PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION, A MAP

OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE,

And part of the State of Pennsylvania, together with the soundings of the river Delaware and its bay.

AS the shoals and banks in the river and bay have undergone considerable changes, the ancient charts are inaccurate, and consequently useless—it is of great importance to the merchants of Philadelphia and other places, who navigate the Delaware, that those shoals and banks should be perfectly known; on the map therefore they shall be marked with the utmost accuracy and the soundings noted in fathoms—the soundings will be verified by the chief pilots of the Delaware and their signatures affixed.

This map shall also contain the towns, villages, and the principal places of worship, the most considerable mills and manufactories, the rivers and creeks with their best anchorages, and the places where canals have been proposed to be made, the hills and plains shall be distinguished, the chief roads, with the distances from town to town, noted.

As the State of Pennsylvania has some prospect of opening a canal from the Chesapeake to the Delaware, it is of great importance to know the best place for that purpose—the places where such a canal could be cut shall be traced, and an estimate of the cost of each submitted. A part of the Susquehanna canal in Maryland and of the Chesapeake bay, with its soundings, will be shewn.

CONDITIONS—This map shall be printed on the finest and strongest paper, and rival in elegance of engraving to any map which has hitherto been published in the United States—the price will be Three dollars to each subscriber, paid one third to be at the time of subscribing and the two thirds remaining on the delivery of the map—those who subscribe for two copies shall have their plantations or mills marked out on the map if desired, with their names—the size two by four feet—this map will be completed within one year from this date.

May 1, 1799. VARLE.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Having been acquainted for several years with Peter Charles Varle, I am fully persuaded that he is a man of integrity; and by several considerations I am induced to believe, that he is well qualified for making a valuable map of this State.

JOHN DICKENSON. Wilmington, 5th mo. 18, 1799.

The subscribers hereby inform the public, by request of Mr. Varle, that they believe him to have been regularly bred to the profession of engineer, and well qualified to execute his proposals for a map of this State, &c. He has been employed as engineer of two canals in this country; of which he has two certificates, signed by the Hon. B. Knox, late secretary of war, and Samuel Heughs, governor of the Susquehanna canal.

He has, also, taken drafts of most of our principal towns. These testimonials, we presume, are sufficient to assure the public, that he will perform his present engagement to their satisfaction.

State Papers.

The following Diplomatic Note has been distributed in Germany, by order of the Court of Vienna:

"The French directory continues to advance the most exaggerated pretensions, and the Imperial court will not suffer itself to be degraded by republicans, whose object is to humble all princes. Twenty five millions faithful and devoted subjects, the best army in Europe, and immense resources of all kinds are strong inducements to inspire the emperor with a just sense of his dignity and power. With such means, the emperor will not allow himself to be dictated to; and his example will be followed by every monarch whose throne is now threatened by innovation and anarchy. The cause of kings when united, can no longer be doubtful; but if they remain divided, their reign must soon be at an end, and Europe must be exposed to the most dreadful calamities."

Bernadotte has replied to this address in the following words:

Extract from a proclamation by Bernadotte to the people of Germany, issued from his headquarters at Manheim.

"Tyrants and their iniquitous counsellors have mistaken our patience for sleep, and our prudence for death. But nations who have reconquered their liberty are no more liable to sleep than to death.

"Germans! the hostilities which we now commence are entirely defensive. You will no longer misapprehend the odious, Machiavelism of the house of Austria. Ever dextrous in engaging you in its qurels, it would again convert a war, undertaken for its own purposes, into a war of the empire, in order to increase its own strength by exhausting yours."

"You will perceive how much it has directed against your interests its monstrous alliance with England, which supports itself only by the troubles of the continent; and with Russia, which wishes to impose upon civilized Europe the chains of Asiatic barbarism."

"Germans! The maintenance of your religion, your safety, your liberty, and the independence of your governments, which are on terms of friendship with us, enjoin the necessity of your uniting your efforts to ours to drive those conspiring hordes to their native dens.

"Your property will be held sacred. The laws of the republic punish with death those who dare to violate the asylum of the peaceful inhabitants; and they shall be religiously executed.

"United with us, Germans, in declaring war against the house of Austria, and against the barbarians of the North, who are again desirous of inundating your territory, Proclamation of the Archduke Charles. Commander in chief of the Imperial armies and those of the empire, to the Swits.

