided but the Business Administration informed us that some day this week, the University architect, Rodney Sharpe, and several other architects and personnel are to come down and inspect the lights. If they find do not favorably, the finis ishing touches will undoubtedly be added to the Commons.