"After two victories gained over the French army, which, without any previous declaration of war, had advanced beyond its bounds, and without any declaration of war committed hostilities, and commenced attacks on all sides, the troops under my command prepare to enter the Swits territory—not for the purpose of waging war with the Swits, who are amicable disposed to us, but to pursue the common enemy, against whom you have yourselves fought with such bravery in defence of your liberty and independence; and whose superiority of numbers alone was capable of reducing you to the wretched situation, which you now so sensibly feel, and on the subject of which you have already too openly avowed your discontent. Among other means and incitements, which have hitherto been made use of to retain you in this state of dependence and tutelage, (situations have been thrown out, that the imperial and royal court entertained projects of dismemberment, or other views of this nature, with respect to Swits-land. Attempts have likewise been made to alarm you by spreading reports, that you had reason to be in dread of vexations and pillage on the part of the the imperial army.

"I deem it therefore incumbent upon me, for this reason, to declare publicly, to all the Swits, that it is the wish and intention of his imperial majesty—conformably to the assurance which he has on all occasions given to the Helvetic League, of his amicable disposition to continue, in the most active manner, their ancient amicable relations; and further, that his imperial majesty has no other view than to contribute his assistance as a friendly ally to maintain Swits-land in its independence, its integrity, its privileges, rights, and possessions, without the smallest infringement.

"On my part, I expect with confidence, that the troops under my command, whole march into the Swits territory has been occasioned by circumstances sufficiently known, and which has no other object than that solemnly manifested, viz. the common safety, will be amicably treated, and assisted by all the well disposed members of the Helvetic League, who have a heart for the good of their

The accounts from Italy by this mail do not come time enough to admit of an official detail of the action of the 5th, in which Scherer acknowledges himself to have been defeated, and in consequence of which he had been obliged to shelter himself under the walls of Mantua. An article from Nuremburgh of the 11th, mentions the report of an action on the 3d, in which the French are stated to have lost 8,000 or 12,000 men.
This report most probably originated in the action of the 5th, which we some days ago knew to have taken place, and the result of which was so favourable to the Austrian arms.
Though the foreign papers contain no details of the action of the 5th in Italy, we are happy in being able to add, that intelligence has this morning been received from Vienna by Estatette, which comprises this interesting account.—SEN.
It appears that the action was as highly favourable to the Austrians, as it was honorable to their military character, as far from waiting an attack from the enemy they actually stormed the French camp.—The enemy lost a vast number of men killed, wounded, and prisoners.
By our private letters from Hamburg of the 19th inst. we learn, that with the exception of 10,000 men, composing the garrison of Kehl, and 3,000 that of Mannheim, the French have no force on the right side of the Rhine.
The archduke had his head quarters on the 19th still at Eugen, six leagues from Scaffouse, and was making great preparation to enter Helvetia, to aid the two powerful divisions making by General Bellegarde and Hoze.
Maffena's head quarters were temporarily at Rhenau, a little way from Schaffouse, but was so embarrassed, and appeared so little certain of maintaining it, that he demanded his dismissal.
It is believed that Gen. Horze was at Rheinerk, but this was not quite certain.
The archduke had sent him a reinforcement of 15,000 men from his own army.
Our private letters add, that the Prussian ministers had quitted Rastadt, and that the French ministers were incited to establish themselves at Selz.
Twenty thousand French troops, it is said,
are to be entrusted with the defence of Kehl, which is to be attacked by 30,000 Austrians, while the archduke penetrates into Switzerland, with the main body of his army. The Austrian troops are already in possession of almost the whole of Schaffhausen, and part of the neighbouring Cantons; but they have not yet been able to cross the Rhine, as the French have removed all the bridges. It is to this quarter we have now to look for every important military operations. The first battle that takes place on the Swiss territory cannot fail to be followed by consequences of the greatest magnitude.
The Russian troops are advancing by hasty marches into Italy, where 100,000 of them, it is said, will soon be assembled; one column of Prussians were expected at Verona on the 7th.
Lord William Bentinck is going out envoy to the Russian army in Italy, whither his brother, Lord Frederick will accompany him.
Orders are issued for the immediate recall of the British troops now in Portugal, the security of that kingdom being no longer endangered by the machinations of the French directory: gen. Tarleton, and his military suite, are expected home early in the next month.
The 13th March was a melancholy day for Constantinople; almost two thirds of the country; and that the Swiss nation will carefully avoid every thing which may tend to augment the calamities of war.

“Among the happy consequences which such conduct will ensure for Switzerland, may be reckoned the suppression of those measures which have been excited by indication, of hostility and violence, together with the reestablishment of the relations of commerce, and of free communication between Germany and Switzerland.”

CHARLES, ARCHDUKE.

From Vienna we learn, that the Russians will make forced marches upon Italy. They travel to or 12 leagues a day. The second Russian army of 54,000 fighting men is arrived in the neighbourhood of Lemburg.
The corps of Condé was to reach Cracovia on the 15th of April. By the middle of June, it is said, there will be 500,000 men in Europe fighting against the French republic.—Courier.

The Court of Vienna has presented Sawarrow with a sword, valued at 25,000 ducats.

General Starray, on the 28th ult. sent from Ulm, a reinforcement of 3000 men to the archduke, on the same day reinforcements crossed the Rhine for Jourdan.

The elector of Bavaria is augmented his army from 34 to 40,000 men.

BOSTON, June 13.

Marine Narrative.

From the Log book of the brig Harmony, capt. W. Marshall.

“I sailed from Cadiz 26 March, bound to Charleston I on the 2d April, in lat. 33.
N. long. 26. W. was attacked by a French privateer sloop of 6 guns, and full of men, and engaged her in a running fight for 7 and an half hours, during which she attempted to board us four different times without success; we sustained much injury in our sails and rigging, but lost none of our crew.
April 4th was attacked by another privateer, a ship of 18 guns, and 141 men, which we fought half an hour, when I had the mortification, to see every gun, but one, on the side next the enemy, dismounted; and it being calm could not bring the other side to bear; in consequence of which I was obliged to surrender, very much against my will.
The Harmony mounted 14 cannonades, and had 26 men. Answel Crewel was wounded in this action, afterwards died at St. Cruz, where we were carried to, and the whole crew with my self put on shore. Being stripped of every thing, our situation became deplorable. Finding no American consul there, I applied to the French consul for provisions for the people, who granted us the allowance of a quarter dollar per day, for each day; but this scanty support was withdrawn after 9 days. I then applied to Mr. Culmann, our consul at Port Oratava, who arrived there the day before from Ireland, but I had not even an answer for him.
I petitioned the Spanish government in our behalf, but could draw no assistance from that quarter. The little money I had was expended; and our situation became desperate.
We therefore formed a resolution to repossess ourselves of the Harmony, as the lay moored under the muzzles of the Fort, though her top-masts were struck, and no provisions or water on board; in consequence of which it was agreed, that I should remain behind, and join the mate and crew, who were to proceed to lat. 26, and 40 leagues W. of Pera, with provisions, &c. having secured a passage for that purpose.—Accordingly, on Sunday the 28th April, 13 brave fellows embarked in the course of the day on board two American vessels then lying in the harbor, having with them all the arms I could procure, with was only two pair pistols and one sword, the rest were armed with sticks;
at 9 at night they boarded the Harmony,
secured the guard without injuring them,
bent the main-mast and top-mast, cut the cables,
and made off; they got her about 3 leagues when it fell calm; in the morning she was discovered, and attacked by a number of gun boats, and the poor fellows obliged to abandon once more the property which they wished to secure, and which they again fought for three quarters of an hour though fiercely engaged by unequal numbers, the chief mate Mr. Livingston, and nine of the hands, left the vessel, just as the Spaniards boarded her, and got off; Mr. Brown, the 2d mate, the gunner, and another man, who were in a boat towing a head were taken prisoners; the mate and people that left the vessel kept at sea as long as they could, but being pressed with hunger, were obliged to land, and were also taken prisoners.
WILLIAM MARSHALL.

Capt. Marshall, arrived in Boston, on the 9th inst. passenger on board the sch. Neptune, Capt. Mann.

It is said that the Constitution, capt. Talbot, will be ready for sea on the 20th inst.

An attempt has been made to set fire to Extract of a letter from a respectable Merchant House in Manchester, April 1.

“I have heard one of the first Cotton Merchants in this town say, this morning, that it is impossible for Cotton to maintain its price; and that it must be lower here before midsummer, as there are upwards of 7000 bags arrived within the last week.”

CIRCUIT COURT.

On Monday the 10th inst. David Brown, who had pleaded guilty to an indictment for seditious writings and practices, was sentenced by the Court to pay a fine of 400 dollars, and to eighteen months imprisonment.

CHARLESTON, May 24.

The British frigate Meicager, capt. Sir day morning; several officers belonging to her came up to town yesterday.

Five days ago, the Melleger fell in with the United States brig General Pinckney, capt. Heyward.

WILMINGTON, June 24.

For the Delaware and Eastern-Shore Advertiser.

Whilst the greater part of civilized and christian Europe, are in a state of open warfare, cutting one another's throats, and butchering each other, as some say, for God's sake;—For God's SAKE, let us, AMERICANS, endeavour to preserve union and peace, and lift up our hearts, in fervent aspiration,

PRAYER for universal PEACE.

O haste the time &c. see the ode.
O haste the time, thou prince of peace,
When war no more shall lift the shield;
But wrath, and strife, and lust of spoil,
To thee, their sanguine trophies yield.
Repulse the horrid waste of life,
Destroy the warrior's trade in blood,
And say, to all the tribes of earth
Be still and know that I AM GOD.
LORD JESUS! speed the promis'd day,
When love shall hold unbounded reign,
And union breathe the flaming word,
That hangs o'er defolation's plain.
Ah! come, ye happy moments, come,
When the whole earth shall own ONE LORD;
And thou the prince, the king of peace,
In peace, for ever be ador'd.

The Aurora of last Thursday says, “that General La Fayette may be expected to arrive in the United States in the course of the next month.”

The Rosetta, capt. Prince, has arrived at Baltimore, in 14 days from Cape Francois, with dispatches for the Executive of the United States, and about 40 prisoners.

The frigate United States, we understand, would be ready for sea yesterday. The recruits which she has lately enlisted, are mostly composed of native Americans.

The Constellation, we learn, is to proceed to New-York.

We recently stated, as we conceived on good authority, that the U. S. brig Scammel was to be commanded by Lt. Van Rensselaer. Upon better authority we now contradict that statement: as Lt. Mark Fernald is to succeed to the command of that vessel.

The United States have now ten stout frigates afloat, of from 32 to 44 guns; besides about 30 vessels of war, of from 10 to 24 guns, each.

A correspondence took place between captain Truxton and Desforneaux, a short time subsequent to the capture of the Insurgente, in which much art and chicanery was exhibited by the latter. A gentleman of eminence, on reading it, made the following remark: “to reason with such a fellow, upon such a subject, is like proving that murder is a crime.”

A little Curious.

The fast sailing sloop Prudence is up at New-York, for St. Domingo, “to sail the instant that permission is given by proclamation from the President for vessels to trade to French ports.”

FOR THE DELAWARE & EASTERN-SHORE
ADVERTISER.

A SONG.

By SAMUEL A. MATTHEWS, St. Bartholomew.

COLUMBIA, had long borne the insults of France,

Now laid by the Olive branch; drew forth her lance,

When council'd by Justice her rights to maintain,

And aid her friend Commerce who bled on the main;

Her sons the invited all true to her cause,

Step'd forth in defence of her freedom and laws:

Brave BARRY and TRUXTON directed her force Against the proud foe, and steer'd south-east their course.

To Barry and Truxton your bumpers charge high

Like sons of Columbia they'll conquer or die.

IV.

Our commodore BARRY proceeding as chief,

By Judgment directed gave Commerce relief;

Then rais'd the spread Eagle a signal to go,

In different directions in search of the foe:

The Sanjussetta view'd them at distance with dread,

Oppress'd with their fears for security fled;

Sought shelter in harbors, in havens, and ports,

And gain'd an asylum from battery's and forts:

To Barry and Truxton your bumpers charge high,

They'll seek the French navy and conquer or die.

Now Neptune enamour'd with merit so true,

Gave Truxton the famous Insurgent in view;

Though equal in force, yet the Sanjussetta shuns

The contest, and fled, from Columbia's brave Sons:

But Truxton is quick on the Insurgent bore,

And death he let loose, and her decks drench'd

with gore,

Her chief struck with horror, for quarter soon cries,

And Columbia's Eagle flew over our prize.

To Barry and Truxton your bumpers charge high,

They'll seek the French navy, and conquer or die.

ADAMS at head:

Confiding in these let defence be hurl'd,

And true to ourselves we'll give laws to the world.

To Barry and Truxton your bumpers charge high,

Like sons of Columbia they'll conquer or die.

NEW-YORK, June 18.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his friend in this city, dated April 4, '99

“Sixteen hundred pounds has been voted by the merchants at Lloyd's [exclusive of the 500 guineas before subscribed] to purchase a side board of plate, as a present to capt. Truxton, for his gallant conduct in the engagement with the Insurgente.”

Yesterday the Legion, under the command of col. Morton, paraded for the purpose of going thro' military evolutions, preparatory to the approaching Anniversary of our National Independence. They made a very handsome and martial appearance.

June 19.

Capt. King, of the Brandywine Miller, from Oporto, informs us, that since the decease of the French directory, calling in their privateers, they have, generally, carried their prizes into the small ports of Spain.
Here they refit for their cruizes. They say,

if they go into French ports, they will either be embargoed or dismantled. By this it would seem that the Spaniards, who are cooperating with France, sanction what the Directory appear to condemn.

Capt. King further informs, that the coast of Portugal swarms with French & Spanish privateers and piratical gunboats; and that all defenceless vessels that come in their way, are sure to be made prizes of.

In the afternoon of yesterday, the Pilot boat Commerce, came up from below the Hook. By her we learn, that on Monday last, the John Jay cutter, Capt. Leonard, took possession of the sch'r Maria, under Danish colors, from St. Domingo, and put a prize master on board. The Commerce boarded this sch'r on Sunday last, and as the capt. did not wish to come up, engaged the Commerce to bring down men! water! and provisions! which was complied with; but Capt. Leonard, having possession of the Maria, did not permit her to receive these supplies.

The mate of the Maria, came up in the Commerce—he tell us this story;

That some time since he sailed from Philadelphia to St. Thomas—from St. Thomas to Martinico and St. Domingo—thence to the place where she was captured. There, he laid, she was to wait for orders from the owners correspondent at New-York, and then she was to proceed to Hamburg!

The Maria is commanded by one Brown, and has one gun lashed to a mast.

June 20.

“The ship Eagle of Philadelphia, arrived here this morning, from London: sailed with convoy.”

“The British brig Montreal, with Mr.
Barclay's equipage, arrived also from Annapolis Royal and Halifax.”

“Capt. Fowler, of the sch'r Argus, from St. Bartholomews, brings an account of the great number of captures by French priva-teers, since the sailing of the last convoy.
—Among them, the sch'r Alliance, of North Yarmouth, the ship Active, of Nantucket, from the South seas, carried into St. Martins, condemned immediately, and sold for 25,000 dollars, not half her value.”

“One French privateer had taken 13 American vessels. We have heard of no Philadelphia vessels being of the number.”

CHARLESTON, June 6.

The JOHN ADAMS, the United States frigate, built by Mr. Paul Pritchard, from the subscriptions of the citizens of Charleston, was yesterday happily at 8 o'clock in the morning, introduced to her element, with a rapid but beautiful movement. She hurried from off her ways before a number of the shores and blocks could be knocked away, and while a number of workmen (nine it is said) were under her.

A profuse and elegant collation fully sufficient for 500 persons, was provided by the Committee of the subscribers, after dinner the following toasts were drank.

An excellent band of music at intervals, played favorable federal tunes.

our liberties be always ready to support it

BALTIMORE, June 18.

During the last week upwards of sixty brave Americans, were enrolled on the federal scroll by lieutenants Sterrett and Edwards, whose exertions deserve the highest eulogiums.

The rendezvous is now broke up for a while, and a detachment lieutenant Ed-wards's, marines are placed to guard the two sloops of war at falls point.

June 19.

Capt. Harris, of the sch'r Nancy, arrived on Monday, left Cape Nichola Mole May 7, by a French privateer, belonging to Jean Rabel—But was cleared in consequence of the accommodations between the government

COVERING HORSES.

THE ELEGANT HIGH-BRED IMPORTED HORSE

YOUNG FLORIZEL,

WILL cover mares this season at the subscriber's stables, near the Trap, in St. George's hundred, Newcastlle county, Delaware state, at TWELVE DOLLARS the season; which will end the 20th of August: Seven Dollars the single leap; Twenty Dollars a full colt; and Five Shillings to the Groom.

FLORIZEL was bred in England, by the Duke of Bedford, and lately imported by Mr. Hellen, at the Federal City. He is remarkable for strength, figure and activity; 16 hands high, is a beautiful dappled bay, 7 years old this spring, and his stock are equal, if not superior, to any horse in England, for their racing powers. FLORIZEL was got by the noted Florizel, out of a brown mare, by Alfred; his dam Fairy-Queen, by Young Cade; grand-dam, Routh's Black-Eyes, by Crab, out of Warlock Galloway, by Snake.

It is thought unnecessary to say more about this horse, as he will show for himself. A more particular account may be had by applying to the subscriber.

WILLIAM FRAZER.

N. B. Red clover pasture for mares from a distance at 3s. 6d. per week; great care taken of them, but cannot be accountable for accidents. Any person having heretofore put mares to any of the subscriber's horses, and had no colts, by sending back again, shall have them at half price.

April 10.

04 14

THE YOUNG HORSE

AMBASSADOR,

WILL stand at the stable of the subscriber, about three miles below Newcastle, on the plantation formerly of Thomas Moore, deceased, and will let to mares the ensuing season from the first of April to the first of August next, at SEVEN DOLLARS for each mare, the season, and One-fourth of a Dollar to the Groom; Four Dollars the single leap, and Twelve Dollars a full colt.

AMBASSADOR is a beautiful bright bay, with a star and snip, remarkably strong and active, carries lofty and moves well.

He was got by Mr. Brierton's noted covering horse CUB, whose pedigree and character as a foal-getter is so well known, that it is unnecessary here to enumerate them; his dam was got by the imported hunting horse Ambassadour; his grand-dam by Northumberland, and his great grand-dam by Paolot.

Good pasture will be provided for mares that may come from a distance, and all necessary care and attention given; but will not be liable for accidents or escapes.

WILLIAM DUSHANE.

March 26.

500 1st Aug.

CONQUEROR,

Imported, August last, from ENGLAND Will COVER at my Stables, in Wilmington, At Twelve Dollars the Season, and One Dollar to the Groom.

THIS fine large beautiful bay horse is 16 1-2 hands high, finely marked with star, snip, and white hind feet. He was got by Eagle, of a hunting mare, the property of the late Lord Sondes, whose dam was Hubbard's Old Pagan, and grand dam by Jenkin's horse, Ufful Cob. Eagle was bred by Sir John Skilly, whose sire was the famous Eclipse. If figure, colour, marks, beauty, gait, temper, and size, are the great objects of a breeder of horses, this valuable horse has all those qualifications in great perfection, and no doubt will be a valuable improvement to our present breed of this useful animal.

Good pasture provided for mares, and a discount will be made for the cash; but is expected that the owners of mares, to whom it is not convenient to pay cash, will give their notes, payable in four months from the date of covering. The subscriber cannot be liable for accidents or escapes.

DAVID BRINTON.

THE LATE IMPORTED HIGH-BRED HORSE

P U N C H,

WILL COVER MARES this season, at William Powers's, Crane-Hook, near Wilmington, state of Delaware, at TWENTY DOLLARS each, and One Dollar to the Groom.

PUNCH was bred by Lord Sherburne, and got by King Herod, which was the sire of the Prince of Wales's Racing-horse, and Mr. Tatton's Highflyer; his dam by Old Mark. Mark was the sire of the noted horse Eclipse, and the best runner in England; so that the blood of Eclipse and Highflyer is centered in Punch, which horses were never beat—his grand-dam by Lord Cullen's Arabian; great grand-dam by Regulus, out of Ruff's Black-Eyes. Black-Eyes was got by Crab, out of the Warlock Galloway. He was purchased by Sir John Lud when rising four years old, for one thousand guineas, who named him Punch. When three years old he ran in the name of Lord Sherburne's chestnut colt; which may be seen in the racing calendar.

In 1784, when four years old, Punch won a match at Newmarket of 300 guineas, each, beating a colt of Lord Baringdon's, and gaining 3lb. He won the plate at Lambourn, and another at Gloucester; and afterwards won two matches at Newmarket.

In 1785, he won the plate at Oxford, beating Colonel O'Kelly's General, who won the gold cup that year, and Mr. Tumb's Terraco. He won the plate at Barford, beating Wilbecham, Mountebank, and General; and the plate at Lambourn, on five heats, beating Copperbottom, and three others.

In 1786, he won a sweepstake of 50 guineas each, at Winchester, beating Portman Eggham, and several others; and a sweepstake of 30 guineas each, at Stockbridge, beating Sergeant, Miss Kingsland, and several others.

N. B. Good grass for mares, and every proper attention paid them, but not liable for accidents or escapes; and every attention will be paid to prevent either.
